Ressenyes de premsa:

"Seguint la tanda de beneficis, se celebrarà demà al Principal el del notable actor genèric Lluís Puiggarí.

L'obra de cos de la vetllada serà El malalt imaginari de Molière, que amb tanta metria interpreta en Puiggarí, fent-ne una veritable creació.

Además, s'estrenarà el quadro còmic-líric Joves i vells del nostre estimat col·laborador Enric de Fuentes, amb música del Mtre. Ferrer.

Això acaba de donar atractiu a la vetllada, puig se tracta d'una obra que, amb tot i figurar en un dels llibres de l'autor, no ha estat representada mai."

La Veu de Catalunya 2898 (10/05/1907), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"Anit va ser la funció de benefici del distingit actor d'aquet teatre senyor Puiggarí. Amb molt bon acert va triar per a aquesta vetlla la preciosa comèdia de Molière El malalt imaginari en la que amb tanta destresa llueix el beneficiat les seves facultats, i la peça en un acte del distingit literal don Enric de Fuentes.

El senyor Fuentes no ha volgut fer una obra de pretensions, però amb Joves i vells ha demostrat tenir per al teatre facultats que prou voldrien molts dels que hi cerquen no nom. La peça estrenada anit és una joguina, fresca, moguda, xistosa i de bon gust; d'un gust exquisit. Un taller d'artistes, d'aquests tallers de terrat a on s'hi aplega el bon humor i la misèria. Aquest és el quadro que se sosté durant tot l'acte, aguantant sempre l'interès de l'espectador. L'argument o la finalitat que de l'acció ne vol treure l'autor, sintetitzada en el títol de Joves i vells, és lo de menys per a la fruïció de l'espectador, puig aquesta és produïda per les continues situacions ara gracioses, algun cop sentimentals en les que s'hi dibuixen de mà artista observador els personatges.

Els autors varen ser cridats al final a rebre els aplausos entre els artistes, però ni l'un ni l'altre se trobaven a l'escenari. El públic, que era nombrós i selecte, demostrant les simpaties amb què compta el beneficiat, va aplaudir el treball dels actors tant en la comèdia d'en Molière com en la peça d'en Fuentes."

"Vostès ja el coneixen a l'Enric de Fuentes. És un jove —relatiu— que sap escriure més que Judes, donant a lo que escriu més interès del que solen cobrar certs prestamistes al infeliç que cau a les mans llurs.

Doncs bé: L'Enric de Fuentes una vegada va escriure una comèdia en un acte. I perquè no li va lleure, o perquè no li va donar la gana o perquè en Ramón Lloselles li va aconsellar, no va fer cap pas perquè la comèdia s'estrenés. L'únic que va fer va ser inclòure-la en un dels volums que sol publicar de tant en tant. I l'obreta va romandre al volum i allí s'hauria estat potser tota la vida, si en Puiggarí del Principal, amb motiu del seu benefici, no hagués tingut la pensada de desenterrar-la del llibre i enfilar-la a les taules, arranjant-ho de tal manera que fins va trobar un músic anomenat Ferrer que, amb poc menys d'unes quantes hores li va arranjar uns trossos de música escaienta i entre ells una americana d'ansia Manela que fa venir ganes de voltar-la.

I mirin: va ser bona la pensada d'en Puiggarí, perquè la comedieta Joves i vells, dintre el gènere de comèdia de tipos, és una delícia per l'observació, pel caràcter, per les situacions còmiques i fins per l'ambient que ho enronda tot. Jo hi vaig passar una estona molt divertida i vaig sortir del teatre amb ganes de tornar-hi.

Per la seva banda, els comediants varen interpretar l'obra amb gran amor, circumstància que, quan va acompanyada de talent artístic, pot fer meravelles. Anem a dir que els papers principals els feien la Morera, la Baró, en Puiggarí i en Santpere, lo qual vol dir que la comèdia ja tenia molt de guanyat. Els altres varen ser ben aguantats per la Paricio, en Tor i en Balot.

Res: que va anar molt bé i que és molt fàcil que en Ramon Llosellas iniciï llista per a obsequiar amb un present a l'amic Fuentes amb motiu de la seva entrada al teatre. I ve'ls-hi aquí que ara ja tindria tota la feina llesta, si no fos una colla de joves que fan Íntim als Propietaris de Gràcia, començant avui baix la entesa batuta d'en Gual. Vostès preguntaran: Què n'has de dir d'aquets íntims si no comencen fins avui? Homes! Haig de dir que en tinc molt bones notícies i que sembla que tot anirà molt bé, amb molt entusiasme i molt públic i tot lo que fa falta. Amen.

"Joves i vells. Quadro còmic-líric de D. Enric de Fuentes, amb música del mestre Ferrer. Una obreta simpàtica, honesta i culta. La música resulta molt agradable, havent-se hagut de repetir una havanera que cantaren molt bé la Srta. Baró i el Sr. Santpere."

L'Esquella de la Torratxa 1481 (17/05/1907), p. 327.

"Joves i vells.— Quadro còmic-líric en un acte escrit per Enric de Fuentes, música del Mtre. Ferrer.

Escriptors pulcres i estilistes com Enric de Fuentes manquen en nostre teatre, per això experimentàrem sensació d'alegria al saber que el simpàtic actor Sr. Puiggarí va escollir per al dia de son benefici aquest quadro que l'autor tenia ja escrit de temps i publicat junt amb altres treballs en un volum de coses seves.

Tenint en compte que l'obra no fou escrita amb vistes al teatre, sinó purament com a treball literari, és de reconèixer grans condicions en son autor, que, de voler, podria omplir un buit que de sempre s'ha notat en l'Escena catalana, escrivint obres de casa, amb assumptos completament originals i de costures barcelonines, sense artificis de versificació, amb prosa de la seva, literària, al ensems que popular i genuïna

El teatre que ens llegà en Vilanova i el que conreu a en Ramón satisfan en part aquestes necessitats, i diem en part, perquè aquests dos populars i celebrats autors sols han portar a escena assumptos d'una mateixa naturalesa; en Vilanova, sos quadros vulgars, de gent baixa, i en Ramón sos sainets de costures vilatanes; cap d'ells ens ha mostrar, en ses habilitats, els tipos de ciutat, gent menestrala i senyors si ve al cas, amb escenes de costums barcelonines, que gràcies a Déu, no ens en manquen i poden inspirar no a un autor sinó a tots aquells que a l'escriure peces pel teatre català s'entretenen desarreglant originals francesos o bé estergint els sainets castellans quina procedència és també estrangera.

Cada dia se sent mes la necessitat de autors originals que sàpiguen escriure, per això avui al descobrir les condicions del celebrat prosista autor de Joves i vells, creiem trobar en ell pasta suficient per a fer-ne un gran saineter, únic en son gènere i que podria formar bona renglera de deixebles en sa escola de pensador i moralista per excel·lència.

Aquestes consideracions ens hem fet després d'haver escoltat el quadro de referència, que conté una bona col·lecció de xistos espontanis i de bona llei, intercalats en escenes còmiques d'una naturalitat encisadora, quins personatges senten i parlen a l'estil català, sense frases rebuscades ni grolleries de castellanismes.

Molt estimaríem que l'Enric de Fuentes tingués en compte nostre consell, per bé d'ell mateix i de tots els aimants del teatre de la terra.

L'actor Santpere, que és un còmic d'excel·lents qualitats, encarna el seu tipo d'humorista bohemi d'una manera meravellosa. De la cèlebre Morera, no cal parlar-ne, estigué sublim en el tipo d'anciana, i la Baró i en Puiggarí representaren sos papers amb la maestria que els és proverbial, arrodonint el conjunt, que, amb l'ajuda de la Paricio i en Balot, fou celebrat per tots els espectadors.

Respecte a la part musical, debem justificar que lo que tocaren ens va agradar, però que donades las condicions del quadro, hi és de massa, notant-se que els pocs números que s'han escrit hi són enganxats perquè sí, sense motiu justificat, exceptuant l'americana dels ceguets que va merèixer els honors de la repetició."

La Escena catalana 33 (18/05/1907), p. 2.

"Ara sí que ja som al fons del sac i no tenim més remei que aprofitar les engrunes. El Principal se tanca un d'aquests dies, i no crec que Romea tiri gaire més enllà.

I passa lo de la majoria dels anys; és a dir, passa que ara s'estrenen a correcuita una pila de cosetes que havien esperat tanda durant mesos, i que troben ocasió de sortir a la llum dels beneficis.

Al Principal, on han seguit fent-ne durant la setmana, potser s'hauran estrenat més produccions dintre la tongada de Pasqua a Pasqua que dintre els mesos que van de l'entrada de tardor a la Setmana Santa. I val a dir que algunes de les coses estrenades en beneficis poden ser considerades com a ben dignes d'atenció.

Sense anar més lluny, tenim Joves i vells, de l'Enric de Fuentes. Aquesta obreta havia estat enclosa per l'autor en un dels seus volums, com un intent de literatura escènica sense conseqüències. Però l'actor Puiggarí, que és força curiós de literatura, va tenir la pensada d'intentar la representació de Joves i vells i va realitzar-la amb motiu del seu benefici. I cal confessar que la provatura va sortir be, puix la comedieta és un suggestiu quadro de costums del món artístic. Potser hi manca, filant prim, una faula ben tramada, que lligui fortament les escenes; però malgrat això, aquestes interessen. Ja ho crec que sí! Interessen perquè hi ha veritat, fermesa de dibuix, caràcter, situacions delicioses. Personatges i ambient tenen un color de realitat pintoresca que enamora. I els actors —la Morera, la Baró, en Puiggarí, en Santpere, la Paricio— varen saber-lo accentuar d'una manera artística, aqueix color. [...]

Inici de temporada

“Per l’art

Tan punt s’obri la temporada mística-teatral-catalanera del teatre Principal un redactor d’El descamisado anirà a les representacions, perquè ja és hora que parin d’embaucar la gent i corrompre l’ambient amb un alo d’idiotisme i misèria artística que és una deshonra per Barcelona.

El teatre Principal s’ha convertit en una petita Universitat de Deusto a on les representacions tenen el segell d’una decadència afemellada. Per això s’hi veurà sempre tants capellans, sobre tot els de babero. No li diguin teatre, diguin-li societat catòlica i demanin la censura eclesiàstica.

Nosaltres hi anirem i prepareu-vos, mercantilistes de l’art, castradors de la intel·ligència. Prepareu-vos!”

“Per aquest any el teatre foraster va donant-nos ben poc tema, puix tot lo estrenat des de començament de temporada per les companyies no catalanes és cosa insignificant i, en general, renyida amb l’art i amb la bona fe... Tot lo més art industrial de baixa mà. Afortunadament sembla que en el gènere ínfim comença a iniciar-se com un esgotament... Els autors a copia d’anar avall, han arribat al fons de tot de la bestiesa i ara sembla que vagin desorientats, no sabent com fer-ho per a subjugar al públic, atret pels cinematògrafs i altres espectacles per l’estil.

En quanta teatre català la impressió ja és més optimista. A Romea hi hem tingut Arrels mortes, que és una obra digna de ser senyalada dintre una temporada teatral. En el gènere líric ens ha donat en Graner en els seus Espectacles-Audicions la Nit de Reis de l’Apel·les Mestres i en Morera, que constitueix una de les produccions més arrodonides dintre el seu gènere. Fins ara, doncs, la temporada es presenta bé i podem esperar que el balanç serà satisfactori, puix encara han d’estrenar els autors en què més confien les empreses: Guimerà, Iglésias, Crehuet, Rusiñol...

Del primer hi ha al Principal en cartera un parell d'obres líriques: La santa espina i El cavaller Sant Jordi. D'en Crehuet hi ha a Romea a punt d'estrenar El mestre, qual música acaba de deixar enllestida en Morera. Per lo que es veu, les empreses de teatre català no s'adormen. [...]"

Abonaments als Thés d'hivern

"Ayer se inauguraron los thés de invierno asistiendo distinguidas familias entre las cuales vimos a las de Sanz Selma, Puig i Mir, Oller, Rocamora, Rosés, Canal, Peray, Amat, Sanllehy, Cuadres, Ronny, Alegret, Regàs, Giralt, Font, Catasús, Rosal, Sicart, Sicars, Demestre, Mora, Puig Martí, Caparà, Doncel, Codorniu, Bordas, Güell, Bertran i Musitu, Nadal, Borell, Bosch i Alsina, Masó i Golferichs, Martí i Beya, Oliva, Albiñana."

La Publicidad 3834 (14/11/1906), ed. nit, p. 2.

"La comissió organitzadora dels Thés d'hivern, vist el gran nombre de peticions rebudes per part de persones que desitjarien abonar-se als últims d'aquesta primera sèrie, ha resolt obrir dos nous abonaments suplementaris del primer, per a dos i per a tres de les esmentades festes.

"Molt escollida concurrència assistí el dimecres al primer «Thé d'hivern» en qual vetllada es representà La reina del cor, i foren molts aplaudits en la part del concert la Srta. Viola i el Sr. Puiggener."

La Escena catalana 7 (17/11/1906), p. 4.

"Els thés d'hivern. El quart i últim de la tongada dels Thés d'hivern que es va donar ahir al teatre Principal va ser coronat per l'èxit més falaguer. La platea i salons del teatre presentaven un aspecte brillantíssim; lo bo i millor de Barcelona s'hi va donar cita i l'animació natural de la joventut realçada per les etiquetes masculines i les femenines toilettes donaven a la festa un moviment i un color ben allunyat de les heratiquitats de les festes públiques senyorils de la nostra ciutat.

Per altra part, tant l'orquestra del teatre com la companyia que hi actuà varen contribuir poderosament a l'èxit del darrer thé. La nena Vendrell en el seu paper de l'obreta Innocència que es va representar va tenir un èxit franc i afectuós, del qual els altres artistes se n'endugueren també la seva part.

A què citar noms de famílies assistents? Amb tot la ploma no es pot estar sense posar-ne alguns tot demanant dispensa pels que sap omitirà forçosament:

Alvarez, Carulla, Nadal, Codorniu, Julià, Viuda Soler, Trunyó, Canal, Sivatte, de Sala, Trias, Vilaregut, Cunill, Oller, Docampo, Catasús, de Velez, Tey, Puiggrós, Tubau, Pijoan, Pons, Ferrer, Oms, Amat, Oller, Sagnier, Carreras, Macaya, Juamandreu, Gay de Montellà, Viuda Sanz Selma, Schwarz, Puigmartí, August Font, Miquelerana, Caralt, Viuda Massó, Muntades, Casades, Carsi, Montobio, Peray, Delàs, Subirana, Beya, Rosés, Rocamora, Deltabull, Quer Boule, Güell i Bascigalupi, Sitjà, Pella i Forgas, comte de Sicar, Albiñana, Nadal, Bosch i Alsina, baró de Cuadras, Viuda de Böhny, Duran i Ventosa, Doncel, Yerovi, baronessa de Vilagaya, Gallart, Caparà, Julià, Viuda Fiol, Casas Carbó, Jevard de Bordas, Viuda Ripol, Valentí, Borrell, Garriga, Pasqual Coll, Ortiz de Tàrrega, Vicens Ferrer, Viuda Mercader, Puig, Alegret, Giralt, i Sicars.

No n'hi ha prou? No, però no en recordem més."

Anuncis de les sales de Graner

"NACIONALISTES! Afavoriu als que donen proves de l'existensa de nostra llengua.

CASES RECOMANABLES

Lluís Graner.— Teatre Principal. Barcelona.

Sala Mercè.— Rambla Estudis. Barcelona."

La Tralla 140 (02/11/1906), p. 4.

"A la Rambla dels Estudis, davant de la sala Mercè, hi ha posat un hermós fanal anunciador dels espectacles Graner. Consta d'un peu dret rematat amb una gran tarja, la qual queda il·luminada per tres precioses tulipes. L'estil decoratiu crida l'atenció per lo atrevit i nou, separant-se de tot lo vist fins ara. El material, que és ferro, ha sigut treballat a consciència, i el conjunt resulta tan vistós que ahir, primer dia de funcionar, no passava ningú que no s'hi aturés."

“Cossos vius i ascos nous

El espíritu snobista y sobre todo utilitario de las gentes que reniegan de España, porque según ellos no está europeizada, no perdona medio de exteriorizarse.

En la actualidad está dando el teatro Principal prueba de sus afanes de singularidad catalanista exhibiendo una película del célebre Dr. Doyen que proyecta Operacions sobre cossos vius. Está pel·lícula resulta una mina, y la gente se atropella por ver en el cinematógrafo cómo hace cuartos un doctor el cuerpo de un semejante nuestro.

De no verlo no lo creeríamos, pues el espectáculo resultará muy científico para médicos y estudiantes de medicina, pero para los que no lo son es sencillamente espeluznante y, sobre todo, impropio de ser exhibido en público.

Así se explica que muchas señoras y algunos señores sufran desmayos y se haya visto la empresa obligada a instalar un gabinete médico donde se presta auxilio a los que enferman. […] De seguir así la próxima pel·lícula emocionante reproducirá una ejecución de pena capital, y así por una peseta podremos ver cómo funciona la guillotina in anima vilis.

Menos mal que nos europeizaremos, ¿no es verdad, señor Graner? ¿Y para esto hablan tantos periódicos solidarios de espectáculos impropios de Barcelona? ¿Por qué no se da usted una vueltecita, señor Ossorio, por el teatro Principal?

Vaya, vaya, y hará ganas de comer; aquello es un gran aperitivo para los gobernadores que tienen pocas ganas de… cumplir con su deber.”

Concerts al teatre Principal

“Wanda Landowska

"En un concierto especial presentose al público la Srta. Júlia Sicard, primer premio del conservatorio del Liceo de Barcelona, quien recientemente dio un concierto en París en la sala Erard, dando ocasión a la prensa parisién para que le tributara elogios.

A la vista tuvimos fragmentos de Le Gaulois, Le Figaro, el Echo de Paris y Le Matin, todos encomiásticos de la joven y distinguida profesora de piano, que tiene sobradas disposiciones para ser una concertista cuando, venciendo sus nervios, da todo el aplomo y valor a las piezas del importante programa que ejecutó, del cual llamó la atención el nocturno en Re ♭ y la berceuse 57 de Chopin, como el Murmurio del viento de Sauer y la pieza que toca después del programa.

Escusado es decir que conquistó grandes aplausos."

"Concerts de Quaresma al teatre Principal

Primer concert, 2 de març de 1907

[...] Decididament les cançons populars tenen encisat al públic, que les escolta amb delectació i no es cansa d'aplaudir-les. De les que figuren en la primera part tingueren de repetir-se la Cançó de Nadal, La filadora, Plany i La mala nova. Aquestes darreres se feien encara més atractívoles perquè l'Orfeó Català les executava per primera vegada. El Plany, la deliciosa melodia tan bellament harmonitzada per en Morera, és prou coneguda, i això ens dispensa de parlar-ne extensament. Molt menys coneguda, quasi desconeguda podríem dir, es La mala nova, una de les harmonitzacions més característiques del mateix autor. Tota l'alegria esbojarrada de la tonada popular l'accentua i la glosa en Morera amb traça plena d'originalitat, resultant un conjunt vigorosament cantellut, ple de vida i color. El noi de la mare, la superba glosa d'en Nicolau, s'hauria tingut de repetir també pera complaure al públic; emperò era precís economitzar les torces del cor, perquè la tasca a complir era ben feixuga en la segona y tercera part.

Omplenava la segona el motet de Bach *Jesús, joia mev*a (Jesu, meine Freude). [...] [Es fa un comentari descriptiu de les característiques musicals de l'obra]. El públic escoltà l'obra del gran Joan Sebastià Bach amb veritable recolliment, amb aquella emoció que escurça l'alè i paralitza els moviments. Alguns dels oients, els més impressionables, no podien contenir el seu entusiasme i bateren de mans al finalitzar algun dels fragments; però una sobtada i expressiva protesta de la majoria del públic els aquietava, els reduïa al silenci: l'obra tenia de desenrotllar-se amb tota sa majestuositat, sense cap soroll intempestiu que torbés el seu encís. Aquesta demostració de seny en el nostre públic diu molt a favor seu. A l'acabar-se el motet, al fondre's el darrer acord del coral final, un tro d'aplaudiments esclatà. L'obra havia estat compresa, i el gran cantor de Leipzig havia triomfat una vegada més.

Començava la tercera part amb el motet Hodie Christus natus est, d'en Nanini, d'hermosa factura, que potser la proximitat del motet de Bach feu empal·lidir un xic. En canvi Captant, d'en Nicolau, brillà amb un esclat tan gran que el mestre tingué d'ésser portat quasi a la força a presència del públic, que el cridava insistentment per a ovacionar-lo.

Segon concert, 16 de març de 1907

[...] Amor de fill, Muntanya amunt i El bressol se donaven a conèixer per primera vegada en concert públic. La primera i la tercera d'aquestes composicions foren les més aplaudides. Muntanya amunt fou acollit quasi fredament: és que l'art ben personal i nou d'en Gibert, la gran sinceritat que l'impregna i que li fa dir les coses de la manera més breu, però més justa, no fou comprès. Com que contrasta massa amb les aptituds del públic, com que no és ni pot ésser d'un relleu exterior fortament acusat i d'efecte, sinó tot intimitat, res té d'estrany que resti desapercebut. Però en l'art d'en Gibert hi ha bellesa, i ella triomfarà. L'aucellada, d'en Janequin, és ja una de les obres estimades del nostre públic i fou aplaudida com sempre.

La segona part era dedicada novament al motet de Bach Jesús, joia meva, que, com el primer dia, i potser més encara, omplí d'admiració i entusiasme als que l'escoltaven.

La pregària a la Verge del Remei, d'en Millet, encapçalava la tercera part. Aquella dolsa i inspirada melodia, que és oració i sospir que bressa l'ànima i la transporta a lo immaterial, tingué de repetir-se.

El motet Nos qui sumus in hoc mundo, d'en Orlando di Lasso, se donava en primera audició.

No creiem pas que el públic se fes ben bé càrrec de la gran força expressiva d'aquesta obra del genial Lassus: potser eu audicions successives serà millor compresa. També era primera audició la Cantiga de labors a Santa Maria, d'Alfons el Savi, harmonitzada per en Pedrell. Ningú com el mestre sap comprendre l'art del passat; ningú com ell sap fer-se'l seu, sap vestir-lo amb ropatge propi que no resulta disfressa, sinó hàbit escaient i tan bellament tallat que el públic s'hi encisa sense que la visió arcaica el torbi ni un moment. Fou molt aplaudida la cantiga.

Feia molt de temps que el Divendres Sant, d'en Nicolau, no s'havia executat, i aquesta vegada ha estat una de les que el públic ha comprés millor la bellesa de la gran obra. L'emoció que exhala se comunicà a l'auditori, el penetrà de tal manera, que esclatà en una grossa ovació a l'acabar-se.

"De tres recitals de piano hem de donar compte celebrats en el mateix teatre per les senyoretes Júlia Sicard, Esperança Forés i en J. Malats.

La senyoreta Sicard s'ha presentat al públic amb el mateix programa que no fa molt tocà a la sala Erard, de París, i ara novament ha pogut escoltar els falaguers aplaudiments d'un auditori nombrós. Les obres que executà la senyoreta Sicard eren de prova en sa majoria (Appassionata de Beethoven; Vals, Nocturn, Estudi, Scherzo, Berceuse i Polonesa, de Chopin; Rapsòdia de Liszt, etc.), i alguna d'elles potser superior a les seves forces; més, amb tot, demostrà posseir condicions de concertista, fent gala d'un mecanisme delicat i d'una gràcia tota femenina; i encara que la puresa d'estil li manca i la comprensió de lo que executa no és sempre prou visible, no dubtem que, baix una direcció entesa, la senyoreta Sicard arribarà a un lloc distingit en les files dels nostres pianistes.

La senyoreta Forés no pogué veure una sala tant ben guarnida com ho estava la nit de la Sicard, i a fe que fou de doldre pel públic que deixà d'anar-hi, perquè hauria fruit d'una bella sessió. Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, Scarlatti, Chopin i Saint-Saëns trobaren en la senyoreta Forés un intèrpret fidel que sapigué transmetre a l'auditori el sentiment propi de cada obra. No és menys d'alabar en la novella pianista la seguretat del seu mecanisme, que li permeté executar tot el programa amb un aplom i una bravesa remarcables. Reconeixent-ho aixís, el públic dispensà a la senyoreta Forés un acolliment dels més entusiastes.

El recital del dia 23 de març ens donà ocasió de festejar personalment a dos grans artistes dels que més honren la terra catalana: l'Isaac Albéniz i en Joaquim Malats. Aquest, que està en el ple de les seves facultats, tocà aquella nit amb una perfecció mai igualada, i ja és de suposar com sortirien de sos dits meravellosos les afiligranades composicions de l'Albéniz. El puerto, executada per primera vegada, i Triana, que figurava en el programa a petició, són dues pàgines admirables que, per a comprendre tot son valor, s'han de sentir entremig de la literatura més moderna del piano. D'elles no sabem què més admirar-ne, si la prodigiosa factura, obra mestra del més hàbil contrapuntista, o la inspiració fluida, plena de colorides imatges.

El nombrós públic que aquella nit se trobava acoblat al Principal les escoltà amb el més fervent recolliment, i, tot just acabades, volgué rendir al propi autor (arribat de França el dia abans) el tribut del seu entusiasme. L'ovació dedicada a l'autor de Pepita Jiménez, tan car de veure entre nosaltres, fou llarga i xardorosa, i ella li haurà provat lo viu que resta aquí encara el seu record, malgrat les seves llargues ausències, i lo que s'estimen els seus mèrits.

Fora de les peces de l'Albéniz, el programa no oferia altres novetats que un Vals romàntic de Debussy i un Capritxo de Brahms, ambdues d'importància escassa; però com la interpretació d'en Malats és prou personal, ja és sabut que tot lo que toca ofereix sempre un interès particular. Aixís escoltàrem amb força gust, de Beethoven, la Sonata núm. 4, i de Chopin, la Balada en La bemoll, Nocturn en Re bemoll, Vals en la bemoll, Impromptu en Sol bemoll i Polonesa en La bemoll, que, junt amb el ballet d'Alceste de Gluck-Saint-Säens, Marxa militar de Schubert-Tausig, i Vals Mephisto de Liszt, tocades les tres amb una bravura i una brillantor extraordinàries, completaren el magnífic programa del recital. Com de costum, el públic no abandonà la sala fins després d'haver obtingut d'en Malats la concessió de noves peces, al final de les quals seguien creixent en intensitat els aplaudiments de l'auditori."

Funció destinada al I Congrés Internacional de la Llengua Catalana

"Per a fer més agradable l'estada dels congressistes a Barcelona i ademés per a il·lustrar-los del desenrotllo de les nostres arts i les nostres lletres, lo Congrés ha organitzat una sèrie de festes que se succeiran sense interrupció durant les hores que vaguin los congressistes de les tasques pròpies de l'Assemblea. [...]

Lo dilluns, dia 15, a la nit, tindrà lloc al teatre Principal la funció, en la que es resumirà la història de l'escena catalana. Se representaran quatre obres corresponents a quatre èpoques i als quatre gèneres teatrals: lo sainet, la comèdia, la tragèdia i el drama líric. Lo primer temps del nostre teatre serà representat amb la gatada en un acte, del fundador Frederic Soler, titulada Cura de moro. Com a comèdia, es representarà La Baldirona, de don Àngel Guimerà, també en un acte, i per tragèdia, el quadro emocionant de l'Iglésias, Lladres! La representació acabarà amb la Nit de Reis, lletra de l'Apel·les Mestres i amb música de l'Enric Morera.

Los congressistes tindran dret a una rebaixa d'un 25 per 100 del preu de les localitats, a excepció de les entrades. [...]"

"Funció de gala

Ocupaven platea i palcos del teatre Principal una gernació brillant de dames hermoses i homes coneguts, i l'aire de selecció que ells hi portaven era la nota sortint de la festa.

Aquesta transcorregué plàcida, més com una manifestació de l'alta vida social barcelonina que com a presentació als hostes congressistes dels models i les maneres del nostre teatre.

Formaven el programa un acte d'en Frederic Soler, un d'Ignasi Iglésias, altre d'en Guimerà i el qüento líric Nit de Reis, d'en Mestres i en Morera. Mes la forma fragmentària en què s'han de presentar les creacions dels mestres en funcions d'aquesta naturalesa i la necessitat mateixa d'escollir-les atenent a la seva mida per damunt de tota altra consideració, treuen tot el valor educatiu en aquestes funcions que volen tenir el caràcter de resum d'una forma literària en els diversos gèneres.

La representació escènica transcorregué animadament. Els actors s'esforçaren en treure tot el partit possible dels llurs papers respectius i el públic, benèvol, no escassejà els picaments de mans, sovintejant les ovacions.

Els congressistes estrangers declaraven que no tenien paraules prou encomiàstiques per a expressar la llur admiració sincera per l'art escènic català. La festa s'acabà poc després de mitja nit."

Mort de Mercè Viola, actriu de la companyia de Graner

"Ha mort la dameta jove del Principal Sta. Mercè Viola.

S'havia donat a conèixer avantatjosament desempenyant el paper principal de La dama d'Aragó. Era modesta com la flor qual nom portava. I com ella, també ha sigut flor de primavera i s'ha mustigat prompte."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1464 (18/01/1907), p. 12.

"Mercè Viola

La Viola, aquella petita artista per la qual l'escenari de la sala Mercè semblava fet exprés, ha mort. Aquella seva figureta menuda i simpàtica que es movia gentilment per a fer més expressiu el cant, s'hi fa ja enyorar. [...] La Viola vivia per cantar. Era el seu deliri, no deixava un sol dematí d'anar a casa el mestre a aprendre més; no deixava una sola festa del conservatori sense aportar-hi el seu concurs. En el fi del curs passat l'haurien vista contenta entre els mestres d'aquella casa, riallera amb les seves condeixebles, cantant quan li tocava el torn, abillada amb colors clars, perdent-se la seva figureta menuda i escaient en la immensitat de l'escenari del Gran Teatre.

Aquesta temporada en Graner semblava haver-la destinada al Principal. La seva veu havia guanyat i la força de la seva afició la feia salvar qualsevol dificultat.

I així, á mes d'haver-la sentida en La nit de Nadal (que estrena), encaixada admirablement en aquell àngel que és l'arpa de la boscúria que bressa el suau oreig,

L'havíem aplaudida en La dama d'Aragó, en el Permeti'm! i en la «Reina» de Gaziel, tots papers importants.

Una noia bonica que cantava amb art, que declamava amb gust, que treballava amb afany, que era ingènua i afectuosa, que no s'havia encomanat encara les enveges i malícies dels escenaris, que considerava els autors i sentia com a pròpies les pèrdues de l'empresa; aquesta era la pobreta Viola que varen enterrar la tarda del passat dissabte uns quants amics i companys que l'estimaren i que no l'oblidaran mai."

Opinió en contra del teatre còmic i del género chico

"Es veu repetit amb massa freqüencia un fet odiós. La faramalla d'autors (?) del género menut no en té prou d'embrutir-nos amb les seves obres fastigoses, ha de ridiculitzar-nos encara, ha de prostituir la nostra llengua, barrejant-la amb les grolleries d'un argot degenerat, fent així obra anticatalana. Aquesta conducta mereix, no el nostre despreci, car mentre que els despreciem ells campen; sinó una lliçó ben exemplar seguint lo patró dels escàndols del Tívoli i Nou, atacant de dret tanta bestiesa dels esmentats autors, fins que no se'ls vegin les orelles per aquí.

Si els catalans entenien lo que vol dir patriotisme, a hores d'ara ja no se'n resaria del gènero teatral ridícul, degradant, que combatem. Cal educar, moralitzar, netejar de valent. Ja en tenim prou amb que ens basquin des d'allà; no ho havem de consentir això a casa nostra; havem de castigar amb energia l'atreviment."

Catalònia 7 (08/09/1906), p. 7.

"Als autors dramàtics

[...] Ens referim a la gran afició a la música, que venint de la ciutat, s' ha escampat per totes les viles i viletas. Abans ja es cantava, que l'obra d'en Clavé també va arribar al cor de las muntanyes, però avui hi ha pretensió, per dir-ho així, de música més grossa; avui per tot arreu se funden orfeons de joves i noies; (abans se deien coros i eren d'homes sols) i no es contenten amb les peces d'en Clavé, sinó que canten música de Grieg, Gounod i Mendelssohn.

Doncs bé, aquesta onada amenaça al Teatre català. Per tot arreu a on s'anuncien obres líriques, siga en l'idioma que es vulgui, s'omplen els locals com si es tractés d'un gran aconteixement. Nosaltres hem vist en alguns pobles estar la majoria del públic indiferent durant els diàlegs d'una sarsuela castellana, passant-li desapercebuts xistes que no entén i filigranes de llenguatge que desconeix i sols esperar amb ànsia el número musical per escoltar-lo amb regositj. Als mateixos aficionats els hem vist triar les obres per la música, abans que per l'argument i les situacions en què poguessin lluir-s'hi. Què indica això? Que és la música lo que els atrau. Doncs als nostres autors els toca fer-ho.

Avui el repertori de sarsuela catalana és molt migrat. Unes quantes d'antigues, que tothom les ha fet i amb música casi bé infantívola. Vinguin, doncs, obres líriques, senyors autors dramàtics, de fàcil representació i bona música, que per intricada que sigui aquesta, els nostres orfeons ja les interpretaran degudament en el seu teatre, i així d'aquesta manera veurem d'ofegar el género chico groller i descarat, que els nostres aficionats, temptats per la música, estan obrint-li els braços de tant en tant, essent infidels a l'amor de les coses de la nostra terra."

“D’aquelles visions

Amb la instal·lació de las visions en el Principal i en la sala Mercè un nou ambient ha vingut a comunicar el Sr. Graner a l’Escena catalana, però sols un ambient per recrear els ulls, ja que fiant més en l’art de la plàstica que en sos propis esforços, pocs llorers han aconseguit fins avui els autors, per haver cregut camí trillat escriure sonsament per l’escenògraf.

Mes d’aquelles primitives visions, adelantant més pel camí emprés, quant menys han fet de profitós arribar a tocar amb el dit el drama líric català, que té de ser el regenerador del gust per excel·lència, en mig d’aquest aire impur que ens envolta.

Diem tocar amb el dit, car totes las obres fins avui representades no han sigut sinó temptatives que embolcallades amb el títol de cançó, episodi, farsa o país de vano, han rendit tribut més aviat al género còmic que al género seriós i transcendental, algunes a punt de caure en la xabacaneria, devent, no obstant, fer honroses excepcions sobre determinades obretes saturades d’un humorisme encantador i que tenen tanta vàlua com el drama de tesi.

I ben de bat a bat que troba obertes las grans portes la lírica catalana. Per sobre la catifa d’aplaudiments que li reserva un públic ja iniciat, passejaran dintre poc nostres primers autors ses vivificants produccions, el músic omplirà amb inspiració el pentagrama, correrà per la tela el pinzell de l’escenògraf, sense el predomini d’un element més que altre, tots tres a l’uníson, tots tres agermanats, tots tres perseguint el mateix fi: la expressió del verdader art.

Sols falta que els empresaris avencin les obres temps ha anunciades. Ja sentim, al pensar-hi, una esgarrifança de regeneració artística. [...].”

“[...] En el gènere menut cal notar una circumstància relativament satisfactòria: les empreses que es dediquen als espectacles esqueixats han deixat lliures els teatres cèntrics. Qui vol «gatitas» i altres bestialitats, ha de dirigir-se als teatres d’arrabal... És l’escòria que s’enretira cap a les vores... I quan s’enretira, és senyal que al centre no hi troba lloc, perquè la gent del centre prefereix altres espectacles, o perquè les persones que frueixen amb els indecents s’estimen més allunyar-se dels punts on poden ser vistes per llurs coneixences... La llàstima és que l’escòria, al anar-se’n a les vores, contamina a no poca gent sense malícia, encomanant la posterma a una bona part dels nostres obrers. Però com que això es inevitable, puix encara que el centre fos brut, les vores tampoc foren netes, podem consolar-nos pensant que de dos mals, n’hem evitat un.

A Novetats hi ha gènere menut, això sí, però cal observar que les obres que s’hi ofereixen al públic són de les més acceptables dintre el gènere, no caient mai en les potineries que fan la glòria i les entrades d’altres teatres. El sainet de costums populars és lo que hi priva, havent-se’n ressuscitat algun, com La verbena de la Paloma, i posant-se’n de nous, com La mala sombra, ben literaris i eixerits.

El Tívoli, que tanta pornografia ens havia donat darrerament, segueix convertit en Circo eqüestre, i l'Eldorado, sent-hi abans del gènere menut, continua hostatjant la companyia de declamació d'en García Ortega, que ens ha donat algunes obres apreciables.

En quant al teatre català, no podem queixar-nos de la feina feta, puix Romea ens ha donat obretes ben literàries, i el Principal ha seguit afermant i fent entrar en el públic el gust del teatre líric. I això que tant a Romea com al Principal s'han guardat, fins ara els plats forts, reservant les obres en què fonamenten més esperances.

Així tenim en porta al segon d'aquests teatres, l'obra de gran espectacle, escrita per en Guimerà amb el títol de La santa espina, i posada en música pel mestre Morera, autor també de la que hi ha a la comèdia lírica d'en Crehuet, El mestre, que tenen a Romea en preparació, mentre anuncien per a més endavant o més endarrere produccions d'en Guimerà, l'Iglésias, en Rusiñol, en Manel Folch i Torres i altres. Opinions sobre els crítics teatrals i el teatre literari

"Crítics i criticats

Acceptant que la crítica serveixi d'alguna cosa, és curiós estudiar com se fa crítica i com s'arriba a crític, en relació de com se deuria haver d'esser i de què caldria fer per arribar a ser-ne digne apòstol.

D'això, ningú millor pot parlar-ne que els que havem vist de prop i per dins la «confecció» d'aquets savis criteris destinats a il·luminar la massa anònima. Per tot arreu del món, la crítica té consemblant aspecte «de qui sap què» i viu animada d'un sens fi de miraments, que mostrant falsament un aspecte d'alt altruisme, tanquen millor tota mena de menudes i mesquines mires en complert sentit contrari, però com que del món un dels llocs més menestrals (i consti que parlo en sentit immaterial), és aquest lloc on vivim nosaltres, i com que les coses i els fets estan sempre en perfecta relació amb l'ambient on se desenrotllen, per això, la critica emfàtica de per arreu pren aquí, generalment, l'aspecte més grotesc i doblement maligne (o quan menys amb intenció d'esser-ho), que en cap altre recó del món on se fan coses.

D'això en té la culpa, meitat la misèria, meitat la ignorància. La misèria, perquè seguint la tradició del bon pervingut, se fa tot per aquí amb «apariència», i vull dir en aquet cas concret que es fan diaris i revistes que semblin selectes; que tinguin servides totes les seccions d'informació a imitació sempre de lo estranger, però procurant que surti «barato», o si és possible (que sí que ho és) procurant que surti de franc. [...]

Quan no es així i el crític cobra, cobra poc i és considerat com un empleat de la casa, que a més de fer critiques col·labora en la confecció general del diari i té les seves hores de saviesa fixades. [...] Aquí, en canvi, impera la poca intel·ligència, donant-se la mà amb la dolenteria, és a dir, total revers de lo que un s'imagina que hauria d'esser lo perfecte crític, acceptant que necessari sigui.

La crítica com se fa avui, més que element edificant ho és destructor. Qui més que la critica impedeix la formació d'un sens fi de criteris, que es creuen excusats de pensar, ser per ells sols, emparats com viuen del seu «mentor»? Quan veuen o senten quelcom que els diuen que és cosa d'art, ni per ells propis s'atreveixen a formar-ne lo petit criteri, cal esperar què en dirà el crític amb lo que pensen, amb lo que combreguen a diari... Per una pesseta al mes los ho donen tot fet... indubtablement, en aquests temps de progrés hem arribat a la solució dels grans problemes.

D'altra part los artistes, los literats, i tots aquells que fan obres «criticables», senten la suggestió de les lletres de motllo, i si es planyen sota veu de la opinió poc favorable dels seus criticadors, se guarden prou de fer-ho a veu alta, perquè cal «saber viure» i no convé indisposar-se amb los amos de la veu pública. Però no acaba pas aquí el romiatge ridícul del vergonyant criticat, va encara més enllà, arriba a la inconscient aspiració de ser agradós al crític que detesta i sacrifica la seva obra, per alcançar-ne la conformitat en forma de «gazetilla».

Oh!... cal no dir sempre la veritat, si l'artista suplicant «pogués» dir lo que sent, si tots los criticats "poguessin" parlar clar alçarien la veu amb energia per protestar de tanta bestiesa, però... i després? fet i fet los altres són mestres de la situació, què hi fa que no siguin bons, què hi fa que no siguin intel·ligents?.. tenen un diària la seva disposició, i davant d'aquesta força positiva tota reverència resulta poc reverent, ni que el cap s'embruti de terra al fer-la. [...] Fet i fet és sempre més bonic pagar car que vendre barato... vesteix més.

"D'ençà de la darrera revista que hem publicat, hi ha hagut una relativa abundor d'estrenes. Però, ben garbellat, poques són les obres de què es pugui parlar sense plànyer-se del temps que s'hi esmerci.

En tots els teatres, i molt especialment en el nostre, hi ha dues menes de produccions: la dels autors que saben escriure per que n'han après i n'han fet una carrera, i la dels que es veuen que, sense altra qualitat que l'afició, tenen dret d'escriure obres per al teatre. Segons expressió d'un cert literat de la terra, tenim entre nosaltres autors còmics incapaços d'escriure correctament un rebut. I són autors, i alguns d'ells aplaudits.

No és d'estranyar, doncs, que un que senti el respecte per l'art, parli a vegades de determinades obres amb cert desaire, o no en parli en absolut, considerant que el teatre, al cap d'avall, es un gènere literari, i que tot lo que no sigui literari en el sentit més ample del mot, no pot ser elevadament teatral. I al dir literari, no s'entengui retòric.

Està clar que hi ha obres d'autors literats que no tenen condicions escèniques, mentre que algunes fetes per aquells senyors del rebut, són teatrals en el sentit més vast que es sol donar a l'expressió; però nosaltres tindrem sempre major respecte per una obra literària no teatral, que per una obra teatral antiliterària, com moltes que se n'aplaudeixen. Al cap d'avall, la teatralitat de certes produccions és cosa discutible. I potser algunes de les que no es troben prou teatrals, s'hi trobarien en un ambient de major cultura del que es respira en les esferes on es forgen els èxits.

Si anéssim a analitzar el drama en un acte Massa tard, original d'en Manel Marinel·lo i estrenat a Romea hi trobaríem moltes faltes d'experiència escènica. [...] Com a literària, ho es també La nina dormida al bosc d'en Montoliu, estrenada al Principal. [...]

Evolució del teatre català i competència Principal-Romea

"Els pobres menestrals, d'en Gual, que la companyia de Romea assaja ja fa dies i en la que hi debutarà l'actor Carles Capdevila, prou conegut i apreciat del públic que assistia al Principal durant la temporada anterior [1905/06].

Aquests dies hi ha hagut un petit canvi de personal, l' Emília Baró, la notable artista que era a Romea, passa al Principal: en canvi a Romea han contractat la Xirgu[61] [...]

La Ilustració catalana 184 (09/12/1906), p. 781.

"L'afició als espectacles catalans ha crescut en poc temps d'una manera extraordinària, tant per lo que respecta als teatres com per lo que fa referència a les diversions menors: cinematògrafs, teatrins, etc.

Fa poc que el Romea sol podia satisfer les necessitats del públic de Barcelona, augmentat amb el dels forasters catalans que no sabien venir a la capital sense fer la seva corresponent visita al teatre de la terra. I tant les satisfeia, les necessitats del públic, que si algun hivern es formava companyia catalana en algun altre teatre, resultava que eren dos els teatres catalans, però cap d'ells es guanyava la vida de la manera desitjable.

Ara ja és diferent: ara, amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, s'ha provat que poden subsistir alhora dos teatres catalans, havent-hi prou públic per a que tots dos, portats amb seny, puguin donar bons ingressos a les empreses. Jo no crec que les dues temporades d'espectacles catalans al Principal hagin perjudicat gens ni mica el Romea. Se'm dirà que al Principal s'ha fet teatre líric. Bé: però també s'han fet vetllades selectes setmanals i bisetmanals amb teatre exclusivament parlat, de la mateixa manera que a Romea, quan s'ha escaigut, s'han muntat produccions líriques. I el cas és que, tant per a Romea com per al Principal, hi ha hagut públic. Lo qual no deixa de ser ben satisfactori.

És curiós recordar l'evolució del teatre català. Primer comença amb obres grotesques d'escassa extensió; de lo grotesc passa a lo còmic i de lo còmic a lo dramàtic. I dramàtic, còmic i grotesc subsisteixen alhora en germanívola barreja i àdhuc se parteixen els cartells amb les obres castellanes. El teatre de la terra no és encara independent. No guanya prou per a tenir casa del tot pròpia i ha de tenir un rellogat en el teatre castellà. I la companyia és castellana i catalana alhora. Però el públic català va creixent, creixent. I ve una temporada en què el teatre català , veient-se ja segur de les pròpies forces, diu al rellogat que necessita tot el local per ell sol. I el rellogat es retira, encara que deixant sentir per un quant temps la seva influència en els cartells i anuncis, que segueixen per alguns anys redactats en llengua castellana. Però el teatre i el públic van creixent i a l'últim és desterrat semblant vestigi de servitud i el teatre català es va fent cada dia més català. El públic l'omple cada nit, sense que sigui necessari alternar al cartell les obres castellanes amb les catalanes, com abans.

Tenim ja un teatre català amb vida pròpia, però no en podem tenir encara més que un i les temptatives que es fan —siguin líriques siguin dramàtiques—, no passen de temptatives. Podem aguantar una casa sense rellogat, però els cabals no arriben per a sostenir-ne dues sense perjudici de l'una o de l'altra. Mes el públic català va creixent. I al cap d'anys, ve en Graner, s'emprèn el Principal i es nota que ja hi ha prou públic per al Principal i per a Romea. És més: amb l'empresa d'en Graner, es nota, no solament que hi ha prou públic per a dos teatres catalans, sinó que aquest públic els necessita, com ho prova el fet d'haver acudit en gran nombre a l'antic teatre de la Santa Creu, del que feia anys que totes les empreses en sortien escalabrades. De manera que, amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, no tan sols ha començat a orientar-se el teatre líric català, sinó que s'ha ressuscitat per la virtut d'aquest, un teatre mort. Senyal doncs que la necessitat de dos teatres catalans era imperiosa i que, encara que no hagués estat en Graner, no hauria trigat gaire a crear-se el segon amb un caràcter permanent. I per si d'això no n'hi hagués prou, la temporada anterior tindria prou eloqüència per a demostrar la necessitat dels dos teatres, ja que, amb tot i haver estat molt nombrós el públic que ha anat al Principal, no per això ha deixat el Romea de fer bona temporada, com gairebé sempre. El cas es que les dues empreses ensopeguin bones obres, car lo que és el públic català ha crescut prou per a necessitar de totes dues.

Ara, per a la temporada vinent, la del Principal vol modificar una mica el caràcter dels espectacles, donant preferència en les funcions de nit al teatre parlat. Pot ocasionar perjudici això? Si les dues empreses catalanes saben portar la temporada amb seny, crec que no. Més encara: crec que pot resultar-ne un benefici per a l'art escènic català, sense que ni el Romea ni el Principal en pateixin. [...]

La Ilustració catalana 281 (04/08/1907), pp. 501–502.

“D’alguna obra fracassada a Romea, s’ha dit:
—Això, estrenat al Principal, era èxit segur.—
Pel contrari, d’alguna obra fracassada al Principal, s’ha dit:
—Si l’autor arriba a donar l’obra a Romea, se salvava i tenia una gran acollida.—

Doncs, lo primer que necessiten les dues empreses és meditar sobre aquest fet i sobre el caràcter de les obres que han provocat semblants afirmacions. Si ho fan així, ja tindran molt de guanyat. En el públic hi ha hagut una especialització. El que va a Romea vol unes coses i el que va al Principal, en vol unes altres. Més encara: un mateix públic, anant avui a Romea, aplaudeix lo que demà, posat al Principal, potser no el satisfaria. I en canvi, al Principal, hi aplaudeix coses que, si les veiés a Romea, potser no les trobaria prou encaixades.

De totes maneres, això es un dir. Perquè lo que hi ha de cert és que, llevat del públic especial de les nits d’estrena —sempre el mateix a la majoria dels teatres— el que assisteix a Romea no és el que sol anar al Principal. A més, els actors d’un i altre teatre, són fets d’una manera distinta. Als uns els escauen unes obres i als altres, unes altres. Fins la diferència de local per a la impressió de les obres. [...]

En quant a nivell intel·lectual, estic segur que els habituals concurrents als nostres dos teatres catalans en tenen si fa no fa el mateix. De gustos sí que son distints. I això fa que hagi de ser distint el caràcter de les obres que se’ls donin. Majorment quan els actors formen també conjunts distints.

S’ha especialitzat el públic, s’han especialitzat els actors i cal especialitzar les obres. I els primers que han de contribuir a l’especialització han de ser els autors mateixos, que han de guardar-se de donar a un teatre lo que encaixi amb els actors, el públic i el marc del altre, en la seguretat que, fent-ho així, l’art de la terra n’obtindrà benefici i les empreses no se’n perjudicaran. Ja ha crescut prou el teatre català per a poder viure en dos locals. És més: d’un no en té prou, com pot comprovar-se amb la diferencia que hi ha entre el caràcter del públic que concorre a Romea i el del que concorre al Principal, facin o no facin produccions líriques.

Està clar que hi ha un nucli d’espectadors que acull totes dues cases: però la majoria, no. I molts que han anat a Romea a veure obres líriques. —La nit de l’amor, Sirena, El mestre— no saben res d’Els tres tambors, La presó de Lleida, La nit de Reis, Gaziel i altres estrenades al Principal. En canvi, molts que taral·lejant en llevar-se la música d’aquestes obres, no han sentit res de les estrenades a Romea, amb tot i ser en alguns casos dels mateixos autors. I això, que passa amb el teatre líric, passa amb el teatre parlat. [...] És que unes obres i altres tenen un caràcter distint? No. És que els parroquians dels teatres on s’han posat no són els mateixos, amb tot i ser el mateix el tarannà d’algunes obres.

I això si que s’ha d’evitar, estudiant, com dèiem al principi, els gustos dels dos públics, és a dir, del nucli principal de cada un d’ells, perquè la part de públic que concorre a tots dos indistintament, seguirà concorrent-hi de la mateixa manera que fins ara. Que facin teatre parlat al Principal, si volen: que en facin de líric a Romea si els ve de gust. Però tant els uns com els altres, que escullin bé les obres. I si a Romea els en porten una que escaigui millor al públic, als actors i a l’ambient del Principal, no la vulguin. I si al

Principal els en porten una que escaigui millor dintre el marc i l'ambient de Romea, no dubtin a remerciar-hi.

Més clar: lo millor és que les dues empreses no es vulguin fer la competència. Sigui líric, sigui parlat, que faci cada una lo que més li escaigui; car si la competència podria ser —i fos sense dubte— ruïnosa per a totes dues, l'especialització pot produir beneficis a l'una i a l'altra, endegant d'una manera perfecta les dues corrents del públic i fent-les créixer cada dia més.

"El teatro catalán II: Teatro lírico

Incomprensible era que Cataluña, que tiene una característica especial en todas las manifestaciones del arte, careciera de Teatro lírico, lo que dificultaba que conociéramos a los músicos, quienes debían guardar para sí sus artísticas manifestaciones, o bien cultivar el género chico, cuya música no puede amoldarse al carácter de nuestro pueblo.

Seis o siete años atrás, hiciéronse los primeros ensayos para la constitución de un teatro lírico catalán, y Morera, Granados, Gay, Lapeyra y otros músicos nos dieron a conocer bellísimas partituras que diurnamente acompañaban a obras de Rusiñol, Iglésias, Apeles Mestres, Marquina, etcétera, etc.

La Rosons, L'alegria que passa, Picarol, La reina del cor y alguna otra zarzuelita, alcanzaron gran éxito; el público, con sus aplausos, demostró a los iniciadores del Teatro lírico catalán, que sus propósitos eran realizables; pero... no sé si debido a que los maestros se durmieron sobre sus laureles, o por falta de empresarios, aquellos primeros y provechosos ensayos no pasaron adelante.

Hace dos años, Luis Graner, artista conocido por sus hermosas producciones pictóricas, arrendó el teatro Principal, organizando las audiciones y espectáculos selectos que merecieron la aprobación del público, y desde esta fecha, el Teatro lírico catalán aumentó el caudal de sus obras.

Si provechosa fue la primera temporada, no lo fue menos la segunda, o sea la de 1906–1907, ya que entre las varias obras estrenadas, algunas de mérito indiscutible, alcanzaron un éxito grande y sincero. [Procedeix la ressenya de La nit de Reis, Gaziel, La santa espina i Pierrot lladre].

Para la temporada que va a empezar el 15 de este mes, anúncianse los estrenos de obras de Guimerà, Rusiñol, Iglésias, Apeles Mestres, Morera, Granados, Sadurní, Alfonso, Esquerrà, etc., etc., que seguramente han de enriquecer el repertorio de nuestro Teatro lírico, contribuyendo a que éste adquiera la debida importancia dentro de la dramática catalana.

Funcions en benefici dels actors de la companyia

"Dissabte passat va celebrar-se el benefici del simpàtic primer actor Sr. Santpere, que va dar un resultat molt satisfactori, omplint-se el teatre casi per complert d'un públic escollit que quedà molt satisfet del programa amb què va obsequiar-lo el beneficiat. En aquell dia va estrenar-se la comèdia Mirallets per cassar aloses, quina crítica publiquem en la secció d'«Estrenos de la setmana.»

Dimecres tingué lloc un altre benefici, el de l'eminent característica Maria Morera, representant amb molt bon acert la comèdia d'Iglésias Festa dels aucells, quina interpretació va anar molt ajustada per part de la cèlebre beneficiada i els actors Puiggarí i Santpere. També se representà el xispejant monòleg de Rusiñol, Feminisme, a on la Morera sap lluir las facultats envejables. El públic la coronà d'aplausos. El teatre, ple. Ho celebrem. I vinguen beneficis. Per a avui està anunciat el dels apuntadors Juli Prat i Lluís Baró, representant-se tres obres escollides i d'èxit. Els desitgem igual sort que als anteriors. [...]

Al Principal, avui dissabte, està anunciat el [benefici] de l'actor genèric Lluís Puiggarí, representaran la comèdia en tres actes El malalt imaginari, i estrena del quadro còmic-líric, escrit per l'Enric de Fuentes, amb música del Mestre Ferrer, Joves i vells.

Dilluns li tocarà el torn a la dama jove Srta. Ferràndiz, executant un escollit programa, i per deferència a la beneficiada, el celebrat actor en Jaume Borràs, representarà el monòleg Mestre Olaguer. Dimarts anirà a càrrec de la Srta. Morató, en quin dia s'estrenarà el monòleg d'Alfons Maseras No ho sé! i el diàleg d'Eduard Aulés Amor telefònic. I dijous, dia 16, entra en tanda l' Emília Baró, quin programa es suggestiu en extrem, estrenant-se una peça de Font i Laporte (arreglo) titulada Secret sorprès; a continuació, una altra estrena, La primera carta, monòleg de Rusiñol, i L'encís dels 18 anys, pas de comèdia de Crehuet (també estrena)."

La Escena catalana 32 (11/05/1907), pp. 4; 7.

"Som-hi. En el benefici de la Morató-Bonet va estrenar-se un eixerit monòleg d'en Maseras, titulat No ho sé. Doncs jo sí que ho sé: sé que és ben escrit i que la beneficiada va dir-lo amb traça. També varen dir-hi ella i en Santpere i un meu parent que també es diu Morató (i no té res que veure amb la Morató-Bonet), el pas de comèdia Amor telefònic de l'Aulés. I dispensin l'elogi a la família en gràcia a que altres n'hi ha que ho fan.

Anem per l' Emília Baró. Tres estrenes. Primera: Secret sorprès, comedieta de saló conjuminada pel senyor Font i Laporte; cosa discreta i fina. Segona: La primera carta, monòleg molt ben dit i fet per la beneficiada; durant la representació, aplaudiments, cridades a escena de l'actriu i l'autor i pluja de primavera, és a dir, un devessall de flors vingudes dels proscenis. Tercera: L'encís dels 18 anys, pas de comèdia d'en Crehuet; ambient, gràcia exquisida, personatges ben dibuixats, acció interessant, tot lo que vulguin i tot lo que es necessita perquè una obra de teatre sigui literatura i desperti interès i obligui a aplaudir. Per això al final l'autor va ser cridat a rebre els aplaudiments... i un parell de coloms: un parell... i un per la beneficiada, que va dir el seu paper amb veritable mestria, sent degudament ajudada en la interpretació per la Morera i en Puiggarí. En resum: bona comèdia i bona interpretació.

De la funció dels Jocs Florals no els ne diré res si no que pel decorat i les figures me va semblar que feien el Ton i Guida i Les precioses ridícules, cosa que confirmaven també els cartells. I perdonin que no sigui més explícit: una part de la lluïda concurrència me va impedir amb els seus enraonaments enterar-me de lo que deien i cantaven a les taules i de lo que tocava l'orquestra. Se veu que no fa fi anar al teatre i estar atent a lo que succeeix en escena. Per lo dit ja es faran càrrec de que fins al dissabte, funció d'honor a n'en Lambert, no em vaig poder enterar de la sardana que havia dedicat aquest jove mestre a l'Agata Sanllehy. mirin, me va semblar que estava molt be la sardana. Temporada d'estiu

"[...] Per lo que toca als èxits lírics, la cosa és diferent, puix ningú ha pogut explorar-los fora de Barcelona, ningú els podia explotar durant l'estiu, com no sigui el mateix Graner o una empresa que es posi en contacte amb ell per les qüestions de decorat i altres accessoris que, donat el gènere, podríem anomenar principalíssims. Una companyia lírica no s'organitza tan fàcilment com una companyia de declamació. Tres o quatre actrius i sis o set actors fan una temporada de vers, mentre que per a una temporada lírica calen els mateixos elements augmentats amb cors, orquestra, etc., etc.

Tot això vol dir que les companyies escadusseres no poden explotar el gènere implantat per en Graner. Però, també vol dir que si en Graner, servint-se del decorat que ha aconseguit aplegar i de la companyia que té, se'n anés per Catalunya a ensenyar La santa espina, Nit de Reis i demés èxits d'aquesta i l'anterior temporada, podria obtenir esplèndids resultats. De primer entovi, crec que, duent amb compte la cosa, no hi podria perdre. I no perdent-hi, ja aconseguiria un benefici gros, millor dit, alguns beneficis: aconseguiria no desfer la companyia i acabar de donar cohesió als elements que la formen i que arribarien a l'hivern formant un conjunt més harmònic encara que avui; aconseguiria que tots els autors de nota, veient que les obres es fan hivern i estiu, treballessin amb fe per a la temporada següent, i aconseguiria per últim interessar a tothom en el teatre líric català, convertint-lo en una institució que estengués les seves arrels per tota la nostra terra.

Per ara i tant, la marxa ha estat bona. Això de que dues obres hagin aconseguit el centenar, és cosa de bon veure. I amb dues produccions així, ja hi pot haver la base d'una bona campanya d'estiu. El de La santa espina de centenar, va celebrar-se dimecres, amb un programa extraordinari, en el que hi figurava La sala d'espera d'en Guimerà i unes peces musicals d'en Morera... La vetlla va ser agradosa i els aplaudiments als dos autors extraordinaris i merescuts. [...]

[Hi ha notícies posteriors que anuncien la formació de dues companyies per fer temporada d'estiu: la "companyia Viñas, composta d'apreciables actors del Romea i del Principal de Barcelona" i una altra només d'actors del Principal, que durant l'estiu va actuar a diverses localitats, com ara Sabadell, Berga, Sallent o Manresa.]

"Alguns elements que han actuat durant aquesta última temporada al teatre Principal, han format una nova companyia que recorrerà les principals poblacions de Catalunya, representant les obres de més èxit que s'han estrenat recentment.

Formaran el quadro les dames: Sres. Baró (Emilia); Paricio, Guerra, Huguet, Ricart i Hernáez i els actors: Santpere, Puiggener, Capdevila (Carles), Tor, Balot, García, Baró, Capdevila (Ferran) i Peipoc.

Porten de repertori: La nit de Reis, La mare, Mirallets per caçar aloses, Innocència, Permeti'm!, L'ajudant, L'encís dels 18 anys, Amor telefònic, Ai, la mare!, Els tres tambors i altres."

"Terrassa.— Els dos últims diumenges tinguerem el gust de saborejar els mèrits de la companyia que dirigeix en Joaquim Viñas en el teatre Principal.

El primer diumenge, a la tarda, posaren en escena la comèdia, traducció de Lluís Puiggarí, Mirallets per caçar aloses; l'última comèdia que ha donat al públic en Pompeu Crehuet, l'encís dels 18 anys i Pere Caruso (estreno, del que parlarem en son lloc corresponent). El públic quedà contentíssim i alabava l'excel·lent interpretació que donaren a dites obres les Sres. Morera i Marsal i els Srs. Viñas, Santpere, Puiggarí, Ballart, Sirvent i altres.

El passat diumenge, també a la tarda, representaren el drama Boires baixes, obra de Puig i Ferreter, que van estrenar l'estiu passat a Barcelona amb el títol de La bagassa. Aquesta producció que entra de ple al teatre modern agradà a una part del públic, que va discutir sos mèrits amb l'altra part del públic menys intel·lectual i més decantat al terrorisme d'estar per casa. Per peça posaren L'oncle Benet, en quin mateix argument ja hem vist representar quatre comèdies catalanes i dues de castellanes. Quina originalitat!

Sabadell.— El dia 9, al vespre, la companyia Viñas, composta d'apreciables actors del Romea i del Principal de Barcelona, representà en el Euterpe la comèdia en 2 actes, de molta broma, Mirallets per caçar aloses; el drama en 1 acte, Pere Caruso i la preciosa comèdia La reina del cor, agradant molt totes tres obres i aplaudint el públic el bon conjunt de les mateixes. Els actors que s'emportaren més aplausos foren la indigne Maria Morera i els celebrats primers actors Srs. Viñas, Puiggarí i Santpere.

El dia 16, nit, se posà en escena en el mateix local i per la mateixa companyia el drama en 3 actes de Puig i Ferreter, Boires de ciutat i la peça L'oncle Benet, de Joaquim Montero, tot amb cuidada representació.

Berga.— Teatre Quevedo. El passat diumenge inaugurà la temporada en aquest teatre la companyia de don Josep A. Peipoc amb el drama La bona gent, en quin desempenyo, com no cabia dubtar-ne, en sortiren airosíssimes totes les parts.

La Srta. Baró i Srs. Capdevila i Tor, en sos respectius papers de Mariagna, Rafel i Sr. Batista, magistrals, i els demés amb una justesa a més no desitjar. El públic aplaudí amb entusiasme, quedant a punt de tornar-hi.

La peça Permeti'm! a càrrec dels Srs. Baró, Tor i Balot i les Sres. Paricio, Guerra i Huguet, va fer riure molt."

La Escena catalana 38 (22/06/1907), p. 6.

"Sallent.— Teatre Principal. El dia 3 vingué la companyia del Principal de Barcelona, que actuà a Berga, representant La mare, La reina del cor, La filla del mar i El somni de la Innocència.

Els molt nombrosos forasters, marxants i firaires que es troben entre els sallentins tributaren molts aplausos a dita companyia."

Tornada a la pintura de Lluís Graner

"En Graner

Que en volen més, d'exposicions? Doncs vagin a ca l'Esteve i etc. i successors d'Hoyos i allí trobaran a n'en Graner tornant a fer de pintor i tornant-ne a fer amb aquella mestria a què ens tenia acostumats abans dels Espectacles-audicions. Jo no sé per què havia de deixar-se'n de pintar, en Graner, sabent-ne com ne sap. Perquè mirin que hi té coses boniques a ca l'Esteve i etc! Boniques i poètiques i ben pintades. I que prou hi ha qui se n'ha adonat, cuitant a adquirir alguns dels quadros que omplen l'establiment i fins en sobreïxen, puix fins el soterrani de ca l'Esteve i etc. n'està ple. Per tot lo qual crec que pot afirmar-se que en Graner ha fet una bona reprise, a petició de nombrós públic. Què diria ell si es tractés de representar de nou La nit de Reis o La santa espina ...I prou exposicions per aquesta setmana.

Temporada de 1907-1908

Teatre Principal

Temporada 1907/08

Aquesta tercera temporada va consolidar l'aposta per les produccions còmiques que ja es deixava entreveure durant la temporada anterior, deixant en un molt segon pla les visions musicals a favor de les comèdies musicals. El deslligament de Lluís Graner de la direcció artística de l'empresa i la nova direcció escènica dirigida per l'actor Enric Giménez (fins ara els directors escènics havien estat pintors) va afavorir aquest canvi en la programació, que, a més, durant la primavera de 1908 va acabar abandonant els espectacles musicals a favor del teatre parlat.

La temporada es pot dividir clarament en tres: la temporada de tardor (des de l'estrena de Joan de l'Ós fins a les funcions d'innocents, de Nadal i de Reis), la temporada d'hivern (que es pot donar per iniciada amb La reina vella, el gran èxit de la temporada, i que podem tancar a finals de març amb l'última estrena musical, El testament d'Amèlia) i la temporada de primavera (des d'abril fins a meitat de juny, només amb representacions de teatre parlat, on destaca la presència pràcticament permanent del drama traduït de l'anglès d'El detective Sherlock Holmes).

El programa anunciat a l'inici de temporada ja preveia una barreja de "visions i operetes", declarant les intencions de potenciar el repertori musical còmic. La premsa confirma al novembre que Lluís Graner ha deixat de ser el director artístic del Principal per aquesta temporada, però no queda clar fins a quin punt hauria preparat o mediat per estructurar la programació vinent. Sigui com sigui, l'equilibri previst es va desestabilitzar, caient molt títols de visions musicals previstos, dels quals molts estaven ja escrits. Tot i que no queda del tot confirmat, els títols haurien caigut, ja no només perquè faltessin autors per escriure la música com havia passat en temporades anteriors, sinó també pel canvi en la direcció de l'empresa, tant personal com artístic.

Així, s'abandonen visions musicals previstes a l'inici de temporada que sí que es van arribar a escriure (Barcelona) o estaven ja escrites (L'estudiant de Vic), o que fins i tot es van anunciar com a properes estrenes (La filla del carmesí) i que no van aparèixer a cartellera. Alguns d'ells, com ara La presó de Xauxa, es van estrenar posteriorment per altres empreses o van publicar edicions impreses dels llibrets sense la música escrita, com és el cas de Margaridó. En el seu lloc, es programen comèdies musicals. Algunes d'elles obres antigues escrites feia anys i que havien quedat sense estrenar, com ara Les roselles (manuscrit de 1900) o algunes comèdies incloses a l'abonament de Teatre Aulés. D'altres eren traduccions i adaptacions, sobretot del francès, com ara T'estimo! o Com unes malves, ambdues de Lluís Puiggarí.

La temporada de tardor és la que presenta més estrenes musicals. Destaquen les còmiques (des d'Els entremaliats, A peu pla, No diguis blat... o La dida seca, fins a la paròdia per les funcions d'innocents d'Il castello di Malastruga), havent-hi només El fill del rei com a visió musical, Joan de l'Ós com a rondalla i Rodamon com a drama amb to llegendari i medievalitzant. Totes tres, però, ofereixen formats més llargs que les primeres visions musicals, reforçant el caràcter narratiu de les obres i molt menys suggestius. Obres de caràcter religiós i nadalenc tenen ara un caràcter també més còmic i narratiu, com és el cas d'El portal de Betlem, i les produccions costumistes com podria ser la d'Els gendarmes agafen també un to molt més proper al de la comèdia.

La programació d'hivern reduirà dràsticament el nombre de títols musicals, centrant-se en la represa de La santa espina i l'exitosa estrena de La reina vella, jugant la sempre segura carta de Guimerà. No s'estrenarà cap comèdia musical nova, centrant-se en el teatre parlat, i, quant a les visions musicals, les noves estrenes (El miracle de santa Agnès, La llar i El testament d'Amèlia) tindran una pèssima recepció i crítica per la seva qualitat i per presentar incongruències dramatúrgiques, havent-se de reescriure alguns fragments dels textos després del dia de l'estrena. Cap d'elles, de fet, es va publicar dins de la col·lecció de llibrets dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

La temporada 1907/08 va promoure molt els abonaments de sessions privades, que, a més, representen la pluralitat ideològica que es congregava al voltant del teatre Principal des dels inicis del projecte de Solidaritat Catalana. Les temporades de tardor i d'hivern solapen els abonaments organitzats pel Centre Nacionalista Republicà i per la Joventut Carlista, que celebra la festa onomàstica de don Carles de Borbó al mateix teatre Principal.

A més, s'hi van organitzar també diverses sèries de les Tertúlies barcelonines i un abonament especial de Teatre Aulés, amb la represa de comèdies (amb i sense música) de l'Eduard Aulés i l'estrena d'algunes noves del mateix autor (tot i que algunes eren comèdies antigues que havien quedat sense estrenar en el passat).

Per la temporada de primavera, el teatre es va centrar en celebrar les funcions en benefici dels diversos actors i actrius de la companyia, quedant només actiu un últim abonament als divendres blancs de la Joventut Carlista. Segurament es prescindís ja de l'orquestra i algunes sessions de tarda fins i tot eren només de cinematògraf.

L'activitat musical, que durant la temporada anterior havia ocupat part rellevant de la cartellera, es va reduir a un abonament de 4 concerts de l'Orquestra Filharmònica Barcelonina amb el mestre Lassalle i als alguns concerts durant la primavera d'Emili Sauer i Miecio Horszowski.

Els problemes econòmics de l'empresa continuaven agreujant-se sense remei, acumulant més deutes que van arribar a posar en risc el pagament del lloguer del teatre. El principal retall de despeses es va fer en la part escenogràfica. Si durant les primeres temporades el principal reclam publicitari de l'empresa era la part visual dels espectacles (múltiples i noves escenografies per a cada producció, vestuaris luxosos i efectes especials

i pirotècnics en viu), durant aquesta temporada pràcticament no es va anunciar cap escenografia nova i el papers dels pintors escenògrafs en les noves produccions pràcticament desapareix. Per tal cosa segurament es publiquessin molt poques fotografies d'escena, per ser telons repetits.

En el cas de La reina vella, la gran producció de la temporada estrenada al febrer, es van encarregar dos telons nous. Atès el seu èxit, es van publicar fotografies de tots els quadres i personatges, en les quals podem observar que el teló del primer quadre era una reutilització del teló de Brunet i Pous per a La dama d'Aragó i que alguns elements escenogràfics també ho eren, com el cas l'ermita al fons del segon quadre que provenia del disseny d'Oleguer Junyent del primer quadre d'El comte l'Arnau.

La següent temporada, la 1908/09, Graner farà efectiu el seu distanciament definitiu de l'empresa, traspassant-la a Antoni Niubó i a Enrique Vinyals, tot i que haurà de continuar fent-se responsable final dels resultats econòmics i pagament del lloguer del teatre com a signatari del contracte. Les dues temporades restants del contracte, el Principal es reconvertirà en "Teatre Català", caient el cognom "Graner" del títol. Es mantindria la mateixa companyia d'actors dirigida ara per Jaume Borràs, però s'acomiadaria l'orquestra, deixant oficialment de programar-se teatre musical o líric.

Tarda: Sessions dobles o senzilles en les que, combinades amb esplèndides exhibicions cinematogràfiques, se posaran diferents obres còmiques i líriques.

Nit: Funcions completes, alternant-se les estrenes amb les obres líriques i dramàtiques de més èxit del repertori antic i modern.”

[Les obres apareixen ordenades segons la data de la primera representació dins de la temporada. El recompte de dies en escena indica el nombre de cada període de dies continuats i, a la dreta, el total de dies que l'obra va estar en cartell. No equival, però, al nombre de representacions, que seria major, perquè les obres sovint es representaven en múltiples sessions dins del mateix dia.

Estan categoritzades en: original (producció lírica nova), original represa (ja estrenada a alguna temporada anterior), obra externa (producció lírica encarregada i estrenada prèviament per altra empresa), teatre parlat (obres teatrals catalanes sense música) i traduccions (obres dramàtiques traduïdes d'altra llengua). S'indica, a més, si era una estrena absoluta o si era una represa d'una producció prèvia ja feta per l'empresa.]

[66] L'obra s'hauria escrit i lliurat a l'empresa per ser estrenada durant la temporada d'hivern, segons El Poble català 576 (14/09/1907), p. 2, però no es va arribar a produir.
[67] L'obra es va escriure i es conserva el manuscrit del text a BC: Ms. 5708.
[68] No seria una obra original. El llibret es va publicar l'any 1902 després d'estrenar-se el 15 de març del mateix any al teatre Alcázar Español de Barcelona. Se'n conserva una còpia a SGAE: CR/287-6717.
[69] L'obra estaria escrita des de la temporada anterior. Es publica a la premsa que el compositor estava acabant d'escriure la música a La Escena catalana 6 (10/11/1906), p. 6.
[70] Hi havia una versió prèvia ja escrita en castellà. El manuscrit de la lletra està datat de 1903 (CDMAE: Ms. 1506) i el de la música de maig de 1904 (BC: M-Mor-039-1). Una de les còpies de les particel·les del fons Morera (BC: M-Mor-039-3) està segellada per la Copisteria de música Joaquin Costa, Buenos Aires; Morera l'hauria portat en alguna de les seves empreses a Argentina.
[71] El compositor hauria, almenys, començat a escriure'n la música, segons El Poble català 576 (14/09/1907), p. 2.

La fira de l'embrolla, sainet en un acte i tres quadros; lletra de Lluís B. Nadal; música de Joan B. Espadaler.

La goja [72], drama líric en quatre quadres; lletra de Lluís B. Nadal; il·lustracions musicals de Joan B. Espadaler.

La presó de Xauxa [73], quadret líric en un acte; lletra d'Apel·les Mestres; música de Joan Borràs de Palau.

La prometença, drama líric en tres actes; lletra d'Ignasi Iglésias; música d'Enric Morera.

L'encís, rondalla en tres actes; lletra de Manuel Rocamora; il·lustracions musicals de Francesc Pujol.

L'estudiant de Vic [74], visió en un acte; lletra d'Adrià Gual; música de Jaume Pahissa.

Lo torrent de les fades, comèdia en un acte i tres quadros; lletra d'A. Carrión; música d'A. Cristià.

Margaridó [75], drama líric en un acte i tres quadros; lletra d'Apel·les Mestres; música d'Amadeu Vives.

Un mal company, paròdia còmic-lírica en un acte i quatre quadros; lletra de F. Fuentes fill; música de varis mestres.

Rates, comèdia lírica; lletra d'Abelardo Coma; música d'Isidro Xalabardé.

[72] El text de l'obra es va escriure i es conserva el llibret a SGAE: TCA/M-84.

[73] Tot i que no es va estrenar, l'obra es va escriure i s'anuncia com lliurada a l'empresa a principis de temporada a La Escena catalana 46 (17/08/1907), p. 6. La partitura del fons Borràs de Palau (BC: M-JBor-25) de l'obra està datada de setembre de 1907.
Finalment es va representar l'any 1910 al teatre Granvia de Barcelona. Es conserva el text a SGAE: TCA/Mestres, Apeles-74 i una altra còpia de la música a SGAE: BAR/B–25.

[74] La lletra estava escrita des del 1900 (CDMAE: Ms. 1422), formant part de les primeres propostes de "cançons populars harmonitzades per a l'escena" d'Adrià Gual, juntament amb La presó de Lleida.

[75] El text estaria basat en un poema previ homònim de l'autor de l'any 1890. No s'hauria estrenat per falta de col·laboració d'Amadeu Vives, que no hauria escrit la música (com havia passat anteriorment amb La santa espina). Es va publicar el llibret del text posteriorment, amb el títol de drama líric, però sense menció d'autoria de la música. Es conserva a SGAE: TCA/Mestres, Apeles-74, BC: Rull 988-8º i Library of the University of North Carolina: PQ6217 .T44 v. 355, no. 9.

- Títols anunciats a la premsa que no es van estrenar:

[77] S'hauria lliurat a l'empresa a l'inici de la temporada, segons La Escena catalana 46 (17/08/1907), p. 6.
[78] S'hauria lliurat a l'empresa a l'inici de la temporada, segons La Escena catalana 50 (14/09/1907), p. 7. La seva música es conserva a SGAE: BAR/B–79, i, pel subtítol, es tractaria de la visió La filla del marxant, encarregada inicialment a altres autors.
[79] Es va anunciar com un dels propers títols a estrenar a La Escena catalana 66 (04/01/1908), p. 3, però no es va arribar a produir. L'obra està escrita i es conserva la seva música a SGAE: BAR/B–18.
[80] L'obra estaria escrita i es va lliurar a l'empresa del teatre Principal, segons La Escena catalana 78 (28/03/1908), p. 7, però no es va estrenar.

- Obres líriques traduïdes o de repertori històric:

La capseta dels petons (joguet còmic-líric en 1 acte, lletra de Lluís Millà i música de Josep Guarro Elias, estrenat el 1897).

Un dècim de la primera (comèdia lírica en 1 acte, de Joan Marxuach i P. i J. Parera).

El cafè de Barcelona (sainet bilingüe castellà-català de Ramón de la Cruz[81], encarregat a l'autor per celebrar la inauguració de la reconstrucció del teatre Principal l'any 1788)[82].

Jesús de Nazaret (Guimerà i Morera, amb l'escenografia original de Soler i Rovirosa. S'havia representat prèviament només un fragment com a visió musical, La resurrecció de Llàtzer.)

- Llistat de reposicions d'altres obres de teatre líric català:

L'alegria que passa (Santiago Rusiñol; Enric Morera; estrenada el 1899 al Teatre Íntim)

La reina del cor (Ignasi Iglésias; Enric Morera; estrenada el 1899 a les Festes Modernistes de Sitges)

Picarol (Apel·les Mestres; Enric Granados; estrena 1901 al Teatre Líric Català)

- Reposicions d'obres anterior de l'empresa:

“Escena V: Els mateixos i el batlle, que entra sobtadament, rodejat d’olivaters i guàrdies. Escena ràpida. Batlle, picant amb la mangala [...] (En veure que [Joan] se disposa a sortir, el batlle, refent-se de la sorpresa, crida.) [...] (En anar-se a abraonar tothom damunt d’ells, l’Arrenca-pins pega bufada per la dreta, en Gira-muntanyes per l’esquerra i tots els circumstants queden aplanats a les parets a una banda i altra.) Tots, menys Joan, Arrenca i Gira, a mitja veu, aterrats i tremolant. [...] Teló pausat.”

“Acte segon.

Quadre tercer: Sala baixa d’un castell fantàstic. Construcció massissa. A dreta, gran porta d’entrada, tancada i barrada; a esquerra, un pou amb grua de ferro simulant un drac, corriola i corda; porta al costat. Al fons, xemeneia monumental. Al costat de la xemeneia, una panòplia amb un corn i dues espases encreuades. És de nit.

"Escena IV: Joan, transfigurat, Arrenca-pins i Gira-muntanyes despertant-se entre badalls i estirades. [...] [Arrenca-pins i Gira-muntanyes riuen totxament i s'aixequen.] Joan, empenyent-los dret a la porta interior [...] (S'asseu en l'escó.)"

"Escena V: Joan i, després, el bruixot. Una veu esgarrifosa baixant pel canó de la xemeneia [...] Joan, amb molta calma [...] (Cau de la xemeneia una cama.) [...] La veu, més esgarrifosa [...] (Cau una altra cama.) [...] Joan, sempre immòbil [...] (Cau el cos del bruixot amb braços, però sense cap.) [...] (Cau un cap.) (S'alça.) (Col·loca les dues cames arrimades a la paret, al damunt hi posa el cos.) (Col·loca el cap damunt del coll.) [...] (En recular uns quants passos per veure l'efecte, el bruixot s'avença terrible i crida amb veu de tro.) [...] Joan, immutable [...] (Per tots cantons compareixen ratpenats, dragons, escorpins i aranyes, que emprenen entorn de Joan una dansa esgarrifosa. Joan s'ha assegut en l'escó i contempla la dansa sense immutar-se. A un senyal del bruixot desapareixen tots.) [...] (El bruixot despenja de la panòplia del fons dues espases; una d'elles superba, flamant, l'altra rovellada i de pobre aparença.) [...] [Joan] (Li pren la rovellada.) [...] Joan, atacant-lo [...] (Al parar-li l'estocada, l'espasa del bruixot se fa engrunes.) [...] [El bruixot] (Se capbussa en el pou.)"

"Escena VI: Joan, espasa en mà, Arrenca-pins i Gira-muntanyes per l'esquerra. [...] [Joan] (Corre a despenjar el corn de la panòplia, que es passa al coll, i es lliga la corda del pou entorn del cos.) [...] (Desapareix pel pou.) [...] (Se sent el corn a una gran profunditat.) [...] (Gran crit en veure aparèixer a la boca del pou a la princesa.)" "Escena VII: Arrenca-pins, Gira-muntanyes i la princesa [...] (La princesa es desfà de la corda i salta a l'escena fregant-se els ulls, com si sortís d'un somni.) [...] (Cau desvanescuda en braços dels dos. Mentrestant, se sent el corn al fons del pou.) [...] Gira, mirant-la embadalit [...] (Pausa. Se sent el corn.) [...] (El corn va sonant.) [...] (Fan la cadireta a la princesa i parteixen. El corn va sonant sempre. Teló pausat.)"

"Quadro quart: sala del palau del rei. Al fons, grans arcades tancades per tapissos.

Escena I: Dos patges separen les dues tapisseries que tanquen l'arcada central, on se planta l'Ugier. [...] (Apareixen els ministres d'uniforme, amb la cartera sota el braç i, caminant gravement, avencen fins al prosceni.)"

Ressenyes de premsa:

"El nostre eminent Morera ha arribat de Sitges per a presenciar els darrers assajos i l'estrena de la seva obra Joan de l'Ós, que tindrà lloc demà dissabte en el teatre Principal. L'obra serà presentada esplèndidament, dirigint la part escenogràfica el reputat pintor F. Chia, estrenant-se vestuari construït exprofés segons figurins de l'autor de la lletra, l'insigne poeta Apel·les Mestres."

"PRINCIPAL. Inauguració de la temporada. Joan de l'Ós. Rondalla en dos actes d'Apel·les Mestres, música d'en Morera.

Veus-aquí que una vegada era una princesa que la varen encantar i el rei son pare va manar que es fessin crides per tot el reialme per veure si sortia un cavaller prou valerós per a desencantar-la... I no va sortir cap cavaller amb prou pit per a dur a terme l'empresa. Els únics que ho varen provar varen ser l'Arrenca-pins, en Gira-muntanyes i en Joan de l'Ós. I d'aquests tres, el que va conseguir el seu objecte va ser en Joan, que era el més valent i esforçat de la colla. I veus-aquí que, després d'una pila de peripècies i tràngols i proeses, en Joan de l'Ós va obtenir la mà de la princesa, en paga d'haver dut a terme el desencantament.

Això és en resum la faula, però ademés d'això hi ha una pila d'amaniments i preparacions. Se tracta d'una rondalla. Som, doncs, en país de somni. I l'autor ens junta amb la fantasia des del bosc on en Joan engega a l'espai un olivater i en Gira-muntanyes mostra el seu braó tombant una roca i l'Arrenca-pins presumeix la seva especialitat, fins al castell on hi ha la princesa encantada, passant abans per un hostal on els tres valents van a fer beguda i anant a raure finalment al palau del rei.

Amb tot lo dit n'hi ha prou per a fer-se càrrec de que l'obra de l'Apel·les Mestres és del tot entretinguda. Quan va estrenar-se la Nit de reis, vàrem comparar-la amb un "conte viu» de l'autor. Doncs en Joan de l'Ós segueix sent un conte viu, una sèrie de quadros caricaturescos d'aquells que han fet tan popular a l'Apel·les Mestres.

La música d'en Morera està ben adaptada al caràcter de l'obra, havent-hi al segon acte alguns nombres còmics de molt efecte, i en especial un cor de ministres que es va haver de repetir.

El públic va riure durant la representació, fent aixecar el teló diferents cops al final dels actes... Els autors varen ser cridats però no es varen presentar. La interpretació va ser ajustada i el vestuari i l'escena, pintorescament servits.

Abans d'en Joan de l'Ós va representar-se el pas de comèdia d'en Crehuet L'encís dels divuit anys i després L'alegria que passa. El públic va sortir del teatre complagut de la vetllada d'inauguració"

La Veu de Catalunya 3023 (21/09/1907), ed. mitjanit, p. 3.

"La inauguración de la temporada tuvo lugar anoche en el teatro Principal con numeroso público. La función se componía de L'encís dels divuit anys, del estreno del cuento lírico Joan de l'Ós y de L'alegria que passa.

Joan de l'Ós fue acogido con gran aplauso. La ampliación escénica que del cuento popular ha hecho el poeta Apeles Mestres entretuvo agradablemente al público, y sus escenas bufas y sus chistes, dedicados especialmente al elemento infantil, fueron muy celebrados por aquel.

La música con que el maestro Morera acompaña algunos pasajes está tratada con gran desenfado; se repitió un coro de ministros, y merece mención especial la escena en que van desfilando los portadores del zapatito de la infanta.

también el decorado es vistoso y rico. El público llamó a escena, al terminar la obra, a los autores, pero, por no hallarse en el teatro el poeta, no quiso el músico recibir solo los aplausos. De estas participaron los actores señores Giménez, Santpere y Vinyals, encargados de los tres papeles principales de la nueva producción, y las señoras Morera y Baró."

Diario de Barcelona 265 (22/09/1907), p. 11140.

"Novament les portes del Principal varen obrir-se i les cortines s'escorregueren per a començar la temporada amb una obreta xamosa del aplaudit Pompeu Crehuet. Ningú més indicat que ell per a inaugurar una campanya teatral, perquè la firma és reputadíssima i L'encís dels divuit anys és un caramel·lo més bo que els que venen a la Plaça de l'Àngel.

Seguidament comença l'estrena d'una comèdia bufo-musical, que ¡demanin! dimonis; valents; una princesa encantada; un castell embruixat; cor de diables molt macos; un que arrenca pins; un altre que aixafa muntanyes i una sabatona que es perd i el que la troba se casa amb l'encantada (i aleshores ja desencantada) princeseta dels cabells d'or. En Joan de l'Ós és qui troba la xinel·la: el que baixant a un pou allà al castell misteriós l'ha salvada; i per fi, en Giménez és qui du a la Baró a l'església perquè el capellà me'ls lligui, encara que l'Enric ja és casat i la Baró vagi en camí de fer-ho, però no en comèdia, si no de debò.

La comèdia és una sàtira ignota i refinada, digna de la grapa d'en Apel·les Mestres; el públic esclafa en rialles i això és prou perquè es representi moltes vegades. La direcció molt ajustada, notant-s'hi bon estol d'assajos. La música no hi ha res nou, tret d'un cor de ministres (entre ells en Romanones, o que vol semblar-ho) que tingué que fer-se bis. En Joan de l'Ós perviurà en els cartells, perquè els contes amb bona sombra sempre són bonicois i esplaien.

El Principal ha començat amb bon peu. No cal dir que a la vetlla de la inauguració hi veiérem tota la plana major de la literatura.

Ja em vaig fer amic amb els porters, que són molt amables, i com que anaven afaitats i mudats de pontifical, em simpatitzaren i fins em digueren:

-¿Pase? Passi, passi... Benvingut sia L'avi.

Lo que vol dir que els xicots tenen respecte i saben que els 'vells són dignes de tenir-los-hi atenció. Que en Graner o l'Empresa els hi pagui."

L'avi 55 (25/09/1907), p. 4.

"L'Apel·les Mestres acaba de donar una nova prova del seu talent amb l'obreta Joan de l'Ós, que és una rondalla catalana portada a l'escena amb enginy, desembaràs i frescura. Una rondalla, si vostès volen, menos sentimental i un bon xic més caricaturesca que la celebrada Nit de reis, però graciosa, amb tipus ben dibuixats, plena d'incidents còmics, rica en bons acudits, impregnada de l'humorisme de la festiva musa popular catalana i escrita i dialogada de mà de mestre. Una rondalla, en fi, que entretindrà a la gent menuda i deleitarà a la gran, que és, sens dubte, lo que l'Apel·les se proposava i que no tots els autors tenen la fortuna de conseguir.

Unes quantes peces de música lleugera, fàcils, de poc desenrotllo, però d'una accentuació molt típica i adequada, degudes al mestre Morera, i la mise en scene esplèndida, i que en els figurins dona a conèixer la mà experta del famós caricaturista autor de l'obra, realçant l'espectacle, que alcançà un èxit extraordinari i segueix portant molta gent al teatre en les successives representacions.

L'execució, no del tot segura la nit de l'estreno, és de creure que anirà millorant, per posar-hi tots els actors una indiscutible bona voluntat. Se distingiren la Srta. Baró, la Sra. Morera i els Srs. Giménez, Santpere i Puiggarí."

"Joan de l'Ós.— Rondalla en dos actes i quatre quadros, lletra d'Apel·les Mestres, amb música d'Enric Morera.

L'afortunat autor de Nit de Reis ha donat una proba més de son inesgotable humorisme, creant una colla de tipos que es porten l'oli i fent-los dialogar de manera que farien riure

al mateix protagonista
d'Els savis de Vilatrista.

I consti que això no ho dic per propagar la comèdia d'en Rusiñol, sinó per aprofitar el consonant i perquè m'agrada fer versos que diguin veritats.

Doncs sí, la nova comèdia de l'eximi dibuixant poeta ha agradat i potser hauria agradat més si l'autor s'hagués descuidat de parodiar La redoma encantada (en el quadro tercer) i valer-se (en el segon) d'aquell tipo guerrer que tan popular va fer-lo en Pitarra en Lo castell dels tres dragons, model de paròdies a quines no ha pogut igualar cap autor, per més que són molts els que s'ho han proposat (i això no ho dic per l'Apel·les Mestres, ho dic pel crític de Lo poble català, qui demostra desconèixer per complert les gatades de l'estatuat Pitarra).

En l'execució s'hi distingí notablement el primer actor còmic de la casa, en Josep Santpere; treballaren també amb molta voluntat i mostraren sos mèrits, que no són pocs, el galan Enric Giménez, les dames Morera i Baró i els actors Puiggarí, Lapera, Barbosa, Vinyals, Giralt, Viñas, Morató, Garcia, Ginestet, Capdevila (fill) i altres.

L'eminent mestre, gloria de Catalunya, Enric Morera, ha compost uns quants números de música, tots ells de mèrit extraordinari, destacant-s'hi el del Savi Bricant i el valent Verdulaga, el dels ministres y el de la sabateta, de l'últim quadro."

La Escena catalana 52 (28/09/1907), p. 2.

"La novedad teatral de estos días la constituye la apertura del Principal con la obra de Apel·les Mestres titulada Joan de l'Ós. En ella, el poeta delicado aparece de vez en cuando, pero con más frecuencia el caricaturista, y hay escenas en las que los personajes, bufos y grotescos, pasan los límites de la chabacanería. Es de sentir, en mi humilde opinión, que pudiendo hacer cosas de más enjundia, el señor Mestres ponga a contribución su indudable talento para arrancar unas cuantas carcajadas al público.

La interpretación, el día del estreno, adoleció de falta de conjunto, tal vez por la falta de ensayos. Solo dos o tres artistas alcanzaron a dar a los personajes que interpretaban el necesario relieve. Es de esperar que en sucesivas representaciones se ponga mayor acierto, pues la obra, a pesar de la opinión que dejo apuntada, se representará mucho seguramente.

Álbum salón 243 (01/10/1907), p. 2.

"[...] L'obertura del Principal va fer-se amb l'estrena de la rondalla lírica de l'Apel·les Mestres i en Morera titulada En Joan de l'Ós. És cosa que entreté i diverteix, però no arriba a engrescar al públic com la Nit de reis dels mateixos autors.

Ben segur que l'Apel·les Mestres, a l'escriure En Joan de l'Ós no va tenir prou en compte la proporció que ha d'existir entre el tema i la mida de l'obra. I, com si hagués tingut obligació d'allargar-se, ha descompost en dos actes i quatre quadros una faula que podia ben passar amb la meitat de cada cosa. Si els dos actes fossin un i els quadros, dos, no hi hauria necessitat d'estiregassar escenes i omplir buits. Potser la bona disposició haurien estat tres quadros: un molt ràpid d'exposició dels tres valents (Joan de l'Ós, Gira-muntanyes i Arrenca-pins) i del llur propòsit de desencantar la princesa; un altre en el que es dugués a cap el desencantament, i un final animat amb l'arribada de la princesa al palau reial.

De totes maneres, l'obreta no deixa d'interessar, sent escrita amb la correcció de costum en l'Apel·les Mestres i duent com acompanyatge alguns nombres de música de caient còmic, entre els quals sobresurt per l'espontaneïtat un cor de ministres que el públic fa repetir sempre. La llàstima és que tant el poeta com el músic han semblat en certs indrets recordar-se massa de cert gènere d'obres líriques que no tenen cap parentiu amb el caràcter rondalles i ingenu que deuria constituir l'ambient de l'obra, donat el seu tema popular. [La partitura inclou un preludi instrumental, un vals cantat per en Felip i l'Emília recordant el dia de la seva boda i l'amor que es professen, uns cuplets repetits tres vegades que canta en Ramon sobre com de difícils són les dones, un duo de Felip i Emília amb la tornada concertant on ella li recrimina enganyar-la amb una altra dona i ell l'acusa d'ofendre'l amb falses acusacions, coincidint tots dos que estaven més tranquils solters, i, com a final, la represa de les parts instrumentals del número primer].

"Principal.— Com unes malves.— Es lástima que la empresa del teatro Principal haya dado un tan grande tropezón con este estreno. Pero es preciso, que para bien de nuestro teatro procure enmendarse la empresa no estrenando obras que, como Com unes malves, quizá se avergonzarían de representar después de una sesión cinematográfica, en cualquier salón de menor cuantía.

Ni un solo acierto nuevo y todas las vulgaridades viejas tiene la sarsuelita estrenada anoche y que seguramente no volverá a parecer en el cartel. No encontré yo una sola escena, un solo número loable. Y la claque no obstante, con una perfecta impunidad aplaudió varias veces durante la representación y al finalizar. Y el autor de la música salió a las tablas.

"PRINCIPAL.— Com unes malves, comèdia en un acte, lletra d'en Lluís Puiggarí, música d'en P. i. J. Parera.

Molt bé que l'empresa del teatre Principal comenci la temporada amb l'estrena d'una obra deguda a dos reputats autors. És molt difícil predir els èxits en qüestions teatrals. Però després de l'estrena de Joan de l'Ós era necessari, tant pel bon nom i per l'interès de l'empresa com per l'educació i pel bon nom de l'art teatral català, donar al públic obres triades i que posin a digno lloc el nostre pobre teatre.

Això era d'esperar, més després d'assistir a l'estrena d'anit, ens en hem endut un desengany. L'empresa del coliseu del Pla de les Comèdies o no té aquestes mires, o no vol tenir-les.

Com unes malves, literàriament, és un passatemps distret, però mancat de gràcia i d'esperit. L'obra no logra interessar malgrat haver-hi ocasions en les quals una mà més hàbil ho hauria lograt. Amb tot, encara se sosté una mica gràcies a alguns acudits una mica arbitraris. A la música d'aquesta obra no li sabérem trobar cap bona qualitat. Emperò, el senyor Parera, al final, va presentar-se a les taules.

"Com unes malves.— Comèdia lírica en un acte i en prosa, traducció de Lluís Puiggarí, música de P. Parera.

Confessem que quan vam veure l'original d'aquesta comèdia, fa molts anys, en castellà (que ja venia del francès) i que da per títol Basta de suegros, va agradar-nos per lo xistós de l'assumpto i pels acudits dels sogres d'ambos sexos. Més tard, vam veure-la en català, amb el títol de La guerra a casa; arreglada i en vers pel malaguanyat Conrat Colomer, qui va empedrar-la de xistos, i, per aquest motiu, vam fruir més veient-la en nostra llengua que en la forastera.

Mes, ai, dispensi'ns el Sr. Puiggarí, al veure sa traducció i al comprovar que desmereixia en gràcia a les avantdites, tinguérem tal disgust que... no ens veiem amb cor d'allargar la crítica. Esperem que l'autor se reivindicarà fent quelcom original, encara que no sigui només que per desagraviar al Teatre Catalá.

"Con el título Els entremaliats se estrenó anoche en el teatro Principal un juguete cómico-lírico en un acto, original el libro de los señores F. Figueras i Ribot y F. de Boter y la música de F. Salvat.

La producción que nos ocupa no constituye ninguna novedad ni por el asunto ni en su desarrollo, pero da ocasión al actor cómico señor Santpere para regocijar al público en una escena y cantando y bailando unos couplets, que hubo de repetir. La música, aunque algo pretenciosa, dada la índole del libro, es agradable y está muy bien instrumentada. El público llamó a escena a los autores."

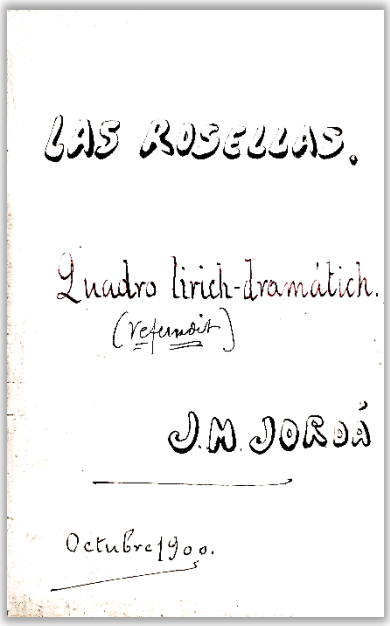
"Els entremaliats.— Joguet còmic-líric en un acte, lletra de Francisco Figuras Ribot i Francesc de Boter, música del Mtre. Salvat.

És una comèdia feta amb motllos vells, que estrenada trenta anys enrere hauria obtingut un èxit satisfactori. Malgrat aquest defecte, com que el diàleg és ben portat i té gràcies intercalades, el públic hi riu i celebra l'humorisme dels autors, en especial les escenes on s'hi belluga la figura del comediant vell, tipo molt ben representat pel cèlebre Santpere.



La part musical és de bon efecte, sent de consideració el número del preludi i el de l'exposició del comediant.

La interpretació, molt ajustada, per lo que es fa aplaudir el treball de les Sres. Baró, Morató, Serrats i els Srs. Santpere, Puiggarí, Capdevila (fill) i Viñas."

"Quadro líric-dramàtic (refundit)

J. M.ª Jordà, 1900.

Lletra de J. M.ª Jordà. Música d'Adrià Esquerrà.

L'escena representa l'era d'una casa de pagès ric davant mateix de la fatxada. En el fons, cap a un costat, la fatxada de la casa, gran, amb gran portalada que deixa veure la taula a dins. A un costat, una finestra. Sobre la porta, balcó. En la paret, un rellotge de sol i entre la porta i la finestra, un altaret fet sobre la pedra amb la Mare de Déu del Roser. Fora de la casa, un banc a primer terme seguint a lo llarg dels bastidors un emparrat formant com una glorieta on hi ha bancs i taules.

Escena I.

A l'alçar-se el teló, figura que és al començar la tarda. Se sentiran lluny els cants dels segadors mentre fan la feina i els de les xicotes segant barrejant-se amb la cançó d'un pastor. La simfonia i cors antedits han de ser per donar un ambient d'estiu i de sol a l'escena.

Mentre se senten els cants, la Roser estarà en escena arreglant amb flors l'altaret de la fatxada de la casa. [...]

Escena II. Els mateixos, Maria i Agneta. [...]

Escena III. Els mateixos i Ramon.

Ramon (Sortint de la casa) [...] (Veient a les xicotes) [...] (Acostant-se a la Roser) [...] [Roser] (Baixant el cap) [...] (Surten el coixet i Ramon, entrant de nou a la casa).

Escena IV. Roser, Agneta i Maria.

[Roser] (S'assenta i es posa a plorar) [...] (Mirant i amb precipitació) [...] (Surt corrents).

Escena V. Agneta, Maria, Dolors, Gregori, Oriol (i després coixet).

(Dolors, Gregori i Oriol surten junts els tres. Oriol, al costat de sa mare. El noi és un ensopit. Dolors, estranya i dominadora. Gregori és un beneit) [...] (Oriol s'haurà quedat enraonant amb les xicotes) [...] (Se'n van a dins les dues xicotes) [...] [Dolors] (Agafant a Oriol i sacsejant-lo i arreglant-li la corbata, la gorra i tota la roba) [...] (Apareix coixet a la porta amb un porró a cada mà) [...] [Gregori] (Agafa el porró i beu) [...] (Entren dins Dolors i Gregori).

