

This course offers a wide panorama of linguistic diversity. It deals with aspects related to the conceptual and legal frameworks and explores different fields in which linguistic diversity matters, diverse perspectives to approach the issue and questions that arise.

It also presents practices of language revitalization, promotion of multilingualism, and innovative and creative enterprises dealing with linguistic diversity.

It is oriented to help understand and manage various contexts that emerge from linguistic diversity in different environments of social interaction.

Finally, it intends to create a community of linguistic diversity promoters who share ideas and experiences to constantly broaden their horizons.

Learning objectives:

1. Get familiar with the main concepts and ideas on linguistic diversity, multilingualism and language revitalization;
2. Discover practices of language revitalización and promotion of multilingualism and examples of innovative and creative enterprises dealing with linguistic diversity;
3. Understand the implications of linguistic diversity in different areas (mentality, education, politics, social relations and the digital world);
4. Explore various approaches, programs and policies for the management, defence and promotion of linguistic diversity;
5. Enjoy the sound experience of a variety of languages;
6. Share knowledge, ideas, experiences, doubts and approaches about the topics of the course;
7. Present a new case of linguistic diversity, analyze and discuss it from a critical and original perspective and describe it in a creative way.