Regarding the subject of Economic Criminal Law:

a) for the preparation of each session, the student must previously read the material recommended for this purpose, which will be available on the virtual campus.

b) The classes:

- will begin with a synthetic exposition of the subject by the lecturer.
- During the presentation, or at the end of it, the doubts on the subject treated will be clarified.
- The solution of specific case studies will then be discussed.

- The last half hour of class will be devoted to conducting a short test (via virtual campus / questionnaires) to check and evaluate the knowledge acquired during the session, and will be discussed below.

c) During the course, each student must solve a case study.

When it comes to Commercial Litigation Practice, the professor in charge of each on line group will plan the beginning of the course for the theoretical sessions and the most practical sessions on the development of discussion seminars and resolution of practical cases.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous Assessment Activities

Title	Weighting	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Assignments	20%	20	0.8	5, 1, 2, 4, 6, 3, 7, 8
Exercises in class	30%	67.5	2.7	3
Theory and practical tests	50%	4	0.16	1, 4, 6, 3, 7

The final mark will be awarded according to the following criteria in Economic Criminal Law:

Exam (50%): March, 11 th

Test: 20 questions, with 4 possible answers, only one correct, without penalty for incorrect or unanswered questions.

Continuous assessment (50%)

a) course test (30%): each session

b) case presentation in class (20%).

In Commercial Litigation Practice, The evaluation of the subject will be carried out on the basis of a development exam that may consist of solving practical cases and / or answering questions on program subjects, according to the criteria of evaluation of the docent guide.

Common points for the evaluation and reevaluation of both subjects:

Once the evaluation has been communicated, a review may be requested so that the Professor explains to the student the applied criteria (art. 114.3 UAB academic regulations), without prejudice to the student's rights to challenge the grade.

The date of the final exam of the subject is scheduled in the exam calendar of the Faculty.

The scheduling of the evaluation tests cannot be modified, unless there is an exceptional and duly justified reason why an evaluation act cannot be carried out. In this case, the people responsible for the degrees, after consulting the teachers and the affected students, will propose a new schedule within the corresponding school period (art. 115.1 Calendar of evaluation activities, UAB Academic Regulations)

To pass the course, the student must have participated in the three evaluation activities and have obtained at least a 3.5 in the final exam. To take the final exam, it is necessary to prove attendance to 90% of the classes.

Only the reevaluation of the test is possible (50%). The continuous assessment activities cannot be reevaluated, since their meaning is to check the knowledge progressively acquired throughout the course, notwithstanding that in case of illness or other eventualities an alternative solution may be found for the specifically affected student.

To retake the exam, student must have obtained at least a 3 in each of the three evaluation activities. Students who take the reevaluation exam may obtain a maximum grade of 7 in the subject.