Escena VI. Oriol, coixet, de seguida Roser.

[...] (Surt Roser) [...] [Coixet] (Arregla la taula de sota l'emparrat) [...] (Des de lluny) [...] (Se sent cantar a Andreu) [...] (Surten Oriol i coixet).

Escena VII. Roser i Andreu.

(Surt Andreu amb un pom de roselles a la mà i s'adelanta fins a trobar a Roser) [Cançó de l'Andreu, duet amb la Roser].

Escena VIII. Roser, Andreu i coixet un moment.

Coixet (Des de la porta) [...] (Roser va cap a la fatxada i les col·loca [les roselles] en l'altaret guarnint de manera que es vegin bé) [...] (Coixet se'n va cap al fons vigilant. Roser arregla de nou les roselles, després s'adelanta i arrenca a plorar) [...] [Andreu] (Amb serietat) [...] (Apasionat) [...] Coixet (Apareixent) [...] (Se sent enraonar a l'Oriol i als seus pares) [...] [Andreu] (Surt corrents).

Escena IX. Roser, coixet, Oriol, Ramon, Gregori, Dolors, Maria i Agneta.

[...] (Surt Roser fincant-se a dins la casa) [...] (Entra el pastor) [...] (Les dues xicotes estan parlant amb l'Oriol. Gregori, Ramon i pastor formaran un altre grup. Pastor beu un trago que li ofereix Ramon) [...] (Mentre parlen va entrant gent, xicots i xicotes que saludaran a tots, quedant-se formant grups. En Gregori s'haurà separat de Ramon) [...] (Se'n van anant cap al fondo conversant) [...] (Comença a sentir-se el cant de les segadores que arriben) (Des del fons) (Va entrant gent, segadores i segadors) [...] Coixet (Anant i traient-la del sarró que haurà deixat el pastor al banc) [...] (Ensenyant la tenora) [...] (El pastor figurarà que toca la sardana. Els demés la ballaran, menys el coixet i l'Oriol. Ramon i Gregori al fons mirant l'escena).

Escena X. Els mateixos i Roser i Dolors. Després, Andreu.

Fi de Les roselles."

"[...] Allí le dejé para ver un cuadro lírico que han estrenado en el Principal, Les roselles, letra de Jordà, música de nuestro intrépido amigo el maestro Esquerrà, aquel mismo a quien traté mal con el triste motivo de haber hecho el año pasado y en el dicho teatro para Les calderes d'en Pere Botero una música naturalmente infernal, que el susodicho Botero no lo tome en cuenta si Esquerrà acaba en sus diabólicos dominios. Pues por esta vez hay que alabar a Esquerrà, que ha escrito para Les roselles una sardana verdaderamente deliciosa, que recomiendo a los bailarines de la plaza de Tetuán. La sardana sola vale por todo el libro de Jordà, hecho con asunto venerable de puro viejo, aunque esté desarrollado con discreta sobriedad, y habría parecido mejor si se hubiese cantado y bailado con más brío; pero en esto, como en el resto, me pareció la interpretación un poco gris, fuera de la Morera, Vinyals y Santpere.

Nada digo de unas segadoras con cuerpos de terciopelo en pleno verano, porque el amigo Quimenas [¿Giménez?] me prometió desnudarlas honestamente; pero me dieron mucha lástima aquellas niñas del coro tan aterciopeladas y con tantísimo calor, y me pregunto lleno de zozobra para qué diablos sirven los ensayos que aquí llamamos eufónicamente generales, y que en puridad no llegan a la modesta categoría de tenientes coroneles. Un poco más cuidado hubo en la reprise del sainete de don Ramón de la Cruz El café de Barcelona, que la empresa del Principal ha tenido el buen gusto de sacar de los limbos del olvido. […]"

"Anoche se dio en el teatro Principal la segunda representación del sainete de D. Ramón de la Cruz, El café de Barcelona. En conjunto, el desempeño de la obra resultó más acabado que en la noche anterior. Los artistas fueron llamados tres veces a la escena al terminar la representación.

En dicho teatro se ha estrenado, con aplauso, una obra titulada Les roselles, letra de D. José M.ª Jordà y música del señor Esquerrà. La acción, que es animada y no carece de interés, se desarrolla en una casa de campo de Cataluña. El público aplaude especialmente un dúo para tenor y tiple y una sardana."

"El sereno del carrer, que com ja saben també és ver admirador de l'art de Talia, Apolo i altres senyors de alta copete, va preguntar-me com anaven les coses de la balleruga, perquè el pobre, entre obrir i tancar escales des de les deu a les cinc d'altra matinada, està que no pot anar enlloc, tret d'algunes tardes que per disfrutar un rato va al Principal; l'home allò de Les roselles li va escaure bon xic, encara que trobà certa fredor amb el diàleg amb tot i volguer estar escrit amb molta pretensió escènica; però és lo que va dir-me i jo penso com ell:

—Altres coses més dolentes ens empassem, amb tot i volguer estar dotats de bon paladar.

I satisfet mentre removia el gruixut bastó que li fa de company, em digué:

—Les solfes no tenen res de nou; jo he sentit del mateix Adrià coses més boniques i més ben instrumentades; escaient d'altres composicions, a Les roselles hi manca.

—Bé —li vaig dir jo, davant de tanta indecisió— us ha agradat o no?

—Bé... sí... remugà sacsejant el cap. [...]"

L'avi 58 (16/10/1907), p. 3.

"Les roselles, un acte d'en J. M.ª Jordà, és una obreta senzilla, sense pretensions, d'escàs interès, però escrita esmeradament i molt a propòsit per a que el compositor Sr. Esquerrà s'hi llueixi a l'exornar-la amb algunes peces de música. I s'hi ha lluit de veres, donant proves de la seva inspiració, principalment en el preludi que és una bella peca de música descriptiva, i en una sardana, airosa i castissa, que és d'aquelles que queden."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1503 (18/10/1907), pp. 679–681.

"Les roselles.— Comèdia lírica en un acte, lletra de J. M.ª Jordà, música del Mtre. Adrià Esquerrà.

Poc s'hi va capficar son autor al desenrotllar la acció que motiva la comèdia, acció i argument que era moda abans de que l'Aulés se dediqués a fer comèdies i, no obstant, els crítics sabis no l'han trobat antiquada ni barroera. Quina imparcialitat, niños de la prensa!

La música, sí, va agradar-nos molt més que la lletra, i l'obra sigué aplaudida i l'autor fou cridat a taules. Sigué superior el treball de l'eximi Santpere i de l'eminent Morera. Quina obra no s'alça amb aquests dos factors? També varen agradar-nos la Sra. Morató i els Srs. Puiggarí, Vinyals, Capdevila (a qui aviat li haurem de dedicar capítol apart) i Morató."

La Escena catalana 55 (19/10/1907), pp. 2–3.

"[...] L'obreta estrenada a l'antic teatre es titula Les roselles i en són autors en J. M.ª Jordà de la lletra i el mestre Esquerrà de la música. El tema no és pas del tot nou i els caràcters fan com el tema. Se tracta d'un padrí que vol fer casar a la seva fillola —que és al mateix temps afillada— amb un hereu de molts cabals i poca intel·ligència. En canvi, la noia estima a un jove modest, sense que ho sàpiga el padrí, però un mosso coixet fa per manera de publicar els amors de la noia, i el padrí, a l'enterar-se'n, se dona tot seguit per convençut i fa la voluntat de la noia.

Amb tot i tractar-se d'un tema tan corrent, l'obreta s'escolta amb cert gust per la bona fe i la discreció amb què ha estat escrita. El mestre Esquerrà, en la part musical, ha demostrat els coneixements que té de la nostra música popular i de l'art de la instrumentació. [...]"

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Lluís Arenys, esto huele a pseudónimo, que diria el Unamuno i que Don Teodor Baró s'ho callaria. Però el nom no importa i l'obra tampoc, tan insubstancial resulta el sainet estrenat anit que no logrà interessar ni divertir al públic. I no res més. A què parlar i insistir sobre la mala qualitat de tantes obres insignificants com s'estrenen, si els autors no volen corregir-se?

Parlem per aquesta mena d'autors "desenterrats" que sembla que es vulguin apoderar de nou del teatre català per a acabar d'esmicolar-lo. Però el mateix públic s'encarrega d'anar-los deixant de racó, com ho demostrà part del que assistí al Principal, protestant dignament de la qualitat d'obres com L'hort d'en Xurrumeco.

En canvi no protestà pas de la visió El fill del rei. En Manuel Marinel·lo ha sapigut treure bon partit d'aquella cançó popular que comença:

Si n'eren tres ninetes — vora un torrent,
l'una renta bugada — l'altra l'estén,
l'altra cull violetes — pel fill del rei,

escrivint quatre quadros de plàcida espontaneïtat i de fresca poesia.

El mestre Amadeu Argelaga l'ha vestit d'un ropatge musical verament esplendorós. Música suau, grata i dorca inspirada que acaba de dur a l'esperit la visió justa d'aquella nina que després de collir violes se tanca en un convent i d'aquell príncep que, ferit d'amor, se'n va a la guerra santa.

La senyoreta Morató i el senyor Santpere en particular, així com tots els intèrprets de l'obra, estigueren justos.

Els autors foren cridats a les taules, on reberen els nodrits aplaudiments del públic.

"Anoche se estrenaron en el teatro Principal dos obras: L'hort d'en Xhurrumeco y Lo fill del Rei; la primera es un sainete en un acto, sin pretensiones, pero que contiene algunos chistes que el público rio, pronunciándose el nombre del autor, D. Luis Arenys [pseudònim de Teodor Baró], al final de la representación.

La segunda consiste en una visión de espectáculo o cuento infantil en cuatro cuadros, discretamente dialogada. El asunto se limita a una aldeana que se prenda del hijo del Rey y que tiene que ingresar en un claustro, mientras el galón, por mandato paterno, tiene que ir a pelear en una cruzada.

El libreto es de M. Marinel·lo y la música del joven maestro señor Argelaga. La partitura no acusa a un técnico conocedor del arte de instrumentar, pero sí bastante inspiración, pues la parte melódica es fresca y espontánea, debiendo señalarse principalmente la canción con que empieza la obra y el dúo que cantan la señorita Morató y el señor Santpere.

La obra obtuvo buena acogida, teniendo que presentarse los autores al final del primer cuadro y al terminar aquella varias veces."

Diario de Barcelona 299 (26/10/1907), ed. vespre, pp. 12653–12654.

"L'hort d'en Xurrumeco es una cosa tan reprobablemente insustancial que, a pesar del seudónimo, se piensa enseguida en D. Teodoro Baró. La obrita es tan mala, tan estupendamente mala, que no puede ser más que del Sr. Baró… Si el autor del esperpento estrenado anoche tuviese conciencia, el esperpento no se hubiese estrenado nunca… […]

Algo mejor que este desgraciado sainete es la visión musical El fill del rei, letra de Marinel·lo, música de Argelaga, aunque quizá se ve perjudicada por la lentitud de un desarrollo que a veces es poético y a veces encantado… y a veces es insustancial. Además, todo está quizá resuelto harto fragmentariamente.

La música me pareció bella e inspirada; música digna de aplausos. En la interpretación distinguiéronse la Srta. Morató y el Sr. Santpere.

Farfarello."

La Publicidad 4129 (26/10/1907), p. 3.

"L'hort d'en Xurrumecu és una cosa que amb tot i anar firmada per Lluís d'Arenys, té l'aire de ser de don Teodor Baró. I és molt possible que ho sigui, perquè don Lluís d'Arenys «no es trobava a l'escenari». La filiació d'aquesta obra és la mateixa dels celebrats entremesos En Saldoni i la Margarida, Qui no té pa moltes se'n pensa i altres per l'estil.

El fill del rei ja entra en el gènere de les visions musicals, sent com altres obretes del mateix estil una glossa d'una cançó popular catalana. Glossa és la lletra i glossa és la música.

Si n'eren tres ninetes
mes ai!
vora un torrent;
l'una en renta bugada
mes ai!
l'altra la estén...

I passa el fill del rei i tira una pedreta i toca a una de les tres donzelles... Qui tira pedretes, tira amoretes... El fill del rei i la donzella se són enamorats. Però si una noia és per un rei, aquella no pot ser pel príncep que l'ha enamorada, perquè el rei no ho vol. I la noia és tancada a un convent i quan s'és feta monja, el fill del rei marxa a la creuada. Marxa coratjós, perquè sap que hi ha una verge que prega per ell.

Veus-aquí la faula que ha inspirat a n'en Marinel·lo l'acció escènica de la nova visió musical, dividida en quatre quadros tallats amb traça per a mantenir l'atenció del públic.

El mestre Argelaga ha tractat la part musical a la moderna, però sense complicacions, apoiant-se gairebé sempre en el cant popular, al que fa surar entre les harmonies d'inspiració pròpia. Amb tot i aquest exquisit respecte per la melodia popular, no per això ha deixat el músic en alguns trossos d'anar pel seu compte, fent-ho amb veritable acert, sobre tot en un duo entre el rei i el fill del rei al segon acte i en el preludi de l'obra.

En conjunt, la música resulta distingida, suau, agradosa a l'orella i a l'esperit."

"Principal.— Anoche se estrenaron en este teatro dos obras tituladas L'hort d'en Xurrumecu i Lo fill del rei.

La primera es una cosa anodina y muy mal escrita. La empresa obrará en beneficio de sus intereses y del arte si la retira inmediatamente. No recordamos el nombre del autor de esta obra (?), no importa, porque le aconsejamos que no escriba más para el teatro. Los actores han perdido lastimosamente el tiempo estudiando L'hort d'en Xurrumecu.

Lo fill del rei. Si el autor de esta visión de espectáculo no fuera nuestro querido compañero de redacción don Manuel Marinel·lo, expondríamos con toda claridad la opinión altamente favorable que nos ha merecido; mas, cohibidos por tal circunstancia, nos limitaremos a consignar que Lo fill del rei alcanzó un éxito franco y merecido.

La música es original del joven compositor señor Argelaga y se distingue por su novedad y riqueza de instrumentación. La obra fue bien presentada y los actores la desempeñaron con voluntad. El numeroso público que llenaba el teatro Principal aplaudió Lo fill del rei y llamó a sus autores al palco escénico al final de cada cuadro repetidas veces."

"[…] I ara que parlo del Principal, no em recordava de que el divendres passat s'hi feren dugues estrenes, a parells!, originals d'en Lluís Arenys (bola) i del nostre amic Llimoner (veritat, encara que es digui Marinel·lo).

L'una, put a Baró, no sé si m'entenen; l'altra ja és cosa delicada i de gust exquisit.

Tot lo que el sainet titulat L'hort d'en Xurrumeco decau per xavacà i mala sombra, El fill del rei és un cant hermós ple de lirisme pur, sense fabricació de cap mena. Honra per en Marinel·lo i vergonya per l'Arenys; no el poble xamós de bones ametlles, sinó al sofisticat Arenys d'apellido. Quan vaig sentir als cartells aital nom, va semblar-se recordar a un tal Busquets, que també fa bromes canviant de cèdula de veïnat, però val més que ho faci així; els jocs de disbarats convé amagar-los. [...]"

L'avi 60 (30/10/1907), p. 3.

"Una vegada el fill del rei va anar a Horta i, tot tirant pedretes, va tocar a una gentil bugadera. La qual era una mica gandula, ja que mentre dues germanes seves rentaven, ella s'entretenia collint violetes. Com que una noia és per un rei, la gentil bugadera pensava que bé podia ser ella per un fill de rei. I el fill del rei trobava que sí, i veus-aquí que de les pedretes varen venir les amoretes i ja tenim a la bugadera mandrosa en camí de reina. Però el pare del fill del rei, o sigui, el rei en persona, s'entera dels amors i no s'hi avé. I jo li aprovo, perquè una noia que de soltera s'entreté collint violes a l'hora de rentar, quan tingués família no podria portar la casa de cap manera.

Lo que ja no m'està tan bé és el despotisme del rei, o sigui, del pare del fill del rei. Que no deixi casar al noi amb una dona que no faria per la casa, bé; però que obligui a la noia a fer-se monja, no es pot tolerar, per rei que sigui el pare del fill del rei. I, no obstant, ningú protesta i la noia és portada a un convent de Sant Gervasi, prop de la delegació de districte de la Creu Roja.

Ho té tot molt ben calculat en Marinel·lo, autor de la lletra d'El fill del rei. Ja veuran a lo que va. Vet aquí que, així que la noia acaba de fer-se monja, arriba el fill del rei i la mare de la gentil bugadera li diu: «Has fet tard, minyó». I ell, al restar sol a n'aquelles altures de Sant Gervasi, fa una cantada. I veus-aquí que surt a una gelosia la nova monja i també canta, i el fill del rei se'n va disposat a fer-ne una de grossa, però a la cuenta quan passa pel davant de la delegació de la Creu Roja, té una pensada. Això no es veu, però s'explica al últim quadro, en què es presenta el fill del rei formant part d'una ambulància de la Creu Roja que se'n va a la guerra rus-japonesa a aconduir ferits.

Tot això que us acabo d'explicar ho ha endegat en Marinel·lo en quatre quadros escrits amb correcció i traça als que ha posat música el mestre Argelaga, a qui, segons m'ha dit en Xim-xim [crític musical de la revista], pot alabar-se força per la discreció amb què ha glossat el cant popular i la inspiració amb què ha sabut enlairar-se a estones.

Lo que no pot anar ni amb rodes és una cosa estrenada la mateixa nit i al mateix Principal, titulada L'hort d'en Xurrumecu i firmada per Lluís d'Arenys (encara que tot seguit un s'adona que és del Sr. Baró del Brusi.) [...]

"El fill del Rei.*—Visió lírica en quatre quadros, lletra de Manel Marinel·lo, música del Mestre Argelaga.

Un clar moment d'inspiració va fer escriure a l'excel·lent poeta Marinel·lo aquesta obreta estrenada amb bon èxit al Principal. La frescor de la cançó popular al passar pels dits de l'autor dramàtic ha servat el seu encant. L'abillament escènic no ha tret ni una de las gràcies de la senzillesa de la cançó.

És això l'obra... La senzillesa que atrau, l'allunyament de malícia que interessa, la poesia que perfuma. Tot això mateix, no tractat per un literat com en Marinel·lo, sens dubte hauria resultat pàl·lid, sense relleu.

L'execució bona. En Santpere i la Morató molt bé dintre l'ambient de l'obra afortunada. Les dames Guerra, Gotarredona i els actors Giralt, Morató i Fugasot, molt discrets...

La música del mestre Argelaga és de les més inspirades que ens han ofert els mestres nous en l'escenari del Principal. Massissa, delicada, mestrament instrumentada, refrena el vol ample que va a emprendre a estones per a cenyir-lo humilment, honradament a la senzillesa de l'obra.

Autor, mestre i intèrprets foren cridats a escena al final de tots els quadros."

La Escena catalana 58 (09/11/1907), p. 2.

"Les darreres estrenes pre-tenoriesques de l'any han estat les realitzades al Principal amb la visió El fill del rei d'en Manel Marinel·lo amb música del Mestre Argelaga i el sainet en un acte, firmat per Lluís d'Arenys, L'hort d'en Xurrumeco. Què se'n pot esperar d'una obra que porti aquest títol? Res de bo. I res de bo va resultar L'hort d'en Xurrumeco, producció sense art ni literatura ni res que s'ho valgui.

El fill del rei ja és altra cosa. Sense que es pugui considerar com una obra de volada, és una glossa traçuda de la cançó popular:

> Si n'eren tres ninetes — vora un torrent,
> l'una renta bugada — l'altra l'estén,
> l'altra cull violetes — pel fill del rei.

La cançó és prou coneguda. El fill del rei passa, tira una pedreta i toca l'amor: —toca-la ben tocada, mes ai!, al mig del cor.— I com que una noia és per un rei, la parella vol casar-se. Però el rei no ho vol i la noia és tancada en un convent i el seu amador marxa a la Creuada. En Marinel·lo ha dividit l'acció en quatre quadros, que resulten força arrodonits i interessants. També és ben escaienta la música del Mestre Argelaga, que, tot glossant la melodia popular, s'aixeca a voltes en tocs ben sentits d'inspiració pròpia. La instrumentació, sense gaires complicacions, és ben tractada a la moderna. [...]

"[...] Al Principal ha fracassat el drama d'en Morató Un racó de món, essent les úniques obres que s'hi aguanten En Joan de l'Ós, de n'Apel·les Mestres, y la visió El fill del rei, d'en Marinel·lo, que tenen quelcom de consistència, sobre tot la darrera, per la bona combinació dels quadros, molt ben presentats seguint fidelment l'argument de la cançó popular del mateix títol, i especialment per la música d'en Argelaga, basada en la tonada antiga, sobre la que va desarrollant-se magistralment, produint encantador efecte en l'ànim del públic.

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Quadro I: Feréstega frondositat d'un bosc de la baronia de Guillem d'Irnell. Cabana del llenyater Aleix." "L'Aleix i els seus treballadors estan destralejant una vella soca de pi, mentre Laia, muller del primer, fa el sopar sota el porxo de la cabana. Passa una colla de llenyaters, els quals, havent ja acabat la jornada, fan via a poblat. Canten."

"[...] Arriba en Lari, qui ve de la vila, i responent a les demostracions de l'angúnia que havien passat sos pares per sa tardança, explica com la baronessa estava agonitzant." "Se posen a sopar amb una harmonia que meravella a en Lari, quan els corprèn l'eco funeral de les campanes del castell. La baronessa és morta!... Comenten aquest cas i en lo més viu de la conversa els interromp l'udolar de la llopada, quin va essent més feroç i proper."

"Al fons del camí, com inflamat per sa capa vermella i pel dolor que l'afolla, apareix el baró Guillem d'Irnell incitant als llops. Al veure a l'Aleix, s'esvera i creu que és una ombra que l'infern vomita a son pas per a recordar-li son crim. Emperò sap imposar-se a sa bogeria naixent i, muntant en el cavall d'en Lari, fuig a través dels boscos il·luminats pels llamps, després d'anunciar la nova vida que va a emprendre. "Acaba el quadro amb una pregària de la Laia."

[85] Estrena prevista per al dia 8 (imprès així a la portada dels llibrets), però endarrerida fins al dia 12.

“Uc conversa amb sa muller dient-li que vol que sa filla, l’hermosa Anna-Maria, professi en el convent fundat per sa germana Maria. [...]” [...] “Després, un cop ha quedat sola l’escena, apareix Anna-Maria tota corpresa d’aquesta cançó que canta a flor de llavi.”

“Així la sorprèn l’Agnès, amiga seva i damisel·la, tota cor-alegra d’un amor feliç. L’Anna-Maria li respon que aquella melangiosa cançó la té apresa d’un gentil trobaire qui cantava al peu de la capella de Sant Marçal.” “En això, entren dames i cavallers i té lloc una festa. Ballen els camperols, i en Catacruc, qui és el sac de rialles del castell, canta. [...]” “És Rodamon qui canta. Ha demanat aixopluc i distreu als soldats en el lloc d’armes del castell. El comte el fa entrar i s’origina una escena violenta entre els dos. Uc d’Irnell queda vençut per la bravesa del gest i la paraula del cantaire errant. Canta la mateixa cançó que ja hem sentit dels llavis d’Anna-Maria. [...]”

“És hora de partir amb el navili que els espera engarlandat de flors i banderes. Rodamon se despedeix de la Laia, en quina casa han passat la nit, i li posa a les mans una caixeta on guarda quelcom de sa infantesa per a que la dongui a Fra Guillem. Se’n van.” “Rodamon i Anna-Maria passen entre el poble que els festeja.”

“[...] Uc d’Irnell diu al botxí que compleixi sa voluntat i, al quedar sol, entra en deliri. Follament reconeix que en Rodamon l’avantatja en bravesa i vol i dol la seva mort. En son estat de febre li sembla sentir la veu dels seus passats com si s’escruixissin de son càstig sagnant.”

“Fra Guillem, abatut pel més profund dels penediments, confessa [...]” “Uc d’Irnell presenta els nous senyors al poble, qui esclata en cants d’alegria [...]”

Ressenyes de premsa:

"El divendres tindrà lloc al teatre Principal l'estrena de la visió en dos actes Rodamon, lletra de don Rafael Nogueras Oller i música de donya Narcisa Freixas.

El repartiment de l'obra és aqueix: Laia, senyora Morera; Agna Maria, senyoreta Morató; Agnès, senyoreta Gotarredona; Marta, senyora Huguet; Huch, senyor Barbosa; Catacruc, senyor Santpere; Lari, senyor Lapera; Aleix, senyor Vinyals; Guillem, senyor Giménez; Rodamon, senyor Morató; noble primer, senyor Ginestet; noble segon, senyor Capdevila; criat, senyor Baró; llenyataire, senyor Fugasot.

Tenim entès que l'obra agradarà molt al públic i que la música de la senyora Freixas ha de cridar poderosament l'atenció per la seva frescor i per la ingenuïtat popular que la caracteritza.

No podia ser d'altra manera tractant-se de la inspirada autora de les Cançons d'infants i dels Ballets, que tantes vegades ha demostrat palesament les seves qualitats d'elegància i exquisides musicals."

"L'empresa del teatre Principal ens participà ahir que, per no estar llestos alguns detalls del decorat, era impossible efectuar l'estrena de l'obra Rodamon, la qual tindrà lloc el dimarts vinent."

"Hoy se estrenará en el teatro Principal la obra lírica de espectáculo, letra de Nogueras Oller, música de Narcisa Freixas, titulada Rodamon, que no pudo estrenarse el pasado viernes a causa de no estar convenientemente arreglado el decorado."

"[...] Passant al Principal, direm que l'obra del nostre amic Nogueras Oller i de donya Narcisa Freixas no pogué fer-se el divendres, estrenant-se a l'hora que aquest nombre [de la revista] entre en màquina. Ja en parlarem, perquè en Rafel sap a on té la mà dreta i de la manera que maneja el mànec. [...]"

"Anoche en el teatro Principal se estrenó una especie de leyenda melodramática en dos actos divididos en cinco cuadros, titulada Rodamon, letra de Nogueras Oller, música de la señora Freixas. La obra en algunos pasajes revela a un literato que piensa y piensa hondo, pero que no conoce los resortes teatrales. Así se echa de ver una absoluta falta de unidad en la acción dramática, resultando un aislamiento de uno a otro cuadro. Tampoco resulta muy clara la parte expositiva, sin duda porque el autor no quiere sacrificar lo que él considera efecto final.

El cuadro primero, a pesar de sus tonos excesivamente melodramáticos, llega a interesar y es sin duda el mejor trazado. No es muy lógica la escena amorosa en los claustros del convento y menos la presencia de un religioso y de la abadesa, siquiera estos personajes estén unidos por lazos de parentesco con la enamorada pareja. El tipo de bufón no resulta con su acción en la obra ni produce el resultado que el autor se ha propuesto sin duda. De todos modos, como apuntado queda, si no es meritoria la labor del autor dramático, lo es la del poeta sentimental y literato. La música se desliza toda ella, aún en las situaciones dramáticas, dentro de un ambiente popular melódico agradable, aunque otro mérito no tenga.

Los autores fueron llamados con entusiasmo a escena, presentándose el señor Nogueras Oller. La señora Freixas desde un palco saludó al público, que le aplaudía."

"TEATRE PRINCIPAL.— Estrena de Rodamon, obra lírica en dos actes, lletra de Nogueras Oller, música de Narcisa Freixas.

Amb una faula entretinguda, pintoresca i dramàtica, els autors de Rodamon, desacertats, han fet una obra esllanguida, monòtona i mig grotesca. Tenien ocasió d'escriure escenes interessants i emocionadores, amb honors de visió poemàtica i només han sabut donar a les taules un seguit d'escenes deslligades, fragmentàries, tan aviat vulgars com ridícules, d'aquella ridiculesa deplorable dels qui no han pogut arribar als cims de lo tràgic i cauen rodolant muntanya de lo grotesc avall.

La història del trovaire errant, fill desconegut del crudel comte, oferia ample camp a la fantasia del poeta i a la inspiració de la compositora. Semblava que en Nogueras Oller i donya Narcisa Freixas, coneguts ventatjosament en la poesia i en la música catalanes, havien de treure de l'argument de l'obra tot el gran partit que realment se'n pot treure. L'estrena de Rodamon ha demostrat que aquesta vegada no han tingut sort ni l'un ni l'altre. Mai amb tanta justesa com ara puc estampar aquell vell clixé crític que diu "l'obra és una equivocació..."

L'autor personalíssim de Les tenebroses no posseeix pas el domini del somélier teatral. Per defectes de construcció, de tècnica, l'acció queda quasi sempre boirosa i inexplicada, les escenes careixen en absolut de solució de continuïtat, i els que deurien ésser moments solemnials de forta emoció dramàtica resulten situacions còmiques, que fan riure en lloc d'emocionar. Afegeixi's a n'això una sèrie d'impropietats i estranyeses —tal com el cake-walk a l'edat mitja, els convents amb frares i monges barrejats, els hàbits monacals de Calatrava, etc., etc.— i es comprendrà el perquè de certs remors d'indiscret regositg que s'ofèn durant la representació.

Una cosa censurable, altament censurable, haig de retreure i vituperar. Me refereixo a l'actitut que anit observà el públic del Principal. Malgrat l'èxit negatiu de l'obra estrenada, malgrat l'error evident i innegable dels seus autors, una bona part de l'auditori, per mòbils que no vull desentranyar, s'entossudí en que Rodamon obtingués un èxit sorollós, un èxit apoteòsic i memorable. Aquesta part de l'auditori aplaudí a tort i a dret i cridà amb terrible insistència als autors al prosceni, abusant de la prudència excessiva dels públics de per aquí. I lo pitjor del cas és que entre els que, de veres o de broma, se ajuntaren a l'ovació hi havia molts intel·lectuals —i intel·lectuals autèntics— que es trobaven anit al Principal.

Per aquests camins s'hi perdrà, a no trigar gaire, l'art escènic català. Si es persisteix en la funesta pràctica d'aplaudir-ho tot, convertint en èxits enlluernadors lo que en qualsevol part del món civilitzat seria objecte d'una protesta segura, el nostre teatre s'entollarà en un bassal de banalitat i de grolleria i se desacreditarà irremeiablement. Els senyors que ahir a la nit picaven furiosament de mans i s'esgargamellaven cridant "l'autor!" i "l'autora!" inconscientment causaven un notori perjudici a la nostra literatura dramàtica. Un foraster amb sentit comú i gust artístic que hagués presenciat l'estrena de Rodamon i l'espectacle dels amics dels autors ovacionant l'obra s'hauria format un tristíssim concepte de Catalunya i del seu art teatral. Per torna, d'un quant temps ençà, se dona en el nostre teatre nacional el mateix deplorable espectacle d'hipocresia i duplicitat de que es queixava amargament en Manuel Montoliu en una de les darreres planes literàries d'El Poble català.

Pel bé de la nostra terra i per la glòria de la nostra literatura, no deuen reproduir-se espectacles com el d'ahir, que fan un mal immens a l'escena catalana. Pensi el nostre públic que un teatre no és una reunió familiar, on se lloa amablement la veu del jovenet que fa desgràcies amb el Vorrei moriré i les mans profanadores de la damisel·la cloròtica que tecleja impunement les sonates de Schumann.

"En una nota publicada esta mañana decía que, por la buena amistad que me une con el autor de la letra y por el respeto que me merece la autora de la música, tuve ayer que protestar ruidosamente en el teatro mientras se intentaba levantar sobre la base de una burla indecorosa le mentira perversa y perjudicial de un grande éxito. Porque creo demasiado en el talento de Nogueras Oller, porque quiero creer en el talento musical de la Sra. Freixas no puedo engañarles ni puedo burlarme de ellos como hizo ayer noche lamentablemente cierta parte del público.

Es verdaderamente afrentoso que los amigos quisieran imponer la gran equivocación de la obra. Y no se me venga con la excusa de la cortesía. La cortesía hubiese consistido en dejar acabar la obra, pero de la cortesía a la audacia va un paso demasiado grande. ¿Con qué derecho iremos después a mostramos rigorosos con las obras de los que no sean amigos nuestros? ¿Es que los que ayer aplaudieron Rodamon no se dan cuenta de que quedan imposibilitados pare hacer otra cosa que aplaudir toda su vida? Y, si se den cuenta de esto, ¿no quieren comprender la importancia que tiene el escándalo de ayer?

El Teatro Catalán ha de ser considerado como una cosa más seria. ¿Con qué derecho podemos después reventar, como se ha hecho, el teatro castellano si aplaudimos en el nuestro cosas que sin ninguna clase de dudas serían protestada ruidosamente en cualquier país del mundo?

Rafael Nogueras Oller, que es un vigoroso poeta, no es un autor dramático y menos —sabemos la historia de la obra— cuando escribe obras por compromiso. Así en Rodamon, a pesar de una idea bella y en algunos puntos de algunos versos bellos, no hay acierto teatral. Todo es desligado, fragmentario, pobre, a pesar de la pujanza de algunas escenas. Añádanse tremendas equivocaciones e inexperiencias escénicas y se comprenderá el desacierto de mi amigo. Le obra está hecha, está construida con tanta imprecisión que no se entiende. Hay algunos momentos en que parece sentir una verdadera voz trágica lejos, muy lejos. Pero después os hablan en un castillo medioeval, de cosas inverosímiles y hay quien baila un cake-walk...

No puedo creer que Nogueras esté satisfecho de su obra. No puedo permitir que nadie quiera engañarlo. Y menos que, como ayer se hacía per cierta parte del público, se le dé toda la culpa del fracaso. Porque la Sra. Freixas ha escrito para esta letra una música deleznable, vaga, completamente inadecuada. Una música que en el momento culminante de la obra —cuando van a matar a Rodamon— inicia unos compases de sardana y deja oír un toque de banderillas... La Sra. Narcisa Freixas, que ha escrito muy bellas canciones, no ha salido airosa, ni mucho menos, de su audaz intento teatral. Y porque quiero creer en su talento se lo digo claramente.

Quizá el mal viene desde el principio, de la idea de colaborar dos espíritus tan diametralmente opuestos como Nogueras y la Sra. Freixas. Quizá es esta la causa principal de que la obra carezca por completo de unidad y de armonía. Mientras el uno piensa y dice las cosas horribles, la otra se acuerda de las sardanas... En definitiva, la obra, por la poca teatralidad de la letra y de la música, es verdaderamente una equivocación. Creo hacer un servicio a sus autores diciéndoselo con toda sinceridad. Y creo que los que ayer les tributaron perversas ovaciones se lo hicieron muy flaco. Ellos sabrán a quien han de estar agradecidos.

La interpretación estuvo […] como la obra. Exceptuando algún momento de los Srs. Barbosa y Giménez y de la señora Morera, los demás no hicieron nada de particular.

Y ahora, para bien del Teatro Catalán, termino deseando que no se repitan espectáculos como el de ayer. Porque tanto si el éxito se intentaba de mala fe como de buena fe, su intento es intolerable.

Farfarello."

"Rodamon d'en Nogueras Oller, música de D.ª Narcisa Freixas.

El Sr. Nogueras Oller, autor molt personal, tal vegada no té encara la suficient preparació per a manejar-se en el teatre. L'art escènic és un terrer escabrós i cal per a caminar-hi fer certes habilitats a les que no sempre s'avenen els esperits massa independents. L'autor de Rodamon s'ha equivocat de tot. D'una idea bona i ben teatrable, per cert, n'ha lograt treure molt pobre partit, presentant-la desnaturalitzada, dislocada, enmaranyada, fosca i esllanguida, amb la particularitat d'haver trobat en més d'una ocasió l'efecte còmic quan anava en busca del dramàtic.

Tampoc la Sra. Freixas lograrà bona fortuna, però és més disculpable el seu fracàs per la impossibilitat d'adornar un cos tan desgarbat.

Flac servei prestaren als autors els que s'empenyaven en aplaudir-los per un excés de cel amistós, provocant amb els seus afanys intempestius la protesta dels uns i la burla dels altres."

"Rodamon.— Obra lírica, en dos actes i cinc quadros, original de Nogueras Oller; música de Narcisa Freixas.

És una tasca dificultosa la que s'ha emprés l'autor al conjuminar l'argument de Rodamon, argument més propi per desenrotllar-lo un senzill autor dramàtic que un inspirar poeta com és en Nogueras Oller. I, desenganyint-se els que creuen lo contrari, el Teatre és per fer-hi obres teatrals, tot lo que fugi de l'efecte escènic serà en perjudici de l'obra, per literària que sigui aquesta i per talent que tinga el seu autor.

En Nogueras, doncs, és un consciençut escriptor que encara no coneix el teatre, vull dir el teatre de debò; bona proba n'ha donat al escriure el quadro primer a on els personatges conten un pas, un succés, de quin succés si autor n'hagués fet el quadro, resultaria de més efecte teatral i ajudaria indubtablement a que l'espectador interpretés el drama que ara tant enfosquit se'ns presenta. Malgrat això, el drama fa el seu curs, el que s'ha proposat el poeta, i l'espectador va seguint... va seguint aquest curs amb interès, però fent esforços d'imaginació dels quals hauria d'haver lliurat l'habilitat del narrador.

En resum: les escenes per si soles són ben descrites, el llenguatge és literari i l'acció està ben pensada, però el conjunt, al succeir-se unes escenes a altres, es allí a on l'espectador troba quelcom que el refreda.

La música va interessar i escau en son lloc; no destaca per lo superior, però és força agradosa. La interpretació donada pels artistes de la casa, és digna d'elogi; tots ho feren bé, sobresortint per importància de llurs papers els Srs. Giménez, Santpere, Barbosa, Morató, Vinyals i Capdevila. De les dames cal fer menció de la Srta. Morató i las Sres. Morera, Guerra i Gotarredona; les demés poc pogueren lluir-se. Els autors i artistes foren cridats a escena pel públic que casi omplenava el teatre."

"En Nogueras Oller és un dels nostres autors més ingenus i per això mateix més simpàtic. Lo que produeix té sempre un cert arrauxament, un cert aire de cosa pensada i realitzada alhora, sense que l'autor s'hagi torbat gaire a meditar-ho i sospesar-ho i construir-ho. D'això ve que al costat de coses veritablement inspirades, se n'hi trobin de vulgaretes i asproses. Semblen plantes que han crescut a la bona de Déu, sense que les hagi tocades mà d'esporgador ni puntal adreçador: una branca cap aquí, una cap allà i un conjunt que s'escabella una mica, però que, malgrat l'escabellament, no deixa de produir un encant que suggestiona a voltes.

Quelcom de tot això es nota en la producció estrenada dimarts al Principal amb el títol de Rodamon. L'obra comença amb un quadro de tirat melodramàtic i popular alhora. Sembla un començament de rondalla èpica, amb udols de llop, esgarrifances d'esporuguiment, crits de desesperació i terratrèmol de tempesta. Però ve el segon quadro i un se desconcerta un xic: l'acció no es lliga be, sinó que fa una gambada brusca. I això passa sempre en la successió dels quadros. I d'això en neix una mena de confusió que fa perdre per instants l'interès, fins arribar a l'últim quadro, en què torna a aixecar-se, sense que això arribi a treure la impressió de deslligament que es nota en el conjunt.

Vol dir això que Rodamon sigui una producció insignificant? De cap manera. És una producció que té coses: coses bones i coses dolentes, però malgrat tot hi ha un aire de poesia. De poesia arrauxada, aspra, cantelluda, si voleu, però al cap d'avall, de poesia. Si hi hagués certa claredat —procurant, emperò, que aqueixa claredat no destruís un aire de misteri en la tònica— Rodamon podria considerar-se com un ensaig de dramet popular suggestiu. Jo crec que en Nogueras Oller pot fer-lo i el farà sens dubte. Per això considero que la seva obra s'ha de tractar respectuosament, reconeguent-li les qualitats, però no estalviant el senyalament dels defectes.

La senyora Freixas ha posat música a l'obra... La senyora Freixas és una compositora remarcable, que coneix l'ambient popular i sap apropiar-se'n el perfum suavíssim, delitós i tendre. No hi ha mai aspror en lo que produeix la senyora Freixas. I com que n'hi ha en el llibre, d'aquí que a vegades lletra i música no casin prou bé.

La lletra és arrauxada, la música dolsa, amb una dolçor que complau l'esperit fent-li entreveure visions d'ensomni delicat. L'aroma d'aquella música es respira amb veritable delectació. El que escriu aquestes ratlles va sentir-se'n bressat durant tota la vetlla, en el transcurs de la qual no varen escassejar els aplaudiments als dos autors, que eren cridats a escena al final de cada acte. La senyora Freixas no va sortir, però algú que la va ovirar amagada en una de les llotgetes de l'últim pis va fer-ne adonar als demés i la compositora va ser objecte d'una ovació. [...]

"Yo soy de la misma opinión (que diu el capità Avellaneda en l'obra d'en Zorrilla), de l'opinió del meu amic Urrecha, referent a l'estrena de l'obra d'en Nogueras Oller. Rodamon podrà estar mancada de tècnica escènica al moure les figures, algunes vegades amb falsa propietat, però en quant a la descripció, l'amic Rafael sap a on té la ma dreta. Hi ha moments magistrals, cas que aquestos decauen a les següents escenes pel motiu de desconèixer el teatre. Si en Nogueras Oller no abusés en llur obra de difusitats, a voltes incompreses pel públic, hauria fet una comèdia lírica amb tots els ets i uts.

La música —segons opinió del nostre crític incògnit,— diu que és bastant dolenta, més que la que sol fer l'Esquerrà en els pentagrames. L'execució regular, lluint-se en Morató i la Morató i no sé si cap més morató. [...]

"Rodamon és un minyó que fa versos. Durant una temporada va escriure a La Veu una secció que es titulava A la que salta, però abans havia fet una pila de coses. El tal subjecte, amb tot i anar fet un perdut pel món amb una guitarra aixafada, es de prosapia il·lustre Vostès coneixien al comte Uc? Doncs, era el seu pare. Sinó que quan en Rodamon va néixer en Giménez, que era germà de l'Uc (vulgo Barbosa) va agafar al xicot, va canviar-lo per una mossa i el va donar a n'en Vinyals, amb l'encàrrec de que el fes fondre... Mai ho hauria dit, home, Giménez! Creieu que de vós no me n'hauria esperat semblant cosa. Sort que en Vinyals, en comptes de matar al vailet, no sé què s'explica d'un senyal que té al coll.

D'això que els dic ja fa alguns anys. I ve'ls-hi-aquí que comença l'obra i és de nit; una nit de llamps i trons com aquella de l'auca d'en Bernat Xinxola. I els llops udolen i les campanes branden a morts, i en Vinyals se desespera i explica allò d'en Giménez. Però la Morera, que és una bona esposa, li diu que no s'hi enfondi tant. I en Lapera també diu alguna cosa i surt en Giménez dalt d'una roca, fent volar els coloms amb un mantell vermell que esgarrifa. I venen més trons i més llamps i més soroll i més facècies i en

Giménez roba un cavall d'en Vinyals i guilla. Lo qual no té res d'estrany perquè tothom li diu a cada punt que ho faci. Així que obra la boca ja me li diuen Guillem.

Al segon quadro ens trobem a casa l'Uc, que és un home de molt mal geni i que justament per això ha llogat a n'en Santpere a fi de que faci broma. I en Santpere en fa al davant d'una pila de gent, entre la que hi ha la filla de l'Uc, que es diu Agna Maria, però és la Morató. Lo que passa és que de sobte se sent una veu que canta: és la d'en Morató (Ramon). I en Morató surt i diu uns versos, i després torna a cantar. Però de sobte la Morató, ¡ai, què tinc!, ¡ai, què tinc!, cau en basca, perquè el cant d'en Morató la reprèn.

Ve el segon acte i ens trobem als claustres de Sant Cugat, on fan vida retirada la Morató, la Huguet i tot el cor de senyores. I ve en Giménez, que s'ha fet frare, i diu que la Morató i en Morató s'han de casar. I els fa entrar a una capella i els casa, després de lo qual la Morató i en Morató fan una cantada. ¡Santa innocència! Se veu que no en saben res dels mals de cap del matrimoni. Sinó, no estarien tan contents. I ja els tenim casats i en disposició d'anar a passar la lluna de mel a Mallorca; però així que es van a embarcar, ve la policia i amarra a n'en Morató, o sigui en Rodamon. I no és això lo més dolent, sinó que, a l'últim quadro, l'Uc vol fer matar a n'en Rodamon. És molt estrany el tal Uc: tant, que convida a la víctima a fer un cigaló de la dolsa, després de lo qual l'entrega al botxí, mentre entre bastidors se sent el cor que, amb aire de polca i amb una harmonia semblant a la de l'escala tocada al inrevés, repetint les notes tres vegades, canta així:

¡Insensat! ¡Insensat! ¡Insensat!
¡Insensat! ¡Insensat!
¡Insensat!
¡Insensaaat!, etc.

En aquestes arriba en Giménez i el cor calla, perquè en Giménez és el director i porta cara de pocos amigos. Així que entra en escena, fa una mica de drama amb en Barbosa; en Vinyals explica lo que va passar; fan venir en Rodamon, o sigui en Morató, li miren el coll, diuen «És ell!» i tot se conjumina. En Morató és fill d'en Barbosa i la Morató d'un altre. Ergo: el comte Uc té un fill i se'l veu gran sense adonar-se'n. I per més ganga, fins se'l troba casat amb la Morató. Si hi ha gent que té més sort que les bruixes! De manera que en Barbosa, gràcies a n'en Giménez, ja està en camí de ser avi.

Tot això és l'obra de la mestressa Narcisa Freixas, amb lletra d'en Nogueras i Oller. Jo l'aprecio molt a n'en Nogueras. I la senyora Freixas, encara que no la conec més que per a servir-la, també em mereix tota mena de consideracions. Amb això, no m'obliguin a dir res més de l'obra. [...]

TEATRE PRINCIPAL

NARCISA FREIXA
Autora de la música de Rodamón.

La Escena catalana 60 (23/11/1907), p. 4.

"Aquest nom d'artista ha sonat en totes les boques aquests dies, amb motiu de l'estrena de la seva obra lírica Rodamon al teatre Principal.

No és mon intent analitzar aquí l'assaig de producció teatral d'una benvolguda amiga i companya, a la qui estimo fondament per sa incomparable bondat d'ànima. La premsa barcelonina —si bé no tota amb la bona fe que fora de desitjar— s'ha cuidat d'una tasca ingrata de la que refujo.

La meva és altra, i més plaenta; és la de venir a rendir homenatge a la delicada compositora de les fresques i boniques cançons catalanes que són l'encís dels nostres salons. Jo voldria amb aquest dever de sinceritat treure quelcom de l'amargantor que la implacable crítica deu haver portat en l'ànima ingènuament creienta de la nostra volguda companya d'art, recordant aquí la seva bella tasca. Car és a l'exquisida compositora de les Cançons d'infants, conegudes avui no sols en tota Catalunya sinó en el Rosselló i en el Llenguadoc, a qui devem veure escampades, com unes sanitoses alenades, les notes de la cançó popular catalana en els salons de la nostra bona societat. [...] [Continua repassant la carrera de Freixas. Inclou reproducció de la fotografia del 3er quadre de Rodamon].

Feminal 8 (24/11/1907), p. 760.

"Post scriptum.— Ja són dos. Després d'en Falp i Plans, en Morató. Seguint l'exemple de l'eximí autor de Lo geni català, l'autor no menys eximi de Les calderes d'en Pere Botero ha pres el determini de rebentar els crítics que no li alabin prou les seves obres.

Des de les planes d'un setmanari català, en Morató se venja terriblement dels desgraciats que no ens entusiasmàrem amb els seus Gendarmes. A mi em clava —ai!— una mortal llançada. Segons en Virolet, al parlar jo de Rodamon, vaig voler expressar que les escenes eren deslligades escrivint que «se succeïen sense solució de continuat»...

Desgràcia meva! És que jo no sabré lo que significa això de solució de continuïtat? He repassat la col·lecció d'El Poble català i he rellegit la meva crítica de Rodamon. Oh, gran infàmia! En Morató, que sembla un aucellet tristet incapaç de matar una mosca, ha tingut l'atreviment d'alterar el meu text. Jo no vaig dir que los escenes se «succeïen sense solució de continuïtat», sinó que «careixien de solució de continuïtat», lo qual no es pas lo mateix.

I per a convence'ls de que això darrer és cert, només cal recordar les escenes del convent i les del darrer quadro, que ofereixen en una sols peça episodis que devien presentar-se a les taules amb la deguda gradació i diferenciació. Que los escenes, relacionades les unes amb les altres, resulten «deslligades i fragmentàries», ja ho vaig fer constar en la mateixa crítica unes quantes ratlles més amunt. De manera que, tot plegat, la cosa es redueix a una falsificació d'en Virolet, qui desitjós de prendre innobles revenges, aquesta vegada ha imitat les manyes d'El Progreso. Ja pot confessar-se'n en Morató d'aquest pecat!

I prou. La nostra enhorabona al doctor Falp i Plana per l'aprofitat deixeble que li ha sortit.

L'obreta és xistosa, però no arriba a quedar gravada a la pensa per l'artificialitat de l'assumpto. S'hi veu, emperò, aquell diàleg xispejant que brolla, més que no convenç. "A peu pla, sainet d'Eduard Aulés, música del mestre Alfonso.

L'Aulés no evoluciona, però lo que dirà ell: "Ni falta que em fa". Perquè per a proporcionar al públic una estoneta d'agradable passatemps amenitzat amb contínues rialles no necessita apartar-se del seu camí de sempre.

La seva última obreta resulta convencional i habilidosa, està tota ella fora de la realitat, però que n'hem de fer si de totes maneres té gràcia i excita el bon humor del públic?

Tant l'Aulés com el mestre Alfonso, autor d'una música molt agradable, alcançaren un èxit fàcil... un èxit a peu pla."

Al parlar d'una obra nova de l'inspirat autor d'El Sant Cristo gros, hem de repetir lo mateix de sempre: que és ingeniosa, que conté un gavadal de xistos (encara que molts d'ells retrassats) i que fa riure per l'espontaneïtat del diàleg.

Per 'xò una vegada més felicitem a l'Aulés.

El Mtre. Alfonso hi ha posat algun numerat de música lleugera que encaixa perfectament en l'obreta. L'execució fou acceptable, sobresortint en mèrits la Sra. Morera, la Srta. Morató i els Srs. Santpere, Puiggarí i Vinyals."

"PRINCIPAL.— No es pot dir blat... Un acte de don Eduard Aulés. Música del mestre Borràs de Palau.

Tres monòlegs força llargs combinats en una acció senzilla... Res: un jove que va a casa d'una dones solteres —tia i neboda— anunciant encobertament certes pretensions. Elles creuen que són matrimonials, però lo que busca el jove és una recomanació per a un empleo. I tia i neboda es desil·lusionen, i en paus. I res més. El mestre Borràs de Palau ha posat a l'obra dos o tres nombres musicals ben treballats i senzills. Amb tot, l'obra, en conjunt, no resulta. Hi manca molla.

En la mateixa vetllada va representar-se l'obra Els dos carboners, si bé canviant el títol pel de A Sant Gaietano i traient la música."

"Anoche estrenose en el teatro Principal una comedia lírica en un acto, intitulada No es pot dir blat..., letra del señor Aulés, música del señor Borràs de Palau.

El libro es ingenioso, pero resulta difuso. ¿Por qué no se corrige de ese pequeño defecto el señor Aulés? Los números de música, el primero es muy airoso; el segundo, sentido, y ambos delicados.

Fue bien interpretada por las señoras Morera y Morató, y los señores Santpere y Morató. El público llamó al proscenio a los intérpretes y a los autores."

Las Noticias 4246 (17/11/1907), p. 2.

"Con asunto tan sencillo como es el de que una tía y una sobrina presumen de haberse atraído a un joven, cuando este solo ha pretendido valerse de aquellas para que influyan con objeto de que se le dé una credencial, el señor Aulés ha escrito un juguete muy aceptable, que titula No diguis blat... y que se estrenó anteanoche con buen éxito en el teatro Principal.

El maestro Borràs de Palau ha puesto dos números de música muy agradables, especialmente el aria, que cantó con gusto la señorita Morató, de melodía delicada y bien hallados detalles de instrumentación. El público pidió la repetición de este fragmento musical y llamó a escena a los autores. El actor señor Santpere desempeñó con mucha vis cómica su papel. La señora Morera y la señorita Morató interpretaron acertadamente los suyos respectivos."

"TEATRE PRINCIPAL.— No diguis blat... sainet de l'Aulés amb música del mestre Borràs de Palau.

No es diferencia en gran cosa de les altres produccions del senyor Aulés, l'obreta estrenada el dissabte a la nit al vell coliseu del pla de les Comèdies.

L'acció està fonamentada en un d'aquells càndids quid pro quo als quals tanta afició té l'autor de No diguis blat... Se redueix tot a la creença que una tia i una neboda tenen de que està enamorat d'elles un subjecte que les visita sovint. Quan el subjecte diu que fa les constants visites solament per a obtenir un empleo, se desfà l'encís d'aquelles dones i s'acaba l'innocenta comèdia.

El senyor Borràs de Palau, sempre exquisit en tot lo que escriu al pentagrama, ha decorat aquesta producció amb dos números de música d'una delicada inspiració; un d'ells degué ésser repetit a petició del públic, molt merescudament.

Els autors foren cridats a escena a l'acabament de la representació.

"PRINCIPAL. En el passat dissabte Aulés, el festiu autor estrenà una nova joguina titulada No diguis blat... amb dues peces de música del mestre Borràs de Palau. L'obra està basada en un graciós equivoc, i per lo que respecta a la música, és elegant i ben instrumentada, havent demanat el públic la repetició d'un dels dos números.

"No diguis blat...*— Joguina lírica en un acte, d'Eduard Aulés, amb música del Mtre. Borràs de Palau.

Res, que l'Aulés no evoluciona. Ja casi creuran que aquestes obretes últimament estrenades no són escrites d'avui, mes sí del 75, de quan va produir el Cap i cua. L'Aulés en aquella època va escriure i trasplantar moltes joguines que restaren inèdites. Quina fora que allò fos això?

No ho comprenem d' altre manera... I si no és així, reprovem la bona fe d'aquest celebrat autor al portar a les taules assumptos tan sobats i descrits en forma tan inverossímil com innocenta.

Sort que l'Aulés en sap un rengle i sap bellugar les figures amb molta maestria, lo qual ajudat del llenguatge xispejant que domina, salven el mal efecte que poden ocasionar las faltes avantdites. Oh, si l'Aulés fos modern!.... Quin autoràs fora l'Aulés!

En Borràs de Palau va il·lustrar l'obreta amb uns quants números de música agradables i aplaudibles. En l'execució van prendre-hi part la Morera, la Morató, en Santpere i en Morató, que si l'un va fer-ho bé, l'altre va fer-ho millor."

"En diferents èpoques ha calgut que els que escriuen sobre coses de teatre se planyessin de l'abundor d'arranjaments del francès o d'altres llengües més apartades. El gremi dels arranjadors ha estat sempre a casa nostra una plaga. Hi ha autors que, sense tenir en compte que el teatre és o deu ser un gènere literari, fan tria entre les obres estrangeres i, un cop n'han trobat una que els sembla que agradarà al públic, la posen en català relatiu i, endavant!, ja no es capfica de res més.

Que hi hagués algú que fes això, no vindria d'aquí mentre ho fes en un sentit literari i amb produccions de mida curta. Però que els arranjaments constitueixin el major contingent de produccions grosses que s'estrenin és una cosa que fa condol. [Crítica a les produccions de Teodor Baró al Romea] [...]

Un autor que s'ha passat la vida fent arranjaments és l'Aulés. Ara de poc ha donat al Principal una tanda de dissabtes de "Teatre Aulés". I un anava a veure aquelles peces i no podia menys de pensar: "Què hi té l'Aulés en la majoria d'aquestes coses?... Els versos... i algun acudit. I n'hi ha prou d'això per a donar un nom al seu teatre?".

Jo no sé si les peces A peu pla i No es pot dir blat... estrenades en les vetllades de referència són originals del Sr. Aulés. Crec que deuen ser-ho, com el Cap i cua (l'original del qual va estrenar-se l'any passat al mateix Principal, en traducció d'en Montoliu). Amb tot, crec que ni l'una ni l'altra de les esmentades obres han d'afegir cap fulla de llor en la carrera d'autor del senyor Aulés.

Una cosa curiosa que hem observat en el "Teatre Aulés" és la facilitat amb què l'autor arranja els seus mateix arranjaments. Saben la sarsuela Els dos carboners? Doncs ara s'ha convertit en un sainet sense música. Res: suprimir els números de cant, canviar el títol pel de A Sant Gaietano i ja tenim feta la refundició.

Jo no sé quin respecte tenen pel seu art certs autors. [Altres crítiques al Romea] [...]

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Primer acte.

És cap al tard i ens trobem a l'entrada de la gendarmeria. Els gendarmes juguen a cartes al davant de la porta. Les dones fan anar les gallines a lloc i canten [...]"

"Els gendarmes se preparen per anar a fer el servei de nit i entren a casa seguits de les dones. Al restar sola l'escena, surt la Mari, filla del Brigada, i és sorpresa per en Jan, que és el minyó a qui estima i de qui és estimada. Parlen d'en Jaumic, amb qui el Brigada vol fer casar a la Mari i, com que qui del llop parla, el llop li surt.

Jaumic compareix a la poca estona, posant-se de manifest la rivalitat entre els dos minyons i l'esverament del poble perquè cada nit els lladres saquegen algun galliner.

Després en Jaumic entra a la casa i, havent restat sols la Mari i en Jan, són sorpresos per en Patllari, que els aconsella que fugin per aconseguir el seu objecte de casar-se.

La Lluci des de dins, criada de la noia, que se n'hi va, deixant sospesa la conversa. I en Patllari i en Jan, com que no tenen res que fer allí, se'n van a una altra banda. Aleshores surten els gendarmes equipats, marcant el pas i evolucionant per l'escena al compàs del cant que segueix [...]"

"Quan estan a punt d'anar-se'n, compareix el batlle o maire del poble —que és el pare d'en Jaumic— i diu al Brigada que cal fer un escarment amb els lladres... «C'est entendu...». I els gendarmes filen, sortint després la Lluci, la Mari i en Jaumic.

La Lluci vol que la Mari faci bon paper al batlle i al seu fill. La Mari s'hi resisteix i, quan els dos homes són fora, la pobra noia rep de la seva mare una tanda de pessics i patacades i l'ordre d'anar-se'n al llit. I se n'entren les dues a la casa, compareixent al cap de poc en Jan, que canta [...]"

"Després en Jan s'enfila fins arribar a la finestra de la cambra de la Mari. Truca, la noia treu el cap i, atiada pel minyó i recordant els pessics de la Lluci, se decideix a fugir. I baixa i surt i tanca la porta i tira la clau pel forat gatoner. Ja no se'n pot desdir!

En aquestes arriba en Patllari i els avisa que ve gent. Això acaba de decidir-los i fugen, arribant gairebé al mateix temps en Jaumic, que ve amb una colla a fer una serenata a la Mari. I mentre la Mari ja qui sap on para, en Jaumic i els seus companys canten fatxendosament en presència d'en Patllari [...]"

"Però en vista de que ni així la noia surt, se posen a cantar tots a l'una i amb grans crits." [...] "La Mari tampoc surt i cau el teló."

"Segon acte.

Primer quadro.

Els voltants d'una font. La colla d'en Jaumic fa pa i beure, esperant la matinada. En Jaumic té el propòsit de tornar a cantar-ne una a la Mari, per veure si al segon son la desperta." [...] "I després, tips de divertir-se, se decideixen tots a anar al llit. Fora en Jaumic, que se'n va tot cremat, perquè haurà de fer-se sol la cantada.

Així que ells són fora, compareixen tots consirosos la Mari a cavall d'una somera i en Jan menant la bestiola. Estan tots capficats, perquè, ara que han fugit, no saben on anar. Amb tot, tiren avant, venint aleshores el Brigada i un gendarme, que beuen un glop, fan una pipa i s'asseuen recolzats a una banda d'una roca.

L'orquestra toca un aire de non-non i els dos gendarmes se van adormint dolçament, quan compareixen per l'altra banda una altra parella, la qual beu, fa el cigarret i, sense adonar-se del Brigada i el seu company, s'asseuen a l'altre costat de la roca. I ja els tenim també ensopint-se dolçament, dolçament...

En Patllari, que roda per allí, se n'adona i se'n pensa una: els descarregarà els fusells. I tal dit, tal fet: s'hi acosta, treu els cartutxos i s'amaga darrere la roca.

I altre cop surten la Mari i en Jan, decidits a tornar a casa, perquè no saben què fer. Però al passar, s'adonen dels gendarmes i tenen un espant que els fa atiar la somera. Si arriben a descobrir-los!

No els descobreixen, però poc se'n manca, perquè la remor dels seus passos han desvetllat al Brigada, que crida: «Qui hi ha ací?». Llença el crit, se desperten els gendarmes de l'altre costat de la roca... «Calla! Diria que a l'altra banda hi ha qualcú...». «Potser són els lladres...».

I una parella per cada costat va enfilant-se a la roca amb molt compte de no fer remor i, quan hi són al cim, cada parella sorprèn a l'altra. I sort que el Brigada es posa sobre sí i arranja la cosa, preguntant molt severament si hi ha res de nou. Però en Patllari riu dels gendarmes des del fons del bosc; els gendarmes li donen la veu d'aturar-se; ell torna a riure. El Brigada, sense conèixer la rialla, creu que és cosa de fer foc. Comanda als seus subordinats que en facin, tots descarreguen els fusells. En lloc de foc, fan figa, i, intrigats al veure's les armes descarregades, arrenquen a córrer cap al lluny, perseguint al que s'ha burlat d'ells.

I altre cop tornen en Jan i la Mari, que no han gosat tornar a casa i tenen una mica de disputes d'enamorats, que acaben amb la decisió d'en Jan de tirar avant, perquè la Mari ha dit que, per fer-li ràbia, se casaria amb en Jaumic."

"Segon quadro.

Altre cop al davant de la gendarmeria. És de matinada. En Jaumic, trempat com un pèsol, arriba per a fer la cantada. I ja hi som!"

"Passa en Patllari i li aconsella que s'enfili i surti a la finestra. En Jaumic ho fa i quan hi és, compareixen la Mari, en Jan i la somera. Tant en Jan com la Mari estan més ensopits que mai, però el minyó, en adonar-se d'en Jaumic enfilat a la finestra, té una passió de riure. I ja tenim als dos galants sortint a batre's i a la Mari seguint-los esverada per por de que en Jan, amb el seu geni, no en faci una que el perdi per tota la vida.

Al cap de poc surt la Lluci de la casa tota desesperada per haver perdut la filla. La dona d'un gendarme prova de consolar-la, però no hi val res. El Brigada arriba de la ronda i s'entera amb estupefacció de la pèrdua de la Mari i es pensa que és un càstig per la seva ambició d'haver-la volguda casar amb un ric. Per fortuna, al cap de poc compareix una parella de gendarmes duent presos als galants, als que han trobat barallant-se. I aleshores, la Mari i en Jan demanen perdó i el Brigada els hi concedeix i fins troba que poden casar-se. Ves qui no els feia parlar abans, també!

Aquí ja sembla tot resolt, però no ho és encara, perquè manca que arribi el batlle a manifestar la seva satisfacció, perquè aquella nit els lladres no han robat cap galliner, a lo qual replica el Brigada que això és molt natural, perquè els lladres saben que hi ha vigilància.

Un crit de la Lluci interromp al Brigada."

"Per fortuna, en Jan, que és més eixerit de lo que sembla, lliga caps i té una pensada: la de que en Patllari és el lladre de les gallines i li fa ensenyar el sac i es comprova el lladronici. I en Patllari és tancat, mentre la concurrència balla una farandola per a celebrar el prometatge de la Mari i en Jan."

"La obra cómico-lírica en dos actos de J. Morató titulada Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm que, con música del maestro Sadurní, se estrenará mañana por la noche en el teatro Principal, será puesta en escena bajo la dirección del primer actor señor Giménez, tomando parte en la misma las señoras Morera y Baró y los señores Santpere, Puiggarí y Giralt."

El Diluvio 324 (20/11/1907), ed. matí, p. 13.

"Teatro Principal

Els gendarmes

La obra de los Sres. Morató y Sadurní tiene un sano y acertado sabor de opereta que, elevándola casi a la categoría de un acierto, la hace amable y agradable a los ojos del espectador.

La causa principal del éxito obtenido por Els gendarmes está sin duda alguna en la armoniosa y muy justa proporción que guardan entre sí la letra y la música de la obra. Dentro de la tónica especial y cómica de la opereta —a veces suave y blanda como una caricia, a veces rápida y fuerte, como un pellizco—no hay una sola grave desentonación en Els gendarmes.

Esta adaptación de la letra a la música y de la música a le letra da al primer acto aquella justicia escénica que lo llena de interés y que lo corona de éxito. En el segundo acto y en su primer cuadro, quizá en alguna escena, el asunto ha requerido una situación exclusivamente musical demasiado larga, que, a pesar de estar bien tratada, es un paréntesis demasiado grande en el interés del espectador.

El Sr. Morató he tratado el asunto de su obra acertadamente. Hay allí fuerza cómica de buena ley, desprendida directamente de la situación y no exagerada con artificie de palabrería.

El maestro Sadurní ha escrito una agradable música muy acertada y llena de encanto. Todos nos números, como ya he indicado, están completamente adaptados a la índole de la obra y son bellos, especialmente el que comienza le obra y el coro de los gendarmes, que tuvo que repetirse.

La empresa presentó la obra con muy buena voluntad y con bastante acierto y los actores la interpretaron muy bien en conjunto, distinguiéndose las Sras. Morera y Baró y los Sres. Giménez, Santpere y Morató. La obra obtuvo un éxito franco y merecido. Los autores fueron llamados repetidas veces a las tablas.

"PRINCIPAL.— Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm.

En Morató ha tingut un èxit franc en l'escenari del Principal. Una obra còmica amb aspectes i tot de farsa, ha sapigut abillar-la amb exquisida literatura escènica. Els personatges riuen tots per dins i els gendarmes, sota l'uniforme esparverant, tenen tota la bondat casolana i tot l'aire còmicament «grave» que la tradició els hi concedeix. La llur parla és deliciosament observada i les llurs costums, de tan fidelment retratades — retratades amb acertats trets de caricatura— fan creure's, més que vistes, viscudes.

Això fa que l'obra, sobre tot en el primer acte, arribi a tenir ambient, cosa força difícil en una obra d'aquest gènere. I això fa que el públic entri del tot en les situacions i se les encadeni amb un seguit de franques rialles i amb aquella remor col·lectiva que arrenquen, sempre en crescendo, lo que en podríem dir troballes escèniques.

És tan de bona llei l'humor que dominava l'esperit d'en Morató a l'escriure Els gendarmes, que un arriba a creure que si hagués volgut perllongar els actes amb noves situacions fresques i noves, se li haurien acudit a cor que vols; és tan de bona llei l'humor que dominava l'esperit d'en Morató a l'escriure Els gendarmes, que un no s'entreté en escatir en si lo que en podríem dir construcció escènica trontolla un xic en el segon quadro.

L'obra és, doncs, un dels èxits més brillants d'aquesta temporada en el gènere que serveixen al Principal, i si no ens entretenim a contar per detalls l'afortunat argument és perquè creiem que durarà força en els cartells i tothom la podrà veure. Cal també —a més de les alabances que mereix el mestre Sadurní per la música, les quals li tributarem més avall d'aquesta ressenya— enviar una felicitació a n'en Giménez, que ha dirigit l'obra amb gran acert i bon gust, i fer-la extensiva a tos els que hi han pres part que han rivalitzat en treball i en ment.

En Giménez en el paper del brigada, en Santpere en el Jan, la senyora Baró en la Mari, en Puiggarí en el Patllari i la Morera en la Lluci, en Morató, en Vinyals, tots s'han lluït de veres. És impossible demanar-hi més.

La música del mestre Sadurní és un seguit d'idea catalana amb alguna barreja francesa, sentint-s'hi des del caient de la terra ben obert en la cançó a la sortida del tenor, fins a la faràndula amb què acaba l'obra: de manera que cau perfectament dintre la mena que en Morató ha escrit. Suposem que en Sadurní s'impressionà en l'aire senzill i de casa que domina en totes les escenes de l'obra, i d'aquest modo ho ha encertat, doncs prescindint de rebuscaments i estranyeses orquestrals, ha anat de dret a la melodia, que li ressurt força fresca.

És elegant el cor de sopranos amb què comença la primera escena, molt delicat; la cançó de caient popular susdita del propi acte, així com un cor dels gendarmes, que tingué de repetir-se. Del segon acte devem mentar-hi gairebé tota la primera escena, i per lo brillant la faràndula final.

En Sadurní ha ensopegat els números d'aquesta obreta, que fusionada amb la lletra, resulta la totalitat perfectament harmonitzada. Tot plegat feu l'èxit ben merescut del músic i d'en Morató, que hagueren de sortir a l'acabament per a rebre l'aplauso del públic ben unànime i ben fort.

"[...] dígase algo de Los gendarmes, estrenado en el Principal. Aunque parezca raro, esta obra es de aquel Morató que hace poco y en el propio escenario nos entenebreció la existencia con aquel Racó de món que más que drama parecía un catafalco de funerales de gentes pobres. Estos Gendarmes, son alegres, todo lo alegres y regocijados que permiten las santas y honestas tradiciones del Principal, con lo que ya os digo, hijos míos y de María, que podréis ir a verlos sin temores de ningún género. Es para mí un misterio el cómo este melancólico Morató ha pasado de los lutos del Racó de món a la graciosa ligereza de Los gendarmes; pero ello es así y bástenos con saber que tienen los dos actos de esta obra chispa bastante para que el buen público del Principal se entretenga con las idas y venidas de una pareja de novios que andan libres y suelos por los montes y en compañía de una borrica, sin que en estas andanzas pudiera hallar nada pecaminoso el mismísimo padre Astete (q. e p. d.).

Es superior al libro la música que a Los gendarmes ha puesto el maestro Sadurní, porque a este Sadurní que ustedes habrán visto por esos paseos dirigiendo la banda municipal y como quien no hace cosa mayor, cuando se le pone entre ceja y ceja, escribe música como la de Pierrot lladre y la de estos Gendarmes, en la que hay una deliciosa alborada, un recitado de orquesta que puede llamarse del sueño porque subraya el de los gendarmes y un coro de estos muy cómico y que ha de serlo más cuando las figuras se muevan de distinta manera. Y otro tanto digo de la farándula final, que también debió moverse de manera más amplia, dicho sea con el debido respeto a los merecimientos de nuestra clásica amiga Pauleta, Giménez, Santpere, Morató, Puiggarí, Viñals, la Baró y la Morera, que llevan el peso de Los gendarmes, dieron a la obra lo suyo, y por esta vez puede decirse que fue una buena vetlyada y malos lyops me coman los ojos si miento.

Conque hicimos salir a escena a Morató, un poco más alegre con el éxito, y a nuestro municipal amigo Sadurní, y a los cómicos y al coro, y no salió la borrica por un sentimiento de modestia altamente apreciable, lo cual debe servir de ejemplo y merece ser apuntado en honor a la verdad.

"[...] Passant al Principal, s'estrenà l'obra d'en Morató Els gendarmes, que és un passatemps propi per riure un rato; l'obra està escrita amb pulcritud i amb pinzellades magistrals dignes de la ploma de l'autor de La jova. La música, bonica i merament inspirada, deguda al mestre Sadurní, que demostrà que és un dels nostres primers músics. El públic feu sortir a les taules entre bon repicament de mans a n'els autors. Millor per ells. L'execució, notable per part de tots i bona la direcció escènica. [...]

"[...] A l'endemà passat el del Principal feia sortir a n'en Morató i al Mtre. Sadurní, autors de l'obra còmic-lírica en dos actes Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm. L'amic director de Cu-cut! m'ha prohibit parlar-ne perquè diu que amb motiu del drama Un racó de món vaig ser massa sever amb l'autor de la lletra dels Gendarmes. I com que en Xim-Xim se va brindar a dir quatre coses de la música, va acordar-se que de passada digués quelcom de la lletra.

Jo, naturalment, ne protesto, perquè això és suposar que la meva crítica de Un racó de món va ser apassionada. I la proba de que no ho va ser és que el drama, després de la tercera representació, va desaparèixer, ai!, per a no tornar. [...]

Viloret[87].

[...] Per aquells atzars de la vida, la Talia s'ha quedat a casa aquest cop. En Virolet, per qüestions dels Gendarmes hi va tenir una agarrada, tancant-li la porta tot un dia, millor una nit; i ella, desairada, ans d'arribar als anuncis, preferí quedar-se a cal Nyigo-nyigo convençuda de que no és mal companyó qui ofereix braç, buf i veu en comandita.

Anem a dir que les societats no sempre surten encertades, però quan s'hi guanyen diners és la millor senyal de que el negoci marxa. En Morató va pensar una comèdia tota fina en dos actes. Els gendarmes, i la companyia d'en Sadurní, va contribuir-hi amb un carregament de solfes que han reforçat el crèdit de l'establiment.

A n'en Virolet va semblar-li que l'assumpto no era de la seva demarcació, primera perquè a n'ell hi tenia col·locat al fill de son pare i, segona, perquè en qüestions de nyigo-nyigo s'hi deixa perdre sempre el soroll, i jo, què hauríeu fet? Vaig recollir la raó social per presentar-la a vostès i dir-los que aquest cop en Morató i en Sadurní han fet una escudella barrejada, tan ben barrejada, que no se sap a on comença l'arròs-i-fideus i a on acaba la col i els cigrons. Un tot homogeni, un plat d'hivern que conforta cada nit la sala del Principal.

Els gendarmes ja hi surten: podran comptar-los un a un, els sentiran parlar i fins maniobrar, però això és lo de menos, és una de tantes coses. Igual que en la escudella barrejada el cigró n'és una part incidental: els gendarmes porten als Gendarmes tota una fragància cerdanyesa d'enllà que un home sembla que hagi passat per dintre la foradada de Port-Bou i es trobi de cop i volta entre còfies. S'assisteix a un rapte, a un robo i a un desafío a claror de posta, i a eixida de sol, i les raons per a passar-hi un rato són tan ben amanides, que ningú que tingui dos rals se quedarà fora de can Graner.

La gent armada a mi des de noi que no m'agrada: potser serà allò del mando a què mai he pogut transigir per un principi de llibertat que em domina; doncs els Gendarmes d'en Morató fins me són simpàtics. Li ha ajudat naturalment en Sadurní, i així resulta que l'un hi ha portat bona lletra i l'altre bona veu. Lletra i veu, capital que ha enriquit l'obra i ara s'explota amb totes les conseqüències de taquilla amb gran contentament del Principal.

En Morató ha fet dòmino en totes aquelles parts más arriba mencionadas, però en Sadurní li ha deixat un himne a les gallines que fa venir gana, un cant guerrer que esborrona, una sortida de sol capaça fins per mitja nit, i una farandola de siguem-hi que fa picar de mans. Tot plegat, Els gendarmes, deixen un tast de «tornem-hi» que l'observaran si els proven un cop. Proporcionen un gust fresc, forà, com si s'hagués anat a la terra. [...]

"Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm, lletra d'en Morató, música del mestre Sadurní. A l'últim, i després de tantes provatures infructuoses, el Sr. Morató ha trobat un èxit franc, allí a on menos podia esperar-se, és a dir: en el gènere còmic, del qual n'estaven tan lluny ses anteriors produccions.

La vis còmica del Sr. Morató està despullada de malicia satírica, és molt bona minyona, algú diria que fins mansa i tot; però és indubtable que respon a la naturalesa de la seva obra, per altra part escrita amb notable correcció.

Un dels principals mèrits d'aquesta és l'espontaneïtat de les situacions musicals, de la qual se n'ha aprofitat el mestre Sadurní escrivint un número de peces estimables tant per la seva frescura i facilitat com també per son acertat caràcter teatral.

L'autor de la lletra i el músic aquesta vegada han realitzat un feliç casament, que ha tingut de seguida fruit de benedicció en un èxit indiscutible.

En l'execució sobresurten les Sres. Morera i Baró i els Srs. Giménez, Santpere i Morató."

"Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm.— Obra lírica en dos actes i tres quadros; lletra de Josep Morató, amb música del Mtre. Celestí Sadurní.

TEATRE CATALÁ (PRINCIPAL)

Els gendarmes ó qui vigila no dorm, obra lírica en dos actes y tres quadros

JOSEPH MORATÓ
Autor de la lletra

CELESTÍ SADURNÍ
Autor de la música

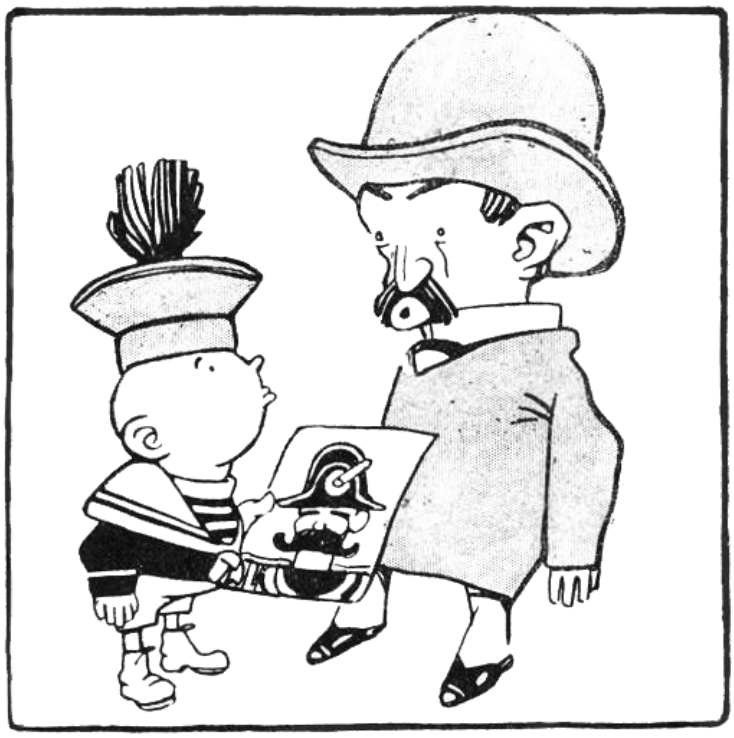
Un bon èxit obtingué aquesta comèdia, del que en poden estar joiosos tant l'autor de la lletra com el de les solfes, puig l'espectador no sabent si alabar més els mèrits de l'un o els de l'altre, es queda alabant-los tots dos a la vegada.

L'acció es desenrotlla en un lloc de la Catalunya francesa; tots els personatges parlen el llenguatge propi del lloc, llenguatge escaient que, per cert, els artistes del Principal saben abillar, en especial el Sr. Gimenez, en Santpere i en Ginestet.

En el primer acte, tant bon punt s'ha exposat l'assumpto de la comèdia, se deixa sentir un número de música, executat pel cor de gendarmes, que produeix un afecte preciosíssim i que es fa repetir per l'ambient francès que respira. [...] També és de gran efecte per lo natural i espontani lo que conta en Jan al presentar-se de nit a casa la núvia amb el propòsit de robar-la [...].

Això és de casa; aquí no hi ha artifici ni vistes al veí de la cantonada. Llàstima que al acabar el quadro l'autor hagi tingut la mateixa pensada que tingueren els germans Quintero al finalitzar La reina mora! Aquell cor de aduladors, que tan bé hi cau, el coneixem massa.

El rapte de la Mari, executat magistralment per l'heroe de la casa Sr. Santpere i l'excel·lent dama Sra. Baró, resulta agradós i d'un humorisme refinat. L'afany que té en Jan de robar a n'ella, sense saber a on portar-la... és graciós i excita a la rialla.



El segon acte, tan interessant com el primer, està descrit amb pulcritud i en ell s'hi desenrotllen escenes altament còmiques. El mestre Sadurní, no s'ha quedat enrere; si l'autor de la lletra avença un pas, ell també, però és un pas més llarg, s'ha de dir la veritat, la música captiva més l'atenció en general.

En resum: que en Morató i en Sadurní ens han servit de parroquians, mirat baix el punt de vista de la senzillés amb què s'exposa la farsa, ja que aquests dos autors creiem que, posseïdors d'un assumpto més important, tenen condicions per fer quelcom més gros, això és indiscutible.. i més encara, confiem veure-ho aviat, el dia que s'ho proposin... i la sort no se'ls mostri esquerpa, puig, tractant-se de construir comèdies, fins amb la superstició s'ha de creure.

L'èxit, ja ho hem dit, és molt favorable. Actors i autors foren aclamats. El cor de la gendarmeria, compost de actors, fou ajustadíssim, digne de la importància d'aquest teatre. A més dels anomenats Giménez, Santpere i la Baró, s'hi distingiren la cèlebre Morera, la Huguet i els del gènere fort, Puiggarí, Vinyals, Morató i García."

[88] Es tracta de la versió lírica de La font dels enamorats, idil·li en un acte de Lluís Suñer estrenat el 1900 al teatre Romea. La nova versió inclou els números musicals del mestre Reñé.
Una obra homònima s'havia estrenat al teatre Romea el 22 de maig de 1906: Nos amb nos, drama en dos actes de Ponci Serrat i Bruguera. Les obres no tindrien cap relació i seria una de les causes per les quals poques setmanes després L'Escena catalana critica que al Principal s'estiguin estrenant tantes obres amb títols repetits d'obres conegudes.
[89] A l'inici de temporada estava anunciada amb música de Pere Palau.
[90] Documents amb el text de La font dels enamorats, que seria el mateix que el de Nos amb nos. L'adaptació sembla que només va afegir-hi números musicals i canviar el títol, però no el contingut.

“(Sió passa corrent d’esquerra a dreta, girant lo cap amb recel; desapareix enfilant-se per les roques. Una pedra tirada amb mandó passa bruntzent per l’escena, cap al cantó que Sió ha fugit. Se sent un altre xiulet més fort. Blai surt per entremig dels arbres del fondo).” “(Una altra pedra va a parar als peus d’en Blai. En les roques del fondo, esquerra, apareix en Saldoni amb mandró).”

[Saldoni li confessa al seu avi, en Blai, que estima la Pilar, però que preferiria no fer-ho perquè hi ha un hereu que sembla que l’interessa més que ell. El seu avi li recomana posar-la gelosa perquè li pari més atenció a ell]. “(Va per marxar entre els arbres de la dreta, però al sentir al veu de Pilar s’atura).”

“([Pilar] Apuntant amb l’escopeta) [...] ([Blai] Baixa al prosceni cap a la font. Saldoni, que ha quedat embadalit, passa de dreta a l’esquerra per darrere els arbres sense ser vist de Pilar fins que s’indiqui) [...] ([Pilar] Vora la font traient-se un vas del sarró de caça) [...] (Pilar omple el got i beu) [...] (Al girar-se veu a Saldoni que la contempla extasiat) [...] (Pausa. Tots queden contemplant-se. Blai al mig).” [Saldoni conversa amb la Pilar]. [Primer número musical amb inici instrumental i una part en temps pastoral en la qual Saldoni canta sobre la vida de pastor].

“Escena III: Blai i Pilar.” [Pilar li confessa que li agrada el pastor Saldoni per la seva simplicitat rústica, i no l’Emili, com ells es pensaven, perquè és massa urbanita]. “(Dins rient molt fort).” “Escena IV: Los mateixos i Sió, que ve per la dreta el fondo rient estrepitosament.” [S’estava mofant de l’Emilio perquè no entén el vocabulari culte que fa servir].

“Escena V: Sió; tot seguit Emilio amb àlbum de dibuixos. Per la dreta.” “(S’assenta en un roc vora la font, jugant amb l’aigua enclotada. Emilio seu a prop d’ella) [...] ([Emili] Mirant l’aigua closa de la font)” [Duo musical de Sió i Emili amb una secció de vals en el qual ell declara el seu amor a la pastoreta i ella li diu que si li declara amor manarà a passeig a Saldoni]. “(Emili queda abatut amb lo cap entre les mans. Sió s’aixeca).” [La Sió li diu que si promet casar-se amb ella marxarà a la ciutat, que el camp no li agrada].

“Escena VI: Emili sol. [...] (Mirant l’aigua de la font) [...] (Obre l’àlbum i dibuixa mirant lo clot de l’aigua).” [Emili queda consternat perquè la Sió s’ha mostrat interessada i no era la innocent pastoreta rural que imaginava]. [Romança cantada de l’Emili lamentant-se pel seu desengany amorós].

“Escena VIII: Blai. Després Saldoni pel fondo esquerra amb trage d’americana, pantaló, hermilla, botes i sombrero; tot molt esquifit. Tot seguit Sió pel fondo, vestida com una senyora de fora, però tot mal posat.” [Blai els diu que semblen disfressats. Volien impressionar al senyoret i a la senyoreta que cadascú estima].

“(Avergonyits i amb lo cap baix s’agenollen a prop d’en Blai, que queda al mig) [...] (Sempre amb to solemne sarcàstic) [...] (Pausa. Tots continuen amb lo cap baix) [...] (Senyalant-ne un [forat amb formigues] vora els seus genolls) [...] (S’aixequen) [...] (Mirant per l’esquerra i pujant dalt d’una pedra) [...] (Mirant per la dreta i pujant també a una altra pedra, de modo que els dos quedin casi al mig de l’escena com a estàtues amb pedestal. Comprenga’s bé l’efecte i cuidi’s bé la situació còmica) [...] ([Blai] Se retira a les roques del fondo dominant lo quadro).”

“Escena IX: Los mateixos i Pilar per l’esquerra i Emili per la dreta.” [Pilar i Emili riuen] “(Fent respectives comparacions) [...] ([Saldoni i Sió] Fent alarde de lo que porten)” [Quart número musical en el qual Sió, Emili, Pilar i Saldoni riuen].

([Blai] Baixant i posant-se al mig).” [Blai els explica la rondalla de la font dels enamorats, on es troben, sobre estimar il·lusions reflectides a l’aigua. Pilar i Emili s’adonen que s’han d’estimar l’un a l’altre perquè estan emmirallats]. “(S’adelanten i donen les mans) [...] ([Saldoni i Sió] Baixen de la pedra) [...] [Uns breus compassos com a final instrumental després que Pilar li declari a l’Emili que és seva per sempre]. Teló.”

El señor Esquerrà compuso para el arreglo del señor Puiggarí unos números de música que no ofrecen particularidad alguna digna de encomio. La ejecución de la obra corrió a cargo de los principales artistas de la compañía, distinguiéndose entre ellos le señorita Morató, señora Morera y los señores Santpere, Giménez i Puiggarí. Este fue llamado a escena al final de la representación.”

El Noticiero Universal 6936 (04/12/1907), p. 2.

“[...] La nova obreta T’estimo és un arreglo del Sr. Puiggarí que donarà moltes entrades al veterano teatre Principal. Se veu de seguida que l’original deu ser una cosa molt picant, doncs a pesar dels atenuants pels que sembla haver passat l’adaptació, conserva encara situacions molt picaresques i en el diàleg s'hi entreveuen reminiscències de corte vodevilesc.

L'assumpto és senzill i simpàtic i es presta a que l'autor hi aboqui tot l'enginy; per això li ha sigut difícil a l'arranjador amanir-la amb situacions còmiques d'un to molt pujat i que entren de ple en el gènere bufo.

Els tipus també tenen un relleu grotesc extraordinari i estan ben enquadrats en l'ambient de la farsa. La música del Sr. Esquerrà és fresca, agradable i s'adapta perfectament al to del llibre. [...]"

"[...] L'obra lírica d'en Morató titulada Els gendarmes segueix el seu èxit en el Principal, a on acaba d'estrenar-se una altra producció del mateix gènere T'estimo, també del gust del públic. [...]

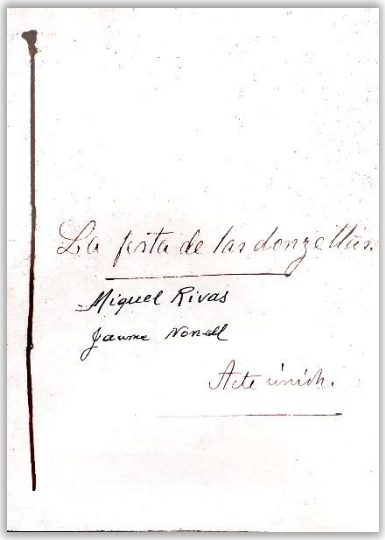
"T'estimo!— Assaig d'opereta en dos actes, arranjada a l'escena catalana per Lluís Puiggarí, amb música del Mtre. Esquerrà.

L'autor ha tingut bon gust en escollir obra original i és de creure que en arranjar-la ha lluitat amb les dificultats de la moral en el teatre. La música està molt apropiada a l'assumpto i desperta interès per lo juganera i atractiva.

En la interpretació s'hi lluïren en Santpere, en Giménez, la Morera, la Morató, la Guerra, etc. En conjunt ha estat un èxit agradable per l'arranjador, el músic i els artistes."

La Escena catalana 63 (14/12/1907), p. 2.

"Ha sigut la darrera setmana dies de tasca per les empreses en vendre localitats, i pels còmics a estudiar estrenes; ben fet: en obres noves s'hi veu el mèrit dels actors i estudi que fan els mateixos en llurs papers.



Al Principal s'hi va estrenar una comèdia arranjada al català pel simpàtic Puiggarí, amb música de n'Adrià Esquerrà, nomenada, T'estimo. L'obreta amanida amb salsa verda resulta i es fa aplaudir per lo xistós i vodevilesc que escau. Les solfes són boniques i agradables de sentir; millor per l'ex-director de Catalònia. En el desempenyo s'hi llueixen en Santpere, que ho fa bé de veres; en Giménez, que ha estudiat bé el paper i la Morató. [...]

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Acte únic"

"Quadro I [Masia a prop de Sant-Médard, Midi francès]

Escena I: Lluís, Brigida, Janot, Baltasar, cor. Música." [Janot, Brigida i el cor canten, mentre la resta parlen intercalats. Baltasar recompta els diners guanyats a la diada del dia anterior. El cor de treballadors explica com ha dallat la civada.]

"Escena II: Brigida, Lluís, Janot." [Critiquen com mana la mestressa i Brigida i Janot acabant discutint.] "Escena III: Dits, Margot." [Arriba la mestressa, els reprèn per barallar-se i els envia a fer feina.]

"Escena IV: Margot i Lluís." [Lluís li confessa estar trist pensant que a l'aplec de sant Medard li donaran la corona de flors a Margot i els pretendents es disputaran casar-se amb ella. Arribarà el senyor Comte per ballar la primer dansa amb ella i Lluís està gelós.]

"Escena V: Dits, Úrsula." [Eduard, l'estimat d'Úrsula, li ha filtrat que serà ella la premiada amb la corona de flors i demana a la seva amiga Margot que formi part de la seva cort de donzelles, però, alhora, té dubtes si hauria d'intervenir perquè sigui Margot la guanyadora en lloc d'ella. Margot li diu que ella s'ho mereix més.]

"Escena VI: Dits, Fèlix." [Arriba el pare de Margot, que ha sortit de casa per rebre el Comte.] "Escena VII: Fèlix i Janot." [Janot avisa d'haver vist dos viatgers apropar-se al poble.] "Escena VIII: Dits, Goltran, Nicolau." [Els viatgers resulten ser el mateix Comte amb el seu acompanyants, que han perdut el cavall de camí a les festes de Sant Medard.]

"Escena IX: Dits, Margot, Lluís." [Fèlix presenta la seva filla i en Lluís, qui presenta com a fill adoptiu, al Comte.] "Escena X: Dits, Úrsula, Janot, batlle, Baltasar i cor general.

Música. [Celebren l'arribada del Comte. El batlle li demana escollir entre la llista de donzelles qui serà la guanyadora de la corona de flors. El Comte designa Margot, qui havia conegut a l'escena anterior. Úrsula se sent enganyada pel seu estimat i gelosa de Margot.]

"Escena XI: Margot, Úrsula." [Úrsula acusa Margot d'enganyar-la i ser una falsa. Queden barallades.] "Escena XII: Úrsula i Baltasar." [Úrsula demana un favor a Baltasar si vol ser el seu nou estimat, ara que no confia en l'Eduard.] "Escena XIII: Lluís, després Margot. Música." [Lluís canta, temorós de confessar el seu amor. Margot s'afegeix al final perquè li confessi els seus temors. Ja parlant, Lluís li diu que el Comte la mira amb desig i confessa que l'estima no sol com germans.]

"Escena XIV: Dits, Fèlix, Goltran, Nicolau." [Fèlix agraeix l'honra que ha portat la visita del Comte, mentre Lluís segueix gelós.]

"Mutació. Quadro II.

Escena I: Janot, Eugènia." [Janot explica que en Lluís va trobar una corda que pujava a la cambra de la mestressa amb una nota i que va fugir corrents.] "Escena II: Janot, Lluís." [Lluís vol marxar de la casa i no tornar ma més.]

"Escena III: Margot. Música." [Margot canta desesperada per l'amor enyorat. Ha escoltat a en Lluís dir que vol marxar de la masia.] "Escena IV: Dita i Lluís." [Lluís pensa que la seva germana ja no és pura i santa i no creu en la seva innocència. Lluís té la carta trobada com a prova. Margot acusa d'una trama contra ella.]

"Escena V: Eugènia, Úrsula, Llúcia, cor." [Úrsula remarca amb les seves amigues la dubtosa virtut de Margot que no li fa merèixer el premi. Llúcia decideix informar al Comte perquè canviï la seva decisió.] "Música". [El cor canta sobre la partida cap al castell.]

"Mutació. Quadro III. [Castell de Goltran, comte de Chelieu]

Escena I: Goltran i Nicolau." [Es confessa que Nicolau s'havia fet passar per un simple company del Comte, quan en realitat és el Vescomte de Gerbert. Goltran li explica la tradició de la corona de flors de Sant Medard, donada a la noia més virtuosa que hagi fet 18 anys. Parlen sobre les calamitats que els veïns de la Provença li han fet arribar sobre Margot i avaluen si donar-li el premi a la segona de la llista, l'Úrsula.]

"Escena II: Dits, batlle, cor. Música" [Arriba la comitiva de la Provença per saber la decisió final del Comte sobre la guanyadora. Abans, però, el batlle informa al Comte que el Consell ha canviat de parer i proposa ara a la segona de la llista, l'Úrsula. El Comte està d'acord.]

“Escena III: Dits, Fèlix, després Margot, Lluís, Úrsula, Baltasar, Janot i Eugènia.” [Arriba Fèlix explicant que la ferida que té al braç va fer-se-la un llop quan el va salvar a ell i a la seva mare de ser atacats al bosc. Ara, a canvi, li demana restaurar l’honor de la seva filla per haver entrat a la seva cambra l’altra nit. El Comte diu que això ho va fer el Lluís. S’acaba descobrint que tot era una trama muntada per Baltasar a canvi de l’amor de l’Úrsula. Es restaura la primera decisió de coronar Margot i Lluís torna a creure en la seva innocència.”

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Mañana, por la noche, se estrenará en el teatro Principal una comedia lírica, a cuyo estreno, según noticias, han sido invitadas las autoridades militares y compañeros de armas de uno de los autores de la letra. La obra se titula La festa de les donzelles, original la letra de los señores M. Rivas y J. Nonell, y la música del maestro Esquerrà.”

“PRINCIPAL.— La festa de les donzelles, comèdia lírica en tres quadros, lletra d’en Miquel Rivas i Jaume Nonell, música d’Adrià Esquerrà.

L’obra estrenada ahir al teatre Principal. amb tot i que en conjunt resulta un xic allargassada, no deixa de tenir algunes situacions interessants i alguns moments escènics de força relleu.

En La festa de les donzelles els seus autors ban posat en escena un quadro de costums provençals, costums potser poc viscudes, ressentint-se’n molt d’això, el diàleg de l’obra, que és allà on segurament ha flaquejat més el bon acert que en la plasticitat de les escenes han demostrat.

El públic va aplaudir algun final d’escena i varis fragments de la música del mestre Esquerrà, que, per cert, és ben airosa, entre els quals citem el duo cantat per la Morató i en Santpere del final del segon quadro, que es tingué de repetir.

Al abaixar-se el teló, els autors varen ésser cridats a l’escenari repetides vegades.

"Principal.— Anoche estrenóse en este teatro la obra lírica en un acto y tres cuadros, letra de los señores M. Rivas y J. Nonell, música de Adrián Esquerrà, y cuyo título es La festa de les donzelles.

Es de lo más serio y bien construido que se ha estrenado en este teatro durante la presente temporada. Los celos que siente una muchacha (Úrsula) contra otra (Margot) porque esta es preferida para un premio en una fiesta de Provenza (lugar de la acción) constituyen la base de la fábula, la cual encierra episodios tratados con habilidad y despierta el interés. Vamos a apuntar ahora algunos lunares; el primero es que el sentimiento de los celos que siente Úrsula y que es el principal, según se desprende de la acción dramática, no vibra con la debida intensidad; siguen a ese lunar otros menos importantes, como son, por ejemplo: reminiscencias de la fatalidad que presidía en los melodramas y libros de zarzuela de la primera mitad del siglo pasado y descuido en las entradas y salidas de los personajes en algunas escenas.

La música tiene algunos números bonitos: el coral del primer cuadro, el dúo de Margot y Luis y el bailable (Españolet). Interpretación, discreta. Los autores y actores fueron llamados al palco escénico durante la representación y terminada la obra."

Las Noticias 4267 (08/12/1907), p. 5.

"[...] També s'hi estrenà una cosa nomenada La festa de les donzelles, que no sé si eren les monges de Valldonzella, o una tonteria que ni val la pena de parlar-ne; vull dir que ni lletra ni música valen gaire cosa.

Això de L'alegre trompeteria és una altra bestiesa de las que venen d'allí dalt a so de picarols i cascavells, però és tan insupèrflua que dol la tinta de parlar-ne.

Lo que hem de dir és que Ignasi Iglésias ha escrit un sainet hermós de veres i que per desgràcia s'estrenà a la botigueta del carrer de l'Hospital. Per què no dona les obres al Principal, l'autor d'Els vells? El quadro escènic en conjunt és més arrodonit al Principal que a Romea; i en quant a estrenes, han demostrat la colla d'en Giménez no dormir gaire per poder estudiar molt. Val la pena veure's correspostos doncs pels autors de primera fila.

En Rusiñol ha retirat les obres castellanes de Madrid; millor: això l'honra infinit. Una altra vegada els nostres autors seran nostres exclusivament i no dels altres, colla d'imbècils i benavent... urats...

"La festa de las donzelles.— Obra lírica en un acte i tres quadros, lletra dels Srs. Nonell i Rivas, música del Mtre. Esquerrà.

És aqueixa una obreta que resulta bastant escènica i ofereix un argument poc original i de tocs dramàtics. L'acció es desenrotlla a Provença i té, en comparació amb la majoria de les obretes estrenades al Principal en aqueixa temporada, alguna complicació amb tendències a la sarsuela castellana. El llenguatge és un poc descuidat, com si fos escrit a corre cuita.

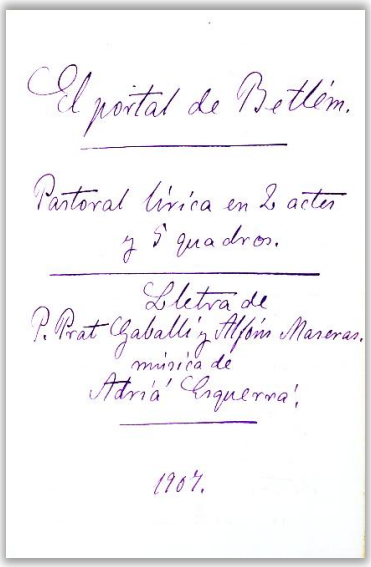
En quant a la música del mestre Esquerrà, resulta garbosa i adequada, tenint algun número molt agradós. El públic que assistí a l'estrena va mostrar un verdader desig de que *La festa de las donzell*es fos un èxit, cosa que no era pas necessària perquè l'obreta, amb tot i no ésser una cosa superior, té prou consistència per a aguantar-se al cartell."

La Escena catalana 63 (14/12/1907), p. 2.

"Diumenge al vespre tindrà lloc en el teatre Principal la primera vetllada d'abonament organitzada pel Centre Autonomista de Dependents del Comerç i de la Indústria, posant-se en escena el famós drama d'en Guimerà Mossen Janot i la nova comèdia lírica de gran èxit La festa de les donzelles.

Segons noves, aquest abonament estarà brillantíssim."

El Poble català 667 (14/12/1907), p. 2.



