

Module 4: Language Revitalization

Lesson 8:

Communities Enhancing Languages

by Katjuscia Mattu

The Experience of Sami Language Revitalization

by Marja-Liisa Olthuis

Maintaining Balinese through BASABali Wiki

by Ni Nyoman Clara Listya Dewi

Recommended readings and on-line resources

Olthuis, M.L., Kivelä, S. & Skutnabb-Kangas, T. (2013). Revitalising Indigenous Languages: How to Recreate a Lost Generation. Bristol, Buffalo, Toronto: Multilingual Matters

Marja-Liisa Olthuis is the winner of the Linguapax International Award 2020, Linguapax.org (21 February 2020): <https://www.linguapax.org/en/marja-liisa-olthuis-is-the-winner-of-thelinguapax-international-award-2020/>

BASAbali wins the International Linguapax Award 2018. Linguapax (21 February 2018) <https://www.linguapax.org/en/basabali-wins-the-international-linguapax-award-2018/>

Balinese-Indonesian-English Wiki Dictionary:
<https://dictionary.basabali.org/Dictionary>

Balinese language podcast: <https://bit.ly/3jtjavy>

Comic books featuring the new Indonesian superhero, Luh Ayu Manik Mas, a superhero who promotes the sustainable development goals. Each book is written in Balinese, Indonesian and English: <https://bit.ly/3l1VoA>

Software to learn Balinese with either an English or an Indonesian interface:
<https://basabali.org/flashcards/>

This wiki is helping to keep the Balinese language alive in Indonesia, Association for Progressive Communication (27 November 2018):
<https://www.apc.org/en/blog/wiki-helping-keepbalinese-language-alive-indonesia>