

Activity: Reflections from the module

1. Select one of the case studies presented in this module and reflect on at least three aspects that you found interesting and why.
2. If you could choose an African country, period, and topic to begin a research project, what would it be? Reflect on the different phases and methods you would use to obtain your results.