"[...] Al Principal s'ha estrenat una obreta lírica en un acte, titulada La festa de les donzelles, firmada pels Srs. Rivas i Nonell, i amb música del mestre Esquerrà. El tema és melodramàtic i no té gaire res de nou; el diàleg resulta poc viu; la música és animada i pròpia del gènere a què pertany l'obra. [...]

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Acte 1er

Quadro I: Paratge muntanyenc davant de Nazaret.

Toca-sons i Gepic han encès un foc i, seguts entre pedres, esmorzen. Arriba camí de Nazaret una legió de soldats romans, menats per en Centurió." [El cor celebra l'arribada dels romans.] "(Surten els soldats. Toca-sons i Gepic han estat atents i respirant apenes)." [Sospiten que els soldats van cap a Nazaret en busca d'algú. Ells acaben d'esmorzar i segueixen el viatge cap a Betlem.]

"Escena II: Dits i pastor vell." [El pastor els explica que els romans estan demanant que tot pare de família ha d'empadronar als membres de la seva casa.] "(Entren pausadament Josep i Maria)."

"Escena III: Dits, Josep i Maria." [Josep i Maria diuen al pastor que surten de Nazaret camí a Betlem per empadronar-se allà per ordre del Cèsar. Critiquen el domini romà.] "(Josep i Maria surten)."

"Escena IV: Toca-sons, Gepic, pastor vell." [El pastor vell els explica la profecia de Jehovà i l'arribada del seu fill per lliurar la terra de diables. Els explica el miracle de l'anunciament i que el fill esperat és el que du Maria, qui acaba de passar per allà.] "(El pastor vell surt)."

"Escena V: Toca-sons i Gepic." [Dubten si creure o no la història del pastor.] "(Apareix Luzbel [o Lucífer] disfressat de pastor)." "Escena VI: Dits i Luzbel." [Luzbel pregunta per Maria i Josep, però Toca-sons i Gepic sospiten i descobreixen que és el diable. Els ofereix visitar l'infern.] "(Fa una conjura i apareix al fons de l'escena un riu amb la barca de Caront. Surten de sota terra quatre diablets, qui lliguen a Gepic i Toca-sons i se'ls enduen a la barca)." [Cor dels diables.] "(La barca se'n va en mig de llamps, trons i flames. Els diablets desapareixen entre les aigües del riu Leteu. Luzbel va en la mateixa barca infernal.)"

"Fi del primer quadro del primer acte."

"Quadro II: Antre infernal. L'escena és roja i verda de flames.
Se retorcen serpents i monstres horrorosos. A cada banda del fons hi ha un guerrer amb cara de gall i amb una forca... Al mig el soli de Luzbel."

"Cor de diables i diablesses." "(Entra Luzbel i, al seu darrere, quatre diables que empenyen a Toca-sons i a Gepic, encara lligats. Tots els diables i diablesses s'arremolinen al seu entorn, cantant)."

"Escena II: Cor, Luzbel, Toca-sons i Gepic." [Continua el cor de diables.] "(Surt de sota terra una taula parada)." "(Los diables els hi porten copes plenes)." "([Gepic] Va per beure i al moment de tocar-li la copa els llavis, surt una flamarada que li emmascara els llavis de vermell, la copa li fuig dels dits, se'n va enlaire tota sola i desapareix)." "([Toca-sons] Esparverat, deixa caure la copa i es trenca) [...] (La taula s'enfonsa) [...]. (Surten sis ballarines qui dansen grotescament)." [Cor de diables.] "(Els dos pastors, que en veure entrar les ballarines s'han tapat la cara, de mica en mica se les van mirant i en Gepic acaba per engrescar-se) [...] ([Gepic] Va per ballar i cau de nassos.) [...] (S'acaba la dansa i les ballarines se'n van)."

"([Luzbel parla] Des del seu soli on està assegut)." "([Gepic] Se mira amb curiositat als guardians, s'acosta al de la dreta i el toca.) [...] (S'encenen els ulls aixeca un braç i dona un cop a Gepic) [...] (Surten dansant i amb brandons encesos set pecats capitals) [...] (Les ballarines passen una a una al davant d'ells, estirant-los-hi la roba) [...] (Surten les ballarines)." "(S'alcen dues cortines del fons i es veuen els diables atormentant les ànimes) [...] (Se sent un gran terratrèmol, llamps i trons. L'escena es transfigura i apareix l'Arcàngel, envolcallat de claror blava i amb una espasa)."

"Escena III: Dits i Arcàngel." "([Luzbel] Cau a terra). ([Arcàngel] Posant un peu sobre el seu cap i amenaçant-lo amb l'espasa)."

"Fi del 2on quadro i del primer acte."

"Acte 2on.

Quadro I: Plaça a Betlem. Al fons, la casa d'en Panxacontenta.

Escena I: Cor de dones i Agneta." [Canten esperant casar-se aviat.]

"Escena II: Dites, Toca-sons i Gepic." [Agneta culpa Gepic per la tardança en tornar a Betlem i se'n burla.] "(Les dones també riuen)." [Quan confessen que han estat a l'infern, les dones canten en cor que estan endimoniats.] "(Totes fugen enverades)." [Agneta fuig de Toca-sons, el seu promès, fins que aquest li diu que va rebutjar l'ordre del dimoni de matar a Maria, la propera mare que espera el fill de Déu.]

"Escena III: Dits i Panxacontenta." [El pare de l'Agneta li mana tornar a casa]. "Escena IV: Toca-sons, Gepic, Panxacontenta." [Panxacontenta no es creu la seva història i pensa que han estat festejant altres noies.] "Escena V: Gepic i Toca-sons." [Se n'adonen que a Gepic li ha sortit una cua.] "([Toca-sons] Estira fort [per arrencar-se-la])."

"Escena VI: Dits i Luzbel." [Els ofereix or a canvi de matar Maria, però s'hi neguen.] "(Fa un xiulet i apareixen els diables, qui van per lligar als pastors)." "Escena VII: Dits i dos diable. [...] (Li fuig la bossa de les mans i desapareix.)" "Escena VIII: Dits i Arcàngel. [...] (Luzbel i els altres dos diables fugen esverats. L'Arcàngel desapareix. Toca-sons i Gepic, lligats, surten de l'escena a tomballons)."

"Escena IX: Josep, Maria, Arcàngel, una veu." [Pregunten per hostatge, però els rebutgen.] "(Se'n van)."

"Fi del 1er quadro del 2on acte."

"Quadro II: Falda d'una muntanya. Matinada de desembre.

Escena I: Cinc pastors." [Esperen que Toca-sons i Gepic els hi facin el relleu.] "Escena II: Dits, Gepic, Toca-sons, cor de dones i homes, una dona." [El cor porta lligats a Gepic i Toca-sons dient que estan endimoniats.] "(Entra en escena [Gepic]). [...] (Entren els pastors qui duen a Toca-sons)." [La dona els explica la història i ensenya les seves cues als pastors.] "(Ballen una sardana)." [Cor de pastors.]

"Escena III: Dits, Agneta i Panxacontenta." [Agneta li demana permís al seu pare per casar-se amb Toca-sons. Gepic fa acudits dient que també es vol casar.] "([Panxacontenta] Li estira les orelles.)" [Cor general i de pastor per marxar a menjar les farinetes.] "Escena IV: Dits i Luzbel." [Demana menjar vestit de pastor fins que el descobreixen.] "Escena V: Dits, Arcàngel i àngel. [...] ([Luzbel] Cau vençut, torna a aixecar-se i fuig a tomballons. El fons s'omple de claror i apareixen tres àngels. Els pastors resten meravellats)." [Els àngels anuncien el naixement de Jesús i envien els pastors a portar-li roba.]

"Fi del 2on quadro del 2on acte."

"Quadro III: L'escena representa el portal de Betlem. Al fons, el pessebre, veient-s'hi a Josep i Maria, a Jesús dintre del bressol i el bou i la mula.

Escena I: Josep, Maria i cor d'àngels." [Cor canta a la glòria de Déu i del seu fill.] "Escena II: Entren Toca-sons, Agneta, Gepic, Panxacontenta, pastors, pastores, poble, tots portant presents per a Jesús!" [Cor anunciant la seva arribada. Adoren a Jesús amb regals.] “Escena III: Dits, Luzbel, Arcàngel.” [L’Arcàngel anuncia la fi del regne de Luzbel]. “(Va per arremetre a l’Arcàngel, però cau vençut) [...] (Luzbel s’enfonsa).” [Cor general anunciant la fi de la guerra contra Luzbel.] “(Cos de ball i apoteosi.)” [Cor de pastors i cor d’àngels.]

“Fi.”

Ressenyes de premsa:

La Publicidad (24/12/1907), ed. matí, p. 4.

“PRINCIPAL.— Anoche se estrenó en este teatro una obra titulada El portal de Betlem, cortada por el patrón de Los pastorcillos y otras análogas. Ofrece gran novedad por el asunto y por la manera de tratarlo, pero es muy a propósito para entretener al público infantil en estos días de Pascuas.

Está bien presentada y termina con el cuadro de la Adoración de los Pastores, que produce buen efecto. La ejecución muy propia también de Nochebuena. Hubo momentos en que creímos estar en un circo.”

El Noticiero Universal (25/12/1907), p. 2.

“TEATRE PRINCIPAL.— Estrena d’El portal de Betlem, pastoral lírica en dos actes i cinc quadros, lletra don P. Prat Gaballí i A. Maseras, música del mestre Esquerrà.

Jo no sabria escriure lloances de l’obra estrenada anit al Principal. No és una obra pèssima, certament. Però conec als senyors Maseras i Prat i sé que són capaços de fer coses millors, molt millors. A demés, els amics esmentats tenen de la seva obra un just concepte, i res podria dir-los jo que ells ja no sàpiguen...

Cal reconèixer que el gènere a que pertany El portal de Betlem no és el més adequat per a que puguin lluir-se escriptors com en Prat i en Maseras, que són joves de bon gust literari i de poètica delicadesa. Prou han fet evitant en la seva obra bufa les grolleries i les pallassades de consuetud. Així El portal de Betlem es més meritori per lo dolent que no hi ha, que por lo bo que hi hagi. Llàstima que els actors no tinguessin els mateixos miraments que els autors. Una cosa vull dir en aquests, i és que la seva obra recorda massa a Los pastorcillos en Belén [drama sacre amb música de Lluís Suñer Casademunt].

La música dal mestre Adrià Esquerrà és força acceptable, havent-hi fragments de veritable inspiració. El públic acollí l'obra amb benevolència, per més que ahir no hi havia al teatre el característic públic de Nadal, pel qual escrigueren als autors de la lletra.

"Crónicas menudas

Haciendo las cosas a derechas debiera dar aquí razón de la bandera coronela, el sueño de la princesa y los falsos dioses, tres joyas del género chico pendientes de examen, pero la actualidad se impone; estamos en días de Nacimiento y moriría rabiando si antes no hiciera cuatro leves consideraciones acerca de El portal de Betlem estrenado en el Principal durante la clásica Nochebuena y original de los distinguidos pastores señores Toca-sons i Gepic, con música zambombónica de nuestro angustioso amigo el maestro Esquerrà.

Fui en las mejores disposiciones de espíritu, en los comienzos de la digestión del besugo, complicado con trozos de turrón de yema y disolvente de vino rancio, todo ello bastante bien avenido para oír El portal con la benevolencia que Beaumarchais echaba de menos. Estas obras de Pascuas me encantan porque me rejuvenecen, volviéndome a los tiempos de la adolescencia, cuando todavía creía yo que el rey Baltasar era negro y los otros dos blancos tirando a rubio, de modo que al sentarme en la butaca estaba poco menos que decidido a que me gustara El portal y todo cuanto sucediera en el dicho portal y aún en el resto de la casa. Y declaro honradamente que aquello me gustó de un modo extraordinario y fuera de abono como podrá ver el que siga leyendo.

Hasta ahora cuantos autores han tratado el tema han cortado por un patrón invariable calcado en la tradición bíblica: Jehová depone venir al mundo encarnándose en un hombre; este hombre, Jesús, paga con la vida la redención de la casta humana, que no lo merecía, como se ha visto después, etc. En El portal de Betlem se ha variado esto casi radicalmente; cierto que viene Jesús al final de la obra, porque no podía ser de otro modo, pero en los antecedentes de su nacimiento se asigna al diablo una parte principalísima hasta ahora ignorada.

Empieza la obra con unos compases de carpintero, es decir, anchos, se levanta el telón y aparecen cociendo unas farinetes los pastores Toca-sons y Gepic, que van de caminata por un paisaje enteramente judío, y aunque las farinetes están saladas, según afirma Gepic, y es lo único salado que hay allí, se las comen al amor de la lumbre. Cuando van a partir hacia su tierra, —que no sé cuál será, porque Toca-sons Santpere es de una y Gepic Capdevila es de otra— aparece un anciano pastor, en cuya voz de barítono arruinado reconocí inmediatamente a nuestro arqueológico amigo García. Este trae la buena nueva entre los pliegues de su caftán. Otros compases, esta vez de ebanistería, y el bueno de García rompe a hablar con el tono tradicional del recitado a orquesta, diciendo en verso esto que reproduzco yo en prosa:

—¡Jehová lo dijo! ¡Las profecías van a cumplirse y el Hijo de Dios bajará a Vientre de mujer para redimir a su pueblo! ¡Prosternaos ante los designios de Jehová porque en breve seréis salvos y porque el lunes habrá nómina!

Acaban García y la melopea, y para que Santpere y Capdevila —que son dos incrédulos— no duden de las palabras de persona tan seria como el señor García, surge por la izquierda una luz muy rara y aparecen por la derecha la Virgen María y el conocido patriarca José, esta vez sin burro, por dos razones: porque eso del burro no está aún bien averiguado y además, porque un asno para una obra vale dos pesetas por representación. Los santos esposos van a llevar el padrón de las cédulas, lo cual probará a ustedes que las relaciones entre San José y Febrer i Sistachs son antiguas, y vuelven a quedar solos los pastores con la cazuela de las farinetes. En este momento... ¡Ah, este es el momento nuevo! Otros compases —porque esta partitura, o paridura, de Esquerrà parece un estuche de matemáticas— y entra en escena un embozado a quien por estarlo cuidadosamente no tenemos el gusto de conocer. Los pastores se escaman y nosotros también, porque ¿quién se fía de un hombre con barbas que anda embozado y de noche por los nevados campos de Judea?

El embozado se da a conocer; es sencillamente el demonio, con su rica capa encarnada y sus clásicos pitones, y viene a llevarse a Toca-sons y Gepic al infierno, y no para nada malo, sino para darles un recado, aunque en rigor podía habérselo dicho allí mismo. Los pastores se rebelan, naturalmente; Satanás ruge, la orquesta ruge, brama el trueno, se queda el teatro a oscuras, yo me encojo todo, mi secretario, que ya está bastante encogido, se reduce al tamaño de una petaca y se esconde aterrado debajo de un violín segundo, suenan unos compases completamente infernales, y, cuando estoy a pique de perder el sentido, se hace la luz... Este diabólico Esquerrà me va a matar a fuerza de emociones…

Estamos en el infierno, todo rojo como una cámara para revelar fotografías, y con nosotros los pastores, y como antes dejarán de cobrarse las contribuciones que prescindir de unas danzas infernales en tan adecuado sitio, salen las diablesas y bailan con unos tridentes mientras Lucifer Giménez descansa con la capa puesta. Y ustedes imaginen, si pueden, cómo andarían por dentro mi besugo y mis turrones oyendo unos bailables endemoniados con música de Esquerrà. Cuando acaban, Lucifer propone a los pastores que maten a María para que no nazca el Divino Niño, a lo cual se niegan, y hacen perfectamente, Lucifer pretende abusar de su poder metiéndolos en una caldera que sale por escotillón, una caldera nueva que no es ninguna de las de aquellas Calderes d'en Pere Botero y en la que bien cabría el amigo Esquerrà con toda su música; pero aparece de pronto por el foro un ángel, no sé cuál de ellos, pero lo reconocerán ustedes enseguida porque en toda la obra anda con la espada en alto, como si fuera unos zorros, y rescata a los pastores, volviéndolos a la tierra. Unos compases de cerrajería para cerrar este final de primer acto, extraigo a Juanito de debajo de la silla del violín segundo, y fuimos a los pasillos para fumar honradamente un pitillo.

En el acto segundo, otro paisaje no menos judaico que el del primero, aunque más nevado. Salen unas judías que van a la fuente y hay un coro de cántaros porque todas se han quedado en casa sin agua al mismo tiempo. La música de estos cantaros es, naturalmente, digna de una cacharrería; pero ahora disculpo yo a Esquerrà porque, bien mirado, ¿cómo quieren ustedes que suene un coro de judías? Mal, necesariamente. Regresan del infierno los pastores. A uno de ellos, a Gepic. le ha salido rabo, que asoma por debajo de la túnica, y yo he hecho todo género de suposiciones para averiguar por qué Gepic tiene cola y Toca-sons no, sin dar con la causa de esta diferencia, que coloca a Capdevila en condiciones inferiores a Santpere. Al saber que vienen del infierno, todos huyen de ellos, lo cual también le pasó siglos después al Dante, y de nuevo aparece Lucifer con la idea fija de que los pastores maten a María. Como puede ser un inconveniente que no tengan armas para aquella faena, porque ahora anda el gobernador recogiéndolas, les ofrece un puñal, que ellos no aceptan, pero sí una bolsa adinerada, porque ellos son pastores rudos, pero prácticos.

Lucifer —que en el fondo es un infeliz, aunque lleva capa encarnada— va a tomar venganza de los pastores; pero, como ya esperábamos todas las personas decentes, aparece de nuevo el ángel con los zorros en alto. ¡Zorros providenciales! Libres los pastores, deciden acudir al portal donde está el Divino Niño en compañía de Panxacontenta, papel que, naturalmente, se ha confiado a Puiggarí. porqué si él, que cobra como autor y actor, no tiene derecho a ser panxacontenta, no sé a quién le correspondería.

Otra cosa no será Lucifer, pero terco sí que lo es. En el propio portal de Belén y cuando todos adoran y ofrendan al Niño, se desliza él, persiguiendo su diabólico plan. Y esta vez sí, esta vez entra el ángel y descarga sobre el malo los zorros que ha tenido levantados toda la noche, como tuvo su espada el acreditado señor de Damocles. Y a consecuencia del golpe el malo se vuelve a los infiernos solo dejándonos a Esquerrà sobre la superficie de la tierra. Unos cuantos espectadores de los qué habían disfrutado El portal de Betlem y que, sin duda, eran de Belén también, pidieron que salieran los autores; pero los señores Prat y Maseras son chicos discretos y solamente asomaron Lucifer, Panxacontenta, los pastores y el ángel con los zorros bajos.

Me fui melancólico Rambla arriba, embebido en la rumorosa circulación de aquella noche clásica y en busca de la misa del gallo. No hallé iglesia abierta porque creo que aquella misa solo se puede ver ahora con papeleta, como las prendas empeñadas, y acabé en el lecho vulgarmente, desoladamente, durmiéndome preocupadísimo porque no sabía las razones que hubieren mediado para que Toca-sons volviera del infierno sin cola y Gepic regresara del mismo establecimiento con un rabo que bien tendría sus noventa centímetros. Y como el besugo y los turrones no se me ponían de acuerdo, procuré armonizarlos repitiendo el "coro de judías", del que ahora y con pleno conocimiento de causa puedo asegurarles que suena mal decididamente.

Federico Urrecha."

"[...] Dilluns va estrenar-se el quadret de costums El banc de la paciència, original de D. J. M. Nadal. És poca cosa.

I per a dimarts se va anunciar la primera de una pastoral lírica en dos actes i cinc quadros quin títol de circumstàncies és El portal de Betlem, i de quina representació no ens es possible donar-ne compte encara.

Igualment se prepara per a demà una gran funció d'innocents quin programa és de lo més abracadabrant i descabellat que es puga imaginar."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1513 (27/12/1907), p. 840.

"El portal de Betlem.— Pastoral lírica, en dos actes i cinc quadros; lletra dels Srs. A. Maseras i P. Prat Gaballí.

El teatre, pels autors, es un camí de flors i espines, amb poc de lo primer i molt de lo segon (això no sé si va dir-ho en Zorrilla o Asmarats), per lo tant no desanimin els Srs. Prat i Maseras (S. en C.) i tornin-se a establir el dia que els convingui, en espera d'un èxit més afalagador.

Contemplant El portal de Betlem vaig recordar-me de les rebentades que el Sr. M. publicava en El poble català quan substituïa al terrible A. R. V.

És lo que diu en Pitarra en El teatre per dins:

«Criticar tothom ne sap,
fer-ho bé... casi ningú.»"

La Escena catalana 65 (28/12/1907), p. 4.

"L'empresa del teatre Principal sembla que toca a morts; dugues obres darreres estrenades han resultat dugues ximpleries; la primera, la que escrigué el joven Nadal, xicot de casa bona i que s'afaita sovint, i l'altre la dels simpàtics (segons per qui) d'en Maseras i Prat Gaballí. Els casos presents són El banc de la paciència i El portal de Betlem. Ni l'una ni l'altra ofereixen interès artístic ni dramàtic, són dugues santes neules afussellables.

En un Nadal ja li perdono, perquè no és literat ni ho serà mai de la seva vida, perquè en la desditxada Maria ja vàrem veure-li el dau; ara els altres dos companys inseparables ja mereixen una fregada d'orelles, perquè quan volen saben fer-ho bé, i amb això dels pastorcillos s'hi han blasfemat literalment; llàstima de música que hi han trossos ben ensopegat. [...]

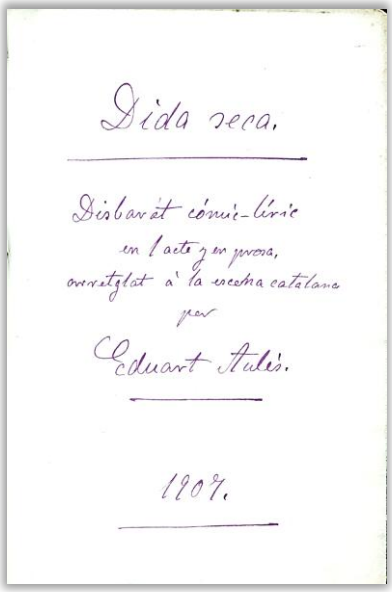
L'avi 69 (01/01/1908), p. 3.



"Després d'aquell memorable desacert que duia per nom El banc de la paciència, i que la va fer perdre de seguida als espectadors, vingué l'estrena d'una pastoral, El portal de Betlem, dels senyors Prat i Maseras. Se tracta d'una obra sense gaires més qualitats literàries que Els pastorets, però més mansoia que aquesta. El mestre Esquerrà ha il·lustrat els dos actes amb varis números d'una música bastant inspirada i adequada a les situacions. [...]

Per ser obra de circumstàncies s'ha tornat a posar Nit de reis, l'aplaudida rondalla de l'Apel·les Mestres, i altra vegada ha cridat gentada ansiosa d'assaborir les belleses literàries així com l'hermosa música del mestre Morera. [...]."

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Acte únic.

Escena I: Roser (luego), Bertran (luego), la veu d'en Francisco.

Música." [Roser canta satíricament sobre la mort]. [Roser cuina per a Francisco, religiós que fa de dida, mentre parla amb Bertran, qui explica que el pare de la Roser està destinat a Filipinas].

"Escena II: Dits, Francisco." [Manen la Roser a fer encàrrecs]. "Escena III: Francisco, Bertran." [Francisco explica que la Roser té 8 any i la criarà fins que en tingui 12. Ha de marxar a fer de tambor amb la cobla]. [Bertran li pregunta com va arribar a fer de dida, resulta que va anar a Barcelona pels nens que havia de criar la seva dona, i quan va arribar de tornada, la dona havia mort i se'n va encarregar ell mateix].

"Escena IV: Dits, Roser." [Bertran queda sorprès de les maneres de la Roser, que és molt espavilada i descarada]. "Escena V: Francisco, Bertran, Ramona i Clamarasa." [Arriben per sorpresa els pares de la Roser, que estan de permís. Bertran va a buscar la Roser]. "Escena VI: Dits menys Bertran." [Volen conèixer la dida i en Franscisco ha d'inventar-se excuses i buscar-ne una de mentida].

"Escena VII: Ramona, Camarasa, luego Martorell." [Martorell és l'oncle del segon nen que cria en Francisco que ve a pagar el deute pendent des d'Amèrica]. "Escena VIII: Camarasa, Ramona." [Llegeixen una carta de la Roser que els volien enviar dient que estudia molt i que necessita per diners per anar a equitació]. "Escena IX: Dits, Bertran, luego Roser". [Passa la nena sense acabar de vestir i pensen que és la porquera].

“Escena X: Dits, Francisco”. [Queden espantats quan Francisco els hi diu que aquesta nena és la seva filla]. “Escena XI: Ramona, Roser, Camarasa.” [La nena es posa a cuinar, dir paraulotes i torna a cantar sobre la mort. Diu que no va al col·legi i que no sap escriure]. [Torna a cantar sobre anar a la taberna els diumenges]. “Escena XII: Dits, Francisco, Bertran”. [Francisco i Bertran van disfressats de dona per pretendre que ells són la dida. Francisco canta sobre com a criat la nena].

“Escena XIII: Dits, menys Roser.” [Sospiten que s’assemblen molt als homes]. “Escena XIV: Ramona, Francisco, Camarasa.” [Li recriminen l’educació de la seva filla]. “Escena XV: Dits, Roser.” [Ara volen parlar amb l’home i s’ha de treure la disfressa].

“Escena XVI: Francisco, Martorell.” [Li demana veure en Vialó, però li havia deixat el nen al seu cosí a canvi d’una burra]. “Escena XVII: Francisco, Bertran”. [Pensen disfressar la Roser de nen]. “Escena XVIII: Francisco, Camarasa, Ramona.” “Escena XIX: Dits, Bertran, Roser.” [Veuen la nena vestida de nen i decideixen agafar-la i marxar]. “Escena XX: Francisco, Roser, Bertran, luego Martorell.” [Martorell es creu la mentida, però es vol portar al nen].

“Escena XXI: Camarasa, Ramona, Roser, Francisco i Bertran.” [La nena puja a un arbre perquè no vol marxar. Els pares li ofereixen a Francisco, encara vestit de dona, que vingui amb ells perquè han d’agafar el tren, però planegen deixar-lo a mig camí i canviar de tren. La nena queda convençuda i en Vialó arribarà al dia següent per marxar amb en Martorell. Tot queda resolt]. “Música. Teló.”

Ressenyes de premsa:

“Ahir va començar la colla del Principal la funció d’innocents presentant els actors alguns números excèntrics, que seran repetits en la innocentada d’avui al vespre.

Com és costum en aquest gènere de funcions, va estrenar-se també una peça del tot a propòsit per al cas: La dida seca de l’Aulés, amb música del mestre Oró. És una obreta que encaixa perfectament dintre el caràcter que es tractava de donar a la vetllada. Realment no podia trobar-se cosa millor per a la funció d’innocents. Hi ha, no un, dos actors que es vesteixen de dona; hi ha uns altres personatges que, amb tot i haver-hi parlat fa un moment, no coneixen l’engany; hi ha una escena en què afaiten s un i li posen sabó al nas; hi ha una nena que diu maliriadures i parla de beure aiguardent i canta i balla com aquella altra nena de la peça Innocència del mateix autor. En fi, demanin!, tots sabem lo que són les peces a propòsit per als innocents.

Els trossos de música que ha posat a La dida seca el mestre Oró són airosos i discrets. Entre els números escènics que varen presentar els artistes de la casa, el que va produir més bon efecte va ser l’encarregat a n’en Santpere i en Barbosa, que varen imitar amb gran acert un intermedi de clowns de circ.

"La dida seca.— Comèdia lírica en un acte, original d'Eduard Aulés, amb música del Mtre. Oró.

Tractant-se d'una obra estrenada en la funció d'innocents, debem prescindir de tota inverosimilitut en l'argument i, concretant-nos als mèrits de la comèdia, debem dir que és divertida i es fa aplaudir per ses situacions còmiques i grotesques. La musica és notable.

En l'execució s'hi distingeix notablement la nena Salas, una actriu en miniatura, que és de lo milloret que hem vist en les taules. En Santpere i en Capdevila petit, també es portaren bé. Els secundaren notablement la Sra. Morera i els Srs. Vinyals i Garcia."

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

"Música di ritaglie apederatta per sabi Brithant (a) Oroni."

"Opera dedicatta al signore Baronne Niubó (Cascarrabias), impresario."

"(Si alsa il sipario di seguita) (Toquen les sette)." [Primer número cantat per en Regalesia sobre el seu mal d'amor]. "(Canti di la guatlla)."

[Ària de D. Fartanero queixant-se d'haver matinat per creuar el bosc caminant i complir el seu encàrrec per acabar perdut i no arribar a res].

"[Purquetto i Panellonè] (Van junts fent sempre maniobres per escena)." "(Aquí els soldats ja han d'entrar en renglera). (Cops de llançà)." [Comencen a cantar el tercer número Purquetto i Panellonè sobre la por que tenen a la guerra i als soldats]. "(Cops de llança a terra) [...] (Miran als soldatti con dispretzio)."

[Quart número amb ritme de marxa i cor de soldats, trompeters i criades]. "(Molt brogit a l'escena) [...] (Surt tothom)." "Minuet. Mentre toqui l'orquestra que facin alguns moviments, per exemple d'admiració, etc." [Els soldats es presenten davant les dones i pensen que hi ha una per a cadascun. Finalment anuncien que és hora de sopar].

[Cinquè número concertant entre Regalesia (content per la seva sort a l'amor), Xinella, Fartaniero, Viroleto (amb mal d'amor) i el Barone]. [Hi ha un bis instrumental en temps de vals que sembla que no es va tocar]. [Sembla que anunciessin la confrontació entre Regalesia i Viroleto per l'amor de la filla del Barone i un pla a desenvolupar].

[Número final. En Viroleto està amb la filla del Barone amb la complicitat de Xinella i han de fugir perquè ve el Barone]. "Vals." "Cade il sipario pausadamente." "[Després de la doble barra final] "A fer punyetes."

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Com cada any s'han celebrat innocentades a tots els teatres.

Al Principal, ademés de La dida seca, de què ja vàrem parlar, s'han estrenat amb tal motiu un sainet del senyor Brossa i Sangerman i una espatotxada en un acte, que du per títol Il castello di Malastruga. [...]

Il castello di Malastruga és realment una obra d'innocentada. S'hi parla italià macarrònic, s'hi fan moltes desgràcies de per riure, s'hi apliquen amb gran esperit còmic diferents nombres musicals d'obres conegudes... i s'hi riu. El públic s'hi diverteix i els actors fan com el públic, amb tot i que al cap d'avall hi ha una estesa de morts que fa feresa.

Altre nombre del programa d'innocents al Principal és la lluita japonesa, imitada amb molt bon humor pels actors Santpere i Morató, als que presenta amb un parlament humorístic en Puiggarí. I ho fa tan bé, que cada dia hi ha al públic una senyora que es desmaia[92]."

La Veu de Catalunya 3120 (30/12/1908), ed. matí, p. 1.

"[...] Lo que em va fer venir ganes de protestar va ser Il castello di Malastruga, obra d'en Lambert Escaler, amb música bona de diferents mestres.

Figurin-se que, en aquesta obra, se'm posa a mi en escena, encara que amb el nom disfressat d'italià. Tot és parlar d'en Viroletto i dir que el senyor Baró el vol matar. I això és una cosa que no està bé ni per mi ni pel senyor Baró. Perquè jo puc haver reventat L'hort d'en Churrumecu, si volen, però ho he fet sense malícia i no crec que el senyor Baró, per tan poca cosa, cregui prudent suprimir-me del món dels vius. Sobretot si es té en compte que jo al senyor Baró no li tinc cap mena de malícia i fins hi ha obres seves que em diverteixen força.

Sort que Il castello di Malastruga també em va divertir, sinó, ens hauríem vist les cares amb l'autor.

I ara, si algú troba que he destinat massa espai a les innocentades, que dispensi; a mi sempre m'entretenen aquestes coses. Està clar que la majoria no tenen res que veure amb la literatura, però tantes coses hi ha que no hi tenen a veure i em fan riure! Doncs, prenem-s'ho alegrement, ve'ls-hi aquí.

"El castel·lo di Malestruga.— Innocentada macarroni en un acte i varis assassinats; lletra de Lambert Escaler, amb música de varis autors, arranjada pel Mtre. Oró.

És una bonica funció pròpia per la diada a què va destinada. Té gracia i la broma dura tot el rato que el teló està aixecat... No es pot demanar més.

El públic va disfrutar-hi de debò i els actors van fer-hi la seva brometa, que els hi és permesa en tal festa. Ens va agradar molt el treball de la Sra. Morera i els Srs. Santpere i Giménez.

La funció d'innocents va portar molta gent frisosa de fruir les bromes anunciades.

En altra part donem compte de les obres estrenades, que resultaren totes d'èxit. A més, en Santpere, acompanyat d'un que feia de pallasso, va entretenir un bon rato amb ses agudeses. També feu una bonica paròdia del Rakú. amb l'ajuda d'en Morató i en Puiggarí. [...]"

[...] (Descorren la cortina les dues dames, quedant-ne una a cada costat i la Reina, dreta al mig més enrere.) [...] (Al descórrer-se la cortina, el llit ja havia desaparegut darrere d'un tapís. Totes les altres dames, posades en dues rengles, canten.) [...] (La Reina ha anat avançant poc a poc, veient-se pel seu caminar son defalliment. Les dames estan amb el front molt acotat.) [...] (Donya Margarida va a obrir la porta de la dreta.) [...] (Los cavallers comencen a cantar abans de presentar-se en escena.)"

"Quadro segon

Plaça d'un vilatge pobríssim i rònec amb molt espai, molta llum i poques cases. Una de les entrades de la plaça serà per un arc fosc, llarg i davallant, veient-s'hi força claror a l'altra banda.

Escena I: Sisa, Mariana, Filomena, Segimona i altres dones. Miquelot, Bernat, Quirze i altres homes. També hi haurà molts nens i nenes. La gent jova balla al mig. Els altres estan al costat mirant el ball. [...] (A l'acabar el ball, gran saragata de balladors i balladores i de tothom, mentre la Sisa, que s'estava en un costat vora sa mare, balla sola al mig, sense saber-ne.)"

"[Sisa] (Fa tintines i algunes dones la porten a sa mare.) [...] [A Miquelot] (No l'escolten) [...] (Ara callen. La Sisa entretant balla de cames, asseguda als genolls de la Mariana.) [...] (Alguns volen interrompre i ell segueix.) [...] [El jovent] (Se comencen a posar a punt de ballar quan se senten tocs de trompetes. Tothom s'atura.) [...] (Comença a sentir-se lleugera música de la comitiva de la Reina, que després anirà creixent en força fins que tothom del seguiment reial se trobi en escena.)”

“(Tothom segueix esparverat exclamant-se cada vegada en veu més baixa.) [...] (Els soldats contenen a la gent que anava a fugir.) [...] (Els homes se lleven les gorres i s’arracona tothom a un costat).”

"Quadro tercer

Al mig hi ha un gran arbre que s'estén per sobre l'escena. Darrere la soca de l'arbre, una gran planura, descoberta de banda a banda, a punt de sembrar. A la dreta, un marge amb herbam de tardor, que té de donar pas a l'entrada d'un camí. A l'esquerra, una casa mig enderrocada amb porta esbalandrada i oberta i amb balcó que té la barana de fusta mig esgavellada. És en ple dia.

La música alegre amb què finalitza el quadro anterior se transforma a l'apareixer aquest en harmonia de pregària. No hi haurà ningú en escena. Les veus de la pregària seran cap a la banda dreta, ben lluny i sense acostar-se.

Escena I: Sisa, Mariana, Filomena, Segimona, Miquelot, Bernat, Quirze i altres del poble. Tots vindran de la dreta, quan s'indiqui, després de la pregària. [...] (Entren tres o quatre homes i dones corrent i esvolotant.) [Sisa] (Plorant fort.) [...] (Entra en Miquelot i ella s'hi abraça.) [...] (Se'n van cap a la dreta a mirar com s'acosten.) [...] [Segimona] (Sortint amb altres dones.)"

"Escena II: Los anteriors i el capità Rovellat, de la dreta.

[...] Filomena, entrant amb flors [per fer-ne un ram a la reina]. (Veient al capità.) (Espantada.) [...] [Sisa] (Traient-se flors de la butxaca.) [...] (Les altres dones xisclen del xiscle de Sisa.) [...] (Les dones se posaran a cantar la cançó del ram mig ballant-la, voltant a la Mariana que és la que el fa.) [...] (Gatzara mentre dura la cançó, majorment al final.) [...] [Dones] (Encongides.) [...] (Les dones parlen entre elles [triant qui porta el ram a la reina].) [...] (Tothom queda estranyat.) [...] (La Mariana s'agenolla i al costat d'ella s'agenolla la Sisa.) (Baixant el cap com si volgués posar els ulls en terra.) [...] (Allargant el ram sense dir res.) [...] (Com si ho seguís dient a la Reina.) [...] [Miquelot] (Simula l'entrega del ram sense dir ni una paraula. De cop saluda ridículament sense agenollar-se. Després s'assenyala a ell mateix i després a tothom. A l'acabar olora el ram, fa un giravolt i el presenta tornant a saludar. Tothom riu.) [...] ([El capità mana callar] Perquè el poble començava a cridar.) [Poble] (Sense poder-se contenir.) [...]"

"Escena III: Los anteriors i la Reina Blanca, donya Beatriu, donya Margarida, Serní, duc de les Albeses, comte de Griselda, més poble i soldats. Tots entraran quan s'indiqui.

"[Reina Blanca] (Sospitant que és el d'ells [l'àrbre].) [Serní] (Acostant-se a la soca.) [...] (L'han abraçat l'un a cada banda.) Reina Blanca, sempre abraçant l'àrbre. [...] (Besa la soca i després gira el cap als cortesans.) [...] (Els cavallers segueixen rígids.) [...] (Remor de la gent del poble, que no s'acosta per respecte a la gent d'armes.) [...] (La gent se va acostant poc a poc.) [...] (L'altra gent també s'enraona.) [...] (La Sisa el va a cercar al lloc on l'han deixat [el ram].) [...] (En Serní està amb el cap baix recollit, quiet.) [...] (La Sisa s'acosta a Mariana amb el ram, que porta cap per avall, i que sa mare a cada punt li gira, esperant el moment oportú per a fer l'entrega.) [...] (El soroll de les veus se va apagant.) [...] (També contribueix a fer que callin donya Beatriu, mes no donya Margarida, que mira tot allò amb despreci.) [La Reina mana sembrar el camp] [Quirze] (Surt cap al darrere de la casa. Segueix l'alegria del poble.) [...] (La Sisa fa estona que engronxa el cos davant de la Reina, portant cap per avall i darrere l'esquena el ram.) [...] (La Reina s'hi fixa.) [...] (La Sisa li dona cap per avall sense dir res.) [...] (La Filomena se'n porta el ram per l'esquerra.) Serní, plorant. [...]"

"(Surt de darrere la casa, sobre el camp, el matxet portant l'arada, i en Quirze al darrere. L'arada ve plena de flors.) [...] (Ha comparegut en primer terme, també de l'esquerra, la Filomena, portant un senalló ple de gra.) [...] (Remor del poble.) [...] (Alegria de tothom. [...] Prenent-li [la Reina] el senalló amb la sembra.) Filomena, avergonyida. [...] (Quan la Reina ja hi és comença el cant i no arrenca a caminar el matxet fins que es digui "ragi el gra d'or".) [...] Quirze, sembrant cap a la dreta. [...] (Els darrers versos els haurà cantat en Quirze fora de l'escena, sentint-se sa veu que s'allunya, figurant que el camp és llarg. Sobre el cant d'aquestos quatre versos se destacarà el següent diàleg de la gent del poble, que mira el grup de l'arada com s'allunya.) [...] (Ha deixat de cantar en Quirze i tot el poble ve al mig. Mentrestant els nobles, acollats, segueixen mirant a la Reina com sembra.) [...] (Se torna a sentir molt lluny els primers versos d'en Quirze, que figura que torna. "El éxito de anoche

LA REINA VELLA. El teatro lírico catalán cuenta, desde ayer, con una obra sólida, cuyo mérito literario supera a las de cuantas producciones del mismo género se han estrenado desde la fundación de los «Espectacles-Audicions» en el teatro Principal. Y Guimerà añade con esta obra a la larga y gloriosa lista de sus triunfos escénicos uno grandioso y de los más legítimos.

Dejando el examen detenido de La reina vella para la próxima edición, el hecho debe consignarse, porque revistió todos los caracteres de un acontecimiento. El teatro presentaba brillante aspecto, estando ocupadas casi todas sus localidades por numerosa y distinguida concurrencia.

Desde las primeras escenas la acción interesó al público, no logrando desviar su atención ni el inoportuno rebuzno de un jumento que descansaba en el escenario, después de haber tomado parte en la representación de L'ase de l'hortelà. En otras circunstancias y tratándose de obra de menos fuste, ese inesperado detalle hubiera sido el comienzo de un pitorreo general.

Afortunadamente la obra de Guimerà tiene, desde el principio, la fuerza necesaria para imponerse a la atención del espectador; fuerza que a cada cuadro adquiere mayor intensidad, llegando en el último su más alto grado y produciendo verdadera sensación de arte.

El maestro Morera ha interpretado con fidelidad las situaciones, sin prodigar efectos, ni diluir los temas. Hay en el segundo cuadro un bailable brillante, de melodioso ritmo, que hubo de ser repetido. La interpretación satisfizo al público, aunque de ella hablaremos al ampliar la reseña, justo es que anticipemos la excelente impresión que causó la labor de la señora Morera, de la Srta. Baró y del señor Santpere. Los autores de La reina vella fueron ovacionados con entusiasmo.

LICEU. Mañana sábado volverá a ponerse en escena la ópera del maestro Morera, Emporium, que cuando se estrenó hace dos años obtuvo el privilegio de llenar algunas noches el Gran Teatro[93]. […]"

El Noticiero Universal 3[0]09 (17/01/1908), ed. matí, p. 2.

[93] El teatre del Liceu, que semblava tenir en aquest moment una crisi de públic, va intentar aprofitar l'èxit que es preveia de La reina vella reprenent una òpera prèvia del mateix autor de la música, Morera.

"La reina vella

[…] constituye uno de los más grandes y legítimos triunfos del autor de Mar i cel e insistimos en esta afirmación, aunque parezca algo atrevida por tratarse de un género teatral al que algunos conceden escasa importancia. Como para nosotros las dimensiones en el arte no son las que dan valor a la obra, apreciamos el mérito verdadero allí donde se halla, sea en una u otra proporción.

*La rein*a vella es una balada que, sin perder el carácter de esta clase de composiciones, desarrollada escénicamente adquiere las proporciones de una obra dramática intensa. Desde las primeras escenas, en que se expone el asunto de una manera sobria, crece gradualmente en interés la acción, que, recta y hábilmente conducida, llega en el último cuadro a producir grande y verdadera emoción estética.

Un alto pensamiento informa la obra, en cuyo transcurso el poeta hace alarde de su inspiración soberana, traducida en forma simplicísima y bella. Dentro de la unidad perfecta de la acción hay una rica variedad de matices, que reflejan distintos aspectos de la vida. Sin conflicto, sin pasiones, sin lances heroicos, La reina vella interesa y conmueve. A pesar del símbolo que contiene la balada, esta se trasluce con claridad admirable y la idea que la inspiró no está envuelta en nebulosidades de procedimientos ni de estilo. Es obra sinceramente sentida y escrita con las galas del genio.

Al maestro Morera se deben las bellas páginas musicales de la nueva producción. Se mantiene el compositor en el terreno que le ha señalado el poeta y es melodioso y dulce, juguetón y alegre, y grandioso y brillante, según exige cada situación. Los temas populares están oportunamente aplicados y harmonizados a maravilla. La instrumentación, como de Morera, rica en sonoridades y matices.

En la interpretación de La reina vella, Maria Morera se mostró la gran actriz que comprende el personaje y lo presenta, en todos sus detalles, con verdad asombrosa y expresión sincera. La señorita Baró, en su corto papel, dio nuevas pruebas de su talento, dando relieve a las escenas en que interviene. Muy bien el señor Santpere, que caracterizó perfectamente el personaje y declamó con arte. El coro y la comparsería, como un solo personaje, a manera del coro helénico, tienen parte importantísima en la acción y contribuyen al buen efecto, pues, cuidadosamente ensayados y dirigidos por el señor Giménez, se agruparon y movieron cual convenía a las situaciones. El señor Giménez, como uno de tantos, formó parte de la multitud, revelando el interés que había puesto en la obra.

De las dos decoraciones que pintó el señor Comelerán para La reina vella, la del segundo cuadro nos satisfizo más que la del tercero, en la cual observamos alguna dureza en los primeros términos y falsedad en el colorido del mundo. De la ovación que se tribuye a los autores, hemos dicho lo suficiente esta mañana para que nuestros lectores se hicieran cargo de las proporciones que alcanzó. En resumen, el estreno de anoche en el Principal fue un triunfo en toda la línea.

Renato."

“PRINCIPAL. La reina vella. Un acte d’en Guimerà amb música d’en Morera.

En Guimerà ha agafat un tema fins a cert punt senzill, l’ha pastat, l’ha modelat i l’ha fet viure. I el poema ha sorgit d’una estrellada, per enlluernament dels ulls i goig de l’esperit... Ha sorgit potent, amb la potència d’una inspiració sobirana i arrossegadora. I la mateixa embranzida que ha pres cap amunt el verb d’en Guimerà li ha donat força per a rebatre’s després fins a les mateixes entranyes de la vida i posar-ne al descobert les batzegades més pregones.

I tot això amb la base d’un argument de balada... Una vegada era una filla de reis tota rossa, tota rosada, que va ser duta a un llogaret humil tot pobret i tot alegre. Havien bufat vents de revolta i el rei havia portat la filla a una llar de pobra gent... I entre la pobra gent va fer-s’hi com una mena de família la filla de reis... I en aquella família va fer-s’hi un germà en un vailet que es deia Serní. Però un dia, havent-se fos els vents de revolta, la filla de reis va ser treta d’entre la pobre gent... I un altre dia va ser reina... I el temps corria... I corre que correràs.

I veus-aquí que ara ja és tota velleta i tota blanca i tota arrupideta la sobirana... I tot d’un plegat, un dia, sent fretura de veure el llogaret humil on va passar temps ditxosos... I la cort se posa en moviment i camina que caminaràs cap al llogaret humil... Ja hi és a prop, ja arriba al portal i se troba al poble en festa... On és la seva casa, que no la coneix? On és el seu Serní, que no el sap veure enlloc? El temps ha corregut, corre que correràs...

I en Serní? On és en Serní?... La gent del poble no en sap donar raó... Però, calleu!, potser aquell Serní és el Serní vellet, ceguet i solitari que sol contar rondalles als infants... Sí que deu ser-ho... I justament ara s’acosta cantant el pobre ceguet... La reina, de primer entovi, no el sap reconèixer... Com pot ser que aquell pobre miseriós de cabells blancs i ulls tenebrosos sigui aquell Serní amb qui s’havia compartit tantes alegries?... El temps ha corregut, corre que correràs... I ara tot just se n’adona la reina vella!...

En Serní és l’únic que en resta d’aquella família de la reina... Però amb en Serní resta la casa... «Anem a veure la casa»... I la casa és escrostonada... «Sembla un cap de mort buit de dintre»... Ha corregut tant el temps!... Tant, tant, que un arbre que varen plantar la reina i en Serni, ja s’ha fet tot alt i tot tofut... Però la casa... que trista la casa! Com l’ha sentit, el pas del temps!

—Jo t’hi faré fer un palau, bon Serní, en el lloc de la casa...

—No, no ho facis: al costat, si vols, però al lloc de la casa no, que jo la veig i l’estimo com abans...

De la casa mira al camp que s’hi estén a la vora. la valia reina... El camp sí que és el mateix, sí que ho és... Però el camp ja no és d’en Serní... Bé n’ha portat prou de tristeses el temps, corre que correràs!... I la reina s’adona aleshores de que no ha estat prou bona... Tantes tristeses que podia consolar i no hi pensava, tant amor que podia trobar en el poble i no ho sabia... Però ara vol entrar al cor del poble, vol sentir la vida al seu entorn... Justament som a la festa de les arades, que senyala el començament de la sembra. Que vingui l'amo del camp i que comenci a llaurar-lo, que ella anirà al darrere escampant el gra, com quan era petita!...

I passa l'euga arrossegant l'arada, i passa el bon pagès darrere l'euga, i passa i repassa la regina, llençant a la voleia grapades de gra. Però el temps ha corregut. La reina defalleix... Se li acaba la vida al mateix instant en què potser començava a adonar-se de lo que era la vida...

...Jo no sé si he donat una impressió justa del poema... Ben segur que no hauré pas sabut transparentar-ne tota la força, tota la profunditat... Lo que sí puc dir és que La reina vella és una de les produccions més intenses que ha produït al seu autor. Hi batega un buf de cosa sempre viventa allà dins. I un ne surt amb la impressió de que, en una hora, ha viscut una pila d'anys. El temps ha corregut, corre que correràs...

I ha corregut entre harmonies enlairadores, entre un esclat de música en la que s'hi sent brunzir l'ànima popular... En Morera ha sentit el poema i l'ha ajudat a fer sentir al públic, aixecant-se en ales d'una inspiració potent i delicada alhora... Música de balada i música de tragèdia és la d'en Morera en aquesta producció. I d'aquí a aquí té la placidesa del cant del poble, i d'aquí a aquí esclata en alegria, per a produir al final l'esgarrifança de la mort que passa.

Les dues decoracions noves que ha pintat en Comeleran són ben estudiades en els detalls i ben característics els conjunts... Potser en l'última convindria abaixar el mentón, puig en la part alta el brancam tofut que s'hi estén no és prou resolt.

I ara un aplaudiment per en Giménez que, tenint consciència de la importància de l'obra, l'ha dirigida amb el major acert, posant-hi tant talent com voluntat. I amb tot i no tenir paper per ell, l'hauríeu vist entre la multitud, com un comparsa més, a fi de poder moure i fer viure cors i comparseria.

Individualment, pocs eren els artistes que tinguessin paper lluït; total, la Morera i en Santpere. Tots els altres els tenien secundaris. I no obstant, algun d'ells va sortir-se'n d'aquesta categoria: la Baró, per exemple, que fent tan sols quatre paraules i una rialla vergonyosa, va mostrar-se la gran actriu de costum.

Amb tot, la festa —ja ho he dit— se feia per la Morera i en Santpere. I la Morera va fer de la reina una creació forta, sobretot al tercer quadro. I en Santpere va donar al Serní tota la tristesa que era del cas... Tots els demés —no cal citar noms— varen estar justos.

"Ya era razón de que el Altísimo, o quien de este menester se cuide, dejase caer sobre el Principal su divina gracia, porque lo cierto es que desde que empezó la temporada de invierno han andado allí con trajecillos de verano tan pronto raídos como estrenados.

Esta vez han dado con un traje que únicamente peca por demasiado corto: un acto. El sastre ha sido un gran poeta, Guimerà, y por poeta más que por dramaturgo ha vencido. La reina vella es eso principalmente: un poema con figuras vivas, pero ¡cuán tierno este poema del viejo poeta evocador de una vieja reina! Yo, que suelo a veces tener ideas raras, quiero ver entre las mallas de este primoroso cañamazo en que Guimerà ha bordado la leyenda de La reina vella otro idilio que llamaré El poeta viejo. Viene a ser ello como una segunda obra en que conservo el tema y varío los personajes, y si a Guimerà no le parece mi obra enteramente desatinada, yo me consideraré pagado con que diga él con su bondadosa sonrisa: "Este chico da a veces en el clavo." [Passa a explicar una sàtira paròdica d'invenció pròpia comparant l'edat de la reina vella amb la del ja ancià Guimerà].

Los cómicos tomaron con cariño La reina vella. Maria Morera hizo la protagonista como los propios ángeles, porque estaba en lo suyo, que es en donde quisiera verla siempre, de modo que podemos señalarla al máximum: diez puntos. A Santpere, ocho, dos menos, lo cual puede hacerse impunemente porque, como sale ciego, no ha de verlo. Cinco puntos a la Baró por una aldeanita y tres a la Morató, la Adell, Puiggarí y Viñals. Y calificación de aprobado a un modesto tenor corista que cantó muy bien la canción del arado y de quien solo sé que se llama Mariano. No importa; conste que Mariano canta bien, bastante mejor que yo, y eso que cuando me pongo a ello hay que oírme.

De los demás dejaremos para septiembre al coro de señoras. El del año pasado no era precisamente una maravilla, pero comparado con el de este, me parece un prodigio. El coro de hombres lleva la calificación de aprobado, como su compañero Mariano, y por esta vez no hay modo de apuntar tanto alguno al escenógrafo señor Commeleran. Sus decoraciones no me gustaron ni gens ni mica, cosa que lamento extraordinariamente. Otra vez será, amigo Commeleran.

No hay más que decir de esta primorosa leyenda de La reina vella, que pongo yo al lado de lo mejor que ha dado de sí el duradero genio de Guimerà.

"Com que qui mal no fa, mal no pensa, me'n vaig anar avui fa vuit dies al Principal amb l'intent de disfrutar tant com podés. Perquè jo soc així: sempre vaig al teatre amb ganes de que l'obra m'agradi. I si m'agrada, ja em tenen content i no m'amargo per res del món. Així és que vaig veure La reina vella amb tanta devoció com ho podia fer un monàrquic convençut. Anem a dir que la tal reina és molt liberal. Tant, que en alguns moments arriba fins a declarar-se partidària de la Repartidora. Lo qual vol dir que és una reina d'aquelles que no en crien pas totes les dides. Perquè per a trobar-ne una de semblant, se necessita encarregar-la expressa a uns pares com en Guimerà i en Morera, que saben els secrets d'aumentar en potència creadora a mida que van passant anys... D'en Morera no m'estranya, perquè tot just és a la primera joventut, però d'en Guimerà, que ja és a la segona, un se n'ha de fer creus encara que no vulgui.

I hi va haver força subjectes que la nit de l'estrena se'n feien. Per això tot era dir, amb aquell aire de suficiència que dona a molts la ignorància:

—És el mateix tema de la poesia!

I algú fins va afegir: —Sí, realment és el mateix tema, sinó que, portat a les taules, perd molt!

Però a l'endemà, un dels mateixos que trobava que havia perdut, me va confessar en confiança que no hi havia tal poesia. I veu-se'm aquí tot intrigat, no sabent com redimonxis el tal subjecte podia conèixer que l'obra, al ser duta a les taules, havia perdut, si mai havia existit en una altra forma... Res: misteris de la vida!

El cas és que La reina vella, amb tot i tenir un acte sol, és tota una obrassa. I qui no ho vulgui creure, que ho vagi a veure, en la seguretat de que no se n'ha de penedir. Si vostès són amants de les obres veritablement artístiques, no deixin d'anar a veure La reina vella, perquè és un doll de poesia, en el que hi batega quelcom d'eternament humà. Tant en Guimerà com en Morera han estat a extraordinària altura, fonent el poema literari i el poema musical d'una manera admirable. Figurin-se si ha d'estar bé que al primer quadro, en una de les escenes de més compromís, un ase que acaba de fer el protagonista del de l'Hortolà[94], va llençar entre caixes un bram estrepitós, que va arribar fins més amunt del do de pit. I la representació va seguir com si tal cosa, demostrant-se una vegada més que dels brams d'ase ningú en fa cas.

I al final va haver-hi un esclat d'entusiasme que va fer aixecar el teló un gavadal de vegades, sortint els autors a escena per a calmar al públic. Però, com que el públic no es calmava, l'empresa va adoptar un procediment molt curiós: cada vegada que s'aixecava el teló, feia sortir un autor més. I així varen passar-hi el de la lletra, o sigui, en Guimerà; el de la música, o sigui, en Morera; el de les decoracions, o sigui, en Comeleran.. I després en Lambert i després no sé qui més... Crec que varen sortir tots els que es trobaven a l'escenari vestits de paisà. Si hi arriba a haver cable i cablan tots, hauríem arribat a fer una altra comèdia. Jo fos d'en Niubó, me faria patentar el procediment per vint anys. Calma-exitazos eficacísimo. No produce dolor. Privilegio exclusivo per 20 años. Hi ha diners a fer. Però temo que en Niubó no m'escoltarà. Prou que anirà grassa l'empresa amb La reina vella. [...]

"Aquest Don Àngel Guimerà de posat, ferreny, que veureu en caricatura dintre d'aquet mateix nombre, és un poeta gran, genial, un vell poeta emocionant que ara, de cop i volta, després de temps i temps de dolorosa divagació, ens ha sobtat amb una frescor d'inspiració i de poesia tan intenses que la seva darrera obra, La reina vella, pot posar-se al costat de lo mes hermós que ha produït aquesta literatura catalana dels nostres amors.

La reina vella és plena i forta i esclatant. Una ventada de santa inspiració, de bella transcendència, anima les figures i les hi dicta paraules i accions... I tots tres quadros, moguts i riallers, pausats i dolorosos, en ditxosa unitat, no sé què tenen que un, veient-los representar, somriuria entre llàgrimes...

Ai, aquest tràgic passar del temps, aquest tràgic volar del temps per sobre els homes i les coses, com esgarrifa fins a les entranyes! Ai, aquesta enyorança infinita, aquest reviure records, aquest intens vibrar sentimental que deu ser el dolor més punyent i, alhora, el consol més dolç de la humana vellesa, i com hi són evocats, suggerits, palpitants, en l'obra del poeta nostre; d'aquest vell Guimerà ferreny i tendre, auster i lluminós, però vell... ja vell...

Pobre poeta vell que plores i somrius i t'enlaires i ens fas plorar i somriure i enlairar amb aquelles alegries i amb aquelles tristeses i aquella forta grandesa de la teva Reina vella!... Oh, poeta, poeta! Jo voldria dir-te aquí com has entrat fins a l'ànima del poble; com has trobat la paraula evocadora de tots els grans misteris de la vida i de la mort!... Oh, poeta, poeta! La teva obra, entre nosaltres, ha estat fecunda d'emoció i ensenyança i estimem i agraïm en lo que val la teva obra generosa!...

Els personatges de La reina vella foren, en general, força ben interpretats pels artistes del teatre Principal. La Morera molt bé i l'Emília Baró molt justa i oportuna. En Santpere, en Serní, sobri, aplomat, sempre en escena. I en Vinyals i en Ginestet, la Morató i l'Adell i aixís els altres i les altres, procurant i conseguint no descompondre els conjunts, que va moure en Giménez amb molt bona voluntat i coneixement de causa.

I d'en Morera? Què en direm d'en Morera? Volva, volva: volva inquieta i reposada; petita, i com a petita carregada de foteses delicioses.; volva paradoxal i discreta; volva nostra, sempre sapient, sempre oportuna; digues tu lo que en sàpigues d'aquelles harmonies de mestre Morera!... Perquè Espill, el prudent de natural, confessa que no hi entén res en solfes... [...]

"La reina vella és, potser, dintre de lo que en el gènere s'ha fet al Principal, l'obra que més consistència i més grandiositat enclou. El Sr. Guimerà ha estat veritablement sortós en l'assumpto, que ha sabut vestir i presentar amb un ambient de bellesa admirable i un llenguatge sobri i hermós. Tota la lletra es fa escoltar amb gust i l'espectador s'interessa vivament per aquella acció senzilla, però intensament corprenedora, que transcorre davant del públic entre un seguit d'escenes a on l'alta poesia i el sentiment artístic s'uneixen constantment per a teixir-ne al fi la primorosa obra.

—¿Has vist l' estreno de La Reyna Vella, quin triomf per don Angel?
—Sí, pero lqué vols que 't digui!, jo hauría preferit estrenarne una de jova, encare que hagués sigut ab menos éxit.

El segon quadro és, sobretot, una cosa exquisida que es paladeja espiritualment parlant, amb extraordinària satisfacció, deixant-li a l'auditori allò que es diu: ganes de tornem-hi.

La música del mestre Morera va guanyar-se igualment els aplausos de tots; d'intel·ligents i de profans. Conté alguns números inspirats de debò i en tots hi domina la melodia popular de la nostra terra.

La presentació escènica, regular. La direcció, bé. Els actors, voluntariosos. I en Santpere, el més voluntariós."

"La reina vella*. En un acte i tres quadros, original d'Àngel Guimerà, amb música del Mtre. Enric Morera.

Agradosament enllaminits per La santa espina, vam assistir a l'estrena de l'última producció del gran mestre, amb l'esperança falaguera de contemplar qualque cosa bona de la que tan necessitat estava el públic del vell teatre. I es realitzà nostra esperança.

Ja tenim una obra, un èxit dels que fan època, un èxit lograt amb tota la senzillesa i modèstia que demanar-se puga, però això sí, franc, espontani... Saludem una vegada més als Srs. Guimerà i Morera. Veus-aquí La reina vella:

QUADRO PRIMER

A l'aixecar-se el teló, ens trobem en sa cambra reial. És de nit, l'augusta majestat dorm i la vetllen dugues dames d'honor, dona Beatriu i dona Margarida. La reina somia, somia amb la llunyana època de sa joventut... prou que al despertar explica a les dames: [...] I veus-aquí que la reina se sent venir la mort i per això afegeix: [...]

Aquest remordiment la domina i no pensa en altra cosa que en el seu Serní, son companyó d'infantesa. I ve el nou jorn; la reina es lleva i entren a saludar-la les dames i cavallers de la cort. Un cavaller, el duc de les Albeses, parla a la reina, vegi's amb quin respecte: [...] Mes, sa majestat no està per ambaixades i, en lloc de rebre als que venen, és ella qui vol anar-se'n i diu: [...] i la comitiva regia es posa en marxa.

QUADRO SEGON

Ja som al burc humil de Sant Alexis, és un vilatge pobríssim i rònec. S'està celebrant la festa de les arades; els joves ballen i els vells frueixen els goigs dels joves. Aquesta és la cançó: [...] El quadro és ple de vida, l'efecte teatral és verdaderament extraordinari. Mes, ai, que els soldats de la reina venen a torbar la pau d'aquella bona gent, d'aquells bons vilatans que no n'havien vist mai de gent armada. [...]

Mes no hi són a temps a fer moixigangues, perquè els cornets de la reina anuncien que està propera la reial persona de sa majestat. I l'escena s'omple de magnats i dames d'honor i cavallers... i ve la reina i, al baixar de sa cadira reial de camí, diu admirada: [...] Tot ha desaparescut en seixanta anys. La gent no és la mateixa, la reina cerca una fisonomia coneguda i no la troba.

És en va, ningú és d'aquella època, cap recorda la casa i els estranya la manera de preguntar, mes la reina els interroga novament i de tantes coses els parla que fa que un vell del poble digui: [...] En Serní, el seu Serní... El goig de la reina és immens. [...] i en aquell sant moment se sent un cant llunyà, és en Serní que ve... Tothom escolta la cançó del vell venerable. [...]

És verament commovedora l'escena que motiva el trobar-se de nou en Serní davant sa ex-companya, a qui no pot reconèixer per mancar-li la vista. [...] i recordant fets de sa infantesa, logra tornar la memòria al vell Serní, que acompanya a la reina i sa cort a visitar l'antic casal [...].

QUADRO TERCER

Som davant la casa a on va passar sa joventut la reina vella. Abans d'arribar el poble i la comitiva, s'ou aquesta hermosa pregària: [...] Bonic de debò és l'aspecte d'aquest quadro. El poble orgullós de lo que veu, canta i balla d'alegria, al vell Serní li sembla un somni lo que està passant i la reina vella, immensament satisfeta, vol prodigar-se en manifestacions de simpatia envers sos vassalls i els diu: [...] Cap plaer s'escatima a sa majestat, i sol·licitat per ella, en aquell mateix camp comença la sembra. [...] diu una dona del poble, mes la reina li pren el cabàs [...] L'expectació és general... Que a l'escampar el gra ses mans escamparan la felicitat al poble. Frueixi's la cançó del sembrador [...]

La reina no pot més... un fort cansanci l'aclapara... sa vida s'acaba... Ha perdut les forces i se sent morir, mes abans demana perdó al poble, sol·licita l'apoio material del vell Serní... i mor en sos braços. No és possible descriure el dol que experimenten aquells francs vilatans, que contrasten amb el despotisme estúpid dels grans magnats, quins manen als soldats que ho avassallin tot i s'emportin el cadàver a palau. [...] però la gent d'armes, atropellant-ho tot, s'obre pas, tirant per terra el venerable cos del vell Serní, qui al veure endur-se'n a sa amiga companyera crida amb profunda veu: [...] Veus-aquí, mal contat, lo que és La reina vella.

L'eminent Mestre Enric Morera l'ha il·lustrat amb brillants notes musicals; tots els números són notables, això ho justifiquen els frenètics aplaudiments que li adreça l'auditori. La mise en scène, molt bé, per lo que deven alabar una vegada més a l'insigne director Enric Giménez, qui no prenent part en l'execució i a fi de poder dirigir a son temps a les masses, ocupa un lloc entre els comparses per assegurar l'èxit que es prevenia.

En la interpretació deu mencionar-se en primer terme a l'eminent Maria Morera i al colossal actor Josep Santpere. La Baró, com sempre, va treballar d'eminència en son modest paper de noia del poble, i també dintre sa modèstia estigueren molt bé les Sres. Morató, Guerra, Adell, Huguet, Masdeu i els Srs. Puiggarí, Ballart, Ginestet, Vinyals, Garcia, Capdevila, Morató i Mairal.

El Mestre Lambert, excel·lent en sa direcció d'orquestra, com així també el Mtre. de cors, Sr. Sabater. Les decoracions de l'escenògraf Sr. Comaleran són d'efecte, si es deixa de part algun lapsus que hauria sigut fàcil subsanar. En resum: un èxit dels que se'n registren pocs en la història del teatre. En altre lloc d'aquest número donem una extensa informació gràfica de La reina vella [fotografies d'escena i dels actors]."

"El maestro Morera, su Emporium y su Reina vella.

Enrique Morera tiene entre nuestros músicos una significación. Él fue quien se erigió un día en redentor por el arte y el sentimiento patriótico de nuestros obreros, fundando su Catalunya Nova; él, autor del poema sinfónico Catalònia, fue por algún tiempo el verbo artístico del patriotismo catalán, de un patriotismo ingenuo, basado en ideales, ensueños y nobles utopías, alimentado con protestas masculinísimas e infantiles arrogancias. Morera, siguiendo siempre la línea recta de sus destinos, fundó lo que dio en llamarse Teatre Líric Catalá, como contraposición a la obra antisocial de un género dramático cuyos trazos primordiales conservó la nueva institución.

Entretanto, él había estado largo tiempo en el extranjero, en aquel emporio de la música que se llama Bruselas, estudiando de firme bajo la dirección de celebrados maestros en el arte de componer.

De su obscura labor como maestro de aquella sociedad coral obrera, de la leyenda que forjaron de consuno su temperamento iconoclasta y aquella parte de prensa madrileña que dio en presentarle a los ojos de sus lectores como una hidra feroz, como el autor (sic) del canto de guerra (?) Los segadors. de todo esto nació la fama de su talento, más que consagrado por el conocimiento que de su obra tuviéramos nosotros, revelado por una misteriosa intuición que hizo nacer en Cataluña una fe hacia las dotes vislumbradas y el talento presentido de quien tal contribución había prestado para la gran empresa de mostrarle a nuestro pueblo en el fondo del alma propia el pozo insondable e inexplorado del sentimiento y del arte.

Si en esto hallamos principalmente la causade esa aureola popular que ciñe la frente de nuestro compositor, la razón de ser de un tal prestigio podríamos verla en las temporadas de estudio serio pasadas en el extranjero y completadas con el trabajo tranquilo, reposado durante las estancias bucólica, indefinidas, en su casita blanca de Sitges, por mal nombre Subur.

He aquí las dos características de la música de Morera, derivadas lógicamente de cuanto dejamos expuesto: el amor a las formas del estilo popular y el dominio del métier. Por su amor intenso y paternal hacia nuestras canciones populares, por sus conocimientos técnicos que le ponen a la cabeza de nuestros compositores, Morera ha merecido el lugar de honor que a priori le habíamos adjudicado.

Armado de tales armas, mientras abandonaba su raquítico Teatre Líric Català de antaño, en visión de lo que tenía que ser en el porvenir nuestro teatro lírico, verdaderamente lírico y verdaderamente nacional, mientras llenaba los carteles de los teatros de Barcelona y de Madrid con su nombre puesto al lado del autor que le encargara una música como se encarga un vestido, el compositor laboraba sigilosamente en su obra llena de sinceridad y de entusiasmo verdadero. Así salió Emporium, el hermoso poema lírico-dramático para el cual le proporcionara un libro bello de verdad nuestro poeta Marquina, libro que, a nuestro entender, llena las condiciones requeridas por una obra literaria; capaz de ser transformada en la esfera de la realidad en un drama lírico, a pesar de su poca aptitud escénica.

Emporium debía ser estrenado en Madrid en una temporada tentativa de teatro lírico nacional. Sobre el fracasado proyecto se ha extendido una leyenda que no tenemos interés alguno en divulgar. Por fin la obra de Morera logró verse puesta en escena en nuestro Gran Teatro del Liceo, hace dos años, debidamente traducida al italiano. Pasose con artistas de bastante mérito, bajo la dirección del inteligente concertador Sr. Mascheroni.

Respecto al éxito que entonces obtuvo la obra, no hay que insistir en él porque es cosa reciente. Una prueba de la fe que impulsaba a nuestro público a aplaudir calurosamente a Morera en todas sus obras es que, al cabo de poco tiempo de estrenado Emporium, púsose en el propio teatro una nueva obra del autor, Bruniselda, muy inferior a la antes mencionada; pero ella fue recibida por nuestro público con igual entusiasmo que la primera. Con todo, mientras creemos que Bruniselda, —que tiene bellas páginas, pero compuesto sobre un libro muy malo y conforme a los viejos moldes de la ópera— irá bajando con paso lento pero certero al foro del olvido, en Emporium veremos siempre la confirmación de aquella fe que llevó a nuestro Enrique Morera a volar en alas del entusiasmo de sus compatriotas.

Hoy Emporium ha sido reproducido en el Liceo, pero sin los artistas inteligentes que estrenaron la obra, aunque con la misma pésima presentación escénica. Del fracaso cabe la culpa a cuantos en dicha representación han intervenido si exceptuamos a los autores de la obra, para los cuales no cabe disminuir en un ápice la consideración en que todos les tenemos.

Algo se va a desquitar Morera del mal efecto producido por las dos representaciones dadas de Emporium, ante quienes no saben distinguir, con el estreno de su obra La reina vella, de éxito tan grande como merecido.

Parece que Morera al escribir la partitura para este bello poema de nuestro gran romántico, de nuestro ilustre trágico, sienta el despertar de una pesadilla, durante la cual ha tenido que escribir a destajo para salvación de populares empresas y refocilamiento de públicos domingueros, y ante la poesía de Guimerà sienta de nuevo estremecer las cuerdas de su cansada lira y avivarse el fuego sagrado de su espíritu.

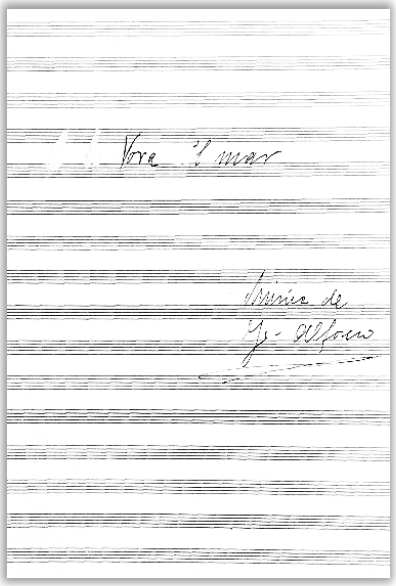
La Cataluña (25/01/1908), p. 57.

“Després de les representacions de Tannhäuser, el Gran Teatre del Liceu ha anat fent, sense gran interès per l’Art. Ha volgut reprendre l’Emporium del mestre Morera, tan aplaudit fa dos anys, i l’obra greument injuriada per un tenor i un director ineptes, els noms dels quals hem oblidat caritativament, no ha pogut anar més enllà d’un parell de representacions. Injusta sort!



Deessa Fortuna s’ha mostrat més propícia amb en Morera al teatre Principal. La reina vella, quadro dramàtic d’en Guimerà, ha sigut un èxit. En els nombres musicals que l’il·lustren s’hi veu de seguida que han sigut escrits amb molta cura. Potser no sempre l’idea musical se fon íntimament amb el drama, però en general aspira a l’elevació que demana l’argument; l’escriptura és consistent i l’orquestració treballada. [...]

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

[Els personatges mencionats a la partitura són el de la madrona (interpretat per Maria Morató), Robert i la major part del pes musical el porta el cor].

[La música conté un primer número amb breu obertura instrumental i cor de pescadors que tanca la madrona demanant protecció a la Verge santa, un segon número breu amb el cor de pescadors celebrant la pesca, un tercer número amb la cançó de la madrona (sembla ser filla del pescador) que canta les seves penes amoroses perquè el seu estimat no la vol per mora[97], un quart número amb la cançó de les campanes d'en Robert explicant que el so de les campanes és típic del seu poble i li porta al cap records de jovenesa (acaba amb la madrona dient-li: "serè par tu una madrastra que serà dugues voltes mare"), i uns breus compassos com a final instrumental].

[95] Sembla que el títol inicial era "A la vora del mar", tal com apareix a la part d'apuntar manuscrita i a les particel·les vocals, i després es va canviar a "Vora'l mar", títol de les particel·les instrumentals. La partitura orquestral té el nom corregit amb les lletres "A la [...] de [...]" esborrades.
[96] Fent servir els pseudònims de Lluís Arenys, Pere Busquets, J. Marqués i N. N.
[97] Podria estar inspirat en La filla del mar de Guimerà, estrenada el 1900 al teatre Romea.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"El cuadro musical Vora el mar, estrenado anoche en el teatro Principal, obtuvo muy buen éxito. Son escenas de la vida de la gente pescadora de nuestra costa de Levante trasladadas al teatro en toda su sencilla ingenuidad.

La música con que la ha adornado el joven maestro D. Federico Alfonso fue muy aplaudida. Acomodándose a la índole del libro, no tiene pretensiones de factura, pero está presentada con esmero. La canción de la tiple y la de la campana, coreada, gustaron mucho y fueron repetidas. El maestro Alfonso fue llamado a escena al terminar la obrita, oyendo muchos aplausos."

Diario de Barcelona 31 (31/01/1908), p. 1314.

"No ho deia jo? L'altra setmana no sabia què dir perquè no passava res, i avui no sé per on començar de tantes coses com passen. [...] Benefici de la Morera al Principal, amb represa d'El sometent de Girona de l'Agulló [...] Estrena al Principal de Papà Ministre, tres actes d'en Rovetta, traducció d'en Narcís Oller... Id. id. d'una sarsuela marinesca titulada A la vora del mar, música del Mtre. Alfonso i lletra, al parecer, d'en Baró (hi fa gran paper una olla) [...]

A la vora del mar (Principal). Música Alfonso excel·lent. Cançó campana magnífica. Cançó noia també. Lletra ja he dit semblava Baró. I m'hi jugo un peix que ho és. Olla amb vianda a coure, Baró segur. [...]

"Vora el mar és un quadro de platja d'escasses condicions. Ni literària ni artísticament és recomanable, i l'única cosa que el salva és la música del mestre Alfonso, que, ademés de ser bastant original, conté fragments molt inspirats avalorats per una harmonització perfecta.

El públic, entenent-lo així, va demanar insistentment el bis de varis números, essent cridat el jove compositor a les taules en companyia dels actors, que treballaren amb ganes de quedar bé.

Papá Ministre, sense ser una de les millors creacions d'en Rovetta, és un bon drama no mancat d'emoció ni de fonda psicologia. [...]."

"Vora el mar.— Marina en un acte, lletra que se suposa dels Srs. Lluís d'Arenys, Pere Busquets, J. Marqués, N. N. i Teodor Baró; música del mestre Alfonso.

És una delícia l'ingeni que tenen en escollir els títols alguns autors que escriuen per aquesta casa. Se va estrenar El fill del Rei, havent-hi el d'en Guimerà; No es pot dir blat, havent-hi el d'en Campmany; El Si natural, havent-hi el d'en Jackson Veyán; Por, havent-hi la d'Urgell; Pas de comèdia, havent-hi el d'en Sendra; i ara Vora el mar, havent-hi la d'en Pitarra. Oh, i encara seguirà, perquè hem vist anunciat Fugir del foc i..., havent-hi la comèdia d'en Manubens Vidal. Hora és ja que l'empresa posi reparo a estrenar amb títols repetits, a fi de no ajudar a la confusió que això porta en el catàleg d'obres teatrals. I consti que el treure una preposició o article d'un títol no és prou per creure que ja no s'assemblen, ni ho permet la llei de propietat intel·lectual.

I anem a la comèdia. Ja ho hem dit, se suposa que és d'en Baró, per varis motius, perquè hi surten comestibles, perquè s'hi diuen xistos que ja porten cabells blancs, perquè es parla de sal i la sal no s'hi veu en el diàleg, perquè l'argument és primitiu i infantívol, per teatre de nois, i per moltes altres coses que sería prolijo enumerar... Ah, (me en descuidava) i perquè l'autor no presenta la cara.

La música del Mtre. Alfonso, sí, és bona, val i es fa escoltar amb agrado... Sort d'això! En el desempenyo tots hi estigueren bé, tots, no cal anomenar-los."

"Para las funciones de hoy está anunciado el cuadro lírico del maestro Alfonso, titulado Vora el mar. Recordarán nuestros lectores que, a raíz de su estreno, dijimos de él que la letra no se hubiera salvado sin la música. En los carteles no aparecía más nombre que el del Sr. Alfonso. De modo que, tácitamente, creyeron muchos a este señor autor del esperpento de la letra. Pero ahora el nombre del autor verdadero se lee ya en los carteles: es el del Sr. Teodor Baró.

Lo que se hace público para general regocijo de las galerías. Y para restablecer en su buen nombre al maestro Alfonso, a quien tal desmán se le hizo, alevosa y premeditadamente."

"Continúa representándose, con creciente éxito, la comedia lírica Vora el mar. La partitura, debida al joven maestro Alfonso, ha logrado que el público, desentendiéndose de la banalidad —no muy artística, del libreto— original del conocido dramaturgo de la calle del Hospital y calles adyacentes, D. Teodoro Baró, a quien seguramente propondrá para la academia de la lengua… en adobo Gedeón, se recree sin decaimiento, oyendo las bellezas de la música, muy inspirada y reveladora de la ciencia técnica del joven maestro Alfonso, a quien esperan triunfos sonados."

"Hoy tendrá lugar en el teatro Principal el beneficio del actor cómico señor Santpere. Para el jueves se anuncia en dicho teatro el estreno de la obra de S. Vilaregut El miracle de Santa Agnès, a la cual ha puesto ilustraciones musicales el maestro Montserrat. Se estrenará decorado del escenógrafo señor Comelerán [sic]."

"Hem rebut una fulla impresa explicant diferents detalls de l'obra El miracle de Santa Agnès, que deu estrenar-se demà al teatre Principal. L'obra és adaptada per en Vilaregut a l'escena catalana, servint-se a l'efecte de fragments poètics de Boccaccio i d'Armand Silvestre i de la disposició escènica d'Halmy de Morand, però posant-hi bona part de collita pròpia.

El mestre Montserrat ha il·lustrat musicalment la llegenda, que és la mateixa que, treta d'un text llatí del Petrarca, va posar Bernat Metge en català amb el títol Historia de Walter

i de la pacient Griselda. Ens abstenim d'extractar més detalls de la fulla que hem rebut, perquè no sembli que volem donar un judici prematur sobre el tema i sobre l'obra, esperant per a això l'hora de l'estrena."

"Principal.— Según rezan los carteles, Mañana por la noche se estrenará en este teatro El miracle de Santa Agnés. La índole especial de la obra ha movido a su autor, D. Salvador Vilaregut, a presentarla en un artículo que se repartirá mañana al público del Principal y que dice así:

> L'obra que oferim al clar judici del públic no és una obra original, ni una traducció, ni tampoc una adaptació d'una obra determinada. Fou suggerida a l'autor per l'assistència a la representació que d'una comèdia lírica de l'Armand Silvestre i l'Eugeni Morand, amb música d'en Juli Massenet, se donà a l'Òpera Còmica de París a primers de l'any 1902. La impressió soferta fou tal que, tot seguit, vàrem buscar referencies de la llegenda en que els autors del llibre havien furgat per a donar camp d'inspiració al music. I tot seguit, en el mateix París, vàrem trobar-les. Però exposem, primer, el fet històric que provocà la llegenda.
> Veus-aquí que Griselda, o Griselidis, era filla d'un pagès de Villanoetta, en el Piemont, i, amb motiu de sa gran bellesa, s'emmaridà amb un gran senyor, Gualter, Marqués de Salus, cap a l'any 1003; i tan fidel i amorosa fou pel seu marit, amb tant coratge resistí les temptacions de l'esperit maligne, que Santa Agnès —patrona del castell de Salus, en qual oratori era venerada— intervingué a favor d'ella amb les excelsituds d'un miracle que afollà tota la terra llatina. La figura de Griselda restà, des d'aleshores, com el tipus de la Penélope dels temps mig-evals, com personificació de l'esposa cristiana, humil, serventa i amorosa, mare amantíssima i tendra i estel lluminós de la llar maridal.
> Com era natural, la llegenda s'apoderà tot seguit del seu nom; sa vida fou ben sovint contada i ben sovint enriquida amb novells fets, entrant així, auriolada de poesia i voltada de cants de trovaires i poetes, d'una manera triomfal en el domini de la faula, en el jardí sagrat i flairós de les rondalles.
> Així la trobem en la «Novella decima» de la «Giornata decima» de Il Decameron, de Messier Giovanni Boccaccio, en el segle XIV i en el Petrarca, i en el manuscrit anònim de 1395 anomenat Codex de Lange, existent a la Biblioteca Nacional de París, que porta per títol: Le mystère de Grisélidis, marquise de Saluces, de sa merveilleuse constance, appelée le miroir des clames mariées, par personnages et rimes; i més endavant apareix en la nostra literatura amb el títol d'Història de Valter i de la pacient Griselda, trasladada al català en elegantíssima prosa pel famós escriptor en Bernat Metge, secretari del rei en Joan d'Aragó, el qual va servir-se d'un text llatí del Petrarca, segons ell mateix diu en el llibre quart del seu famós Somni: «La paciència i amor conjugal de Griselda, la història de la qual fo per mi de llatí en nostre vulgar transportada, callaré, car tant es notoria, que ja la reciten les velles quan filen en hivern entorn del foc.»

A mida que el temps passà, va guanyant la llegenda de Griselda noves literatures. Una traducció castellana, feta probablement sobre el text del Decameron, fou intercalada per Joan de Timoneda en son Patrañuelo, en qual «Patraña segunda» se parla de «Dama Grisélida», havent sigut imprès aquest llibre per primera vegada en 1576, a Alcalá de Henares. Molts anys després, en Chaucer i en Perrault publiquen narracions sobre la marquesa de Salus. I ella mateixa inspira, a través dels segles, les obres dramàtiques de Bonfous, Zeno, Piccini, Frederic Halm, Armand Silvestre i Eugeni Morand, conservant en totes elles l'actitud resignada d'una esposa maltractada injustament i abandonada pel seu marit, al qual ella adora. En Richardson va pensar, segurament, en la bona Griselda quan va escriure sa trista i melangiosa Pamela.

Impressionats per la llegenda i per la lectura de les obres literàries inspirades en ella, vàrem creure que l'escena catalana no es desdenyaria d'acollir a dama Griselda, devota de Santa Agnès, quan la novel·la antiga de nostra terra ja l'havia acollida amb amabilitat i favor gran i, per això, amb la impressió de la Grisélidis d'en Massenet, vista a l'Òpera Còmica, que, més que teatre, és palau de fades per a donar vida als somnis dels poetes i dels musics; amb la de la lectura de la Grisélidis, tragèdia alemanya en cinc actes i en vers de Frederic Halm, pseudònim del Comte de Munch-Bellinghausen, representada en 1835, i la de Grisélidis, mystère en tres actes i un pròleg, en vers d'Armand Silvestre i Eugeni Morand, representada a la Comèdia Francesa el 15 de maig de 1891, hem escrit El miracle de Santa Agnés, ben saturats de la llegenda, i seguint molt més d'a prop a l'Armand Silvestre que a n'en Frederic Halm, procurant donar a l'obra tot el caràcter català possible, introduint escenes del tot originals, refent tot el final i creant, quasi de cap i de nou, els personatges del Diable i de sa muller Malapesta, de lo qual n'ha resultat una obra que no es pot dir que sigui original, però que tampoc és una traducció, sinó, en rigor de veritat, una adaptació —com diuen els cartells— d'una llegenda antiga, escrita aprofitant fragmenta poètics d'en Boccaccio i d'en Silvestre i disposició d'escenes de Halm i de Morand, i posant damunt de tot això una bona part de nostra collita pròpia.

Sols ens resta afegir que amb nosaltres ha col·laborat el mestre F. Montserrat Ayarbe, qui ha il·lustrat musicalment El miracle de Santa Agnès, després d'haver-se impregnat de la fonda poesia i musicalitat que l'anima i que ve de la llegenda; que la col·laboració ha estat entusiasta i, a nostre judici, encertadíssima.

Hem de dir que la nostra obra ha estat acollida per la Direcció artistica i pels artistes del Principal de la manera que la faula va acollir la història de Griselda? Nosaltres creiem que sí, perquè tothom ha treballat amb fe per a presentar-vos dignament El miracle.

Ara només direm una cosa, ben natural en les hores que precedeixen l'estrena: «Que Santa Agnès ens valga!»

Salvador Vilaregut."

"Principal.— Anoche estrenose en este teatro la leyenda Lo miracle de Santa Agnès en tres actos, letra de don Salvador Vilaregut, música del señor Montserrat Ayarbe.

Diremos tan solo que la leyenda ha perdido en esta obra la poesía; el lenguaje es a trozos elegante, pero en muy pocos trozos elegantes, porque predomina lo chabacano en las situaciones y en el diálogo. El autor fue llamado al proscenio."

"TEATRE PRINCIPAL.— Estrena d'El miracle de Santa Agnès, llegenda en tres actes, lletra d'en Salvador Vilaregut, música del mestre F. Montserrat Ayarbe.

Corria ahir pel Principal un aire de fredor. El vespre era de pluja. Plovia i plovia, i el teatre no estava tot lo concorregut que calia esperar. Ja abans de començar l'obra, el públic sentia la decepció d'una vetllada brillant fracassada per culpa del mal temps...

Però vet-aquí que aquesta petita decepció sols era el preludi d'una altra decepció més grossa. Tothom esperava ahir una obra de bellesa i de força. El nom d'en Salvador Vilaregut, adaptador de la llegenda a l'escena catalana, feia creure en un franc i merescut èxit teatral. No fou així. L'obra no agradà, i les fredors de la nit s'escamparen per la sala i per les taules... Aquella vegada pot aplicar-se ben justament a la feina del senyor Vilaregut aquell gastat clixé que diu: «l'obra és una equivocació».

[...] És de lamentar que el bon intent d'en Vilaregut no hagi passat d'intent. El culte escriptor català, que tan sortosament ha adornat a la nostra escena altres assumptes, no ha tingut la mateixa sort. El miracle de Santa Agnès, obra hermosament escrita, no arribà a adquirir davant de l'espectador, la grandesa poemàtica que l'assumpte i les condicions de la llegenda requerien. I, sense aquesta grandesa, l'obra perd la major part del seu valor escènic.

La major equivocació del senyor Vilaregut és, al meu entendre, la introducció d'aquells personatges estranyament còmics, el Diable i sa muller Malapesta, en boca dels quals posa el senyor Vilaregut frases amb pretensions de xistos, d'un gust molt dubtós, com aquella de «ficar els peus a la galleda» que hi ha al segon acte i moltes altres per l'estil. Sense el diable-pallasso i sense la seva muller, l'obra hauria conservat més l'ambient que li és necessari. La figura dolorosa de Griselda, en canvi, pren força relleu.

La música del senyor Montserrat es notable. Se veu en el compositor inspiració i entusiasme artístic, delicadesa de sentiments i honradesa en els procediments. Se veu que ha comprès bé la intensa poesia de la llegenda i ha posat tota la seva ànima en conseguir que la música expressi aquesta poesia. I ho consegueix sovint, malgrat la poca importància que adquireix la part musical de l'obra.

Els actors estigueren regulars. El públic no acabà d'entusiasmar-se i els aplaudiments no sigueren gaire nodrits. Tenim confiança en les aptituds del senyor Vilaregut i creiem que no trigarà a fer-nos conèixer altres adaptacions més afortunades que la que ahir s'estrenà.

“Teatro Principal. *El miracle de Santa Agnès.

Empiezo por hacer constar que el estreno de la obra fue un fracaso.

Esta afirmación por delante, yo he de decir que la única equivocación de la última adaptación escénica de Vilaregut la constituyen las figuras del diablo y de Malapesta, la diablesa.

De dos distintos modos ha sido encarnado y cantado Maese Diablo en literatura. O con el fervor lírico entusiasta y admirado que lo eleva a gran dominio, a gran sabiduría y a gran refinamiento y que hace de él una figura bella, poderosa y sutil (desde Mefistófeles de Goethe pasando por las letanías de Baudelaire hasta Satana il grande de Carducci) o con un modo de ironía especial y casi ofensiva que lo hace perpetuamente grotesco y vencido.

El Sr. Vilaregut ha adoptado por esta segunda manera de ver al diablo. Y la equivocación escénica no está casualmente aquí, sino en la exageración hablada y vivida de esta encarnación del diablo. Y voy a explicar este concepto porque lo creo de importancia para la acertada critica de la obra, ya que, como he dicho antes, creo que está aquí la única capital equivocación del cultísimo adaptador.

No señores: no es que el diablo no puede ser grotesco, que no pueda ser ridículo, espantosamente ridículo, no; lo que hay es que ha de ser, en la obra escénica, poderosamente grotesco, bello, con tanta fuerza y tan sutil maestría como el divino poder. Si esto no pasa, si esto no se hace visible y palpitante sobre las tablas, el público no ve bien la obra ni comprende el conflicto, ni se interesa por la lucha del maligno poder contra el divino.

Esta es la equivocación de Vilaregut. Equivocación muy perjudicial para la adaptación escénica que se estrenaba anoche. Hay demasiada desigualdad, demasiada larga distancia entre el divino exaltamiento lírico de la leyenda de Griselda y aquel diablo; hay demasiada desproporción espiritual, entre el elemento bello y lírico de la obra —todo poderoso— y el elemento grotesco diablesco casi menesteroso, casi humano. El diablo de El miracle de Santa Agnès habría de ser siempre como el momento de la evocación en el segundo acto, y como el de la apuesta en el primero; más equilibrado, más bello, más sutil para la lucha.

Con esta equivocación, la obra no podía salvarse. El público —que es muy sabio— se apercibió de la tremenda desigualdad y no pudo mantener, despierta y perenne, la emoción. Toda la alta belleza lírica que el autor ha derramado sobre Griselda, sobre el fervor, sobre el amor, sobre la fidelidad de Griselda no pudo interesar al público porque eran Griselda y el divino poder demasiado poderosos. Por esto el más alto grado de emoción fue la escena del segundo acto donde el diablo está a punto de vencer.

La obra está bellamente escrita en muchos momentos en los que la evocación lírica llena de amor y de belleza las palabras. La música del Mtro. Montserrat me pareció muy ajustada y hermosa.

Yo proclamo como uno de los derechos indiscutibles del hombre el derecho a la protesta y, refiriéndonos al teatro, el derecho a la pateadura, a la reventada. Yo tengo por mis más honrosos títulos de crítico los conatos de escándalo que he promovido en los teatros (Rodamon y L’hort d’en Churrumecu no me dejarán mentir).

En su derecho estaban pues, los que ayer protestaron de la obra. Hicieron santamente usándolo. Pero, permítaseme en gracia a mi sinceridad, una pequeña observación. ¿No es un poquito —ya veis que soy prudente—, no es un poquito censurable y grotesco que en el teatro Principal, donde se han pasado sin protesta todas las imaginables memeces del señor Baró, donde los intelectuales intentaron hacer un gran éxito de Rodamon, se haya protestado con grosería una obra de un autor cultísimo que ha enriquecido la escena catalana con bellas adaptaciones y que ayer intentaba, con un esfuerzo generoso y loable, introducir un nuevo género con una obra que, podrá ser equivocada, pero que tiene muchas bellezas?

En la interpretación sobresalieron notablemente Emília Baró, que dijo con verdadero arte emocional su bello papel de Griselda, y el señor Santpere, que estuvo muy justo en el de diablo, especialmente en la difícil escena de la invocación perversa. El Sr. Giménez dijo muy bien el ruego a la Santa Cruz, en el último acto. En algún momento anduvo algo descompuesto de actitud. Los demás, regulares.

La Publicidad 4223 (14/02/1908), ed. nit, p. 3.

"Estic tot esverat aquesta setmana. Dues estrenes, dos compromisos, perquè totes dues són de bons amics. Comencem per la primera que es va celebrar, o sigui la d'El miracle de Sta. Agnès. En Vilaregut, que és autor de la lletra, no ha anat tant a l'hora com en altres ocasions. I veus aquí que la nit de l'estrena va haver-hi fins un cert conato de intento, que hauria dit en Bahía quan feia d'escriptor... Jo —que sé lo que són aquestes coses— vaig patir força durant la representació, perquè des del començament del segon acte va perseguir-me d'una manera obsessionadora el record d'aquelles cèlebres Calderes d'en Pere Botero de trista memòria. També hi surt el dimoni en l'obra d'en Vilaregut. I amb el dimoni no s'hi poden fer miracles.

I aquí va estar l'errada d'en Vilaregut: en voler fer el miracle de crear un dimoni calsasses, que es deixa pegar per la dona i que és més ruc que fet exprés. La gent el vol veure viu i brètol al dimoni; i el d'en Vilaregut resultava ruc i de bona fe. I això no val.

Si no hagués estat això i les espatotxades que l'autor posava en boca d'en Banyeta, l'obra hauria anat millor de lo que va anar. Ara mateix, he sentit a dir que, amb unes estisorades fetes sàviament pel mateix autor, El miracle de Sta. Agnès marxa molt més llis. Jo, per circumstàncies especials de les que no en tinc cap culpa, no he pogut comprovar-ho.

De totes maneres lo que sí els puc dir és que la música amb què ha il·lustrat l'obra el Mtre. Montserrat resulta inspirada i ubriagadora... Una delícia. [...]

Viloret."

Cu-cut! 301 (20/02/1908), p. 119.

"El miracle de Santa Agnès, obra en tres actes d'en Salvador Vilaregut, amb il·lustracions musicals d'en Montserrat, va ser estrenada el dijous passat en el teatre Principal, i no va tenir pas aquell èxit que havien anunciat els que coneixien la producció.

Aquell diable, aquella diablessa, tenen, com ja va fer observar en Farfarello, el subtilíssim crític teatral de La Publicidad, massa poc interès per a lluitar amb la virtuosa Griselda, protegida dels cels... I d'aquest desequilibri, ne prové una inevitable manca d'harmonia en el desenrotllament de l'obra que, per lo demés, està tractada amb amor i escrita amb notable correcció. Des de la segona representació, varen suprimir-se una pila de frases que desentonaven amb l'altesa de l'obra i el final de la mateixa va ser reduït a les justes proporcions. I així, amb aquestes esmenes, tot va guanyar en intensitat i El miracle de Santa Agnès segueix aguantant-se en els cartells del Principal interpretat discretament pels actors i presentat per la empresa, si no amb luxe i riquesa, almenys amb econòmic criteri de bona voluntat...

En resum: que en Vilaregut i en Montserrat han escrit una obra, si no mereixedora de grans elogis (si exceptuem el primer acte), digna de tota mena de consideracions per l'esforç i altesa d'inspiració que l'han engendrada. I dit això, sol ens manca fer constar que certes manifestacions que algun tranquil va permetre's el dia de l'estrena deien molt poc en favor de l'al·ludit tranquil i eren de tot punt immerescudes pels autors que, si l'un havia compost unes belles pàgines musicals, l'altre, deixant de banda nous mereixements, tenia i té el d'haver treballat sempre amb un gran interès en pro de la cultura catalana."

De tots colors 8 (21/02/1908), p. 122.

"El miracle de Santa Agnès, obra d'en Vilaregut, quin estreno va tenir lloc dijous de la setmana passada, és una rondalla que no deixa de contenir lo que se'n diu pasta o primera matèria, però que, tal com l'autor ens l'ha presentada, resulta mancada de consistència teatral, i aquest és son principal defecte. Hi ha en ella escenes interessants, situacions gracioses, un diàleg a trossos ben escaient, però tot això es mostra als ulls de l'espectador mal engiponat, sense matisar; hi ha tipos que tenen molt relleu i d'altres que no en tenen gens, i el conjunt no arriba, per tals viaranys, a sostenir l'atenció del públic. Potser condensada i esporgada de certes picardies innocentes s'hauria adobat en successives representacions.

La música no va ajudar poc ni molt a l'èxit. La presentació escènica, bastant descuidada. Els actors, en general, bé; en especial el Sr. Santpere, que va fer un diable bastant endemoniat."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1512 (21/02/1908), p. 136.

"El miracle de Santa Agnès.— Tragicomèdia en tres actes, inspirada de l'anglès i escrita en vers per Salvador Vilaregut, amb il·lustracions musicals de F. Montserrat Ayarbe.

Ja es veu, ja, que l'autor s'ha encarinyat amb un assumpto que ha vist a les taules i que, recordant recordant, l'ha adaptat a l'escena catalana, sens tenir en compte que nostres costums o nostres vicis no ens permeten donar importància a obres d'aquesta naturalesa.

De modo que, sense que la obra sigui dolenta, ens permetrem dir que no ens va acabar de fer el pes, no tractant per això d'escatimar en lo més mínim els mèrits teatrals i literaris que posseeix son reputat autor.

L'obra s'ha presentat amb excel·lent direcció escènica i s'ha interpretat amb el bon gust a què ens tenen acostumats els artistes d'aquesta casa. En Gimenez i en Santpere, sublims en sos papers. La Morera, la Morató i la Baró, fent tot lo que els permet el tipo. En Ginestet, en Ballart, en Puiggarí i en Vinyals, notabilíssims.

Una decoració d'en Comeleran, també inspirada de l'anglès, de bon efecte. Una Santa Agnès... quieta, com una santa. Els números de música del Mtre. F. Montserrat Ayarbe, recomanables, per lo inspirats i harmoniosos.

Si l'obra, vulgarment parlant, hagués petat més, s'haurien aplaudit moltíssim les il·lustracions musicals d'aquest novell mestre."

La Escena catalana 73 (22/02/1908), p. 3.

"El miracle de Santa Agnès

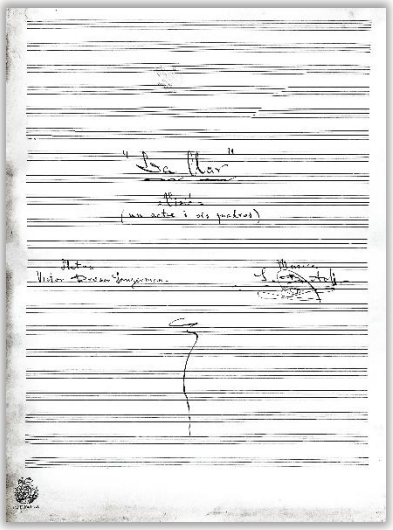
D'ençà de l'anterior revista, s'han fet algunes estrenes al Principal. La primera va ser El miracle de Santa Agnès d'en Vilaregut, amb il·lustracions musicals del mestre Montserrat.

Judicada l'obra gairebé per tothom, el judici que en féssim podria semblar ja fora d'hora. Per això i per no omplir un espai excessiu, ens limitarem a consignar que, si bé el públic de l'estrena va fer una acollida contradictòria a El miracle de Santa Agnès, els públics successius s'han mostrat més favorables. És que la part del de la estrena que protestava havia estat injusta? No, és que en Vilaregut s'havia equivocat al donar el to a alguns dels passatges. I com que per a les representacions successives va esmenar el defecte, despullant l'obra de certs tocs excessivament grotescs, el conjunt se va entonar per si sol, esdevenint una producció com altres que se n'han aplaudides.



La música del mestre Montserrat és inspirada i sentida.

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

[Els personatges que apareixen mencionats a la partitura els de Rosa, Magdalena (interpretada per Emília Baró), Segimon (sacerdot), Josepó i Bolitxo (Josep Santpere)].

