Artistic creation: the processes of artistic creation will begin in the workshop (seminars) and can be followed autonomously in other spaces: nature, library, ...

Visit to an art exhibition, it will be decided at the beginning of the subject and will depend on the exhibitions that are scheduled in Barcelona at this time. The student will have to go on his / her own and make the payment of the ticket, if applicable.

Lectures

Presentations by teachers of the contents and basic questions of the syllabus. They will be done with the whole group.

There will be debates on issues in the area.

During the course, an interdisciplinary project will be carried out between MUSIC AND VISUAL, which will consist of preparing a story that will be explained to the children of the Bellaterra School.

The day of the presentation will start the class at 14:00.

Seminars

Art practice: small group work spaces (maximum 25 students) supervised by the teachers where proposals specific to the area will be made: individually and in groups. It delves into the contents and topics worked on in the large (virtual) group.

VISUAL is planning an outing to the MNAC.

Supervised activities

Individual or small group tutorials to follow the proposals (face-to-face or virtual).

Design of an educational intervention.

SPECIFIC MATERIAL FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF ACTIVITIES

The sessions of this course are based on research and experimentation with materials by students, which requires an investigation based on image documentation and of the recycling of materials for art education. Moreover, the methodology adopted requires for a good development that students bring to the classroom specialised materials for the developing of art activities (brushes and paints, among others).

*Teachers will recommend the most suitable material for planned activities, which will have a sustainable cost and can be shared among students. We will search for mechanisms to ensure that the student can have it in case you do not have the necessary resources.

Regarding the materials that will be used during the subject in the workshop sessions, priority will be given to natural elements and recycled materials.

Annotation: within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

There will be a continuous assessment; class attendance is recommended as these are very experimental sessions, difficult to recover (material, space, tools, ...) and to explain.

Throughout the course there will be two deliveries of works:

- The first delivery will be, in early April (during the first week);

The second submission will take place during the last week of May. This submission will be accompanied by a final website; both the content and the presentation will be assessed.

The reassessment for students who have not passed the previous activities is scheduled for the first week of June. The recovery tasks will be agreed with the lecturer during the grade review session and will consist of improving the parts of the website or portfolio that have not been passed. The student will have one week to complete them and submit them again.

The teacher will specify the assignments to be delivered, the format and the exact date of delivery. The return of the works and activities will be in a period not exceeding 20 days after the delivery date.

We will also evaluate the competences on teamwork and cooperative work, as well as the assesement will be gender-sensitive.

To pass this course, the student should demonstrate a good general communicative competence, both orally and in writing and a good knowledge of the language and vehicual languages reflected in the syllabus.

It will be necessary to show as an essential requirement, aptitudes and attitudes compatible with the educational profession, such as: active listening, responsibility, respect, active participation, cooperation, empathy, kindness, punctuality, non-judgmental, arguing, proper use of electronic devices (mobile, computer, etc.) and critical thinking. There will be necessary behaviors that favor a friendly and positive environment in the classroom, with a democratic functioning and where the differences are respected and valued.

The unique evaluation will consist of the release of all evidence on June 4th. The recovery date for the single evaluation will be the same as that for the continuous evaluation (15th of June).

The maximum grade for the recovery will be a 5. The lack of evidence in the portfolio and the two artistic practices represents a non-assessable..

USE OF AI. Permitted use: In this subject, the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies is allowed as an integral part of the development of the work, as long as the final result reflects a significant contribution of the student in the analysis and personal reflection. The student will have to clearly identify which parts have been generated with this technology, specify the tools used and include a critical reflection on how these have influenced the process and the final outcome of the activity. Non-transparency of the use of AI will be considered as academic dishonesty and may lead to a penalty in the grade of the activity, or higher penalties in serious cases.

It should be borne in mind that the use of artificial intelligence (AI) involves significant energy consumption. For this reason, it is essential to promote responsible and efficient use of AI in education, prioritising applications that have a positive impact. It is also necessary to avoid unnecessary use in order to minimise the environmental impact and to preserve respect for the uniqueness of each person's critical thinking and narrative capacity.

The teacher may decide to give oral and/or written tests to those students who fail the subject or who have to complete the proposed evaluation evidences. Plagiarism may be considered grounds for failing the course.
