

Module 5: Linguistic Diversity, Creativity and Social Transformation

Presentation of cases in which linguistic diversity is managed as a tool for creation, selfknowledge, elevation of democratic quality and transformation of human life.

Learning objectives:

1. Explore different opportunities for creation and innovation that linguistic diversity offers.
2. Understand different options for recognizing and valuing linguistic diversity from a personal to a global perspective.
3. Analyze the challenges posed by translation and digitization for linguistic diversity.