[La partitura conté una obertura instrumental al 1er quadre (quan puja el teló, Segimon, Magdalena i Rosa pronuncien els primers versos de la litúrgia de la missa), un segon número instrumental, una cançó de la Rosa des de dins bressant el seu fill que enllaça amb l'inici del 2on quadre, un cor d'homes sobre l'arribada de la primavera amb un bis que tanca el quadre, un número orquestral al 3er quadro basat en el tema popular del ball dels gegants d'Olot amb un bis que inclou al cor, una cançó d'en Bolitxo explicant una rondalla a la quitxalla sobre un nen orfe que buscava als seus pares, es repeteix el segon número per obrir el 4rt quadre, i un últim número que comença instrumental amb parlat de la Magdalena que tanca el 5è quadre i enllaça amb l'inici del 6è, en el qual la Rosa repeteix la seva cançó del principi. Sembla que la Magdalena es queda amb el fill de la Rosa perquè ella està malalta i morirà aviat, la seva cançó des de dins parla de confessar-se abans de la mort en estar malalta].

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Per dimarts s'anuncia el benefici de la simpàtica Maria Morató, amb un programa escollit. També s'anuncia el nou quadro La llar (un altre títol repetit del repertori català)[99]. Que un autor modern, pàrvul en el teatre, desconeixi el catàleg d'obres publicades és dispensable, però, en canvi, és criticable que el Sr. Brossa i Sangerman, que ja feia comèdies quan en Pitarra era jove, s'apropiï el títol d'un drama que deixa mig embastat aquest gran drama turc i que escrigué i estrenà en Romea, fa uns deu anys, l'Ernest Soler de les Cases."

La Escena catalana 75 (07/03/1908), p. 6.

"No creo a esta obra merecedora tan solo de una vulgar gacetilla anónima. Hay en ella, y es justo hacerlo constar, un anhelo muy loable de llevar a las tablas una ráfaga de ensueño y de espiritualidad, que es toda una tendencia, en el teatro y que está casi todavía por intentar en el teatro catalán.

Este género dramático de fantasía y de soñación que ha dado a la literatura muy bellas obras, requiere unas altas dotes de poeta y de sutil imaginador y una poderosa concepción espiritual que, ciertamente, no ha demostrado poseer el Sr. Víctor Brossa Sangerman, autor de La llar.

Así acontece que su obra que hubiera podido ser la belleza de un acierto literario no pasa de ser un mediocre intento bastante desafortunado. Al calor del hogar, en el silencio de la tarde, mientras la nuera canta al niño adormeciéndole en la cuna, la pobre viejecita, feliz en la felicidad de su hijo, revive los viejos recuerdos de amor. Por su imaginación calenturienta desfila toda la bella caravana de las pasadas alegrías de la vida...

La equivocación fundamental de la obra radica en que estas recordaciones no se refieren esencialmente y siempre a cosas íntimas, ¡aquellas cosas que floreciendo al calor de amor son luego ceniza sobre el corazón! Aquella viejuca fantasiosa recuerda escenas bullangueras, de color local pero pocas veces aquellas otras que son la historia secreta del alma y la esencia de la vida... No tiene fuerza de este modo el momento dramático, aunque tenga color, y la obra flaquea en su misma raíz. Además, el desarrollo es poco hábil y de muy escasos alientos de poesía. En algún momento la suavidad de las flores se presiente perfumando el aire, pero el autor no sabe sacudir el ramo sutilmente...

Sea dicho en honor a la verdad que la obra, contrariamente a lo que necesitaba, fue presentada mezquina y paupérrimamente. La presentación recordaba aquellos tiempos en que el buen Joan de l'Ós arrojaba un hombre por una montaña y el hombre —Anteo de guardarropía— convertido en muñeco, volvía a caer sobre las tablas, por virtud de no sé qué mecanismos indiscretos. Y con esto creo que basta para juzgar la presentación que le cupo en desgracia a La llar.

La Sra. Morera en su difícil papel estuvo bastante acertada. Los demás, discretos en sus papeles sin relieve. Bien el Sr. Santpere, que llegó a vencer en los recuerdos al pobre marido de la recordadora, no sé si por culpa del autor o por méritos suyos, aunque presumo que por lo primero, a pesar de ser muy grandes los últimos. La obra no sé cómo hubiese sido aplaudida. La claque de este teatro se empeña en que cada estreno sea un éxito y aplaudió estruendosamente la obra, que si no merecía solo una gacetilla anónima, no merece tampoco aquellas ovaciones. Salió a las tablas el Sr. Bartolí, que ha escrito para la obra una música discreta.

La Publicidad 4246 (12/03/1908), p. 2.

"PRINCIPAL.— La llar, visió en sis quadros, lletra d'en Víctor Brossa i Sangerman, música del mestre Salvador Bartolí.

A prop del foc, la vella arraulida recorda les visions de la seva joventut. Aquestes passen a l'escena en cada un dels sis quadros que formen l'obra. Algun d'ells és una nota fresca, de costums camperoles, que acaba d'arrodonir un diàleg viu escrit amb força destresa.

La figura de l'àvia, que va desempenyar la Morera, pren en alguns moments força relleu i interès. Els quadros representant les diverses visions de la vida passada de la velleta protagonista han sigut presentats de manera ben artística. Alguns números de la música que hi ha posat el mestre Bartolí varen ésser aplaudits.

L'obra, en conjunt, és una visió interessantíssima. Al final, el públic va aplaudir i cridar als autors a les taules, sortint tan sols a l'escena el senyor Bartolí."

La Veu de Catalunya 3193 (12/03/1908), p. 2.

"La llar.— Visió en un acte i sis quadros, lletra de Victor Brossa i Sangerman i música del mestre Bartolí.

L'eminent Morera prou feu tots els esforços possibles per a dissimular el fracàs que es va preveure al primer quadro. La visió no té consistència, i els artistes tots procuraren treballar-la, cosa que és d'aplaudir i de que en té d'estar molt agraït l'autor de la lletra.

L'assumpto recorda a la bonica comèdia Colorín colorao i la visió La Fustots; aquesta manca d'originalitat fora el de menys si l'obreta fos interessant, però... ni a això arriba. La música és agradosa, per lo que felicitem al jove mestre.

I per fer això l'autor tenia necessitat d'usurpar el títol d'una altra producció dramàtica? Quin poc ingeni!"

La Escena catalana 76 (14/03/1908), p. 2.

"PRINCIPAL. La llar, visió dramàtica en sis quadros dels Srs. Brossa, Sangerman i Bartolí, és una obreta escrita amb cuidado i conté alguns tocs sentimentals de bona mena, encara que el conjunt resulti manso, com la majoria d'obres que d'aquest gènere s'han estrenat en el veterano Principal.

Van ajudar a l'èxit els números de música amb què ha hermosejat el llibre el mestre Bartolí, alguns d'ells molt delicats i no mancats d'inspiració. Els actors, a l'altura de tot això que havem dit.

Cadena d'amor és un drama que, si no va estrenar-se ja amb algun altre títol, mereixia haver-se estrenat trenta-i-cinc o quaranta anys enrere. [...]."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1525 (20/03/1908), p. 200.

"PRINCIPAL.— Dugues obres s'hi han donat: la primera, una visió en sis quadros, lletra de Víctor Brossa, música de Salvador Bartolí, titulada La llar, i la segona, un drama en tres actes, anomenat Cadena d'or [sic], original del reputat escriptor Riera i Bertran.

La llar és una producció ingènua, ben escrita i d'assumpte simpàtic, puig se tracta d'una bona mare que recorda les estacions de la seva vida a mida que el seu fill les passa. El Sr. Bartolí hi ha posat alguns números musicals escrits amb sinceritat i amb molta traça. [...]".

La campana catalana 4 (20/03/1908), p. 5.

"Després de La llar, —visió musical ben intencionada, però de gran pobresa d'inspiració—, s'ha estrenat en el teatre Principal un drama en tres actes, Cadena d'amor, original del conegut escriptor J. Riera i Bertran, que ja feia molts anys no produïa per l'escena i que, segons hem tingut ocasió de veure i admirar, feia bé de no produir-hi. [...] hauria estat un èxit si s'hagués posat en escena uns quants anys enrere, en ple domini del teatre pitarresc. [...]".

De tots colors 12 (20/03/1908), p. 186.

"La llar, visió d'en Brossa i Sangerman.

Una vella recorda les etapes principals de la seva joventut. I s'adorm vora el foc i passen les escenes culminants de la seva vida: passa l'amor convidant-la a estimar en la nit de Pasqua; passa el bullici del dia del casori; passa l'alegria del jorn en què varen fer-li cristià al fill... I no passa res més.

L'obreta no deixa de ser agradosa, però hi manca interès. Des de que passa el primer quadro ja se sap tot lo demés que ha de venir. I és que l'autor ho ha fet explicar abans a la vella. Amb tot, els canvis de quadro i la creació que fa la Morera de la protagonista aguanten perfectament l'atenció del públic."

Visió / Llegenda en 1 acte i 3 quadros
Estrena el 24/03/1908.

Il·lustració 288: KARR, Carme; ESPADALER, J. B.: El testament d'Amèlia (portada de la reducció manuscrita per a cant i piano).

Lletra de Lluís Via.

Música de Carme Karr i Joan B. Espadaler.

Text no localitzat.

Música: SGAE: BAR/B–81.

Acotacions i fotografies d'escena:

[La partitura menciona els personatges d'Amèlia (la filla del rei), Fra Ulric, el rei i el poble (el qual canta els números corals)].

[La música conté un primer número amb inici instrumental i un cor sobre la malaltia de l'Amèlia, una represa de la cançó sobre l'Amèlia cantada pel poble abans de la caiguda del teló que enllaça amb un interludi instrumental amb la pujada del teló per al quadre segon, un fragment instrumental durant el qual torna a caure el teló del quadre segon que enllaça amb l'inici del quadre tercer amb la cançó de l'Amèlia en la qual s'acomiada abans de morir, "El Rei cau en el sitial de prop l'espona del llit" i comença l'últim cor reprenent la cançó anterior per anunciar que l'Amèlia és morta amb la caiguda final del teló].

[Anotació a la particel·la del clarinet segon que indica que l'obra dura 25 minuts].

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Demà s'estrenarà al teatre Principal la cançó popular El testament d'Amèlia, lletra de Lluís Via, música de Carme Karr i del mestre Espadaler, baix el repartiment que segueix: Amèlia, senyoreta Morató; el rei, senyor Puiggarí; la regina, senyora Baró; Fra Ulric, senyor Giménez; pregoner, senyor Vinyals; dama primera, senyora Guerra; dama segona, senyoreta Adell; dona primera, senyora Masdeu; dona segona, senyoreta Piquer; dona tercera, senyora Salmon; home primer, senyor Garcia; home segon, senyor Ginestet; home tercer, senyor Capdevila."

"PRINCIPAL.— Anoche estrenóse en este teatro la obra en tres cuadros Lo testament d'Amèlia, letra del señor Via, música de Carme Karr y Joann Baptista Espadaler.

Está basada en la leyenda popular catalana, escrita a estilo de leyenda, y la música es delicada. El cuadro tercero es hermoso.

Los autores fueron llamados al palco escénico y no se presentaron.

La interpretación, buena, distinguiéndose la señorita Baró (Emilia), la señora Morera y los señores Giménez y Puiggarí."

Las Noticias 4375 (25/03/1908), p. 5.

"PRINCIPAL.— E1 testament d'Amèlia, leyenda musical, estrenada anoche en este teatro, no ofrece interés alguno. La acción es anodina y las escenas, en conjunto, resultan lánguidas.

La música no contiene un número de relieve, que denote inspiración y originalidad. En suma, una obra mansa y sosa, que se escuchó con religioso silencio.

Al terminar su representación, resonaron insistentes aplausos, debidos al deseo de ver en escena a la señora Carmen Karr, autora de la música."

El Noticiero Universal (25/03/1908), ed. matí, p. 3.

"PRINCIPAL.— El testament d'Amèlia. Visió musical en tres quadres. Lletra de Lluís Via, música de donya Carme Karr i de Joan Baptista Espadaler.

Entre les cançons populars catalanes de caràcter feudal-cavalleresc, la d'El testament d'Amèlia és una de les que tenen un més fort valor tràgic.

L'Amèlia està malalta,
la filla del bon rei;
dames la van a veure,
patges i cavallers.

I què té que estigui tan malalta la filla "del bon rei"? Té que amb un ram de clavells la seva mare li ha donat metzines... És jova encara la mare de n'Amèlia. I el pare, en canvi, és vell. Però, per què s'ha fet metzinera la mare de n'Amèlia? La moridora ho diu prou al fer el testament:

—Filla, la meva filla:
i a mi, què em deixareu?
—Mare, la meva mare:
a vos el marit meu.

La tragèdia està indicada amb singular concisió. No pot dir-se més en menys nombre de paraules. Per això hem di que El testament d'Amèlia és una de les cançons populars catalanes d'un valor tràgic més fort.

En Lluís Via, al portar-la al teatre, ho ha fet amb correcció sense apartar-se gens del text popular, posant tot el seu comte en respectar-lo i limitant-se a omplir els buits amb escenes lògiques, desenrotllades en versos ben fets. La distribució dels episodis és del tot encertada.

L'Amèlia està malalta... En el primer quadro, el poble, aplegat al peu del palau, comenta la malaltia... El rei, que era fora, arriba sobtadament i s'entera de la malaltia. És el segon quadro... n'Amèlia fa testament i llença al rostre de la seva mare els greus que té d'ella, tornant-li en mots amargants el verí que n'ha rebut. És el quadro tercer, que acaba amb la promesa de punició feta pel bon rei al morir n'Amèlia.

La música de donya Carme Karr i del senyor Espadaler segueix també la popular, i quan se n'aparta, no deixa per això de tenir l'aire del terrer que escau a l'obra. Si correcte i discret ha estat el poeta, no ho han estat menys els músics.

La Baró feia el paper de la protagonista. Cal dir que va recitar el testament amb el doll d'emoció que esqueia al cas? Tots sabem la fe de què sap fer gala la Baró en casos com aquell. La Reina va ser interpretada per la Morera amb la correcció deguda, amb tot i lo ingrat per a ella de l'única situació en què pren part. Mereixen citar-se també en Giménez (com a director i com a actor), en Puiggarí i la senyoreta Adell, que va cantar amb molt bon gust un tros del començament del tercer quadro.

"PRINCIPAL. Res de nou durant l'anterior setmana.

Per al dimarts d'aquesta estava anunciada la primera d'una nova obra titulada El testament d'Amèlia, lletra de D. Lluís Via, música de Karr i Espadaler, de quina representació donarem notícia en el pròxim número.

En assaig la gran obra d'espectacle del mestre Guimerà Jesús de Nazaret, exquisit plat de Quaresma que amb gust tornaran a assaborir els aficionats al genero."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1526 (27/03/1908), pp. 216–217.

"El testament d'Amèlia.—Visió en un acte i tres quadros, lletra de Lluís Via i música de Carme Karr i Joan B. Espadaler.

Va representar-se admirablement per les Sres. Morera, Baró, Adell i els Srs. Giménez, Puiggarí, García, Ginestet, Capdevila, etc.

Fou aplaudit estrepitosament per la concurrència, que era numerosa i escollida... dels autors. A nosaltres, si la lletra va semblar-nos poca cosa, menys va interessar-nos la música, excepte el motiu, que per ser de la cançó popular no pot donar-se'n cap mèrit als autors.

Molta comparseria, molta llum, moltes flors... i moltes ganes de cridar als autors, que no van presentar-se. Al Sr. Via, al poeta Via, el creiem digne de millors obres i d'amistats més sinceres."

La Escena catalana 78 (28/03/1908), p. 2.

"PRINCIPAL.— El testament d'Amèlia. Lletra d'en Lluís Via i música de Carme Karr i Joan Bta. Espadaler.

Per a dir-ho en poques paraules, direm que els autors han agafat la cançó popular, l'han ampliada tot que podia ampliar-se, completant-la i enquadrant-la, i que, com mans que estan acostumades a tocar coses fines, amb mans d'orfebre, han deixat a la vella i tràgica cançó tot el perfum, tot el color, tot el seu encant d'exquisida al temps que salvatge poesia.

Els tres quadrets en què en Via ha dividit l'obra, curts, moguts, plens i vibrants, són plens d'hermosos versos que en Guimerà no es desdiria de firmar, tenen un gran sabor de l'època en què es fa desenrotllar l'acció i delaten un deseixit coneixement de lo que són les taules. Les amenaces del Rei a la Reina adúltera, en plena cambra mortuòria, són d'una alta i emocionant intensitat tràgica, lo mateix que el diàleg entre la Reina i Amèlia (mare i filla), sòbriament arrancat del de la cançó.

La música (les melodies de la Sra. Karr i la instrumentació del mestre Espadaler), casa ben bé amb l'hermosura del llibre que ha fet en Via. No es parla tampoc gaire de la cançó, però també la completa, l'engrandeix i tampoc la desfigura, jugant-la constantment amb gran delicadesa...

Les mans de la Karr i de l'Espadaler no en són, de mans profanadores, al contrari: són plenes d'unció i religiositat per la joia que toquen. Venen a ser com uns savis restauradors. I així s'explica la pulcritud amb què han treballat.

La Baró bé. Tots els altres, en absolut, reis i sotes de jocs de cartes: almenys, el dia de l'estreno.

Aneu-lo a veure, El testament d'Amèlia."

La campana catalana 6 (01/04/1908), p. 6.

"PRINCIPAL. El testament d'Amèlia conserva en el teatro l'aroma de llegenda, però com a obra teatral és poc vibrant i resulta per complet mancada de consistència. Ni els versos d'en Via, que estan molt bé, ni la música de la senyora Karr, que vol estar bé, lograren interessar al públic, que exigeix en aquesta mena d'espectacles algun instant d'emoció quant menos.

Tot això no vol dir que el primer dia El testament no deixés d'obtenir un sorollós èxit. Però a un testament fals havia de correspondre un èxit fals forçosament.

Actualment se representa amb aplauso la celebrada obra d'espectacle Jesús de Nazaret, d'en Guimerà, producció de circumstàncies que proporcionarà bones cassolades al degà dels nostres teatros."

La Esquella de la Torratxa 1527 (03/04/1908), p. 231.

"PRINCIPAL. Després de l'estrena d'El testament d'Amèlia, —discreta visió musical, lletra d'en Lluís Via, música de la senyora Karr i del senyor Espadaler, que va obtenir un èxit molt prudent,— s'ha produït en aquest teatre la tragèdia Jesús de Nazaret, de l'Àngel Guimerà, amb il·lustracions musicals de l'Enric Morera.

Qualifiquem d'encert la pensada dels empresaris. Jesús de Nazaret és digne de figurar cada any en el cartell dels nostres teatres i, si bé la companyia del Principal no compta amb prou elements per presentar-la amb esplendidesa de interpretació, de totes maneres, tothom va fer-hi lo que va poder i saber i, per consegüent, l'èxit va coronar la represa del diumenge.

Molt bé l' Emília Baró, sobretot en el primer acte, a on va tenir moments de veritable eminència. La Morera, molt justa. En Giménez, un xic desigual, però sempre encaixat i estudiós. I en Santpere, en Ginestet, en Capdevila, en Puiggarí i algun altre, força discrets. Llàstima que molts d'aquets actors meritíssims tinguessin el paper doblat i lo mateix i amb la mateixa fe haguessin de representar un enterramorts escèptic, com un deixeble de Jesús, creient i il·luminat!

Confiem en què la tragèdia del nostre Guimerà portarà molta gent al teatre Principal."

De tots colors 13 (03/04/1908), p. 213.

"El testament d'Amèlia

Tomar una canción popular, trágica y cruda como la que en nuestro cancionero tiene por título El testamento de Amelia y llevarla al teatro convirtiéndola en un completo drama lírico sin que deje de ser la canción ni pierda pizca de su acre perfume, es cosa difícil. Y cuando se consigue, es obra meritísima como lo ha sido la labor de Lluís Via, libretista, y Carmen Karr y Espadaler, músicos. Y aun lo es más cuando la obra se estrena precipitadamente, sin los necesarios ensayos o con ensayos sin cariño, un decorado que se habilita improvisadamente y una comparsería mezquina y sin estudio.

En cuanto a los intérpretes, solo una actriz, la Sta. Baró, dijo con la suficiente unción su parte. Y eso que los versos del Sr. Via son todo unción, son todo fervor. Truncados, rudos, retorcidos como hierro forjado, pero rojos y candentes al salir de la fragua de la inspiración, ennegrecen enseguida, dejan de ser bermejos si la voz que ha de derramarlos en pleno escenario deja enfriarlos al encarnar displicentemente el personaje. Y como en El testamento de Amelia todos los personajes y todas sus palabras tienen razón de ser y todos y todas son imprescindibles, es imprescindible asimismo aquella unción y aquel fervor en todos los intérpretes y en todas las situaciones. Esta fue, al menos, mi impresión de la noche del estreno.

En cuanto a las melodías de la Sra. Karr, instrumentadas por el maestro Espadaler, poco cabe decir. Glosan continuamente el tema de la canción del pueblo, matizándola según las situaciones, ora plañidero; ora amenazador, ora temeroso o estridentemente horripilante, pero tratado siempre con singular maestría, discreción y respeto a su popular simplicidad.

En conjunto: El testament d'Amèlia es neta y completamente la canción popular del mismo nombre, siendo también completamente un buen drama lírico de hermosa y robusta simplicidad.

Inici de temporada i obertura de l'abonament

"Noves. L'empresa del teatre Principal, reformada i refermada, es proposa fer una bona temporada d'hivern, que, de realitzar sos propòsits, pot donar glòria i profit als artistes i al Teatre Català, en benefici del públic en general.

Per tal fi, ha contractat a les primeres figures, l'eminent Maria Morera, la Baró (E.), la Guerra (E.) i els notabilíssims primers actors Josep Santpere, Lluís Puiggarí i Enric Giménez, i el primer galan jove August Barbosa, no deixant de mà contractes que s'estan gestionant amb altres elements, a fi de poder completar un quadro de companyia que estigui amb relació amb la importància del degà dels nostres teatres."

La Escena catalana 38 (22/06/1907), p. 7.

"Teatre Principal.— L'eximi autor de Terra baixa ha entregat a l'empresa dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner una obra titulada La reina vella, i el poeta Apel·les Mestres un conte líric en dos actes anomenat En Joan de l'Os. A les dues obres posa música el mestre Enric Morera, i són les que en Graner pensa estrenar al començar la temporada, la qual promet ésser brillantíssima, puix entre els artistes escripturats hi figuren la Baró, la Morera, en Barbosa, en Giménez, en Puiggarí i en Santpere."

Funcions de la companyia fora del Principal

"Círcol de Propietaris de Gràcia.— El dimarts, dia 8, se dona la funció primera de la sèrie d'Audicions Graner per la mateixa companyia que dirigeix l'Enric Giménez en el teatre Principal, representant-se les següents obres: La capseta dels petons, Els entremaliats i L'alegria que passa. Aquesta funció era de creure que cridaria l'atenció dels socis del "Círculo", però no fou així, demostrant-se una vegada més que tots els esforços que qualsevulga empresa faci tocaran los mateixos resultats que en Gual i altres, que si no fos per la concurrència que hi va de fora la societat, encara no s'hi comptaria una dotzena de socis, essent llàstima l'adversió que tenen aquests senyors propietaris a les obres de casa.

La segona funció de la sèrie està anunciada per lo dia 15 del corrent."

Los espectáculos Graner, que tan gran éxito vienen obteniendo en el teatro Principal de Barcelona, también es fácil que, gracias a dicho empresario, pueda el pueblo de Palma admirarlos dentro de poco.”

Crítiques de concerts

“L’abonament per als concerts que començaran avui dimarts en el teatre Principal, organitzats per l’orquestra Filharmònica Barcelonesa, dirigida pel mestre Lassalle, és molt nombrós i reunirà en el degà de nostres teatres a lo més selecte de la nostra bona societat.

El programa del primer concert és interessantíssim, puig ademés d’una simfonia de Haydn i la famosa romàntica de Bruckner, se donarà la primera audició del Valse triste de Sibellini, obra de molt renom entre el modern repertori simfònic.”

El Poble català 600 (08/10/1907), p. 2.

“L’Orquestra Filharmònica Barcelonesa està donant la tercera sèrie de sos concerts en lo teatre Principal, proporcionant-nos lo plaer de poguer observar quant ha guanyat la citada corporació en lo poc temps que porta d’existència.

En les sèries anteriors executava amb una precisió militar. En l’actual fa quelcom més: lo que abans era pur efectisme de pianos i forts s’ha trocat en poesia. Lo conjunt resulta més harmònic i en los moments de major interès respon ben bé a les indicacions de son notable director, lo mestre Lassalle.

Lo miracle no és nou: totes les orquestres ben constituïdes que com la nostra Filharmònica han tingut la mateixa perseverança, han arribat a conseguir prompte els resultats que tant aplaudeixen les persones de bon gust congregades en lo Principal. I és que una millora aixís sols és possible quan los executants i son director se coneixen be. Més avesats tots plegats a interpretar de la mateixa manera, fan que sa execució tingui un deix extremadament simpàtic, començant-se ja a notar una certa suavitat en lo colorit, que atrau de veres.

Dos concerts ha donat ja en aquesta temporada de tardor. Lo primer lo dia 8 i el segon lo 15: faltant-ne dos més per a completar la sèrie de quatre que s’ha proposat efectuar la Filharmònica Barcelonesa. Los programes dels dos concerts celebrats han ofert música d'excepcional interès: en ells han ocupat un lloc preeminent la Simfonia romàntica de Bruckner executada en lo primer concert i la Serenata a quatre temps de M. Reger. La Simfonia romàntica obtingué el mateix gran èxit que quan s'estrenà a l'inaugurar ses tasques l'orquestra del mestre Lassalle, l'any passat. Una vegada més los intel·ligents han vist en aquesta simfonia lo treball d'un artista dotat de personalitat pròpia i que sentia lo que feia.

La serenata d'en Reger perteneix a una escola ben diferenta de la d'en Bruckner. Aixís com en la romàntica, la grandiloqüència hi campeja en primer terme, en la obra d'en Reger se pot dir que sols hi predomina lo íntim; la pinzellada justa, sense ganes de alçar al públic excitant-lo amb efectes de gran amplitud. L'orquestra hi està tractada sense traspassar mai los límits que el caràcter de les melodies li tenen traçat, i en això potser estriba el principal mèrit de l'obra.

Diuen que aquesta serenata no té argument: no ho creiem. A la força l'autor havia de pensar en algun assumpto descriptiu a l'interrompre els fragments moguts i de gresca, pera donar lloc a altres que respiren tristesa: lo que aconteeix sovint en la Serenata, per cert fet d'una manera magistral. Lo que hi deu haver, potser, és que tal volta l'autor no estava prou satisfet de l'aplicació de la música al argument que es degué imaginar, i per això deixà de parlar-ne. Nos fa creure en aqueixa inseguretat de l'autor lo fet de que l'únic número que indica un pensament determinat és lo Vivace a burlesca i no resulta de tal caràcter: és un fragment deliciós com a música simfònica, però no té res de burlesc.

L'obra tingué èxit, però no el que es mereixia. La veritat és que amb una sola audició era impossible que els que no estiguessin iniciats en los secrets de l'art se fessin càrrec de la immensa importància que té la Serenata en lo terrer de la factura, tant per lo que toca al contrapunt i l'alta harmonia, com a l'extraordinari domini de l'orquestra, del que n'és una prova la singularíssima distribució dels instruments de corda.

En los mateixos concerts s'han estrenat dues composicions més, una de Sibelins titulada Valse triste de tan escàs valor artístic que no mereix la pena de parlar-ne i un preludi del jove català C. Taltabull, fragment d'un poema titulat: Valdemar Daae, inspirat en una obra alemanya. Aquest fragment revela excel·lents disposicions en son autor per a dedicar-se amb profit al cultiu de la composició musical. Esperem que l'èxit que obtingué lo citat preludi alentarà a l'autor a prosseguir amb més entusiasme, si cap, sos estudis tan feliçment comensals.

Lo darrer concert terminà amb la Sèptima simfonia de Beethoven, en la que l'orquestra ratllà a immensa alçada. És impossible descriure la impressió que produí. Sa interpretació constitueix un dels majors èxits alcançats pel mestre Lassalle i sa orquestra.

"Amb un públic més nombrós i tan escollit com el del primer dia, va tenir lloc dimarts passat el segon dels concerts de la present sèrie.

Omplien la primera part del suculent programa l'obertura d'Ifigenie (Wagner-Gluck), que va ser executada amb molta justesa de detall, encara que una mica massa arrossegada, a l'estil clàssic; la repetició del Vals triste, quina peça tant va agradar el primer dia; i l'estrena del preludi Valdemar Daac d'en C. Taltabull, compositor català molt jove i d'esplendorós pervindre a jutjar pels seus començaments, qui va ser aclamat amb justícia i repetidament, havent-se hagut de servir el vis de tota la partitura per a acallar els aplaudiments. Tothom va reconèixer que en la música del Sr. Taltabull, qui per ara sembla no saber-se sostreure de la influència wagneriana, s'hi descobreix un aplom i una traça inconcebibles en un principiant.

El plat fort de la vetlla el constituïa la Sérénade d'en Reger, obra de dimensions, seriosa i no exempta de dificultats que va saber vèncer admirablement la Filharmònica baix la direcció de l'intel·ligent mestre Lassalle, terminant el concert amb la magistral Sèptima de Beethoven, que va resultar, com sempre, una llaminadura exquisida que no es cansen de paladejar els bons gourments de la bona música."

"PRINCIPAL

Ja s'han acabat, per ara, els notables concerts de la Filharmònica Barcelonesa, dirigits pel mestre Lassalle.

En el tercer ens donà a conèixer la Serenata italiana d'Huch Wolf, un músic de gran talent que, com molts altres genis, tingué la desgràcia de ser incomprès i morí jove; i la Segona simfonia en Do menor de Bruckner, que és una àliga de la música moderna, de gran volada, i quals obres, a l'igual que el bon vi, milloren amb el temps en exquisidesa i bon bouquet.

Mai se li agrairà prou al mestre Lassalle sa briosa iniciativa per a donar als programes dels seus concerts un sentit progressiu. Ell és qui ha fet conèixer en Bruckner a n'els filharmònics barcelonins i precisa consignar que l'ha tractat amb gran carinyo i no menos talent. Completa el tercer concert amb l'execució d'En les estepes de l'Àsia, del rus Borodin, una peça que alcançà una interpretació irreprotxable, sobre tot en l'andante.

Aquesta audició, a l'igual que les dues que la precediren, tingué un èxit immens, deixant en l'auditori el viu desig de que el mestre Lassalle, que ha demostrat valer tant, vaja prosseguint la seva tasca de cultura, de bon gust i de progrés artístic. [...]"

"L'Orquestra Filharmònica Barcelonesa ha terminat la sèrie de concerts que es proposà donar durant l'octubre. En nostra darrera revista ens ocupàrem de les dues primeres audicions. Sentits los dos concerts que faltaven per a completar l'abono, resulta que el segon haurà sigut lo millor de la temporada; en ell se'ns donà a conèixer una firma de primera força, en Reger amb sa Serenata en quatre parts, model de música simfònica, quina audició mai podrem agrair prou al mestre Lassalle, i com a valor d'interpretació ens feren sentir la Sèptima simfonia de Beethoven, que potser ha sigut l'obra millor interpretada en aquests concerts.

Los programes del tercer i quart oferiren molt interès, cosa gens nova, tractant-se de l'orquestra del mestre Lassalle, figurant en primer terme la Segona simfonia d'en Bruckner i Faust-Symphonie de Liszt. L'obra d'en Bruckner no arriba de molt al mèrit que té la romàntica del mateix autor, però, de tant en tant, ja s'hi descobreix quelcom de lo que havia d'ésser lo mestre. Té trossos d'una ingenuïtat extraordinària: lo scherzo, per exemple. En canvi, lo final és magre; se veu que l'autor no dominava prou la forma.

Lo Faust de Liszt agradà a tothom perquè va bé amb totes les tendències. Tan aviat hi predomina l'efectisme exagerat, com la idea més delicada i sentida. Dels tres fragments de què es composa, Gretchen és lo més poètic. Recorda molt un conegudíssim tros de música de Wagner: és lo que deia un concurrent «se veu que té aire de família». En conjunt Faust-Symphonie està molt per sobre del Tasso del mateix Liszt que ens donà a conèixer l'any passat en lo Liceu son net Siegfried Wagner.

En lo concert de despedida s'executà una obra per a quintet de corda del mestre Garreta amb lo títol d'Impressions simfòniques, que té fragments de molta inspiració. A l'arribar al darrer temps dels quatre de què es compon, se nota una certa pesadesa, deguda tal volta a que el procediment empleat per l'autor no s'avé prou amb l'extensió que té dit fragment. Lo públic cridà a l'autor.

En resum, aquesta temporada ha sigui brillant, i encara que el públic en los primers concerts no fou tot lo nombrós que hauríem desitjat, en los darrers s'apresurà a ocupar casi totes les localitats del teatre, fent justícia als executants i a son mestre, lo senyor Lassalle, aplaudint-los amb entusiasme.

No som dels que creiem que l'Orquestra Filharmònica hagi arribat ja al cap de munt, però la immensa millora que senyalarem en la darrera revista musical, respecte de lo que feia l'any passat, nos fa pensar en que no és llunyana l'hora d'arribar-hi. Ademés, a la força ha de cridar l'atenció dels intel·ligents l'afany del mestre Lassalle de donar-nos a conèixer tantes obres importants de les modernes escoles, i de protegir als compositors de casa fent que figuri dignament sa música en los programes de la Filharmònica.

"CONCERT EMILI SAUER.— El segon i últim donat al teatre Principal per aquest eminent pianista no fou més que prova justificada del renom que ha pres entre els que valen. És cert que en algunes oracions, com succeí amb la Sonata patètica de Beethoven, posa per damunt de la veritat l'exigència del virtuós, però no es pot negar la seva facilitat en ductilitzar les sonoritats fins a un grau inconcebible.

L'Impromptu de Schubert, l'Scherzo de Brahms i la Polonaise en La ♭ de Chopin, és allí a on ens agradà més de la primera part; de la segona, l'Stacatto-Étude de Rubinstein, amb ses grans dificultats, fou una filigrana d'execució, igual que la seva Serenade française.

Vàrem dir en el primer concert que en Sauer estava encara en la plenitud de facultats, en el segon ho ha confirmat i el públic li reconegué aplaudint-lo en gran i fent-li repetir la mentada Serenade francesa."

"El cor infantil Mossèn Cinto demà prendrà part en la funció de la nit del teatre Principal, executant diferents composicions de les més escollides del seu repertori.

Els pares dels deixebles que desitgin assistir a la funció, serveixin-se passar pel local de l'Escola, Consell de Cent, 403, de dotze a una, on se'ls enterarà dels preus especials als quals poden adquirir entrades i localitats."

Abonament del Centre Nacionalista Republicà

"Val la pena fer constar la bona idea que han tingut els del Centre Nacionalista Republicà al fer-se empresa un dia a la setmana, durant la temporada d'hivern del teatre Principal, a fi de poder donar representacions de teatre català a quines s'hi poden abonar tots els qui ho desitgin per sèries de quatre funcions, servint sols per les localitats, puig el quart pis, o sigui, les entrades de públic, que té una cabuda de quatre-centes persones, seran repartides de franc entre les societats obreres.

No cal fer constar que aplaudim amb entusiasme la iniciativa del Centre Nacionalista Republicà que tant se preocupa per la cultura dels obrers catalans."

"Mañana miércoles por la noche tendrá lugar en el teatro Principal la primera velada de abono organizada por el Centre Nacionalista Republicà, poniéndose en escena la obra de Pin i Soler, Sogre i nora, y el cuadro lírico de Rusiñol y Morera, L'alegria que passa.

Pasado mañana jueves empezará sus funciones en dicho teatro la Tertúlia Barcelonesa, representándose la obra de Pitarra Lo rector de Vallfogona y la comedia lírica Els entremaliats."

"Vetllades del C. N. R.— El teatre Principal oferia anit un bell espectacle, amb motiu de donar-hi el Centre Nacionalista Republicà la segona de les seves vetllades líric-dramàtiques. Llotges i butaques estaven ocupades, en casi sa totalitat, per una distingida concurrència, entre la que hi destacaven elegants senyores i senyoretes, i coneguts homes públics. Els actors demostraren bona voluntat en la interpretació de les obres del triat programa, aconseguint treure un conjunt apreciable que els hi valgué llargs aplaudiments.

Pot estar ben satisfet el C. N. R. del resultat d'aquestes vetllades, que resulten per son interès artístic i per sa concurrència un veritable èxit."

"Teatre Principal. Vetllades del C. N. R.— Malgrat la pluja copiosa que caigué tota la nit, el teatre Principal se veié anit concorridíssim. Se pot dir que la majoria dels socis del C. N. R. amb ses famílies acudiren al vell colisseu, que presentava un brillant aspecte.

Foren posades en escena Mossen Janot d'en Guimerà i Les roselles d'en Jordà i l'Esquerrà, obtenint ambdues produccions una justa interpretació, especialment per part dels senyors Barbosa i Giménez i de les senyores Morera i Baró, que encarnaren perfectament els personatges que els hi eren encomanats."

Abonament de Teatre Aulés

"S'anuncia una sèrie de representacions Aulés, que es donaran els dissabtes, posant-se obres exclusivament d'aquest celebrat autor còmic. Ell mateix pregona la pensada, amb uns versos que no careixen de gràcia:

El programa és divertit:
vinguin com qui acaba a cal metge, que el riure és molt bo pel fetge
i fins obre l'apetit.

No escric res transcendental, ni res que entristeixi el viure.
Tot broma. Els que vulguin riure que vinguin al Principal.

Que l'Aulés lograrà despertar les rialles dels seus millors dies, no en tenim cap dubte, com no en tenim tampoc de que el públic se prestarà gustós a una tan joiosa i agradable experiència."

Vetllades de beneficència

"La comissió organitzadora de les funcions de moda titulades "Vetllades de beneficència", que tindran lloc els dilluns en el teatre Principal, ens prega fem avinent als abonats a les susdites funcions que des d'avui poden recollir els seus carnets d'abonament a l'administració del teatre."

"Avui tindrà lloc en el teatre Principal una vetllada extraordinària a favor dels perjudicats per les inundacions de Màlaga.

En aquesta vetllada es donarà la interessant represa del sainet escrit en català i castellà titulat El cafè de Barcelona per don Ramón de la Cruz, que s'estrenà fa 119 anys amb el motiu de la inauguració del teatre Principal. En aquest sainet hi ha també números musicals que han sigut instrumentats pel mestre Oró."

Festa onomàstica de don Carles de Borbó

"En el teatro Principal tuvo lugar anoche la anunciada velada artística, literaria y política para celebrar la fiesta onomástica del duque de Madrid. El viejo coliseo presentaba un golpe de vista magnífico. En palcos y butacas veíanse muchas señoras elegantemente ataviadas. Ocupaba el centro del escenario un soberbio retrato de don Carlos bajo un amplio dosel de las cuatro barras.

La entrada del señor Salaberry en el escenario acompañado del jefe regional señor Erasmo de Janer y de los señores duque de Solferino, Roma, Fortuny, Bordas, Alier Junyent, Pericas y otros, fue recibida con una tempestad de aplausos. Los referidos señores ocuparon la mesa presidencial.

Empezó el acto con la marcha de don Carlos, y a continuación los señores Negre y Roca leyeron dos composiciones poéticas, y la orquesta del teatro tocó la sardana de La santa espina y un motivo sobre La presó de Lleida. Hizo luego uso de la palabra el señor Salaberry, quien justificó plenamente la fama de elocuente orador de que venía precedido.

Empezó dedicando un saludo en nombre del pueblo del Guernikako-arbola al de la sardana. Entrando después en materia, hizo una calurosa defensa del regionalismo, cuyo resurgimiento atribuye al partido carlista, de cuyo programa forma parte integrante, y se declaró entusiasta admirador de Cataluña y de la Solidaridad.

Dijo que no son separatistas los que quieren el engrandecimiento de su región para gloria de España, sino los que siembran y fomentan odios entre unas regiones y otras. Antes —añadió— apenas si se hablaba tímidamente de Cataluña en el Congreso; hoy está en todos los labios y su nombre levanta aplausos, aunque algunos sean de Judas, pero de Judas y todo, son aplausos. Atacó rudamente el centralismo, causa de los males que sufre España, teniendo palabras de censura para los firmantes del tratado de París, y a continuación bosquejó a grandes rasgos el programa tradicionalista con los tres grandes ideales que encarna bandera.

Terminó su discurso el señor Salaberry, frecuentemente interrumpido por los aplausos del auditorio, entonando un himno a la mujer y aconsejando a las madres que eduquen a sus hijos católicos, carlistas y amantes de su patria.

Acallada la ovación indescriptible que se hizo al orador, asociándose a ella las señoras; los coros y orquesta del teatro cantaron un himno bélico dedicado a don Carlos, letra del señor Roma y música del presbítero don J. M. V. Al concluir repitiose la ovación.

El señor don Mariano Fortuny, en nombre del jefe regional, dio las gracias a los asistentes y a los que habían cooperado al mejor éxito de la fiesta, terminando con un viva... a lo que está en todos los corazones carlistas.

En la segunda parte del programa figuraban el cuadro lírico Les roselles y la visión musical Joan de l'Ós. En resumen, fue una agradable velada."

Incident de rebuig a l'òpera italiana al Principal

"Ahir a la tarda van ocórrer alguns incidents al teatre Principal per haver-se posat en escena una obra que no va ser de l'agrado d'alguns espectadors. Hi van haver d'intervenir els agents de l'autoritat, els quals van expulsar del local a dos concurrents.

Vàries persones van anar a formular observacions al senyor Graner, el qual va manifestar-los-hi que aquesta temporada no fa d'empresari com les temporades anteriors i que únicament se cuidava de la direcció de la sala Mercè.

Per la seva part, l'actual direcció artística del Principal ens prega que fem constar que, si va decidir-se posar el Barber de Sevilla, va ser tenint en compte el fet de ser l'esmentada obra generalment admesa i considerada com a clàssica. Per altra banda, ens diu aquella direcció artística que cal tenir present que el Don Basilio no té cap caràcter sacerdotal, malgrat lo que pugui fer creure el trajo poc propi amb què és costum vestir-lo."

"[...] No fem gresca, no fem gresca! Si no això aviat semblarà els Quatre Gats, i ara que parlo de gats: uns quants magarrufosos moveren fa ara quinze dies xivarri perquè en el Barber de Sevilla hi havia un personatge (D. Bassili) que cobrava inconscientment per embrolles. Certa part del públic protestà., lo que valgué una forta increpació per part dels que volien tallar les ungles als gats. Així hem arribat? No n'hi ha per tant senyors miraculosos. No tot han de ser infantileres: també hi cap entre la moralitat, la sàtira d'en Beaumarchais, d'en Molière i d'altres, reconegudíssims com mestres en la literatura estrangera. [...]

"Les da grima a los señores virtuosos espectadores del teatro Principal mirar entre bastidores el hábito clerical.

Y no he de ser yo quien halle pelos a su justa ira y hasta parece mentira que del público no estalle en la mismísima calle."

El descamisado 76 (15/11/1907), p. 4.

"Están que echan chispas los solidarios con motivo del gran festival verificado en la Casa del Pueblo últimamente.

No les cabe en la cabeza que asistieran artistas del Liceo, de la compañía de Tina Lorenzo y de todos los teatros, salvo Romea y el Principal, que, como son catalanistas, no se les quiso invitar para que no se durmiese el público de la Casa del Pueblo. Y lo peor es que los artistas salieron archisatisfechos de las demostraciones de afecto que se les dispensaron y de las pruebas de cultura de que fueron testigos.

En fin, que se convencieron de que cuantos están con Alejandro Lerroux son bastante más decentes que sus detractores. La rabia fue morrocotuda."

El descamisado 101 (08/05/1908), p. 4.

Funció del dia d'innocents

"TEATRE PRINCIPAL. Avui, tarda, a les cinc, funció d'innocents: La dida seca; a les sis, La dida seca i presentació d'alguns estrafolaris que debutaran. Nit, a les nou, funció extraordinària d'innocents: La dida seca; entreacte grotesc; estrena d'El manyà de la placeta; debut d'una gran companyia estrafolària arribada del Japó amb el famós Kakú; estrena d'Il castello di Malastruga, òpera bilingüe en un acte. [...]"

El Poble català 680 (28/12/1907), p. 4.

"En el teatro se dan muchas veces durante el año verdaderas inocentadas, que no se anuncian como tales, porque sus autores creen haber hecho algo con intención y gracia, que luego no parece por ninguna parte. El público entonces se llama a engaño, porque no es tan inocente como se figuran no pocos autores y algunas empresas, y protesta de la pretendida tomadura de pelo.

Hoy el público no tiene derecho a reclamaciones ni a protestas, si la función no es de su agrado por inocente, pues está avisado con la debida anticipación y sabe a qué atenerse. Le anuncian sorpresas, y agradable o tristemente tiene que sorprenderse.

En el Principal, por ejemplo, habrá una Dida seca, que no hace falta de otra clase para un público que no se halla en el período de la lactancia. Después se presentará El manyà de la placeta, y debutará Kakú, un japonés falsificado, que tiene todas las claves del «Ju-jut-su». Seguirá a la lucha japonesa la presentación de una compañía de ópera, que cantará Il castello di Malastruga, ópera bilingüe. [...]."

El Noticiero Universal (28/12/1907), p. 1.

"El dissabte, com que era la diada dels innocents, vaig fer la mar de broma, anant tota la nit de Romea al Principal i del Principal a Romea per a disfrutar de les innocentades que feien ambdós teatres. Resultat, que vaig fer els gegants tota la nit i només me vaig enterar a mitges. [...] Arribo just, just per veure El manyà de la placeta, sainet d'en Brossa i Sangerman que resulta distret i s'assembla una mica amb els d'en Vilanova, menos una tersa, perquè a n'en Vilanova per ara no l'ha igualat ningú. Amb tot, pot anar El manyà de la placeta.

[...] I em va agradar força un intermedi d'en Santpere i en Barbosa en què fan de clowns, i també em va agradar la paròdia d'en Raku i del seu ajudant, feta pel mateix Santpere i en Morató, als que presenta en Puiggarí. Sino que varen fer-ho tan fort, que una senyoreta anomenada Piquer (o Piquereta) va desmaiar-se, per lo qual se va haver de suspendre la lluita.

Lo que em va fer venir ganes de protestar va ser Il castello di Malastruga, obra d'en Lambert Escaler, amb música bona de diferents mestres. [...] Sort que Il castello di Malastruga també em va divertir, sinó, ens hauríem vist les cares amb l'autor.

I ara, si algú troba que he destinat massa espai a les innocentades, que dispensi; a mi sempre m'entretenen aquestes coses. Està clar que la majoria no tenen res que veure amb la literatura, però tantes coses hi ha que no hi tenen a veure i em fan riure! Doncs, prenem-s'ho alegrement, ve'ls-hi aquí.

Cu-cut! 294 (02/01/1908), pp. 7–8.

"La funció d'innocents va portar molta gent frisosa de fruir les bromes anunciades. En altre part donem compte de les obres estrenades, que resultaren totes d'èxit. A més, en Santpere, acompanyat d'un que feia de pallasso, va entretenir un bon rato amb ses agudeses. També feu una bonica paròdia del Rakú, amb la ajuda d'en Marató i en Puiggarí."

La Escena catalana 66 (04/01/1908), p. 3.

"[...] El Principal ens va donar en innocentades el sainet d'en Brossa i Sangerman El manyà de la placeta, en el que l'autor segueix amb relatiu acert les petjades del mestre costumista que va ser l'Emili Vilanova. També es va estrenar una espatotxada de l'Autlés, titulada La dida seca i una altra d'en Lambert Escaler, amb música adaptada de diferents obres conegudes. Aquesta darrera, titulada Il castello di Malastruga, dintre el gènere d'innocentada, resulta divertida, fent néixer les rialles a còpia de recursos de farsa molt ben trobats.

Resum teatral de 1907

"Balanç teatral de 1907

Comença l'any desenterrant-se la famosa sarsueleta d'en Frederic Soler La rambla de las flors, i de seguida, amb l'esplendidesa a què en Graner ens té acostumats, s'estrena La santa espina, lletra d'en Guimerà i música del mestre Morera; obra de gran espectacle en la que s'hi llueixen tant els escenògrafs com els autors, però que no dona el resultat que deuria dar a l'empresa degut a la crisis bombera perquè està atravessant la ciutat. — L'ajudant se titulà un eixerit passatemps arreglat pel Sr. Puiggarí amb música del mestre Grant, que s'escolta amb complacència.

Durant la Quaresma, l'orquestra Filharmònica Barcelonesa dona alguns concerts baix la experta direcció del Sr. Lassalle, mestre jove, intel·ligent, briós, que domina el seu art, donant justos relleus a les obres que interpreta. Els programes són notables, a pesar de lo qual el públic no és molt numerés. El primer de dits concerts el formen tres magistrals simfonies de Haydn, Beethoven i Bruckner, que venen a ser tres plats forts i exquisits. I amb el mateix succés se donen els altres concerts de la sèrie anunciats, en els quals s'hi donen a conèixer algunes novetats, composicions de Schubert, Brahms, Cessar Franck, etc. Els que van a càrrec de l'Orfeó Català resulten també verdaders aconteixements artístics.

També dintre la Quaresma i per a la Quaresma escrita s'estrena amb acceptació La resurrecció de Llàtzer, quadret emocionant d'en Guimerà amb il·lustracions d'en Morera. — Un gran triomf obtingut per l'eminent pianista Malats cal anotar-se en aquest punt, qui a l'interpretar dos peces noves del nostre paisà Albéniz va guanyar-se una colossal ovació que compartí amb el compositor. — Hansel und Gretel, traduït al català per Maragall, esdevé un gran èxit baix la interpretació esmerada dels artistes de can Graner. — Una comtessa de 18 anys, la Morsztyn, se dona a conèixer com a pianista davant dels nostres filharmònics. L'elegància del seu art sedueix a l'auditori. — La Maria Gay ens fa sentir una Carmen única i excepcional. La gent de bé s'esvalota al veure-la moure's i sentir-la cantar. — El famós pianista Raoul Pugno ens favoreix amb dos esplèndids recitats. — En Risler li va al darrere... i casi li passa al davant en lo que toca a veure's ovacionat. — S'estrenen seguidament amb regular acceptació: Mirallets per a caçar aloses, arreglo de Puiggarí; Joves i vells, d'en Fuentes; No ho sé i Amor telefònic, de l'Aulés; L'encís dels 18 anys, d'en Crehuet. — Més concerts d'en Lassalle amb la Filarmónica... i és clar, més èxits. — Unes quantes funcions a càrrec de la Vitaliani desensopeixen una mica al veterano Principal.

Al final del setembre s'obren altra vegada les portes per a les temporades de tardor i hivern, amb la novetat de las elyes. Inaugura amb Joan de l'Ós, una rondalla enginyosa de l'Apel·les Mestres que es representa amb èxit, doncs a demés de que la lletra és com és, la música es deixa escoltar com a filla d'en Morera. Estalonen a aquesta obra Els entremaliats, d'en Figueres i en Font, música de Salvat, que passa i res més; Florida eterna, quadret d'en Pomés, que també passa; Pas de comèdia d'en Barbosa, diàleg sense pretensions; Les roselles, d'en Jordà, ben escrita, però mansoia; El cafè de Barcelona (Ramón de la Cruz) amb música del mestre Oró, que es guanya la curiositat de la gent.

Alternen amb aquestes funcions altres concerts d'en Lassalle que són més concorreguts que els anteriors i en els que es donen obres d'importància i desconegudes dels nostres amateurs. — S'estrena l'obra d'en Morató Un racó de món, que no convenç; Sí natural de l'Aulés, que entreté; L'hort d'en Churrumeco, que no mereix l'honor de ser cronicat; Lo fill del rei, bonica visió musical de Marinel·lo i Argelaga; la traducció del D. Joan de Molière, que no resulta; A peu pla, de l'Aulés i el mestre Alfonso, passadora; Rodamon, visió desgraciada de la Sra. Freixas, amb lletra encarregada a n'en Nogueras Oller; No diguis blat, també de l'Aulés, amb música escaienta de Borràs de Palau. — Els gendarmes (Morató i Sadurní), que es fa un grapat de vegades; La festa dels àngels, del Sr. Marxuac, melodramet innocentó; T'estimo, arreglo de molta gresca degut al Sr. Puiggarí; La festa de las donzelles, de Rivas i Esquerrà, que s'aguanta per la música; i el quadret d'en Duquesnel Por! molt ben adaptat pel Sr. Sicars."

Inici de la temporada d'hivern

"Ha debutat l'actor Ballart, galan jove avantatjat, que substitueix a en Barbosa. Per dijous està fixat l'estrena de La reina vella, de Guimerà i Morera, amb decorat exprofés.

I ara, un parèntesi.

A tots els que ens pregunten qui és l'actor "Ximeniç", devem contestar-lis que és el primer galan de la casa, l'insigne Enric Gimenez, qui es veu motejat pels cartells anunciadors i programes i d'ells copiàvem nosaltres son cognom. A fi d'evitar confusions, tornarem a anomenar a aquest artista tal com se mereix, puig creiem que la llibertat de canviar-li el cognom sols pot prendrer-se-la qui exerceix influencia sobre ell."

La Escena catalana 67 (11/01/1908), p. 3.

"Demà començarà un nou abonament a les funcions de moda del teatre Principal. Segons noves que tenim, aquest promet ésser molt nombrós, puig en les llistes hi figuren personalitats de la nostra societat més distingida.

Els organitzadors d'aquestes funcions anuncien que queden abonades totes les llotgetes, no quedant per a ésser-ho més que alguns sillons de pati."

El Poble català 702 (19/01/1908), p. 3.

Matinées

"Llindíssimes i altament dignes dels organitzadors seran les dues "matinées" que tindran lloc al teatre Principal.

La primera se celebrarà demà, dimecres, i, a jutjar per la llista de famílies abonades, podem avençar que serà una festa brillantíssima a la qual assistiran les més aristocràtiques famílies de nostra bona societat.

Recordem entre les abonades les següents: marquesos d'Oliver, de Sitja, Bosch i Alsina, Rosal, baronessa de Salillas, Parellada, Sanz Selma, Reinoso, Mercader, Ponsich, Salas, marquesos de Puerto Nuevo, Lloranch, Fontcuberta, Zarraya, Rodríguez, comtes de Sicart, Sagnier, Puig i Mir, Pons i Henrich, Sadabell, Regordosa, Mònaco, Pozo, Massó, Golferichs, Singià, Garí, Rusiñol, Andreu, Bernet i Amat.

Donarem d'aqueixes matinées les degudes notícies."

"La comissió organitzadora de les "matinées" al teatre Principal ens comunica que la celebració de la segona festa, que devia tenir lloc demà, dilluns, s'ha aplaçat per al dimarts, dia 25, a les cinc de la tarda."

Sèrie a benefici de l'ensenyança catalana i carnaval infantil

"Diverses entitats catalanistes, a fi d'afavorir l'ensenyança catalana, han acordat organitzar en el teatre Principal una tanda de vetllades que tindran lloc els dimarts de cada setmana."

El Poble català 738 (24/02/1908), p. 4.

"En la festa infantil que tindrà lloc demà en el teatre Principal actuaran de jurat els senyors Utrillo, Escaler, Ximeniç [Giménez] i Puiggarí. En el primer intermedi, després del fallo del jurat, seran repartits els premis a les disfresses més elegants i artístiques. [...]

Demà, tarda, a les quatre, funció completa dedicada als nois i noies disfressats, esplèndids regals a les millors disfresses, Casament per força, desfilada i repartiment de regals a les disfresses premiades, La reina vella. [...]"

El Poble català 745 (02/03/1908), p. 2.

"Associació Protectora de l'Ensenyança Catalana.— Demà dimarts tindrà lloc al teatre Principal la primera funció de la sèrie organitzada a benefici d'aquesta benemèrita entitat. Tenint en compte l'acció patriòtica i de cultura que porta a cap dita associació, és de suposar seran un èxit aquestes representacions. Podem avençar que famílies molt distingides s'han abonat ja i que entre les entitats nacionalistes ha frapat molt aquesta iniciativa, cosa lògica, perquè tothom veu amb gran simpatia tot lo que tendeix, com aquestes funcions, a fomentar les escoles catalanes."

"Demà, dimarts, en el teatre Principal, amb motiu de celebrar-se la segona funció a benefici de l'Associació Protectora de l'Ensenyança Catalana, se representarà el nou drama de don Joaquim Riera i Bertran, expresident de dita entitat, Cadena d'amor i la visió musical La llar.

Tenint en compte lo triat del programa i el fi benèfic de la vetllada, és d'esperar que es veurà força concorreguda."

El Poble català 759 (16/03/1908), p. 4.

Beneficis dels actors de la companyia

"Principal.— Benefici de la Maria Morera.

Feia goig el Principal ahir a la nit. Les simpaties que aquesta notable artista s'ha sabut guanyar entre el nostre públic i les obres anunciades en el cartell varen omplir el teatre d'un públic distingidíssim que aplaudí merescudament el treball de l'actriu.

Els nostres lectors coneixen ja prou l'obra d'en Puiggarí Mirallets per a caçar aloses, i saben com interpreta la Morera el difícil paper que hi juga, i no cal parlar de La reina vella, on l'artista fa una verdadera creació del paper de la protagonista.

En ambdues estigué ahir millor, si cap, en obsequi al públic que acudí al teatre, per a mostrar-li les seves simpaties. Però una sorpresa ens havia reservat, i era l'important paper que segons el repartiment anunciat anteriorment tenia en l'obra d'en Ferran Agulló El sometent de Girona, la qual amb tot i haver sigut estrenada temps enrere, era nova per al públic del Principal.

El quadro de l'Agulló és un episodi del siti de Girona; en ell hi palpita la tràgica intensitat d'aquest gènere d'obres, el dolor d'una família qui té el cap de casa lluitant per la terra... En les escenes hi ha l'emoció de la inquietud i el terror d'una possible mort en la lluita. Potser la persistència d'aquesta emoció, que en alguna moments té força intensitat artística, ho fa un xic pesat.

La Morera desempenyà el seu paper amb amor d'artista. En les actituds hermoses d'una mare que defensa en els seus de les armes del tirà i en el dir les belles paraules heroiques que l'Agulló ha posat en aquesta escena està el mèrit cabdal de la seva obra, que, a l'acabar, fou sorollosament aplaudida, essent cridat l'autor a les taules.

Seguint l'ordre del programa de la vetllada, se representà a continuació La reina vella, de la qual hem parlat anteriorment, i l'obra d'artista que la Morera va fer de tots els papers desempenyats durant la vetlla, va ésser premiada amb una llarga i carinyosa ovació, acompanyada de rams de flors que de tots cantons del teatre queien als peus de la beneficiada, a qui el públic no parava d'aplaudir, ben merescudament, per cert."

"Anit va celebrar-se el benefici d'en Giménez, havent-hi assistit un públic nombrós i triat. Fresca encara l'estrena de Papà Ministre, no cal repetir els elogis que vàrem fer amb semblant ocasió del treball del beneficiat en l'esmentada obra, que va ser la que va escollir per a la vetllada. Com a final va donar-se La reina vella, que va ser celebrada com de costum. El benefici va rebre molts aplaudiments del públic i nombrosos presents dels seus amics i admiradors."

La Veu de Catalunya 3156 (05/02/1908), ed. matí, p. 4.

"La setmana passada tingué lloc el benefici de la superba actriu Maria Morera, que tant en Mirallets com en El sometent de Girona i La reina vella estigué a l'envejable altura que ens té acostumats.

El nombrós públic que omplia el coliseu va demostrar-li admiració i acatament amb inacabables aplaudiments i sembrant una pluja de flors damunt el prosceni.

Dimarts passat celebrà el benefici el notabilíssim primer actor i director de la companyia, Enric Giménez. Representà la preciosa obra de Rovetta, traducció de l'eminent novel·lista Narcís Oller, Papà Ministre, en quina execució hi conquistà estrepitosos aplaudiments el beneficiat.

Dimarts vinent li tocarà el torn al gran Santpere, amb les obres: Casament per força, Els entremaliats, Picarol i La reina vella.

Tractant-se d'aquest actor,
ànima d'aquest teatre,
èxit no s'ha de combatre,
té d'ésser archisuperior."

La Escena catalana 71 (08/02/1908), p. 4.

"Principal.— El martes celebrará su beneficio, en este teatro, la eminente actriz Emilia Basó, indudablemente el alma artista más grande con que cuenta el teatro catalán. Sin duda alguna el teatro se verá completamente lleno con motivo de este beneficio, a propósito del cual hablaremos largamente."

La Publicidad 4223 (14/02/1908), p. 3.

"PRINCIPAL.— Se ha celebrado en este teatro, con un lleno completo, la función a beneficio de la excelente actriz Emília Baró. En El miracle de Santa Agnés y en La reina vella cosechó la beneficiada grandes aplausos, como de costumbre, por su meritísima labor. Entre una y otra obra se verificó el estreno de La novela de una noia, traducción de Narciso Oller, en la cual Emília Baró interpretó deliciosamente un tipo de ingenua secundada por el primer actor señor Giménez."

El Noticiero Universal 7007 (20/02/1908), p. 2.

"PRINCIPAL.— Anoche se verificó en este teatro el beneficio del aplaudido actor cómico D. Lluís Puiggarí, viéndose la sala selectamente concurrida.

El señor actor cosechó muchos aplausos en la interpretación del graciosísimo sainete Permeti'm, del que es autor el beneficiado.

En el programa figuraban además La mà de mico y La reina vella, que, como en las representaciones anteriores, fueron estrepitosamente aplaudidas por el auditorio."

La Publicidad (26/02/1908), ed. matí, p. 5.

"PRINCIPAL.— El benefici del baix senyor Giralt va dur a n'aquest teatre una concurrència molt nombrosa, atreta tant per la simpatia envers el beneficiat com per lo escollit del programa. Varen posar-se en escena La reina vella i El fill del rei i el beneficiat va cantar, junt a la senyoreta Darnis, el duo dels Hugonots, fent-ho ambdós amb gran ajust.

Además, en un intermedi va haver-hi concert, cantant la senyoreta Morató l'ària del tercer acte de Carmen i estrenant el senyor Giralt la cançó Deseiximent del mestre Borràs de Palau i Viggianese del mestre Bosch. La del senyor Palau té un sabor català molt escaient i una factura exquisida. La del mestre Bosch és treballada en la part orquestral i inspirada en la melodia. Ambdós autors varen ser cridats a l'escena.

Además, l'actor còmic còmic senyor Santpere va recitar amb molta gràcia i al final amb molt sentiment el monòleg de D. Lambert Escaler Entreacte.

El beneficiat va rebre moltes ovacions i presents dels seus amics i admiradors."

La Veu de Catalunya 3198 (18/03/1908), ed. matí, p. 4.

"El monòleg Entreacte d'Escaler, representat pel gran Santpere, va resultar bé per l'autor i l'intèrpret en la funció donada a benefici del cantant Conrat Giralt, on també hi va prendre part la Sra. Dernis, cantant del Liceu, qui representà junt amb el beneficiat un fragment de l'òpera Gli ugonotti.

Avui, dissabte, benefici del primer galan jove còmic, el simpàtic Ferran Capdevila Guerra, qui ha escollit un bonic programa del que en formen part les comèdies Agència d'informes comercials, Cura de moro i La reina vella.

Com que aquest actor per ara sembla que bé les enfila, tot i sent molt jove encara, auguro que en Capdevila farà recordar a son pare.

Tenim noves de que per la present quaresma se representarà a tot gasto el gran drama sacro de Guimerà Jesús de Nazaret.

Ah! Me'n descuidava; per dimarts, benefici de l'apreciable actor Ginestet, amb escollit programa."

La Escena catalana 77 (21/03/1908), p. 6.

"PRINCIPAL.— Ayer se celebró en este teatro el beneficio del actor Emili Ginestet, con las obras El contramestre, Entreactes y La reina vella. La concurrencia era numerosa y el beneficiado fue muy agasajado y aplaudido."

La Publicidad (24/03/1908), ed. nit, p. 3.

Bandera catalana durant la visita del rei

"Saludando a la bandera catalana

Al pasar don Alfonso frente al teatro Principal, se ha fijado en la bandera catalana que cubría por completo el balcón de dicho coliseo. La ha saludado militarmente siguiendo la comitiva su marcha en dirección a la iglesia de la Merced. Mientras pasaba el rey por las Ramblas, echáronse al vuelo las campanas de la catedral y de casi todas las parroquias."

La Veu de Catalunya 3192 (11/03/1908), ed. vespre, p. 2.

50 aniversari dels Jocs Florals

"[...] Sorprenent era l'alenada de poesia que purificava la sala d'un teatre o de la Llotja, quan se llegien estrofes d'un d'aqueixos intrusos genials; perquè els Jocs no han estat poesia, sinó diversió tradicionalista per tendència i vulgarota d'expressió, de versos coixos, de paraules carrinclones. Per aqueixa mena d'intolerable regionalisme no hi val la Solidaritat. Com a manifestació d'art, d'art fals; és una malura que torna, i tinc por que costarà molt acabar-la. Perquè l'esperit dels Jocs Florals, fixeu-s'hi bé, és el de les altres manifestacions més o menys artístiques que han triomfat a Barcelona. L'empresa d'en Graner al Principal i a la sala Mercè ha sigut un Jocs Florals amb decoracions i musiqueta; com l'Orfeó Català és, en essència, uns Jocs Florals cantats. L'art de debò —superior a la moral, a les conveniències i als poders— és, en aqueixes manifestacions, purament accidental. Primer se pensa en la causa, que es posa sota la bandera de Catalunya; religió, autoritat, diner... [...]

Temporada d'estiu

"Es fàcil que la companyia Morera-Gimenez, un cop acabada la temporada en el teatre de Santa Creu, dongui algunes representacions en distints pobles de les obres que han estrenat amb més èxit, començant en el teatre Principal de Sabadell, a on s'hi posaran La santa espina, La reina vella, Joan de l'Ós i altres. Li augurem un èxit.

[...]

Per lo bé que amb la indumentària imitava a la Reina vella una disfressa que va assistir al primer ball del Liceu, el jurat li concedí el premi d'una polsera d'or.

Lo que deia la Morera
el vespre que ho comentava:
—Ja ho crec si s'hi assembla al meu vestit, com que ho era!"

La Escena catalana 72 (15/02/1908), p. 7.

"En ple èxit de Detective, acaba la temporada el dia 8 de juny. Preparin-se nostres pobles veïns a saludar aquesta companyia tal com se mereix.

A més dels artistes que anunciarem, contractats ja per la temporada vinent, hem d'afegir-hi a la dama ingènua Margarida Xirgu."

La Escena catalana 87 (30/05/1908), p. 5.

"PRINCIPAL. Dilluns vinent, despido de la companyia amb l'obra del dia El detective Sherlock Holmes. Aquesta companyia, un xic variada, puig ara es compondrà de les dames Sres. Morera, Marsal, Balestroni, Guerra, Batlle, Piqué, i dels actors Giménez, Santpere, Bozzo, Vinyals, Barbosa, Ballart, Capdevila (Ferran), Amorós, Cervera, Mas i Pons, començarà la setmana entrant una tournée per Catalunya, donant a conèixer la famosa obra de Conan Doyle."

La Escena catalana 88 (06/06/1908), p. 2.

Traspàs de l'empresa a la companyia Giménez-Morera

"Hem sentit a dir, i, cuando el río suena, agua lleva, que per la temporada d'hivern vinent desfruitarem de tres teatres catalans. A saber:

Romea, el clàssic i indispensable Romea, amb escollida i variada companyia, amb figures repetides per multiplicar-se i triplicar-se si convé, de quin primer galan encara no ens han donat permís per divulgar-lo.

Principal, que, avinguts amb en Graner, se'l queda la mateixa empresa que l'explota actualment; les primeres figures Morera, Giménez i Santpere, l'excel·lent tercet! Dels demés no en sabem res en concret.

Novetats. Companyia dirigida per l'Enric Borràs amb son germà Jaume, potser també amb en Daroqui, potser amb en Puiggarí, potser amb en Tor, potser amb la Xirgu... potser... tot plegat serà una bola, no ho sabem.

I de tot lo que hem dit, no estem disposats a declarar-ho davant de cap tribunal.

Són noves que asseguro que no invento;
les he sentit voltant, fent d'espieta,
per això repetiré, com el poeta,
tal como lo contaron, te lo cuento."

La Escena catalana 86 (23/05/1908), p. 7.

Aquesta secció inclou notícies, entrevistes i records dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner més enllà del seu tancament, remarcant l'empremta que l'empresa va deixar a la memòria teatral catalana i al desenvolupament, en general, del moviment del teatre líric català. Cal fer abans, però, un resum dels últims esdeveniments que van tenir lloc entre Lluís Graner i l'Hospital de la Santa Creu com a propietari del teatre Principal (basat principalment en la documentació epistolar i informes que romanen a l'arxiu d'aquesta institució) i de l'esdevenir de la companyia de teatre català que operava al Principal.

Tot i que havia delegat en la pràctica la direcció de l'empresa que ocupava el teatre Principal, i fins i tot el seu cognom havia caigut del títol de l'empresa, Graner va seguir rebent multes i sancions econòmiques com a últim responsable del teatre.

A les acaballes de 1907 i de nou al febrer de 1908, rep diversos avisos perquè els espectadors fumen a la sala d'espectacles i l'empresa ocupa espais comuns de l'edifici, amb eventualment una multa de 50 pessetes. Tot i que demana que li retirin la multa per estar absent en aquest període, al maig se la tornen a imposar perquè es repeteixen els fets. A més, els problemes amb els incendis de teatres que succeïen a la ciutat i les mesures de seguretat exigides van exigir que es projectés al desembre de 1908 una reforma del teatre per complir amb les noves normatives de seguretat, especialment per evacuació en cas d'incendi, que havia de cobrir el llogater.

La junta de l'Hospital anomena a Ricardo Canals com a nou interventor del teatre al gener de 1909, qui a partir d'ara haurà de lidiar entre Graner i la junta pels problemes econòmics que s'esdevindran. Al febrer, la junta li reclama 1.000 pessetes perquè Graner no els hi està donant el percentatge acordat dels ingressos del teatre. En aquest moment, Graner encara ha de pagar 2.188,25 pessetes del lloguer del teatre de la corrent temporada, diners que finalment accepten descomptar-li de la fiança depositada.

Davant els problemes de gestió i pagament, i perquè pensava instal·lar-se (almenys temporalment) a Amèrica com a pintor per guanyar diners que cobreixin els ja ofegadors deutes, Graner demana el 9 de març permís per escrit de la junta per consolidar la cessió de l'empresa que opera al teatre a Enrique Vinyals i Antoni Niubó, que eren ja els encarregats de la direcció artística. El permís li és concedit el 9 de maig de 1909.

Quan ha d'iniciar-se l'última temporada del contracte, la junta reclama el pagament del lloguer de la nova temporada o no donarà permís al teatre per a obrir. El 20 de setembre de 1909 envia l'avís, afegint que des que van treure de la fiança els diners pendents del pagament del lloguer anterior, no han tornat a rebre diners. La situació s'agreuja a l'octubre quan la junta recorda que han de rebre el 12% de la recaptació, que han de contractar un zelador perquè supervisi que a sala es compleix la normativa, especialment la prohibició de fumar, per la qual també ha d'haver-hi al teatre dos bombers durant les representacions (que poden ser personal del teatre alhora que bombers).

El 30 de maig de 1910 arriba, finalment, l'últim dia del contracte de lloguer del teatre Principal. A Graner encara li queden pendents unes 4.000 pessetes de les 20.000 anuals de lloguer de l'última temporada i demana que se les perdonin perquè l'ha deixat en fallida i, acabat el contracte, no té mitjans per tornar a generar beneficis. Quan es fa la liquidació final de l'última temporada al juliol de 1910, encara queden pendent per pagar a l'Hospital 16.212,15 pessetes corresponents al 12% de la recaptació, 2.811,75 pessetes de la restitució del deute anterior que es va treure de la fiança, 976,10 pessetes per arribar a les 20.000 mínimes de lloguer anual i, a més, 5.470,21 de timbre d'Hisenda.

Davant la situació, Graner ofereix a la junta de propietaris que li comprin les escenografies de la seva empresa, encara dins del teatre, per 30.000 pessetes, atès que són d'alta qualitat i es poden reutilitzar per molt de temps. La junta accepta comprar-les per saldar el deute que encara li queda pendent amb ells per minimitzar la pèrdua, perquè el pintor no té cap altra manera de generar liquiditat.

Els nous empresaris havien utilitzat, però, algunes de les escenografies dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner com a fiança per als seus propis deutes mentre Lluís Graner estava de gira per Nord-Amèrica com a pintor intentant recaptar fons venent quadres per pagar les deutes pendents a Catalunya. A les festes de Balmes celebrades a Vic l'agost de 1910 es va planejar representar l'òpera Ton i Guida, traducció de la versió alemanya de Humperdinck, i li van demanar a Graner les escenografies que va fer-ne per al Principal quan va tornar d'Amèrica, però les tenia embargades pels deutes dels nous empresaris teatrals, tot i que eren propietat seva.

Per aquest motiu, Graner va obrir una causa judicial per intentar recuperar les escenografies que eren de la seva propietat i que els nous empresaris s'havien apropiat. La causa va ser seguida pels seus advocats i apoderats, A. Puig i Subirana i Francisco de P. Figueras i Sagués, atès que Graner havia tornat a marxar a Amèrica. Li van ser retornades per ordre judicial al febrer de 1911, quan el jutge aixeca l'embargament dels bens de Lluís Graner que havia executat erròniament, perquè havien estat depositats com a fiança per un deute a nom dels empresaris Vinyals i Niubó.

Per tant, es van inventariar per a la seva venda els materials que encara hi eren al teatre i l'agost de 1910, Maurici Vilomara fa una taxació dels materials escenogràfics i vestits. Estima que Graner ha fet una despesa per ells d'unes 76.000 pessetes, però que com que són escenografies i materials fets expressament per les seves obres, la seva reutilització és difícil i com a màxim es podria pagar per ells 38.250 pessetes, o en cas que es valorin com a materials de fustes i teles reutilitzables per reconstruir altres escenografies, el seu valor seria de 12.750 pessetes.

Els últims dies de l'any 1910, la junta finalment paga 15.000 pessetes per les escenografies i 875 per altres materials propietat de Graner que encara romanen al teatre, però descompten 1.250 perquè el decorat de Nit de Reis està extraviat, 5.470,21 pessetes que l'Hospital ha pagat en nombre de Graner relatius a timbre d'Hisenda, recàrrecs i altres impostos, i 74 pessetes per la liquidació pendent del maquinista Pedro Roger. Per tant, Graner acaba rebent només 9.080,79 pessetes. Tot i això, li queden 5.470,21 pessetes pendents per pagar de timbre a Hisenda i, per testimonis particulars, sembla que també va deixar deutes a altres escenògrafs i artistes. Una vegada resolt el contracte del teatre Principal, i davant la impossibilitat de complir amb els pagaments que li reclamaven, Lluís Graner va tornar a Amèrica com a exiliat fins a pràcticament el final de la seva vida.

El seu retorn a Barcelona el 1928, 18 anys després, va ser celebrat per la premsa i el pintor va donar testimoniatge de la seva vida a Barcelona i va avaluar la seva aventura teatral. Tot i la gran fallida econòmica de l'empresa, aquesta havia proveït a la ciutat d'un gran atractiu teatral que va ser rememorat per la premsa durant dècades com una de les grans efemèrides del teatre català a la ciutat i el principal projecte seriós d'institucionalització empresarial que va tenir-ne lloc. El gènere de les visions musicals iniciat per Lluís Graner va convertir-se, a més, en un referent a Catalunya del teatre simbolista, cosa per la qual, quan altres empresaris van arribar a la ciutat produint obres d'aquest estil, com va ser el cas de Gregorio Martínez Sierra i María Lejárraga, la premsa i opinió popular va comparar-les i anunciar-les sense dubte com a "visions musicals".

Quant a la companyia de teatre català que Graner havia creat i consolidat al teatre Principal, els anys consegüents van ser abruptes. Una vegada acabat el lloguer de Lluís Graner, es manté el Principal com a "Teatre Català" amb la mateixa companyia, dirigida per Jaume Borràs, amb el seu germà Enric Borràs com a primer actor. Després de breus lloguers d'estiu sota els empresaris Josep Tarrés i Haase i Vicenç Alexandre i Beses, el concurs per al següent lloguer quinquennal (1910–1915) declara nou empresari a Ramon Franqueza i Comas, qui abandonarà el projecte de "teatre català" l'estiu de 1912:

> "Acció grotesca d'un empresari. El "teatre català" a ca'l drapaire.
>
> L'esbarzer no pot donar més que punxades, i aquell empresari, funest i divertit a la vegada, que posà en situació precària la dignitat del nostre art dramàtic no podia fer altra cosa, com a inri vergonyós de la seva tasca que vendre el Teatre Català als encants. No ha pogut fer-ho amb els autors ni amb les obres: bastant havia abusat dels entusiasmes i de la bona fe de tots per a convertir-los en matèria de negoci. [...] Mes el despit i la impotència anaven rosegant, i ara un escenògraf, ara aquell actor i l'altre tenien de queixar-se de les eternes desconsideracions d'aquell empresari [...]
>
> Darrerament, i evidenciada la seva impotència, quan ha vist que sense l'apoi dels qui tan malament havia tractat sempre no li era possible seguir avant, l'home es decidí a desentendre's en absolut del teatre de la terra, i per a coronar la seva decisió, amb un gest despectiu, com una trista manifestació del vençut, ha fet arrencar el rètol amb què un dia pretengué enganyar incautes col·locant-lo a la balconada del teatre Principal i, sense cap respecte a la llegenda que portava, sense consideració a lo que representen les dues paraules i l'escut gloriós que l'empara, el fa portar a casa un drapaire, i li posa preu, regatejant, com si fos una desferra de la fira de Bellcaire. [...]
> És un baix, un miserable insult llençat als nostres entusiasmes; és una estúpida befa feta als nostres amors per qui el Teatre Català l'ha enriquit. El rètol del Teatre Català, que havia de ser bandera d'un art noble i que es convertí en el seu escarni, està a punt de que els drapaires se'l baratin o que les inclemències del temps el destrueixin. Tot i esperant que el teatre en castellà li generés més beneficis, Ramon Franqueza va acabar el seu arrendament fent peticions de benevolència econòmica semblants a les de Graner: no arribava a assumir el pagament de l'últim any de lloguer, tot i que les temporades anteriors el benefici rebut per part de l'hospital era bastant més del mínim estipulat. Aquesta vegada, però, les causes eren falta de públic degut al clima hostil de la ciutat i la guerra mundial.

Considerat com una traïció de l'empresari, quan arriba el moment de treure el teatre de nou en concurs de lloguer, Jaume Borràs —qui havia dirigit la companyia de repertori català durant el període de Franqueza— passa de director escènic a empresari i acaba guanyant el concurs. El teatre s'estava reformant per reobrir-se una altra vegada com a "Teatre Català" sota l'impuls de Jaume Borràs quan es va produir l'incendi.

> "[...] Van començar les obres d'embelliment de la sala i restauració de l'escenari, i cop de vernís i cop d'oli, sense saber que aquests són elements perillosos en un teatre. Demés, es va pintar en el mateix escenari un teló d'anuncis i es van deixar, perquè s'assequés més aviat, els finestrals que donaven al Lyon d'Or oberts de bat a bat. Aquests finestrals, durant els cinc anys que jo vaig tenir el teatre, no es van obrir ni estiu ni hivern. Cal haver vist com sortien durant la nit les flamarades de la xemeneia del Lyon per a endevinar de seguida com una d'aquelles guspires, havent-hi els finestrals oberts, va anar sobre aquell teló, produint-se el foc, que, per altra banda, va trobar bon combustible en els decorats d'en Graner que hi havia apilotats al peu dels finestrals. Van ser precisament els telons i decorats de l'època dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner, que havien quedat com a fons escenogràfic del teatre després que els comprés l'Hospital per a saldar el deute pendent, amb els que va començar el foc.

Durant l'incendi de 1915, tot el fons i arxiu del teatre Principal va quedar destruït. El teatre va quedar totalment calcinat i el 1918 va haver-se d'enderrocar, deixant només en peu la façana.

"La desaparició del Principal

Ja han començat les obres d'enderroc
Què fou i què serà de l'edifici
La façana se conservarà

Una porta de ferro ondulat és aturada a mig aire de l'obertura, que s'escau al centre d'una façana monumental, de noble pedra picada. Arran de llinda, ressaltant de la negror "de dins", avença la testa pensívola d'un polsós cavall blanc. De tant en tant, s'aixeca entre la fosquedat del fons un núvol gris, coincidint amb el gest d'algun manobre que acaba d'enlairar un cabàs, buidant-ne sobtadament el contingut en el tamborell, al qual és fermat el cavall blanc i polsós.

Apartem del cavall, de la porta de ferro i dels manobres la mirada que se'ns hi havia clavat. L'escampem façana amunt, l'aturem en els medallons esculturals, en la gentil balconada, en les monumentals vidrieres que decorà en Gual en temps dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner; resseguim d'un cop d'ull la balustrada del terrat, el rellotge mort, el frontó elegant que remata el frontis. Però sense fer-hi esment, tornem a clavar la vista en el cavall, que espera pacient l'ordre de sortir del catau fosc per portar-se'n no sabem a quins indrets apartats unes engrunes del que fou teatre de Santa Creu. Petició d'escenografia per al centenari de les festes de Balmes a Vic

"[...] La funció lírica popular, compresa des de bon principi en el Cartipàs de la Comissió de festes cíviques i després en el programa, assenyalada pel vespre del dissabte, dia 10, havia de convertir-se en una font de conflictes i tortures. I, no obstant, havia sigut de les més felices en la preparació. Digan-me quatre paraules, per fer més completa aquesta petita història.

De la mateixa Comissió de festes cíviques sortí la idea de que aqueixa fos també essencialment popular, bé que deixant lloc a que la poguessen veure còmodament els qui volguessen o poguessen, i que consistís en la representació d'una òpera que verament pogués agradar al poble y que tingués la lletra en català. [...]

Aqueixa òpera era quasi única, però satisfeia el desig de la Comissió: era el Hansel und Gretel d'Humperdinck, que l'autor anomena rondalla lírica i que pel seu caràcter verament popular, per sa mise en scène i sobre tot per la seva música tan plena i tan exquisida, resulta un artístic espectacle de fonda delectació. Quedà, doncs, decidit des de el dia en que fou acordada aqueixa festa que es faria sobre la base de Hansel und Gretel, servint la lletra catalana feta pel poeta Maragall i el Mestre Ribera amb el títol de Ton i Guida.

[...] La contracta dels seixanta professors d'orquestra que hi volíem i l'elecció de cantants no oferiren la menor dificultat, confiades a mans tant destres i expertes com les del senyor Casanovas. En canvi, nos donà una miqueta que fer la qüestió del decorat. Havíem pensat amb al nostre quasi compatrici, l'insigne pintor D. Lluís Graner, qui havia de tenir el teatre Principal de Barcelona, dels últims temps que ell n'era empresari, totes les decoracions a penes gastades del Ton i Guida.

Quan ne començàrem a parlar ell no havia tornat encara de son profitós viatge a Amèrica, però l'anàrem a trobar tant aviat com sapiguérem que era aquí i li pregàrem que, amb les millors condicions possibles, nos deixés el referit decorat. I ens digué que amb gran gust ho faria, si podia traure's de damunt un embarg judicial indegudament posat per faltes d'empresaris que l'havien succeït i que no repararen gens en empenyar-se lo que no era llur. El senyor Graner, excessivament confiat en la raó que tenia, creia que amb cosa d'un mes lograria que aquesta li fos reconeguda i ens donà un plaç acabat el qual li tornaríem.

Però, com ja temérem des d'aquell moment, els procediments judicials s'anaren allargant segons és trista consuetud d'aquesta terra, i a la segona visita el digne artista ja ens desenganyà i ens expressà amb paraules molt sinceres i estimables el sentiment que passava de no poder-nos complaure.

Nosaltres ja després de la visita anterior havíem encarregat al senyor Casanovas vegés si, en cas de venir el desengany que amb tant fonament temíem, podia trobar alguna sortida, com, en efecte, la trobà immediatament, valent-se de sa amistat amb el pintor senyor Ros i Güell qui, dedicat de poc al negoci de fer i llogar decoracions, pensava un dia o altra dedicar-se a la de Ton i Guida, pensament que el senyor Casanovas li feu avançar per satisfer-nos a nosaltres. Entrevistes posteriors a autors relacionats amb les visions musicals

- Jaume Pahissa

"L'estrena de La princesa Margarida d'Adrià Gual i del mestre Pahissa

A la docta casa del carrer de la Canuda, diumenge passat el mestre Pahissa tenia feina grossa a complaure els periodistes que li demanaven uns mots sobre la seva òpera La princesa Margarida, que demà serà estrenada al Liceu. Varem fer cua, i quan arribà el nostre torn...

—Ja ho saben —ens digué—; és La presó de Lleida, estrenada fa 20 anys a l'antic teatre Principal, dins una d'aquelles belles temporades dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner. Fou la primera obra orquestral que vaig estrenar.

—Jo havia acabat els meus estudis i començava a escriure. En Gual, director artístic aleshores dels Espectacles esmentats al Principal, m'encarregà uns cors per a la representació del Prometeu. Aquesta composició meva agradà, i immediatament en Gual em proposà la composició de La presó de Lleida. L'estrena tingué un gros èxit i l'obra durà força en els cartells; se'n donaren més de cent representacions, i a ella dec que la meva presentació al públic fos afortunada.

—El tema inicial és, naturalment, el de la nostra coneguda cançó popular. Tots els altres són originals meus, però vaig procurar que tinguessin un accentuat caràcter popular, que donés unitat a l'obra.

La partitura era escrita per a petita orquestra. A l'obra hi havia números de música separats per escenes parlades. Les situacions són molt dramàtiques, i encara que el tema no donés motiu per a una obra de gran extensió, em va semblar que podia ampliar-se bon xic el desenrotllament que li havíem donat. Així vaig proposar a en Gual de convertir en òpera La presó de Lleida i ens posarem tot seguit a la tasca.

—Fa temps ja que la tinc acabada. Alguns anys. Cal plaçar-la entre la Gal·la Placídia i les altres dues òperes meves: La morisca i Marinel·la.

—L'estil és el mateix que a La presó de Lleida, rigorosament respectat. Melòdic sempre i llis, dins l'ambient romàntic. M'he esforçat sempre a donat a tota la partitura l'espontaneïtat i frescor de la melodia popular. Potser hi trobareu alguna cosa que faci pensar en les meves obres més modernes, però cal tenir en compte que això ja hi era a la partitura de La presó de Lleida.

—El procediment segueix un poc del "leitmotiv". Quan vaig escriure aquella obra, saturat de Wagner, l'havia d'adoptar fatalment. [...]

"Conversa amb el mestre Pahissa

[...] —Poca cosa us en puc dir. L'origen de la meva òpera La princesa Margarida, que ara es donarà per primera vegada al Liceu, es troba en una visió plàstica-musical, La presó de Lleida, que fa més de vint anys vaig escriure per als Espectacles-Audicions Graner del teatre Principal, una de les temptatives d'art teatral, com bé prou recordareu, més reeixides i més ben rebudes pel públic barceloní.

La presó de Lleida era una cosa molt breu. Unes ràpides visions i unes petites glosses de la magnífica i ben coneguda cançó popular, que es repartien en quatre quadros.

Fou aquesta la meva primera obra de teatre i es pot dir que fou ella la primera obra musical que em posà en contacte amb el públic. Amb aquesta obra de curtes dimensions em vaig donar a conèixer com a músic.

Sobre la mateixa cançó popular, sobre la mateixa trama i amb els mateixos elements he compost la meva òpera. No és pas la meva darrera obra, perquè ja fa bastant temps que la vaig escriure i la vaig deixar enllestida. [...] No he volgut canviar, ni poc ni molt, el caràcter de la música, aquell caràcter de cosa romàntica i popular ensems, de la primera versió. [...]

"Conversa amb mossèn Ramon Garriga

[...] —I com fou que us dedicareu a fer teatre?

—Veureu: el meu amic Arbós organitzà a la sala Imperi uns espectacles semblants als espectacles Graner. Jo hi vaig estrenar un acte que es deia Nadal a muntanya. Bé. Quan l'organització dels tres Jocs Florals, de Fe, Pàtria i Amor, que se celebraren durant les festes constantinianes, vaig tenir ocasió de parlar llargament amb el doctor Torres i Bages. Vaig explicar-li, sabeu?, que jo tenia mig embastada una obreta per a teatre. Però li vaig confessar que no gosava tirar endavant. Em semblava que la meva condició de sacerdot... El doctor em va dir que jo anava equivocat, "Cal precisament que els sacerdots escriguin per al teatre", em va dir. L'art dramàtic és fill de l'Església, i és llàstima que modernament hagin consentit perdre'l. En fi, m'assegurà que no havia de tenir cap mena de temor. [...]"

- Enric Morera

"[...] —En el teatre? El Jesús de Nazaret. Després vingueren Les monges de Sant Aimant, L'alegria que passa, quan la primera època de l'Íntim, al Líric; i en la temporada del Tívoli, L'adoració dels pastors, de mossèn Cinto (que és l'única obra que el poeta va escriure per al teatre); La reina del cor, de l'Iglésias, i La Rosons, de l'Apel·les Mestres. Més tard, al Liceu, vaig estrenar Emporium i Bruniselda, i últimament, la Titaina.

—Oh, sí! En Graner m'estimava molt. Aquella temporada al Principal va ésser la temporada dels èxits. Miri, vagi comptant. La santa espina, La reina vella, La nit de reis, El comte l'Arnau i Els tres tambors.

—Erem la colla de L'Avenç; hi havia en Rusiñol, en Massó, en Casas, l'Utrillo, en Riquer, en Guanyabens... Allò va ésser el moment gros del catalanisme.

[...] —Justa! Jo vaig fundar Catalunya Nova, per a fer pàtria; cal només mirar la llista de cançons que vaig harmonitzar per a aquell centenar de coristes de la primera època: totes són de lletra valenta, molt valenta; com sap fer-la en Guanyabens.

(La cosa s'anava animant)

—No em parli de Madrid. Madrid és un test molt ben pintat, a on els catalans no hi podrem arrelar mai; entre moltes raons, per lo de que els de Madrid saben estimar més lo seu que nosaltres lo nostre; perquè ells són més regionalistes que nosaltres; perquè ells, per a lo seu, sempre arraconen lo de fora, encara que sia amb un enfarfec de bones paraules, i nosaltres, pel contrari, som molt catalanistes, molt catalanistes!, però mansois com uns xais i quasi sense dignitat menyspreuem lo nostre i els obrim les portes en ells, com si encara durés allò de que el castellà fa fi. [...]

—Amèrica? Amèrica és el desengany de tots els somniadors que hi van perquè es pensen sobrar a Europa. Com que realment hi va molta cosa sobrera, allí, ni s'hi està bé ni s'hi troben gaires valors. Els que fan més llàstima són els que hi arriben amb la il·lusió de fer-s'hi rics. Miri; si jo fos millonari, em donaria el gust de nolejar un vapor cada mes, per a que anés a Buenos Aires a recollir, de franc, els espanyols que volen tornar i no tenen els pesos suficients per al passatge. Cregui'm, cada mes tornaria el barco ple, i encara n'hauria hagut de deixar una pila en terra.

—Això de l'Escola Municipal és la meva il·lusió; ja veuran d'aquí pocs anys quins xicots en sortiran!

—Deixebles meus, entre molts, ho són els mestres Cassià Cassademont (que m'honra dedicant-se La dona d'aigua), en Cuscó, l'Esquerrà, l'Espadaler, en Pahissa, en Lambert, en Mas i Serracant, l'Alfons Vila, l'Enric Nogués, tots aquests catalans. Vascongats, en Murca, l'Arezo i en Mugica.

—Sempre el meu únic somni ha estat fer músics. [...]"

Intenció de Lluís Graner de tornar a produir teatre

"New York, agosto 21–1923

Sr. Don Àngel Guimerà

Barcelona

Mi estimado e inolvidable amigo, ciertamente le parecerá la carta de un difunto que recuerda al buen amigo, pero no es difunto, sino lleno de vida y con deseos de luchar todavía en esta vida. He pasado millones de calamidades, buen amigo, pero Dios, bueno siempre conmigo, me reserva al fin de mi accidentada vida algo que siempre fue un deseo para mí inevitable, y este deseo nadie mejor que usted puede proporcionármelo.

Usted sabe cuánto fue mi entusiasmo, hace ya algunos años, cuando inauguré en Teatro Principal mi corta temporada de espectáculos. Hice muy poco, mi buen amigo, por lo que creo que podía hacer, pero Dios lo quiso así y acato su voluntad.

En mi campaña recuerdo un nombre glorioso que me ayudó en mi lucha y, al intentar otra vez esta lucha, que creo que será más lucrativa esta vez, pido un favor para mí muy grande a mi buen amigo Guimerà. ¿Quiere cederme una obra suya para ponerla en Nueva York y creo en todas partes de los Estados Unidos? Yo con todo mi cariño y buena voluntad la pondré en escena ayudado por inteligentes en este arte, que aquí los hay, y creo será un suceso para gloria de su autor y mi amada Catalunya.

Ayúdame, mi buen amigo, y, si puede, a vuelta de correo deme respuesta, pues quisiera esta próxima temporada inaugurarla.

Al mandarme la obra dígame cuánto es su deseo de cobrar por sus derechos y la obra no se pondrá hasta que usted haya recibido el importe convenido.

Adiós, mi buen amigo Guimerà. Su amigo que le quiere y no le olvida nunca,

Luis Graner

"D. Lluís Graner:

Estimat amic, per encàrrec d'en Guimerà contesto sa carta del 21 d'agost darrer.

Vosté no diu quina ni quines obres vol representar. N'hi envio unes quantes perquè hi triï.

La Maria Rosa, la Terra baixa i La pecadora no les hi envio perquè ja estan traduïdes a l'anglès i no es pot concedir lo dret de representació ara per ara. Hi ha compromisos anteriors.

I quant a les condicions per cada obra que vulgui representar per període de dos anys comptats des de l'1 de desembre 1923 són, per teatres dels Estats Units, 1.000 dòlars pagats a l'avançada. Si s'hi conforma, ja hi diré la manera com pot fer lo pago abans de que s'estrenin.

Lo teatre en la Gran República Americana dona molt [...] i si l'obra va bé, com les companyies solen recorre tot son immens territori, l'èxit material per l'empresari és dels temptadors.

Feia tant temps que ni en Guimerà ni jo sabíem res de vostè que ens donà molta satisfacció la seva carta.

Vostè ja ens contestarà si li convenen les condicions que m'ha senyalat en Guimerà [...] Ell està molt delicat de la vista i li és molt difícil l'escriure. D'altra manera ja li hauria respost ell mateix. [...]

Retorn i mort de Lluís Graner

"La tornada inesperada de Lluís Graner —Espectacles-Audicions Graner, recordeu? — ha despertat una munió de records adormits en un reconet de la memòria de tota una generació d'homes fets.

Recordeu la sala Mercè? Recordeu el Principal? Dimonis i pastorets, quadros plàstics i contes fantàstics, passa el comte l'Arnau negre i llampaguejant, aquells efectes de llum, aquelles coves infantils terrorífiques.

Però no ha tornat aquest Graner; ha tornat l'altre, el pintor, aquell dels quinqués vermells i els jugadors de cartes, aquells domadors encenent la pipa, el de les humils llums artificials.

—Dinou anys! O vint? Ja no ho sé!— ens diu en Graner tot emocionat a la sala d'exposicions del Ritz, on té els quadros que ha portat d'Amèrica. [...] [A continuació explica i detalla les ciutats per les quals ha passat en els seus viatges a Amèrica]"

La Publicitat [16867] (29/04/1928), p. 1.

"Després de vint anys d'absència, el mestre Lluís Graner torna al Born. Torna ple d'enteniment envers la terra que el veié néixer i on els seus ulls s'obriren a les primeres revelacions de l'art i s'exercien les primeres activitats entusiastes i generoses. Aquells vermellos bevedors de Lluís Graner, que la tricromia arreu escampava, aquells interiors amb llums artificials, aquelles noies amb el rostre diversament acolorit pels reflexos d'uns fanals japonesos, en la nostra infantesa ens familiaritzaren amb el nom de Lluís Graner.

Després, els espectacles-audicions Graner ens donaren, amb la familiaritat de temes i llegendes populars, primerenques, excel·lents visions d'art, on la bellesa de conjunts, vestits, escenografies, s'associaren a lloables temptatives de músics nostres, més tard gloriosos. La influència damunt diversos aspectes de la nostra escena, dels espectacles-audicions, és innegable. Certs temes, certs efectes de llum, nombrosos accents ben nostrats, al teatre nostre, no foren el que són sense els espectacles Graner.

Ara mateix, l'èxit falaguer de La princesa Margarida d'en Pahissa, què és si no una bella ressonància a la distància de vint anys d'aquells espectacles memorables? Cal que tots servem pregon agraïment al mestre Graner; de fet, l'agraïment envers ell no s'ha extingit, sobre tot entre els qui aleshores infants o nois encara rebien el benefici d'aquelles sessions d'art. Tots se'n recordaran amb delícies per anys que visquin. [...]"

"Ara fa vint-i-cinc o trenta anys, el nom de Lluís Graner fou un nom popular a Barcelona. Anava lligat aquest nom amb la celebració de les exposicions de pintures, amb les manifestacions d'art barcelonines, amb la famosa sala Mercè, amb els inoblidables Espectacles Graner al desaparegut teatre Principal.

Després de vint anys d'ésser absent de Barcelona i d'haver recorregut gairebé tota l'Amèrica del Sud i gran part de la del Nord, el pintor Lluís Graner ha tornat a la seva terra, ha tornat a Barcelona. I aquests dies, a l'Hotel Ritz, hi ha oberta una exposició de les seves pintures.

Hem anat al Ritz, hem visitat l'exposició, hem saludat al pintor i hem conversat una estona amb el fundador de la sala Mercè, amb l'organitzador, l'impulsor dels Espectacles Graner, intent lloable de teatre líric català.

—Records vostres, volem. Records de la vostra vida barcelonina. Com fou que començareu a pintar, els vostres primers quadros, les vostres exposicions, la fundació i la popularitat de la sala Mercè, l'empresa dels vostres espectacles, dels quals encara es parla...

—Sí, sí; records en tinc molts, molts, però la memòria em falla. S'han esborrat ja tantes coses del meu pensament!...

—Quan començareu a pintar?

—Als vint-i-dos anys, en tornar de Puerto Rico i Cuba.

Des de petit, des de l'edat de vuit anys, jo sentia afició pel dibuix, per la pintura, però fins que vaig ésser gran i vaig haver voltat mig món, no em fou possible satisfer les meves aspiracions.

Jo vaig néixer a Barcelona l'any 1863. I a l'edat de quinze anys vaig marxar a Puerto Rico i em vaig dedicar al comerç. Un dia, a l'establiment on jo estava col·locat, portaren un àlbum amb dibuixos, dedicat al governador de la ciutat. Aquell àlbum va desvetllar els meus sentiments artístics i el meu anhel per la pintura. "Això —vaig dir-me— també ho pots fer tu."

L'endemà liquidava amb la casa on prestava els meus serveis i marxava a Cuba. Poc temps després, retornava a Barcelona. I tot seguit, als 22 anys, ingressava a l'Acadèmia d'Alexandre Casas, instal·lada al carrer Major de Gràcia, on rebia les millors lliçons de dibuix. [...] [A continuació parla de les vendes més famoses dels seus quadros, incloent-hi una a l'Emperador d'Alemanya, i de les seves condecoracions com a pintor].

Parleu-nos de la sala Mercè. Com se us va acudir la idea. Quan la vàreu inaugurar?

—Amb la sala Mercè vaig voler fer una distracció ben popular i barcelonina, digna d'aquell temps. Es va inaugurar en els primers anys de l'actual segle, instal·lada en els baixos de l'edifici del costat de la casa del marquès de Comillas a la Rambla d'Estudis. El gran arquitecte Gaudí va dirigir les obres i la instal·lació.

La sala Mercè va aconseguir un gran èxit, i tota Barcelona i la gent forastera va desfilar constantment davant d'aquell espectacle. A l'entrada hi havia aquell municipal dormilega, que tan popular es feu; i aquell dimoni que enraonava amb la mainada.

Després venien aquelles coves fantàstiques, aquells llacs, aquells miralls, aquelles coses encisadores i suggestives, aquells efectes de llum...

