

Module 3: Heritage Management

Module presentation and learning objectives

Coordinator: Sofia Fonseca, Teiduma, Consultancy on Heritage and Culture

Presentation:

---

This module, you will gain an understanding of the concept of heritage in Africa and its inherent value.

The course will teach you how to use heritage as a tool for local development, specifically in the context of sustainable and responsible tourism. You will also explore the management of heritage in Namibia and learn about the Daureb Mountain Guides, who provide an example of heritage management by local communities. Finally, you will discover the work of the German Archaeological Institute (DAI) and ICArEHB in Africa.

Learning objectives:

---

1. Gain an understanding of the concept of Heritage in Africa and its significance.
2. Learn how Heritage can be used as a tool for Local Development through Sustainable and Responsible Tourism. Understand the Heritage Management practices in Namibia and the role of local communities, using the Daureb Mountain Guides as an example.
3. Gain knowledge on the German Archaeological Institute (DAI) and ICArEHB and their contributions to African heritage and archaeology. Analyze the importance of community involvement in Heritage Management for sustainable development.