

Module 2: Languages and territories of Origin

Language communities in territories of origin. Geographical and historical panorama of linguistic diversity in the different territories with references to revitalization practices.

Learning objectives:

1. Explore the different forms of linguistic diversity and multilingualism.
2. Know specific cases of linguistic diversity and multilingualism.
3. Understand the diversity of relations between communities and languages, and the implications of language policies on them.