L'entrada valia una pesseta. L'espectacle estigué obert uns cinc anys, i una gentada enorme hi anava diàriament. Es van guanyar molts diners. Però tots els que hi vaig guanyar i molts més els vaig enterrar en els espectacles del teatre Principal.

—Amb la idea de fer teatre líric popular català, vaig començar al teatre Principal els Espectacles-Audicions Graner. Es tractava, primerament, de posar en escena, amb bona presentació i ben interpretades, cançons populars catalanes escenificades i musicades pels nostres millors autors.

Collaboraren en aquests espectacles Guimerà, Apel·les Mestres, Rusiñol, Adrià Gual, els mestres Morera, Pahissa i d'altres. S'estrenaren, entre altres obres, La santa espina, El comte l'Arnau, Els tres tambors, La presó de Lleida, Picarols, La nit de reis.

Aquells espectacles agradaren molt, aconseguiren un gran èxit artístic, però econòmicament fou un fracàs. Vaig perdre 150.000 duros. Tota la meva fortuna. I això em va obligar a marxar a Amèrica, a córrer món i a patir molt. Sortosament, ja torno a ésser a casa i entre els meus. [...]

—Encara vaig fer poc per la meva terra. Si pogués, hi tornaria. Encara, abans de morir, voldria fer alguna cosa per l'art de Catalunya.

"Ha mort el pintor Graner

La notícia de la mort del pintor Lluís Graner, esdevinguda a Barcelona el dia 8 d'aquest nies, ens ha sorprès dolorosament. Encara no s'havia apaivagat la satisfacció que el seu retorn a la pàtria ens produí, quan ens sobta la notícia del seu traspàs.

Coneguérem Lluís Graner i intimàrem amb ell quinze anys enrere a ací Buenos Aires. Abans coneixíem la seva obra de pintor i la seva actuació artística davant aquelles representacions plàstiques dels Espectacles i Audicions Graner, del teatre Principal de Barcelona, que tan bell record deixà en la nostra ànima d'adolescents. L'home, la figura corpòria, mortal, ens era desconeguda, però l'estimàvem.

Contrarietats de la vida portaren Lluís Graner a l'exili. Amb el seu art exquisit, i amb la seva amor al treball, va recórrer gairebé tota l'Amèrica. Eren uns temps molts difícils per l'artista sincer i Graner, per bé que arreu on anava triomfava artísticament, tocà de prop les angúnies del viure quotidià, vorejà la misèria, gairebé.

Després de romandre prop de vint anys per aquests continents d'Amèrica, un bon dia sabem que el gran pintor català s'ha reintegrat a la pàtria que ell tant estimava i enyorava, i que el seu retorn havia constituït un veritable esdeveniment triomfal per l'home i per l'artista. Catalunya l'havia acollit amb veritable amor de mare. Barcelona l'havia rebut amb explosions d'entusiasme. Feu una exposició de les seves obres i tothom s'hi meravellà. L'artista, el gran artista, que hi havia en Lluís Graner es manifestava en la plenitud de la seva obra. Aquest gran èxit havia d'influir molt en la sensibilitat extrema d'en Graner; havia d'impressionar-lo fortament.

L'obra del pintor Graner és extensa. N'ha deixat mostres en tots els museus dels països que ha visitat, que són gairebé tots els de les Amèriques. Hom l'anomena el poeta de la nit i de la melangia. Tots els diaris d'ací que han parlat de la seva mort ho han remarcat. Nosaltres afegirem que coneixem també un Graner de contorns robustos, de sensacions de força i de visions enlluernadores. Poeta de la nit, de la força i de la llum, poeta dels humils, de les ànimes sofrents i de les notes captivadores.

Lluís Graner, el día de la seva exposició a Buenos Aires.

Personalment, Lluís Graner, ultra la simpatia que irradiava, era un català íntegre. Quantes lliçons de patriotisme i d'amor a les coses de la nostra estimada Catalunya havem rebut d'ell en el curt espai d'uns mesos que el tractàrem! Quina ànima, la seva, i quin cor més noble i generós!

És per tots aquests motius que sentim tan pregonament la seva mort. És per totes les valors apuntades ràpidament en aquesta nota que Ressorgiment se'n dola amb el seu traspàs i ret fervorós homenatge a la seva memòria excelsa."

"Ha mort a Barcelona el pintor Lluís Graner. Encara que en Graner vivia molt delicat, la notícia ha sorprès dolorosament tots els seus amics i admiradors.

Lluís Graner havia estat una de les figures més populars de l'art pictòric català en els darrers anys del segle dinovè. Ens donà a conèixer en Graner en l'època en què començava a importar-se a la nostra ciutat el que llavors anomenaven modernisme en pintura davant del romanticisme, el realisme i l'impressionisme, donant la batalla al quadro d'història i a la pintura anecdòtica. Amb Ramon Cases i Santiago Rusiñol, els capdavanters de la llavors nova escola, figurà entre els més entusiastes. En Lluís Graner, que pintava aleshores efectes de llum i superbs estudis del natural. Fou el primer mestre d'Isidre Nonell. En una de les primeres exposicions nacionals celebrades a Barcelona, obtingué Lluís Graner la medalla d'or amb el seu quadro La forja, que es conserva al Museu d'Art Modern.

Esperit inquiet, fundà més tard en Graner la sala Mercè, on presentà espectacles essencialment artístics, i fou després empresari del teatre Principal, en l'època de la seva més gran esplendor i preponderància. Atzars de la fortuna el portaren a Amèrica, on va romandre més de vint anys. On tingué merescuts triomfs a Buenos Aires i a Nova York.

Fa poc més d'un any que va tornar en Lluís Graner a la nostra ciutat, una mica vell ja —tenia seixanta-sis anys— i va exposar les seves obres als salons de l'Hotel Ritz, i darrerament a la sala Parés. Reposi en pau, i rebi la seva família l'expressió del nostre condol."

Records i rememoracions dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner

"Crònica. De l'evolució de la nostra dramàtica

Pel vell balcó del Principal ha sonat l'hora de la justícia. Mercès a en Franqueza, a qui els desacerts dels nostres pseudo intel·lectuals han convertit en l'única esperança possible del teatre a Catalunya, li ha sigut possible al vell balcó desprendre's dels abominables penjolls que tan poc s'avenien amb la rigidesa de la fatxada. I un cop fora les guirlandes de suro pintat, han recobrat els austers balustres tota la serietat a que, per l'edat i la història, tenen indiscutible dret. [...] amb els ramatges del balcó caurà la bambolina que rematava la boca de l'escenari, que en les nits d'hivern vèiem brandar, empesa per les corrents d'aire, i que ostentava en son centre aquella cara vella, resseca, trista i estirada que la passada empresa adoptà com a blasó, i que amb tanta justesa reflexava els seus ideals artístics. Amb el rètol del balcó i la movedissa bambolina, és tot un teatre, que desapareix. El teatre insípid i poca-solta, insensible als vents de renovació, refractari a la sana alegria [...].

Sols disposant que aquets simbòlics ornaments fossin d'un cop enderrocats, ha fet en Franquesa pel teatre català més del que faran en tota la vida la dotzena d'autors que al Principal aportaren un dia les seves obres, i de qual memòria, afortunadament, no en queda rastre. Se diu que el vell teatre de la Santa Creu ha acabat, per ara, de servir de refugi a la beneiteria sagristanesca. Que per molts anys, responem nosaltres. Com trofeu, podrien repartir-se les desferres granerianes els Carner, els Viurà, els Vinyes, els Prat Gaballí, els Maseras i demés tontos de solemnitat, representants del teatre de la poesia nyonya i carcamal. Per a despertar quelcom d'interès no poden, certs escriptors, passar de la categoria d'incompresos.

"Durant les últimes festes, s'ha donat en el teatre Principal de Terrassa una sèrie de funcions de teatre líric català per valuosos elements dels que actuaren quan les memorables Audicions Graner: L'alegria que passa, Nit de reis, La reina del cor, Permeti'm! i altres obres. Han assolit un èxit extraordinari. [...]"

“L’empresari pintor. Una frase

Una de les campanyes de teatre català que tots aquells que l’han vista recorden amb més gust és la dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner. En Graner, amb tot i que passava una temporada de fredor per a la pintura, no deixava d’ésser sempre un pintor. Això d’ésser pintor —com l’ésser músic o l’ésser poeta— és una malaltia deliciosa que un hom no se la pot treure del damunt per molts propòsits que en faci. I en Graner, que semblava haver deixat la pintura, no per això s’havia sabut estar en certa ocasió de convertir en taller una dependència subterrània de la sala Mercè. Ell rai que era especialista en temes de llum artificial. A més, com a empresari del Principal, s’havia encarregat a sí mateix, en concepte de pintor, alguns dels anuncis pintats de determinades obres. El mamarratxo —no sabem altre nom genèric de l’anunci pintat— que anunciava La nit de nadal, era obra d’ell mateix. Tot això que diem, és per a preparar al lector a apreciar degudament una frase que digué un dia en Graner, a propòsit d’una obra que havia fracassat.

Es tractava d’una veritable visió musical. El decorat estava bé; la presentació, també; la lletra, igual. La música, segons deien els entesos, era de primera. I com que l’interès principal era en la música, no hi havia dubte, teòricament, que l’obra havia d’ésser un èxit. La pràctica, però, no correspongué a la teoria. I en Graner, a la segona o a la tercera representació, anava gratant-se nerviosament la galta dreta per entre les cabines dels comediants, tot comentat l’èxit negatiu de l’obra.

—No ho entenc —deia l’un.— L’obra està bé.
—La lletra té poca importància— replicava l’empresari pintor.
—El decorat i la presentació són d’alta llei —afegia l’altre.
—Està clar que ho són.
—La música és magnífica i d’un bon autor —ajustava un tercer. Però en arribar aquí la conversa, en Graner, ja enervat, tingué una frase definitiva:
—Desenganyin-se —exclamà,— encara que la música fos del mateix Velázquez, no vindria la gent.

El pintor s’havia imposat una vegada més a l’empresari.”

“La il·lusió al teatre

De fa molt temps les manifestacions dels fenòmens meteorològics, especialment llurs sorolls, han estat els col·laboradors imprescindibles en els escenaris. El tro, el llampec, la fressa de la pluja, el xiulet del vent, la remor de la mar, són personatges que, malgrat no figurar mai en cap llista de companyia, tenen sempre la contracta assegurada. Es pot dir que no passa dia que no tinguin paper en una o altra obra de les que s’anuncien i molt sovint llur intervenció en el joc escènic constitueix la part més important o almenys la més sorollosa del diàleg.

La llum és un altre element capitalíssim en l’art escènic modern. Els efectes i matisos que se’n treuen són tan variats que avui la professió d’electricista d’escenari és una veritable branca de la noble pintura. La placa elèctrica és quelcom que inspira un respecte profundíssim i congria una admiració absoluta vers l'home que maneja els innombrables interruptors que espurnegen en la blancor del gran quadro de marbre i que coneix els secrets i el poder de totes aquelles manetes distribuïdes en una disposició cabalística en la placa. Des d'aquell clos de tela metàl·lica, amb apariències d'inofensiu galliner, es fa eixir el sol i se'l fa pondre amb una facilitat astoradora; tocant unes manetes i girant uns innocents interruptors, les blavors de la nit o les tenebres que coven el llamp omplen de beatitud o d'esglai tot l'escenari; rodant uns petits volants situats damunt de uns cossis cilíndrics migs plens d'aigua es fa néixer el dia amb una finíssima gradació de tintes rioleres, o bé es provoca una roent posta tardorenca que arbora els llunyans confins del teló de foro i il·lumina amb vives rojors la càndida túnica de la dama jove o submergeix en una atmosfera sangonosa les sinistres meditacions del traïdor.

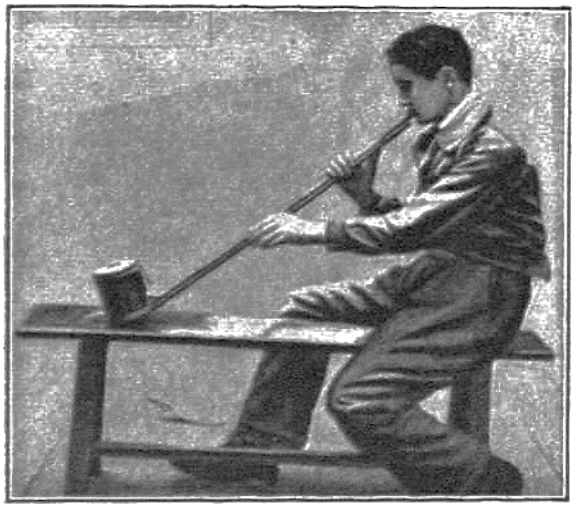
La placa fa miracles; jugar amb la llum i pintar-hi els arbres, les cases i les persones té un encís irresistible. Per sa virtut, les fustotes dels bastidors, corcades pels claus, la pintura clivellada dels vells telons, les rampoines de L'abillament de la comparseria, els oripells de la indumentària fantàsticament històrica, brillen amb càlides i opulents lluïssors i fins la pell humana pren qualitats insospitades. Aquesta era l'embriaguesa que feia delirar a en Graner, quan dirigia els espectacles del Principal. Les troballes de matisos inèdits l'inflamava d'un goig tan esbojarrat que omplia de mut esverament als mateixos autors del miracle; en canvi, el fracàs d'una combinació el contrariava de tal manera que picava de peus i s'arrencava la barba a manyocs com vell escrivà fariseu.

L'afany del truc lumínic el portà un dia a un mal pas. Per a l'estrena de la visió La matinada, obra sense diàleg però eloqüentíssima de llum, l'argument de la qual consistia en la desfilada d'un ramat de bens autèntics acompanyats d'una comparseria abillada amb una indumentària vagament grega. La passada, lenta i desenrotllada en actituds de fris, es feia davant d'un paisatge clàssic amarat de romàntic realisme, que amagava els coristes que cantaven el cor que era el veritable teló de fons, la perspectiva del qual es perdia en el suavíssim polsim de l'infinit.



Quan tot va estar a punt, en Graner va donar l'ordre d'engegar les llums: —Apagueu aquest blanc i doneu-me el vermell; esmorteïu aquest groc i enrobustiu el verd; rebaixeu el morat, que no s'adiu amb aquesta passada dels baixos del cor; amb aquest trèmol de violins hi vull un espetec de vermell.— En passar els dòcils xais acompanyats dels pseudo-pastors arcadians, el seu neguit es trasmudà en frisança. —No, no —cridava gesticulant entre aquell arc de Sant Martí, les colors del qual s'havien proclamat l'autonomia.— No pot ser: el blanc d'aquests moltons se'm menja la llum, els braços i les sines dels pastors m'embruten el paisatge. Fora, fora! Que els pintin.

Correu cuiteu, sortiren dependents a comprar pintures i ell amb la mateixa febre amb què hauria pintat La pesca a l'encesa o L'enterrament de la sardina, començà de pintar, els braços, les pitreres i les cares dels pastors i els lloms dels moltons amb anilines i purpurines metàl·liques de virolades colors. I tornaren a assajar la desfilada: passaren els xais amb la mateixa resignació d'abans, però amb l'esquena i flancs tintats com joguines mitològiques de grandària natural i els pastors amb reflexes de bronze antic tot amagant una rialleta escèptica. L'home anà donant les darreres pinzellades a homes i animals, i després d'ordenar novament la colorida comitiva, vingué el moment emocionant de descloure la cortina als ulls dels espectadors àvids de plasticitats meravelloses.

La part colorida, humana i animal, havia anat molt bé; els xais havien servat el colorit entre els rulls de la llana; en els pastors, la suor i el fregadís de les robes havien fet aparèixer matisos insospitats i delicades esfumadures. En Graner estava contentíssim de la seva obra. L'endemà, però, se li plantejà un seriós conflicte: els ferrenys pastors, qui més qui menys pares de família, protestaren enèrgicament i es negaren categòricament a sotmetre's a la pintada, al·legant els efectes tòxics de les substàncies utilitzades. Alguns de la colla ja havien sentit l'inici de les desagradables conseqüències del novíssim truc escenogràfic. Davant d'un perill d'aquesta mena, en Graner va consentir que els pastors passessin al natural; però els bens, com que no varen protestar, tornaren a ser pintats, i durant alguns dies, conformats amb llur destí, travessaren l'escenari de l'antic teatre de la Santa Creu complint llur deure sense vanitosa petulància i sense exhalar una queixa ni dibuixar la més lleu protesta. Però abans de treure l'obra del cartell, s'havia mort més de la meitat de la decorativa ramada. I ara, després d'aquesta digressió barcelonina, tornem als trucs que estrafent els sorolls dels elements de la naturalesa. [...]"

"Comentaris
Graner

L'encís més gran del turista solitari que està amb ulls encuriosits recorrent una ciutat són aquestes places quietes, sense remor, que es troben situades prop d'una via urbana plena d'estrèpit i de moviment. Són semblants places típiques, un dolç sedant al nerviosisme que el vertigen de la vida intensa ocasiona.

Així mateix quan hom contempla les demostracions de l'actual esperit de Catalunya, quan veu la terra cada jorn més depurada i més comprenedora del seu propi ésser, quan l'esclat de la seva vàlua trenca els caminadors en què s'havia bellugat, en mig del remolí que les transformacions ràpides porta, és quan en un repòs, plàcidament, es recorden ardits moments ascensionals. I amb quin convenciment es pensa amb l'estàtua que representant

Catalunya, la inspiració d'en Josep Llimona posà al monument al doctor Robert? Catalunya, en l'esmentada escultura, és una donzella que va abandonant les vestidures inútils que l'entrebanquen, roba que significa els vicis encomanats durant segles d'abjecció.

La tasca ha estat d'una constant depuració d'anar traient, per viaranys planers o difícils, tot el que enlletgia l'espiritualitat cloroformitzada de la pàtria i de redreçar-la. Un període interessant per l'historiaire emocional serà el que precedí els esdeveniments de l'últim de 1905. I entre els elements psicològics que acabaren formant una virior col·lectiva hi ha un nom avui oblidat que, pensant només, fer art, realitzà alhora tasca patriòtica: el del pintor Lluís Graner.

En Graner adquirí la botiga i annexes que ara ocupa a la Rambla dels Estudis la casa Fàbregas i Recasens. La decorà amb gust exquisit i original, hi instal·là un cinema. Presentar un lloc on la pel·lícula fos projectada entre parets i enjoiaments diferents de la pobresa hòrrida de tots els cinematògrafs, era ja una gran obra, però no parà aquí la cosa. La sala fou batejada amb el barceloníssim modisme de «Mercè», així en català: el llenguatge amb què estaven redactats els rètols, i l'espectacle, eren en català; en els soterranis s'instal·laren unes grutes famoses, es feu cinema parlat i s'escenificaren cants catalans amb lletra d'eminents escriptors i amb música dels grans mestres; i l'aire del local, perquè fos més sanitós, es perfumava amb essència de farigola. Tot plegat en conjunt, tenia un calent solemnial.

El poble de Barcelona, tocat en la seva entranya més delicada, respongué esplèndidament a la finalitat artística i patriota d'en Graner. Es veia la gent esperant durant llarga estona que acabés una sessió per a poder entrar a presenciar la que seguia. Aviat es pogué veure que s'havia donat en el blanc: l'espectacle entrava en bon peu i els enemics de sempre de Catalunya, ensuperbits pels èxits polítics d'un partit «nacional», en forma d'aquelles plomes que pasturen en les planes d'alguns diaris, sortien amb un enfilall d'acudits carrinclons en parlar de la sala Mercè.

Les coves eren presentades amb gran riquesa artística i s'hi anaren introduint innovacions. Com recordem el municipal adormit que roncava, el mirall de l'engany davant del qual es feia difícil trobar la sortida, els versos humorístics d'un dimoni encarregat d'amargar l'existència a alguns pecadors, aquell altre diable que amb un estornut espantava la concurrència, els diferents pessebres i naixement, i tants altre detalls, tots purs i agradosos!

En el film s'oferí, entre diverses pel·lícules, una en la qual desfilaven les més celebrades figures del moviment cultural català, en llur moment de treball: pintors, escultors i literats. Quan sortia la d'en Santiago Rusiñol, una mica actor per cert, en Puiggarí des del lloc dels músics llegia trossos d'Els jardins abandonats. Després s'hi ajuntà al cinema corrent la novetat de fer parlar els personatges: alguns actors i actrius, col·locats darrera de la tela, parlaven seguint els moviments dels protagonistes que la llanterna anava projectant.

Però, entre tots els aspectes que de la sala Mercè es podrien explicar, cap com el de les escenificacions començades amb la del Pròleg de l'Atlàntida de mossèn Cinto. Entre altres a continuació es representaren La mort de l'escolà, una al·legoria montserratina; nadales amb la cançó del rabadà diable i diferents cançons populars. La concurrència estremida per una sensació artístic-patriòtica. anava seguint amb delit la visió musical pura i casta gustant l'agre de la terra, ofert per mitjà de les tonades de regust catalanesc.

L'èxit obtingut per la seva sala i el seu espectacle animà a en Graner a iniciar-lo per horitzons més grans. Adquirí el teatre Principal i amb el nom d'«Espectacles i Audicions Graner» començà la seva obra. A dalt de tot de la façana major hi havia la bandera catalana. La cançó i llegenda d'El comte l'Arnau, escrita per en Josep Carner i musicada per l'Enric Morera, fou la funció inaugural. Després, anaren seguint La matinada i moltes altres, entre les quals remembrem La nit de Nadal, Els tres tambors, La presó de Lleida i Fra Garí. Més tard, s'intercalaren les obres més notables del teatre líric català, donant de pas lloc a que en Guimerà i en Morera donessin a conèixer les magnes produccions La reina vella i La santa espina.

Literats eminents feien les lletres dels Espectacles i Audicions Graner i mestres selectes les partitures, però el gran desig artístic del director i empresari no bastava, i volgué, damunt de tot, fer lluir la presentació. Els decorats, exprofessos tots, eren superbament genials. I el vestuari era d'una riquesa insuperable. No s'ha fet a Barcelona res més gran i bell en els espectacles. Una semblança del que fou aquell devessall de bon gust resultà La vida de Sant Josep de Calassanç, que l'esperit generós del P. Lluis Falguera oferí l'any passat al Coliseu Pompeia en ocasió del centenari de la institució escolàpia.

Naturalment, que tanta audàcia estètica fracassà. Avui, en Graner viu lluny de la seva terra. Abandonat el Principal, restava la sala Mercè, però a un governador civil de tants se li acudí que les visions musicals podien ocasionar foc algun dia i les prohibí. L'excusa catalanòfoba i la seva injustícia avui mateix encara és visible davant del que fou la sala Mercè. A l'altra banda de la Rambla, horroritzant pensar un cas d'incendi, hi té un temple una mentalitat teatral digna d'ésser admirada per tots els que cobren de l'Estat.

La sala Mercè morí, i en la seva agonia passà per una vicissitud que no s'ha de comentar. Se'n digué «Sala Merced», així amb d. Quan caigué del tot, no ho notà ningú[100]. Feia anys que l'esperit s'havia separat del cos. Els patriotes catalans d'aquella generació conservaran sempre de la sala Mercè una memòria entendridora.

"Les lerrouxeries del Sr. Lerroux

Sigui llegenda o sigui realitat, tots els catalans no hem d'oblidar mai que en Lerroux va ésser enviat a Barcelona, pels governs de Madrid, a fi d'aterrar amb les seves campanyes destructores el nacionalisme català. Els qui som vells sabem ben bé quin era el fervor catalanista de vint-i-cinc anys endarrere: més aviat constituïa un sentiment romàntic, que no un sentiment polític. La renaixença literària, el teatre català, les famoses representacions dels Espectacles Graner al vell teatre Principal, les primeres commemoracions de l'Onze de setembre, entre altres coses, tot això als ulls del govern de Madrid apareixia com unes expansions tan minses i de tan poc aguant que varen creure que amb la sola presència del futur Emperador del Paral·lel, caurien amb una bufada.

I D. Lacandru es presentà a Barcelona con aires de conquistador, segons expressió pròpia. És clar que nosaltres creiem que les seves conquestes a Barcelona deurien quedar reduïdes a les que feu per allà on ara anomenem «Barri xinés», però no per això deixà de trasbalsar l'ànima obrera inexplotada encara i propensa a deixar-se dur per qualsevol, sigui qui sigui, que tingui una mica d'oratòria avinagrada, uns quants tòpics contra els burgesos o els clergues, molta comèdia i molta barra, principalment molta barra! "4 de novembre

Diada del teatre líric català

El primer dia d'aquesta setmana memorable en els annals de Ràdio Associació de Catalunya fou dedicat al teatre líric català. És de doldre que tantes temptatives com han estat realitzades a la ciutat nostra a favor de l'opereta catalana no hagin pogut mai reeixir. I és ben cert que no falten dramaturgs, ni compositors per a consolidar el nostre teatre líric que anys enrere als Espectacles Graner del teatre Principal i al Tívoli abans havia obtingut èxits durables i ben assenyalats. Recordem només les produccions de Guimerà i Morera La santa espina i La reina vella, el poema dramàtic de Gual i Pahissa La presó de Lleida, Picarol i Gaziel d'Apel·les Mestres i Granados, amb altres produccions no menys distingides i estimables. Hem de creure que és el públic qui es fatiga i cerca espectacles nous, perquè de bons autors no en falten ara tampoc. Convé, només, que hi hagi avinença entre literats i músics sense mires massa interessades. Tot sigui a profit del teatre líric català.

L'estrena [de De Pasqua a Pasqua, amb música de Josep Serra] oferida dilluns, 4 de novembre, per Ràdio Associació, constitueix un estímul que hauria de repetir-se. [...]"

"Al teatre Principal, ara fa 30 anys

Per una curiosa coincidència, en aquest mes d'octubre en què s'ha inaugurat el teatre català a Novetats i Margarida Xirgu ha recordat, ben segur, els seus millors temps d'actuació a Barcelona, es compleixen trenta anys d'aquell octubre del 1905 en què s'inauguraven al teatre Principal els Espectacles i Audicions Graner, acurada i benemèrita empresa de teatre català, la qual donà lloc, en esfumar-se, a la presentació de Margarida Xirgu, amb Joventut de príncep, l'obra que la remarcà com a actriu notable i que li feu escoltar els aplaudiments entusiastes del públic barceloní, que s'entusiasmà davant d'aquella visió reeixida del vell Heildelberg, amb tots els seus encisos i amb tota la ingenuïtat que traspuava en l'obra i en la seva protagonista.

Margarida Xirgu seguí una trajectòria, com la seguí Santpere. Avui potser, econòmicament, se'n senten satisfets d'haver-la seguida. Tinc per ben segur, però, que, per poc que hagin meditat aquests dies d'octubre sobre aquells altres que començaren per a ells, en el mateix mes, ara fa trenta anys, hauran sentit una recança en evocar-los la memòria les figures de la gentil Catarina de Joventut de príncep, l'immens Gueridó de La santa espina, figures que a ambdós remarcaren en l'escena catalana, bastida per obra i gràcia d'aquell estol d'homes, comandats per Lluís Graner, els quals, precisament per sentir-se primer artistes que negociants, per sentir-se més apòstols del teatre selecte i educador que no pas empresaris de màniga ampla, reeixiren en llur empresa; Barcelona, però, i la història del teatre català els queden sempre agraïts per la seva aportació meravellosa, audaç, filla dels més nobles desigs.

Per això, en complir-se trenta anys de la inauguració d'aquells Espectacles i Audicions Graner, hem celebrat de veure com des de les planes d'El Matí i pot ser des d'algun altre rotatiu dels que componen la premsa barcelonina s'ha aprofitat l'avinentesa d'aquest aniversari per a retre un record d'homenatge a aquells catalans benemèrits i a la seva obra. Aquesta, malgrat que avui potser no tindria l'atractiu que tingué aleshores, no vol pas dir que tots els qui en fruïren no la recordin, remarcant-la entre el munt de les belles coses que han passat i les coses que, en esdevenir-se, deixen un solc inesborrable, perquè tenen quelcom que les fa arribar al cor.

El comte l'Arnau, La presó de Lleida, La santa espina, La nit de reis, per no esmentar-ne més, són representacions que hom recorda, sempre, i més els qui coneixen tot l'esforç que allò va representar, totes les esperances que hom hi tenia posades, i totes 1es amargors que costà. Això part que fos una empenta renovelladora donada a l'escena catalana, que per ella sola val la pena d'haver esmerçat, en diaris i revistes, un lloc per a evocar-ne el record aquest mes d'octubre del 1935, en el qual el teatre català comença amb una obra que ha calgut retirar per "impertinent".

Nosaltres també, mers aficionats a l'escena catalana, ens hem sentit temptats més d'una vegada de meditar sobre el nostre teatre d'aquells dies i el d'ara; però, no essent aquesta la feina que ens han assenyalat, ens limitem a evocar el trentenari i dedicar, a guisa d'homenatge, aquesta pàgina a la romàntica empresa fallida. Per a res que no fos caldria l'enquesta d'aquells que avui dia viuen del teatre (és un dir) í per al teatre.

Similituds i comparacions de les visions musicals amb altres obres

"Principal—Chantecler. Poema dramàtic en un pròleg i quatre actes, per Edmond Rostand.

Chantecler ja ha cantat a casa nostra. Oh, meravella! La fortuna ens l'ha dut al Principal, per a admiració de snobs i snobinetes, ensenyança d'autors indígenes i avorriment de bona part dels espectadors que, tant per tant, preferien els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, on almenys se parlava en català i se disfrutava de més hermoses decoracions. [...]

Malgrat lo dit, és satisfactori haver vist a Barcelona el Chantecler. I podem estar contents del respecte que s'ha tingut amb el nostre públic, presentant-nos l'obra amb l'amor amb què ens l'han presentada. Això sembla un desmentiment a l'al·lusió que als Espectacles-Audicions Graner hem fet al principi. Res més lluny de la realitat. En Graner, en decoracions ens va oferir meravelles. Les representacions Chantecler no arriben a tant. [...]"

"Teatre Català: Romea

Donzell qui cerca muller. Follia en un pròleg i tres actes, per Adrià Gual.

En Gual ama el perill. I alguna vegada hi ha caigut. Però, després d'un temps de repòs, s'hi ha llençat novament. Qui cau i s'aixeca no passa vergonya. I a còpia d'ardidesa, s'acaba per cobrar una serenor que permet afrontar qualsevol risc.

Passar d'un món real a un món fantàstic sempre és cosa que sobta. Doncs, ves si no ha de sobtar doblement quan en el món real hi hem passat tres actes! Se dirà que la realitat que hi ha escampada en les tres quartes parts de Donzell qui cerca muller és una realitat relativa. I sí que ho és!: realitat de rondalla. Perquè també, dintre les rondalles, existeix una realitat, a base de fets imaginaris que, si no són, podrien ésser —o haver estat— o semblar-ho, és lo mateix.

Doncs, després de tres actes de rondalla realista —però sempre rondalla— ens ve en Gual amb un acte de rondalla fantàstica. I, passada la impressió del primer moment, ho acceptem de grat. Al cap d'avall, per una cosa o altra en Gual ne diu "follia" de la seva obra. I tanmateix, si no fossin els follets i la fada de l'últim acte, no li escauria pas del tot el nom de "follia" a Donzell qui cerca muller.

Per altra banda, entre Hauptmann i els Espectacles-Audicions Graner ja ens hi han anat fent a aquestes barreges de tònica en una mateixa producció. Perquè Donzell qui cerca muller pot emparentar-se, de lluny o de prop, amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner i amb Hauptmann en les seves rondalles escèniques. I, ademés, amb la comèdia galant castellana. I, encara, amb altres manifestacions escèniques d'altre temps i d'aquest. [...]

"Liliana

L'espectacle

Lo interessant en un espectacle com el que se'ns acaba d'oferir a Belles Arts és això, l'espectacle. [...] Això va impedir al cronista de trobar un bon lloc i el va obligar a entreveure tot just l'escenificació del poema Liliana, original del poeta de la natura, i sobretot dels "petits vius" de la natura, que és l'Apel·les Mestres. Perquè dintre la natura de l'Apel·les Mestres són petits vius des de les corretjoles o les roselles, des dels espiadimonis als follets, des de les granotes a les fades.

I una fada —Liliana— i una cobla de follets que l'estimen, i cors de granotes que li cantes cançons, i cors de sers alats que la celebren al brunzit de llurs volades són els sers que intervenen en l'acció de l'obra per a goig dels ulls i esplai de l'esperit. [...]

Sense por d'equivocar-nos, podem dir, doncs, que els grans escenògrafs que són en Moragas i l'Alarma varen presentar un parell de decoracions de bosc ufanós en les quals la veritat s'emmarida bellament amb la fantasia, produint un efecte esplèndid, d'aquells que conviden a somniar. I les figures dels follets que s'hi belluguen i la de la Liliana que els fa batre el cor i la de les granotes que hi salten esvalotadament s'hi fonen de bella faisó amb els bolets que els fan de seti i amb el brancam retort de la selva virginal i amb les arrels més retortes encara que serpentegen arreu de l'escena, il·luminades amb l'or del dia o amb la celístia de la nit estrellada.

Realment en Moragas i l'Alarma posseeixen el secret d'aqueixos espectacles fantasiosos que varen constituir la base dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner, des dels que varen néixer en el marc reduït de la sala Mercè, als que varen florir més tard dintre el més grandiós del Principal. I lo mateix que d'en Moragas i l'Alarma pot dir-se d'en Vilomara, aquest altre eminent escenògraf que fa honor a la nostra terra i a qui es deu l'última de les tres hermoses decoracions de Liliana. El temperament d'en Vilomara és més aviat realista que fantasiós. Però, malgrat aquesta circumstància, l'escenògraf s'ha emmotllat esplèndidament al caràcter de l'obra, produint una decoració de una poesia exquisida. [...]"

"París

Avui que tinc temps us parlaré més detalladament de la creació de la nova obra Sortilège, que, tal com us deia en la passada crònica, fou estrenada a l'Opéra.

Aquest bonic conte de fades ens ha recordat a tots els catalans residents a la capital francesa la gran temporada dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner al teatre Principal. I dic això, perquè amb Sortilège ens ha semblat que tornàvem a ésser entre vosaltres, en la nostra Barcelona, puix que l'obra, en alguns moments, i especialment al seu final, és quasi igual a La santa espina d'en Guimerà.

L'acció passa als Pirineus, en l'època incerta de les llegendes i dels contes de fades, en un frondós bosc on les dones rentes les robes blanques en un rierol que el travessa. [...] [Explica l'argument de l'obra] I amb un esclat de música popular catalana, igual que quan se troben el Geridó i la Maria de La santa espina, va caient el teló.

Sembla que se'n donaren moltes representacions i que després aniran a fer-la als departaments. [...]"

"Teatre de Naturalesa

La viola d'or. Rondalla bosquetana.

Quan algú, temps a venir, en una època d'esplendor que sens cap dubte tindrà més tard o més d'hora el Teatre Català —pensin-ne allò que en pensin els enemics de dintre i de fora— s'interessi pel passat de la institució, haurà de reconèixer que un dels moments més interessants que ha tingut és el dels Espectacles-Audicions Graners. És cert que s'hi donaren més de quatre obres poc consistents i s'hi realitzaren temptatives d'escàs valor. Però l'empresa, en conjunt —i, sobre tot, vista a prou distància per copsar-ne les qualitats sense ovirar-ne les tares— pot ésser considerada com un intent artístic digne d'haver trobat qui el continués. Perquè els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, per causes que no ens lleu ni ens escauria analitzar, moriren en flor, quan havia arribat l'hora de donar a qui hagués sapigut portar-los, el fruit que no pogué copsar llur iniciador.

Gràcies als Espectacles-Audicions Graner fou creat un gènere en el qual el geni de la nostra raça s'hi complavia. L'element popular hi preponderava dominador, i a aqueixa preponderància se junyien de bon grat els poetes i els músics i en ella la massa hi trobava un encís que perdura encara en el general bon record.

Dirà algú que els Espectacles Audicions Graner no produïren cap obra genial. No pas jo que ho jurés, i encara que m'atrevís a jurar-ho —cosa de la que em guardaré prou— sempre salvaria l'ambient que els creà i el que crearen. Perquè, col·lectivament, l'esperit hi era en els Espectacles-Audicions Graner. I ell feia miracles com el d'encomanar a cada element dels que intervenien en la empresa i al conjunt de tots, un entusiasme i un desinterès que constitueixen un exemple gairebé únic en els anals del teatre.

L'autor s'interessava per l'obra del company, sense cap ombra d'enveja; l'actor alliçonava sense cap gelosia al cantant que havia de dir un parlament o intervenir en un diàleg; el cantant s'esforçava en explicar a l'actor, encara que aquest mai se n'hagués vist de més fresques, com ho havia de fer per a apoiar la veu i per treure el millor partit de les facultats naturals en la corranda o l'ària que li havia tocat en sort; i els uns i els altres s'ajudaven sense regatejar esforços, i tots plegats i els autors amb ells, i els escenògrafs i els músics i àdhuc els empleats més humils del teatre, eren abrandats per un mateix amor a l'obra col·lectiva. I això sempre s'hi coneix.

I això, en aqueixa segona representació que, al cap de tres anys de la primera, ens ha donat al bosc d'en Tarrés, de la Garriga, la benemèrita entitat que, amb laudable cel, vol implantar-hi com a cosa normal el Teatre de Naturalesa, també s'hi coneixia. També allí hi ha un desinterès i un amor dignes de tota alabança; també allí cada un pensa sols en el resultat cultural i artístic, prescindint del pecuniari, alguns cops ruïnós, alguns altres just i mai renumerador en afers de semblant mena. Jo estic segur que els senyors que formen la societat Teatre de Naturalesa han d'haver fet llargs sacrificis en llurs persones i en llurs cabals. Com n'estic que, malgrat aquests sacrificis, estan contents del resultat obtingut.

Poden estar-ho. L'èxit de la representació d'ahir superà en tots conceptes a l'obtingut ara fa tres anys. Amb la qual cosa no entenc restar cap importància a la representació que es donà aleshores i que vingué a ésser la primera pedra de la institució que tan dignament presideix el meu respectable amic i diputat provincial senyor Fages. La concurrència formava multitud. El bosc d'en Tarrés n'era tot ressonant. I, amb tot, vinguda la representació, ningú en perdé una paraula: tal era l'ordre regnant i amb tant de seny s'havia disposat tot. Bé n'hi anaren d'automòbils i motocicletes a la festa: a cents, a cents. Doncs, n'era tan ben arranjat el dipòsit i anava amb tant d'ordre tot el servei, que ni una palpitació de motor ni un espinguet de sirena va pertorbar l'acte.

El qual vingué a ésser com un apoteosi en ple bosc d'aquells Espectacles-Audicions Graner que glossàvem al principi. I en fer més gran la il·lusió, fins el protagonista era interpretat per en Santpere, que començà amb els Espectacles [Graner] la seva popularitat; fins un altre paper principal el feia la Paricio; fins en Balot representava un parell de papers. I rebeguérem «aquelles» granotes, ballant amb música d'en Morera, i «aquells» gnoms fent companyia a les granotes. I amb uns i altres, tot de fades i tot de sàtirs i papallones i libèl·lules i escarbatons d'ales metàl·liques; i tants éssers alats com vulgueu o com ha volgut l'Apel·les Mestres, car els senyors del Teatre de Naturalesa no volen altra cosa que el lluïment de l'espectacle; i l'Alarma, que sap tant d'aquestes coses i per totes les figuracions reals i imaginàries troba una solució, no vol altra cosa que complaure als senyors del Teatre de Naturalesa. I no dic res de si en Gual, davant dels elements escènics que se li oferien, s'hi havia de trobar bo per dirigir-ne els moviments.

Podia estar-ne ben joiós l'Apel·les Mestres d'aquell aldarull bosquetà provocat per la seva obra. [...]"

"Novetats. Estrena de Navidad, miracle en tres quadres, composició i lletra d'en Gregorio Martínez Sierra, música del mestre Joaquín Turina.

Bell intent, noble propòsit el d'en Martínez Sierra al conjuminar els tres quadros que componen la seva producció darrerament estrenada.

Navidad, per la seva estructura i per alguns dels procediments seguits en el desenrotllo, representa indubtablement una novetat en el teatre castellà. No aixís, siga dit en justícia, en el nostre teatre, ja que els Espectacles Graner presentaren deu anys enrere en aquest sentit un bon nombre d'obres, veritables acerts de fàbula i de presentació.

Això no vol dir que el propòsit d'en Martínez Sierra, al portar aquest gènere teatral a l'escena castellana, no siga el d'un innovador ben intencionat mereixedor per aital motiu de tota mena d'encoratjaments en la seva tasca.

No hem de ser nosaltres, entusiastes de totes les noves temptatives, qui hem de regatejar els elogis a què es fa acreedora l'obra artística empresa per l'il·lustre autor d'El reino de Dios. [...]"

"[...] Al mateix teatre [Novetats, amb la companyia del senyor Martínez Sierra] s'ha estrenat darrerament el miracle Navidad, que comença amb mímica i es torna cap a la meitat un drama social d'ensomni, amb derivacions cap al teatre meterlinkià i cap al de Hauptmann. La partitura original del mestre Turina és inspirada i tècnicament digna d'apreci original. Les decoracions de l'Alarma i d'en Junyent, i el to general de l'obra, l'emparenten amb el gènere creat per en Graner sota el rètol de visions musicals o el d'espectacles-audicions.

El sapo enamorado, pantomima ideada pel periodista madrileny don Tomàs Borràs, constitueix una variant dins del mateix gènere. No hi ha res més que acció i música. I el bon públic s'hi complau, com es complauria amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, que entre tots deixarem morir sense que s'ho mereixessin prou. [...]"

"Novetats

Amb La filla del carmesí, Josep Maria de Sagarra ha escrit una bella comèdia, una de les seves més belles comèdies. Perquè jo no soc, sortosament, dels que li neguen a Josep Maria de Sagarra tota valor. Pel contrari, l'obra d'aquest poeta, malgrat les seves falles, malgrat els seus innegables defectes, em sembla una de les més personals i dignes d'atenció de la nostra literatura dramàtica. [...]

Hi ha una cançó popular d'aquest mateix títol. És un romanç en el qual intervenen l'escrivaneta, el rei moro i el comte pelegrí.

Petiteta l'han casada
la filla del carmesí, de tan petita que era
no se'n sap calçar i vestir.

Tal com és la cançó, seguint-la fidelment, podria escenificar-se a la manera d'El miracle del Tallat, La presó de Lleida i altres dels vells Espectacles-Audicions Graner. Però Josep Maria de Sagarra és tot el contrari d'un poeta dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner: és un poeta robust, fort, cantellut, que tira al dret i va a la seva.

Josep Maria de Sagarra no ha respectat la cançó popular. I, al meu entendre, ha fet bé, car la cançó popular no li oferia massa matèria dramàtica. Sagarra situa l'acció de La filla del carmesí al mig del segle XVIII, quan ja no queden reis moros ni cavallers pelegrins. [...]"

La Esquella de la Torratxa 2625 (18/10/1929), p. 660.

"Heus ací una temporada que hom anuncia solemne i que pot ésser fèrtil de possibilitats, segons la manera com sigui enfocada. En això radica justament la seva importància. I per això, més que l'obra estrenada, el que ens interessa és escatir l'orientació del teatre líric català.

No es tracta, tanmateix, d'un fet isolat al nostre teatre. Compta ja amb precedents, el més important dels quals, des del punt de mira de la qualitat, fou els Espectacles i Audicions Graner al vell teatre Principal. Els intents posteriors —La cançó d'amor i de guerra, La taverna d'en Mallol, La revolta i La legió d'honor—, especialment aquesta darrera, iniciaren un descens, una sensible desviació vers el vulgarisme, el folklorisme pairalista i primari. En els començaments d'aquesta temporada cal preguntar: es va a continuació d'aquesta mena de teatre, que no és líric català ni molt menys, sinó simplement una picardia en català, o bé es vol continuar la trajectòria marcada per aquelles?

Ara bé, a propòsit de l'estrena de La legió d'honor ja hi va haver qui va dir, amb molt d'encert, que el nostre teatre líric no podia ésser muntat solament a base de l'explotació de determinats sentiments del públic, molt respectables. Que hi hauria d'haver alguna cosa més. Ara és qüestió de repetir-ho. I d'afegir-hi que si aleshores les circumstàncies, gairebé providencials —caiguda del Directori, explosió de l'entusiasme popular, etc.— feren un èxit esclatant d'una obra mediocre, la continuació del truc d'aleshores exposaria aquesta campanya a un fracàs sorollós, a més del ridícul.

La qüestió de la qualitat, aleshores, va quedar de banda, ofegada per les circumstàncies. Ara és el que cal tenir present, per damunt de tot. L'obra estrenada, inaugural de la temporada, Flors de Mar Bella, de Francesc Oliva i el mestre Lambert, no conté elements artístics dignes d'ésser senyalats. Es com moltes que se n'han vist. "Els criticaires

El nacionalisme sense mitges tintes que Metralla ve defensant des de sa aparició, ha remogut novament la bilis dels eterns criticaires, dels impotents, dels inútils, dels incapaços de crear res ni de fer res de profit per cap ideal.

Dona pena veure a certa joventut passant-se el temps fent junta i res més que junta, veure a l'ensems com han convertit les tardes dels seus casinets en taules de dissecció per a tots aquells que ens hem llençat a la brega, sense més mira que la de treballar per aquest ideal dels nostres amors, per Catalunya.

Aquí tot intent noble fracassa, tota iniciativa patriòtica, per desinteressada que sia, ha de merèixer la crítica, la censura, l'anatema dels qui més obligació tindrien de defensar-lo.

Hi han molts exemples. En Graner amb els seus espectacles presentats com enlloc del món, del món, s'hagin presentat; en Gual amb el seu Teatre Íntim; en Llongueras amb la seva Escola de Terrassa; en Xenius amb els seus admirables glossaris; en Diego Ruiz, eminent filòsof, tots han tingut de tastar la fel d'aquests criticaires. En altres parts del món, homes que donguessin a la seva pàtria tan belles mostres d'art o de ciència, trobarien, si no l'apoi material, almenys respecte, aplaudiment, admiració, agraïment.

Aquí no, aquí s'ha de rebentar, de criticar, perquè això per molts fa savi, intel·lectual, modernista. […]

I a tots aquests que aixís parlen, els preguntem: Què heu fet per Catalunya?

Ah, sí! Heu amargat la vida de molts patriotes que s'han empobrit per donar a la Pàtria honors i gloria; heu fet junta cada dos per tres, i heu fet de serpetes pels qui han tingut el defecte de treballar i lluitar i sacrificar-se per l'ideal. […]"

"La inmoralidad en Barcelona

[…] Las dos principales demostraciones de la inmoralidad están cristalizadas en la pornografía y (como dice muy bien nuestro sensato colega Cataluña) en el cinematógrafo. De la primera no hay que hablar. Del café-concierto escondido a que estaba relegada, pasó a numerosos locales no tan escondidos […]

Pero casi peor que la pornografía es el cinematógrafo. Véase lo que, hablando de él, dice el señor Rucabado en su indicado periódico Cataluña (27 mayo 1911): «Los ciudadanos de Barcelona han entregado su patrimonio moral en manos de una cuadrilla de judíos explotadores que nos sorben la sangre a cambio de veneno. En Barcelona, en época de crisis industrial, el negocio que más produce, el más reproductivo, es el de la inmoralidad. Millones y millones se van por el agotadero constante del cinematógrafo; ¿hacia dónde?...» También en el cinematógrafo hay pornografía, y de esa ya he hablado. Pero existen películas que, sin ser pornográficas, son altamente inmorales; pues entrenan la apología del vicio y del crimen. […]

Es maléfica la influencia de esas escenas rápidas, demasiado cortas para que las analicemos; pero suficientes para que en el archivo de nuestra fantasía se deposite una nueva idea, un nuevo fantasma de inmoralidad. […]

Deben contratarse espectáculos llamados hoy «Atracciones», que sean escogidas de verdad, de mérito reconocido y nuevas para el público, las cuales, sin peligro alguno para la moralidad, por supuesto, pudieran competir con las que se presentan en los cinematógrafos que hoy existen. He ahí un hermoso programa a seguir, que debe llamar la atención de cuantos se preocupan de la cosa pública en el buen sentido de la palabra. Y los primeros en preocuparse de ello, deben ser esos católicos prácticos de que hablaba, que se han visto favorecidos por Dios con riquezas materiales; pensando que uno de los medios de invertir esas riquezas es procurar por todos los medios el saneamiento de una sociedad que fenece moralmente, asfixiada por la corriente de inmundicia que crece de continuo, con nuevos refinamientos de vicio. […]

Lo mismo que se ha dicho del cinematógrafo, debe aplicarse en un todo al teatro para que haya un espectáculo serio, de alguna mayor consistencia que las rápidas y fugaces sesiones cinematográficas a que se ha ido acostumbrando la frívola sociedad moderna. Contrátense, pues, uno o varios teatros bajo la base expresa o tácita de la más estricta moral católica; que no se represente obra alguna que pueda ser perjudicial para la moralidad y la higiene públicas; que se escoja entre los mejores autores antiguos, modernos, nacionales y extranjeros, y que se forme un tribunal de examen para dictaminar sobre las funciones que hayan de representarse.

No puedo menos de dedicar un recuerdo al Sr. Graner que, con sus «Espectacles-Audicions» en el Teatro Principal de nuestra ciudad, trató de cultivar el arte y la moral. Pero tuvo que desistir de su empeño y retirarse en vista de la pérdida que experimentaba, por tres causas principales, a saber: No cuidó de un modo verdaderamente estricto, de la moral, por cuanto algunas de las obras presentadas sirvieron de escándalo a más de un espectador asiduo de buena fe. En su lugar, solo representaba obras catalanas, lo cual, si bien es loable por todos conceptos, no es menos cierto que limita necesariamente el público. Y por fin, el Sr. Graner, dicho sea en su favor y con justicia, presentaba todas sus obras con un derroche tal de lujo en la presentación, que no parecía probable que pudiera resarcirse de los cuantiosos gastos que le ocasionaban. “Teatre català

A l’Ignasi Iglésias

[...] Jo, a soles, ho havia pensat moltes vegades, i fins en alguna conversa particular, havia arribat a afirmar que el pervenir del Teatre Català estava en el Paral·lel, i que quan fos ben mort al centre, ressuscitaria en aquella popular barriada. Totes les coses, per a que s’arrelin en una nació, necessiten la consagració del poble, es forçós que devinguin populars. La Xirgu, gràcies a la Salomé i als vaudevilles del Paral·lel, és avui més coneguda i per lo tant pot donar més vida a un teatre, que no en Borràs abans d’anar a Madrid; dels demés artistes catalans, dolorós és confessar-ho, hi ha molta gent que no sap qui són i no obstant saben qui és la Montoro, la Pilar Martí, la Raquel Meller, i coneixen a en Pep Bergés i a en Santpere per les mateixes raons.

Això no vol dir que la campanya que vostès preparen al centre no pugui donar resultat. Sobre tot al principi, per reacció, podria molt ben ser que resultés la cosa brillant; però em fa por que després passi com amb tot, que la gent se vagi refredant i quedi el Teatre Català reduït a l’únic recurs de la subvenció per a poder anar tirant. Avui per avui, s’ha de fer teatre al Paral·lel i a preus econòmics; fent-ho així, les empreses d’aquella barriada han pogut donar sous de 10 i 12 duros a primers actors i primeres tiples, sous que no s’han donat mai al Teatre Català, i això que aquelles empreses tenen més gastos amb cors, orquestra, arxiu i exclusives d’obres.

Jo puc parlar per experiència, doncs, junt amb en Folch i Capdevila, vaig ésser empresari del Teatre Líric Català al Granvia, on deien que, per tractar-se d’una barriada aristocràtica, a on hi vivia la gent que concorria als Espectacles Graner, hi faríem una bona temporada, i si no arribem a plegar a temps hi hauríem perdut les orelles. Sols els diumenges, a la tarda, únic dia “popular”, fèiem bones entrades, arribant a recaudar 2.000 i pico de pessetes. En canvi, a l’Espanyol, al Paral·lel, sense fer cap estrena, amb un repertori gastat, amb obres totes elles representades 100 i 200 vegades al Principal, hi fèiem poca gent, és veritat, però en fèiem més que al Granvia. I si totes les obres d’aquest gènere fossin de costums populars, com les vostres, i no és per a adular-vos, altra fora la sort del líric català.

A tot arreu de fora, a on hem anat, essent empresa i sense ésser-ne, he procurat fer La reina del cor, obtenint un gran èxit a tot arreu, essent qui més s’hi ha entusiasmat, no la gent catalanista, com fora son dever, sinó el “poble”, el veritable “poble”, el “poble” inconscient, que no sap res de catalanismes, ni castellanismes que aplaudeix i s’entrega quan l’emocionen, ja sigui amb melodrames, ja amb comèdies de costums, amb vaudevilles o amb gènere xic, castellà o català. La prova de l’èxit està en que demanaven més obres per aquest estil; però passat de La flor tardana, L’alegria que passa i La barca, no es podien fer altres obres, les unes per manses i les altres per cares d’espectacle. Amb més repertori, s’haurien fet bones temporades a tot arreu de líric-català sol.

Jo crec que, ara que hi ha en Morera aquí, amb “estrenes”, se podria fer, al Paral·lel, una gran temporada de líric català. [...]

“La naturalesa i l’art en el teatre

[...] Hi ha èpoques de renaixença en la història de l’art, així com també hi han períodes decadents. El Bé en lluita eterna amb el Mal, heus aquí l’explicació. La lluita entre esperits sadolls de generositat i els esperits mesquins. Aquets darrers dominen en el present històric. L’Art se troba en un període de baixesa, decrèpit; el teatre, aqueix art diví, que amb formes mes plàsticament sensibles, arriba fins al més pregon del cor de l’home i pot encaminar-lo més directament a la perfecció, aqueix art noble es veu abandonat. I aquelles magnes creacions dels genis resten isolades i sos conreuadors en inacció forçosa.

La nostra escena en serva uns grats records de l’Art que l’ha enriquida. Aquells enyorats temps del Mestre que ens deixà per la nostra dissort; que les empreses feien quant podien per les obres, i a tot cost tractaven per un decorat que arrodonia i era sempre un segur èxit. De la Terra al Sol, La redoma encantada, aquells balls d’espectacle Lohokeli, i Parthenope, decorades amb una riquesa no superada enlloc, per en Soler i Rovirosa. Al teatre Català amb el Judes d’en Pitarra i amb Lo monjo negre. A Novetats amb la Sirena d’en Pin i Soler, amb el Jesús de Nazaret d’en Guimerà, al Liceu amb Don Carlo de Verdi, Samson et Dalila de Saint-Saëns, Neró de Rubinstein, amb quin decorat hi obtenia un verdader triomf. Aqueix mestre que posseïa una fantasia poderosa i una fecunditat sens límits fou el qui portà, junt amb el despreniment generós dels empresaris, dies de glòria a l’Art de nostre immortal teatre.

Un altre noble intent covà dintre de l’ànima d’un dels més plecars artistes de la nostra terra: en Graner, que en sos Espectacles i Audicions regenerà aqueix Art, deixà records inesborrables amb les representacions plàstiques de cançons populars, arranjades a la nostra escena per distingits literats i decorades amb música per lo més selecte de la nostra joventut musical, i a on lluïren ses brillants facultats els escenògrafs. La Fustots, *Els tres tambor*s, Fra Garí, La presó de Lleida, El comte l’Arnau i d’altres a on hi vessaren sa fantasia exuberant els mestres Vilomara, Moragas i Alarma, Junyent, Urgellès, Brunet, etc. Aquella fou una memorable tongada que no oblidarem mai els esperits que aspirem a una major perfecció. Allò fou un ver esforç titànic.

L’Art escenogràfic tingué jornades glorioses i els rars esperits forts reberen el magnà anc que fos sols per uns instants efímers. [...] [Dedica un paràgraf també al Sindicat d’Actors abans d’acabar.]

Precís se fa donar un crit, fer un esforç suprem per a tornar als temps de glòria. Mestres no en manquen pas; cal enfortir als febles i donar-los la cultura per a que els mercaders del temple es vegin compromesos i, avergonyits, se’n vajan lluny per a profit i glòria del nostre teatre.

"[...] Oh, atreviment, potència d'una imaginació ben impressionada! De manera que en el desert d'espectacles a la catalana que ens rodeja, tu hi forges tot un teatre líric? Ets justa, ets ponderada, però, imaginació d'estranger. Verament, si la nostra escena fos tal com degué semblar-te corrent món, tindríem aquesta manifestació de l'art teatral a Barcelona. No ens manquen actors especialistes. En Morera, en Pahissa, el mateix mestre Vives, son músics catalans. L'alegria que passa, La nit de l'amor, La barca, Picarol, La reina vella, La santa espina, La presó de Lleida, etc. no foren ja una realitat ben encoratjadora? Doncs què s'ha fet aquest caliu que de mica en mica se'ns tornarà un gran foc? Pluja d'indiferència hi ha caigut a sobre i les cendres esventades. Fem i desfem inútilment. Els peus esbullen lo que el cap arbitrava.

Som inquiets, variables en les tasques ordenades, i constants solament en l'anarquia... Hem perdut, no tenim ja ni senyal, ni rastre, ni vestigi d'aquell teatre líric de tan bella naixença... [...]"

"D'acció catòlica

Bon començ. El teatre de noies a l'Escola Dominical i al Col·legi de1 Sagrat Cor. Inauguració de l'obra de reformes en el Círcol de Catòlics. Vetllada en preparació.

L'acció cultural catòlica va desenrotllant-se actualment amb una orientació definida en sos medis, amb una empenta decidida, arborant orgullosament sa bandera de la religió, sa bandera baix la qual poden aixoplugar-s'hi tots els bons torroellencs [el diari és de Toroella de Montgrí], puig com digué Mossèn Viver en son darrer parlament en el Círcol de Catòlics, "no es jaumista ni conservadora, republicana ni monàrquica".

Anem a resumir-ne ses darreres manifestacions, fent avinent, però, abans, que amb satisfacció la contemplem desprenent-se poc a poc de ruralies, d'aquelles ruralies que tot seguir se senten en nostra vida col·lectiva com la flaire de l'auserda dipositada en nostres cases. No és que s'hagi arribat encara al refinament dels Espectacles Graner de Barcelona, ni al civisme, serietat intel·lectual que desitgem els admiradors del nou-cents, però comencem ja amb excel·lent voluntat a emprendre els camins de ciutadania. Déu ens dongui perseverança i anhels de sana reforma. [A continuació explica les notícies esmentades al titular]."

"Pel teatre líric català

Un bell propòsit

Diumenge passat fou celebrada per la societat coral Catalunya Nova, que tan glorioses campanyes realitzà en el temps heroic de la propaganda catalanista, l'alta distinció rebuda en el concert de Caramelles. De la festa n'ha parlat ja degudament el diari. La nostra missió és, doncs, únicament, la de recollir en aquesta «pàgina» una idea que hi fou llançada, o millor encara, un propòsit que hi fou manifestat. Ens referim al de fer reviure el nostre teatre líric.

Catalunya en general i Barcelona particularment, adoren la música. Cantar i sentir cantar és per tot fill d'aquesta terra una delicada joia. Una festa catalana no és ben bé una festa si no hi ha cantúries. I és curiós de constatar com en alguns actes populars són a centes les veus del públic que se sumen sense fer-hi esment a les dels cors i orfeons. L'ambient propici al teatre líric no és pas, doncs, una cosa que hagi de ésser creada, sinó que ja existeix; amb una mica d'encert en els que el dirigissin, l'èxit en fora assegurat.

No hi ha cap mena de dubte que entre totes les campanyes de Teatre Català realitzades del nostre record, la més gloriosa és la dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner. Abans hi havia hagut la del Tívoli, no menys gloriosa per l'esforç que representava, però l'eficàcia de la qual fou reduïda per causes diverses, sent la primera de totes la manca d'una preparació i ona orientació segures i orgàniques.

Amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner foren posats els fonaments d'un art nacional que sols les errades d'empresa feren aturar en plena volada. En sortiren veritables autors, tant en el ram de la lletra com en el de la música, i el públic s'hi complaïa. I aquí sí que donem a la paraula públic la seva accepció més ampla i a la vegada més noble. Eren les dames, eren els infants, eren les gents lletrades, era el poble que apreciaven el valor artístic dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner. L'home distingit i el terrassà, l'intel·lectual i l'obrer, en seguien interessats les estrenes, en cantaven les partitures, se n'encomanaven certes frases. I no hi vol dir res que el gènere tingués detractors o fos atacat a estones per ridícul. L'interès hi era, fins per part dels que en semblaven els majors enemics.

Aquell interès ara hi tornaria a ser. S'ha barrejat amb el record del públic una impressió d'enyorament que faria d'una nova empenta al Teatre líric català un èxit segur. Sempre, naturalment, que l'empresa fos degudament preparada amb un bon estoc d'obres, amb una companyia d'elements entusiastes i ben agermanats, com fou la d'en Graner, amb ganes d'estudiar en tots els artistes, correspostes per l'empresa amb unes ganes de fer les coses bé, i amb un gran seny en confiar la direcció artística a qui tingués prou solvència i prou dignitat per fer cosa d'honor el triomf de la temptativa.

I que hi hagi foc patriòtic que s'encomani al públic, per arribar a l'extrem, assolit amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, de semblar a cada espectador —nen o nena, dama o cavaller— que l'empresa és quelcom de propi. La qual cosa no vol dir que s'hagi d'esperar que la gent vagi al teatre per patriotisme. Al teatre s'hi ha de anar perquè s'hi troba el compte. Anar per patriotisme a on teatre mort és, en definitiva, laborar contra la pàtria, puix es contribueix a malgastar energies que, esmerçades en una preparació silenciosa i perseverant, esclatarien a una hora més oportuna amb major plenitud i força.

Aquesta preparació és la que ens sembla del cas recomanar als benemèrits joves que, comptant amb el concurs del mestre Morera, tenen el nobilíssim propòsit de laborar per la creació definitiva del teatre líric català.

«Catalunya Nova», em els seus bons temps, realitzà la bella obra de catalanitzar el cor popular. Per raons que no venen a tom, l'obra restà encallada abans de seguir la trajectòria que naturalment li era senyalada. Ara sembla que alguns elements joves, sense menysprear el consell i l'ajuda eficient dels antics, volen reprendre el camí perdut en uns anys de vida excessivament plàcida. És cosa que tots, cadascú en la mida de les seves possibilitats, els donguem l'ajuda que es mereix el bon intent. I és cosa també que ells, per la seva banda, pensin que l'entusiasme i el patriotisme, en una obra de la naturalesa d'aqueixa que van a emprendre, són absolutament necessaris, però tant com ells ho són la reflexió, el seny i l'estudi."

La Veu de Catalunya 6826 (14/05/1918), ed. matí, p. 7.

"De teatre líric català

Ja som entrats en el setembre, el mes venturós de les veremes, de les pluges intempestives i de les xafogors recalcitrants i ronsejaires i de la represa d'espectacles.

Els teatres, que han anat fent la viu-viu del juny ençà, oferint a un públic las, abatut per la calor, l'atractiu d'exhibicions lleugeres i de tot repòs per a l'esperit, es preparen activament a inaugurar les tasques hivernals. Companyies dramàtiques, teatre líric, varietats, tota mena d'espectacles intensificaran aviat llur actuació acostumada, i a cop de bombo i espinguet de trompeta anunciaran les més grans meravelles. Tota mena d'espectacles hi seran; tota la varietat del divertiment escometrà l'espectador oferint-li goigs insospitats; tota... menys el teatre líric català.

Tanmateix és ben dissortat el nostre teatre líric. A Barcelona hi actuen anualment importants companyies líriques per espai de molts mesos; és freqüent veure tres, quatre o més teatres dedicats exclusivament a aquesta mena d'espectacle. Fins en venen companyies senceres de l'estranger, lo que vol dir que l'espectacle compta amb un públic, nombrós i fervent, element primordial d'existència per a tota mena d'empresa teatral.

Aquestes abundoses manifestacions de teatre líric, quina mena d'obres ofereixen al públic? Dolorós és constatar-ho, però, en general, ens ofereixen un repertori, no direm ja tan poc artístic, sinó tan poca-solta, que és impenetrablement misteriós el fet que hi hagi qui despengui unes quantes pessetes per assistir a l'enfilall de bajanades, unes més incongruents que les altres, que immancablement s'oferiran als seus sentits durant tres o més hores.

Operetes vieneses, més o menys autèntiques, els arguments de les quals són hermèticament incomprensibles, amb evolucions de senyores «vestides» (és un dir) amb poca cosa més que el clàssic pàmpol, i senyors rigorosament abillats de frac, que transcendeixen a camàlic, alternant amb personatges de la més rara indumentària militaresca, i altres senyores «vestides» encara més parca ment que les primeres. Tres actes, d'entrades i sortides capricioses, sense que hom hi entengui ni un maleït borrall, mitja dotzena de valsos empalagosos per a amenitzar-ho, i teló final.

Alternant amb les operetes (vieneses o de casa, el mateix té), «Tempestats», «Campanones», «Marines» i altres novetats per l'estil, sense més atractiu que el d'ésser cantades pel tal o el qual, en rabiosa competència de «pniyols», «latiguillos», «virolles» i altres excessos lírics.

Aquesta és la pastura que, d'uns quants anys ençà, amb comptades excepcions, i de cada deu dies nou, ens ofereix el teatre líric a l'ús, el teatre líric en llengua castellana. Implacablement malmesa pels llibretistes, primer, pels compositors més tard, i definitivament pels executants.

I així anem tirant l'un any darrera l'altre, sense que a cap empresari li vingui la pensada o tingui prou pit per a envestir una temporada de teatre líric català. Jo ja em penso quin és el criteri de les empreses en aquesta qüestió; és ben senzill: —Si tal com ho fem ens guanyem bé la vida, per què abandonar el que tenim segur per l'insegur?— Sens dubte, fora aquesta la resposta que, unànimement, ens donarien, i en el camp estricte del negoci tenen raó.

La nostra esperança, tan fervent com remota, de veure implantat a la nostra terra un teatre líric nacional, sols la podrem veure realitzada per l'esforç acoblat d'unes quantes entitats ben caracteritzades per a dur l'empresa a bon terme, o, més pràcticament encara, par l'empenta generosa d'algun home acabalat, enamorat de les nostres coses, que sàpiga rodejar-se d'elements ben aptes. Faci Déu que sigui aviat.

Tenim el convenciment ferm que, si per la seva tendència patriòtica l'aspiració que acabem d'expressar és d'una legitimitat i precisió absolutes, no és cap disbarat, baix el punt de vista de negoci; i que la temença de les empreses a entrar-hi per la incertesa que els ofereix és més causada per la comoditat de la posició en què es troben que pel perill que preveuen abandonant-la.

Si es tractés d'un experiment a intentar sobre matèria inconeguda i amb clements dubtosos, certament que l'empresa esdevindria perillosa. Però perdura encara en la memòria i de tots el record de l'èxit que assoliren, fa tot just uns quants anys, els Espectacles-Audicions Graner al teatre Principal, èxit artístic indiscutible, car la major part de les obres que allí es posaren eren d'un valor molt superior a la generalitat de les que es venen posant de procedència estrangera i, per damunt de tot, eren nostres, i èxit econòmic indubtable, perquè la interrupció d'aquella bella obra no fou pas deguda a pèrdues per ella ocasionades[101].

Aquella experiència, ben terminada, al nostre parer, no s'hauria d'oblidar en tota iniciativa de teatre líric nacional que es produeixi; i és en ella, en sa tendència general estètica i en la seva tan acurada manera de manifestar-se, que es deu basar la implantació del nostre tan desitjat i necessari teatre líric.

Si l'home, o els homes de bona voluntat, sorgeixen, comptin amb el més entusiasta concurs d'en

F. A. Got"

[101] S'estaria referint a l'assistència del públic. El Principal tenia força públic als seus espectacles, la problemàtica econòmica es devia a la gestió empresarial de les despeses, que eren massa grans per ser cobertes per la venda d'entrades.

"El Teatre Líric Català

És un fet immediat. És convingut inaugurar-lo el dia primer d'octubre propvinent.

La gran massa del públic català sent predilecció per l'espectacle musical, admira les facultats i les habilitats de l'artista líric. Aquesta sensibilitat musical al posar-se en contacte amb l'esperit de reivindicació de la personalitat catalana ha creat un corrent popular amb les corals i orfeons i un altre corrent selecte amb l'Orfeó Català i grans orquestres, executant les obres cabdals dels més eminents mestres nacionals i estrangers.

En aquest intens moviment de cultura musical, que ha seguit paral·lelament al de reivindicació nacionalista, en anar avençant, clarament s'observava que s'hi havia deixat una llacuna en no involucrar en ell el teatre líric, i és per això que sovint planava pel damunt del nostre poble la idea de la creació, de la reinstauració, millor dit, d'aquest teatre. I fins qualque vegada ha cristal·litzat amb èxit.

Deixant de banda la seva primitiva època (que els vivents tot just aconseguiren) de les sarsueletes catalanes representades als antics teatres del Tívoli del Passeig de Gràcia (cantonada a la Ronda de Sant Pere), del de Novetats del mateix passeig (cantonada al carrer de València), del del vell teatre Tívoli al mateix passeig, al costat de la Riera d'en Malla (el mateix solar que actualment ocupa) i el del Bon Retiro al mig de l'actual Plaça de Catalunya, ens trobem amb aquella explosió de l'entusiasme popular que motivaren els Espectacles Graner al teatre Principal, que es comptaven per plens, és a dir, per sobreïxents, perquè les cues arribaven fins al carrer Nou, entusiasme que dissortadament varen ofegar els fets vergonyosos del 25 de novembre de 1905.

Recordem les representacions de L'arlesiana a l'aire lliure, als boscos de Vallvidrera; la de Canigó a les Arenes de Figueres i de Barcelona; la d'una esponerosa temporada de teatre líric amb notables obres al vell Teatre Tívoli, i sentim encara les ovacions tributades a la reintegració a la llengua pròpia i natural de l'òpera Marina, al modern i aristocràtic teatre Tívoli en la temporada teatral de la passada primavera.

La idea de la reinstauració del teatre líric català anava prenent cos i espurnejava arreu. Tan tost l'emetia una colla d'intel·lectuals en algun article de periòdic, com era un empresari el que, considerant l'ocasió propícia, es preparava per a donar-li estat de realitat.

De sobte s'ha presentat la solució donada por tres persones que dominen i entenen la complexitat d'una empresa teatral, tant en el seu mecanisme intern, com en la seva psicologia externa, o sia de la multitud, que és un dels elements fonamentals. Són els populars actors en Josep Santpere i en Josep Bergés i el també coneixedor dels afers teatrals i entusiasta de les coses de la terra, en Miquel Pons. Cal recordar que en Santpere era un dels principals elements dels Espectacles Graner, i bé podria ésser que la decisió d'ara sigui un rebrot d'aquella esponerosa temporada lírica del vell teatre de la Santa Creu.

[...] [Explica els nous títols que es pretenen estrenar] Aquestes obres noves alternaran amb represes d'altres obres espigolades en el repertori de les velles i divertides sarsueletes catalanes del primitiu teatre Tívoli; amb El comte l'Arnau, La santa espina, La nit de l'amor, La reina vella, Els tres tambors, La presó de Lleida, La reina del cor, La reina

jove», dels Espectacles Graner; amb les del vell teatre Tívoli La Rosons, Les roselles, Els gendarmes, Picarol, La barca, Pierrot lladre, La presó de Xauxa i Gaziel, i com és de suposar, amb alguna de Marina. [...]

"Teatre Líric Català

Deixem que altres s'entretinguin a discutir si el Teatre Català existeix o no. És un tema que ens podria plaure altres estones, però no pas ara en què per damunt d'opinions per a tots els gustos, està a punt de triomfar un fet real ben eloqüent.

Per al dia primer d'octubre vinent és anunciada la inauguració d'una temporada de Teatre Líric Català al Tívoli de Barcelona.

Passen al front d'aquesta empresa els dos populariíssims i celebrats actors Bergés i Santpere, en unió d'en Miquel Pons. És per demés significativa, i tant de bo que això representés una magnífica senyal dels temps, que homes com en Bergés i en Santpere, homes de teatre, pràctics en afers escènics com són ells, i aplaudits tot-hora, no reparen en abandonar el gènere teatral a què venien dedicant-se, que no estarà ni moral ni artísticament al nivell de les seves facultats, però els facilitarà, de segur, èxit i profit, per a llençar-se a una campanya de Teatre Líric Català.

Nosaltres no tenim més que felicitar-nos-en amb major motiu si això volgués dir el recobrament dels tant coneguts actors per a enlairades tasques d'art patri. El programa a desenrotllar és excel·lent i enclou una interessant llista d'obres de celebrats autors literaris i musicals. Igualment escollit és l'elenc artístic al qual s'ha afegit ara darrerament els prestigiosos noms de l'Emili Vendrell, el tenor solista de l'Orfeó Català; en Sagi-Barba, na Lluïsa Vela i altres.

Dirigirà l'orquestra el Mestre Lambert. Hi ha expectació per aquesta iniciativa, que sembla haver sigut molt ben rebuda i són molts els que esperen amb il·lusió el veure-la realitzada i tornar en aquells bons temps dels cèlebres enyorats Espectacles-Audicions Graner que tenien lloc al teatre Principal, havent-se guanyat l'adhesió d'un públic molt nombrós, i la reposició d'algun dels quals és un dels aspectes que es proposa conrear la nova empresa.

Esperem que l'èxit en tots els aspectes coroni aquests propòsits."

"Interrogants a l'entorn del Teatre Líric Català

És un fet que durant la vinent temporada d'espectacles tindrem un Teatre Líric Català.

Davant d'aquesta certesa, ens cal fer algunes consideracions, més encara algunes preguntes que no podran ésser respostes més que per la realitat d'ella mateixa. De no fer-ho així, deixaríem de banda els nostres deures i és cosa que mal ens ha passat pel cap.

Sempre que es presenta resolt un intent de realització teatral no podem menys d'experimentar una sincera alegria i un gran anhel d'encert en son profit, que de fet serà al profit de tots. Al propi temps, però, vetllem pels entusiasmes desmesurats. I creiem convenient voler-nos explicar les coses, perquè sols així es pot aconseguir quelcom definitiu.

Fa molts anys, va portar-se a cap una temporada de Teatre Líric Català.

En aquella moments, el género chico castellà produïa, econòmicament, el màxim dels seus rendiments, i si bé és cert que un panteig patriòtic aconsellà als organitzadors d'aquella temporada, no ho és menys que tenien els ulls posats en l'èxit econòmic de la producció madrilenya, i s'empararen de l'obreta en un acte, del quadret de color, en una paraula: del tipisme a diari. "Si ells ho fan, per què no ho podem fer nosaltres?" Això se sentia dir tots dies, i aquest fou, sens dubte, el pecat d'aquell intent, al cap del qual figurava la reproducció —no l'estrena— de L'alegria que passa, l'obra més delitosa i més sincera que ha produït en Rusiñol.

Però, què ha succeït? Per més que el favor del públic fou indiscutible i es passà per damunt de tots els alts i baixos de la improvisació, l'haver-se inspirat en un model massa estranger a la nostra fisonomia nacional va conduir al cansament que era de preveure. El género chico, basat en el quadret de color i en el tipisme més o menys sincer, compta amb una paleta extensíssima, provinent de totes les regions hispàniques, mentre que aquell intent de Teatre Líric Català a base del tarannà madrileny, no sabia ni podia comptar amb altre tipisme ni altres costums que els nostres. Això feu que després d'haver explotat els efectes d'unes sardanes i unes caramelles, més o menys efectives, el camp va estrènyer considerablement i l'acció va defallir, contràriament al que el mateix públic desitjava.

Vingueren després els Espectacles-Audicions Graner, i en ells l'element líric va jugar-hi un paper important sense però, denominar-los Teatre Líric Català, perquè creia en Graner que en fet de rotulacions que comprometen el nom d'una nació és precís parar-hi molt de compte. Ben segur que de no haver-hi concorregut circumstàncies especials, que res tingueren que veure amb les intencions artístiques d'aquella obra, s'hauria arribat insensiblement a la possessió d'elements aptes per a realitzar l'obra definitiva en el sentit que ens ocupa.

D'ençà de la caiguda del primer intent, i del negligent abandó del segon, sens prèvia retolació, s'ha conspirat constantment per tal d'assolir-ne la definitiva implantació.

Però succeeix molt sovint, entre nosaltres, que emportats per una certa fogositat en imaginar, restem sense forces per a aconduir l'imaginat al fet. S'ha parlat durant una vintena d'anys de que ens calia realitzar el Teatre Líric Català, però durant vint anys no s'ha fet res amb el propòsit d'aconseguir-ho degudament, preparant elements en tots els sentits i estimulant-ne la dignitat contra tota mena d'adversitats. I avui, com l'altra vegada, anem de cap al Teatre Líric Català amb propòsits tan bons com es vulgui, però amb el farcell feixuc de les dificultats ocasionades per la imprecisió i la improvisació que ens solen ésser tan familiars en tota cosa.

No és a la lleugera que parlo així. Bé és cert que cap confidència m'ha posat en detalls, del cas, però, pel que es veu, i més que res pel que es diu, hom pot seguir-ne perfectament el procés i reflexionar degudament al seu entorn. [...] [A continuació, Gual presenta diverses preguntes i questiona com es planteja la nova empresa de Teatre Líric Català].

"Teatre Tívoli.— Des de primers d'octubre fins a les festes de fi d'any ha actuat en aquest teatre una companyia lírica catalana, sota la direcció d'en Josep Bergés, de la qual formaven part prestigiosos cantants com les senyores Bugatto i Callao, el tenor Emili Vendrell i el baríton Sagi-Barba, amb altres estimables artistes; havent dirigit l'orquestra el mestre Lambert.

Fou un nou ressorgiment del teatre líric català, continuació dels Espectacles Graner que anys enrere al teatre Principal tan bon acolliment obtingueren. Tot ensalçant el noble intent, hem de dir, no obstant, que les representacions del Tívoli no han respost a l'expectació que l'anunci d'elles havien promogut en el públic filharmònic. El repertori, poc variat, no ens ha donat a conèixer tampoc cap obra forta, en el sentit artístic més alt. [A continuació, fa un repàs del repertori, destacant les estrenes de Don Joan de Serrallonga i d'El castell dels tres dragons.]"

Inicis i precedents

Les primeres teories que apunten cap al gènere escènic que va consolidar-se sota el nom de "visions musicals" van aparèixer de la mà d'Adrià Gual durant els últims anys del segle XIX. El pintor i dramaturg va concebre la proposta experimental de les "cançons populars harmonitzades per a l'escena" com una escenificació del folklore musical català, glossant les lletres i cançons populars sense alterar gaire la mètrica ni el disseny melòdic original.

La intenció era reconnectar amb les cançons de la infantesa, reviure els records i emocions arrelats a la terra de criança, tot per despertar en el públic el sentiment identitari de la catalanitat. El material triat per ser la llavor generativa i creativa d'aquest gènere escènic, el folklore popular, suposava, a més, una interconnexió amb altres pobles i les seves cultures populars pròpies, des d'una perspectiva alhora nacionalitzant i internacionalitzada.

Com a primera mostra d'aquesta proposta teòrica, Adrià Gual va escriure el 1897 la primera cançó popular harmonitzada per a l'escena, Blancaflor. L'obra, amb música d'Enric Granados, seguia la lletra d'origen popular i suposava una orquestració i harmonització de la melodia folklòrica. Tenia, per tant, un caràcter poètic, visual i simbòlic, amb escassa acció narrativa que desenvolupés un nus pròpiament dramàtic.

L'obra va ser estrenada per la companyia del Teatre Íntim que dirigia el mateix Gual el 30 de gener al teatre Líric de Barcelona, precedida d'Interior, traducció al català de la peça de Maurice Maeterlinck, el qual havia inspirat clarament les poètiques simbolistes del teatre de Gual.

La mostra de teatre simbolista no va tenir bona recepció per part del públic, i el projecte va quedar aturat. El públic va riure del caràcter innocent i infantil que tenia l'escenificació de la cançó popular, cosa que va tenir un fort impacte emocional en Gual, i les cançons populars en les qual estava treballant, La presó de Lleida i L'estudiant de Vic, van quedar aturades.

Per altra banda, L'alegria que passa, estrenada pel mateix Teatre Íntim al voltant de les mateixes dates, sí que va gaudir d'un gran èxit. El seu compositor, Enric Morera, va prendre el lideratge de la proposta lírica catalana instaurant la seva companyia de Teatre Líric Català per a la temporada 1900/01.

Atès, però, a la impossibilitat econòmica de Morera per patrocinar la continuïtat d'una companyia estable, el moviment del teatre líric català va començar un procés d'institucionalització i captació de socis i recursos. El Foment del Teatre Líric Català, creat el 1903, va nomenar Adrià Gual al començament de la temporada 1904/05 com a director, retornant-li la direcció artística i el lideratge intel·lectual del moviment.

El mecenatge de Lluís Graner (que va obrir paral·lelament la sala Mercè amb Gual com a director escènic, reformulant la seva teoria sota el nou nom de "visions musicals") va redimir l'experimental Blancaflor patrocinant l'edició del text. Els projectes lírics de Gual van ser recuperats per a l'escenari del Principal sota els Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

El catàleg que es desenvolupa a continuació identifica, cataloga i documenta totes les visions musicals que es van escriure i representar arran aquesta iniciativa, des de Blancaflor com a primer precedent, a la sala Mercè i el seu circuit associat, passant pels salons recreatius i centres culturals que van implementar el gènere, fins a les estrenes extraordinàries fora de temporada i els títols trobats sense estrenar. Només l'activitat dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner i les seves visions musicals queden fora d'aquest catàleg, perquè es troben documentades al volum previ inclòs en aquesta mateixa tesi doctoral.

Atesa la naturalesa de les produccions, que giraven al voltant de breus temporades a sales i empreses que feien una aposta artística pel gènere, el catàleg endreça els títols catalogant-los dins de l'empresa en la qual es van estrenar. Els diferents apartats corresponen als diferents espais en els quals es van representar visions musicals, explicant primerament en un resum informatiu les causes, ubicació i content de l'empresa que va produir les visions musicals, per continuar després amb una fitxa de cada una d'elles, amb les dades bàsiques de cada obra, possibles fotografies o dibuixos d'escena, fotografies de les portades o dels manuscrits en els casos que se'n conserven, i la transcripció de les ressenyes de premsa sobre l'obra.

Les múltiples empreses estan agrupades, alhora, segons la naturalesa de la seva programació escènica:

- Primerament es troba la sala Mercè, la primera que va institucionalitzar i popularitzar el gènere de les visions musicals, juntament amb el circuit de sales que van néixer al seu voltant, directament relacionades amb ella i amb el seu equip artístic, fins i tot arribant a compartir i girar produccions.
- Després, es fa una breu menció i documentació de les sales que de igual manera van néixer associades o vinculades a la sala Mercè, però que només van oferir projeccions cinematogràfiques, sense representacions teatrals de cap visió musical.
- El tercer apartat agrupa les empreses escèniques que van importar el gènere i estrenar les seves pròpies visions musicals, inspirades en el cas de la sala Mercè, en els seus valors morals i la seva influència artística i estètica, però sense tenir contacte directe amb ella o amb el seu equip artístic.
- Finalment, un últim apartat agrupa les visions musicals que es van estrenar de manera esporàdica a altres teatres o salons recreatius sense oferir tota una temporada d'aquesta mena de peces, a més d'alguns títols escrits però dels quals no trobem constància que fossin estrenats en escena.

Blancaflor

LLETRA DE LA CANSÓ POPULAR

Estava la Blancaflor
sota l' arbre de la menta
ne brodava un camison per la filla de la reyna, lo camison n' era d' or de seda 'l brodava ella, quan la seda li mancava
posa de sa cabellera,
de sa cabellera al or
no hi ha molta diferencia.
Alsa 'ls ulls y véu la mar,
véu venir la mar brugenta, véu venir fustas y naus
y galeras mes de trenta, véu venir un mariner
que 'l seu gran senyor li sembla:
—Mariner, bon mariner
Deu vos dó en la mar bonansa ¿havéu vist ó conegut lo meu gran senyor en Fransa?
—Si senyora que 'l conech
y d' ell li porto comanda;
diu que 's cerqui un aymador qu' ell aymaba s' es cercada:
la filla del rey francés per esposa li han donada.
—Be n' haja qui presa l' ha mal haja qui li ha donada!
Que una dama com só jo
per altras sia deixada!
Set anyadas l' he esperat
com á dona ben casada
y altra set l' esperaré
com á viudeta enviudada, si al cap dels set any no va
á monja será ficada, monjeta d' un monestir que 's nomena Santa Clara.
—No 'us fassáu monjeta no,
no 'us fassáu monjeta encara,
no 'us fassáu monjeta no,
que foreu malaguanyada,
no 'us fassáu monjeta no,
qu' encara tenin qui 'us ayma.
Veuse aquí un anellet d' or del dia que 'ns esposarem, veuse aquí una trena d' or del día que 'ns embarcarem.—
Dient aixó 'l seu marit
li va donà una abrassada.
—Perdoni lo meu marit
si he faltat en cap paraula.
—Perdoni la meva esposa
del temps que á mí m' esperava.
—Perdoni lo meu marit
si n' he estada mal criada.
—Ben criada Blancaflor
de ben pare y bona mare.

Proximament s' anunciará la sessió de Primavera que será segurament un' obra del célebre escriptor alemán

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Anoche el Teatre Íntim representó en el Lírico el Interior, de Maeterlinck, traducido al catalán por Pompeyo Fabra, y la Blancaflor, de Adrián Gual.

El Interior que el Sr. Fabra ha puesto en catalán, con un arte tal que conserva toda la gran intensidad de expresión del original francés, es una obra de este teatro nervioso, enfermizo, que tanta fama ha dado a Maeterlinck, y que para producir todo su efecto requiere un ambiente de recogimiento, una representación ideal y un público sumamente refinado. Anoche, en el Lírico, no se reunieron estos tres elementos y, por consiguiente, la obra produjo menos efecto del que produce su simple lectura a cualquier persona que tenga un poco de imaginación y de buen gusto.

Algo por el estilo puede decirse también de la Blancaflor y de su éxito. Antes de alzarse el telón, el señor Pujol i Brull leyó un prólogo del autor, señor Gual, en el que se explica la generación de la obra en la mente del poeta: como canción popular, que mece los sueños del niño; va tomando con los años significación y plasticidad hasta producir en el poeta la concepción de obras, como la que iba a representarse.

Consiste esta en la condensación escénica de la canción popular la Blancaflor. Sus versos son una paráfrasis vaga y muy poética de la misma. La escena, en que se mueven aquellos personajes de leyenda es también de leyenda, de una simplicidad de líneas y suavidad de tonos como la imaginación infantil del pueblo pudo soñar.

A todo ello se unió la música de Granados, que, con perfecto sentimiento de la canción, la parafrasea con gran sobriedad y arte.

A pesar de todo, la obra no llegó a dominar al público del Teatro Lírico, que no era ni un público de ingenuos para abandonarse a la sugestión de la obra, ni un público de refinados para saborear su delicadeza. Con esta representación terminó la serie del Teatre Íntim, dirigido por don Adrián Gual, que es de desear no ceje en su empeño de devoción al arte y de fomentar nuestra cultura artística."

Diario de Barcelona 31 (31/01/1899), ed. tarda, p. 1250.

"Teatro Lírico

La tercera sesión, última de las del presente abono del Teatre Íntim, logró atraer anoche a la sala Beethoven aún mayor concurrencia que las dos sesiones celebradas anteriormente, pero dejó menos satisfechos a los espectadores.

Pasose en escena el cuadrito dramático en un acto de Maeterlinck, titulado Interior, en cuyo desempeño no estuvieron del todo acertados los que se encargaron de su interpretación. La obrita, que leyéndola resulta bellísima, llegó a hacerse poco menos que pesada por la inseguridad que en sus papeles denotaron sus intérpretes. Al terminar, hiciéronse en el saloncito de descanso frases exageradamente mordaces respecto a la interpretación de Interior, una de cuyas frases se hallaba concebida en los siguientes términos: «La ejecución, inmejorable; ni... Nicomedes Méndez».

Después —y a consecuencia de lo larguísimo que resultó el entreacto que siguió al cuadrito de Maeterlinck— el público manifestó su impaciencia de un modo bastante singular. Primero tosió un espectador; luego, dos; después, diez; a continuación, cien, y por fin, la sala casi por entero. También, con este motivo, se hicieron frases, una de las cuales, bastante gráfica por cierto, decía: «Lo frac ensenya l'orella...»

Como es indudable la buena voluntad y la altura de miras que informan los propósitos de los organizadores de las sesiones del Teatre Íntim, convendría que subsanaran errores tan fáciles de corregir.

Terminó la velada con el estreno de Blancaflor, canción popular armonizada para la escena, en un acto, por Adrián Gual y el maestro Granados. La canción, que es hermosísima, obtuvo excelente desempeño, distinguiéndose la señorita Domus en el papel de protagonista y el señor Gual en el de esposo de esta. La orquesta, dirigida por el señor Granados, muy bien.

Antes de representarse Blancaflor, leyó el señor Pujol con mucho amore un bien escrito prólogo de dicha obra, que fue muy del agrado del público y aplaudido.

Las decoraciones estrenadas para ambas obras producían buen efecto. Como en las representaciones anteriores, la inmensa mayoría de las señoras concurrieron al teatro sin sombrero.

"Teatre Íntim

Era ahir nit de Liceu, i feia un oratge que no convidava gaire d'anar d'un teatre d'istiu com és lo Líric. Mes amb tot, la gent se deixà La Walkyria i no li feu por lo fred per a assistir a l'última sessió del teatre íntim. Molta concurrència i molt distingida; fracs a dojo i senyores de gran gala. Eren prop de dos quarts d'onze, quan s'aixecà el teló per a representar-se Interior, de Maeterlinck. […]

I vingué després un entreacte llarg, incommensurable, i després la lectura d'un pròleg de Blancaflor sentit i bonic, com la cançó popular que dona el títol a l'obreta d'en Gual. I després d'acabada la lectura, un entre-pròleg i acte també molt llarg, amb l'agravant de que no movent-se ningú del seu lloc, los senyors no podien fumar ni les senyores fer tertúlia, i el fredor que hi havia al acabar Interior se convertí... en brometa. Imagina't, lector, quin estat d'esperit, per a judicar una obra!...

Al aixecar-se el teló, atravessen l'escena uns quants pagesos de nostra terra que van a treballar, tot cantant Blancaflor:

Alça els ulls i veu la mar,
veu venir la mar brogenta, veu venir fustes i naus
i galeres més de trenta,

i quan la veu del pagès que entona aquesta hermosa cançó es perd... entre bastidors, després d'aquesta escena arrancada del poble mateix y portada a les taules fins amb crueses de la mateixa realitat, baixa de les bambolines un teló retallat, d'aquells que serveixen per una apoteosi en un ball d'espectacle, i surten Blancaflor, acompanyada de dugues cançons més, i es posa a brodar, «lo camisó per la filla de la reina»... Lo trànsit de la realitat al somni es rapidíssim.

Blancaflor explica les seves penes: fa set anys que espera al «mariner, bon mariner», que amb ella es desposa i aquest no arriba. A la fi, i després d'una invocació a la marinada (que la senyoreta Domus fa de cara als espectadors, essent així que el teló de fondo representa el mar), arriba el mariner, desenrotllant-se l'acció, que és la mateixa lletra de la cançó popular, bon xic amplificada. Al acabar, i com a ritornello, passen altra vegada per les taules los pagesos, cantant com abans, la verdadera cançó popular.

Lo públic!... Aquí sí que el públic estigué indiscret. En Gual s'equivocà, si es vol, al desenrotllar lo que no admet desenrotllo: al fer parlar als personatges amb la mateixa forma de romans de la poesia popular, sense conservar la flaire d'aquesta; en oblidar que els espectadors si senten quan canta el poble, pensen quan són al teatre: en... lo que es vulgui... mes lo públic havia d'apreciar com se mereix la prova d'en Gual, l'originalitat de la seva concepció, i el treball literari molt remarcable que representa.

F. Ripoll.

La música de Blancaflor

La música que el mestre Granados ha escrit per a harmonitzar la vella cançó popular estrenada ahir no és de importància molt considerable ni és de pensar que son autor hagi fundat en ella grans esperances; sembla feta més aviat en compliment d'un encàrrec de bona amistat complert amb gust, que no pas filla d'un sentiment espontani i d'aquell afany irresistible de crear que té l'artista quan sent fondament lo que fa.

Tota plegada queda reduïda a una glossa orquestral de la cançó de Blancaflor amb la qual se preludia i s'acaba l'obra literària d'en Gual, i a un altre tros instrumental molt piano amb lo que es preludia i s'acaba també l'escena ideal de la Blancaflor i ses companyes, les altres dues cançons.

La cançó popular, sense additaments ni farbalans de cap mena, és cantada al començar i a la fi, des de dins de l'escena per una que hauria de ser segurament la ingènua, pageseta, i tot seguit per l'home ferreny, pel pagès, que passa fent via cap a la treballada, i aquí és potser a on se troba lo punt d'emoció artística culminant de la música de la cançó popular harmonitzada per a l'escena que han fet en Gual i en Granados.

És una cosa que he notat sempre. Per bé que estiga tota la música amb que s'apanyi la vella i senzilla cançó popular, sempre, sempre, quan s'ofereix aquesta al públic sola i pura, ingènuament cantada, sempre és quan produeix més gran efecte, per fondo que siga i exquisit lo sentiment de l'artista i gran son talent de músic, tant si es diu aquest Alió, com Millet, Morera, com Granados.

"Espectáculos.— Teatre Íntim.— En el Lírico se dio anteanoche la tercera función de la serie, organizada por el Teatro Íntimo que dirige Adrián Gual. Se representó en primer lugar Interior, de Maeterlinck. […]

Blancaflor de Adrián Gual, con música de Granados es una tentativa digna de elogio y de mayor fortuna que la que alcanzó. Se reduce a una paráfrasis de la ingenua canción popular del mismo título y el público halla en ella excesiva ingenuidad. Gual quiso presentar plásticamente un cuento de niño, una canción popular con sus damas medioevales y sus príncipes y marineros vistiendo sedas y engalanados de joyas, en un campo de flores creado por la imaginación del cancionero popular.

Con exceso refinada una tentativa de género, que solo podía enderezarse a un público conocedor y amante de las bellezas de la musa ingenua del pueblo, no logró interesar ni ser paladeada por la mayor parte de los concurrentes al Lírico que la tildaron de infantil y excesivamente ingenua."

"He recibido la canción de Blancaflor la infantil, que Gual ha llevado a la escena en vez de llevarla a San Baudilio de Llobregat.

He aquí un trozo culinario y suculento:

—No us fassau monjeta, no,
no us fassau monjeta encara,
No us fassau monjeta, no,
que foreu malaguanyada.
No us fassau monjeta, no,
que encara teniu qui us aima.

Tanta monjeta, ¿no está pidiendo a gritos un buen trozo de llomillo?

Además, ese que pide con tanta insistencia a Blancaflor que no se haga monjeta, ¿qué pretende? ¿Qué se haga cigró? Pues nuestros payeses más estiman la monjeta porque es nutritiva, y se me figura que a los hombres de la Edad Media les debía suceder lo mismo.

Yo creo que si Gual, en vez de poner monjetas, pone trufas, la obra se salva.

"Teatro Íntim

Finida la primera tanda de funcions del teatro íntim que darrerament han tingut lloc en la sala Beethoven baix la direcció de don Adrià Gual, se'ns presenta ocasió per a fer-ne un resum, com prometérem a nostres lectors. [...]

Hi ha art en el modernisme? Creiem que sí, i concretant la qüestió al teatro íntim cal recordar que quantes obres s'han representat són d'autors de reconegudes condicions artístiques, salvant la distancia que naturalment hi ha entre mestres com en Maeterlinck i en Rusiñol, i l'Adrià Gual, jove molt aprofitat que a força d'estudi podrà conquistar-se més endavant bona reputació.

Més, aquest art se presenta en les degudes condicions per a imposar-se a la majoria del públic amb tota la força del sentiment i de la bellesa? Això és una altra pregunta i a ella hem de contestar negativament.

No, tal com avui fan art els seguidors de les corrents novíssimes, no passaran els èxits que consegueixin del reduït círcol dels iniciats. I és que en l'anomenada escola modernista s'han canviat els termes de tal manera que tot se fa fora de lloc, amb innovacions tan absolutes que es diria que tot quant s'ha fet fins ara en matèria artística ha sigut perdre el temps i que es té de fonamentar l'art baix un punt de vista nou enterament.

Aixís veiem que es porten en el teatre obres que no tenen res de teatrals, que en pintura es falsifiquen colors i termes com si els pintors patissin un daltonisme, que en música es pretén acabar amb les regles de la composició, no faltant qui tracta de buscar filosofies en el llenguatge harmònic o una relació de similitud tan gran entre la gama musical i la lumínica que fins pels efectes pràctics se pugan confondre.

Tornant a l'assumpto tema d'aquest article, hem de fer constar que lo que ens hi sobra en el teatro íntim és precisament aquesta intimitat que si bé realment en la pràctica no ha tingut efecte, cal reconèixer que no eren per representades en altra condició les obres que s'han posat en escena. [...]

En Gual ha presentat ses obres Silenci i Blancaflor. Deixant apart que tampoc són teatrals, només poden alabar-se per l'esforç que en elles descobreix l'autor de fer quelcom de profit, mes el senyor Gual és molt jove encara i todo se andará. La partitura que ha escrit el mestre Granados per a Blancaflor és una feliç imitació de la música popular. [...]

La interpretació d'aquestes obres potser fou bona com a modernista; els actors deien baix, molt baix, perquè lo que convé sobre tot és deixar-se de convencionalismes..... i de que només els que estan a primera fila s'enterin de lo que passa.

És graciós també això de que els modernistes lo mateix serveixin para un barrido que para un fregado; quasi tots ells són pintors, escriptors i actors en una peça; el súmmum de l'art.

De tot lo que portem dit se'n dedueix que en el teatro íntim no hi ha teatro i que, mancant-hi aquesta condició essencialíssima, són negatius els fruits que l'art dramàtic de la terra en pot treure d'aquestes innovacions a mitges, perquè no creiem que la Ifigènia se'ns vulgui donar com a cosa nova. Per altra part, creuen els que amb tals elements pretenen reformar el gust artístic arribar algun dia a conseguir el seu propòsit? Si així fos, els hi demostraríem que estan errats.

És un principi d'estètica de tothom conegut, que les manifestacions artístiques són reflex fidel no ja tan sols del caràcter, costums i temprament del poble on se produeixen, sinó que fins del clima i situació geogràfica, del lloc on s'exposen. Si així és, podrem mai assimilar-nos res de lo que no estigui en conformitat amb nostra especial manera de ser? Com sentir aquests paisatges boirosos i aquests cels aplomats que ens donen els pintors de l'última fornada els fills d'un país on el firmament és sempre un setí blau i la terra un pitxer de flors? Com encaixar les nebulositats d'Ibsen i la vaguetat d'en Maeterlinck en nostra escena, on hi caben exclusivament Don Juan Tenorio i Don Álvaro?

Demanar altra cosa és demanar impossibles; en bona hora que s'estudiï quant nos vingui d'altres terres, mes sols per via d'estudi; lo demés és voler ficar el clau per la cabota. I ara fem punt demanant dispensa si hem mortificat algú, encara que ens sembla més noble nostra franquesa que la conducta de què al tractar d'aquesta qüestió han sonat bombo y platillos a desdir, quedant-se amb un altre a dintre.

"Teatre Íntim

De sa campanya en restarà com una nota hermosa el record de L'alegria que passa, l'obra d'en Rusiñol representada en la primera funció de la sèrie.

Per lo que és en l'última funció, o siga en la tercera, donada el dilluns, la cosa va canviar totalment d'aspecte. En contraposició a L'alegria que passa, se pot dir d'ella que és La tristesa que queda. [...]

Respecte a la Blancaflor d'en Gual, deixant apart la música d'en Granados, que és molt inspirada, no passa de ser una verdadera puerilitat. Un espectador va dir amb molta bona sombra:

> —Així com s'ha lograt que les senyores assisteixin sense sombrero a les funcions del Teatre Íntim, bo seria, quan se posin obres d'aquesta classe, advertir als espectadors que hi vajan amb gorra de cop i bergansí.

En Gual manifesta en lo pròleg que té per les cançons populars de la terra un gran carinyo. Crec sincerament que la millor manera de demostrar-lo serà abstenir-se de manossejar-les.

Deixin-les com estan, que ja estan bé, i sobre tot, quan vulga fer versos, aprengui a versificar. Les ratlles curtes que escriu, sense dubte al vol de la ploma per enllestir més de pressa, no les firmaria el més ínfim estudiant de la classe de Retòrica i Poètica. Això ja no és modernisme: és despreocupació o impotència. [...]

"BLANCAFLOR

Estava la Blancaflor
sota l'arbre de la menta,
según con mucho candor
la grey infantil nos cuenta, bordando unas zapatillas
sobre una preciosa pieza, para hacer al Pantorrillas
don Manuel una fineza, cuando casi sin querer,
sin nada que lo provoque,
veu venir un mariner...
y aquello ya fue el disloque.
—Mariner, ple de salut,
buen color y cara oval,
haveu vist o conegut
al meu senyor Adrià Gual?
—Entre las ondas salades
no le he visto, por mi fe.
—Jo l'he esperat set anyades
i altres set l'esperaré.
Mas si tarda, y si me irrita,
y si sigue en esos bailes,
yo me meteré monjita
en un convento de frailes.
—Cállate, hermoso lorito;
no te metas monja, no,
que soy tu marinerito:
el Adriano Gual soy yo.
—Perdoni á la seca esposa, pero no le conocía
con esa figura hermosa que al marcharse no tenia.
—La seba tuya y la meva, lucero entre los luceros,
ha resultado una breva para los chirigoteros."

"Lo dia 30 del passat era l'assenyalat per a celebrar l'última sessió d'aquest Teatre, representant-se l'obra del celebrat escriptor estranger Maeterlinck, anomenada Interior, quina interessa moltíssim, aplaudint-se en extrem. I després s'estrenà la cançó Blancaflor, aprofitada per a l'escena per en Adrià Gual.

D'aquesta nova producció de l'autor de Silenci, tenim de dir-ne que es desenrotlla sobre un bon pensament: lo pensament de la cançó. Lo Sr. Gual no ha fet més que recollir la llegendària impressió que en produeix quan la sentim cantar per la gent de pagesia tot anant al tros i reproduir-la a l'escena per a dar-li vida, per a fer-la més impressionable.

Lo públic aplaudí l'obra del Sr. Gual, los treballs dels actors i la música tan escaiguda i poètica d'en Granados, que tot recordant-nos la tonada popular nos feu sentir l'arribada de les naus, la remor de l'aigua i lo embat de la Naturalesa, acabant de completar l'efecte les fresques decoracions d'en Junyent.

En conjunt, les tres sessions del Teatre Íntim nos fa semblar a n'aquell que ha pres una cullerada de mel i en desitja un altre, sinó que nosaltres desitjam que vingui la temporada de primavera."

La Talia catalana 51 (05/02/1899), p. 5.

"[...] La última funció pot ben dir-se que fou de prova tant per los del públic com per los de dins e l'escenari. Aquestos s'afrontaren decidits i si alguns d'ells no sempre triomfaren, quan menos demostraren molta més fe en la causa que defensaven que bona part de concurrència sempre distreta i mal predisposada.

Los artistes lluitaren francament contra una fredor fins a cert punt inexplicable, estaven de sobres convençuts de lo molt perillosa que era l'empresa, però no cedien, mentre que el públic sí, lo públic no trigà molt en demostrar lo molt ampla que li venia la prova. Perquè hi ha que dir-ho i ben alt, no és pas veritat que la majoria s'esforcés poc ni gaire per assimilar-se a tot quan passava dins l'escenari; de ser aixís, altre hauria sigut lo resultat, prou s'hauria avançat molt molt més de lo que es guanyà acabada la vetlla.

L'Interior de Maeterlinck necessita d'altres elements per imposar-se d'una manera sòlida, no hi ha per què discutir-ho, lo que sí pot dir-se és que els mateixos que el representaren al Líric amb un altre públic, si bé no haurien fet tot quant son autor deu creure-hi possible, haurien demostrat que no és un impossible, ja que tot o molt de lo que ells feren pedia molt bé aprofitar-se pel pervindre, obrir camí per arribar-hi. [...]

Però no acaba aquí: estava escrit que aquestos havien d'ésser los menos i per lo tant impotents per a contrarestar la indiferència dels més; això sigué la causa de que tampoc fos degudament apreciada l'obreta d'en Gual, treball originalíssim i fill d'un estudi molt aprofitat sobre la poesia que entranya lo cant popular de nostra terra.

Blancaflor és la cançó catalana que tots los aimants de nostra música coneixen com a cosa bona.

Estava la Blancaflor
sota l'arbre de la menta,
ne brodava un camisó

per la filla de la reina.
Lo camisó n'era d'or,
de seda el brodava ella,
quan la seda l'hi mancava
posa de sa cabellera,
de sa cabellera a l'or
no hi ha molta diferència.

No és pas gens difícil recordar-la.

En Gual, segons lo pròleg que abans de la representació llegí molt correctament lo Sr. Pujol, l'ha escollida d'entre moltes, no per creure-la la més bonica, sinó per lo molt que es prestava per ésser desenrotllada tal com ell volia. Al portar-ho a terme no ha fet res més que ampliar-la tot lo més just que la faula permetia.

En lo segon quadro, destacant-se d'un fons ideal com se l'imaginava el poble que la canta, s'hi mouen les dues figures que la motiven, amb son llenguatge romanesc i conservant sempre la ingenuïtat que les caracteritza. És un diàleg hermosíssim, una paràfrasi del cant popular molt ben entesa i a trossos impregnat d'un sentiment que enamora al cor que sap sentir-lo.

Del motiu musical, bonic i senzill com tot los cants de la terra, lo mestre Granados n'ha pres peu per compondre uns quants números molt ben treballats i no faltats d'inspiració; la invocació a la marinada és d'una força descriptiva de molt relleu, al mateix temps que com tota la partitura d'un mèrit extraordinari. Tampoc lo públic va saber-ho veure.

Pitjor per ell!

Finida la representació eren molts los que deien: —En Gual s'ha equivocat. —Sí, és cert, en Gual s'ha equivocat, però en mon concepte l'equivocació estiva tan sols en creure que la cosa podria donar-se a un públic tan poc predisposat a assimilar-se amb lo que se li presenta. Ell segurament no comptava de que, a no ser un d'escollit, pedia distreure's i no adivinar clarament lo que veia, sinó d'una manera superficial i sense posar-hi altra cosa que una atenció poc devota. En això sí, en això s'equivoca de mig a mig, però consti que no fou ell sol.

Per altra banda, no solament no és una equivocació, sinó que tota ella resulta una obra molt ben pensada, d'una idea nova i sobre tot d'un mèrit literari indiscutible.

He dit nova, i ho faig ressaltar ara, perquè precisament això més que tot és lo que l'ha fet més simpàtica. Aqueix noble afany d'originalitat mereixia altre premi que el que la majoria ha volgut donar-li. Precisament ara més que mai, tractant-se com se tracta de donar fort impuls al decaigut teatre de nostra terra, és quan deurien acollir-se amb doble entusiasme totes les temptatives que en favor d'això es proposessin.

En aqueixes sessions s'ha donat un pas llarg vers l'ideal aquest, però no és prou encara. En Gual i la colla d'artistes que el segueixen s'han fet dignes de que puga esperar-se d'ells lo que hi ha que fer fins acabar amb la rutina i el mal gust de nostre públic.

Cal recomanar-los no desmain per més obstacles que trobin; segueixin tots lo camí emprés fins ara; no vulguin seguir la veu de quatre indolents que, veient-se incapaços de fer res que s'aparti de lo que han fet fins ara, s'esparveren al veure que amb serenitat i valentia s'encamina vers lo camí de la desitjada regeneració.

Avant, companys, tingueu la certesa de que la fermesa vostra serà més tard glorificada per molts que avui encara dormen.

Avant, en la lluita aqueixa haveu demostrat més fe i més valor que el públic; treballeu fins que sigui vostre, que tard o d'hora ell s'entregarà. Prou car paga l'ensopiment en què ha viscut fins ara!

Avant, sempre avant, que no es malmetin en la inacció les energies que us han animat fins ara; forces fins avui aislades s'hi aniran agrupant a l'entorn vostre, febrosencs de combat per alcançar la victòria desitjada.

Pas al jovent! Què hi fa que la rutina al sentir-se ferida vos maleeixi? Recordeu sempre que en la senyera de l'art hi ha gravada amb lletres d'or l'hermosa sentència de l'innovador més gran del present segle, del genial Wagner.

Qui des de son bressol no es vegi acompanyat del descontent de tot quant lo rodeja, no arribarà pas mai al descobriment de lo nou.

Lo Somatent 3814 (07/02/1899), p. 2.

"[...] Però, com a obra de circunstancias, la cançó popular Blancaflor, harmonitzada (?) per a l'escena per lo nostre amic, n'Adrià Gual... Cavallers, allò sí que fa Carnestoltes! Allò sí que és un esbronc monumental a l'art, al bon gust i al públic!

Fins ara en les beneiteries dels modernistes s'hi veia, encara que poc, algo que cridava l'atenció, mal fos si no per l'excentricitat o pel tour de force. Però en la Blancaflor d'en Gual no s'hi veu més que una tonteria, impossible, una presumpció irritant de prendre al públic per primo. No obstant, hem de dir en honor de la veritat que l'escàs públic del teatro íntim va castigar l'ossadia del melenut poeta com castiguen els mirons de la Rua als gitanos del Clot que van a la Rambla a avergonyir a tothom i surten els que no són bons ni pels gossos. Aixís va quedar en Gual després de la Blancaflor, més escorregut que si li haguessin tallat les melenes!

Amb tot, tinc notícies de que el simpàtic modernista no s'espanta i, decidit a fer entrar al públic en les vies de l'art nou, ja en té en cartera un remat d'obres del corte de Blancaflor per estrenar a la primera oportunitat. L'home, a qui no li falten ni medis ni... melenes, està engrescadíssim en popularitzar des de les taules del Teatro Íntim los fruits més delicats de la música del poble. Un amic m'ha fet molts elogis de l'obra titulada La festa, basada en una coneguda melodia popular, qual argument és interessantíssim. Surt primer lo pare putatiu de Nostre Senyor i dispara un arma de foc, fent caure un aucell d'un arbre de la Rambla. Surt després una alta personalitat de la milícia (que segurament voldrà simbolitzar en Polavella); luego compareix una bona dona tocant a combregar i, finalment, compareix un confrare de Girona ric, polsant dolçament un violí. La música diu que és preciosa, com arrancada de la fresca musa popular, i en quant a la lletra mos lectors poden anticipadament saborejar-la, puig diu aixís:

Sant Josep. —Demà és festa.
Sant Josep la fa, agafa escopeta
i se'n va a caçar...
Tira un tiro,
mata un pardal.

En Polavella. —Passa un frare vestit de general.

La dona. —Passa Santa Ana tocant la campana.

L'home. —Passa Sant Martí
tocant lo violí.

Teló.

Després d'aquesta, si el públic ho permet, diu en Gual té ja en preparació algunes altres harmonitzacions escèniques com la titulada El ruc, basada en la magnífica melodia:

Ploreu, ploreu, ninetes que en Gual està malalt, etc.

La titulada El seductor, adaptada a la xamosa cançó

Lo senyor Ramon — enganya a les criades, etc.

[...] [Continua burlant-se amb més referències grotesques a cançons populars].

"Por favor deferente pude gozar de las primicias de una representación en el Teatro Íntimo, asociación donde se hace arte verdad, sin industrialismos ni falseamientos que lo desvirtúen. En el bonito teatro Lírico (que es, puede decirse, la casa social de los artistas) se representaron El interior, de Maeterlinck, y una canción popular puesta en acción (como rezaba el título), Blancaflor, letra de Gual y música de Granados.

Esta obra es una impresión corta, pero original; aligerada de algunas repeticiones inútiles de la letra y bien representada, no puede menos de hacer excelente efecto. Toda ella está envuelta por sentidas melodías de carácter popular, sin afectación, franco, lleno de vida, como Granados sabe sentirlo; especialmente la canción (una melodía sencilla e inspiradísima) y el final, momento en que la esposa fiel reconoce a su marido, que vuelve tras larga ausencia, y juntos se dirigen al palacio, son dos joyas musicales que solo deseo sean conocidas por el grado de emoción que tienen y el sabor a tradición popular que de ellas se desprende."

"[…] Aunque ya es asunto fiambre, me permitiré, para que no resplandezca la justicia, hacer constar que en la última de las tres sesiones del Teatre Íntim se vengaron involuntariamente de la conducta que con ellos observó el público en las dos primeras. El pasto intelectual fue escaso y mal servido, además de poco grato al paladar.

Primero se representó Interior de Maeterlinck, obra que, más que ninguna otra, exigía un teatro de reducidas dimensiones, un público muy intelectual y concentrado y una ejecución afiligranada. […] Del fiasco dedujeron algunos lo que tantas veces se ha dicho, esto es, que las obras de Maeterlinck no son representables. […]

Después se ejecutó Blancaflor, canción popular desflorada por el simpático Adrià Gual, joven decadente y principal sostén del Teatre Íntim. ¡Qué hermosa, qué ingenua, qué delicada, en medio de su tosquedad silvestre, la canción catalana! ¡Qué cursi y deformada su versión… teatral!

No, Adrià, lo bon Adrià, no serveixes per cantar.

Estant bé la Blancaflor
sota l'arbre de la menta,
l'havies de deixar estar,
no d'aquest modo estrafer-la.

Verdad que para defenderle de esta grave falta y para obtener la absolución del jurado, un amigo suyo leyó un largo discurso forense, saturado de doctrina jurídica y persuasivo hasta el punto de que el tribunal durante su lectura dio repetidas muestras de impaciencia. Tenía, el buen público, motivos sobrados para ello, pues para dos obritas cuya representación duraba escasamente media hora, se le tuvo tres en el teatro, apelando al recurso de empezar cuarenta minutos más tarde de la anunciada y hacer el intermedio interminable. ¡Fue aquello una late! Los espectadores salieron con pocas ganas de volver a intimar con aquellos íntimos, con lo cual ganaron unos y otros, pues, como ya demostré, tienen incompatibilidad de humores.

[Carta sense datar de l'empresari Juan José Cadenas retornant a Enric Granados l'obra Blancaflor per la impossibilitat de posar-la en escena amb la rapidesa necessària].

"Querido Enrique [Granados]:

Le curso Blancaflor, que he leído y está muy bien, pero no es para ponerla con la urgencia que yo necesito porque hay que hacer tres decoraciones y vestuario completo. En otro teatro esa obra la ponen de cualquier modo y el público no dice nada. Yo tengo que ponerla y vestirla bien porque si no me matan. Y todo esto requeriría tiempo. Ponga usted dos meses y ya estoy acabando la temporada. No nos conviene, por lo tanto, ni a los autores ni a mí.

Quiero que dé usted las gracias a Romero de mi parte y crea usted que siento que no sea una cosa que pueda ponerla mañana en ensayo y estrenarla dentro de 15 días. Por muchas razones que a usted no se le ocultan.

Pero, en fin, otra vez será.

Suyo, [José Juan] Cadenas."

Circuit de sales dedicades a les visions musicals

El nou gènere de les "visions musicals" va estrenar-se a la sala Mercè, oberta el 1904 per Lluís Graner a la Rambla dels Estudis de Barcelona. El pintor, imitant el model de sala recreativa amb cinematògraf, espectacles i instal·lacions plàstiques, va fundar la sala Mercè com a proposta experimental. Amb ella, pretenia oferir aquests formats de consum popular, amb sessions de curta durada i entrades a baix preu, des d'una perspectiva artística, moral i elevant el seu contingut intel·lectual.

La intenció era consolidar l'espai com a centre cultural accessible tant a les classes treballadores com a les famílies burgeses, amb productes adequats a la moral catòlica i atractius per als infants, però, alhora, atractius visual i estèticament.

Es va experimentar amb la producció pròpia de pel·lícules, tant de ficció com documentals, combinades amb parts escenificades i veus parlades per sobre; amb espectacles teatrals suggestius que feien servir llocs de llums elèctriques de diversos colors i intensitats amb música i poesia (les conegudes com a "visions musicals"); o les instal·lacions artístiques a les grutes del soterrani dissenyades per Gaudí en imitació d'una cova, entre les quals destacaven els pessebres monumentals com a atracció plàstica alhora que continuadora de la tradició nadalenca.

L'equip que es va consolidar al voltant de la sala Mercè incloïa a Lluís Graner com a propietari, promotor i director artístic; a Josep Carner com a lletrista i dramaturg; a Adrià Gual com a director escènic i programador teatral; a Joan Baptista Lambert com a pianista i director musical; o a Antoni Ros i Güell com a pintor-escenògraf.

L'èxit de la sala va ser tal, que el cercle intel·lectual més proper al seu equip va expandir la iniciativa creant un circuit de salons recreatius. Amb la sala Mercè com a centre creatiu del qual irradiaven les propostes, amb el seu suport es van instal·lar sales a Girona, Terrassa i Sabadell.

Rafael Masó, íntim amic de Josep Carner, va conèixer la proposta barcelonina durant els seus estudis a la capital catalana i, en tornar a la seva Girona natal, va instal·lar-hi, amb el suport del Centre Moral Gironí i del seu germà Narcís, el saló Gerió, que va obrir les seves portes a l'abril de 1906. La visió musical de L'oració de la nit, estrenada al saló, va tenir un llarg recorregut com a peça del repertori infantil acompanyada de les pedagogies Dalcroze, incloent-hi una coreografia gestual durant la seva interpretació.

Poc després, l'octubre de 1906, el pintor Joaquim Vancells, membre dels mateixos cercles artístic i catòlics que Graner, inaugurava a la ciutat de Terrassa la sala Ars-Lucis. Va comptar amb l'estret suport de Joan Llongueras, qui era, alhora, estret amic dels germans Masó de Girona. Llongueras, qui havia establert també relació amb Lluís Graner, va ser col·laborador també dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

A més de l'amistat personal i la influència cultural, es van establir relacions empresarials entre aquest circuit de sales que va arribar a que compartissin part del repertori. L'Ars-Lucis, per exemple, va representar visions musicals originals de la sala Mercè i del saló Gerió, a més de nous títols propis.

Per a l'inici de la següent temporada, l'octubre de 1907, es va intentar establir una nova sala a la veïna ciutat de Sabadell. El saló Artístic, instal·lat a l'edifici de l'Associació de Catòlics de Sabadell, va iniciar la seva activitat amb el suport directe de Lluís Graner, que des de la sala Mercè va enviar, ja no només els materials de 3 de les seves visions musicals, sinó també l'escenografia i vestuari. El saló Artístic va produir 2 visions musicals més, escrites per autors sabadellencs, abans d'acabar la temporada.

L'aturada forçosa de l'activitat escènica de la sala Mercè per ordre governamental va impactar, sense cap mena de dubte, la continuïtat de la resta de sales del circuit, que poc després van acabar aturant la seva activitat. Va haver-hi, però, un últim intent per mantenir actiu el gènere de les visions musicals a Barcelona després del traspàs de la sala Mercè a nous propietaris el 1910 i de l'exili definitiu de Lluís Graner de Catalunya.

El setembre de 1911, Baldomer Marinel·lo, qui havia estat primer actor de la companyia de la sala Mercè (liderant a més la seva itinerància al Centre de Lectura de Reus el 1908), va instal·lar-se a la sala Imperi amb una temporada d'espectacles i visions musicals. Va comptar especialment amb el suport del seu germà, Manuel Marinel·lo, com a llibretista i de Francesc Montserrat Ayarbe com a compositor. Tots dos havien tingut experiència prèvia escrivint ja fos el text o la música de diverses visions musicals per a les empreses de Graner. Altres col·laboradors que van escriure visions musicals per a la sala Imperi provenien també dels antics col·laboradors de la sala Mercè, com ara Joan B. Lambert, Adrià Esquerrà o Rafael Nogueras Oller. La companyia, però, només va actuar a la sala Imperi del setembre de 1911 al gener de 1912, traslladant-se després al Centre Catalanista Gent Nova.

De manera semblant, Antoni Ros i Güell va continuar les instal·lacions plàstiques a les grutes de la sala Mercè, fins i tot traslladant l'empresa quan la sala Mercè original va ser definitivament clausurada per ordre judicial, al igual que l'activitat cinematogràfica va ser continuada per la Hispano Films en la qual treballava Adrià Gual com a director cinematogràfic. El fet, però, de la disgregació de l'activitat sense el lideratge únic de Lluís Graner, a més de les restriccions imposades per l'administració governamental, va fer que el projecte original de la sala Mercè com a saló recreatiu multidisciplinari fos irrecuperable. D'igual manera, el seu circuit de sales recreatives i cinematogràfiques va caure quan va deixar de rebre el suport de la sala per a la distribució exclusiva de pel·lícules artístiques importades i sense noves produccions escèniques.

Ressenyes de la inauguració i descripcions de la sala

"Demà passat, dissabte, al vespre, s'obrirà al públic la Sala de la Mercè, instal·lada a la rambla dels Estudis, en la qual s'hi oferiran curiosos espectacles consistents en Visions musicals i Projeccions cinematogràfiques parlades.

Per a acompanyar les primeres, un distingit poeta ha compost una lletra exprofés que anirà acompanyada amb música d'un notable compositor. De les proves que s'han fet fins ara, pot deduir-se que l'espectacle resultarà altament interessant i nou.

Les projeccions cinematogràfiques han sigut impressionades expressament als tallers amb què compta la sala Mercè, sent la lletra que les acompanyarà deguda a diferents escriptors festius de la terra i produint una extraordinària il·lusió.

Això, acompanyat de les excel·lents condicions del local, tant per lo que és referent a confort com a l'aspecte artístic, que acrediten una vegada més la bona mà de l'eminent arquitecte Gaudí, farà ben segur que la sala Mercè es converteixi aviat en punt de reunió del públic, assedegat d'espectacles nous i interessants.

A més, la direcció dels espectacles que es donaran a l'esmentat local està a càrrec de l'eximi pintor en Lluís Graner, lo qual és la més ferma garantia d'èxit que es pugui desitjar."

Con el título de Sala Mercè se inauguró anoche en los bajos de la casa núm. 4 de la Rambla de Estudios una sala de espectáculos en la que se dan a conocer visiones musicales y proyecciones cinematográficas habladas, sumamente notables y de grande efecto. La sala-teatrito se halla emplazada en el fondo del edificio; tiene el aspecto de gruta y con declive muy marcado a fin de que todos los espectadores puedan ver bien el espectáculo. Los sillones son por el estilo de los que había en el Teatro Español del Paseo de Gracia, pudiéndose levantar el asiento.

La iluminación la producen bombillas eléctricas colocadas en distintos puntos y envueltas en papeles de color que amortiguan el efecto de la luz. Consiste el nuevo espectáculo en vistas cinematográficas, en las que los personajes hablan con voz natural y con una precisión admirable, y una visión musical de Montserrat, en que por medio de telones y combinaciones de luz de todos los tonos aparece la silueta da la histórica montaña y, por último, la Virgen. […]"

"Sala Mercè.— En la rambla de los Estudios se verificó ayer la inauguración de la sala Mercè. Es un local severo y elegante que acusa la personalidad del arquitecto Sr. Gaudí. Los espectadores se colocan en una gradería, sentándose en cómodas sillas, y la sala queda iluminada por una luz muy tenue, quedando el ambiente en una penumbra que obliga a concentrar la visión en el pequeño escenario. También contribuye a este efecto al estar desprovista la sala de adornos que pudiesen distraer la atención de los espectadores. La tonalidad general es de barro cocido claro. Las proyecciones cinematográficas habladas se llevaron el aplauso de la concurrencia. Fueron sin duda lo más saliente, porque lo mismo la del Teléfono que Dolor de muelas divirtieron, arrancando carcajadas por lo bien que encajaba el diálogo con la visión cinematográfica. También es notable la película de la excursión al famoso pico de Pilatos, en que puede admirarse la grandiosidad de aquel fragmento agreste de naturaleza.

[…] La sala Mercè es un local que acredita a su director, el celebrado pintor Luis Graner, y es de esperar que acudirá numeroso público a presenciar los espectáculos que en ella se den."

"La sala Mercè

Aquí y fuera de aquí saben todos que Luis Graner es un artista en el más selecto sentido de la palabra, y por serlo viene obligado a hacer arte. En la sala Mercè, que ha abierto ayer, no ha hecho arte, o, más propiamente, ha dado una muestra de arte infantil y nada nuevo. Aquellas "visiones musicales" son, efectivamente, unas "visiones". A otro podría perdonársele que nos las diera como una novedad; a Graner, no. Su firma me hizo esperar algo original y selecto y he salido poco menos que cantando el número II de la primera visión musical, que se anunciaba en los programas de este modo: Desencant… Y en octava alta, para mayor dificultad. Es decir, un desencanto con todas las agravantes.

Aunque parezca raro, no he visitado aún Montserrat, unas veces por falta de tiempo y otras por inopia de metales preciosos para hacer el viaje, y al prometérseme en la sala Mercè una "visión" de la montaña, con la sólida garantía de un artista tal como Graner, creí que hasta podría ahorrarme la excursión. Declaro con sincera pena que me he llevado chasco.

Las "visiones musicales" que ha inaugurado en la sala Mercè en época de las castañas consisten en lo que van a oír ustedes: un escenario muy reducido al pie del que toca un sexteto una composición de ambiente religioso. Dentro del escenario cantan, bastante mal —dicho sea, con permiso de la sacratísima Virgen en cuyo honor se hace—, voces de mujeres; se descorre la cortina y aparece un paisaje de rocas; nos dejan que las contemplemos un ratito, corren las cortinas, siguen los cánticos, se abren de nuevo aquellas y vemos bajar del cielo una teoría de ángeles y luego, en el centro de ellos, la imagen de Nuestra señora. Se acaban música y cantos, ciérrense las cortinas y nos vamos a la calle pensando que todo esto lo habíamos visto en muchedumbre de apoteosis y que no merecía la pena de habernos molestado por cosa tan cándida y vieja.

Antes de esto hicieron proyecciones habladas, como en los demás cinematógrafos, y mal hechas ciertamente. Una de ellas, titulada Mal de queixal, que tendré la cortesía de traducir, Dolor de muelas, para los espectadores que tengan la desgracia de no entender el catalán, es graciosísima y merece ser vista. Y advertiré, por ser oportuno, a las gentes de aliende el Ebro que en la sala Mercè todo está escrito en catalán, por si les parece conveniente llevar intérprete, como aconsejaría a Graner que hiciese alguna vez cayera por mi tierra en algún cinematógrafo donde tuvieran la desconsideración de escribirle las leyendas en vascuence: ¡Altià, semiá eta Spiritu Santo Jauna, amén!

A la atentísima invitación del maestro Graner correspondió su público selectísimo. Estábamos allí la crema del catolicismo barcelonés, muchas y distinguidas damas apostólico-romanas y cosa de una docena de reverendísimos señores sacerdotes. Las damas opinaron que la Virgen estaba muy guapa; nosotros, menos los señores sacerdotes, naturalmente opinamos que ellas, las damas, estaban no menos guapas, y los reverendos opinaron que debían irse en partida dentro de un coche de los llamados "familiares", dando antes a besar a las damas sus respetables manos en plena acera, y haciendo dudar al incauto transeúnte de si salíamos de unas visiones o de una novela de San Expedito.

La sala Mercè comienza, por este lado, con todo género de garantías religiosas, lo cual me tranquiliza para el caso posible de un incendio allá dentro. No teniendo la sala de espectáculos más que una salida no muy amplia —como pudo ver el gobernador por sí mismo—, los que no pudieran salir tendrían el consuelo de morirse calientes, pasando en breve tiempo desde esta mísera vida a las excelsas regiones de donde bajan los ángeles de quien más arriba queda hecha respetuosa mención.

Ya sé yo, por el tufillo que allí se respiraba, quiénes caerán sobre mí diciendo que no tengo gracia, que soy un "neula" o un "poca cosa" o un "ase", etc. Que digan; yo seguiré diciendo al público que en la sala Mercè no verá nada nuevo ni extraordinario que no haya visto ya mil veces en todas partes y que, a pesar de la docena de curas que se fueron en el "familiar", el nuevo espectáculo no tiene cura posible. Y si no, hay tiempo.

"Inauguración

La sala Mercè

La sala Mercè se inauguró anoche. Hubo un verdadero pugilato por entrar, y con todo tuvo que resignarse a no presenciar el espectáculo mucha mayor cantidad de público de la que logró localidades.

Es la sala Mercè la última palabra del modernismo catalán, que ya empieza a manifestarse en la extraña originalidad de la farola colocada en el dintel de la puerta. El pasillo está alumbrado por bombillas eléctricas envueltas en gasas coloreadas, y este mismo suave alumbrado, que durante el espectáculo llega casi a obscurecerse, es el que ilumina la sala, que simula el interior de una larga y estrecha cueva.

El espectáculo es de cinematógrafo, pero de excelentes y claras películas, llamando sobre todas ellas la atención la de la subida por el ferrocarril funicular de uno de los montes alpinos. Algunas de las escenas cinematográficas tienen la novedad de ser habladas, resultando así las exhibiciones breves monólogos o diálogos teatrales.

La visión de Montserrat, que anoche constituyó el último número de las secciones, es la parte más nueva y cuidada del espectáculo […]

El pintor Graner es el director artístico de este espectáculo modernista, en el que también colabora con sus raras originalidades el reputado Gaudí."

El Liberal 1294 (04/11/1904), ed. matí, p. 3.

"Conforme estaba anunciado, ayer tarde, a las cinco, se inauguró la sala Mercè, nuevo local exquisitamente decorado y del que ya dimos una sucinta noticia hace algunos días.

La concurrencia que asistió a la inauguración fue de lo más aristocrático y selecto, viéndose entre los espectadores al gobernador civil y a las más distinguidas familias de esta capital, que en el vestíbulo fueron recibidas por el director artístico don Luis Graner.

En el vestíbulo y salón de espera dominan los tonos claros, que dan al local un aspecto por demás simpático, formando muy acertado contraste con las misteriosas tonalidades del salón de espectáculos que, como dijimos, afecta el aspecto de una gruta, con su rústica labor iluminada por tornasolados focos incandescentes de variados matices.

La parte artística del espectáculo constituye una verdadera novedad, y por ello y por su innegable valor como pasatiempo y como elevada manifestación de arte, merece el señor Graner plácemes incondicionales.

Por la categoría que hemos señalado, el espectáculo puede dividirse en dos partes: la de mero entretenimiento o "proyecciones habladas", que, por cierto, resultan muy bien y de seguro éxito, y la parte de "visiones musicales", que son una delicia, no solo por el extraordinario valor de los cuadros proyectados, sino también por el de la música que los acompaña.

El tema con que se inauguró el espectáculo, y que se reproducirá estos días, es Montserrat, letra del inspirado poeta don Manuel Folch i Torres y música del eximio compositor don Joaquín Grant.

La impresión que esta parte del espectáculo nos produjo no queremos encerrarla en los límites de esta nota. Con más detención procuraremos concretarla en una de las próximas ediciones, pues la obra de los señores Folch y Grant merece mayor detenimiento y estudio.

Baste por hoy consignar que la inauguración de la sala Mercè constituyó ayer una nota de distinción y de arte refinado.

La obra del señor Graner está llamada a atraer a todo el público inteligente."

"[...] Veuen? tant per tant, valdria més que els pares inhumans, si volen donar un gust als seus fills, els portessin a la sala Mercè, on hi trobarien millors exemples que en el Tenorio[9].

Allí hi veurien unes pel·lícules parlades d'allò més divertides, i unes pel·lícules mudes d'allò més interessants, i unes visions de Montserrat amb bon nyigo-nyigo d'en Grant, bons versos d'en Manel Folch i Torres i unes cantúries d'angelets que els angelets hi canten. I tot per poc pistrincs i sense exposició de constipar-se en sortir a fora, perquè el local, gràcies a la traça d'en Gaudí, està ventilat de tal manera que sense que un s'adoni de per on entra, l'aire hi circula guapament, renovant-se d'una manera insensible i no permetent a la atmosfera que s'aviciï.

Ja veuen doncs si n'hi ha de diferència entre l'espectacle que en ofereix el pintor Graner a la seva sala i el que ens donen els empresaris de teatre amb els Tenorios. Als Tenorios només s'hi veuen exemples de vici; a la sala Mercè ni l'aire deixen aviciar.

Mai dirien qui ha rebentat la sala Mercè que s'acaba d'inaugurar a la Rambla? Doncs, l'Urrecha , aquell Urrecha empleat de Duanas i crític teatral, a qui ja en una altra ocasió vàrem haver de mossegar fins a obligar-lo a ficar-se la llengua al tinter.

Imaginin que una de les coses que el tal Urrecha troba més digne de censura és que els rètols de la Sala estiguin escrits en català, en l'única llengua oficial a Catalunya per a tots els que tenen dignitat de català.

Però, hombre de Dios, senyor Urrecha, vostè s'estranya de que a Catalunya s'escrigui en català? Vostè bada d'un modo monumental, com badaria jo si m'estranyava de que per a fer enllestir un assumpte a la Duana, poso per cas, hagués de donar un nap al vista per a que fes la idem gorda. [...]

[9] El Tenorio de José Zorilla era paral·lelament a la cartellera barcelonina.

El sol fet de ser obra els esmentats versos d'un amic i company nostre, explica perfectament que no agradessin a la Publicidad, però no insistirem sobre l'assumpte, doncs sempre resulta de mal gust rebel·lar-se contra la crítica, per més que l'al·ludit company recorda perfectament l'època en que no havent sortit encara Cu-cut! mereixia com a poeta millor concepte a la Publicidad, fins a l'extrem que aquest diari, del tot espontàniament, havia publicat versos seus a primera pàgina, traduïts al castellà.

No, lo que ens ha mogut a parlar de l'assumpte no ha sigut pas la defensa de l'obra de nostre company a qui li té molt sens compte que els seus versos agradin o no al crític publicitari, sinó posar de manifest el renuncio en què ha caigut aquest senyor en alabar el monòleg cinematogràfic El telèfon, per ignorar —doncs no s'ha fet públic— la personalitat del seu autor.

Nosaltres assegurem de bona tinta al crític de la Publicidad que si hagués arribat a saber qui és l'autor de l'esmentat monòleg —també amic nostre estimadíssim— hauria posat la seva obra molt per sota dels versos del senyor Folch.

I, si vol assegurar-se'n, pot passar per la nostra Redacció, on el rebrem amb tota deferència i li presentarem a l'autor d'El telèfon, molt conegut seu de vista per més que ens consta que no el pot veure.

"Con el nombre de "Sala Mercè" se ha inaugurado un interesante espectáculo en el que se exhiben películas cinematográficas, algunas de ellas habladas, que producen gran efecto. Además, se exhiben las llamadas visiones musicales de Montserrat, consistentes en una fantasía pictórica muy bien combinada con diferentes tonos de luz, acompañada de una bellísima música de Grant, escrita sobre una inspirada poesía del Sr. Folch y Torres. El arreglo del local, rica y artísticamente dispuesto y decorado, ha sido dirigido por el notable arquitecto señor Gaudí; la dirección del espectáculo está a cargo del celebrado pintor Sr. Graner."

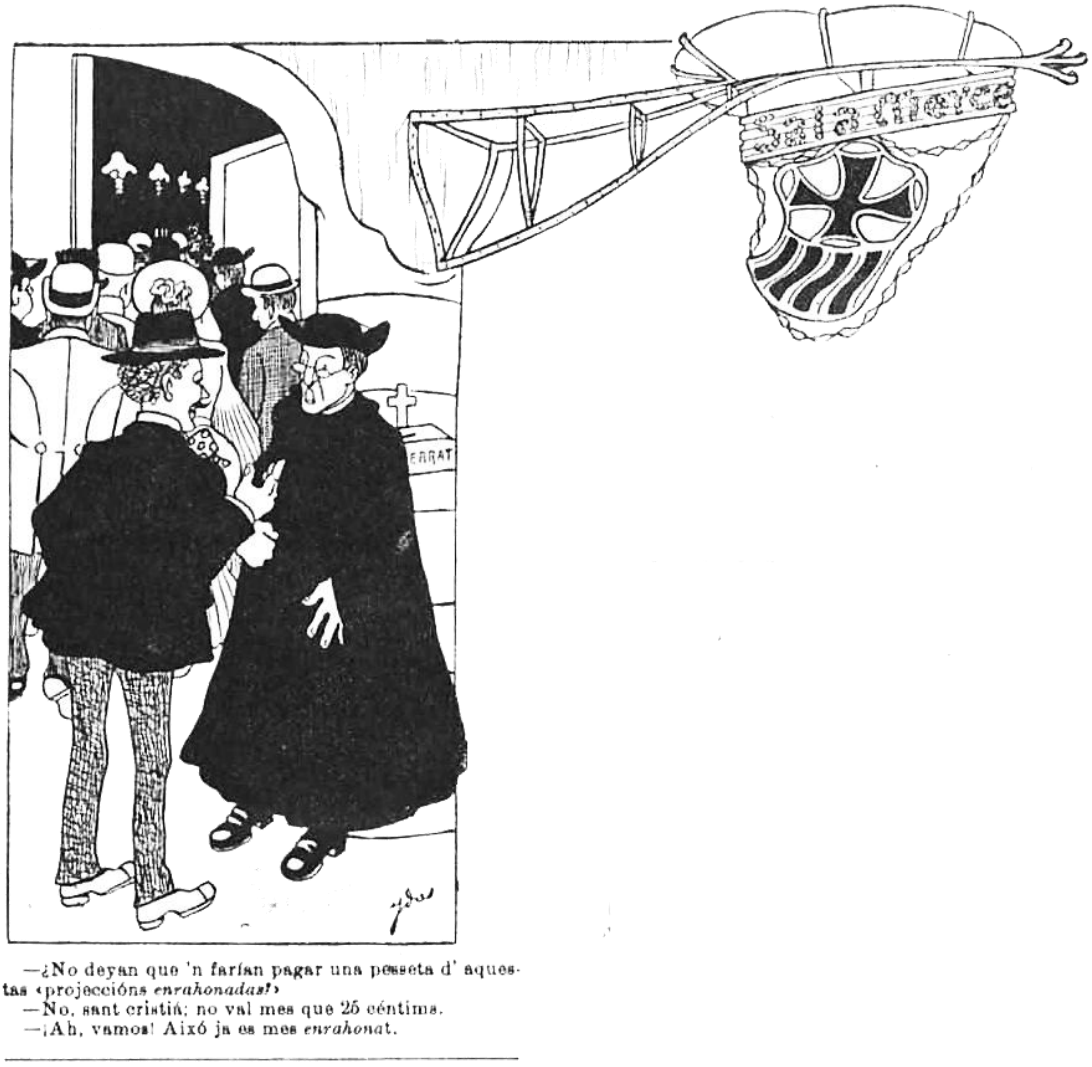
"La sala Mercè, instal·lada en la Rambla d'Estudis, no direm que sigui una ceba artística, però sí una cabessa de jonquillo de las que fan flor. Tot és que el gros públic s'acostumi a olorar-la i es recreï amb el seu perfum.



La instal·lació és curiosa i està feta amb tot rumbo. Un espaiós vestíbul, decorat amb severa elegància, condueix a un local transformat en una caverna de color de terra. En tota la superfície, una graderia molt ben disposada perquè el públic pugui veure còmodament l'espectacle; i una mitja llum molt ben entesa perquè els espectadors no puguin distreure's contemplant-se ells amb ells. Al fons, un petit escenari; i a la testera oposada, el joc de llums.

L'espectacle consisteix en l'exhibició de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques, algunes d'elles de caràcter còmic i parlades, i amb la visió de Montserrat, amb acompanyament de cant i música. Les decoracions són d'en Graner -no tan boniques, pel meu gust, com els seus quadros-: la música d'en Grant... la lletra d'un poeta adotzenat. En un escenari tan petit no hi ha ambient perquè la concepció de l'artista resulti. Queda necessàriament empetitida.

De totes maneres, la sala Mercè constitueix una curiositat barcelonina, que per lo mòdic de son preu d'entrada està a l'alcanç de totes les fortunes. No sé si donat el seu caràcter religiós, algun prelat es dedicarà a concedir algunes indulgències als que la visitin.

Lo que sí em consta, perquè ho vaig veure, és que el dia de la inauguració, una senyora en sortir anava tota adelerada buscant la pica de l'aigua beneïda."

—¿No deyan que 'n farían pagar una pesseta d' aques-tas «projeccións enrahonadas!»
—No, sant cristiá; no val mes que 25 céntims.
—¡Ah, vamos! Això ja es mes enrahonat.

Il·lustració 32: *Caricatura còmica sobre la sala Mercè, en què apareix la bandera que identificava la sala al carrer. Llueix els símbols de l'escut de la ciutat de Barcelona perquè la sala està dedicada a la seva patrona, la Mercè. "Aquests dies s'ha inaugurat a la Rambla dels Estudis, un espectacle nou, dirigit per l'eminent pintor en Lluís Graner i consistent en visions acompanyades de música i cant, projeccions parlades i cinematògraf, tot plegat resulta una cosa ben interessant i nova, especialment per lo que es refereix a pel·lícules parlades, que ho són per distingits actors i produeixen molt bon efecte.

[...] Pot dir-se, en conjunt, que la sala Mercè ofereix un dels espectacles més variats dintre el seu gènere.

"Ja fa dies que a la Rambla dels Estudis s'ha obert la sala Mercè, en la que s'hi donen espectacles que per sa originalitat i bon gust criden força l'atenció.

El local està exquisidament decorat, dominant-hi els tons clars que el fan summament agradable. Té la sala l'aspecte d' una gruta il·luminada per bombetes incandescents de tornassolats matisos.

L'espectacle es compon de dues parts. En la primera té lloc l'exhibició d'algunes projeccions parlades, entre las que mereixen especial menció El banc de la mandra, El telèfon i Mal de queixal, que resulten molt divertides.

En la segona part el públic queda agradablement impressionat per una sèrie de visions musicals que són interessants, tant pel valor del quadro com per la música que les il·lustra.

[...] Nostra enhorabona a l'eximi pintor Sr. Graner, director artístic de l'espectacle."

"[...] Quin xicot és en Graner! Sempre vibrant, fins quan experimenta cansament, decepció i avorriment pel seu art. Un dia varen dir-me: —Que no ho saps? A en Graner en menys d'un any li han tocat tres herències. És ric: ja no ha de mirar per la vida.

—Me n'alegro —vaig respondre.— Ara sí que pintarà... i pintarà al seu gust i no com fins ara, al gust dels altres, al gusts dels amateurs i dels marxants que es disputen els seus tipus de taberna, les seves nits de lluna, les seves nenes dels globus lluminosos, fent-li apurar fins a l'infinit aquestes troballes.

—Doncs t'equivoques, ja no pinta: ara fa música. I van innovar-me que havia agafat una afició boja per l'art dels sons. Que havia pres professor de música i havia comprat piano en un sol dia, de repent, com si se li fes tard, i que es passava el dia solfejant i teclejant. Fins en sos viatges de Sarrià a Barcelona llegia música.

A pesar de tot, jo vaig creure que tot això ho feia per a reposar, per a distreure's momentàniament del seu art amb un art nou, però per a tornar a agafar els pinzells un altre dia, amb més dalé que mai, afanyós d'obrir-se nous camins, d'emprendre nous rumbos. Com de fet, així resultà.

Fruit assaonat de la nova encomesa sigué aquella brillantíssima exhibició de can Parés, aquella fornada de quadros magistrals entre els quals s'hi contaven la Pesca a l'encesa, el Canvi de gresol, els Carabiners a la platja i tants altres que excitaren l'admiració del públic. En Graner envià la major part d'ells a Madrid... i, trist és dir-ho!, allí quedaren ofegats, col·locats als llocs pitjors de les sales... incompresos perquè no sigueren vistos...

Comprenen ara la causa de que en Graner experimenti un nou avorriment per la pintura? S'expliquen com ja no el troben al taller, allà on vivia sempre, desfogant la seva febre, pinzell en mà, sempre actiu i entusiasta? Avui passa el dia a la sala Mercè. Allà ha anat a consolar-se de la decepció, del desengany que va sofrir.

Hi ha enamorats que per oblidar les seves penes es donen a la beguda i a la cràpula. Una cosa per l'estil ha fet l'artista, sense ser crapulós, ni borratxo. S'ha forjat la il·lusió pessimista de que se li aplanava el pedestal que li havia alçat la justa admiració del públic, i en creure's col·locat al baix nivell del vulgo, s'ha fet empresari d'un cinematògraf. Quina tristesa!

Aquest sentiment de tristesa l'experimentàrem el dia de la inauguració, i no perquè la sala Mercè no sigui artística en la seva disposició i en alguns dels seus intents, sinó perquè no resulta tot l'art somiat d'aquests intents, com n'és un exemple la visió de Montserrat, petita, sense ambient, migrada, casi infantil... una lamentable equivocació. I sobre tot perquè és de sentir que un artista dels mèrits i condicions d'en Graner esmerci el seu temps, la seva activitat, les seves iniciatives i la seva fortuna en empreses d'aquesta índole.

Al verdader, al genuí Graner, vareig deixar-lo en el Saló Parés, palpitant d'emoció artística i vencedor fàcil i briós de dificultats insuperables, resoltes amb la màgia del color i de la llum... A la sala Mercè no hi havia l'artista vibrant, sinó l'home infundadament desil·lusionat que es castiga i vol oblidar... Però estem segurs que no ho aconseguirà.

Prompte haurà de veure que el món pertany als que lluiten i no als que s'abaten i es donen a la primera contrarietat. I si els que lluiten disposen d'armes de tan bon tremp com les d'en Graner, llavors l'afany de vèncer recobra en l'esperit la força que proporciona la plena seguretat d'aconseguir-lo.

"Sala Mercè

Per compensar tantes calamitats com ens són vingudes de l'alarmant invasió dels progressos materials —ofegadors de la bondat, la ingenuïtat i la humilitat— ha sigut concedit el Cinematògraf als temps Moderns. Jo voldria cantar aqueix gran invent, qui sortosament sembla arrelat a Barcelona. Soc anat quatre vegades a la sala Mercè, i n'estic encantat.

Allò és molt superior a un teatre. Comença per haver-hi moltes criatures, que comuniquen frescor i simpatia a l'ambient. La semiobscuritat de la sala dona ardidesa per dir en alta veu els comentaris, i se senten coses divines. Una noia de quinze anys es reconegué entre unes concurrentes a la Professó de la Immaculada. I digué «Soc jo!». En les pel·lícules s'hi veuen coses que meravellen i coses que fan riure; i les dues flors raríssimes en aqueix món, l'èxtasi i l'alegria, versen en l'aire perfums incomparables, que reparen les intel·ligències tristes i les voluntats malaltes.

En el Cinematògraf no hi entren las subtils corrupcions, ni les elegants perversitats que tanta gent de bé admet en els teatres; hi ha Cinematògrafs honradíssims i altres molt brètols, però no hi cap el terme mig, i els Cinematògrafs immorals s'han de refugiar en els més pestilents suburbis.

Finalment en la pel·lícula parlada, encertadíssima invenció dels propietaris de la sala Mercè, s'hi nota un cas molt consolador; els pensaments, els acudits buscats, els caients que se'n diu literaris, per no dir-ne irreals (no perquè siguin precisament literaris), no tenen èxit en el Cinematògraf; passen desapercebuts. Lo que fa plorar o riure o cridar són el gest natural, el mot precís, la situació viva, lo que és clar, humà i SENZILL.

El Cinematògraf de la sala Mercè és material i artísticament perfecte, i posat al mig de la Rambla dels Estudis per on passa tot Barcelona, està a totes hores desbordant de gent. Les Visions musicals són d'una gran poesia, i donen a la petita gent casolana un xic d'ideal i d'ensomni; de visió (per l'humil escletxa del petit cervell) de coses augustes, superiors i desconegudes..."

"Com era la sala Mercè

El local de la sala Mercè estava resolt amb la següent distribució:

Vestíbul obert a la Rambla amb dos grans portals. Aquest, després de passar la guixeta, comunicava amb la sala d'espera i deixava a mà esquerra el pas de la sortida de la sala d'espectacles situada més al fons.

La sala d'espera era un espai rectangular separat de la sortida per una valla de 1,40 m. d'alçada aproximadament, amb bancs a una banda i llums elèctrics al damunt coberts amb gasses de diferents colors.

Al final de la sala d'espera, a mà esquerra es baixava a les coves i al davant de la sala s'entrava al local del cinematògraf.

Aquest local tenia l'arquitectura segons el sentit original que li donà en Gaudí. Les seves dimensions podien ser les mateixes de la sala actual. Era rectangular, aproximadament tres vegades més llarga que ampla; tota ella tenia una disposició d'una sala moderna amb la ressent del paviment i de la volta de manera de tenir una visualitat perfecta. Les parets i la volta eren de material molt rugós i aquesta formava ondulacions suaus que responien al sistema d'obtenir una audició perfecta.

Amb aquesta senzilla decoració i amb la seva suau il·luminació adequada a l'espectacle que en ella es feia, la major part del temps a les fosques, semblava que volia recordar l'ambient d'una cova. Al final de la sala hi havia la cabina de projeccions i deixava així als costats uns llocs distingits.

El paviment de la sala era empostissat amb graderies corresponent un graó per cada rengla de cadires. Les cadires eren de ferro amb seients projectables, teixits amb elements vegetals. La il·luminació elèctrica estava amagada de manera de no molestar a l'entrar i, a més, les bombetes estaven embolcallades amb gasses de colors.

El marc de la pantalla i el petit escenari estava també tractat amb el mateix material que la volta i les parets de la sala. Al davant i a sota del nivell del paviment de la sala es posaven els actors i els músics que intervenien a les pel·lícules parlades i a les representacions animades de les rondalles que completaven el programa de la sessió.

De la part inferior de la sala es passava per la porta ja dita a les coves. Aquestes estaven tractades amb els enginys propis del seu caràcter. En elles es desenrotllaven diorames, sorpreses i algunes amb engany que divertien al públic.

A totes les sessions es projectaven pel·lícules parlades sempre plenes de bon humor. L'espectacle final era d'un sentit líric exquisit i reproduïa el tema d'alguna cançó popular o algun fet històric escrit expressament pels millors poetes i músics.

Gaudí porta a terme amb la seva arquitectura una interpretació plàstica d'una sala moderna amb elements populars ben resolts i Graner, l'artista pintor que era el propietari, donà a Barcelona el sentit d'un espectacle per a infants que divertia també als grans, ple d'humor i finesa moral posada al servei de les coses de la nostra terra.

Temporada 1904/05

El 3 de novembre de 1904 s'inaugura la sala Mercè, propietat de Lluís Graner i dissenyada per Antoni Gaudí, inspirat en les coves del Drach de Mallorca. La sala oferia sessions de cinematògraf amb la representació final d'una visió musical, terme que apareix aquí per primera vegada. Els primers experiments amb les visions musicals treballen sobretot l'aspecte lumínic. Lluís Graner estarà directament implicat en la concepció artística i plàstica dels espectacles i treballarà la projecció d'ombres i siluetes en escena (com és el cas de la visió de Montserrat) i la combinació de colors entre els telons pintats i els focus de colors enfocats a sobre (com ara amb Dante a les portes de l'infern). També es presentaran obres que recreïn en escena efectes de la naturalesa, com la tempesta que té lloc a la visió de L'Atlàntida. Aquesta línia la veurem continuada la temporada següent, per exemple, amb La matinada al teatre Principal, també concebuda per Lluís Graner.

Un aspecte des del principi remarcat per les visions musicals i els espectacles en general produïts per Lluís Graner serà el religiós. Durant la Quaresma, acord a la tradició catòlica de no representar espectacles teatrals, les visions musicals se substituiran per visions en format cinematogràfic basades en episodis bíblics, com són L'oració a l'hort i El calvari. Les ressenyes del dia de la inauguració de la sala ja feien acudits sobre la quantitat de religiosos que van assistir a l'esdeveniment, atès el caràcter moralitzant que Graner va anunciar des del principi per als seus espectacles.

Un altre dels principals reclams de la sala Mercè eren les pel·lícules parlades. Durant la primera temporada, la sala va produir els seus propis curtmetratges còmics i durant les projeccions a sala, els actors deien en veu alta les seves línies. Graner va obtenir la patent d'aquests espectacles com els primers sonors de la ciutat a través d'aquesta particular tècnica. Cap a la primavera de 1905, la sala Mercè va produir una sèrie de pel·lícules en què enregistrava a personatges reconeguts de la vida cultural catalana i els mostrava al públic en tasques habituals de la seva vida creativa. Van aparèixer especialment pintors realitzant retrats o dibuixos, com ara Modest Urgell, Ramon Casas, Santiago Rusiñol i el mateix Lluís Graner. També es van enregistrar diverses pel·lícules dels assajos de l'Orfeó Català amb Lluís Millet.

A més de les seves sessions habituals, la sala també es va fer servir per concerts d'associacions externes, com ara els dies 16 i 18 de novembre i el 13 de desembre de 1904, quan la sala Mercè va allotjar la temporada de concerts de la Societat Filharmònica. També, altres associacions oferien vetllades d'espectacles llogant la sala, com va ser el cas de Foment Autonomista Català, que va oferir un abonament per a les sessions de nit de quatre dimecres consecutius a partir del 17 de maig de 1905 per programar les seves vetllades.

La sala Mercè també comptava amb un pis soterrani que es va aprofitar per ubicar instal·lacions artístiques. Durant aquesta primera temporada van destacar les escenes del pessebre monumental inaugurat el 22 de desembre de 1904. Hi havia estàtues de mida natural fetes per Enric Clarasó, cascades, diorames i quantitat d'efectes de color amb il·luminació elèctrica.

Catàleg de visions musicals representades

Montserrat

Estrena el 03/11/1904.

Representada fins al 10/12/1904.

Lletra de Manuel Folch i Torres.

Música de Joaquim Grant.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[…] una visión musical de Montserrat, en que por medio de telones y combinaciones de luz de todos los tonos aparece la silueta da la histórica montaña y por último la Virgen.

Durante la visión, un coro de ángeles canta una Salve, música de D. Joaquín Grant y letra de D. Manuel Folch i Torres, acompañada por un quinteto que toca con mucha afinación. Los músicos y coros se hallan situados debajo del proscenio, lo que contribuye al buen efecto del espectáculo. El público salió satisfecho y lo manifestó repetidas veces con sus aplausos durante la representación. A las señoras y señoritas se las obsequió con ramos de flores a la salida."

Diario de Barcelona 301 (04/11/1904), pp. 12762; 12765.

"[…] Quizá porque habíamos tenido el natural enfrente no nos produjo impresión la visión musical de Montserrat, que mostraba el artificio y resultaba empequeñecida la cosa por falta de ambiente verdadero. También hay que confesar que los versos de D. Manuel Folch i Torres no pueden inspirar a ningún músico ni pintor. […]"

La Publicidad (04/11/1904), p. 6.

"[…] La visión de Montserrat, que anoche constituyó el último número de las secciones, es la parte más nueva y cuidada del espectáculo, si bien no resulta para el público con el grado de amenidad que se hubiera supuesto. De una orquesta y un coro invisibles para el espectador, por hallarse colocados por debajo del nivel del suelo, contra el escenario, se eleva una agradable música acompañando los cánticos, a la par que, descorrida la cortina, aparece, primero, la visión de Montserrat y luego la de la Virgen, en medio de una fantasía de todos los colores del iris."

La part escènica és hermosa a tot ser-ho. L'aparició de la Verge en mig d'un devessall de claror, suggestiona per la grandiositat amb què es presenta. Essent baix aquest concepte la sala Mercè digna de que per ella hi desfilin els amants de les arts pàtries.

Pròleg de l'Atlàntida

Visió musical en 3 quadres.

Estrena el 10/12/1904.

Representada fins al 05/02/1905[12].

Il·lustració 33: Detall de la portada de la partitura manuscrita per Enric Morera.

Lletra del pròleg de L'Atlàntida (1877) de Jacint Verdaguer.

Música d'Enric Morera (BC: M-Mor-226/1)[13].

Escenografia de Salvador Alarma.

Il·lustració 34*: Esbós escenogràfic de Salvador Alarma per a la visió musical* L'Atlàntida*.* *[*La Ilustració catalana 84 (08/01/1905), p. 26.]

[12] Paral·lelament, durant les mateixes dates, s'estaven regalant als subscriptors de La Ilustració catalana planes amb una edició monumental de L'Atlàntida il·lustrada per Xiró.
[13] Es tractaria d'una adaptació i reducció del poema simfònic L'Atlàntida, del mateix Morera, escrit el 1893.

"A la visió musical Montserrat, que tan bones entrades ha proporcionat a la sala Mercè, ha seguit la presentació d'una altra que mantindrà l'èxit conquistat fent la delícia dels aficionats a aquest gènere d'espectacles.

Se titula L'Atlàntida i consisteix en una escena de mar en moments de tempesta. Baix el punt de vista escenogràfic és digna d'elogi; ara considerat l'espectacle a concepció artística resulta un xic inferior a la visió musical Montserrat. És digna d'aplauso sense cap mena de reserva la música que la il·lustra, deguda al celebrat mestre n'Enric Morera, que perfectament adequada a l'escena suggestiona per sa grandiositat i inspiració."

"L'Atlàntida

Hoy, sábado, a las siete de la noche, se ha celebrado el ensayo general de la nueva visión musical que el maestro compositor Sr. Morera y el escenógrafo Sr. Alarma han compuesto, inspirándose en el grandioso poema L'Atlàntida, del inolvidable mosen Jacinto Verdaguer."

El Liberal 1330 (10/12/1904), ed. nit, p. 3.

"Entre la nombrosa sèrie de cinematògrafs, autòmats, diorames, etc., alguns de veritable mèrit i gust artístic, n'està cridant l'atenció la "Sala Mercè", de poc estrenada i en la que, baix la direcció del celebrat Graner, s'hi donen unes hermoses sessions de cinematògraf, visions musicals i projeccions parlades amb una exquisités de bon gust i amb un refinament de perfecció com no es pot desitjar més.

A les primeres visions musicals que amb el sempre interessant motiu del Montserrat ha succeït l'hermosa quin títol és el Pròleg de l'Atlàntida, la que és obra veritablement artística que ens fa reviure fins al més petit detall de lo de la musa sobirana del nostre gran Verdaguer.

Un cel negrós il·luminat lleument de quan en quan pel llamp llunyà, el mar revolt amb engolidores ones que rebaten furioses contra el rocam ruixant-les d'escuma, és l'escenari on comença el gran poema i a poc se veuen els dos vaixells quines tallantes proes ens fan preveure aquell xoque esgarrifós quin moment suprem no arriba, caient la cortina i deixant la visió fondament impressionat al públic.

La música que il·lustra la visió és del mestre Morera, tot ella una filigrana i es veu ben bé que està compenetrat de l'obra cabdal del nostre gran poeta.

A més, s'acaba d'estrenar la quilomètrica pel·lícula del dia, per la qual l'espectador torna a veure altre cop l'hermosa professó del Jubileu de la Immaculada sortint de la Catedral fins el seu retorn. És tan natural i tan viva la visió que en passar el tros on es veu la imatge històrica i el poble que l'aclama i aplaudeix, que el públic de la sala Mercè, com per una corrent elèctrica, se n'encomana de l'entusiasme i aplaudeix i aclama a la Verge com si realment passés altre cop triomfalment pels carrers de Barcelona.

"[...] A la sala Mercè s'hi exhibeix una nova visió musical sobre l'assumpte del pròleg del gran poema de Mossèn Verdaguer L'Atlàntida. El decorat, obra del senyor Alarma, és un tour de force en escenografia i en maquinaria escenogràfica.

El feréstec episodi de la lluita de les naus genovesa i veneciana en mig d'un desfet temporal, apareix amb una veritat sorprenent, constituint una perfecta traducció plàstica de la concepció poètica i acusant en tot la direcció experta del genial artista en Lluís Graner. Ajuda moltíssim a la suggestió del conjunt l'hermós poema musical que el mestre Morera tenia compost sobre l'assumpte, el qual s'executa harmònicament amb el desenrotllo de l'acció.

Tinc la seguretat de que tot Barcelona desfilarà per la sala Mercè, a on de més a més de la visió musical ressenyada, s'hi exhibeixen noves pel·lícules cinematogràfiques... que parlen, en el sentit directe i figurat de la paraula.

Dante a les portes de l'infern

Estrena el 08/02/1905.

Representada fins al 07/03/1905.

El sonet, degut al nostre colaborador don Joseph Carner, diu aixís:

DANTE

L'aire es tot arraulit dins de l'ombra fatal,
y guayta, ab l'inquietut de les grans maravelles.
Dante está sol, devant de la porta infernal.
El cel, demunt l'horror de la cova, té estrelles.
El gran poeta es alt, y está dret, y medita.
Tot calla y s'agenolla devant sa inspiració,
y ell alsa el bras, y posa la trágica inscripció.
Cada paraula's mou de pó quan es escrita.
El posa la senyal del Castich implacable;
ell es lo irremisible, ell es lo inexorable;
ell es la Eternitat alsantse y judicant.
El cel, al seu demunt, es suau y consola, l'infern, al seu devant, s'inflama y's cargola,
al seu darrera el món el guayta tremolant.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"A la sala Mercè s'ha estrenat amb gran èxit un quadro plàstic, titulat Dante a les portes de l'infern.

Representa la porta de l'infern, tenebrosa, decorada amb monstres horribles quals detalls van destacant-se gradualment gràcies a les gradacions de llum que amb gran encert i art es verifiquen. Les tonalitats roges contraresten enèrgicament amb les suaus del firmament que es veu en un àngul de l'escenari apareixent el poeta en actitud de llegir la fatídica llegenda.

Simultàniament un actor recita un sonet apropiat, mentre la orquestra executa el pròleg de la òpera Mefistofele, resultant un conjunt acabadíssim, en extrem artístic i emocionant.

Aquest quadro portarà un gran número d'espectadors a la sala Mercè.

El sonet, degut al nostre col·laborador don Josep Carner, diu així:

Dante

L'aire és tot arraulit dins de l'ombra fatal,
i guaita, amb la inquietud de les grans meravelles.
Dante està sol, davant de la porta infernal.
El cel, damunt l'horror de la cova, té estrelles.

El gran poeta és alt, i està dret, i medita.
Tot calla i s'agenolla davant sa inspiració, i ell alça el braç, i posa la tràgica inscripció.
Cada paraula es mou de por quan és escrita.

Ell posa la senyal del Càstig implacable;
ell és lo irremissible, ell és lo inexorable;
ell és la Eternitat alçant-se i judicant.

"Con un éxito completo se ha inaugurado en esta concurrida sala la exhibición de un cuadro plástico de buen y fantástico conjunto que constituye la más interesante novedad. Representa al Dante en las puertas del inferno y está la escena dispuesta con mucho arte, concebida con fantasía y las graduaciones de la luz realizadas esmeradamente, de modo que el efecto es sorprendente.

Mientras dura la exhibición, un actor recita un hermoso soneto original de don José Carner, muy inspirado, y cuyo texto no reproducimos por falta de espacio. La orquesta ejecuta un fragmento de música de Arrigo Boito.

El efecto que produce una obra tan bien presentada es completo y emocionante. La dirección de la sala Mercè ha realizado una trouvaille cuyo carácter eminentemente artístico atraería a todo Barcelona."

La Vanguardia (11/02/1905), ed. matí, p. 3.

"En la sala Mercè se ha estrenado con éxito un cuadro plástico titulado Dante a las puertas del infierno y se exhibe al final de las sesiones cinematográficas. Representa la entrada del infierno, con monstruos y enormes rocas que se destacan paulatinamente, merced a las graduaciones de luz, produciendo sorprendente efecto, con el tono rojo encendido del final. Al descorrerse la cortina aparece en escena el gran poeta florentino, mientras un actor recita un canto de su poema y la orquesta efectúa en el foso un fragmento de la ópera Mefistófeles[16]."

Diario de Barcelona 38 (14/02/1905), p. 1789.

"Dante a les portes de l'infern, aquest es el títol del quadro plàstic que s'ha estrenat en la cada dia més concorreguda sala Mercè, produint un excel·lent efecte tant per las tonalitats de llum com per la visualitat del quadro. Així que apareix el poeta a les portes de l'infern, un actor recita un sonet apropiat i la orquestra executa el pròleg de l'òpera Mefistofele d'Arrigo Boito, essent la il·lusió força corprenent.

Ben segur que aquest quadro plàstic serà visitat per tot Barcelona, ja que està presentat bé de debò, no mancant-hi ni l'emoció ni l'art, ambdues coses imprescindibles en exhibicions d'aital gènere.

Felicitem una vegada més a nostre volgut amic, el notable pintor en Lluis Graner, per l'encert que ha tingut en presentar l'hermós quadro que tant crida l'atenció de tothom."

"A la sala Mercè continuen obtenint gran èxit l'hermós quadro plàstic Dante a les portes de l'infern i la pel·lícula parlada Píldores meravelloses.

Además, l'espectacle resulta cada dia molt variat, sovintejant les estrenes de noves pel·lícules, lo que fa que el públic acudeixi a aquell local cada dia amb major afició.

Les grutes fantàstiques són també molt visitades."

“I ara que parlo d’infern, em ve a la memòria el Dant i amb el Dant, la sala Mercè, on s’hi representa amb èxit un quadro plàstic en què el poeta florentí es troba a les portes de la maisó dels condemnats. Allí l’home recita uns versos d’en Carner acompanyats d’una música de violins que sembla més aviat música celestial que infernal. [...]

Diario de Barcelona 55 (06/03/1905), p. 2642.

"Brillantíssim i coronat d'aplausos per la nombrosa concurrència a l'espectacle, fou l'estreno celebrat ahir a la sala Mercè de l'hermós quadro plàstic L'oració a l'hort, amb que varen ésser inaugurades les funcions de Quaresma.

Els inspirats versos d'en Josep Carner, encertadament recitats pels actors de la companyia, no foren menys aplaudits que la poètica decoració de l'hort, vista amb claror de lluna que l'Alarma ha pintat per a tan suggestiu i patètic espectacle.

També va agradar molt la pel·lícula parlada Judas, plena de tràgica emoció. Els dramàtics parlaments que l'acompanyen acaben de fer interessants els palpitants episodis de la traïció, la desesperació i el càstig del mal deixeble de Jesús.

El nombrós i distingit públic que assistia a la funció apenes podia reprimir els aplausos que tan belles visions provocaven a cada instant.

La sala Mercè ha inaugurat amb fortuna la seva sèrie d'espectacles quaresmals."

"En la sala Mercè se estrenó ayer tarde una película animada y hablada, que tiene por título La oración en el huerto de Getsemaní, la que produce sorprendente efecto por la composición de la escena, el recitado y la música que acompaña a las palabras. Durante la Cuaresma quedan retiradas todas las demás películas del cinematógrafo y solo se exhibirán en dicha sala películas y proyecciones fijas con tema de carácter bíblico, panoramas de Palestina y en especial de la ciudad de Jerusalén."

També continuen sent molt celebrades les pel·lícules d'escriptors i artistes catalans, a les quals s'hi ha afegit ara les que fan referència als germans Josep i Joan Llimona, ambdues molt interessants i dignes de ser vistes pels curiosos de les intimitats del món artístic. "En la sala Mercè se ha estrenado la visión-cuadro-plástico musical Sant Jordi mata l'aranya, que se reproduce actualmente al final de cada sesión cinematográfica. Dicho espectáculo resulta muy interesante por el diálogo que sostienen dos actores invisibles explicando la leyenda del dragón al cual mató el Santo patrón de Cataluña. Terminado el diálogo, se ilumina el teatrito, se descorre la cortina y aparece una decoración de rocas, con una doncella arrodillada al lado de la cueva del dragón en actitud de invocar a San Jorge, quien aparece en escena y salva a la doncella cuando iba a ser acometida por el dragón. Durante el desarrollo de esta escena muda la orquesta, también invisible, ejecuta una composición adecuada al acto y que contribuye a aumentar el buen efecto del cuadro plástico."

[17] Podria ser una adaptació de Sant Jordi matà l'aranya. Juguet còmic en un acte i en vers. Escrit, per aposta, amb títol tret a la sort, estrenat el 1892 i escrit per Artur Guash Tombas.

"La conjunción de dos artistas de la talla de Vilomara i Graner en la composición y factura de un cuadro plástico debería resultar por fuerza una obra de arte, o al menos de gusto exquisito, y así resultó. Mi excelente amigo Luis Graner pone a contribución todo su talento para hacer de su sala Mercè un centro de cultura artística, y esos cuadros plásticos que en unión de los mejores escenógrafos de Barcelona viene dando a conocer al público son el plato exquisito, que este saborea con fruición.

Dentro del marco de la encantadora leyenda catalana Sant Jordi mata l'aranya ha ejecutado Mauricio Vilomara plásticamente un cuadro sorprendente de color y propiedad; no en vano es este escenógrafo uno de los maestros más entendidos y ya viejo en tan difícil arte.

La apatía latente que se observa aquí en España en espectáculos teatrales que requieran decoraciones y grande escenografía hace que veamos solo de tarde en tarde alardes artísticos dignos de los buenos maestros que aquí tenemos. Por esta razón, creo que todos los amantes de las artes bellas, sin distinción de matices, apartando sensiblerías de pura tendencia que nada tienen que ver con el arte, verán con gusto el esfuerzo de un artista tan popular como Graner y gozarán en la sala Mercè ante una obra escenográfica debida a un artista de la generación del malogrado Soler y Rovirosa, cuyas obras, corriendo por el extranjero, dan aún patente muestra de lo que en nuestro país puede hacerse artísticamente.

"Després d'aquesta digressió, caldrà tornar al repertori de la vella sala Mercè, que, com dèiem fa poc, era degut a la inspiració d'en Carner. Una de les representacions que va assolir més popularitat, pel seu argument, per la gràcia del diàleg i per la novetat de la representació, va ser La llegenda de Sant Jordi. Precedia la projecció de la pel·lícula un àgil i graciós diàleg entre Josep i Joan. Recordem que encarnaven aquests dos personatges Lluís Puiggarí i Artur Balot, aquest darrer sortosament encara vivent i que, ben segur, deu recordar aquesta llegenda i altres textos del nostre poeta.

Ací va La llegenda de Sant Jordi tal com la recordo, després de més de cinquanta anys d'haver-la sentida i admirada com a espectador de la dita sala. Si algú troba que hi ha alguna falla en la transcripció, espero que voldrà ser tan generós de perdonar-me.

JOAN.– La llegenda de Sant Jordi me la volguessis contar!

JOSEP.– Ah, noi, va ser un cas terrible, ja et dic jo que va ser un cas.

JOAN.– Explica't, explica't, home, que ja em tens tot intrigat.

JOSEP.– Una vegada era un rei d'un país molt especial;
ple de boscos espantosos,
d'abims, de coves i estanys.

D'un bosc molt esgarrifós
cada any en sortia un drac.
La donzella que volia
l'hi tenien de donar.

JOAN.– Ai, Josep, que ja tremolo.

[18] Inicialment s'havia planificat la substitució de quadres plàstics pel dia 12 de juny.

JOSEP.– Calla i escolta, Joan.
Un any el drac es presenta traient escuma i cridant:
–Dau-me la filla del rei, que és la que trio aquest any.

Com l'havien de complaure, perquè el drac era capaç
de fer un diluvi de flames
i d'escumes i de sang, ja li porten la princesa que tenia els ulls suaus.

JOAN.– I la princesa, què feia?

JOSEP.– S'estava quieta i resant.

. . . . . .

El dragó es recargolava
i s'hi anava a abraonar, quan te compare Sant Jordi, tot armat de punta en blanc.

. . . . . .

El dragó anava endarrere.
Ja és caigut d'un cop mortal.

Del soroll que feia al caure tot el món va tremolar,
tot el cel fa una rialla,
tot l'infern esclata en brams.

Sant Jordi se'n torna al cel
i el cel es torna més blau, i se sent olor de roses
i la llum es fa brillant.

JOAN.– Que m'agradaria veure-ho,
tot això que m'has contat!

JOSEP.– Doncs, aixeca els ulls enlaire, que de seguida ho veuràs.

Immediatament s'obria la cortina per donar pas a la visió poemàtica que es desenvolupava amb una música suau de fons.

De la fervorosa acollida que els barcelonins varen dispensar a la sala Mercè només en podem donar fe els qui vàrem tenir el goig de viure aquells inefables moments. Va ser una modalitat artística d'una tan gran originalitat, que va sotraguejar tots els àmbits de la nostra terra. De moment va semblar que era un cinema més, dels molts que s'anaven obrint. Però tot seguit tothom va veure que li posaven davant dels ulls una manifestació artística d'alta qualitat, i riquíssima en possibilitats per a l'esdevenidor. Era un espectacle nou, barreja i conjunció de totes les arts, pintura, música, poesia i dansa, plasmades d'una manera tan graciosa i senzilla que arribaven al cor de tothom, des dels més grans als més humils.

I aquest miracle s'havia fet gràcies al gran artista Lluís Graner. [...]"

Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta, La

Quadro plàstic musical / visió musical en 2 quadres.

Estrena el 28/06/1905.

Representada durant tot l'estiu fins al 10/09/1905 (més de 500 representacions).

Lletra de Josep Carner (CEDOC: 3.7_0008).

Música de Joan B. Lambert basada en la cançó popular (CEDOC: 3.7_0008).

Escenografia de Miquel Moragas i Salvador Alarma[19].

Direcció artística general de Lluís Graner[20].

Il·lustració 38: CARNER, Josep: La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta... Barcelona: L'Avenç, 1905 (portada).

Ressenyes de premsa:

Diario de Barcelona 163 (28/06/1905), p. 7238.

[19] El segon quadre representa l'interior d'un saló gòtic amb efectes de llum.
[20] La representació no té lletra parlada, només la de la cançó popular que es canta. Va acompanyada, però, per la interpretació de les nenes actrius a través de mímica dels gestos i accions que la cançó popular descriu.

"Avui al vespre s'estrenarà a la sala Mercè el quadro plàstic musical La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta.

Les notícies que en tenim permeten esperar un extraordinari èxit. El decorat, pintat expressament per l'Alarma, és d'un efecte sorprenent, per la seva esplendidesa, i els trajos són confeccionats amb una propietat i un bon gust exquisit.

La música amb què ha il·lustrat la visió el jove i ja notable compositor Lambert, pianista de la sala Mercè, és tal vegada lo més brillant que ha produït el seu autor.

Tot fa esperar que La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta obtindrà una acollida entusiasta de la distingida i nombrosa concurrència que acudeix cada dia a aquella sala d'espectacles."

"Sala Mercè.— El eminente artista señor Graner, a quien tantas visiones de arte refinado debe nuestro público, acaba de realizar un cuadro plástico de relevante mérito. Con el tema de la canción popular catalana La mare de Déu quan era xiqueta... ha compuesto unas escenas de ternura exquisita.

En el primer cuadro aparece María yendo a la escuela y pasando por un camino esmaltado de lirios blancos; y luego la angelical criatura penetra en el local donde sus compañeras hacen puntilla con la almohadilla de bolillos.

Es una habitación gótica de esbeltos ventanales con vidrios de colores. Santa Susana y Santa Paulita la enseñan su labor; todas las niñas la besan, y cuando el cuadro está en la plenitud de su candorosa intimidad, aparece el ángel anunciador de la Buena Nueva y la Virgen cae de hinojos mientras el arcángel San Gabriel pronuncia la salutación suprema.

El cuadro plástico es de un efecto magnífico. Bien se ve en él la experta mano de los escenógrafos señores Moragas y Alarma, la inspiración del refinado compositor don Joan Lambert y la delicada sencillez del poeta señor Carner, todo ello bajo la dirección del citado señor Graner.

Mientras la escena se va desarrollando, una voz femenil entona las estrofas a que acompaña la melodía popular armonizada con mucho acierto. La sugestión es completa y el efecto de ternura encantadora que produce el cuadro es superior a todo encomio.

Al acierto en escoger un asunto tan delicado e interesante ha unido don Luis Graner el talento de realizarlo felizmente. No habrá persona de buen gusto que deje de gozar de la fruición que produce un espectáculo tan refinado.

El público que ha acudido a la exhibición, desde el estreno de este cuadro plástico musical, es numerosísimo y al final de la visión ha aplaudido con entusiasmo."

"El que ens ha donat bona cosa aquesta setmana és en Graner, que cada dia va refinant més la sala Mercè. Ara serveix al distinguido, que cada dia és més numeroso, un quadro plàstic representant La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta, que és una veritable exquisitat, una joia esplèndida i rica que transporta a les regions serenes de la més dolça poesia (Ay!). Els dic que és canela pura.

Primer la música toca... una música d'en Lambert espatarrant. Després, rast!, se descorre la cortina, se senten cantar uns versets de la cançó popular i surt la Mare de Déu tota xiqueta que se'n va a costura a aprendre de lletra... Superior, el quadro. La música segueix tocant, es clou la cortina, se torna a obrir i ja tenim la Mare de Déu a costura enrondada de nenes totes eixerides i bufones i, servint-les-hi de fons, una decoració de l'Alarma que no hi ha més que mirar. Per últim, la costura s'il·lumina intensament i aleshores ve la visió apoteòsica de la Verge, que els dic que és cosa de mirar. A fe de Viloret els asseguro que la poden anar a veure i a sentir amb confiança La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta, perquè és lo millor que s'ha inventat dintre el seu estil. I per a que consti, firmo i rubrico.

"Sala Mercè.— En aquest tant freqüentat local, qual direcció s'esmera cada dia més en la presentació artística dels seus programes, s'ha estrenat un nou quadro plàstic musical, feliç interpretació de la cançó popular La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta.

Lo mateix el decorat, d'una entonació exquisida, degut als reputats pintors senyors Moragas i Alarma, que la música, glosa de la tan coneguda cançó, harmonitzada amb delicadesa i saber pel llorejat compositor en Joan B. Lambert, produeixen un efecte dels més suggestius i desperten al espectador el sentiment i l'emoció més viva.

Després de les pel·lícules intimes d'artistes i literats en el moment d'exercir el seu art, entre las quals hi ha figurat ja els eminents pianistes Vidiella i Malats, l'Orfeó Català i son director en Lluís Millet, el quadro plàstic musical que acaba d'estrenar-se pot considerar-se com el número més interessant de quants dintre aquell gènere avui se veuen en las sales més afavorides."

Anunci i crítiques dels concerts de la Societat Filharmònica a la sala Mercè

"La Sociedad Filarmónica ha dado a conocer el programa de conciertos para la temporada que en breve dará principio. Los dos primeros serán los días 16 y 18 en la sala Mercè, recientemente inaugurada.

La Filarmónica ha conseguido para esta serie al concurso de notables artistas. Las señoras Mysz-Gmeiner, cantante alemana, y Cecilia Thévenet, del Teatro Real de la Moneda de Bruselas, mezzo-soprano de fama, darán a conocer lieder clásicos y modernos: la señorita Elsa Ruegger, que tan buen recuerdo dejó entre nosotros como violoncelista, y el señor Léon van Hout, notabilidad en la viola y viola de amor, darán sesiones de música de cámara. Ossip Gabrilowitsch, concertista ruso, que el último invierno obtuvo con sus seis recitales de piano un éxito desconocido en París después del estreno de Paderewski; Steinbach, ya conocido en España, famoso capellmeister, que actualmente dirige los conciertos del Gürzsnich de Colonia, después de haber estado al frente, durante mucho años, de la célebre orquesta de Meiningen; Raoul Pugno y Eugenio Isaye, con nuestros compatriotas la señorita Francisca Vidal y el maestro Enrique Granados, y con el concurso del maestro Crickboom, contribuirán a que la temporada sea todo lo fructuosa que prometen estos anuncios."

Diario de Barcelona 309 (14/11/1904), ed. matí, p. 13197.

"—La Filarmónica dará mañana, a las nueve y media de la noche, en la sala Mercè, el primer concierto de la temporada, ejecutando los señores D. Enrique Granados y D. Mateo Crickboom el programa siguiente: Sonata en si bemol de Mozart, para piano y violín; gran sonata en sol menor, para violín solo, de J. S. Bach, y la célebre sonata en la mayor, para piano y violín, de César Franck.

—Se ha concedido a D. Luis Graner, director artístico de la sala Mercè, privilegio de invención por el espectáculo da las proyecciones cinematográficas habladas que con grande éxito se celebran en dicha sala."

Diario de Barcelona 311 (16/11/1904), p. 13277.

"Ante un reducido circulo de fieles aficionados, dio anteanoche su tercer concierto de esta temporada la Sociedad Filarmónica de Barcelona, en la sala Mercè. La señorita Elsa Ruegger y los señores Crickboom y Granados, secundados por los señores Forns y Perelló, interpretaron un programa escogido, con rara perfección. Los méritos de la violoncelista belga no necesitan encomio para cuantos tuvieron la suerte de apreciarlos en su anterior visita a Barcelona: de los de dos artistas tan notables y personales como Granados y Crickboom, no hemos de hablar: el programa tenía como obra principal el gran Quinteto de César Franck. Y, sin embargo, como decimos antes, en la reducida sala los espectadores cabían holgadamente. Ni ha sido posible encontrar otro local más adecuado, ni se ha logrado reunir más socios asistentes. No es esto el lugar de discutir las causas que han llegado a producir esto resultado: nos limitamos a consignar el hecho.

El concierto se abrió con una obra nueva: el Trío en re menor del compositor ruso, director de la Capilla Rea1 de San Petersburgo, Arensky, una obra que fue oída con tanto interés como agrado, por su gracia melódica, por la factura siempre cuidada y distinguida, por las bellezas de sonoridad y por cierta poesía que se desprende de muchos de sus pasajes: tal vez el primer tiempo fue lo que más satisfizo, aunque no puedan aventurarse preferencias por una sola audición.

La señorita Ruegger sobresalió en la segunda parte interpretando una Sonata de Locatelli. Admiró al auditorio con la redondez, igualdad y pureza de sonido que arranca al instrumento, con la perfección del mecanismo, con la seguridad de la entonación. No menos son de alabar en ella la naturalidad del fraseo y el arte de la expresión. La facilidad con que dominó las dificultades amontonadas en el tercer tiempo, Minuetto, de la composición de Locatelli, acabó de entusiasmar al público, qua la saludó al terminar con una prolongada ovación.

El maestro Crickboom tiene, como especialidad, un conocimiento íntimo y profundo del estilo de César Franck, lo cual nos ha demostrado desde el primer día que se dio a conocer entre nosotros, siempre que ha ejecutado alguna obra del maestro belga. Pero anteanoche pareció sobrepujarse a sí mismo como intérprete y director en el Quinteto para piano, dos violines, viola y violoncelo. Esta magnífica obra, cuyas proporciones parecen aumentar a cada nueva audición, obtuvo una interpretación tan perfecta en el conjunto, como en los detalles, tan pintoresca por el acertado juego de los timbres, como intensa por la fuerza del sentimiento. El público hizo salir a los intérpretes numerosas veces. El maestro Granados desempeñó también la parte de piano en la sonata de Locatelli con la suavidad de pulsación y riqueza de matices que caracterizan su estilo.

La señorita Ruegger y el señor Crickboom acaban de alcanzar un señalarlo triunfo en los cinco conciertos que han dado en la Filarmónica de Madrid, que los ha escriturado ya para el año próximo. En esta excursión ha recibido la alternativa el joven violinista nuestro paisano señor Perelló, que en aquella sociedad ejecutó la parte de segundo violín en el Quinteto de Franck, como anoche lo hizo aquí, en unión del señor Forns, encargado de la parte de viola.”

Inauguració de les grutes del soterrani de la sala Mercè

Diario de Barcelona 340 (20/12/1904), p. 14681.

"Hoy tendrá efecto en la sala Mercè la inauguración de un atractivo espectáculo fantástico de grutas subterráneas de estalactitas y estalagmitas, copiando lo más pintoresco de las de Artà y Manacor, exhibiéndose también entre ellas variados dioramas y cuadros plásticos, que representan el nacimiento del Mesías, la Anunciación, la huida a Egipto, la cueva de fray Garí y una cascada de agua natural, todo artísticamente presentado con efectos de luces y colores."

Grandioso éxito de las grutas fantásticas en el grandioso subterráneo.—«Cueva de Fray Garín», «Dioramas», «Cascada de agua natural», «Pesebre artístico», «La Anunciación», «El Nacimiento» y «Huida a Egipto»[21].—Esculturas de tamaño natural del eminente artista Enrique Clarasó.—Fantásticos efectos de colores con luz eléctrica.

Ayer tarde se inauguraron en los sótanos de la sala Mercè unas cuevas de fantástico efecto, combinadas de modo tan especial, que cada rincón ofrece al visitante la sorpresa de un diorama y cuadros plásticos, dispuestos con mucha perspectiva e inteligencia. Entre grupos de estalactitas y estalagmitas se ve la cueva de Garín con dicho penitente orando en primer término, la Anunciata, la huida a Egipto y el pesebre con el nacimiento del Salvador. Las figuras son corpóreas, de tamaño natural.

La ilusión que producen al visitante las mencionadas cuevas es notable por todos conceptos, coadyuvando al buen efecto una bien entendida combinación de luces que producen la claridad adecuada al panorama que se representa. Dichas cuevas son incombustibles, pues en su construcción solo han entrado el hierro y el cemento. […]."

"[…] Creguin-me a mi: en lloc d'anar a veure funcions d'innocents, val més que es fiquin a la sala Mercè, que és una cosa més innocent i, sobretot, més artística. Allí ni vostès ni la família hi podran aprendre res de mal. En canvi, hi fruiran espectacles ben agradosos. Dies enrere ja els vaig parlar de la visió musical de L'Atlàntida i els la vaig recomanar. Doncs avui els recomano les coves, que són una delícia, amb un diorama a cada raconada i unes estalactites i estalagmites que ni les d'Artà. Hi ha l'Anunciata, la fugida a Egipte, el Naixement, la cova de Fra Garí, un cràter de volcà amb un foc que esgarrifa, en fi, una pila de coses dignes de ser vistes i conegudes. Creguin que ja el mereixen aquelles coves el ralet que fan pagar per entrar-hi.

Ressenya general sobre l'activitat musical catalana

Do, re, mi.—Les coses de música a casa nostra, no van gaire bé, senyors: la major part de les moltes associacions i entitats de tota mena que es dediquen al conreu de l'art divinal, no fan més que donar voltes i més voltes a la maneta d'una caixa de música on s'hi estotja tot lo repertori foraster antic i modern. [...]

—En Lluis Graner, en la sala Mercè, fa una bona obra a la música catalana amb ses visions musicals, i si els postres mestres volguessin ajudar-lo, allí es podria fer, i es farà, no en dubtem, quelcom de profit. Lo fet fins ara resulta encara molt feble."

Ressenyes sobre pel·lícules projectades a la sala

"En el cinematógrafo de la sala Mercè se estrenó ayer tarde una película, nueva en esta ciudad, titulada Una procesión en las calles de Tokio en celebración de una victoria en las inmediaciones de Port Arthur. La expresada película animada produce grande efecto al ver desfilar la procesión que la forman innumerables individuos con palmas, vistiendo sus típicos trajes y armaduras, excepto los individuos de la policía que marchan a ambos lados vestidos a la europea, los palanquines, tarascas, banderas, monstruos, el templete de Buda que cierra la procesión y la muchedumbre que se agolpa en el curso a su paso, produciendo un conjunto de gran novedad."

Diario de Barcelona 23 (27/01/1905), p. 1049.

"[...] També es representen al mateix local unes pel·lícules parlades, Broma de Carnestoltes i Duros que no passen, que estan d'allò més bé. I també ho estan les coves del soterrani de la casa, on no hi ha racó que no amagui una sorpresa.

Amb tot, no sé com estarà tot allò a l'hora en què vegin la llum aquestes ratlles, perquè en Graner ha conjuminat per a aquest temps de Quaresma uns espectacles clericals que diu que seran cosa suculenta.

Ja hi anirem i ja en parlarem.

[22] La mateixa notícia es publica en català a La Veu de Catalunya, només afegint que eren uns 300 o 400 la quantitat de nens de la casa de la Misericòrdia els qui van fer la visita a la sala Mercè.

"La sala Mercè tiene encargadas en tres casas distintas de París y Londres películas de los actos más importantes del viaje de Don Alfonso XIII, que se irán exhibiendo a medida que vayan llegando, de manera que todos los días habrá alguna nueva.

Opinió sobre les pel·lícules íntimes de personatges catalans

"Pel·lícules íntimes de personatges catalans.— És realment una troballa l'idea d'aquestes pel·lícules que estan a punt d'inaugurar-se a la sala Mercè. Es tracta de donar una visió cinematogràfica de persones conegudes en el món de l'art i de les lletres, sorpreses en l'acte de las seves habituals ocupacions.

Per l'assaig que hem vist d'algunes d'aquestes pel·lícules, podem avançar que constituiran les tals una de les més notables i fins instructives curiositats dels nostres temps. Entre els personatges cinematografiats recordem al paisatgista Modest Urgell dibuixant sobre una grau tela la silueta d'un cementiri; a en Ramon Casas, fent el retrat d'unes nenes entre grups de flors; a en Carles G. Vidiella tocant al piano una de les peces del seu repertori; a en Santiago Rusiñol pintant a l'aire lliure i a en Lluís Graner, retratant a en Rusiñol; a l'Arcadi Mas i Fondevila, fent estudis del natural en un jardí, i altres i altres que seria llarg esmentar.

Però sí que hem de fer menció apart d'una d'aquestes pel·lícules, destinada sens dubte a cridar poderosament l'atenció del públic i a excitar la seva curiositat. Ens referim a la visió cinematogràfica de l'eminent escultor Josep Llimona, a l'acte de treballar en las estàtues per al monument del doctor Robert. Les grandioses figures ocupen el fons del taller, i l'artista, amb el model al davant, va donant l'últim retoc a les imatges filles de la seva imaginació.

L'èxit d'aquesta troballa és seguríssim, perquè, a més de la seva originalitat, ha de contribuir a popularitzar el nom i els fels dels homes que en els actuals moments constitueixen gran part de la cultura barcelonina.

A darrera hora ens notifiquen que les Pel·lícules intimes de personatges catalans s'inauguraran demà dijous."

“Una visión novísima en la sala Mercè

Ayer, conforme anunciamos, se inauguró ante el público que de continuo se renueva en la sala Mercè la visión de las películas íntimas de los hombres que actualmente constituyen la intelectualidad catalana, sorprendidos en un momento de su vida habitual.

La idea no puede ser más feliz, ni la ejecución más esmerada y perfecta.

El eximio artista don Luis Graner, que dirige personalmente la impresión de las películas cinematográficas, ha escogido los fondos de las escenas, los momentos perpetuados por la fotografía y el tiempo de la exhibición, con tal acierto que todos los cuadros resultan interesantísimos y documentados expertamente.

Una rápida descripción de esa parte del espectáculo de la sala Mercè bastará para que nuestros lectores formen concepto aproximado de su novedad y de su valía como medio de cultura y como tributo a algunos de los que en esta tierra sobresalen en el campo de las artes y de las letras.

Comienza ese que pudiera llamarse “viaje alrededor del cerebro de Barcelona” por la visión del interior del taller de Ramón Casas.

El notable y sugestivo artista está sentado frente a su caballete de trabajo y aparece en el momento de esbozar sobre la tela la figura de una gentil niña, hermosa criatura que parece sugerir al artista una de aquellas deliciosas cabecitas que son el encanto de los ojos.

Ramón Casas, con una espontaneidad ni un instante supeditada a la observación del objetivo, imprime con rasgo nervioso sobre la tela su rápida visión del original que tiene delante.

Mas el fotógrafo, atraído por tantos elementos de arte como hay en el taller de Casas, ladea la cámara de la máquina y pasea la mirada por la habitación, haciéndonos ver los cuadros y dibujos allí coleccionados, de manera que además del artista, vemos detalladamente el sitio donde se han producido obras tan admirables y que tan alto han puesto aquí y fuera de aquí el prestigio de la pintura catalana.

Este procedimiento de exhibición de los ambientes que fecundan y producen nuestros artistas y literatos síguese con los restantes modelos cinematografiados, de manera que la visión es, además de interesante para la curiosidad, instructiva para la observación.

Aparece luego Enrique Clarasó modelando una figura de un niño, muy bien colocada. El notable escultor imprime sus dedos en la dócil masa de barro, resultando esta escena, como la anterior, muy interesante.

Modesto Urgell, el maestro en perpetuar las melancólicas visiones de las horas tristes, traza el croquis de una silueta de cementerio, con rasgos resueltos con aquella su manera personalísima; dibuja como habla.

El maestro de las filigranas pianísticas, don Carlos G. Vidiella, pulsa sobre el obediente teclado una página de Chopin.

Santiago Rusiñol, con su mirada penetrante, atisba un momento de la naturaleza, y luego, como si temiese que el espléndido modelo cambiara de aspecto, traslada a la tela la impresión que se refleja en su retina. Es el Rusiñol que ha enriquecido todos los museos del mundo con sus jardines luminosos, de árboles recortados, de aguas estancadas, de estatuas con patina de legado secular.

A seguida, como evocado por el deseo del espectador, aparece el Rusiñol poeta, sentado al borde de un surtidor de mármol blanco, escribiendo una página del Jardín abandonado, como si se la dictara la naturaleza misma, que yace aquí olvidada de todos, menos del poeta que la revive y la evoca.

Vemos a Arcadio Mas i Fondevila pintando en plain-air el retrato de un adolescente; vemos a Luis Graner tratando de sorprender la expresión de Rusiñol, también al aire libre, mas el pintor-poeta, que es todo vida que se desborda, sujeto allí en la silla del modelo, cabecea un sueño y al fin se sacude del compromiso y se levanta desenfadadamente. Es una escena simpática e interesante como pocas.

Vemos a José Llimona modelando una de las colosales figuras para el monumento del doctor Robert. La mano del genial escultor imprime su voluntad al barro, como la garra del hombre que, convencido de la interpretación, impone su voluntad a mármoles y bronces.

Mientras dura la visita al taller de Llimona, la orquesta completa la sugestión interpretando el himno que compuso el maestro Nicolau a la memoria de aquel gran patricio.

A estas visiones seguirán otras no menos notables, tales como el maestro Millet con el Orfeó Català, Gual dirigiendo un ensayo del Teatre Íntim, el templo de la Sagrada Família y otras muchas que habrán de sorprender y agradar, porque serán documentos de nuestra vida intelectual.

Porque esas películas que ha ideado el señor Graner llegarán a constituir algo así como el índice de cuanto en Barcelona se haga notar por su significación elevada y relevante en las manifestaciones de la inteligencia y el trabajo."

"SALA MERCÈ.

El eminente pintor catalán don Luis Graner, después de ser de los pocos que con su talento encontraron el filón para con sus geniales obras hacerse un mercado especial y alcanzar la envidiable suerte de vender por un tiempo todo lo que de sus manos salía, ha sentido ya el decrecimiento natural de tal éxito con la acentuación de la crisis casi universal que estamos atravesando, porque no es solamente en España donde ya de tiempo inmemorial en materia de protección artística apenas figuramos en último lugar, aunque tenemos y hemos tenido semilla abundante y fructífera de artistas valiosos. Ya hoy en toda Europa se nota un malestar inexplicable a primera vista y se pasan años y más años sin ver radiante en alguna parte una decidida protección artística que haga concebir esperanzas risueñas a los que del arte viven y son el portaestandarte de la cultura de cualquier país.

Por eso Graner, que es, a más de un buen artista, un hombre práctico, ya apenas manda sus obras a las Exposiciones internacionales, y por un sin fin de causas que no son del caso aquí concretar ha puesto sus cinco sentidos y toda su alma artística en combinar espectáculos todo lo artísticos posible en la sala Mercè, que es algo más que un vulgar cinematógrafo.

No haré el reclamo ni descubriré las películas habladas, porque son sobradamente conocidas; pero sí que como espectáculo o sección puramente artística he de hablar de las proyecciones de retratos de personales distinguidos en el mundo de las artes y de las letras, sorprendidos en el ejercicio de su profesión.

Mostrar al público, que en su mayoría desconoce estas intimidades, el momento sagrado en que esos hombres escogidos por su significación trabajan en la elaboración de la intelectualidad de nuestro pueblo es, a la par que un homenaje de consideración justísimo, una instructiva y nueva curiosidad que ha de llamar seguramente la atención.

Y este ensayo de popularización intelectual, tan simpático como necesario, es preciso extenderlo, amigo Graner. Hay que traspasar las fronteras catalanas y darnos a conocer todas las personalidades intelectuales de España, igualmente en su intimidad, pues creo que a la potente relación de un artista como usted eso le es posible, y todos los amantes del arte y de lo único sano y bueno que con orgullo podemos vanagloriarnos en este ingrato país se lo agradecerán infinito.

El Diluvio 88 (30/03/1905), ed. tarda, p. 4.

"[...] Jo les devia aquestes declaracions a un amic que m'estimo de tot cor. Sí, amic Graner: serveixi aquest article per a atenuar el mal efecte que degué causar-vos la meva negativa a deixar-me pel·licular. Si jo no estigués persuadit de que mos prestigis, pocs o molts, radiquen precisament en ma insignificança de la qual n'estic tan gelós com en Baró de sa fama d'autor dramàtic, si jo no tingués per norma el despreci a les vanitats mundanes, cap inconvenient hauria tingut en que em pel·liculessin. És més, si jo hagués estat en Rusiñol ja m'hauria fet pel·licular jo mateix; si hagués estat en Casas ja m'hauria autopel·liculat en el Pèl i Ploma; si hagués estat l'Urgell m'hauria fet pel·licular bo i recitant versos de la Flor de un día; i en tots aquests casos la pel·lícula hauria tingut un admirador quan menys: el propi pel·liculat.

També comprenc la pel·liculització tractant-se de personalitats tan eminents com és ara en Roca i Roca, o en Llopis, o en Marsillach. En efecte: sempre tindria gran interès veure a en Roca presidint l'Ateneu, a en Llopis despatxant almanacs, i a en Marsillach donant satisfaccions... i rebent-ne. En el cas d'en Vallés i Ribot també fora curiosa la pel·lícula com exercici acrobàtic de passar la corda fluixa; en Corominas estaria deliciós pel·liculat

com a pallasso; en Junoy admirable en sos exercicis de barra. I en aquests casos l'èxit seria segur, puig la Fraternitat en pes faria cap a la sala Mercè, que ara gosa de certa anomenada clerical; i això sense tocar per a res a en Lerroux, ja que aquest la sap molt llarga i crec que es faria pagar la pel·liculosis.

Per totes aquestes consideracions, jo, que entre els literats d'avui em soc atribuït el paper de Cató, dec restar impel·liculat e impel·liculable. Pel·liculeu als superbs, pel·liculeu als pretensiosos, pel·liculeu als qui senten afanys d'exhibició; mes respecteu la meva pel·liculofobia, respecteu, ¡oh, pel·liculògraf amic!, la meva voluntat declaradament antipel·liculigràfica.

Jo hi he anat aquests dies a la sala Mercè; hi he anat ben abrigadet amb ma capa, puig encara que la primavera és entrada practico allò de hasta cuarenta de mayo no te quites el sayo; hi he anat com a senzill menestral que va a riure a Rumeya o al Circo Eqüestre; hi he anat, no per a veure a l'Urgell pel·liculat, perquè el bon senyor ja pel·liculisa tot l'any posant a casa seva, a can Parés o pels salons de descans dels nostres teatres talment com si sempre l'estiguessin mapant: hi he anat pera veure-hi a en Rusiñol, hi he anat perquè s'havien complertes les meves profecies.

En efecte: des que va fer furor a Barcelona aquella pel·lícula de La maleta de Barnum, en la que hi sortia un senyor de continente semblant al d'en Tiago, ja m'ho vaig pensar que aquest s'hi daliria. I en nostra odissea per Madrid l'estiu passat fins vaig dir-li un dia: "Tiago, tu acabaràs formant part d'una pel·lícula cinematogràfica..."

Però hi vaig tenir una desil·lusió, amic Graner, en la vostra sala Mercè. Vaig trobar que tots vostres pel·liculats, no solament no responien a les esperances en ells fundades pels qui com a poseurs tan bé els coneixem, sinó que fins defraudaven les del públic, com ho demostrava un espectador dient: "Però que n'estan, d'ensopits, i que malament el fan, el clown!", i un altre responent-li: "És que no sabem si els paguen gaire!". Llàstima que en el quadro en què en Rusiñol fa de poeta recitessin d'un modo tan horrorós aquella poesia que hi va d'acompanyament: al menys l'efecte acústic ens hauria fet suportar millor el delicadíssim efecte plàstic que en Rusiñol ens oferia i que feu exclamar a una senyora: "Que està trist, pobret! Tan guapo, tan gran y tan carrincló!..." Llàstima també que en Tiago estigués tan encongit al voler fer el plaga en aquella altra etapa en que vós el retrateu... Ah, amic Graner! Per un moment vaig deplorar el mal que jo os havia fet negant-me a ésser pel·liculat. Perquè jo us hauria fet quedar millor. Jo, amb aplom que caracteritza ma personalitat voluminosa, amb el meu domini de les taules i amb la meva ingènita prosopopeia, hauria resultat davant del públic un actor sobri i conciençut, un artista consumat , un caràcter complert... Aqueix caràcter que sens dubte vós cercàveu en els qui no en tenen al cercar-lo en vostres herois pel·liculats, els quals, per a no fer res bé, ni han sabut ara fer el clown...

Mes no me'n penedeixo, no, de la negativa que vaig donar-vos. Deixeu, ¡oh, estimat Graner!, que en tot temps pugui en Vallés i Roderich transitar inconegut entre la gent. El goig que he sentit, després d'haver resistit la vostra escomesa, al poder eixir al carrer embossat en ma capa, amb mon aspecte de burgès inofensiu i sense que ningú parés ment en mi, m'ha demostrat prou que no dec transigir.

Il·lustració 39: *Caricatura de Rafel Vallès. [*Joventut 268 (30/03/1905), pp. 205–206].

Tot lo més que podré fer es deixar que els de Joventut em mapin en mon despatx d'escriptor o en ma oficina de farmàcia, però senzillament, modestament, y sols per a que es convencin de ma existència els malvolents que dubten de ma personalitat.

Mes, deixar-me pel·licular? Mai!

"Atraient de veritat resulta en la sala Mercè l'exhibició de les pel·lícules representant artistes i literats de casa en la intimitat del seu treball. Per ara hi figuren en Ramon Casas, en Mas i Fondevila, en Vidiella, en Modest Urgell, els germans Llimona, escultor y pintor, en Rusiñol i en Lluís Graner, fent posar a aquest últim. Per cert que D. Santiago fa molta brometa...

L'exhibició d'aquestes pel·lícules ha sigut una bona pensada i el públic las veu amb satisfacció acudint a la cada dia més acreditada sala Mercè, on s'hi renoven sovint las pel·lícules parlades i els quadros plàstics artísticament presentats. [...]"

Preparació d'una nova pel·lícula

"Cumplidos sus compromisos con la Empresa del teatro de la Comedia, y antes de emprender la obligada excursión por los principales teatros de provincias, llegó ayer a esta capital, procedente de Madrid, nuestro paisano el notable primer actor don Enrique Borràs, a quien esperaban en el andén de la estación buen golpe de amigos y admiradores de los muchos que en esta ciudad cuenta el eminente actor.

Unas horas después do su llegada a esta ciudad almorzaba Enrique Borràs en el restaurant de Miramar [...]

Terminado el almuerzo, el reputado pintor señor Graner, propietario de la sala Mercè mandó hacer una película, que en breve se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo de la Rambla. Sea bienvenido a esta tierra el genial artista."

Valoració final de temporada teatral

"Cada any, d'alguns en aquesta banda, quan lo que podríem anomenar el curs teatral és a les acaballes, donem una ullada enrere, mirem el camí fet i ens trobem si fa o no fa al mateix punt de l'any anterior. Amb tot, aquest any pot considerar-se com una excepció. No ens hi trobem al mateix punt: em trobem una mica més enrere. Sembla que les empreses s'hagin confabulat per a avorrir al públic. Durant tot l'hivern el gènere menut, en el seu aspecte menys artístic, ha envaït bona part dels nostres teatres... fins d'aquells que, com el de Novetats, solien hostatjar sempre per temporades llargues o curtes les bones companyies italianes.

La frivolitat s'ha estès arreu i durant setmanes llargues ha estat preferible l'assistència als cinematògrafs que als teatres amb pretensions. Als cinematògrafs almenys se'ns satisfeia la curiositat, se'ns donava la informació gràfica del viatge d'aquest príncep, de la boda d'aquell magnat, del crim sensacional que feia cruixir les premses del món.

En canvi, als teatres se'ns donava generalment un art rebregat i sense suc, basat a voltes en successos per l'estil dels que serveixen de base als cinematògrafs, però mancats de l'al·licient de la veracitat. I el públic —el nostre gros públic— ja prou donat de sí a preferir per exemple el diari a la novel·la, ha preferit —però en aquest cas concret amb més raó— el cinematògraf al drama i a la comèdia.

Amb tot, cal afirmar que a la inacció de les empreses teatrals ha correspost l'activitat de les cinematogràfiques, alguna de les quals, com per exemple la de la sala Mercè, ens ha donat i segueix donant-nos espectacles veritablement artístics i fins literaris i tot, barrejats amb les notícies gràfiques i animades dels successos del dia. Sessions especials del Foment Autonomista Català a la sala Mercè

"Tenim notícies que prometen ésser molt concorregudes les funcions que el Foment Autonomista Català té projectades donar els dimecres de cada setmana a la sala Mercè.

Entre les famílies abonades a les esmentades funcions s'hi compten les de Nadal, Pella y Forgas, Pascual, Gispert, Alandí, Utrillo, Fargas, Cabot, Girona, Durán y Ventosa, Albó, Marqués de Camps, Llussa, Coll, Bertran, Fortun i altres que no recordem en aquest moment.

Les funcions tenen totes les possibilitats d'èxit segur i brillantíssim, a causa d'haver pres amb cel l'organització d'aquests espectacles distingits joves de la nostra bona societat."

La Veu de Catalunya 2214 (11/05/1905), ed. vespre, p. 3.

"Heus aquí el programa de la primera vetllada dels dimecres de moda que se celebren a la sala Mercè organitzats pel Foment Autonomista Català:

1. Sessió escollida de cinematògraf. 2. Rondalles, origen i classificació pel senyor Capmany[23]. 3. Música pel sextet: a. Obertura de l'òpera Freychutz. B. Largo, Haendel. C. Fantasia sobre motius catalans.

Descans. 1. Sessió de cinematògraf. 2. Cançons populars per la senyoreta dolors Pomar: a. El mestre. B. L'estudiant de Vic. C. L'hereu Riera. 3. Don Albert Llanas llegirà el monòleg La marxa real. 4. Sant Jordi mata l'aranya, quadro plàstic musical.

La primera vetllada tindrà lloc demà passat, dia 17, al vespre.

"Foment Autonomista. (Segona vetllada).

Plena la sala Mercè d'una concurrència tan nombrosa com distingida, en la que hi figuraran distingides familias de les més vistents dintre la nostra bona societat, va celebrar-s'hi la segona de las vetllades que hi ha organitzat el Foment Autonomista, la qual va resultar tant o més notable que la primera.

A més de les escollides peces musicals executades pel quintet de la sala Mercè i de les pel·lícules parlades que es varen presentar i que foren molt celebrades, el senyor Tor i les senyoretes Freixas, Ribó i Rodes, de l'Esbart de Rapsòdia, varen recitar en la primera part escollides poesies populars i d'autors moderns.

L'escollida pel senyor Tor va ser La sardana, d'en Maragall, a la que va donar majestuosa entonació. La senyoreta Freixas, en canvi, va dir amb extraordinari sentiment la lletra de la cançó popular El rei mariner, i la senyoreta Ribó va recitar amb molta riquesa de matisos La dama d'Aragó, també popular. Finalment la senyoreta Rodes, amb fina intenció i accent ple de delicadeses, va llegir la poesia Loengrin, d'en Josep Carner.

Totes elles varen ser molt aplaudides i la senyoreta Rodes, que era la més joveneta, es va veure obligada a llegir fora de programa dues composicions més. Pot afirmar-se que les tres lectores varen constituir la nota més gentil i atractiva de la festa. També va ser interessant l'encarregat a l'aplaudit tenor don Francesc Riera, qui, amb molta expressió, va cantar en català el "raconto" del Loengrin, obtenint-hi un esclat d'aplaudiments ben entusiàstics i merescut.

Durant el descans de la primera a la segona part, el nombrós i distingit públic va visitar les coves, que cada dia tanquen noves sorpreses, sent la que tenia preparada en Graner per a ahir la de fer roncar i tot al municipal que apareix dormint en una raconada.

[23] Al març, Capmany ja va donar una altra sessió dedicada "a la cansonística popular catalana, refiriéndose particularmente a la canción Lo comte l'Arnau […] haciendo notar que esa sencilla producción popular ha inspirado a los más notables artistas catalanes […] que demuestran que del folklorisme ha de crearse el arte nacional." (Diario de Barcelona 73 [25/03/1905], pp. 3441–3442). La següent temporada teatral, Graner va inaugurar-la al teatre Principal amb la visió llegendària que glossava Lo comte l'Arnau.

Després de la simfonia amb què va obrir-se la segona part, don Josep Puntas va projectar una hermosa col·lecció de vistes fixes de Catalunya, totes elles d'un gran aire artístic.

Darrera les projeccions, es va llegir un sentidíssim quadret literari del senyor Albó (don Ramón) titulat La nena captaire i ple d'un esperit cristià enamorador i d'un aire de realitat que corprèn.

La vetllada va acabar amb una sessió escollidíssima de cinematògraf, amb hermoses pel·lícules parlades de les que componen l'escollit repertori de la sala Mercè."

Enregistrament cinematogràfic amb l'Orfeó Català

FESTA ÍNTIMA

Corresponent a les instàncies del simpàtic director artístic i propietari de la sala Mercè, en Lluís Graner, i a l'amable oferiment d'en Vicens de Moragas, vicepresident de l'Orfeó Català, les tres seccions del cor de nostra Institució es traslladaren el diumenge de Pasqua a la hermosa casa que posseeix el senyor Moragas a Sant Gervasi, amb el fi de treure un grup fotogràfic del cor i unes pel·lícules amb destí a la sala Mercè; idea que fou molt ben rebuda pels coristes, prestant-se gustosos a complaure al senyor Graner, cosa natural si ens fixem en que els nostres coristes no s'han pogut veure mai cantant, lo qual ara podran efectuar anant a las sessions de l'acreditat cinematògraf de la sala Mercè a expectar-se còmodament a sí mateixos.

A las tres de la tarda entraven les tres seccions en els jardins Moragas, i des d'aquest moment l'ull tafaner de la màquina ja no els deixà ni un moment, pescant-los a mida que entraven i recollint en la obscuritat del seu sí les eixerides cares dels nois, las xamoses de les senyoretes i les ferrenyes dels homes, entre els que devien quedar-hi mapats els mestres de l'Orfeó, i entre ells el venerable mestre Pedrell, que ens honorà amb sa companyia.

Seguidament l'Orfeó cantà Lo cant de la Senyera, Millet ; Lo soldat i la donzella, popular; Lo mestre, popular; Els tres tambors, Lambert; Muntanyes regalades, Sancho Marraco; Aucellada, Jannequin; Don Joan i don Ramon, Pedrell ; Les flors de maig, Clavé; La Mare de Déu, Nicolau : L'emigrant, Vives; i Els segadors, Millet.

Durant l'execució d'alguna d'aquestes composicions, el senyor Graner no deixava reposar als pel·liculetes i els feia rodar sense descans el manubri d'aquella caixa que engoleix la realitat de las coses com per art d'encantament.

En la casa del vicepresident de l'Orfeó hi havia aplegada una nombrosa concurrència que aplaudí als nostres coristes, disfrutant, com tots, de l'espectacle, que era hermós a tot ser-ho, ajudant-hi tant la magnificència d'aquells jardins ombrosos com la nota acolorida que hi donaven las barretines vermelles dels nois i las morades dels homes, entre les escaientes mantellines blanques de les senyoretes, formant un conjunt encantador.

Els coristes i els convidats a la hermosa festa íntima foren obsequiats esplèndidament amb un exquisit refresc, servit amablement per la distingida senyora esposa i xamoses filles del nostre vicepresident, quedant tothom molt agraït i reconegut de la seva distingida amabilitat.

Per a més arrodonir la tarda, molts dels coristes, senyoretes i homes varen formar sardanes enfront del casal, puntejant airosament alguns dels nostres més típics balls populars, la sardana, l'esquerrana i altres.

Finalment, després d'un bon passeig per lo llarg dels jardins, creuats per tots indrets pels nois de l'Orfeó, que com vols d'aucells corrien adelerats de fruir llibertat en plena naturalesa, començàrem a desfilar, no sense recança, ben contents i satisfets d'aquella tarda agradosa i de la galana acollida de que fou objecte l'Orfeó per part dels amables estadants d'aquella magnífica possessió senyorial."

Sobre Joan B. Lambert com a músic de la sala Mercè

"[Sobre les obres presentades al concurs de l'Orfeó Català]

[…] Es también digna de elogio la Cançó de la bandera, en la que las voces de la sección de hombres están dispuestas con gran arte, creciendo la expresión sentimental hasta alcanzar una grandiosidad y un equilibrio muy dignos de tenerse en cuenta para esperar de Lambert mucho bueno y algo grande.

Lambert es un músico muy joven y un tipo altamente simpático. Trabajador incansable, un verdadero obrero del arte, es un obrero de la vida, pues dedica la suya cotidianamente a un trabajo que pudiéramos llamar de jornal —del jornal imprescindible para el que vive de su solo esfuerzo,— y roba horas enteras al sueño y al reposo, para dedicarlas a crear obras como las con que este año se nos ha revelado.

Que Lambert es un trabajador Incansable lo prueba el hecho de haber ganado un premio precisamente dedicado «al hijo de músico que sostenga a su familia con el fruto de su trabajo, dedicado a la enseñanza y ejercicio de la música.»

No hay más que verle, o mejor adivinarle, allá en el fosillo de la sala Mercè, donde forma parte del cuarteto colaborando a la cotidiana labor de sus compañeros, como él ocultos a las miradas de los espectadores y a los movedizos rayos de la luz cinematográfica, y aguardar impaciente los contados minutos de descanso que puede haber de una a otra exhibición, para trazar sobre el pentagrama las notas que le sugiere su imaginación impaciente por conducirle pronto hasta donde llegará luego. Hasta el lugar que, si persevera, tendrá derecho a ocupar ente los músicos de la tierra.

Aunque estamos más necesitados de consejos que sobrados de ellos para darlos, creemos que el señor Lambert no echará a mala parte (como suelen decir los oradores provinciales y concejales) el que con nuestro buen deseo y la simpatía que nos inspira la figura del laureado autor, le recomendemos que en sus futuras concepciones procure esquivar la nota quejumbrosa, sobre todo en las tesis de carácter histórico-patriótico.

Esta sencilla observación no va solo para Lambert, sino para todos.

Ha llegado ahora a ser monótona, y pudiera hacerse cargante por lo uniforme, la nota de queja con que algunos de nuestros músicos suelen revestir los cantos catalanes.

El cant de la bandera es de ello ejemplo. […]"

Reformes de la sala Mercè

"Ayuntamiento constitucional de Barcelona.— Don Luis Graner acude a esta Municipalidad en demanda de permiso para instalar un electromotor en los bajos de la casa número 13 de la calle de Bot[24] […]. Barcelona, 12 de julio de 1905.- El Alcalde constitucional, presidente G. Lluch."

Temporada 1905/06

L'any 1905, la sala Mercè ofereix una nova temporada de visions musicals i projeccions cinematogràfiques, continuant l'estil de l'anterior. La temporada queda inaugurada el 13 de setembre, amb l'estrena de La mort de l'escolà, visió musical basada en la coneguda cançó d'Antoni Nicolau sobre el text de Verdaguer. La següent producció de la sala, La dona d'aigua, també serà l'escenificació d'un poema previ, en aquest cas de Miquel Costa i Llobera, sobre un personatge de la mitologia catalana.

Altres visions es basaran en escenificar directament llegendes i cançons tradicionals, com és el cas de A la voreta del mar, cançó popular arranjada aquí per Adrià Esquerrà, o La pastoreta, amb la música arranjada per Narcisa Freixas. Cal destacar també el cas de La cova de les serps, visió basada en una llegenda germànica, cosa que remarca la concepció internacionalista de l'ús de la llegenda popular que Adrià Gual, el director escènic de la temporada, explica als seus escrits teòrics.

Tot i això, s'introdueixen també visions més dramatitzades, amb major desenvolupament literari. El bon escarceller, amb text de Manuel de Montoliu, presenta un quadre dramàtic en què apareix un romanç popular cantat, però no és l'escenificació directa del romanç. La fada de la font amplia la quantitat de quadres que habitualment tenien les visions musicals, arribant a considerar-se per la premsa un "petit dramet". Les escenes de Nadal d'Enric Morera, titulades El mal rabadà, inclou la glossa de tres cançons tradicionals de Nadal diferents, no d'una mateixa per obra com solia ser el cas.

L'estiu de 1906, la sala Mercè romandrà oberta amb projeccions cinematogràfiques especialment i es farà la reposició en escena de visions musicals de la temporada anterior com ara Sant Jordi mata l'aranya i Dante a les portes de l'infern.

Tot i que la sala Mercè continua molt activa durant aquesta temporada i amplia el seu nombre de col·laboradors literaris i musicals, la fundació dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner al teatre Principal acaparará la majoria de l'atenció de la premsa. Degut a l'èxit de la primera temporada de la sala Mercè, el seu propietari i director, Lluís Graner, decideix llogar el teatre Principal per instal·lar allà també el seu repertori de pel·lícules còmiques i morals i de visions musicals de major envergadura i orquestració.

No obstant, el teatre Principal començarà una rivalitat amb altres grans teatres com era el Romea, i la sala Mercè continuarà competint amb la resta de petites sales d'espectacles de la ciutat, convertint la moralitat i apropiació de la seva oferta apta per a nens i famílies en la seva marca d'identitat. Tot i que es continuen anunciant pel·lícules parlades, sense especificar gaires títols, seran més habituals en el repertori cinematogràfic les pel·lícules documentals d'esdeveniments d'actualitat.

Llistat de pel·lícules projectades[25]:

- Ceremonia religiosa tomada en el Palacio Imperial de Czar-Koie-Selo con toda la Corte de Rusia, celebrando la paz ruso-japonesa (21/09/1905)
- Torpiller en perill[26] (04/10/1905)
- Siti i redempció de Port Arthur (podria ser la mateixa projectada prèviament al Principal) (25/11/1905 fins al 06/12/1905)
- Erupció del Vesuvi (26/04/1906 fins al 04/05/1906)
- Setmana Santa a Sevilla (26/04/1906 fins al 04/05/1906)
- Arribada dels senyors senadors i diputats defensors de Catalunya (24/06/1906)
- Festa del Tibidabo (26/05/1906)

Casamiento de S. M. Don Alfonso XIII y Victoria de Battenberg (enregistrat per la casa Urban de Londres)

[A partir d'aquí apareixen al llarg del juliol i l'agost anuncis cada dia a la premsa de pel·lícules noves, però sense incloure els títols.]

[25] D'aquesta temporada es conserven molts menys títols, atès que l'atenció de la premsa va estar enfocada a l'activitat del teatre Principal, i les línies entre els espectacles de la sala Mercè i del Principal van arribar a ser difoses per al públic i la premsa, per presentar tots dos espais repertoris molt semblants.
Això no vol dir, però, que s'estrenessin menys pel·lícules. L'anunci de "pel·lícules noves" era habitual a la premsa, però sense especificar els títols.

[26] Paral·lelament es va estrenar una pel·lícula amb el mateix títol, però anunciat en castellà com Torpedero en peligro, al Cinematógrafo del Diorama.

Catàleg de visions musicals representades

Mort de l'escolà, La

1 quadre.

Estrena el 13/09/1905.

Representada fins al 05/11/1905.

Lletra sobre un poema de Jacint Verdaguer[27].

Música d'Antoni Nicolau (BC: 2006-8-C 112/47).

Decorats de Salvador Alarma.

Edició de la partitura: La mort de l'escolà. Barcelona: Edicions musicals Tenora, 1979.

Enregistrament sonor: Orfeó Català; MILLET, Lluís (dir.): La mort de l'escolà. A: His Master's Voice celebrity series recordings and historical reissues, 1924–1958. Anglaterra: The Gramophone Co., Ltd., 1929.

"Per a donar lloc a l'assaig general i a la col·locació del quadro plàstic-musical La mort de l'escolà, que demà s'estrena, s'han suprimit avui totes sessions.

Per les notícies que tenim de dit quadro és d'esperar que la seva presentació serà un dels èxits més brillants que s'hauran registrat en aquell local. El decorat és esplèndid i la música d'en Nicolau hi escaurà magníficament, com s'ha pogut comprovar en els assajos duts a terme fins ara.

La inspiradíssima creació en la que tan bé es feren els extraordinaris talents del gran poeta Verdaguer i de l'eminent mestre Nicolau resultarà en el quadro plàstic-musical de la sala Mercè, ben assaborida i digna de ser fruïda per les persones cultes."

La Veu de Catalunya 2319 (12/09/1905), ed. vespre, p. 3.

"SALA MERCÈ.— Por las impresiones que traemos, podemos asegurar que el estreno de La mort de l'escolà, que tendrá lugar hoy en esta sala, será un verdadero éxito, tanto en la música y canto como en el decorado verdaderamente espléndido."

La Vanguardia 11785 (13/09/1905), ed. matí, p. 3.

[27] El text és un poema previ de Verdaguer, del seu Cicle montserratí de 1880, que va ser musicat per Nicolau el 1900 i va tenir molt d'èxit com a cançó harmonitzada a la programació de l'Orfeó Català.

"Exponer un capital en una empresa artística haciendo arte verdadero, donde el público no verá más que negocio, es una temeridad solo excusable en un temperamento artístico como Luis Graner; esto no puede verlo ni saberlo más que el que ha visto el autor del Canvi de gresol cuidando los efectos artísticos en sus más mínimos detalles de sus cuadros plásticos que en la sala Mercè viene exhibiendo desde su inauguración, invirtiendo todo su reconocido talento y su dinero en presentar al público cuadros llenos de vida y realidad artística, logrando así cultivar un género dificilísimo, solo posible en manos de un artista-poeta, y que puede llevar al público a un derrotero de cultura muy necesario y muy preciso para la vida de todos lo que aman las manifestaciones intelectuales y que de ellas viven.

La mort de l'escolà es un poema del insigne poeta catalán Jacinto Verdaguer inundado de una poesía mística de altos vuelos, como todo lo que escribía aquel sublime sacerdote; en ella se inspiró y puso música notable el excelente maestro catalán señor Nicolau, haciendo popular aquel canto montserratino.

En estas bases ha compuesto Graner su cuadro plástico que exhibe en la sala Mercè, ayudado por el excelente escenógrafo señor Alarma, de cuyo conjunto ha resultado una visión musical del poema que se siente uno transportado a las montañas de Montserrat arrullado por los cánticos de los monaguillos y la hermosa visión plástica que Alarma ha resuelto en aquel pequeño escenario.

Como he dicho al principio, Graner ha puesto toda su alma artística para que todo esté armonizado dentro de las condiciones del local y del asunto, y así en la parte musical no ha omitido gastos ni detalle alguno, así en las partes como en los coros. Los que sentimos nostalgia de que Graner no nos haga ya sentir el grato efecto de su arte a pinceladas tenemos la satisfacción de paladear los destellos de su artística dirección en los cuadros plásticos, dignos hijos suyos.

Esteban Batlle"

El Diluvio 257 (15/09/1905), ed. tarda, p. 3.

"SALA MERCÈ.— Al selecto repertorio de visiones musicales que se han ido sucediendo en el escenario de la sala Mercè, hay que añadir una más. No hay que decir que tratándose de una obra dirigida por el señor Graner y siendo la última, es la mejor y más refinada.

Consiste en la realización plástica de aquella hermosa poesía de mossèn Cinto La mort de l'escolà, a la que puso música el maestro Nicolau.

Varias veces hemos dicho en estas mismas columnas que Nicolau había interpretado excelentemente la obra de Verdaguer. Ahora tenemos que añadir a estos dos nombres el del director artístico de la sala Mercè. Siguiendo la inspiración del poeta, tan acertado anduvo el músico como ahora el pintor.

Antes de descorrerse la cortina, la música y voces ocultas entona las primeras estrofas; luego aparece la escena evocando una visión de Montserrat, magníficamente trazada, justísima de entonación y por lo tanto simpática de colorido. El practicable está muy bien dispuesto para el paso del fúnebre cortejo.

Cuando la leyenda de Verdaguer llega a su grado álgido de ternura, aparecen descendiendo por la escarpada vertiente los monagos montserratinos, como cabritillos, y dos de ellos conduciendo el albo ataúd sobre el que reposa, como sobre cáliz de un lirio de agua en una paloma blanca, símbolo de la pureza. El efecto plástico es magnífico.

Poeta, músico y escenógrafo han realizado la obra de una única inspiración: la de realzar un matiz de ternura exquisita. El público que llena de continuo la sala Mercè ha demostrado con sus aplausos que la última visión musical le impresiona agradablemente y le satisface.

Completan el programa selectas películas, tales como las escenas de la vida de Moisés, los torneos acuáticos y la preciosa e instructiva serie de prácticas de agricultura; y otras habladas como el eclipse de sol, y el baúl maravilloso.

En resumen, que el señor Graner, insigne pintor, está demostrando que tan relevantes dotes posee como escenógrafo y como empresario.

El cuadro plástico La mort de l'escolà constituye un gran atractivo y no dudamos de que alcanzará un éxito duradero."

"Espectacles catalans

Sala Mercè

Gràcies a les encertades iniciatives de nostre distingit amic l'eminent artista en Lluís Graner, l'espectacle constant que s'ofereix en aquest local, ademés de la novetat periòdica, tenen una suggestió i una importància verament dignes de que el públic n'hague fet un de sos llocs predilectes.

Actualment hi ha tingut lloc l'estrena del quadro plàstic-musical La mort de l'escolà, sentida composició del mestre Nicolau, quines belleses melòdiques tant hem fruït en els concerts del benemèrit Orfeó Català.

De l'hermosíssima lletra de l'immortal mossèn Cinto, ni de la inspirada música d'en Nicolau hem de parlar, puig ben bé les coneixem; només ens cal fer remarcar a nostres llegidors lo atraient que resulta la visió del quadro representant la històrica muntanya de Montserrat, quin quadro ha sigut pintat per l'amic Alarma, notable escenògraf. La corrua d'escolanets amb els ciris encesos, que acompanyen a enterrar el cos de son infortunat companyó, entonant tots la melodia d'en Nicolau, tenen quelcom de corprenedor que encisa, assaborint-se amb delectança.

En Graner i tots quants han treballat per a la millor presentació d'aquest quadro plàstic mereixen el nostre aplaudiment. I aixís com escolant al lletra recordem al mai prou plorat mossèn Cinto, sentint la música hem d'elogiar força al mestre Nicolau, de qui ens honrem avui publicant el retrat.

"[...] al petit escenari de la Sala Mercè ens hi ha ofert en Graner el quadro plàstic musical La mort de l'escolà, que és una veritable exquisitat en tots conceptes. Així com en Nicolau, al posar música a l'hermosa poesia de mossèn Verdaguer, pot dir-se que va completar-la en certa manera, en Graner, en oferir-nos-la amb la mateixa música instrumentada i amb l'afegit d'una magnífica decoració de l'Alarma i una representació escènica de la petita acció, l'ha acabada de fer sentir amb tota la intensitat desitjable per a produir en el públic un efecte intensíssim de tendresa i art.

"Veuen? En canvi en Lluís Graner, a la sala Mercè, ha agafat la dèria de fer ensentimentar al públic i després d'una tirallonga de pel·lícules parlades i sense parlar, les hi cargola cada nit amb La mort de l'escolà, que és allò de mossèn Cinto i en Nicolau, però amanit amb quartet i amb un espatec de quadro plàstic conjuminat amb una decoració de l'Alarma que n'hi ha per a llogar-hi palcos i tot.

A més, ajuden a fer atractiu l'espectacle uns escolanets de carn més monos que tothom. És una cosa que trenca el cor de tan tendra. Gran mal se'n vol, per això, en Graner de fer quadros esplèndids amb caps de brot com els que ha ajuntat. Perquè, anem sumant: Verdaguer + Nicolau + Alarma + sis o set nens que saben perfectament la seva obligació + un quarteto format per músics que hi entenen + un barítón i una tiple i una contralt i un tenor de l'hu. Total: un espectacle artístic de primera.

"Sala Mercè — En aquesta sala, que continua essent la preferida de la millor societat barcelonina, s'hi ha estrenat una nova visió musical inspirada en la sentida i popular poesia de mossèn Cinto Verdaguer La mort de l'escolà, per a la qual s'ha utilitzat la no menys celebrada composició del mestre Nicolau que porta el mateix títol i que canten quasi tots els orfeons de Catalunya. L'adaptació de la composició coral per a quatre veus amb acompanyament ha sigut feta pel mateix autor, i no cal dir si l'efecte creix amb la presentació del quadro, realitzat en el petit escenari amb un tacte i una distinció que honra molt al director artístic de la sala, en Lluís Graner. El conjunt és verament emocionant i d'un sentiment exquisit."

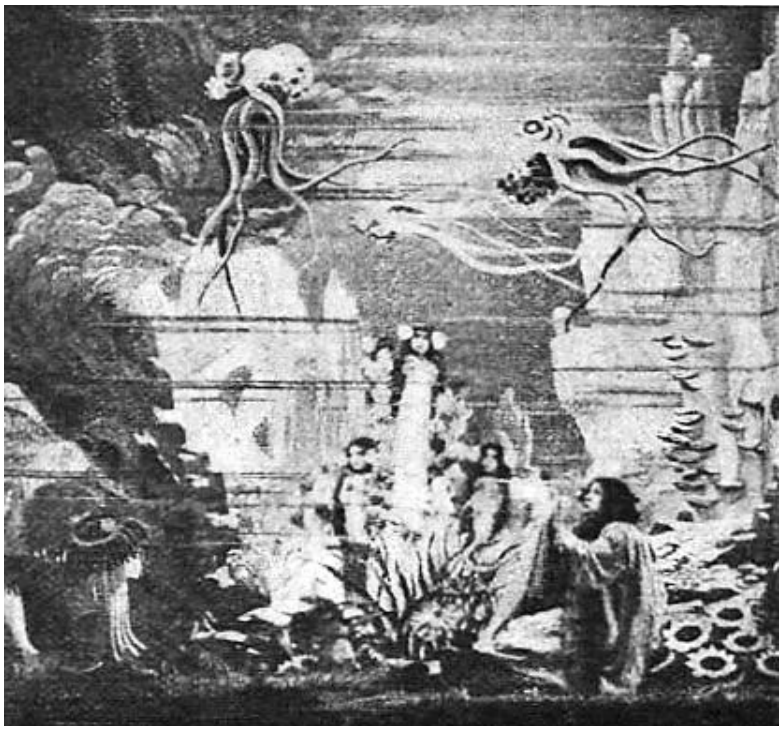
Dona d'aigua, La [28]

2 quadres.



Estrena el 14/11/1905.[29]

Representada fins al 19/12/1905.

Lletra de Miquel Costa i Llobera[30].

Música de Joaquim Pecanins.

Decorats de Miquel Moragas i Salvador Alarma.

Il·lustració 40: *Fotografia d'escena del segon quadre [*Garba 3 (25/12/1905), p. 22].

"La anunciada visió musical La dona d'aigua va estrenar-se ahir, produint al públic un efecte excel·lent de cosa d'art. La visió es compon de dos quadros, amb un diàleg entre [28] El 1911 es va estrenar una òpera amb el mateix títol amb música de Cassià Casademont i llibret de Joan Trias al teatre Eldorado.

[29] Estrena anunciada el dia 8, endarrerit a l'11, i tornat a endarrerir al 14 per complicacions amb la instal·lació escenogràfica.

[30] Adaptació del poema Les dones d'aigua escrit al 1898, publicat a COSTA I LLOBERA, MIQUEL (1982): Horacianes i altres poemes. Barcelona, Edicions 62, pp. 95–97.

rústecs al primer i un cant de la dona d'aigua al segon. La lletra, de mossèn Costa i Llobera, constitueix un hermós poema al que el senyor Pecanins ha posat una música del tot escaient, a base d'aires de caràcter popular, harmonitzats amb extraordinària traça.

Per al primer quadro, els escenògrafs Moragas i Alarma han pintat una decoració de muntanyes que produeix un efecte superb, tant per la seva perspectiva com per lo simpàtic dels tons. Tan encertada és aquesta decoració que sembla que l'escenari de la sala Mercè s'engrandeixi, produint l'efecte d'un gran finestral dintre qual marc se veu una perspectiva immensa.

El quadre segon representa el fons d'un estany en el que canta la dona d'aigua. El paisatge aquàtic, degut als mateixos escenògrafs esmentats més amunt, produeix també una il·lusió extraordinària.

Els actors senyors Tor i Morató (Ramon) diuen el diàleg del primer quadre amb molta afinació i bon gust. Creiem que La dona d'aigua es sostindrà temps als cartells de la afavorida sala Mercè"

La Veu de Catalunya 2383 (15/11/1905), edició matí, p. 4.

"En l'acreditada sala Mercè s'hi està representant el quadro plàstic La dona d'aigua, lletra de l'inspirat poeta mallorquí mossèn Costa i Llobera, que resulta un espectacle suggestiu de debò. Els versos són ben cisellats i, posats en boca de nostre amic, el conegut actor en Tor-Deseures, ens feren sentir tota sa bellesa. La música d'en Pecanins és un enfilall popular molt ben construït. El decorat esplèndid, d'una fantasia que enamora."

Talia 41 (25/11/1905), p. 407.

"A la sala Mercè també s'hi ha mostrat actiu en Graner aquesta setmana. Ens hi ha donat un delicadíssim quadro plàstic musical, titulat La dona d'aigua, muntat a base d'una inspirada poesia d'en Costa i Llobera, amb decorat d'en Moragas i l'Alarma i música d'en Pecanins. És una petita exquisitat.

"Se compone de dos cuadros, el primero está presentado con bastante propiedad, pero el segundo, a nuestro modo de ver, resultaría mucho más si las guirnaldas que adornan a aquella dona que asciende quedaran sin iluminar. Por lo demás, todo está a la altura de los autores. Llama también mucho la atención la película, que sobre la redención de Port-Arthur se exhibe en esta sala y en el teatro Principal, por lo verídica e interesante de la misma.

Mal rabadà (Escenes de Nadal), El

Visió musical en 2 quadres.

Estrena el 23/12/1905.

Representada fins al 11/02/1906[31].

Il·lustració 41: Detall de la portada de la partitura manuscrita.

Lletra de Josep Carner.

Música d'Enric Morera[32]
(esborrany de partitura a BC: M-Mor-471)

Decorats de Miquel Moragas i Salvador Alarma.

"El mal rabadà, obra estrenada en la sala Mercè, ha obtenido un éxito completo y entusiasta, por la propiedad con que ha sido presentada y por la música y excelente interpretación. Se trata de varias escenas de Navidad, muy bien combinadas y dialogadas por el señor Carner. La partitura es del maestro Morera, quien se ha servido de las populares canciones catalanas Fum, fum, Lo mal rabadà y Nadal, armonizándolas como este reputado maestro sabe hacerlo.

Las decoraciones son de los pintores escenógrafos señores Moragas y Alarma y producen el efecto apetecido, por su simpática entonación y magnífica perspectiva. E1 cuadro primero representa un bosque nevado y el segundo un Nacimiento, con todos sus pormenores."

Diario de Barcelona 343 (25/12/1905), p. 14245.

"Amb tot, com a espectacle menut, cal esmentar el quadro plàstic musical El mal rabadà, muntat a la sala Mercè a base de la cançó popular, combinada per en Morera amb posades del Fum, fum, fum i el Desembre congelat. L'arranjament de la lletra l'ha fet en Josep Carner, respectant gairebé en absolut la lletra del poble i dividint l'acció en dues parts, per a cadascuna de les quals ha pintat una exquisida decoració l'escenògraf Alarma, que ha mostrat un cop més la possessió de la tècnica i el bon gust que el caracteritzen. En conjunt, l'espectacle resulta interessant i vistós, produint a la sala Mercè grans entrades.

"El mal rabadà, cuadro musical estrenado con gran éxito […] tiene un carácter escénico bastante diferente de los demás. Su argumento no es otro que el del diablo disfrazado de rabadà quiere oponerse a que otro vaya a adorar al niño Dios, cuya intención se la impide un ángel que coge de la mano al buen pastor y lo acompaña a adorar al recién nacido, que se representa con gran maestría en el segundo cuadro. El Sr. Carner, como de costumbre, ha lucido su pluma en tan bello cuadro, como también el Sr. Morera con su pastoril música inspirada en cantos populares de Navidad. Las decoraciones son debidas a los acreditados escenógrafos señores Moragas y Alarma, que son de gran efecto.

Il·lustració 43: Portada de l'esborrany de la partitura manuscrita amb el títol "El mariner" guixat i, a sota, el definitiu de "A la voreta del mar".

"Sala Mercè. Interesantes películas. El próximo jueves, 15 del actual, se estrenará el nuevo cuadro A la voreta del mar, inspirado en una canción popular, música del maestro Esquerrà y decorado de Moragas y Alarma."

La Publicidad 9742 (13/02/1906), p. 4.

[33] La partitura manuscrita porta el títol provisional "El mariner" enguixat, i a sota "A la voreta del mar".
[34] Estrena anunciada pel dia 10, endarrerit per problemes amb l'escenografia el dia de la instal·lació.
[35] El text i melodia de la cançó original apareixen recollits a GAY, JOAN (1901): Cançons populars de Catalunya armonisades per Joan Gay, París/Brussel·les, Henry Lemoine & Cie, pp. 46–47; a CAPMANY, AURELI (1904): Cançoner popular (Segona sèrie), Barcelona, Imp. La Renaixensa, p. XLIV i a Cançons populars de Catalunya (Segona sèrie) (1921), Barcelona, Salvador Bonavia Llibreter, pp. 5–6.

"Ben segur que la visió A la voreta del mar és la més interessant de les que s'han estrenat fins ara. La cançó popular és seguida gairebé al peu de la lletra i els dos quadros en què s'ha dividit la acció són animats per un fons d'humanitat que commou i encisa.

Els escenògrafs Moragas i Alarma han fet un veritable esforç per triomfar de les escasses dimensions de l'escenari i han aconseguit el seu objecte, enquibint en el primer quadro –la vora del mar amb el vaixell fondejat a prop– una veritable immensitat de cel besant-se amb l'aigua en l'horitzó... I el segon quadro –l'interior del vaixell, que es balanceja a l'impuls de les ones– han donat a la decoració una riquesa extraordinària.

La música de la cançó ha estat harmonitzada pel mestre Esquerrà, que ha respectat la melodia popular, seguint-la sempre, fora en alguns moments de passió... Així la melodia queda en el conjunt i deixa de resultar monòtons, gràcies a les encertades desviacions del músic que l'ha harmonitzada, demostrant en la tasca un extraordinari domini de la tècnica i un bon gust exquisit.

La contralt senyoreta Viaplana canta, amb tanta afinació com riquesa de matisos, la part narrativa de la cançó, que és representada sobre l'escenari per la tiple senyoreta Viola i l'actor de la sala Mercè senyor Morató (Ramón). Ella encarna perfectament el paper de donzella, expressant plàsticament les emocions per què passa el personatge i cantant la seva part amb una veu deliciosa, tant pel timbre com per la flexibilitat i pel talent amb que se'n serveix. El senyor Morató, en el príncep d'Anglaterra, sap interpretar també tota la delicadesa de la cançó.

La il·lusió que fa el barco, amb les gradacions de llum que anuncien el nou dia, és complerta, com ho és la produïda pel balanceig de la nau. En resum: A la voreta del mar és un quadro ric, en el que tots els elements se fonen per a produir un conjunt altament artístic, no aconseguit fins avui en espectacles del seu gènere".

La Veu de Catalunya 2464 (16/02/1906), edició vespre, p. 4.

"Sala Mercè.— El Sr. Graner está de enhorabuena, pues en poco tiempo ha presentada a Barcelona dos visiones musicales-escenográficas que son verdaderas obras de arte. Els tres tambors, de la que hablamos en el número anterior, y A la voreta del mar que puede compararse con la visión musical L'Atlàntida que se exhibió con mucho éxito en la misma sala.

Esta visión no es más que la canción popular puesta en escena con la esplendidez característica del Sr. Graner, secundada por los Sres. Moragas y Alarma, que han pintado dos excelentes decoraciones. La del primer cuadro que representa la playa en que la doncella está bordando, está muy acertada en los tonos y reflejos del mar y se ve en ella perfectamente lo inspirada que estuvo el escenógrafo al ejecutarlo. La del segundo no deja de ser menos que esta, pues está ejecutada con mucha propiedad la cubierta de una nave, en la que el escenario sometido a un ligero movimiento de ascenso y descenso produce verdaderamente el efecto de que se halla en alta mar; esto unido a la inspirada música de Esquerrà y a la buena ejecución por parte de los actores, resulta un cuadro completamente acabado y de mucho efecto."

Cova de les serps, La

2 quadres.

Estrena el 21/03/1906.

Representada fins al 03/04/1906.

Lletra de Josep Carner[36].

Música de Joan Lamote de Grignon.[37]

Decorats de Miquel Moragas i Salvador Alarma.

"Se tracta d'una acció emmanllevada a una llegenda germànica i arranjada amb versos catalans per en Josep Carner... És un tema poètic de rondalla amb un soldat que davalla al pregó de la cova de les serps per deslliurar a una princesa que hi roman encantada. En el primer quadro apareix al soldat un geni que li indica el punt on hi ha la cova mateixa, amb la princesa enrodada de serps. Aquest quadro és d'extraordinari efecte.

La música que acompanya aquesta visió és deguda al mestre Lamote de Grignon i té un sabor popular ben escaient. Les decoracions són molt ben pintades pels senyors Moragas i Alarma, que han sabut en la segona treure molt partit de l'escenari, amb tot i la manera d'espai amb que havien de lluitar.

La senyoreta Mercè Viola canta amb extraordinari bon gust i afinació el paper de princesa".

"En la sala Mercè, en poco tiempo, Graner nos ha presentado algunos cuadros musicales; el primero, titulado La cova de les serps, no fue del agrado del público, pues en ella sus autores no estuvieron muy inspirados en su concepción. […]

"Una altra visió musical encertada del tot és La resurrecció de Llàtzer. Té dos quadros i tots dos resulten tan arrodonits i tan ben compostos que els ulls ne resten ben agradats, tan agradats com l'esperit. L'acció és senzillíssima... En el quadro primer, la família de Llàtzer plora la mort del ser estimat... En el segon, Jesucrist obra el miracle de ressuscitar al mort.

La lletra que guia l'acció de l'obreta és d'en Carner i resulta del tot sentida, havent-hi instants de fonda emoció. La música d'en Borràs de Palau fa bona parella amb la lletra, tenint un caràcter català ben escaient i vibrant a estones amb accents ben inspirats.

Del decorat, se n'han encarregat els reputats escenògrafs Moragas i Alarma, que, com d'ençà que funciona la sala Mercè, han sabut triomfar de la estretor a l'escenari, produint un parell de decoracions d'extraordinari efecte i enamoradores entonacions.

El nombrós públic que va assistir a totes les sessions que es varen donar ahir prenia l'espectacle amb entusiàstics aplaudiments. Creiem que La resurrecció de Llàtzer s'aguantarà molts dies als cartells".

"SALA MERCÈ.— Ayer se estrenó una nueva visión musical, que han compuesto el poeta señor Carner y el músico maestro Borràs de Palau, y que ha puesto en escena, con el buen gusto que le caracteriza, el notable pintor señor Graner.

Se titula La resurrección de Lázaro y contiene dos momentos de la Historia Sagrada, muy bien escogidos: el de la escena en que la hermana de Lázaro llora de añoranza la muerte del ser querido y la escena culminante de la resurrección.

El maestro Borràs de Palau ha compuesto una ilustración musical tierna y delicada; muy sentida en la escena primera, en la cual una melodía de carácter popular interesa desde los primeros compases, y un intermezzo patético y sobrio que enlaza la escena citada con la siguiente, muy bien mantenido el valor melódico y armónico de la expresión musical.

La obra del maestro Borràs de Palau obtuvo un éxito inmejorable, siendo muy celebrada por la sinceridad del sentimiento que en ella palpita y por la habilidad con que el compositor ha sabido aprovechar los escasos recursos de un terceto."

La Vanguardia (06/04/1906), ed. matí, pp. 4–5.

"[…] El cuadro sacro La resurrecció de Llàtzer estuvo ya a la altura de los demás. Para él, el maestro Borràs de Palau concibió una inspirada música. Carner también supo sacar gran partida de la escena bíblica. El decorada era excelente; los Sres. Moragas y Alarma interpretaran con buena mano el carácter típico de las construcciones de aquella época. […] M. C."

BALADA

Airó era un rei—molt poderós qui devingué—tot amorós
de gentil dama:
mes ella fuig—dels seus amors,
que 'l Comte 'n Jaume
li té robats—els seus amors.
Ai presó del meu sufrí!
Ai que será de mi!
Ja riallers—a noces van:
el rei gelós—s' ho está mirant
plorant de rabia.
Del seu rival—jura en son cor
pendre venjansa
i aná' a robar—el bell tresor.
Ai presó del meu sufrí!
Ai que será de mi!

"La visión musical El bon escarceller, estrenada en la sala Mercè, puede calificarse de éxito completo, al que han contribuido el poeta D. Manuel de Montoliu, el joven maestro compositor señor Lambert y los pintores escenógrafos señores Moragas y Alarma, alcanzando no poca parte al artista señor Graner, a quien se debe que Barcelona pueda gozar de espectáculos dignos y cultos, que contrarrestan los que nos ofrecen ciertos teatros.

[39] Inicialment anunciada per al dia 13 del mateix mes.
[40] Adaptació escènica d'un antic romanç popular.
[41] El mateix anunci publicat al Diario de Barcelona dels dies 14, 17 i 22 d'abril de 1906.

Se trata de un poemita hondamente sentido, puesto en escena con propiedad y lujo, muy bien interpretado y que deja en el ánimo del auditorio grata impresión. La partitura respira el puro ambiente de nuestra música popular y se ajusta perfectamente a las situaciones del libreto. En cuanto al decorado, es de lo mejor que han pintado los señores Moragas y Alarma, por su perspectiva y harmónica tonalidad."

"Notícies d'espectacles

Sala Mercè— Per a la visió musical El bon escarceller s'han ajuntat el poeta Manuel de Montoliu i el mestre Lambert i han fet una cosa exquisida, ajustada perfectament a les condicions del local.

El bon escarceller és un petit poema ple d'emoció i sentiment, tant per l'acció duta amb extraordinària traça, com per la música, que és en alt grau expressiva i du impregnat l'aire de la terra. En Lambert s'hi ha mostrat una vegada més compositor excel·lent.

Els escenògrafs Moragas i Alarma han contribuït en gran manera a l'èxit del quadro, fent una decoració que és un prodigi de perspectiva. El moment en què s'obre la portalada de la presó i apareix l'aire lliure assolellat, resulta veritablement hermós i suggestiu.

L'execució del quadro és del tot justa. Tant els dos actors que fan els papers d'escarceller i de pres com les nenes que compareixen a dur flors i acaben ballant una sardana a l'aire lliure varen estar al seu lloc corresponent. És d'esperar del Bon escarceller un dels millors èxits que hauran obtingut les obres del seu gènere posades en aquell local.

El pròxim dijous s'estrenaran vàries pel·lícules de l'erupció del Vesuvi preses en distints punts de la catàstrofe, les quals duen una complerta idea de lo espantós del fenomen i de ses conseqüències en les poblacions de la comarca Vesuviana."

"Sala Mercè— Gran èxit del nou quadro El bon escarceller, lletra de Manel de Montoliu, música de Joan Lambert i decorat de Moragas i Alarma.

"En la sala Mercè de la vecina capital se ha estrenado recientemente la visión musical El bon escarceller, letra del poeta Manuel de Montoliu y música del joven compositor Joan Lambert, actual director de la orquesta que en el teatro Principal le está confiada a tarea de los Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

Si no bastara al joven Lambert el haber obtenido el primer en la Festa de la música catalana del pasado año, para colocarle a una envejable altura, sería suficiente en la última producción para señalarle un brillante porvenir en su carrera.

La prensa de la capital le tributa merecidos elogios."

"Sala Mercè— Gran èxit del nou quadro El bon escarceller i de les noves pel·lícules de la Erupció del Vesuvi i Setmana Santa a Sevilla."

La Veu de Catalunya 2524 (27/04/1906)[42], ed. vespre, p. 6.

"En Manuel de Montoliu, el Mestre Lambert i els escenògrafs Moragas i Alarma se han ajuntat per donar-nos a la sala Mercè amb el títol de El bon escarceller una visió musical veritablement artística. No hi ha res més que un comte pres que es plant de la seva sort, un escarceller que se sent el cor ferit i li dona llibertat i una alenada d'alegria que ompli l'escena al moment de ser obertes les portes de la presó i ovirar-se les llunyanies d'un assolellat paisatge en el que dansa una nierada de nenes.

Aquesta acció tan senzilla arriba a commoure. I és que, si la lletra porta un llevat de sentiment, la música es compenetra del tot amb la lletra i la decoració amb la lletra i la música. És decoratiu i humà a la vegada el quadro El bon escarceller.

L'acció és moguda, lo que fa que tingui prou interès per a sostenir durant quatre quadros l'atenció del públic. A més és alegre La fada de la font i com que la virtut hi és premiada i castigada la maldat, veus aquí que el públic ne surt ben satisfet.

La música d'en Lambert és perfectament adaptada al caràcter de cada quadro, respirant tota ella gran alegria. Les decoracions d'en Moragas i l'Alarma molt adequades i sàviament fetes. En resum: un petit espectacle ben agradós".

Anuncis de pel·lícules projectades

"SALA MERCÈ.— Otro acontecimiento de resonancia universal va a ser cinematográficamente reproducido uno de estos días. Se trató del espantoso terremoto de que fue víctima la ciudad de San Francisco de California, cuyas desgarradoras escenas fueron peliculizadas por una casa de Norteamérica durante la catástrofe.

Aun recordando las celebradas películas de la toma de Port-Arthur, las fiestas triunfales de Tokio y la erupción del Vesubio, se puede asegurar que la del terremoto de San Francisco obtendrá el más sensacional éxito."

Opinions sobre la contribució artística de les visions musicals

"[...] El senyor Graner, convertit en verdader taquiller, ens fa sentir les escaients i ben pensades solfes de La mort de l'escolà, interpretada per quatre artistes, que de tant solistes no poden lligar plegats. Això a la sala Mercè, que per lo que toca al Principal ha contractat trenta músics de lo millor per a entretenir els intermedis dels seus dies de moda [...]

Tot lo dit, doncs, ens demostra palesament que l'exemple donat pels homes de nostra terra que es prengueren seriosament les manifestacions artístic-musicals no ha donat el fruit desitjat, i que en conseqüència és del tot convenient una nova campanya encaminada a tornar el nostre públic cap a lo verdader i sanitós, artísticament parlant, i... aquesta és la missió que per lo que atany a la música d'aquí endavant deu complir l'Associació Musical de Barcelona [...]."

El Poble català 52 (04/11/1905), p. 3.

"Cuestiones artísticas de escenografía

[…] Actualmente estamos atravesando una época especial de plétora escenográfica; y véase lo raro del caso, se debe precisamente a la propia decadencia del teatro. Es decir, que una causa negativa da un efecto de positiva prosperidad.

Así, pues, y coincidiendo con esa neurosis del público que se nota en todos los ramos, que le induce a preferir el teatro por horas a la comedia; el semanario ilustrado a la gran Revista; la tarjeta postal a la fotografía; el cartel de anuncios al cuadro ha proclamado el Cinematógrafo como prototipo del espectáculo de la época presente, y este es el secreto de que se encuentre uno de estos en cada esquina, casi tantos como cafés, tabernas y farmacias.

El artista Graner, que al arrinconar sus pinceles deseaba continuar su actividad productora, ideó los espectáculos de la sala Mercè con películas habladas y visiones musicales que han producido verdadero furor en el público. Ello, unido al Diorama Animado y a los Autómatas Narbon, hace que una serie de escenógrafos pinten constantemente decoraciones de gran ilusión, que no por ser a escala reducida dejan de contener bellezas de primer orden. Moragas y Alarma se afanan para que el buen gusto vaya difundiéndose desde la infancia en la generación que ahora crece.

Para colmo de perfección y magnificencia, el propio Graner, que ya en la sala Mercè se esmeraba para ofrecer espectáculos siempre cultos, siempre animados y siempre artísticos, ha implantado en el teatro Principal una ampliación de sus anteriores propósitos y cabe afirmar que ha logrado llevarse de calle al público, que se estruja a sus puertas para poder penetrar en el venerable recinto. [...]

"En una reseña anual no puede dejarse de hacer referencia a los teatros del Paralelo y a otros en que se dan melodramas, pantomimas, zarzuelitas del género chico, bailes más o menos vistosos, ni tampoco a otros espectáculos de menor cuantía, como los panoramas y cinematógrafos, algunos de los cuales, como el llamado Sala Mercè, han sido elevados a la categoría de diversión culta y artística, a veces con refinamientos, por artistas como Graner. Pero bueno es consignar que la mayor parte de estos espectáculos, tanto en teatros como en barracones, se hallan fuera de la jurisdicción del Diario de Barcelona, pues ya que ni sus anuncios publica. La desmoralización y el mal gusto son bastante más extensos en este terrero de lo que pueda creer quien solo lea el Diario".

Aquesta nova temporada de la sala Mercè presenta un gran canvi en la producció teatral de la sala. La sortida d'Adrià Gual per voluntat pròpia de la direcció escènica, tant de la sala Mercè com dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner, dona peu a un relleu que canvia tant la quantitat d'obres noves fetes per temporada com el seu caràcter dramatúrgic.

La nova direcció escènica de la sala, primerament, amplia el volum de produccions: si la temporada anterior en teníem 9 obres noves amb 2 reposicions, aquesta temporada presenta 23 obres noves amb 2 reposicions. Aquest canvi afectarà al temps que dura una obra en cartell; si la temporada anterior una obra es mantenia entre 3 i 6 setmanes, ara les obres duraran en cartell unes 2 setmanes. No succeirà com al Principal, on la companyia representa obres diferents en cada sessió horària per ampliar l'oferta de títols, sinó que a la sala Mercè es mantindrà una sola obra per totes les sessions horàries.

Hi haurà també un canvi notable en els principis dramatúrgics de les noves creacions. Si sota la direcció directa d'Adrià Gual, les visions musicals glossaven cançons tradicionals o llegendes recollides pels folkloristes, la nova temporada produirà obres molt més properes al teatre d'infants. Podríem considerar aquesta com la segona etapa del gènere de les visions musicals, en la qual el simbolisme medievalista més abstracte i suggestiu dels inicis passa a un teatre més narratiu i amb missatge moralitzant destinat als infants.

L'ús de la rondalla popular, tot i que suposa un contrast amb la lírica i mitologia de les visions musicals prèvies, encara encaixa dins dels preceptes teòrics del gènere de les visions musicals i no suposa un gran canvi conceptual. Encara tindrem títols basats en cançons populars catalanes, com ara El mal ric, o en romanços catalans, com és el cas de La gentil porquerola, però destaquen especialment els títols basats en rondalles estrangeres, com La caperutxa roja (dels germans Grimm) o Somni d'una nit d'hivern (adaptació de La venedora de llumins de Hans Christian Andersen). Es mantenen també els títols provinents d'episodis bíblics o personatges religiosos, com són els casos de Somni de Jacob, Jesús és nat o Moisès.

La sala es mantindrà també oberta durant l'estiu, però les produccions escèniques fetes durant aquests mesos confirmaran el canvi de tendència en la producció de visions musicals i seran més aviat quadres còmics o joguines líriques per a infants.

A més de les representacions de teatre líric, continuarà com era habitual la projecció de pel·lícules i curtmetratges cinematogràfics de diferent caràcter (documentals, d'actualitat, de ficció còmica...) i es continuaran instal·lant atraccions visuals a les grutes del soterrani. Durant aquesta temporada, destaca especialment el gran pessebre instal·lat per les festes de Nadal.

Cal destacar també que durant l'estiu, al final d'aquesta temporada, començaran els problemes amb l'Ajuntament de Barcelona respecte als nous requeriments dels espais escènics que obliguen a fer reformes a la sala per adaptar-la a la nova normativa.

Llistat de pel·lícules projectades:

- La festa de l'arbre fruiter a Moyà "és d'una gran claredat i realçada amb colors, lo qual contribueix a fer la il·lusió del natural. Durant el pas de la pel·lícula, el quintet de la sala Mercè executà bonica música de motius catalans" (01/09/1906)
- Gos policia (17/09/1906)
- Descobert per un cavall (17/09/1906)
- Com més se'n treu, més n'hi queda, "també hi ha noves pel·lícules reproduint costums exòtiques" (17/09/1906)
- De l'Havre a New-York (05/03/1907)
- La barbàrie dels civilitzats "s'hi desenrotlla l'horrible lluita sostinguda en l'Sporting Club de Londres entre els dos colossos del boxe Guner Moir, campió d'Anglaterra, i Tiger Smith, campió de les Indies, disputant-se el campionat del món" (06/04/1907)
- Jocs de sport i gimnàsia dels alumnes de l'Escola Pia (14/06/1907)
- Jocs de sport i gimnàsia dels alumnes dels Germans de les Escoles Cristianes (14/06/1907)
- La tragèdia de Casablanca (24/08/1907)

[Tot i que s'anuncien constantment estrenes de títols nous i renovació setmanal de la programació cinematogràfica, durant aquesta temporada apareixen molt pocs títols específics a la premsa. La principal atracció eren les visions musicals i la ràpida freqüència d'estrenes fa que l'anunci a premsa estigui centrat en els títols teatrals, no els cinematogràfics.]

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

Il·lustració 48: MARINEL·LO, Manuel: La nevada. [Barcelona]: Col·lecció En Patufet (nº 23), [1912] (portada).

"La nevada, aquest és el títol de la visió musical estrenada ahir a la sala Mercè i original del reputat escriptor Manuel Marinel·lo en la seva part literària, del notable compositor Adrià Esquerrà en la musical i del distingit artista Ros i Güell en l'escenogràfica. És un idil·li blau la nova obreta. El senyor Marinel·lo l'ha escrit com qui escriu una rondalla dialogada i ha sabut impregnar els episodis d'un entendriment tot commovedor. Ni una gota de fel. Tot és dolçor en La nevada. I, per altra part, el llenguatge llisca suaument, sense grops ni impureses.

El música, el mestre Esquerrà, ha mostrat com sempre la seva possessió de l'ànima de la música, creant melodies i combinant acords ben originals dintre l'ambient característic català. Tant en l'intermedi de l'un quatre a l'altre, com en les àries que valoren els dos, cantades amb veritable mestria per la Viola, hi ha estat ben inspirat.

Si bé s'han portat poeta i músic, no menys s'hi ha portat en Ros i Güell com a escenògraf, fent dues decoracions del tot suggestives, tant per lo encertat de la composició com per les harmonies del colorit. Ademés de la Viola, se distingeixen en el nou quadro l'actor senyor Marinel·lo, germà de l'autor de la lletra, així com la nena Casals.

Ahir mateix va estrenar-se a la sala una pel·lícula reproduint episodis de la festa de Moyà. És d'una gran claredat i realçada amb colors, lo qual contribueix a fer la il·lusió del natural. Durant el pas de la pel·lícula, el quintet de la sala Mercè executà bonica música de motius catalans."

"Sala Mercè.— Ayer se estrenó en esta concurrida sala de espectáculos selectos, uno todo poesía candorosa, ejemplaridad sencilla y tierna.

Titúlase la nueva visión musical La nevada y es un cuento muy bello expresado en forma elegante y poética. La poesía es del señor Marinel·lo, ilustrada con música del inspirado maestro señor Esquerrà, que ha compuesto dos tiempos de canción popular sentida y de típica melodía.

La presentación escénica es original del escenógrafo señor Ros i Güell, quien ha tendido, a su vez, a poetizar el efecto de realidad en que se desarrolla la escena.

La nueva visión que ha puesto en escena el inteligente artista señor Graner, es, pues, muy digna de verse y continuará con merecido éxito la espléndida serie de visiones musicales que tanto contribuyen a encauzar y sostener el buen gusto del público."

La Vanguardia 12133 (02/09/1906), ed. matí, p. 3.

"En la sala Mercè se estrenó ayer tarde una visión musical en dos cuadros, titulada La nevada, que impresionó gratamente a la concurrencia que llenaba el local. Al descorrerse la cortina en uno y otro cuadro, una voz femenina canta canciones populares que entona con mucho sentimiento la tiple que tiene a su cargo el papel de caminante.

Un muchacho y una muchacha, huérfanos, dan albergue en noche fría a unos caminantes, quienes en el segundo cuadro se revelan ricos señoree, llevándose a los niños en su carroza, premiando de esta suerte el bien que recibieran al ser acogidos en la humilde choza.

El libro es de D. Manuel Marinel·lo; la música, del maestro Esquerrà, y las decoraciones, del señor Ros i Güell, quienes han cumplido bien su misión, lo propio que los artistas encargados de interpretar la nueva producción.

Antes se dio una sección cinematográfica, exhibiéndose algunas películas jocosas y la que representa la cabalgata organizada en Moyà con motivo de la fiesta mayor."

"[Comentaris sobre inici de temporada al Romea...] Per la seva banda en Graner se prepara a estrenar un conte de l'Apel·les Mestres titulat La Nit de Reis i il·lustrat amb música d'en Morera, tenint a punt per a després una comèdia de màgia d'en Guimerà, de la que no en sé altra cosa sinó que té tres actes.

En canvi, la visió musical La nevada, entrenada l'altre dia a la sala Mercè, no té més que dos quadres, però tots dos són ben eixerits i plens de sentiment i pulcres de forma. L'autor de la lletra és en Manuel Marinel·lo, que s'hi ha portat molt bé, com s'hi ha portat en la música el mestre Esquerrà i en les decoracions en Ros i Güell.

Creguin que es pot anar a veure La nevada. Si en Graner arriba a estrenar-la un mes enrere, s'hi hauria fet la barba d'or a les costelles dels acalorats que hi haurien anat a prendre la fresca.

"S'ha renovat gairebé radicalment el programa de pel·lícules, havent-hi algunes de molt interessants, entre les que criden l'atenció la d'un Gos policia i les titulades Descobert per un cavall i Com més se'n treu, més n'hi queda. També hi ha noves pel·lícules reproduint costums exòtiques, sent totes elles d'una extraordinària claredat i fixesa.

Finalment s'ha estrenat la visió La caperutxa roja, composta en dos quadros molt pintorescos i vistosos. La lletra està basada en la rondalla popular, sent escrita amb la ingenuïtat pròpia del gènere i acompanyada per una música realment apropiada.

Les decoracions, fetes per en Ros i Güell, són totes dues ben hermoses."

"Sala Mercè.— És realment interessant el quadro plàstic Somni de Jacob, lletra d'en Mateu Nonell , música de l'Esquerrà i decorat d'en Ros i Güell.

Com ja pot suposar-se, el quadro està inspirat en un passatge bíblic. El senyor Nonell l'ha tractat d'una manera ben respectuosa i literària.

La música del mestre Esquerrà s'adapta perfectament a la lletra i és del tot inspirada.

En quant a les decoracions d'en Ros i Güell, són també ben hermoses, distingint-se la d'un clar de lluna i l'apoteosi en el que apareix enlluernanta l'escala de Jacob.

En conjunt l'espectacle és hermós i aixeca grans aplaudiments."

"En Patufet* a la sala Mercè

Vet aquí que l'altre dia, passant per la Rambla dels Estudis, vaig veure a la porta de la sala Mercè unes grans lletres anunciant el quadro plàstic musical En Patufet. Jo que corro cap a casa, demano cèntims al meu company i mestre Cu-Cut! i me'n vaig a veure l'obra. Sinó que me n'hi vaig anar disfressat de noi de ciutat, perquè no em coneguessin.

Allà vaig veure moltes pel·lícules de cinematògraf, vaig sentir una mica de xim-xim vingut de sota l'escenari i al final vaig poder veure'm reproduït al damunt de les taules. Ja m'hi assemblo força, ja, amb aquell nen tan eixerit i cezalloz, que salva els seus germanets de morir de fam al mig del bosc i de servir després de sopar al pare Gegantàs. Però jo soc una mica més petit.

És divertida, vaja, la rondalla. Jo, per la meva part, hi vaig passar una bona estona. Ja veuré: sempre és d'agrair que uns autors com D. Manel de Montoliu i el mestre Cuscó i l'escenògraf senyor Ros i Güell s'inspirin en un hom per a fer una obra."

En Nogueras Oller, en la lletra, ha fet obra de literat, no apartant-se empro de la ingenuïtat pròpia del gènere.

La música, deguda a en Grant, és també d'un sabor exquisit, sent les decoracions d'en Ros i Güell ben dignes de la lletra i la música, puig produeixen un efecte de cosa realment exquisida."

Representada fins al 10/12/1906.

Lletra de Josep Maria Navarro Porcel.

Música de Frederic Alfonso.

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

"Con éxito extraordinario se estrenó ayer tarde en la sala Mercè la visión en tres cuadros El mal ric, letra de D. José M.ª Navarro Porcel, música del maestro D. Federico Alfonso y decorado del pintor señor Ros i Güell.

El libreto está dialogado con mucha facilidad y corrección y acredita en su autor conocer los recursos teatrales. La partitura que ha compuesto el laureado maestro Alfonso es inspirada y su armonización e instrumentación revelan un conocimiento completo de la técnica y de la harmonía.

La canción del peregrino, que está inspirada en la popular catalana que lleva el título de la obra, es de una melodía sentida; el coro de arcángeles respira un ambiente de delicadeza y sentimiento, que contrasta, como es natural, con el baile y coro de diablillos del tercer cuadro, que es de mucho efecto y original.

Las decoraciones, que representan respectivamente una calle, las puertas del cielo y el infierno, están muy bien entendidas de color y de perspectiva. Las intérpretes merecen asimismo elogios. En medio del aplauso del auditorio tuvieron que descorrerse las cortinas varias veces, saliendo a escena los artistas."

"El mal ric, visió lletra de Josep M.ª Navarro, música del Mtre. Frederic Alfonso i decorat de Ros i Güell. Donades las curtes dimensions de l'obreta, sols pot dir-se que lo poc que hi ha està ben fet i el públic ho troba molt moral i en surt complagut."

"Ahir va estrenar-se amb èxit a la sala Mercè un quadro titulat Conte de tardor, en el que en Xavier Viura ha mostrat les facultats que posseeix com a exquisit poeta. És una cosa delicada i sentida i no cal dir que el diàleg resulta ben correcte i expressiu.

En Modest Serra, autor de la música, s'ha adaptat perfectament al caràcter de l'obreta i mostrant-se inspirat, especialment en un cor de follets.

La decoració, feta per en Ros i Güell, és de molt efecte, traient-s'hi bon partit del poc espai de l'escenari. El públic va aplaudir molt l'obra."

"Jesús és nat. Quadro bíblic, líric, en vers, lletra de Nogueras Oller i música del mestre Grant. Una obreta més del gènere de visions amb què favoreix en Graner als seus parroquians. Sense que l'autor s'hi cansi gaire, fa cansar als actors que ho interpreten, puig els fa ballar sense ganes des de que es corre la cortina fins que es torna a plegar. Els papers que ens van semblar més justificats foren els de Josep i Maria i el Jesuset. Dos nens que prenen part en el quadro ho fan bastant bé. L'actor Marinel·lo, laboriós com sempre. La música acceptable i el decorat, també."

És un quadret sentimental que, després d'un començament de negrors, acaba en un toc d'alegria, amb l'arribada dels Reis a una vivenda humil, habitada per dues germanes òrfenes... El nyigo-nyigo del mestre Alfonso encaixa molt bé amb l'obra, que és ben enquadrada per la decoració d'en Ros. [...]

"Quadro líric-dramàtic-impressionista, lletra de Joan Sordina i música del Mtre. Grant.

Una pobra nena, desemparada, que demana caritat... i no n'hi donen; no té esma per caminar perquè fa fred... molt fred... fins neva! Ella s'encomana a son àngel salvador que ve en somnis, i s'hi entrega perquè la transporti a l'idealisme... quedant adormida al portal d'una església.

Son cap adormit i boy cobrint-se de neu, fantasieja... Veu un paradís amb moltes flors, molta vida... i ella s'hi extasia... Veu uns nens rics que juguen amb unes granotes, quines amb son melodiós rac, rac, acompanyen les cançons que entonen aquells infantons.

La nena s'ho mira, els nens la sol·liciten al seu costal... ella no gosa, queda apocada davant tanta riquesa d'amor. Aquí acaba la fantasia... Segueix nevant... fa molt fred... Uns transeünts passen i veuen el cos de la nena gelat damunt la pedra, la compadeixen, s'ajupen a collir-la, i... és morta! És al cel!

Tot això escrit poèticament i representat molt bé per una petita actriu, quin nom ignorem, ja que en aquesta casa es costum callar els noms dels actors que hi treballen.

Les altres figures que hi prenen part, també es porten bé. La música, apropiada, i el decorat de Ros i Güell, de bon efecte."

"Sala Mercè.— Amb el títol de Somni d'una nit d'hivern se representa amb molt èxit un nou quadro plàstic musical escrit per un notable literat que amaga el seu nom sota el pseudònim de Joan Sordina.

És un conte exquisit, en el que el sentiment hi vessa. I les visions que passen pels ulls de l'espectador són encomanadores d'exquisit sentiment... Tot això dintre un ambient perfumat de sentors poètics.

El mestre Grant ha posat en música el poemet, adaptant-se perfectament a les situacions delicades que hi són en abundor.

En Ros i Güell, per la seva banda, ha decorat l'obreta d'una manera escaienta i atractiva."

"Una vegada era una rateta...—Rondalla en un acte i en vers, original de Fidel Santem amb música del Mtre. Grant.

Glosant el qüento tan celebrat per la gent menuda, i seguint la marxa del mateix, presenta l'autor una sèrie d'escenes entretingudes que fan les delícies d'aquell públic.

Els personatges de l'obra són diferents animals, molt ben caracteritzats i representats molt bé per nois; mes, ai!, és de doldre la fatiga que deuen experimentar aquets per les moltes vegades que han de treballar cada dia.

És d'efecte el quadro segon amb el ball de tots els animals.

La música es molt escaienta."

Va trobar un dineret i va dir: «Si me'n compro avellanetes, me faran mal a les dentetes; si me'n compro pinyonets, me faran mal als queixalets»... En fi, etc., saben? Tot això posat en acció amb una traça que enamora als xics i que fa somriure de bona gana als grans. Se pot anar a veure de debò, vaja.

"Sala Mercè.— En Graner ha volgut celebrar la Pasqua amb una pila de novetats que donen nous atractius als seus espectacles de la sala Mercè. Ha renovat les pel·lícules, ha estrenat visió musical i ha posat nous diorames a les grutes.

Senyor mestre està malalt és el títol de la nova visió, firmada per en Crehuet i en Morera. L'acció és senzilla i se'n desprèn un sentiment exquisit i moralitzador. Els tres quadros en què es divideix són de caràcter tendre i dramàtic a la vegada, produint en l'auditori ferma emoció.

La música d'en Morera s'adapta perfectament al caràcter del drama, tenint aquell sentit popular que tant caracteritza les obres d'aquest mestre.

El públic prenia totes les representacions amb aplaudiments espontanis. Senyal que l'obreta el commou.

A les grutes, com ja hem dit, hi ha diorames nous, cridant molt l'atenció un de Montserrat, un d'humorístic i de moviment representant una dona que vol fer tirar un ase sense aconseguir-ho i un efecte de nit, sobre teulades, amb uns gats que hi corren.

[52] Versió reduïda d'El Mestre, amb text i música dels mateixos autors, publicada el 1907 i estrenada al teatre Romea el 12/01/1907.

Tots aquests nous diorames produeixen excel·lent efecte i gran il·lusió, denotant la mà experta dels artistes Ricard Urgell i Ros i Güell, que han estat els encarregats d'executar-los baix la direcció d'en Graner.

De manera que entre pel·lícules noves, visió musical nova i diorames nous, s'hi passen llargues estones ben distretes a la sala Mercè."

"Sala Mercè.— Senyor Mestre està malalt. Autors: Crehuet i Morera. Obreta de primera, amb emoció, sentiment, bona construcció, bon diàleg, bona música. De més a més de fer sentir, pot dir-se que Senyor mestre està malalt és una cosa que instruye, corrige y divierte, perquè porta un fi moral i pedagògic: fer estimar l'estudi i el mestre. Crec que qualsevol noi que fos rebel a anar a estudi, se'n corregiria amb una sola representació. Ah, i si la lletra va bé, la música fa com la lletra.

Crec doncs que la obreta és digna dels aplaudiments que li dispensa el públic, que, de passada, pot baixar a les grutes de la casa i veure els nous diorames seriosos i humorístics, fixos i de moviment que hi han conjuminat en Ricard Urgell i en Ros i Güell. S'hi passa una bona estona. [...]

En quant al Principal, amb espectacles de més volada, els que ens agrada fruir les delectances d'un art exquisit, ens hem perfumat amb la delicada flaire de la rondalla infantil en tres actes Ton i Guida, que no és altra cosa que la celebrada òpera Hansel und Gretel posada en català per en Maragall i per en Ribera [...]

"El senyor mestre està malalt.— Visió en tres quadros, lletra de Pompeu Crehuet, música del Mtre. Morera.

Per donar varietat als espectacles que tenen lloc en aquest local, ha escrit en Crehuet aquesta rondalla, plena de sentiment i inspiració.

No es tracta de cap obra transcendental, sinó d'una situació purament infantívola que commou potser massa, ja que durant la curta representació vam veure plorar algunes criatures que devien anar-hi a buscar un rato d'esbarjo. La música està ben ajustada a la lletra i el decorat de Ros i Güell de hermosa poesia.

En general l'obreta satisfà als concurrents, celebrant les patètiques escenes del drama."

"Senyor mestre està malalt

Una vegada hi havia un mestre molt bo... Ui, si ho era de bo! Mes que no sé que ho era. Val a dir, per això, que tots els mestres ho són de bons, sinó que els nens dolents no els ne troben. I és natural, oi, eixerits?

Doncs, veus-aquí que aquell mestre que us dic ho era tant de bo que s'estimava als nois com si li fossin fills. I quan feien una entremaliadura, tot se n'entristia, pobre senyor mestre. I com que era molt vell, molt vell, les tristeses li feien molt de mal.

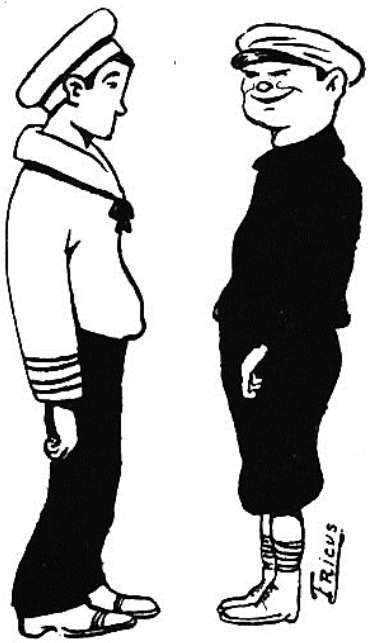
Veus-aquí que una vegada que va haver de deixar els nois sols a classe, un d'ells, que era molt entremaliat, va ensibornar els altres per a fugir d'estudi. I els nois, en lloc d'aprendre la lliçó, varen començar a cantar:

B a, ba,
jo tinc ganes de jugar,
b e, be,
jo me'n vull anar al carrer,

i així per l'estil.

La tabola que varen armar, ja podeu figurar-vos-la. Lo que va passar va ser que, al anar tots plegats per fugir d'estudi, varen topar-se amb el senyor mestre que entrava tot esverat del xivarri. El bon senyor prou aixecava la veu per a fer-se respectar, però els nois, ca!, ni se l'escoltaven: no tenien altra dèria que la de fugir. Prou que ho deien tots:

B u, bu,
ja no ens detura ningú.



I varen fer-ho de fugir, els dolents! I en la seva precipitació, varen fer caure el pobre senyor mestre. Com que era tan vellet...! El disgust que va tenir el bondadós senyor va ser gran. I com que tenia tants anys, entre el disgust i la caiguda va posar-se malalt, molt malalt...!

I veus-aquí que els nois, quan varen saber que el senyor mestre estava malalt per la culpa d'ells, no gosaven anar-lo a veure, de vergonya que tenien. I el senyor mestre, com que els estimava tant, els enyorava tot ple. Tant, que fins la noia del mestre va trobar als nois i els va dir que estava malalt per la seva culpa. I els nois aleshores, tots vergonyosos, varen anar a veure al mestre, que els va rebre amorós com de costum, sense retreure'ls per a res la falta comesa, sinó pel contrari, perdonant-los magnànimament, per comprendre que tot era degut al poc seny.

Però, malgrat això, els nois estaven avergonyits, més avergonyits potser que no pas si el mestre els hagués renyat, perquè aquella mateixa bondat del mestre els feia veure més be la seva falta. Ves, pobre senyor! Un home tan bo, que els estimava tant, i donar-li aquells disgustos! Se necessita tenir molt mala ànima, vaja.

Així ho varen comprendre tots els nois i varen fer el propòsit de no faltar mai més a classe. El remordiment els va corregir. No ho feu mai vosaltres això de donar disgustos al mestre, perquè després tindríeu remordiments com els dels nois que us he explicat. I els remordiments no deixen viure gaire tranquil. I la proba la teniu en els nens de la història que acabo de contar-vos i que he vist representar al eixerit escenari de la sala Mercè.

—¿Que has vist el Senyor Mestre... està malalt?
—¿Ah, si? ¿Està malalt? No ho sabia; com que...
—No, home: me refereixo al de la «Sala Mercè.»

Aneu-hi vosaltres també, si us és possible. Estic segur de que us agradarà i m'agraireu la recomanació. Però als que estareu més agraïts serà a en Pompeu Crehuet, que ha posat la història en acció escènica, i al Mtre. Enric Morera, que hi ha posat música.

Creieu que és una cosa que commou, encisa i fa venir ganes de anar a estudi. I això de tenir ganes d'anar a estudi és una gran cosa, perquè així l'estudi es pren de gust i això fa que un aprengui i que quan sigui gran se'l respecti i se l'estimi per tot arreu.

"[...] A la sala Mercè, ademés dels diorames nous de les grutes, també ens ha ofert en Graner estrena de quadro amb Senyor mestre està malalt, d'en Crehuet i en Morera. És una obreta que encaixa magníficament en aquell escenari. Té situacions dramàtiques, ambient i aire popular, tancant una lliçó moral endreçada als petits amb l'intent de fer-los estimar l'escola i el mestre. Si el quadret s'adapta bé a l'escenari, la música s'adapta bé a la lletra. Creiem que Senyor mestre està malalt és de lo més seriós i artístic que s'ha posat a la sala Mercè, on, per a fer més atractives les sessions, s'ha renovat el repertori de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques. Dels diorames nous de les grutes, executats per en Ros i Güell i en Ricard Urgell, pot dir-se que produeixen ferma il·lusió. [...]

"Amb el suggestiu títol de La barbàrie dels civilitzats s'estrenarà avui dissabte a la sala Mercè una pel·lícula terriblement interessant. En ella s'hi desenrotlla l'horrible lluita sostinguda en l'Sporting Club de Londres entre els dos colossos del boxe Guner Moir, campió d'Anglaterra, i Tiger Smith, campió de les Índies, disputant-se el campionat del món. La fotografia, que va ser presa de molt a prop, mostra molt clarament tots els detalls d'aquest horrible combat que va durar just 2 minuts i 49 segons, del qual va sortir-ne triomfant Guner Moir, havent-se fet apostes per valor de 40.000 francs."

"Sala Mercè.— La cirereta és el nou i eixerit quadro plàstic musical que es posa a la sala Mercè, amb gran goig del públic que sol acudir a aquell local.

És una rondalleta posada en acció per en Feliu Santem, que ja en la Rateta havia mostrat la seva traça en combinar obretes d'aquesta llei. La cirereta no desmereix en res de l'obra anteriorment representada, sent d'acció senzilla i ben pintoresca.

La música, composta pel mestre Borràs de Palau, ajuda bon tros al bon efecte del conjunt. És realment d'un aire català que enamora, fins al punt de que, sense ser popular, ho sembla. Això vol dir que és ben fresca i inspirada.

També és del tot escaient el decorat que ha pintat per a aquesta obra en Ros i Güell, que ha sapigut treure molt partit de l'estretor de l'escenari."

La Veu de Catalunya 2874 (16/04/1907), ed. matí, p. 4.

"Dissabte a la nit s'estrenà a la sala Mercè la visió musical La cirereta, escrita pel mestre compositor Borràs de Palau. La justesa dels diferents trossos orquestrals i de cant que la composen i lo arrodonit del conjunt foren del gust del públic distingit que emplenava el local. El decorat és elegant i d'efectes ben buscats."

El Poble català 429 (19/04/1907), p. 3.

"Sigue proporcionando buenas entradas a la sala Mercè la rondalla en dos cuadros La cirereta.

La letra de Feliu Santem es una ampliación de un conocido cuento infantil. Adorna la rondalla la música que a propósito ha escrito el Mtro. Borràs de Palau, quien aun contando solo con pocos elementos (violín, violoncello y piano) ha sabido combinarlos de manera que resultan de hermoso relieve las inspiradas melodías de la obrita. Además, la intervención de la música cae naturalísima, cualidad digna de apreciar y poco frecuente.

Los números de más efecto son la canción-balada de la abuela y el siguiente dúo con la pequeña tiple. En cada sesión la rondalla obtiene señalado y merecido éxito."

La Publicidad 10166 (19/04/1907), p. 4.

"Se representa actualmente en dicha sala la visión musical en dos cuadros, letra de Feliu Santem y música del maestro Borràs de Palau, titulada La cirereta, la cual obtiene gran éxito.

La obrita tiene un asunto simpático sacado de un cuento popular catalán y ofrece bonitas situaciones. La música, escrita con mucha soltura, da notorio relieve al libro, adaptándose así a los pasajes que respiran jovialidad y frescura, como a los en que el tema dominante ha de adquirir un tinte sentimental y hasta acentuación dramática.

Destacan además por su colorido el coro infantil y por su plácida expresión el tema de La padrina, en el segundo cuadro.

El decorado, de los señores Ros i Güell, completa el efecto de esta "rondalla musical", que dará buenas entradas a la sala Mercè."

"La cirereta*.— Visió musical en dos quadros, original de Feliu Santem, amb música de Borràs de Palau. A nostre entendre aquesta producció és de lo més escaient que s'ha representat en el petit escenari d'aquesta sala.

El Sr. Feliu Santem, que temps enrere va escriure Una vegada era una rateta... ja va mostrar posseir condicions per conreuhar la simpatia de la gent menuda, que és per qui es representen les obretes que periòdicament fa estrenar en Graner, fent-les decorar amb molt bon acert per l'escenògraf Ros i Güell.

L'assumpto de La cirereta és tan senzill com bonic; està molt ben dialogat i dona motiu a que en Marinel·lo, actor de bona fusta, puga lluir sa vis còmica i dongui relleu al quadro. Els demés personatges compleixen sa obligació.

La música del Borràs de Palau és eixerida i ajuda molt a l'èxit del quadro."

La Escena catalana 29 (20/04/1907), p. 5.

"Sala Mercè.— Actualment s'hi està representant amb molt aplaudiment el nou quadro plàstic musical La cirereta, rondalla en dos quadros, lletra de Feliu Santem, música del mestre Borràs de Palau i decorat d'en Ros i Güell. L'acció és senzilla i pintoresca i el músic l'ha realçada amb uns quants números molt inspirats i frescos que tenen tot l'aire d'una tonada popular. Un cor de nois, un petit duo i el tema de La cirereta, entre altres, són les peces que han agradat més. El decorat completa el bon efecte de l'obreta, que ha obtingut ja un extraordinari nombre de representacions."

"Nostre distingit company el mestre don Josep Borràs de Palau ens ha obsequiat amb un exemplar de sa composició coral La sardana, executada amb brillant resultat el diumenge passat per l'Orfeó Català. L'edició és tan esplèndida com tot quant surt del Sindicat Musical Barcelonès Dotesio.

També és força elegant l'edició que el mateix Sindicat ha fet de la cançó del quadro segon de la rondalla popular La cirereta, estrenada fa algun temps amb gran èxit a la sala Mercè.

La lletra d'en Feliu Santem i la música del mestre Borràs tenen un caient popular, però distingit com tot lo seu.

Responent a una encertada idea de popularització, la cançó és fàcil d'entonació i l'acompanyament al piano molt senzill, sense deixar per això d'estar ben harmonitzat."

"Mirallets per cassar aloses és una comèdia en dos actes estrenada al Principal. N'és arranjador el comediant Puiggarí i fa riure per les butxaques. [...]

De l'altra estrena celebrada aquesta setmana en té la culpa o, millor dit, la raó, en Manel Folch i Torres. Ja el coneixen, eh? Jo també i per això estic convençut de que em creuran si els dic que el Sant Ramon Nonat de la sala Mercè és cosa fina i delicada i poètica i tot lo que vulguin. Sense separar-se de la cançó popular, la glosa el xicot amb una traça encisadora, lo qual, si bé es mira, no té res d'estrany, perquè ja sabem com s'explica en Manel quan vol.

I el que també s'explica bé és el músic. El mestre Piqué és jove però en sap com si hi hagués posat cabells blancs. Sí senyors, hi és molt ben posada la música en el Sant Ramon. I si no ho volen creure, vagin a sentir-la. I si ho volen creure, també, que tot això hi guanyaran.

"Sant Ramon.— Visió musical en tres quadros, lletra de Manel Folch i Torres, música de F. Piqué i Salvat.

La visió no té altre objecte que presentar el miracle de Sant Ramón:

"confessor de Reis, de Reis i de Papes."

qui, no poguent absoldre els pecats del Rei, i volent fugir de l'illa mallorquina per a traslladar-se a Barcelona, veient-se mancat de tota classe d'embarcació, realitza el viatge damunt de son mantell de frare mercenari.

El llenguatge florit i l'efecte plàstic és d'èxit positiu. La música és inspirada i es fa escoltar amb atenció. L'execució és digna de lloança; l'aplaudit barba del Principal, Sr. Garcia, representa un Sant Ramon amb una majestat encisadora i imitant a la devoció que inspira el personatge. També hi estan en sos papers els senyors Marinel·lo, Riu i altres que els secunden en la representació.

Les decoracions d'en Ros i Güell, vistoses i d'efecte, com sempre."

"Sala Mercè.— En aquest local se representa amb molta bona acollida per part del públic un nou quadro plàstic musical basat en la cançó popular de Sant Ramon.

L'obra, escrita amb molt acert per en Manel Folch i Torres, reprodueix els passatges culminants de la cançó, sent els episodis de què es compon molt ben portats a l'escena. El diàleg és poètic i escaient sense separar-se de l'esperit del cant popular.

Lo mateix pot dir-se de la música, en la que el mestre Piquer ha demostrat molt bones qualitats de compositor.

El decorat d'en Ros i Güell contribueix a fer atractiva la nova producció."

"Moisès.— Visió musical, en un quadro, lletra de Lluís Viladot, música de Joan Fargas.

Poc inspirats van estar el Sr. Viladot i el Mtre. Fargas al construir el Moisès. Aquesta obreta entra de ple en la censura de que parlem en aquesta mateixa secció al donar compte de La cova del mar, per lo que ens abstenim d'ampliar la crítica.

La cova del mar.— Visió teatral en un acte, de R. Nogueras Oller, música de Narcisa Freixas. [Representada a la sala Portfoliògraf].

És una llàstima que havent-hi empresaris disposats a pintar decorat i no escatimar gastos d'indumentària, etc., surtin llibretistes que, com en Nogueras Oller, amb talent per fer quelcom de profit, s'engiponin obretes tan insubstancials i poc inspirades com La cova del mar.

Aquesta espècie de timo (diguem-ho així) que inconscientment estan fent alguns autorets a la sala Mercè ha fet escola i s'eixampla per Barcelona amb onada amenaçadora, que per nostra part procurarem aplacar-la i allunyar el públic dels llocs on se representin a fi de que no se valgui de menys el teatre català.

massa, que els autors amb el pecat s'emporten la penitència; mes, si aquestes van firmades per literats reconeguts, seria una traïdoria que faríem al públic si deixàvem de criticar-los com se mereixen.

En quant a la part musical, no li considerarem importància, sols hem de dir que tots els números hi estan enganxats amb pega per mes idem."

Sant de l'avi, El

Estrena el 15/06/1907.

Representada fins al 25/06/1907.

Lletra d'Eduard Girbal i Jaume.

Música de Joaquim Grant.

"Sala Mercè.— Des de demà, divendres, s'hi exhibiran en aquesta sala la pel·lícula que es va prendre a l'Internat de la Escola Pia de Sarrià dels exercicis d'equitació, gimnàsia, ciclisme, jocs escolars, etc., que practicaren els alumnes el dia de la festa d'educació física.

Com que es van prendre fotografies de tots els exercicis pràctics, resultarà una repetició completa del festival."

"Sala Mercè.— Grandiós èxit del nou quadro El sant de l'avi i les hermoses pel·lícules Jocs de Sport i Gimnàsia dels alumnes de l'Escola Pia, Jocs de Sport i Gimnàsia dels alumnes dels Germans de les Escoles Cristianes que seguiran donant-se alternant un dia l'una i un dia l'altra."

"El sant de l'avi.— Quadret líric, lletra de E. Girbal Jaume, música del Mtre. Grant.

Aquest quadret perteneix a la classe dels que abunden més, que són els dolents. Repetim lo que dèiem en nostre número passat, és hora ja de que s'acabi aquest gènere de produccions insubstancials, tan faltades d'ingeni com pretensioses de forma.

Comprenem l'objecte d' aquesta mena de visions i trobem apropiada l'idea, però és innegable que per curt que sigui un pas de comèdia o de drama, pot haver-hi en ell quelcom que vibri, quelcom que hagi motivat la construcció del diàleg.

Aquest petit requisit l'han complert algunes de las visions estrenades en aquesta sala, i d'elles al ocupar-nos-en n'hem fet elogi merescut; d'altres menys importants, n'hem fet critiques tan benèvoles que això potser ha motivat que els autors no es creguessin amb el dret d'esmenar-se.

Nosaltres que moltes vegades que hem assistit a presenciar aquestes produccions i hem escoltat amb sentiment l'opinió del públic respecte l'efecte que els ha fet la representació, deplorem que aquesta no sigui favorable i supliquem als senyors que se senten autors espontàniament que pensin, que cavil·lin i si després d'haver pensat i cavil·lat no troben un assumpto que motivi el fer pintar decorat i el fer estudiar als benèvols artistes de la casa, que pleguin, que escriguin... a la família o bé que s'entretinguin jugant a bales, que almenys, si bé és una distracció innocenta, no cau en perjudici del Teatre català en particular ni del art en general.

Aquesta és la nostra opinió; dispensi'ns l'empresa si l'expressem en forma un xic crua, mes pot estar segura que som els primers en reconèixer-li la bona intenció, una de las causes que ens porta a exigir lo que exigim dels seus col·laboradors en la tasca."

Foc de Sant Joan, El

Estrena el 28/06/1907.

Representada fins al 12/07/1907

Lletra de Ferran Girbal i Jaume.

Música de Joan B. Lambert.

"Sala Mercè. Grandiós èxit del nou quadro El foc de Sant Joan. A fi de dar lloc en el programa a les interessantíssimes pel·lícules rebudes, sols se projectaran les de Jocs de Sport i Gimnàsia dels alumnes de l'Escola Pia i Jocs de Sport i Gimnàsia dels alumnes dels Germans de les Escoles Cristianes, el dimecres i divendres alternativament."

La Publicidad 1023 (30/06/1907), ed. matí, p 6.

"Visió musical, en un acte, lletra de F. Girbal Jaume i música del Mtre. Joan Lambert.

Una visió mes de les dolentes que acabaran, si segueixen així, amb la paciència del públic aficionat a concorre a aquesta sala.

Hora és ja de que la direcció artística es fixi una mica en les produccions que es representen en aquest petit escenari i respecti més el bon gust de l'espectador, encara que sigui en perjudici de l'autor d'aquestes visions, que, com El foc de Sant Joan, estan mancades d'ingeni, d'interès i de gust artístic.

Ho repetim: com a bons catalans i amants del teatre de la terra, ens dol sentir a gent forastera i als de casa mateix com, exercint d'espectador, des del seu setí, critiquen i fan burles, amb raó fundada, d'aquets espectacles encomanats a mans inexpertes que no coneixen del teatre ni las regles mes rudimentàries.

Ens referim al autor de la lletra, ja que el músic en aquest gènere de produccions el veiem lliure de tota complicitat."

Boritlles i en Tinyós, En [55]

2 quadres.

Estrena el 13/07/1907.

Representada fins al 26/07/1907.

Lletra de Feliu Santem.

Música de Joan B. Lambert.

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

"Sala Mercè.— Èxit grandiós del nou quadro En Boritlles i en Tinyós, lletra de Feliu Santem, música del mestre Joan B. Lambert i decorat nou de Ros i Güell."

La Veu de Catalunya 2953 (13/07/1907), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"Ayer tarde se estrenó con mucho éxito en la sala Mercè la rondalla en dos cuadros, titulada En Borilles i en Tinyós, letra de D. Felipe Santem, música del maestro Lambert y decorado de Ros i Güell.

El asunto es sencillo, pero da ocasión a escenas regocijadas. Los dos números que ha compuesto el maestro Lambert, el de la llegada de un soldado, recordando el motivo de Los tres tambors, y la canción de la guardiana de una cueva son muy agradables. Las decoraciones son vistosas y producen efecto."

Diario de Barcelona 195 (14/07/1907), p. 8352.

"Firmada per en Feliu Santem, s'ha estrenat, amb música del mestre Lambert i decorat d'en Ros i Güell, una nova visió plàstica de les que sol oferir al final de les sessions cinematogràfiques la empresa de la sala Mercè. Se titula En Buritlles i el Tinyós i conté escenes de broma que fan riure molt al públic habitual d'aquell espectacle.

La música escau al gènere de la lletra i el decorat completa degudament la impressió del conjunt."

“Rondalla en dos quadros, lletra de Feliu Santem, amb música del Mtre. Joan Lambert.

Aquesta vegada hem de donar l’enhorabona a l’empresa, puig l’obreta de què ens ocupem és digna d’elogi i encaixa perfectament en el marc d’aquest teatre.

És una rondalla ben pensada i descrita amb l’humorisme propi de la situació; té el seu argumentat i el públic hi riu saboreijant les gràcies dels personatges que la representen.

Felicitem l’empresa pel bon encert que ha tingut en escollir aquesta visió, i Déu faci que no ens tornin a molestar amb obretes insubstancials del gènere de les tres estrenades últimament.

Els Srs. Guardia i Marinel·lo, junt amb la Srta. Guardia, encarnen els personatges amb justesa i amb molta vis còmica..

El Mtre. Lambert també s’ha lluït posant en l’obra una música molt agradable.”

Qui tot ho vol…

1 quadre.

Estrena el 27/07/1907.

Representada fins al 13/08/1907.

Lletra de Josep Ribot i Martell.

Música del mestre Batista i Cretona.

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

"Sala Mercè.— El nou quadro plàstic Qui tot ho vol... és realment ensopegat, entrant de ple en el gust del públic habitual d'aquella sala.

L'autor de la lletra, don Josep Ribot, l'ha escrita amb pulcritud, posant en boca dels personatges versets fluids i correctes i conjuntament una acció senzilla i ben trobada per a donar als nens i nenes una bona lliçó.

La música que du la firma del mestre Batista, és juganera i original, ajudant a fer agradosa la representació. Escau realment amb el caràcter de l'obra.

El decorat, d'en Ros i Güell, produeix també molt bon efecte."

La Veu de Catalunya 2970 (30/07/1907), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"Qui tot ho vol...— Visió musical, en un quadro, lletra de Josep Ribot i música del Mtre. Batista.

És una comèdia de les boniques i digna d'agradar. Inclou una moraleja apropiada als petits i que no hi és de més que en prenguin nota els grans. El públic hi riu i alaba els mèrits del llibret i de la música.

L'execució, a càrrec de la Srta. Guardia i Sr. Marinel·lo, bé. Els quatre nens que hi prenen part, superiors. El decorat, de Ros i Güell, bonic."

Tal faràs…

2 quadros.

Estrena 14/08/1907.

Representada fins al 21/08/1907.

Lletra de Ferran Girbal i Jaume[56].

Música de Salvador Bartolí.

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

"Sala Mercè.— En aquest local se representa ara un interessant quadro plàstic musical que es titula Tal faràs.... La lletra, basada en un conte popular, és deguda a en Ferran Girbal Jaume i resulta molt ben adaptada al gust del públic habitual de la sala Mercè. El diàleg és fluid i l'acció ben portada, produint molt bon efecte pel sentiment que respira i per la lliçó moral que inclou.

La música del mestre Bartolí s'adapta perfectament a la lletra, com s'adapten les dues decoracions d'en Ros i Güell.

En conjunt, pot dir-se que el quadro produeix una emoció ben intensa."

"Tal faràs...— Visió musical en dos quadros, lletra de Ferran Girbal Jaume i música del Mtre. Bartolí.

D'una bonica faula sentenciosa, l'autor de *Tal faràs...*n'ha fet un quadro repelós, de mal gust i de pèssimes condicions artístiques. L'obreta la creiem tan dolenta que no val ni la pena de criticar-li els defectes. Malaguanyada música, malaguanyat gasto de decorat i malaguanyats mèrits dels artistes encarregats de l'execució. Ho sentim."

Mentides que no fan mal

1 quadre.

Estrena el 31/08/1907.

Representada fins al 20/09/1907.

Lletra de Josep Ribot i Martell.

Música del mestre Batista i Cretona.

"Sala Mercè.— Gran aconteixement: La tragèdia de Casa Blanca. Pel·lícula interessantíssima. S'aniran projectant així que arribin tots els fets més importants del Marroc. Dissabte, estrena del nou quadro Mentides que no fan mal. Aviat, estrena de noves pel·lícules del Marroc; programa interessant."

El Poble català 560 (29/08/1907), p. 4.

"Mentides que no fan mal.— Joguina còmic-lírica en un quadro, lletra de Josep Ribot i Martell, amb música de Batista i Cretona.

És una de les peces més boniques que s'han estrenat en aquesta casa. L'autor comença bé i acaba bé, de manera que fa cap i cua; no és com altres obres que al escórrer la cortina l'espectador ja veu el Cel rogent i diu entre sí: "Aquesta obreta portarà pluja o vent". No, senyors, no; veient Mentides que no fan mal, un hom passa cinc minuts fora del món, per lo que l'autor demostra que per fer comèdies té la mà trencada.

Motiva la joguina una nena, una innocència, que es complau dient mentides que no fan mal, però el seu papà l'amenaça de que traurà el Sant Cristo gros, perquè la nena creient que no es pot ser pobre ha xerrat dant-se llustre de ser de família rica. I etc., etc., continuen les escenes amb una vivor que encanta i s'acaba l'espectacle i el públic aplaudeix perquè l'obreta li plau força i fins el crític hi disfruta (això no cal dubtar-ho, perquè el diari ho porta).

La música és divertida, agermanant-se amb el llibret. L'execució, superior, a càrrec de les dames Srta. Guardia i nena Pilar Corbinos, i els actors Guardia i Marinel·lo."

Sala Mercè.— Rambla Estudis. Barcelona."

La Tralla 140 (02/11/1906), p. 4.

"A la Rambla dels Estudis, davant de la sala Mercè, hi ha posat un hermós fanal anunciador dels espectacles Graner. Consta d'un peu dret rematat amb una gran tarja, la qual queda il·luminada per tres precioses tulipes. L'estil decoratiu crida l'atenció per lo atrevit i nou, separant-se de tot lo vist fins ara. El material, que és ferro, ha sigut treballat a consciència, i el conjunt resulta tan vistós que ahir, primer dia de funcionar, no passava ningú que no s'hi aturés."

Obres anunciades que no s'estrenen

"Tenim notícies de que dintre poc s'estrenarà a la sala Mercè de Barcelona una visió musical que, sobre escenes de costums muntanyenques, ha compost el Mestre D. Joan B. Espadaler, quina lletra és original del nostre bon amic el poeta D. Anton Busquets i Punset, qual firma és prou coneguda i estimada dels lectors de Sometent.

No ens vindrà gens de nou un grandiós èxit als que coneixem al Mestre i al Poeta."

Sometent 62 (04/08/1906), p. 3.

"Rondalla: Visió poemàtica amb lletra d'Anton Busquets i Punset i música del mestre Espadaler. (En preparació per a la sala Mercè de Barcelona).

He restat sola, amb la partitura manuscrita en paper gruixut que fa olor de cola, oberta enfront dels ulls, dominant el vell teclat d'ivori.

Com folles, les munions de notes salten en llagrimetes negres, fent estranyes danses puntillades; pugen i baixen bruscament, s'enfilen amunt, amunt, i tornen a davallar en un desgranament de rosaris trencats; apar que fugin del pentagrama descolorit, ara en extensa i moguda farandola, donant-se totes les mans; després hi tornen a enquibrir-se en les cinc ratlles bessones, les unes aparellades; per grups atapeïts les altres, empaitant-se enjogassades... quiscunes solitàries, torçudes, interrogants; altres reposades, mostrant llurs arrodonides punxetes blanques, amb posat de gravetat, com traduint una impressió solemnial de majestuós llanguiment...

I omplen fulls i fulls d'aquell paper gruixit, d'un blanc blavós que fa olor de cola, les gaies farandoles que diuen cançons i melodies...

I aleshores, instintivament, em poso a pensar en el poeta i en el músic d'aquella fresca i atractívola Rondalla. També els veig donant-se les mans, poeta i músic ingenus, inspirats alhora, per a portar a nostres orelles de vilatans, els cants dels aucells, de les aigües i de les fulles, la poesia de les llegendes de l'antigor, que floreixen eternament a través dels segles, com els lliris de les valls del Càntic dels Càntics. [...]

Insensiblement incansables, els dits i la veu se'm tornen emmaridar, i un cop més repeteixo l'encisadora cançó:

Pastoreta, pastoreta, l'amor,
diga'm on ets,
diga'm on ets...

Oh, bonica i sanitosa Rondalla pels grans i pels infants... quin plaer m'has donat!

Poeta: mentre en el poblet voltat de verdejantes hortes fruiterenques exerciu placévolament vostre magisteri entre els petits pagesos confiats a vostres mans, per a fer-ne uns homes útils, aimants del Creador i de la seva Obra, del treball, de les llibertats de la Pàtria i de l'horta en què nasqueren, rebeu mos remerciments sincers.

Músic novell: jo vos saludo, car vostres cançons són suaus i dolces com la mel del romaní... Músic novell, inconegut amic: me diuen que no heu sortit gairebé mai de l'ensopit i prosaic ambient de vostra botigueta heterogènia de Sant Quirze, a on, doncs, heu anat a aprendre de cantar tan bellament? Aqueixes melodies tan fresques i boniques que han de fer l'encís de les orelles barcelonines, qui vos les ha inspirades? De quins rossinyols les heu aprés? [...]

Opinió sobre el teatre còmic i el género chico

"De aquelles visions

Amb la instal·lació de las visions en el Principal i en la sala Mercè un nou ambient ha vingut a comunicar el Sr. Graner a l'Escena catalana, però sols un ambient per recrear els ulls, ja que fiant més en l'art de la plàstica que en sos propis esforços, pocs llorers han aconseguit fins avui els autors, per haver cregut camí trillat escriure sonsament per l'escenògraf.

Mes d'aquelles primitives visions, adelantant més pel camí emprés, quant menys han fet de profitós arribar a tocar amb el dit el drama líric català, que té de ser el regenerador del gust per excel·lència, en mig d'aquest aire impur que ens envolta.

Diem tocar amb el dit, car totes las obres fins avui representades no han sigut sinó temptatives que embolcallades amb el títol de cançó, episodi, farsa o país de vano, han rendit tribut més aviat al género còmic que al género seriós i transcendental, algunes a punt de caure en la xabacaneria, devent, no obstant, fer honroses excepcions sobre determinades obretes saturades d'un humorisme encantador i que tenen tanta vàlua com el drama de tesi.

I ben de bat a bat que troba obertes las grans portes la lírica catalana. Per sobre la catifa d'aplaudiments que li reserva un públic ja iniciat, passejaran dintre poc nostres primers autors ses vivificants produccions, el músic omplirà amb inspiració el pentagrama, correrà per la tela el pinzell de l'escenògraf, sense el predomini d'un element més que altre, tots tres a l'uníson, tots tres agermanats, tots tres perseguint el mateix fi: la expressió del verdader art. Sols falta que els empresaris avencin les obres temps ha anunciades. Ja sentim, al pensar-hi, una esgarrifança de regeneració artística.

En quant a la sala Mercè, pot dir-se que aquelles primitives visions han vingut a convertir-se en un rudiment de Teatre educatiu dels infants, moral i català."

Pessebre de les grutes de la sala Mercè

"Una novedad en la sala Mercè que indudablemente llamará la atención del público. El director de la sala ha organizado en la gruta de la misma un Belén extraordinario, como no se ha visto probablemente ninguno todavía.

Toda la extensión de las grutas está ocupada por vistas corpóreas relativas al Nacimiento, la Anunciación, el Portal de Belén, la Adoración de los pastores y reyes de Oriente, la Huida a Egipto, etc.

Además del señor Graner, han trabajado en la ejecución y decoración de este Belén, los distinguidos artistas señores Ricardo Urgell, Eusebio Tolosa, Ros i Güell y otros.

Sera un espectáculo destinado a atraer al público durante las fiestas de Navidad."

La Vanguardia 12204 (20/12/1906), ed. matí, p. 5.

"[...] Les grutes que hi ha al mateix local s'han convertit en sa major part en artístic pessebre, veient-s'hi, a tall de diorama, diferents episodis del naixement de Jesucrist, tals com la caminada dels Reis de l'Orient, l'Anunciata, l'adoració dels pastors, la fugida a Egipte, etc., etc. Aquests episodis, presentats a tall de diorama, amb figures i trossos de paisatge corporis, són d'un hermós efecte, sent molt difícil, en gairebé totes les vistes, distingir lo que té relleu de lo que és pintat.

Les grutes han estat repintades amb tons metàl·lics i engalanades amb plantes verdes, ademés d'haver-se augmentat la il·luminació. En la reforma de les grutes, feta baix la direcció general del mateix Graner, hi ha intervingut amb molt acert els artistes Ricard Urgell, Tolosa, Ros i Güell, Domingo Soler i altres, mereixent tots bons elogis."

"El pesebre catalanista

No necesitamos nosotros poner en ridículo a los catalanistas; se bastan ellos solos y se sobran. Desde hace quince días que Barcelona ve pegados en las esquinas unas grandes tiras en papel en las que un "Salón" catalanista anuncia lo siguiente: "Inauguración de un gran pesebre." ¿No es asombroso que al comenzar el siglo XX, en Barcelona, la ciudad más culta e importante de España, coloquen carteles tan estúpidos como estas gentes que se dicen las más europeizadas? ¿No se presta la cosa a tomar el pelo en todas direcciones a estos mentecatos?

La filosofía de los hechos dice claro que los catalanistas son reaccionarios en ideas y antiestéticos en arte. Su teatro (no nos referimos a Romea, que es catalán), ñoño, infantil, bíblico, vive en plena Edad Media, y como suprema gloria aspira a reproducir los famosos autos sacramentales y a tener por escenario las iglesias. Así como un día sacan a luz el Belén, otro la noche de Reyes, otro las desacreditadas calderas de Pere Botero y otro, en fin, inauguran un gran pesebre. ¡Bien lo merecen los imbéciles que acuden a semejante reclamo!

Por supuesto que vale la pena de tomar en serio el asunto y de que se sepa que esto es obra jesuítica. Así verá el curioso observador que malgaste unos reales qué publiquito acude al espectáculo. Curas, burgueses, niñas cursis y pollos melenudos forman el auditorio.

Y así se explica que se pongan obritas como El mal rico, El conde de l'Arnau y otras que huelen a incienso, que apestan y que debieran ser representadas en el teatrito de la Universidad católica de Deusto, donde solo son hombres los que representan y se visten de mujer cuando el papel lo exige. Cierto es que más sirven para hembras que para varones. Vayan, vayan todos al pessebre (así con dos eses) catalanista.

"Sala Mercè

La acción que realiza Graner en la sala Mercè es altamente moralizadora y profundamente patriótica. Y decimos Graner a secas sin aditamento alguna de don ni siquiera señor, como decimos Blay, Gaudí, porque Graner es un verdadero artista en la genuina acepción de la palabra.

Antes de inaugurar al primer cinematófono que tuvo España en su sala Mercè, su nombre era bien conocido por los hermosos cuadros refrendados con su firma que sorprenden por los toques mágicos de luz con que los ilumina. Es el pintor de la luz artificial; la derrama en sus lienzos con tal naturalidad que se toma por real; el realismo de Velázquez en la figura Graner lo consigue en la luz.

Esta cualidad es la que utiliza en la tramoya del escenario para dar mayores dimensiones al local y más efecto a los cuadros plásticos con que complementa las visiones cinematográficas. Esta misma cualidad propia suya, poderosamente auxiliada con la luz difusa de invisibles focos eléctricos, es la que emplea en la exhibición de los panoramas y dioramas, que estos días ofrece a la contemplación del culto pueblo barcelonés, dándoles una perspectiva admirable. Son estas vistas episodios del Nacimiento de Jesús, como el viaje de los Reyes Magos, la anunciación del Ángel a los pastores, la huida a Egipto, el portal de Belén y la Adoración.

En todas ellas es imposible distinguir la línea divisoria entre el horizonte lejano pintado en el lienzo y el campo de visión situado en primer término, la plasticidad de los relieves se continua insensiblemente de un modo perfecto por medio de la pintura con los paisajes más distantes, en el detalle más insignificante, en la colocación por ejemplo accidental de una figura aparece la mano diestra del artista que concibe el conjunto del cuadro y lo realiza perfectamente tal como de antemano lo preconcibiere.

En la Adoración llama extraordinariamente la atención del visitante aquel singularísimo firmamento tachonado de constelaciones de centelleantes estrellas de distintas magnitudes lanzadas asimétricamente sobre el fondo de un cielo azul intensamente turquí iluminado de una claridad inexplicable que permite distinguir perfectamente los objetos sin que por esto pierda el distintivo de cielo nocturno ofreciendo un simpático contraste con los tornos semi-irisados de luz viva que se proyecta sobre el portal en ruinas. Hay que visitarlo pues es imposible una descripción exacta.

Las instalaciones están en la planta baja convertida en una grande gruta de estalactitas y estalagmitas en columna que me recuerda la de Fingal, subdividida irregularmente en otras para darle mayor variedad; las columnas salpicadas con arte de toques metálicos presentan finísimo cendal de relente crepuscular que les da el aspecto de la humedad propia de las grutas.

Continue el señor Graner la meritoria labor de educar deleitando con la variada selección de películas que hace girar ante nuestros ojos; siga cerrando siempre la sesión con el insustituible cuadro plástico ora de costumbre catalanas, ora sobre motivos legendarios, ya de asuntos históricos, ya en fin de creencias religiosas y pasos de la vida de Jesús; si uno es bueno, el siguiente es mejor; siga alternando los patrios con los religiosos, así seguirá la acción de moralizar y hacer buenos patriotas y Barcelona seguirá también prodigándole sus aplausos contribuyendo al éxito que no con escaso esfuerzo se logra.

Mil plácemes por todos y muy especialmente por el último Jesús es nat.

Mort de Mercè Viola, que va iniciar carrera a la sala Mercè

“Mercè Viola

La Viola, aquella petita artista per la qual l’escenari de la sala Mercè semblava fet exprés, ha mort. Aquella seva figureta menuda i simpàtica que es movia gentilment per a fer més expressiu el cant, s’hi fa ja enyorar.

Cap més com ella podrà fer A la voreta del mar, La cova de las serps i altres produccions semblants guanyant tanta simpatia al públic; cap més com ella sabrà en les darreres hores dels dies de festa treballar amb la mateixa fe, cantar amb el mateix gust que al començar, i això que aquelles deu o dotze seccions són capaces de cansar i avorrir no ja a una nena tot just dona com era la Viola, sinó a l’artista més resistent.

La Viola vivia per cantar. Era el seu deliri, no deixava un sol dematí d’anar a casa el mestre a aprendre més; no deixava una sola festa del conservatori sense aportar-hi el seu concurs. En el fi del curs passat l’haurien vista contenta entre els mestres d’aquella casa, riallera amb les seves condeixebles, cantant quan li tocava el torn, abillada amb colors clars, perdent-se la seva figureta menuda i escaient en la immensitat de l’escenari del Gran Teatre.

Aquesta temporada en Graner semblava haver-la destinada al Principal. La seva veu havia guanyat i la força de la seva afició la feia salvar qualsevol dificultat. [...] Una noia bonica que cantava amb art, que declamava amb gust, que treballava amb afany, que era ingènua i afectuosa, que no s’havia encomanat encara les enveges i malícies dels escenaris, que considerava els autors i sentia com a pròpies les pèrdues de l’empresa; aquesta era la pobreta Viola que varen enterrar la tarda del passat dissabte uns quants amics i companys que l’estimaren i que no l’oblidaran mai.”

Reformes d'acord amb la nova normativa municipal

"Ahir matí concorregueren al despatx del governador varis dels propietaris de cinematògrafs qui aquest havia cridat per a parlar-los de la necessitat de que els llocs d'espectacles se posin en condicions legals de funcionament.

Tots els propietaris se varen fer càrrec de la justícia de les observacions que els va fer el senyor Ossorio i van mostrar-se molt correctes i propicis a secundar les disposicions governatives.

En virtut d'aquestes disposicions, el cinematògraf París de la Rambla del Centre quedarà tancat des d'avui dilluns, el Clavé de la Rambla deixarà de funcionar el primer d'agost, els de Bonavista i Variedades del carrer Bonavista de Gràcia van pregar que se'ls deixés aprofitar la festa major de dita barriada i els fou concedit que no tanquessin fins al 17 del mes entrant, atenuant-los així els perjudicis de tancament, i el de la plaça Tetuan, que és del mateix amo que el Salón Variedades de Gràcia, funcionarà fins al 16 d'agost.

El cinematògraf Napoleón està tancat actualment i se li va notificar al propietari que no podrà tornar a obrir sense que se compleixin els requisits legals. No varen acudir els propietaris del Palacio de la ilusión i Sala Mercè i se'ls ha citat per a avui d'onze a dotze del matí. Demà, dimarts, el governador, acompanyat de l'arquitecte provincial, girarà una visita inspectora al Pabellón Soriano del Paralelo, per a veure si reuneix les condicions legals i autoritzar o prohibir que actuï segons lo que resulti de la visita. La visita es farà a les nou del matí."

La Veu de Catalunya 2969 (29/07/1907), ed. vespre, p. 6.

"Els propietaris dels cinematògrafs Sala Mercè i Palau de la Il·lusió anaren ahir al Govern civil manifestant al senyor Ossorio que tenen intenció de tancar els esmentats locals el 10 d'agost, amb l'objecte de fer-hi algunes obres de restauració, i que, aprofitant aquesta clausura, podran fer-se les necessàries visites d'inspecció per a posar-se en les condicions reglamentàries, doncs fins ara sols tenien permisos provisionals."

Pel·lícules sobre els esdeveniments al Marroc

"A la sala Mercè ha començat a donar-se la informació cinematogràfica dels successos del Marroc amb una interessant pel·lícula, primera d'una sèrie que s'anirà donant segons el curs dels aconteixements."

El Poble català 552 (21/08/1907), p. 2.

"Gran aconteixement. La tragèdia de Casablanca. Pel·lícula interessantíssima. S'aniran projectant, així que arribin, tots els fets més importants del Marroc."

El Poble català 555 (24/08/1907), p. 4.

"La sala Mercè ha rebut dos telegrames del Marroc anunciant que un operador instal·lat a Casablanca i a Tànger acaba d'impressionar dues pel·lícules sobre temes d'actualitat militar, que dins pocs dies se projectaran en aquella sempre concorreguda sala d'espectacles."

El Poble català 559 (28/08/1907), p. 2.

"Ahir a la tarda es va estrenar a la sala Mercè una nova pel·lícula dels successos del Marroc, interessantíssima, ja que ademés de veure's els efectes del bombardeig de Casablanca, s'hi veuen les bateries franceses maniobrant contra la cavalleria marroquina a la batalla del 18 d'agost i altres notables incidents de l'actual conflicte. Dita pel·lícula està magníficament presa pels operadors de la casa Warwic que París té al Marroc."

Temporada 1907/08

La temporada 1907/08 va començar el 12 de setembre amb la inauguració d'una nova remodelació de les grutes soterrànies. La nova instal·lació comptava amb un gegant del Pi autòmat i uns nanos dansants. L'inici de l'activitat teatral va tenir lloc el dia 21 amb l'estrena de Rialles i ploralles. Els títols estrenats a inici de temporada deixen entreveure que la línia de programació continuava la tendència de l'anterior: visions musicals còmiques (com ara Rialles i ploralles), morals (com Ensenyança domèstica) alternades amb algunes tradicionals glosses de cançons populars (L'hostal de la Peira). Cal destacar que la música de les tres és de Joan B. Lambert, persona molt propera al director artístic.

Tot i la disposició de l'empresa de continuar la seva activitat, al setembre es van començar a anunciar noves mesures municipals destinades a les sales de cinematògrafs. Els incendis que venien succeint de manera habitual a les sales d'espectacles ja havia fet que l'ajuntament requerís reformes i remodelacions arquitectòniques a les sales per assegurar la sortida en cas d'emergència i evitar les aglomeracions. En aquest cas, es demanava la prohibició de representacions escèniques a sales de cinematògraf. "Totes aquelles que exigeixin adornos, decorat, [i] joc de llums", és a dir, l'element principal de les visions musicals. A més, es prohibia els fossats per als músics a les sales de cinematògraf.

Al novembre s'arribarien a prohibir oficialment les representacions escèniques a diverses sales de cinematògraf, incloent-hi la sala Mercè. L'última producció anunciada abans de la prohibició, Se n'ha de venir de mena, no es va arribar a estrenar. Tot i això, la sala va continuar oberta i activa.

El pis principal va continuar amb la seva programació cinematogràfica i va incrementar la publicitat als diaris i l'anunci dels nous títols estrenats, molts exclusius o enregistrats per encàrrec de la sala. Destacaven les pel·lícules d'esdeveniments d'actualitat, documentals, esportives i de ficció còmica. Però l'atractiu principal van ser les grutes del soterrani, on Lluís Graner va poder continuar dissenyant instal·lacions artístiques.

Després del típic Gran Pessebre que instal·lava cada Nadal, Graner va anunciar un nou gran projecte a les grutes: "El Palau de la Sirena". Es van col·locar a les grutes, segons la premsa, dotze tones de vidre i cristall que, amb diferents focus i bombetes de diferents colors i intensitats, creaven tot un joc òptic de llums i reflexos. Una estàtua de fusta representava la Sirena i una sèrie de bestioles i dimoniets formaven la seva cort.

Per altra banda, els actors que actuaven a la sala Mercè sí que van haver de marxar de la sala. Durant la resta de la temporada van dedicar-se a fer diferents itineràncies i a portar les visions musicals de la sala Mercè, nom que servia com a reclam publicitari, per altres ciutats i pobles catalans.

L'activitat de la sala Mercè sota la direcció de Lluís Graner va durar fins al 1910, quan el pintor va anunciar el seu traspàs.

Catàleg de visions musicals representades

Rialles i ploralles

1 quadre.

Estrena el 21/09/1907.

Representada fins al 04/10/1907.

Lletra de Pere Buxareu.

Música de Joan B. Lambert.

"Sala Mercè.— Èxit grandiós del nou quadro Rialles i ploralles, programa extraordinàriament interessant.

Grandiós èxit de la nova pel·lícula dels successos del Marroc, amb efectes del Bombeig de Casablanca i la batalla del 18 d'agost; per primera vegada en cinematografia una batalla autèntica.

Èxit grandiós de les Grutes meravelloses, completament reformades, espectacle únic al món."

El Poble català 584 (22/09/1907), p. 3.

"A la sala Mercè s'hi ha estrenat Rialles i ploralles, quadret bon xic innocentó, però que plau a la concurrència. El intel·ligent mestre Sr. Lambert, que hi ha posat solfes, ho ha fet amb delicat gust; lo que vol dir que hi haurà rialles per bon temps i no gaires ploralles com se suposa. Els artistes, ajustats a aquell escenari de marc reduït. Les pel·lícules són molt xamoses, variant-se tot sovint."

L'Avi 55 (25/09/1907), p. 4.

"Sala Mercè.— En estos últimos días se ha puesto em aquel pequeño escenario una visión musical titulada Rialles i ploralles, letra de D. Pedro Buxareu y música del Mtro. Lambert.

Los autores han estado muy felices en su labor artística, pues no es solo la gente menuda la que disfruta y comenta las peripecias y episodios que contiene el cuadro, sino que también hace las delicias de los mayores.

El Sr. Buxareu ha sabido encontrar un asunto original al que ha ensarzado fragmentos de culto literario y gran derroche de gracia.

El Mtro. Lambert no le ha ido a la zaga, pues los numeritos que ha compuesto son en extremo airosos y agradables.

Los actores desempeñaron con gran cariño el cuadro y el público que sabe apreciar la labor de autores y artistas, con sus aplausos y risas, rinde justo tributo a todos ellos y convierte la visión en un ruidoso éxito."

La Publicidad 4101 (27/09/1907), ed. nit, p. 3.

"Ploralles i rialles.— Esbós de drama en un quadro, lletra de P. Buxareu, música del Mtre. Lambert.

Llàstima d'energies que exposa l'autor per un assumpto tan infantívol i tan poca cosa com és aquest quadro. La protagonista és massa gran per fer tantes criaturades i, si les fa, mereix un bon bolet del senyor Mestre en la segona escena i prou, vaja un descaro!

Que fent-ho així ja no hi haurà motiu de fer l'esbós? I què? I hauríem perdut res, per ventura?

De tots modos, aconsoli's l'autor, que altres esbossos s'han representat en aquest escenari que han fet riure i plorar més que les seves rialles i ploralles.

El número musical no està malament... ni hi fa cap falta."

La Escena catalana 52 (28/09/1907), p. 2.

"Sala Mercè.— En aquest afavorit local se representa amb extraordinari èxit un quadret titulat Rialles i ploralles, original del nostre benvolgut company Pere Buxareu, amb música d'en Lambert.

El quadret encaixa en un tot a manera de ser d'aquell escenari, obtenint una acció senzilla i vibrant alhora, de la que se'n treu una preciosa lliçó moral.

Tractant-se d'en Buxareu, no cal dir que el diàleg és pintoresc i viu, donant una bella impressió de naturalitat.

El número musical que hi ha posat en Lambert és inspirat i agradós a l'orella."

La Veu de Catalunya 3032 (30/09/1907), ed. vespre, p. 2.

Ensenyança domèstica

Estrena el 05/10/1907.

Representada fins al 25/10/1907.

Lletra de Josep Ribot i Garlopa.

Música de Joan B. Lambert.

"Sala Mercè.— Dissabte, estrena del nou quadro Ensenyança domèstica. Programa extraordinàriament interessant.

Estrena d'una nova pel·lícula del Marroc: Empresonament del bajà de Casablanca a bordo del gran corassat francès Du-Chaila.

Èxit grandiós de les Grutes meravelloses, completament reformades, espectacle únic al món."

El Poble català 595 (03/10/1907), p. 4.

"Ensenyança domèstica.— Joguina en un acte, vers i prosa, lletra de Josep Ribot i Garlopa, amb música del Mtre. Lambert.

Al ressenyar fa poques setmanes una altra producció d'aquest mateix autor novell, ja exposàrem nostre parer vers les bones condicions que posseeix per cultivar l'escena.

Diàleg xispejant, escenes interessants, descripció de tipus i sobre tot ràpides en l'acció; tot això conté l'última peça estrenada pel Sr. Marinel·lo, apreciable actor, que sap emmotllar-se als tipus que se li confien; la Srta. Guardia, notable dama jove i les nenes Corbinos i Mora, que posseeixen excel·lents qualitats artístiques, poques vegades admirades en infants sortits de l'ou. I consti que aquest elogi el fem amb recansa, puig no som aimants de que els petits infants trepitgin les taules d'un escenari, fent treball tan penós com el que produeixen les funcions diàries de la sala Mercè.

El Mtre. Lambert, mot bé, sobretot el duo que és digne d'una comèdia grossa."

La Escena catalana 55 (19/10/1907), p. 3.

Hostal de la Peira, L' [57]

1 quadre.

Estrena el 26/10/1907.

Representada fins al 07/11/1907.

Lletra de Feliu Santem.

Música de Joan B. Lambert[58].

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

"Basado en la canción popular L'hostal de la Peira, D. Felip Santan ha escrito un cuadrito dramático que se ha estrenado con éxito en la sala Mercè y que reúne las condiciones exigibles en esta clase de producciones. El maestro Lambert ha compuesto una partitura ingenua y expresando las situaciones del libreto. La decoración del señor Ros i Güell merece asimismo elogios.

En dicho local se exhiben unas películas que reproducen admirablemente lo desastres causados por las inundaciones de Cataluña."

Diario de Barcelona 302 (29/10/1907), ed. matí, p. 12735.

El Poble català 622 (30/10/1907), p. 4.

"Sala Mercè.— El sábado último se estrenó en esta concurrida sala una "visión" dramática en un acto, inspirada en la canción popular L'hostal de la Peyra. La obrita tiene momentos dramáticos que interesan, conservando el carácter legendario de la canción. El autor, que oculta modestamente su nombre tras un pseudónimo, se ha visto admirablemente secundado por el maestro Lambert, que ha escrito unos números de música inspirados, llenos de sabor local y construidos armónicamente con notable tecnicismo. L'hostal de la Peyra durará ciertamente en cartel."

La Publicidad [10354] (30/10/1907), p. 4.

[57] També apareix sovint escrit "Peyra".
[58] Basada en la cançó popular del mateix nom.

"Sala Mercè.— Amb extraordinari èxit se representa en aquest local un quadro titulat L'hostal de la Peira, degut a en Feliu Santem i posat en música pel mestre Lambert.

Dintre el gènere que se sol representar en aquell escenari, L'hostal de la Peira és una de les obres més acabades i fermes, tant per la part literària com per la musical.

Poeta i músic han glosat la cançó popular, i ho han fet tots dos amb veritable acert, produint una obreta emocionant i suggestiva en extrem.

La combinació escènica és ben trobada i el decorat d'en Ros i Güell de força efecte."

"Sala Mercè.— Últims dies del quadro de gran èxit L'hostal de la Peira.—Dissabte, dia 9, estrena del non quadro Se n'ha de venir de mena[59]—Programa extraordinari de pel·lícules —Èxit grandiós de les Grutes meravelloses. completament reformades, espectacle únic al mon."

Diario de Barcelona 311 (07/11/1907), p. 13162.

"L'hostal de la Peira*.— Visió musical en un quadro, lletra de Feliu Santem i música del Mtre. Lambert.

De la cançó popular, amb algun variant, sense dubte per la combinació del personal de la casa, l'autor ha sapigut fer-ne una bonica visió que pot comptar-se entre les bones en son gènere.

El Mtre. Lambert, sempre inspirat, ha combinat unes solfes que s'escolten amb atenció, per lo que són dignes d'elogi.

La interpretació molt justa, a càrrec de les senyoretes Guardia i Cuitart, els actors Guardia i Marinel·lo i un cantant quin nom sentim desconèixer. En Ros i Güell, escenògraf, també s'hi ha lluït."

La Escena catalana 58 (09/11/1907), p. 2.

[59] L'obra no s'arribaria a estrenar perquè aquest va ser l'últim dia de representacions teatrals a la sala Mercè abans de la seva prohibició definitiva per part de la Junta d'espectacles.

Inauguració de les grutes

"Con brillantísimo éxito se han inaugurado las grutas de la sala Mercè completamente reformadas, las cuales constituyen un espectáculo nuevo y único en Barcelona.

El público que las invadió celebró extraordinariamente las muchas atracciones y sorpresas de que están llenas las citadas grutas, tales como el teatro mecánico en su gran variedad de transformaciones, la danza de enanos, el Gigante del Pi, de imponente aspecto y rica vestidura que regala joyas y juguetes a todos sus visitantes etc., etc.

Todo Barcelona desfilará por estas maravillosas grutas."

El Noticiero Universal 6866 (13/09/1907), p. 2.

"Ja estan inaugurades a la sala Mercè les grutes, que constitueixen un espectacle únic i nou a Barcelona.

El teatre mecànic en la seva gran varietat de transformacions, la dansa de nanos, el gegant del Pi, d'imposant aspecte i magníficament vestit, obsequia amb joguines i joies a tots els visitants i altres atraccions i sorpreses varen obtenir un gran èxit al fer-se la inauguració.

És de creure que tot Barcelona desfilarà per aquestes meravelloses grutes."

Remodelacions arquitectòniques dictades per la Junta de Teatres

"A las cinco de la tarde ayer se reunió en uno de los salones del Gobierno civil la Junta consultiva de teatros a la que asistió el diputado provincial D. Jaime Brutau.

Presidió breves momentos la Junta el Sr. Ossorio, yéndose después a Caldetas. Se acordó hacer suyos los dictámenes que son voluminosos, emitidos por los arquitectos provincial y municipal en lo relativo a las reformas que habrán de realizar en los teatros Eldorado y Granvía.

También acordó aprobar el dictamen del arquitecto provincial relativo a la sala Mercè, Palacio de la Ilusión, salón Clavé, salón de Proyecciones, salón de Variedades, cinematógrafo de la plaza de Tetuán y teatro de verano de San Martín."

La Publicidad [10304] (10/09/1907), ed. matí, p. 4.

"La Junta de teatros ha dispuesto se ejecuten obras de ensanche de escaleras, construcción de otra, arreglo de puertas de salida y aumento del número de estas en los teatros Eldorado y Gran Vía. En este, además, otro pasillo en las butacas. Y después, que se instalen bocas de riego y mangueras, se ensanchen los pasillos y se modifiquen las actuales puertas en la Sala Mercè, Palacio de la Ilusión, Salón Clavé, Sala de Proyecciones, Salón Variedades, Cinematógrafo de la Plaza de Tetuán y teatro de verano de San Martín de Provensals.

Faltan los demás teatros y los barracones, con honores de coliseo, del Paralelo, que necesitan seria inspección."

"El gobernador civil visitó la sala Mercè, observando que aún no se han efectuado algunas de las obras que mandó se hicieran la Junta de Espectáculos; en vista de ello, llamó al propietario, ordenándole que las realice y dándole para ello un plazo que termina el 10 del próximo mes."

La Vanguardia 12511 (28/10/1907), ed. matí, p. 2.

"En el Govern civil se reuní ahir, a les sis de la tarda, baix la presidència del senyor Ossorio, la Junta consultiva d'espectacles, adoptant-se els següents acords:

La Junta se declarà d'acord amb la mida ja presa pel governador de tancar el teatre Líric (abans Delícies) per no reunir les condicions necessàries.

S'aprovaren les obres que l'arquitecte provincial proposa que es facin en els teatres Liceu, Circo Barcelonès i Comtal.

Per lo que toca als locals anomenats sala Mercè, La Maravilla i sala Balmes, se decidí que facin les obres que se'ls hi ha manat i que se'ls prohibeixi tota representació teatral, és a dir, totes aquelles que exigeixin adornos, decorat, joc de llums i demés detalls que puguin disminuir les condicions de seguretat dels esmentats llocs, únicament disposats per a cinematògrafs.

[...] Últimament, i tenint en compte una reclamació del Sindicat Musical, s'acordà ordenar a les empreses que no col·loquin als professors de les orquestres quasi sota els escenaris com algunes ho han fet per a guanyar espai i destinar-lo a rengleres de butaques, sinó en forma que estiguin en condicions higièniques."

[60] La mateixa notícia apareix també en castellà a El Diluvio 303 (30/10/1907), ed. matí, p. 12.

“El governador ha recorregut aquest matí algunes sales d’espectacles per a veure si s’havien complert les ordres sobre reformes en els locals per a la seguretat dels concurrents.

Ha visitat els cinematògrafs Varietats, plaça de Tetuan, sala Mercè, Eden Concert, Gran Peña i Alcázar Español. En alguns diu que hi ha trobat deficiències, que donaran lloc a la imposició d’alguna multa.”

Fi de les representacions teatrals per decisió de la Junta d’Espectacles “Per acord de la Junta d’espectacles, des del dijous van deixar de representar-se en la sala Mercè aquelles hermoses visions musicals que li van donar tanta vida.

Pel mateix acord també aquests dies hauran suspès les representacions teatrals en la sala Balmes i en La Maravilla, i vagin fent llista amb les que aniran suspenent-se per dita Junta la setmana entrant i successives.

Malgrat això, no creiem que vagi més gent als teatres que la que hi va, ni que la Societat d’Autors de Madrid augmenti la recaudació.”

La Escena catalana 58 (09/11/1907), p. 7.

“Distingits concurrents a les funcions de la sala Mercè deploraven ahir l’ordre governativa per la qual s’ha prohibit presentar les visions musicals, gènere ideat per l’artista Lluís Graner amb què s’acaben les seccions cinematogràfiques que es donen en aquell favorescut local.

Planyin-se aquells concurrents de la prohibició d’un espectacle que tant com una diversió de la vista, era una lliçó moral. Nosaltres sabem que al senyor Graner se li consentiria presentar números de varietats, balls, pantomimes, exhibicions femenines que tan s’estilen en altres establiments. Però ni el senyor Graner, ni el públic morigerat que acut a la sala Mercè consentirien altre espectacle per a final de les seccions que un que no fos impregnat de la més estricta moral.

Per això és que l’empresari d’aquella sala, senyor Graner, té el propòsit de substituir amb visions cinematogràfiques les suprimides per ordre governativa, fent que el fi moral que dit senyor se proposava amb aquelles se consegueixi amb les noves pel·lícules d’aquí endavant se posaran.”

"En la reunió que tingué lloc el dilluns la Junta de teatres, van prendre's nous acords referent a la suspensió de les representacions teatrals en diferents locals petits, sent fins al present els perjudicats, si mal no recordem, catorze, o sigui: Olimpia, Delicias, Montera, Buenavista, Iris, Tetuan, Clavé, Poliorama, sala Balmes, Meravella, Frederich Soler, saló Arnau, Modernista i sala Mercè."

Inauguració del Gran Pessebre

"Ayer se inauguró en la favorecida sala Mercè el consuetudinario Pessebre, artísticamente dispuesto por los pintores Sres. Ricardo Urgell y Ros i Güell. El "belén" se compone de tres fragmentos, llamando singularmente la atención la Anunciación a los pastores. La concurrencia es aún más numerosa que de ordinario y el éxito merecido."

La Publicidad 10407 (22/12/1907), ed. matí, p. 4.

"El Gran Pessebre estrenat a la sala Mercè és digne de ser vist per tot Barcelona. És dels més importants de quants se n'han fet a dita sala i interessant per tots conceptes. El quadro que respresenta el naixement de Jesús és ple de poesia: La fugida a Egipte és una troballa d'artista. L'anunciata és molt ben disposada i la Masia catalana té una gran força de suggestió.

Han treballat en dit pessebre, a més del director de la sala Mercè i Graner, els distingits artistes Urgell, Ros i Güell i Escalas. Cal que tothom el vagi a veure."

El Palau de la Sirena a les grutes

"Sala Mercè.— En Graner ja està a punt d'inaugurar un nou espectacle a les coves. Ara ha pensat fer un palau d'una sirena i fa dies que té treballant una brigada d'obrers i artífex que convertiran en estada meravellosa de sota mar un tros de sota terra. I allí llum, i allí vidres de tots colors i de totes formes. De cristalleria sol n'hi haurà en el palau de la sirena unes dotze tonelades. I entre aquell esclat de clarors i lluïssors, se bellugaran una pila d'espia-dimonis gegantins i altres bestioles, totes transparents, formant la cort de la sirena.

Nosaltres, indiscrets, hem aconseguit ovirar els treballs fets fins ara i ens sembla que l'espectacle serà esplèndid. Avui ho comprovarem, car avui s'inaugura."

La Veu de Catalunya 3199 (19/03/1908), ed. matí, p. 2.

La Publicidad 10498 (21/03/1908), ed. matí, p. 4.

"[...] Y fui Rambla arriba sin guardar rencor alguno del señor Riera, entrando para desentumecerme en la sala Mercè, porque me habían hablado de una gruta maravillosa en donde mora una sirena y, como en el fondo de todos nosotros duerme siempre el niño, a ver la sirena fui. No me pesó, porque el espectáculo está admirablemente combinado de reflejos luminosos, y creo que, si en lugar de aquella sirena de madera se pone allí una dama joven al par que honesta, que las hay, el éxito sería indiscutiblemente mayor entre el sexo fuerte. […]"

El Diluvio 82 (22/03/1908), ed. matí, p. 14.

"El Palau de la Sirena, muntat per en Graner a les coves, resulta com ja suposàvem, un espectacle digne de ser vist. És cosa nova, rica de llum i colors. Resulta una visió de somni, en la que la varietat de reflexes lluminosos i l'esclat dels tons més diversos produeixen goig extraordinari als ulls. I els mil i mil raigs de claror que s'escapen per tot arreu se reflexen en les aigües mortes del pla terrer i en les que davallen en cascada a l'entorn de la figura de la sirena que ocupa el fons del "palau". El nou espectacle de la sala Mercè és, doncs, cosa digna de cridar l'atenció de tots els aficionats a espectacles de meravella."

La Veu de Catalunya 3205 (24/03/1908), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"[...] Ara mateix s'ha empescat a les coves de la sala Mercè una mena de Palau de la Sirena que sembla que un se trobi somniant. Allà colors, allà llum, allà cristalls. Sembla que en la construcció del tal palau hi han entrat dotze tonelades de vidreria. Segons una persona curiosa i aficionada a les estadístiques, si jo hagués nat en temps del primer faraó i encara visqués, comptant que hagués trencat un vidre de les ulleres cada dia per altre cosa gens exagerada per altra part tindria avui encara prou material vidrer per a que no m'haguessin de mancar ulleres fins d'aquí que s'hagin descobert tots els autors de les bombes. Ja veuen si n'hi ha de vidres. I la sirena també hi és, no es pensin. I encara hi ha altres coses. [...]

"Sala Mercè.— Avui, dissabte de Glòria, estrena a les grutes de diferents novetats continuant el Palau de la Sirena, que obté més èxit cada dia. Programa extraordinari de pel·lícules La nina dormida al bosc, Entrevista del Rei d'Itàlia i l'Emperador d'Alemanya a Venecia, Joguina perillosa, Una visita a Stockolm, Telegrames d'última hora i altres estrenes."

Selecció d'anuncis de pel·lícules

"El que vulgui conèixer al bajà de Casablanca, aquell famós personatge maula i trapasser, que per voler estar bé amb moros i cristians va ser causa primordial dels sagnants successos allí ocorreguts, no té més que fer que anar a la sala Mercè, on veurà una pel·lícula en la que apareix l'al·ludit bribó, pres a bordo del Du Chayla. Com que està molta estona davant del públic, aquest fins se'l pot aprendre de memòria. Abans de sortir el bajà, apareixen varis escamots de gumiers, o siguin, moros de la part d'Algèria, que s'ofereixen a servir voluntàriament a les ordres dels quefes francesos en temps de guerra, però no com a soldats regimentats, sinó com a patuleia armada. La pel·lícula és molt ben treta i resulta d'una actualitat summament interessant."

La Veu de Catalunya 3034 (03/11/1907), ed. matí, p. 4.

"[...] A on sembla que fan pel·lícules noves i hermoses de debò és a can Graner; no hi ha dia que la sala Mercè no es vegi plena a curull. Això és causa que Don Lluís no escatimi la presentació de vistes, totes xamoses ja siguin còmiques o series. I va un públic que, a més d'ésser escollit, aparta de les xavacanades que es fan en tot això de sala Balmes, Poliorama, Beliògraf, Palacios de Ilusiones i altres ximpleries per l'estil. Val la pena d'anar-hi.

"A la sala Mercè s'ha estrenat una interessant pel·lícula reproduint la catàstrofe de Riudecanyes. La claredat amb què és representada permet formar-se perfecte càrrec del lloc on va succeir tan terrible desgràcia, així com el tristíssim aspecte que oferia l'acte d'ésser enterrades les víctimes a Cambrils."

"Interessantíssima resulta la pel·lícula del casament de l'infant don Carles de Borbón, estrenada ahir a la sala Mercè. Per la claredat amb què està presentada se pot formar el públic perfecte càrrec de la magnificència de la festa, dels riquíssims trajos i uniformes dels reis i prínceps assistents a l'acte celebrat a Wood-Norten."

"Ahir a la tarda es va estrenar a la sala Mercè una pel·lícula verdaderament sensacional, treta directament de la darrera cursa de cavalls Grand Steeple Chase. El moment de l'arrancada dels cavalls produeix verdadera impressió, que va en augment a l'arribar els cavalls davant d'un obstacle que són pocs el que el vencen. Dinou són els cavalls a la sortida, quedant-se solament quatre al fi de l'accidentada cursa que el públic segueix amb molt interès."

"Sala Mercè.— Gran aconteixement. La més sensacional pel·lícula que s'ha vist en el món hípic, La gran cursa de cavalls de 1907. Deu caigudes sensacionals, algunes d'elles mortals; èxit de la Màquina voladora única a Espanya, Hipnotisme en acció, Compra desgraciada i altres estrenes. "Ahir se va estrenar a la sala Mercè una pel·lícula sensacional. Se refereix a la terrible topada de trens que fa pocs dies ocorregué a Itàlia, xocant l'exprés de Milan-Roma amb el ràpid de Pavia, de qual catàstrofe varen resultar 50 morts i 20 ferits. Se veu detalladament la gran destrossa que es produí, i com se recordarà en el ràpid de Pavia hi anaven infinitat de senadors i diputats que es dirigien a Roma."

"Uno de los espectáculos más emocionantes que se exhiben actualmente es, sin duda, la película que en la sala Mercè puede verse diariamente de la gran carrera de automóviles ligeros celebrada en el circuito de Dieppe.

Los numerosos accidentes ocurridos en la carrera, algunos de lamentables consecuencias, hacen que la película sea vista con verdadero interés por el público que acude a la sala Mercè."

Pel·lícules de la sala Mercè a altres cinematògrafs

"El dijous passat, festa de l'Ascensió, en el manicomi de Sant Boi de Llobregat s'hi celebrà una festa recreativa de les que sovint se donen en aquella casa a l'objecte de fer menys pesada la vida dels pobres malalts que allí tenen la seva estada.

Els religiosos germans de Sant Joan de Déu, a quin zel estan encomanats aquells asilats, han pogut organitzar entre aquestos una espècie de banda que alterna perfectament amb les representacions escèniques, però l'atractiu principal de la festa de referència no fou les representacions teatrals, ni la música, sinó la inauguració d'un cinematògraf en el que s'hi exhibiren hermossíssimes pel·lícules de la sala Mercè, lo que constituí un aconteixement, puix molts dels que estan allí en curació ni tenien esment de lo que era el tal espectacle i, per tots, una veritable sorpresa."

"Avui, tarda i vespre, en el cinematògraf del Prado Suburense serà projectada la pel·lícula més llarga i més interessant que va obtenir-se de les carreres d'automòbils celebrades el 28 del mes passat en aquesta vila. Aquesta cinta és la mateixa que tan extraordinari èxit va obtenir al presentar-se a la sala Mercè de Barcelona"

Comentaris sobre l'actitud cultural del poble

"Sardanas… y otros excesos

No conocemos ninguna filosofía que conceda a la danza honores mayores que los que se conceden a toda frivolidad; pero asistimos a un momento álgido de la evolución integral de Cataluña y hemos de conceder gravedad, por lo menos, a esa coreográfica manifestación de nuestro nacionalismo.

La sardana, que Maragall cantó tan bella cuan injustamente al decir de ella que es símbolo de un pueblo que avanza dándose las manos, es una pobre danza sin espontaneidad, sin nervio; es una danza hecha para que la bailen mujeres inflexibles y hombres asexuales; es una diversión ordenadita como hecha de encargo para los niños que leen Patufet y para las niñas que lo escriben. […]

Sin embargo, la tal dancita se va convirtiendo en cosa importante y digna de toda reverencia. Se organiza un "Aplec sardanista" y todos encontramos muy natural que el aplec ese pueda tutearse con las cancillerías europeas. Esto se comprende únicamente teniendo en cuenta que nosotros somos superiores, según afirmó Cruells con perdón de Manra. Porque, vamos a ver: si a estos castellanos ignorantes, superfluos y ligerotes les diera ahora por organizar solemnemente instituciones análogas fomentando el "agarrao" y la "farruca", ¿no conseguiríamos que en el extranjero se nos respetase mayormente? ¿No acabaríamos pronto con las corruptelas de la administración central?

Pero los madrileños que, además de lo que se ha dicho, son extraordinariamente perezosos, se alejan de la vida corporativa escondiéndose en las bibliotecas, y, en vez de proclamar en el mitin su superioridad, dan conferencias de rectificación intelectual, y tienen el mal gusto de prestar vida a seis u ocho teatros donde se ponen dramas y comedias, mientras en Barcelona viven y prosperan la sala Mercè y el pabellón Soriano. "Ahora se habla mucho en Barcelona de atracciones de forasteros, sindicatos de iniciativa, fiestas de la Merced, etc. Todo cosas en beneficio de la ciudad, pero los que tales iniciativas tienen tendrías también que fijarse en ciertos detalles de cultura. […] Hay en esta ciudad cierta incultura. […] El lunes pasado estuve, por la noche, en la sala Mercè. Las sillas de resorte estaban levantadas; el público, bastante distinguido, entró y a porrazos hizo caer las sillas con estrépito; muchos se entretenían haciéndolas caer varias veces, dando el consiguiente susto a las señoras. Por fin, un joven que iba en compañía de dos señoritas puso sus pies en la silla de mi lado, de manera que yo tenía a la altura de mi cara dos magníficas suelas de zapatos… charolados…

Incultura!!! […]

Itineràncies de la companyia

Després de la prohibició de les representacions teatrals al local de la sala Mercè, que es va fer efectiva al novembre de 1907, els actors de la sala van haver de traslladar la seva activitat a altres escenaris fora de Barcelona, on l'activitat teatral a locals de cinematògraf sí que estava permesa. Durant la resta de la temporada, van passar de manera itinerant per diferents localitats catalanes representant "les visions musicals de la sala Mercè", que degut al seu èxit i a l'obertura d'altres sales de visions musicals arreu de Catalunya, eren prou conegudes.

Sembla que la primera itinerància l'haurien realitzat a Terrassa, tot i que aquesta s'anuncia com a reobertura de l'Ars-Lucis, la sala de Terrassa que ja la temporada anterior havia començat a la ciutat la representació de visions musicals. A meitat de novembre es comença a anunciar l'inici de nova activitat a la sala, que es materialitza amb una breu temporada d'hivern. Es van representar tres visions musicals per celebrar les festes de Nadal i Reis, i l'activitat a la sala es va mantenir amb sessions només cinematogràfiques fins a finals de febrer.

Entre finals de gener i principis de febrer de 1908, els actors de la sala Mercè van passar pel nou local cinematogràfic del teatre Euterpe, la "sala de novetats". Van representar Mentides que no fan mal i El senyor mestre està malalt, estrenades entre la primavera i l'estiu de l'any anterior a Barcelona.

El 8 de febrer, la companyia va arribar al teatre del Centre de Lectura de Reus, on es va quedar fins a finals de març, representant una àmplia varietat del repertori de visions musicals de la sala Mercè, acompanyades de projeccions cinematogràfiques també provinents de Barcelona. El suport institucional del Centre de Lectura hauria facilitat aquesta estada, anunciada als programes de mà com a "Audicions Graner", tot i que les obres provenien del repertori estrenat la temporada anterior a la sala Mercè. Per acabar la itinerància, es va estrenar una visió musical nova, Somni de glòria, escrita la lletra per Josep Ferré i Gendre i la música per Salvador Grau Martí.

Paral·lelament, el Patronat de l'Obrer de Tarragona també estava interessat en representar amb la seva pròpia agrupació escènica alguns títols de la sala Mercè, arribant també a escriure la seva pròpia versió de La presó de Lleida.

L'última itinerància de la qual hi ha constància és al Centre Agrícol de Vilafranca del Penedés. El 31 de maig es van inaugurar les representacions de visions musicals de la sala Mercè, destacant el paper de la nena Pilar Corbinos. Es van representar almenys Sant Ramon i Mentides que no fan mal, durant l'estada també almenys fins al 7 de juny. Sembla que aquesta, amb molt poc èxit pel que diuen les ressenyes de premsa, hauria estat ja l'última itinerància de la companyia per acabar la temporada.

No sabem si al llarg de tota la temporada i diverses itineràncies es va mantenir el mateix equip d'actors i actrius. Sembla que almenys els noms de Baldomer Marinel·lo i de la nena Pilar Corbinos, sí. De fet, l'interès per les visions musicals no va acabar aquí i Baldomer Marinel·lo va tornar a programar una temporada d'hivern entre setembre de 1911 i gener de 1912 de visions musicals a la sala Imperi, acompanyat també de Josefa Ferrer, nom que ja apareixia durant la itinerància a Reus de 1908.

Manresa – Saló de Novetats

El mes de gener de 1908 va inaugurar-se l'empresa del saló de Novetats, ubicat al conegut com a antic teatre Euterpe de Manresa, després de restaurar i acomodar el local[61]. Hauria ofert un programa de pel·lícules morals combinades també amb sessions musicals. Va iniciar la seva activitat amb aquesta breu itinerància dels actors que sortien de la sala Mercè després de la prohibició barcelonina d'actuacions teatrals als cinematògrafs.

L'any vinent, a finals de 1909, va ser substituïda per una nova empresa, la sala Euterpe, que en la seva breu vida va oferir alguna visió musical, com ara Diada de reis.

Mentides que no fan mal (25 i 26/01/1908)

"Sala de Novetats

Espectacles per a dissabte i diumenge. Gran atracció amb la visió musical Mentides que no fan mal estrenada amb gran èxit a la sala Mercè de Barcelona. [...] Variat programa de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques."

El pla de Bages 1138 (23/01/1908), p. 2.

"Sala de Novetats

Espectacles per a avui i demà. Gran atracció amb la visió musical Mentides que no fan mal, estrenada amb gran acceptació a la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Música de E. Morera. Lletra d'E. Aulés[62].

El programa cinematogràfic, que és escollit i variat, el composen les següent pel·lícules: Màquina voladora (estreno), Dos mil llegues sense un cèntim (estreno de molt riure), Corrida de toros (presa del natural), Somni d'un noi (estreno de broma), Deshauci (de gran efecte dramàtic. Estreno)."

El pla de Bages 1140 (25/01/1908), p. 2.

[61] Hi ha una ressenya sobre la reforma i propera inauguració a El pla de Bages 1122 (03/01/1908), p. 2.
[62] L'autoria de l'obra no acaba d'estar clara. Mentre a l'estrena original a la sala Mercè es va anunciar com a llibretista a Josep Ribot i Martell i com a compositor al mestre Batista i Cretona, per a la producció a Sabadell es va anunciar que la música era de Joan Baptista Lambert, i aquí es torna a anunciar amb autoria diferent.

"Manresa.—«Sala Novetats». Fa pocs dies va inaugurar-se aquest cinematògraf en el local del teatre Euterpe la nova empresa, que demostra tenir un gust artístic molt exquisit, a més de fer-ho tot en català, com programes, anuncis, etc., presenta els quadros musicals de la sala Mercè de Barcelona.

El dissabte i diumenge últims representaren Mentides que no fan mal, distingint-s'hi notablement la nena P[ilar] Corbinos, secundada magistralment per la Srta. Aligué i els Srs. Curda i Vilajuana."

La Escena catalana 70 (01/02/1908), p. 8.

Senyor mestre està malalt, El (1 i 2/02/1908)

"Sala de Novetats

Espectacles per a avui i demà. Gran atracció amb la visió musical El senyor mestre està malalt estrenada amb gran èxit a la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Música de E. Morera. Lletra de P. Crehuet.

El programa cinematogràfic és el següent: Instints dels animals (estreno del natural).— Peripècies d'un presitari (estreno còmica).— Testament original (estreno).— Invàlid enginyós (del natural).— Els diumenges tranquils del papà (estreno, broma)."

El pla de Bages 1146 (01/02/1908), p. 3.

"Manresa.—«Sala Novetats». Les raderes obres representades són: El senyor mestre està malalt, i repetició de Mentides que no fan mal, amb bona interpretació artística, més el públic no correspon als esforços de l'empresa."

Ressenyes de les obres representades

Borilles i en Tinyós, En

Estrenada el 08/02/1908.

"En el Centro de Lectura se inaugurarán el próximo sábado las audiciones y espectáculos Graner, representándose la visión musical En Borilles i en Tinyós, seguida de la exhibición de varias películas cinematográficas, exclusivas de la sala Mercè."

Diario de Reus 29 (04/02/1908), p. 2.

"Como hemos venido anunciando, esta noche a las 9 y media tendrá lugar en el elegante teatro del Centro de Lectura la inauguración de los celebrados Espectáculos-Audiciones Graner, que con tan grandioso éxito actúan en la sala Mercè y teatro Principal de Barcelona.

El programa de hoy lo forman una escogida sesión de cinematógrafo y la representación de la visión musical en un acto y dos cuadros titulada En Borilles i el Tinyós, el cual será puesto en escena con toda propiedad, habiéndose hecho grandes reformas en el teatro y contado con riquísimo decorado.

Para mañana se anuncian dos sesiones sencillas para la tarde y función completa para la noche. En todas se representará la visión En Borilles i el Tinyós."

Diario de Reus 33 (08/02/1908), p. 3.

"Reus.—«Centre de Lectura». El diumenge passat la secció d'aficionats representà la comèdia Ploralles i rialles, en qual desempenyo s'hi distingiren la Srta. Basseda i els Srs. Aleixandre, Biarnés i Sans, acompanyant-los discretament els Srs. Coll i Ribé. Després posaren la comedieta Sis tiros! per la Srta. Basseda i els Srs. Aleixandre, Sans y Ribé. Escoltaren molts aplaudiments.

Avui debuta la companyia de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, amb aplaudit quadro En Borilles i en Tinyós."

La Escena catalana 71 (08/02/1908), p. 6.

"Reus.— «Centre de Lectura.» Dissabte passat debutà la companyia de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, obtenint, com ja era de suposar, molt d'èxit.

En Borilles i en Tinyós, de Santem i Lambert, fou la visió que posaren en escena després de boniques pel·lícules cinematogràfiques.

Diumenge, tarda i nit, repetiren la funció amb molt més èxit; i al nostre entendre, anirà creixent en les successives funcions, doncs tant la Sra. Ferré com els Srs. Marinel·lo i Aleixandre, donen a l'obra abans dita un desempenyo immillorable."

La Escena catalana 72 (15/02/1908), p. 6.

Mentides que no fan mal

Estrenada el 13/02/1908.

"Esta noche se estrenará en el lindo coliseo del Centro de Lectura la visión musical en un cuadro titulada Mentides que no fan mal. Se presentará con una magnífica decoración exprofeso y tomarán parte las niñas Teresita Fort, la tiple Dª Josefa Ferrer y los Sres. Marinel·lo y Aleixandre.

Auguramos un éxito para los espectáculos Graner, al cual contribuirá sin duda el nuevo programa de películas que se proyectará. A fin de corregir algunas imperfecciones se han hecho modificaciones importantes en el funcionamiento del cinematógrafo."

Diario de Reus 37 (13/02/1908), p. 2.

"En el teatro del Centro de Lectura esta tarde tendrán efecto sesiones a las 4, a las 5 y a las 6, en las cuales se exhibirá un interesante programa de cinematógrafo y la bonita visión musical Mentides que no fan mal, en la que tantos aplausos cosecha la niña Teresita Fort. […]"

Diario de Reus 40 (16/02/1908), p. 2.

"Reus.—«Centre de Lectura.» Dijous, 13 del corrent, després de variades pel·lícules, la nena Fort, la Sra. Farré i els Srs. Marinel·lo i Aleixandre posaren en escena la bonica visió musical Mentides que no fan mal, essent molt celebrada per la distingida concurrència que omplenava l'espaiós local, doncs els artistes ans dits donaren a l'obreta una interpretació acabada.

Dissabte i diumenge tarda, repetiren la funció en totes les seccions amb mes èxit que el dijous. [...]"

Diumenge nit, després de cinematògraf, i de Mentides que no fan mal, estrenaren la visió d'en Santem i Lambert L'hostal de la Peira, prenent part en son desempenyo les Sres. Farré i Basseda i els Srs. Marinel·lo, Aleixandre i Sans. Tots estigueren justíssims en llurs papers, per lo qual el públic els aplaudí molt."

La Escena catalana 73 (22/02/1908), p. 6.

"[...] Dimarts, tarda en honor dels dansers del Carnaval present, representaren amb molt aplauso Mentides que no fan mal i La cirereta. Al finalitzar l'espectacle, la nena Fort i les noies i els nois del cor foren obsequiats amb caramelos i confits en gran quantitat, per part dels ans dits dansers, els quals demostraren així que sortien enterament satisfets de l'espectacle."

"Como todos los miércoles, esta noche en el teatro del Centro de Lectura se cambiará por completo el programa de cinematógrafo, representándose luego la visión musical de gran éxito La gentil porquerola."

Diario de Reus 48 (26/02/1908), p. 3.

"Esta tarde, a las seis y cuatro, se celebrará en el teatro del Centro de Lectura una sesión extraordinaria con motivo de ser el jueves lardero, en la cual tendrán entrada gratis todos los niños disfrazados.

Forma el programa una variada proyección de cintas cinematográficas y la preciosa visión musical en dos cuadros La gentil porquerola."

Diario de Reus 49 (27/02/1908), p. 3.

"[...] Com de costum, en la nit del diumenge, se celebrà funció complerta. Alternades amb cinematògraf, representaren Ensenyança domèstica i La gentil porquerola. Aquesta última, que sens dubte és la millor que s'ha representat fins ara en aquest teatre, la desempenyaren les Sres. Ferrer i Basseda i els Srs. Marinel·lo i Sans. La concurrència aplaudí sorollosament esmerada interpretació dels artistes. El Sr. Sans, tot hi essent un modest aficionat, treballa com un perfecte actor; no podem fer menys de fer-ho constar, ja que ho ha demostrat de sobres."

La Escena catalana 74 (29/02/1908), p. 7.

"Reus.—«Centre de Lectura». En la tarda del dijous gras i després de cinematògraf, posaren en escena La gentil porquerola, que la repetiren el diumenge tarda.

A la nit, La gentil porquerola i La cirereta, molt ben desempenyada per les Sres. Ferrer i Basseda, nena Fort, Sr. Marinel·lo i cor de noies i nois. [...]"

Somni de glòria[63] (obra nova)

Visió musical en 6 quadres.

Estrena el 29/03/1908.

Lletra de Josep Ferré i Gendre.

Música de Salvador Grau Martí.

Il·lustració 55: Portada del programa de mà de Somni de glòria*. [Reproduit a: ARNAVAT, Albert (ed.):* 100 anys de teatre Bartrina, vol. 1. Reus: Pragma, p. 41.]

"Según nuestras noticias, el próximo domingo tendrá efecto en el teatro del Centro de Lectura el estreno de la visión poemática musical Somni de glòria, primera de esta clase de obras que, como las que Graner llevó al teatro Principal de Barcelona, se dará a conocer en esta ciudad.

Tanto de la letra como de la música tenemos muy buenas referencias, constándonos además que será presentada con toda la propiedad que requiere."

Diario de Reus 69 (24/03/1908), p. 3.

"Hoy no habrá función en el teatro Fortuny ni sesión de cinematógrafo en el Centro de Lectura. Las de anteayer viéronse muy concurridas, siendo las películas de agrado del público, así como las visiones musicales que se representaron.

La comisión de dicho teatro nos comunica que continúan los ensayos del estreno de la visión de los Sres. Ferré y Grau Somni de glòria. A juzgar por las noticias que tenemos de dicha obra, creemos ha de reportar muchas entradas en dicho coliseo."

Diario de Reus 71 (27/03/1908), p. 2.

"Mañana se estrenará en el Centro de Lectura la visión musical de gran aparato, original de los Sres. Ferré i Gendre y Grau, cuyo título es Somni de glòria, con un selecto programa de cinematógrafo, lo cual atraerá sin duda gran concurrencia a aquel coliseo."

[63] Producció nova al Centre de Lectura, mantenint els actors de la sala Mercè.

“Centro de Lectura

Entre los muy entretenidos espectáculos que en la presente temporada se dan en el Centro de Lectura, ha venido a darles interés el estreno de una producción de los Sres. D. José Ferré i Gendre y D. Salvador Grau Martí, titulada Somni de glòria, de la que ya conocen nuestros lectores un pequeño fragmento, por cierto.

Dentro del género de las obras en el que se comprende la producción Somni de glòria, acusa en el autor del libro fecunda inspiración y notable acierto en el desarrollo de la idea que la produjera. La versificación nos pareció fácil y bastante correcta, cualidades que suponen en el Sr. Ferré i Gendre numen bastante para cultivar el lenguaje de las musas y ofrecer nuevas muestras de un fecundo ingenio. Los tipos están bien dibujados y presentan los personajes una plasticidad que dice muy bien con el carácter de la obra.

Una observación hay que hacer, y es que el soñador poeta nos pareció que se dormía profundamente con excesiva prontitud para que encaje en lo posible con la realidad. Quizás no puede esto calificarse de defecto, y de todas maneras es bien sencillo.

Del fondo de la obra no hay que decir que encierra una gran lección moral y artística: la constancia en el trabajo, la alegría del vivir.

No conocíamos al Sr. Grau como compositor, y debemos confesar que quedamos gratamente impresionados al oír un armonioso preludio, las bonitas romanzas que dicen cada una de las partes y los corales que se dejan oír, bien armonizados e inspirados en motivos muy agradables al oído, de manera que nos pareció que el compositor secundó perfectamente al libretista. Quizá hubiera resultado de mejor efecto si al cerrarse el telón ejecutara la música algunos números al estilo del preludio, lo que daría apariencia de gran obra a la producción.

De la ejecución hemos de hablar muy bien del Sr. Marinel·lo y de la Sra. Ferrer; el niño Fort (Arcadio) sabe accionar también su papel.

El decorado produce muy bien efecto y por esta producción felicitamos cordialmente a los autores de Somni de glòria por su acierto.

"Somni de glòria.— Visió en 6 quadros, lletra d’en J. Ferré i Gendre, música d’en Salvador Grau.

L’argument d’aquesta obra és bonic i està ben desenrotllat; lo que hi fa mal efecte és la caixa de morts del penúltim quadro. El llenguatge va semblar-nos bastant vulgar. La música, passadoreta, havent-hi un número quelcom inspirat.

Els autors sortiren a les taules a rebre els aplausos de la concurrència. L’execució no passà de mitjana, lluint-s’hi emperò, la Sra. Ferrer i els Srs. Marinel·lo, Aleixandre i Sans. "

Barcelona – Ateneu Obrer del districte II

Sant Ramon (06/06/1907)

"Ateneu Obrer del districte segon. Per a solemnitzar la clausura de la tòmbola que a benefici dels pobres va organitzar aquesta entitat, va celebrar-se el dia 6 del mes que som una important vetllada musical en la qual hi cooperaren, ademés d'importants elements, l'Orfeó Canigó, secció musical d'aquest Ateneu.

[…] En l'última part, va representar-se l'hermosa visió musical en un acte i dos quadros titulada Sant Ramon, original del senyor Manel Folch, amb música del mestre Piqué, director de l'Orfeó Canigó.

L'obra, amb tot i ser bastant coneguda del públic per haver-se representat amb èxit durant força dies a la sala Mercè, va obtenir-ne aquell dia un altre, i se compren, puix tota ella és una delicadesa que fa que es vegi i s'escolti sempre amb goig.

La concurrència que va assistir en aquesta caritativa festa va ser ben distingida i nombrosa."

Igualada – Col·legi de la Divina Pastora

Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta, La (22 i 23/07/1907)

"Solemne resulta la sessió literària i musical que tingué lloc al col·legi de la Divina Pastora, celebrada el dilluns dia 22 amb motiu de la repartició de premis.

A més de llegir moltes poesies, tingué lloc la presentació de la visió musical La Mare de Déu, causant un efecte corprenedor a tots els assistents, ja que sigué presentada amb molta pulcritud i magnífic decorat.

També representaren les deixebles un hermós drama que els valgué molts aplaudiments. A precs de la nombrosa concurrència tingué de repetir-se l'espectacle el dia següent."

Olot – Escola Pia

Mort de l'escolà, La (Festes de Nadal 1908)

"Les congregacions marianes de l'Escola Pia celebraren durant aquestes festes algunes funcions teatrals a les que hi assistí sempre una bona concurrència.

És digna d'elogi la representació de la visió musical La mort de l'escolà que s'interpreta amb molt bon gust, sobresortint les escenes entre escolans. Les decoracions exprofesses eren de molt bon efecte.

Per a la diada dels Reis faran l'última d'aquestes amenes i interessants sessions."

Selecció d'esdeveniments i notícies posteriors destacats (1908–10)

Després de l'aturada de les representacions teatrals, els següents grans esdeveniments a la sala Mercè van ser el tradicional pessebre del Nadal de 1908 i, especialment destacada, la instal·lació del "Palau d'en Banyeta", que va ocupar les grutes des d'abril fins al desembre per ser substituït pel nou pessebre. Al febrer del 1909, però, es va restituir el palau d'en Banyeta, que va anar presentant novetats i canvis per renovar el seu atractiu.

El palau d'en Banyeta mostrava les calderes de l'infern, cràters i espurnes de foc, a més d'incloure al gran dimoni assegut al seu tro. En Banyeta estava representat per una persona real, a diferència de l'anterior instal·lació, on la sirena havia estat una figura de fusta. També hi participaven diversos nens que feien de dimoniets, però al llarg del 1909 van anar creixent les veus en contra del treball infantil i de la falta de moral que suposava espantar als nens amb escenes de l'infern. Al mes de juny es va acabar prohibint la participació de nens en les instal·lacions de les grutes.

Per altra banda, es va renovar l'atractiu de la programació cinematogràfica incloent-hi música en directe feta exclusivament per a les pel·lícules projectades i l'estrena de produccions exclusives, especialment d'esdeveniments esportius, o l'enregistrament de peces teatrals per part dels actors més famosos dels teatres francesos. També destacaven les funcions especials per a nens en col·laboració directa amb les escoles.

Cal destacar, a més, que quan s'atura per prohibició municipal l'activitat escènica de la sala Mercè, Lluís Graner va demanar la propietat del nom comercial de la sala. En els anys posteriors podem veure com altres empreses, sales i companyies van fer servir el nom de la sala Mercè com a reclam comercial per a les seves pròpies iniciatives.

A principis de 1910 van començar els rumors de la marxa de Graner i del traspàs de la sala. De fet, Graner va tornar al món de la pintura al novembre de 1909, i al febrer de 1910 va marxar a Amèrica de tournée pictòrica. Va passar principalment per Nova York, on va realitzar exposicions dels seus quadres, i sembla que degut al seu èxit i bona rebuda hi va romandre fins al mes de maig, pintant retrats de diferents personalitats americanes.

A partir de la seva tornada a Barcelona, comencen a anunciar-se a la sala Mercè sortejos mensuals de joguines i de retrats fotogràfics entre els nens assistents. Aquesta seria l'única novetat, atès que no es va anunciar cap nou projecte a les grutes. En aquest moment, en arribar l'estiu de 1910, acabaria el contracte de lloguer quinquennal del Principal, que va iniciar el 1905. Tot i que havia delegat la direcció de l'empresa en Modest Urgell, ell era el titular del contracte i li corresponia cobrir els deutes amb l'Hospital de la Santa Creu, propietari del teatre.

Una vegada desentès finalment del teatre Principal, es confirmaven els rumors que venien temps divulgant-se quan Graner va anunciar al novembre de 1910 el traspàs del negoci.

Pessebre del Nadal de 1908

"En la sala Mercè se ha inaugurado un artístico Belén en las grutas, que seguramente llamará poderosamente la atención."

El Noticiero Universal 7269 (12/12/1908), p. 1.

"Avui, a les sis de la tarda, s'inaugurarà a la sala Mercè un Gran Pessebre, instal·lat a les grutes que, sens dubte, és el més important de quants s'han fet a Barcelona i que cridarà poderosament l'atenció."

La Veu de Catalunya 3465 (12/12/1908), ed. matí, p. 2.

"Aquest any, en Graner ha volgut lluir-se més encara que de costum en el pessebre de les grutes. No hi ha recó on la vista no resti sorpresa i encisada per un espectacle altament artístic i suggestiu. L'Anunciata, els pastors guiats per l'estrella, el Naixement, totes les escenes típiques del pessebre clàssic han estat arranjades arreu de les grutes, lo que fa que l'espectador camini de sorpresa en sorpresa. Els jocs de llum, les aigües, tot està magníficament combinat per a fer il·lusió completa. Ademés, les grutes són arranjades amb verd, entre el que llueixen espurnes de llum elèctrica, produint un efecte fantàstic.

Creiem que entre els espectacles que ha ofert en Graner als visitants de les coves, el pessebre d'aquest any és segurament el més notable, tant per l'abundor de les atraccions, com per l'art amb què han estat resoltes."

La Veu de Catalunya 3367 (13/12/1908), ed. vespre, p. 2.

“Oh, les hermoses festes de Nadal tan dolçament passades allà en la infantesa! Que són fets aquells pessebres amb quin motiu s’acoblaven les famílies en íntimes festes?

On són aquelles vetlles passades amb santa germanor i esplai dels nins i satisfacció dels grans? Avui, al santuari de la llar ben poc s’hi rendeix culte.

Els nostres avis i els nostres pares no necessitaven pas d’altres espectacles per a esplaiar-se que els celebrats a l’escalf de la família.

Gairebé es recorda com un hermós somni els records de les tendres festes familiars, aquells records que són veres fites en la vida de l’home que comença i que, quan gran, recorda commogut gairebé sempre espurnejant els ulls d’emoció.

Mes les ventades modernes van desterrant, sobre tot en les grans ciutats, les senzilles costums que estrenyien més i més els llaços de la vida de família.

I no trobant ja aquesta en el sí de la llar l’expansió al seu afany, la cerca en esplai i distraccions i tota mena de frivolitats que hem vingut avui en dir-ne atraccions, que çà i enllà, en la ciutat, ens envolta com trenca-colls.

Convençut d’això en Graner, convençut ell de que el pessebre en la llar ja gairebé no s’hi troba, l’ha volgut posar allà on la corrent moderna porta en les multituds.

A la sala Mercè, allà l’ha portat lluint-se el genial artista; i el senzill pessebre familiar ha esdevingut a les grutes dels espectacles Graner, l’obra superba i esplèndida.

L’Anunciata, els pastors, el Naixement, totes les escenes pastorils, goig de nostra infantesa, han esdevingut a la sala Mercè goig dels majors, fruïció estètica que parla al cor i a la intel·ligència.

El Palau d'en Banyeta a les grutes

[Instal·lat des del 10 d'abril fins a desembre de 1909, quan es va substituir pel pessebre]

"Sala Mercè.— [...] Gran aconteixement per al dissabte de Glòria. Espectacle meravellós a les grutes, El palau d'en Banyeta, amb totes les dependències des de l'avant sala fins a les calderes, passant per les habitacions dels dimoniets, amb aparicions sorprenents a cada pas."

Diario de Barcelona 94 (04/04/1909), p. 4857.

"A les grutes de la sala Mercè s'inaugurarà demà, dissabte de Glòria, un espectacle sorprenent, que creiem cridarà poderosament l'atenció del nostre públic. Se tracta de la representació plàstica del Palau d'en Banyeta, amb totes les seves dependències i departaments de les calderes i amb tota la magnificència de la règia casa del diable.

Aquest, assegut en el seu trono, damunt d'un cràter que obre als seus peus sa immensa boca de foc, i voltat de roentors de cremalls encesos que pengen del sostre i les parets, rebrà al públic en l'avantsala del palau, endreçant discursos apropiats a les circumstàncies.

Endinsant-se cap a les roges interioritats, els nens barcelonins veuran la boca immensament oberta d'un drac quimèric qui, fent amb la llengua passera sobre roges brases de foc, els facilitarà el pas en els seus dintres, on podrà veure's el rebullir de les grans calderes d'en Pere Botero i el saltar entre crits estridents de dimoniets.

Cal dir que don Lluís Graner, propietari i director de la sala Mercè, ha posat tota la seva meravella fantasia en aquest espectacle, i ho ha fet sense plànyer res de lo que cal, per a que l'efecte i la il·lusió siguin complets. Així és que estem segurs de que el magnífic palau d'en Banyeta serà visitadíssim."

La Veu de Catalunya 3582 (09/04/1909), ed. vespre, p. 2.

"En las grutas de la sala Mercè, Luis Graner ha echado el resto para inaugurarlas mañana con un espectáculo sorprendente nunca visto en Barcelona.

Nosotros vimos ayer los trabajos y preparativos de las nuevas grutas y nos sorprendió maravillosamente la fantasía con que está concebido aquel Palacio d'en Banyeta, como titula Graner a una visión dantesca del infierno dispuesta en distintas escenas plásticas. Además del espectáculo, serán admiradas esta vez las grutas de la sala Mercè por la riqueza artística en esculturas y adornos fantásticos que contendrán, lo cual acredita a Graner cada vez más de rumboso cuando trata de ofrecer al público obras escénicas donde el arte sea la base principal. Auguramos un gran éxito a las nuevas grutas de la sala Mercè."

El Diluvio 99 (09/04/1909), ed. matí, p. 9.

"Cada día es más la concurrencia que visita las cuevas de la sala Mercè, donde el artista inquieto y activo ha desarrollado su fogosa imaginación en el dantesco Palacio d'en Banyeta, donde el espectador camina de sorpresa en sorpresa. Vale la pena descender al infierno, sin ser Dante ni Virgilio."

La Publicidad (22/04/1909), ed. matí, p. 3.

"Hoy inaugurará también la temporada de Pascua con un nuevo y artístico espectáculo la sala Mercè. Luis Graner es el artista refinado de siempre y ha transformado las grutas en un Palau d'en Banyeta, visión dantesca del infierno, concebida artística y originalmente y ejecutada con verdadera magnificencia y sorprendente riqueza. Es un nuevo espectáculo, compuesto en distintas escenas plásticas, de refinado buen gusto que ha de alanzar el favor del público todo, y por el que merece la más sincera felicitación Luis Graner."

La Publicidad (10/04/1909), ed. matí, p. 3.

"A les coves de la sala Mercè s'hi representa actualment una visió infernal amb el títol de El Palau d'en Banyeta.

Un assidu concurrent va atrevir-se, l'altre dia, a parlar amb un dels comparsants que fan de dimonis, i al despedir-se varen creuar-se aquestes textuals paraules: El visitant.— Vaja, que t'hi conservis!... Fins demà!... El dimoni.—Si Déu ho vol!...

Com es veu, els diables de can Graner, sense dubte influïts per l'amo, són de bon ésser i gasten creences."

Retorn de Graner al món de la pintura

"Exposición de la Sociedad Artística y Literaria.

Insiguiendo en sus hábitos, esta entidad, simpática por sí misma y por los elementos de que se compone, ha organizado este año una exposición artística que ofrece a la estima del público del salón Parés. […]

Luis Graner ofrece, a nuestro examen, la nota más vibrante de la actual Exposición. A sus habituales efectos de luz, a sus tipos harto conocidos, añade varios retratos, formando así una respetable lista de obras, en todas las cuales luce su vigorosa personalidad de artista. De celebrar es esta ocasión que nos permite contemplarlas.

Destaca en los retratos una evidente sumisión a la realidad, aceptada sin discusiones ni reservas. Condición es esta de grandes resultados para el carácter de la obra, siempre que se temple con la influencia de un gusto artístico acendrado y con la visión honda, firme y sostenida de la espiritualidad que en ella debe residir, como trasunto de lo que se alberga en el sujeto. Ni uno ni otro, en los retratos del señor Graner, están a igual altura que la primera, de lo cual se deriva que esos retratos, a pesar de su realismo y de la habilidad técnica que denotan, aparezcan menos bellos de lo que pudieran ser, y más fríos, más inexpansivos en su contextura interna que otros cuadros del mismo autor, que revelan al punto el enérgico y vivo sentimiento de que son producto.

En todos ellos, sin embargo, son de alabar condiciones externas, de carácter formal, que acreditan el saber del artista. Excede a todos el de Mad. B., jugoso y rico de coloración, y le sigue de cerca el de Mr. B. Los demás adolecen, incluso el del capellán, de vulgaridad artística, inaceptable en pintor tan ilustre como el señor Graner, y de pobreza psicológica, que tiene algo de afectada, en quien sabe dotar a otras figuras, como la misma que campea en el testero del salón, de vida tan prolija y abundante, y de vigor externo tan potente.

En los demás lienzos exhibidos, el señor Granar es como siempre, dueño de bus efectos de color, insuperables en la Sortida de sol, de belleza vibrante y conmovedora, algo exagerados en otros, con tendencia a un efectismo que, si se acentúa, pudiera perjudicarlas. Muestra de ello son los llamados Estudis, en los cuales se advierte a veces la oposición entre notas sinceras, espontáneas, sentidas y vividas en la realidad, y otras que descubren el amaño técnico de quien mucho sabe, pero que revelan algo de teatral, de amanerado, que le perjudica. Siempre, como es natural, dentro de la potencialidad artística del señor Graner, al cual se le debe observar como reparo, lo que a otros pintores de menos fuste se les consideraría como un progreso; que a quien mucho puede dar, junto es que mucho se le pida. […]

“Xª Exposició de la Societat Artística i Literària

Encatifada de fresc i amb les parets cobertes de quadres nous, la sala Parés presenta tots els aires de les grans festivitats. A tal punt ofereix semblant aspecte, que sembla que, a més de celebrar-s'hi la Xª Exposició de la Societat Artística i Literària de Catalunya, s'hi celebri també la festa de la tomada a la casa pairal de la pintura barcelonina d'un pintor eminent: en Lluís Graner, apartat, durant molt temps, per altres empreses, de la seva antiga professió. N'hi ha prou amb alçar els ulls a la testera de la sala, a on trona en Graner amb els seus catorze números de pintura, saturats d'aquella fogosa facilitat que és la seva força i la seva debilesa per a veure'l obtenir dels seus companys d'art una glorificació ben merescuda.

Durant l'interregne de silenci pictòric, o millor, d'interregne exposicionista, si el pintor no ha guanyat en fuga i maneres fàcils —ja que això ve a ésser impossible—, ha guanyat en ciència i en aplom. Basta, per a convèncer's de lo dit, comparar les figures d'ara amb les que esboçava un dia. Una paleta més variada, un saber fer inversemblant i lo que és més de notar, una superior distinció ressurt de tots els seus quadres. Hi té retrats com, per exemple, el del Pare Folguera, que és model de solidesa i de caràcter; n'hi té d'altres, com el de la Sta. Maria G., que, amb tot i l'estranyesa desconcertant de fons i lo ben escollit del mobiliari, és verament elegant. L'efígie de M. B. és ferma, estable i característica, amb aquell fons de biblioteca; la de Mme. B. és serena y distingida; la de la Sta. Lluïsa G., concebuda en suau penombra, apareix impregnada de tebiesa i de dolçor.

Però, allí a on és més fàcil d'observar la renovació del pintor emèrit és en la mitja figura de Bebedor, tan notable per la qualitat i la plenitud com per l'assortiment del color, ben diferent d'aquelles tintes eternalment terroses que estilava al res tongades, per a figuracions d'elegant estil. Quina mudança de factura i de color, entre el Bebedor d'avui i aquells guitarristes i borratxos pintats amb terres, que ahir també instal·lava en un interior. Entre un i altres hi va, per lo menys, tanta diferència com en les vistes nocturnes del port d'ara, rielades per la claror rogenca de la llum, i les que pintava, una època, recarregades de la monotonia de tons morats. “La primera exposició col·lectiva d'enguany és ara a can Parés, organitzada, com vaig dir, per l'Asociación Literaria y Artística. [...] En Lluís Graner ha volgut desquitar-se del molt temps que ens ha fet esperar obres seves i ha comparegut amb un bé de Déu de figures i marines que demostren la potència artística del genial pintor. El retrat del Pare escolapi Ll. F., els dos de les seves filles i els del senyor i senyora són de correcte dibuix i franca expressió, avalorats per una gran trassa en el métier. El Cap d'estudi és, a nostre judici, superior a aquests i, junt amb Sortida de sol i El port de nit, d'una meravellosa força d'evocació; són els millors que ens ofereix actualment. [...]”

Actes d'instrucció de les Escoles de Sant Jordi

"Demà a les tres de la tarda, celebrarà el col·legi de Sant Jordi a la sala Mercè una sessió de caràcter instructiu, presentant-se projeccions lluminoses. En aquesta sessió, la primera de la sèrie, varis alumnes donaran lectura de les més escollides rondalles populars amb les projeccions corresponents a llur il·lustració. Alternaran amb les rondalles vàries pel·lícules de les més interessants com instructives.

La vintena sessió serà dedicada al coneixement de la Catalunya pintoresca, amb explicacions que faran varis alumnes."

"Dia de joia fou per als deixebles de les Escoles de Sant Jordi la festa patronal de Catalunya. Ademés dels actes religiosos i de la visita al Palau de la Diputació, els infants practicaren variats sports en el parc, celebrant una lluïda sessió patriòtica en la que es llegiren inspirades composicions poètiques, fent remembrança de les gestes catalanes en un fogós discurs el doctor don Joan Baptista Vilà. Tots els treballs sigueren aplaudits amb entusiasme. A la tarda, els deixebles foren obsequiats amb una sessió de cinematògraf a la sala Mercè, recorrent després les grutes que impressionaren agradosament a tots els assistents. [...]"

Pel·lícules amb música en directe i produccions exclusives

"D'aquí uns quants dies se començaran a presentar a la sala Mercè unes pel·lícules especials, inspirades en arguments de certes obres cèlebres i algunes d'originals, escrites per distingits literats francesos i executades per artistes de la Comèdia francesa, l'Odeon i altres teatres, en combinació amb la Societat d'Autors francesos.

La primera pel·lícula d'aquest gènere que es posarà a la sala Mercè serà la de L'arlesienne, quals escenes han estat tretes sobre el terrer mateix on suposa en Daudet l'acció de l'obra. Veus aquí una idea que, segons la manera que sigui explorada, podria convertir el cinematògraf en auxiliar del teatre, despertant en el públic l'afició a veure en llur integritat les obres que hauria vist representades en pel·lícules.

Segons tenim entès, els artistes que posen per a la impressió de pel·lícules tenen el dret de fer-les retirar sempre que les considerin suficientment gastades per a perjudicar la visió."

La Veu de Catalunya 3411 (19/10/1908), ed. matí, p. 1.

"Ahir a la tarda se va estrenar a la sala Mercè una pel·lícula que, pel seu valor artístic, creiem que ha de portar a aquella sala d'espectacle a tot el públic amant de les coses selectes. Amb ella se senyala un avenç considerable en el cinematògraf que, deixant de ser espectacle de frívol passatemps, entra de ple en el terreny de les manifestacions artístiques, amb tota la importància d'una variant d'aquest.

El tema de la pel·lícula és l'episodi històric de l'assassinat del duc de Guisa, preparat pel Rei Enric III, desenrotllant-se les escenes d'aquell crudel episodi amb una força de realitat artística que arriba a commoure fondament. I així havia de ser, car la casa editora de París, al proposar-se donar al públic aquest interessant episodi, encarregà l'escriptura del mateix a l'eminent literat Enric Lavedan, de l'Acadèmia Francesa, fent-la representar amb una riquesa d'escena i de vestuaris admirable, pels més grans artistes francesos, tals com De Bergy, que representa el paper d'Enric III, i en Lambert, que és l'encarregat del de duc de Guisa, i l'eminent actriu Robinne, en el seu paper de marquesa, i altres no menys notables, que són encarregats dels restants personatges.

Ademés, acompanyants a la representació, el mestre Saint-Saëns ha compost una música digna de la seva fama. L'estrena de la pel·lícula ha obtingut un èxit veritable i creiem que continuarà tenint-lo en les successives representacions que es donaran aquests dies. Una vegada més, la sala Mercè s'ha acreditat de ser un centre on, apartant-se de les xavacanades usuals, se fan coses d'interès artístic."

"Llama poderosamente la atención la hermosa película que, bajo el título «Escuela de equitación de Barcelona», se exhibió ayer por primera vez en la sala Mercè. Consta de más de 400 metros y acredita de buen gusto a los artistas que colaboraron en la confección de la misma.

El asunto es por demás simpático e interesante. Un numeroso grupo de jóvenes, pertenecientes en su mayoría al internado de los PP. Escolapios de Sarrià, y el resto a distinguidas familias de esta capital, maniobrando a caballo, bajo la dirección de su inteligente profesor don Juan Lara e hijos, don Juan y don Fernando.

El Internado de los PP. Escolapios de Sarriá, el bosque y jardines de la casa-torre de los señores marqueses de Sentmenat y las hermosas vertientes del Llobregat constituyen el campo de maniobras. Es verdaderamente de admirar la precisión y soltura con que los jóvenes jinetes llenan su cometido. Un grupo de archianimosos chiquitines que componen la primera sección de equitación del internado evoluciona admirablemente en el local escuela del mismo.

El programa general es por demás ameno y variado: evoluciones al galope, al trote, saltos de obstáculos, volteo, subidas y bajadas con marcada pendiente y un sin-número de incidentes que acaban de dar amenidad al asunto, simpático de sí y que entretiene agradablemente al público por espacio de 5 minutos.

Plácemes merece el señor Graner, que ha sabido, con la exhibición que nos ocupa, dar a conocer al público la única Escuela de equitación que en Colegio particular existe tal vez en España, y a la vez a los PP. Escolapios que tanto se desvelan en fomentar con espíritu creciente la cultura de sus alumnos elevándola al nivel de las naciones más adelantadas."

Comentaris sarcàstics i anticlericals sobre les pel·lícules

"Es el refugio del clero, como me decía el otro día, apretando los dientes, un romántico anticlerical. Esto es Jauja, deben pensar los curas, y adoptan actitudes triunfadoras con una pierna encima la otra, fumando como chimeneas en la sala de espera y prodigándose en sonrisas y saludos a las señoras.

En la sala Mercè triunfan los clérigos.

El novelesco Padre Estebanell causaría en este ambiente favorables destrozos en el bello sexo. Se impone ir a la sala Mercè con el Asino en el bolsillo y desdoblándolo luego con ostentación. Que las caricaturas de [Rafatange?] profanen aquel lugar…

La sala Mercè es indiscutiblemente el cinematógrafo más negro de Barcelona. Lo ennegrece aún más la preferencia decorada de tejas y sotanas. La empresa corta ciertos detalles picarescos en algunas películas fabricadas en París, en beneficio de la moral.

La sala Mercè es un refugio del clero.

"Dissabte passat se va firmar l'escriptura per a la construcció del Kursaal en lloc a on ara s'aixeca el Tívoli. Això és el triomf de l'alegria en el carrer de Casp. Davant per davant, estaran la sotana del jesuïta i la faldilla llampanta de la dansarina. És una compensació...

No cal dir que nosaltres sempre votem per l'alegria. Un Music-hall és sempre més alegre que una representació d'en Gual. Però sembla que els mateixos que combaten al Papitu, cercant martingales legals en les ordenances municipals, volen entrebancar l'adveniment a Barcelona d'una sala que no faci com la sala Mercè pudor de mitjons de seminarista. "Moral merce...naria Heu vist, llegidors, la pel·lícula que representant l'assassinat del duc de Guisa s'exhibeix a la sala Mercè? Heu llegit l'argument que donen a l'entrada? En ell, els bons sagristans de la sala Mercè diuen que el duc de Guisa va de visita a casa de la marquesa de Montfleury. I el duc besa a la marquesa i li dona unes abraçades dignes d'en Raku, i quan surt, surt de darrera la cortina de la cambra. I tot per a no dir que són aimants. Un duc i una marquesa, catòlics, fent pecats? Quin escàndol! La sala Mercè continua fent flaire de mitjons de seminarista."

"Han passat a la vora de cinquanta capellans comptant-hi una vintena de petits frères i cap cavall blanc. Això designa mala astrugància. No sé per què, però, per un capellà, un cavall blanc i, si no, trencat el coll. L'equus albus és l'únic antídot contra el clericalisme imperant. [...]

Un altre capellà! Fuuu...!!! Jo els faria anar sempre vestits de pontifical, ara que han tret els galons als militars, ells donarien la nota de color. Quin goig faria la sala Mercè! Ara amb aquests vestits negres, només serveixen per estalviar feina als caricaturistes, que amb un topo negre acaben, i per a dur mala astrugància. [...]

I a fe que és una llàstima que no vingui el senyor Lafuente, perquè potser acabaria amb la plaga de cinematògrafs que patim. [...] Fa un any era a Jaén. Tocant al palau episcopal n'hi havia un, de cine. El governador de Jaén, malgrat i ésser conservador, era alegre i al vespre, sortint del casino amb una colla d'amics anaven al cine, on tenien unes sessions privades. Però sobre el cine varen començar a caure pedres. [...] Però una nit va començar a cremar el cinematògraf, i vinga cremar fins a la matinada. [...] A l'últim la policia va fer una detenció: el porter del palau episcopal.

"[...] Actualmente exhíbese en los cinematógrafos [en realitat era una estrena exclusiva de la sala Mercè importada d'Itàlia i força exitosa] una espléndida película cuyo asunto es la vida de Nerón. Como es natural, tratándose de quien se trata y teniendo que respetar la fidelidad histórica, aunque sea cinematográficamente, hay en la película escenas de amor, seductoras y cálidas.

Y en la sala Mercè han tomado el estupendo acuerdo de suprimir esas escenas, mutilando en lo esencial la espléndida película. Suprimido lo escabroso, han borrado el camino de lo heroico. Porque lo que se imponía era exhibir esas escenas, atemorizantes para ellos, y recabar del señor obispo quinientos días de indulgencia a los que asistiendo al espectáculo tuvieron, al llegar el momento sabroso, la virtud de permanecer con los ojos cerrados.

Ese es el camino para llegar al cielo. Sobre todo para los eclesiásticos que no pueden tener, al menos honestamente, el de desear la muerte de un hijo suyo.

[A mena de sàtira fa un repàs del repertori cinematogràfic i d'alguns dels títols més populars de la sala Mercè, com El duc de Guisa o el de Neró, importada d'una productora italiana.]

"El cinematògraf, que és una evolució de l'espectacle teatral, sofreix en sí mateix evolucions com el teatre mateix. Començà essent fatalista. Els primers films foren fatalistes com el teatre grec. La polseguera que aixecaven els murs qui queien, el ruixim de les onades qui batien les roques, la fumerada de les armes de foc causaven admiració. Semblaven de debò. Els fenòmens naturals, aquestos, costaven cinquanta cèntims d'entrada i fins a voltes una pesseta i tot. Dels fenòmens fatals i naturals, el film passà a la xavacarieria, i hi restà. Hi roman encara. Cops, persecucions tumultuoses, arruixades, baralles, de clar i obscur personificades per emblanquinadors i carboners, tot el desvergonyiment del traumatisme putxinelesc qui fa picar de mans amb joia a la quitxalla, s'hi donà lloc i hora, se'l continua donant. Els déus de la llar barcelonina bé havien de pagar amb escreix la barcelonina devoció. Els déus de la llar barcelonina aportaren en forma de films grotescs el pa intel·lectual, únic que podia ésser digerit per les ànimes dels renets d'Amílcar Barca. Després vingué el film d'art. El duc de Guisa...

El bon barceloní va al cinematògraf i s'hi instrueix. S'hi instrueix i s'hi delecta, com va dir en Cullaré, Delenda est Cartago.

Els francesos hi tenen la mà trencada, i els Narcisos Ollers, de París, no es descalifiquen pas per haver donat temes als operadors. Paris proveeix de films a tot el món. El barri de Vicennes, a on opera la casa Pathé, no en surt pas a menys de dos espectacles diaris en plens bulevards. Quan passen els actors abillats en llurs vestits de comèdia, corren, s'atrapen i es maten en mig del carrer, la gent ni menys se gira. Sembla que passi en Cambó per la Rambla. Els francesos n'eren els amos; i els altres pobles n'han tingut enveja. No diguem mal de l'Hispano-Films, que prou que sos operadors s'exposen la vida darrera de les figueres de moro al Riff. Parlem dels italians. Els italians... els italians...

Quan algú se passeja pels carrers de Roma abillat de romà de la decadència, els romans diuen: és un parisenc. I no s'erren. Els "Prix" de Roma, a l'Escola de Belles Arts, sovint se guanyen amb temes d'altre temps, i no hi ha res que influeixi tant en la vida d'un artista com lo que té en cartera.

Els italians son agraïts. Shakespeare els hi manllevà arguments. Ells li retornen films. El film shakespearià ara està de moda. Després de César, Neró. Però com que en Shakespeare no se'n ocupà d'aquest darrer senyor, els italians quina te'n fan? Se'n van a buscar actors anglesos. Ningú millor que un anglès pot donar a un drama caràcter shakespearià. Un bon anglès va sempre ben afaitat com un bon romà. D'això ve, que l'autor anglès sentís tan bé l'ànima apassionada dels llatins.

La cara és l'espill de l'ànima. Desgraciadament, la raça saxona és individualista i poc amiga del sacrifici. En això se diferencien dels nostres catòlics, qui tan amen el sacrifici dels demés. I com que no l'amen, cap d'ells fa el sacrifici de sa glenxa encosmeticada... ni ai! de ses musculoses cames... César, Neró! Football!... Team!!!...E\ film shakespearià pren tot el caràcter d'una partida de sport... Per altra banda, ningú pot dir-se enganyat. Els soldats romans ja ho duen escrit en els feixos de les destrals: S. P. Q. R.

—Senatus populus quae romanus!— deletrejàrem a l'orella d'un bon burgès qui seia a prop nostre a la sala Mercè.

I el bon burgès ens donà un copet de reconvenció amistosa a l'esquena i digué scientment: —Spor, home, spor; que no s'ha fixat en les pantorrilles!

Misto"

Crítiques i prohibició del treball infantil

"Solo nos mueve dar satisfacción a nuestro espíritu, impresionado hondamente, al escribir estas líneas. ¡Pobres niños! En pocos días hemos recibido dos desengaños.

Concurrimos primero a una sesión de cinematógrafo dada en la sala Mercè en obsequio a los alumnos del colegio Sant Jordi. Después hemos asistido a la representación de Qüento de Nadal [de Apel·les Mestres, estrenat per la Nova Companyia de Teatre Català d'Adrià Gual] y, meditando despacio, muy despacio sobre tales espectáculos, se escapan de nuestros labios esas dos palabras, que brotan de nuestro corazón: ¡pobres niños!

[…] ¡Cómo, pues, no protestar de las rondallas de la sala Mercè! Las rondallas, a nuestro modo de entender, son inmorales para los niños y, por lo tanto, perjudiciales, dañosas. ¿Qué aprende el niño en ellas? ¿Dónde está lo útil y dulce? ¿Es así como se hace labor educativa? […] ¿Qué fruto sacará el inocente párvulo de las exageraciones, mentiras y cosas inverosímiles que se le ponen de manifiesto en aquellas rondallas a las que se da más viva entonación con ridículas proyecciones?

"Yo, si me caso con el Rey, ha de ser para tener un hijo y una hija muy hermosos". Ejemplo moral. […]

Triste, muy triste, es que aun impere ese descuido punible que tanto daño ocasiona a la infancia. […] Nunca debe asustarse a los niños. Los niños no deben concurrir a espectáculos en los cuales se representen escenas violentas, exageraciones que dañen sus sentidos y sus sentimientos delicados, tiernos. […] No engañéis a los niños con cuentos de diablos, brujas y parecidos, que a ningún buen fin conducen.

¿Por qué, pues, dedicar a la niñez espectáculos en los que nada aprende, y si sufre, padece? Hoy se abusa de ello de un modo alarmante: se obliga, en unos espectáculos, a hacer a los niños trabajos superiores a sus fuerzas, ora recitando, ora declamando, ora leyendo […]

Ayer aparecen las rondallas con proyecciones, hermanas de los cuentos de Calleja, con más relieve que aquellos, también para los niños, en la sala Mercè, con lleno completo.

Hoy se nos habla de un teatro para la niñez, con espectáculos hermanos de los cuentos y rondallas, con más relieve que estas. Qüento de Nadal, primera representación… ¡Gran éxito!

¿Adónde vamos a parar? ¡Pobres niños!

"Ja fa temps que en els cinematògrafs se venen posant pel·lícules a lo Sucesos; pel·lícules sanguinàries, terribles, esgarrifoses, que en els públics de barriada, quan mort el traïdor arranquen ovacions sorolloses dels homes i els xicots, mentre les dones se treuen, amb un sospir, l'opressió que feia estona els serrava el cor. [...] En tant això passa, publicistes ben intencionats escriuen d'hemofília i pares incautes porten els nens i les nenes a veure aquests horrors.

I el mal va creixent i amenaça envair-ho tot, perquè avui ha entrat encara que d'una manera vergonyant fins a la sala Mercè, el cinematògraf prudent per excel·lència, com podríem dir-ne, a on se posen ja corrides de toros amb les seves sensacionals sorpreses. [...]"

Influència de la sala Mercè a altres localitats

"A les empreses cinematogràfiques de Badalona

[...] És una veritat, lliure de dubte, que el nostre teatre no ha arribat a la perfecció a la qual deu aspirar, essent no el més petit dels entrebancs qualques obres que desdiuen de nostre caràcter sensat, honest, morigerat. La influència madrilenya ha estat d'efectes mortals per a nostra evolució progressiva damunt les taules i ha infundat, insensiblement, al cor de nostre poble una sensació que no pot ésser la seva per ínfima, sanguinària i bestial, malgrat la nostra gent renunciï a son caràcter qui no radica en la llengua, sinó en l'essència de l'ànima. [...]

Davant d'aquestes consideracions i altres [...] és inútil explicar l'alegria que florí mon cor enfront la bona idea [...] de que arribi ben aviat a la vida real la inauguració de quadrets lírics —art noble, selecte, aristocràtic—. I qui més indicat que nostres empreses cinematogràfiques per a portar a feliç terme el pensament apuntat, digne de tota lloa? A les empreses cinematogràfiques, doncs, me dirigeixo per a que considerin l'interès moral i material que podria despertar una exquisida sèrie de quadrets lírics, vulgarment apel·lats "quadros plàstics". El nostre poble és amador d'aquest art noble, selecte, aristocràtic i sap premiar llargament tota activitat adreçada al seu perfeccionament i riquesa. No podria ésser l'antiga sala Mercè com el prototip de les exhibicions plàstiques de les empreses cinematogràfiques a Badalona?

Pessebre del Nadal de 1909

"Avui, a les sis de la tarda, s'inaugurarà a les grutes de la sala Mercè un Gran Pessebre que, sens dubte, és el més important de tots els que des de sa fundació va fent dita sala en aquesta època."

El Poble català 1746 (11/12/1909), p. 3.

"Noticias de espectáculos.— Ayer tarde se inauguró en las grutas la sala Mercè un Nacimiento, obra proyectada y dirigida por el celebrado artista D. Luis Graner, quien ha conseguido ofrecer al público un espectáculo atrayente por la propiedad y magnificencia del conjunto y en cada uno de sus detalles. La parte panorámica produce sorprendente efecto y la vista del espectador se recrea contemplando típicos caseríos, riachuelos, cascadas y escenas episódicas, llamando también mucho la atención las figuras, hábilmente modeladas y presentadas con riqueza."

Rumors de traspàs, viatges a l'estranger i exposicions de Graner

"Ayer tarde nos visitó don Luis Graner, empresario de la sala Mercè, para manifestarnos que carece de exactitud la noticia de que había traspasado el local al maquinista de la misma.

Como en esta ocasión fuimos sorprendidos por un bromista de mal género o sujeto de torcidas intenciones, hacemos gustosos esta rectificación, debiendo añadir que la noticia no dejó de sorprendernos, dado el éxito que con su acertada dirección ha obtenido la sala Mercè."

El Diluvio 19 (19/01/1910), ed. matí, p. 16.

"En Lluís Graner

Avui ha de marxar cap al Nordamèrica l'eminent artista català en Lluís Graner, qui va a organitzar una exposició de pintures seves a la ciutat de Nova York.

Com en Sorolla, com en Zuloaga, com tants altres artistes de renom, vol el nostre compatrici donar a conèixer la seva obra al públic americà.

Però, encara que sia aquest el principal motiu del seu viatge, n'hi ha un altre que l'ha acabat de decidir. Tal és el de veure, pels propis ulls, una novetat artística que tal volta, a la tornada del pintor i empresari d'espectacles, podrem contemplar els barcelonins a la sala Mercè.

Tal com ha estat calculada la duració de l'excursió, l'absència d'en Graner no es perllongarà més de tres mesos. Bon viatge i bona estada!"

La Veu de Catalunya 3855 (27/01/1910), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"Hem sapigut per persona autoritzada que nostre benvolgut amic don Lluís Graner, que es troba a Nova York, ha acabat el retrat de Carles B. Alexander, i que està compromès a pintar també el de la neboda de dit Mr. Alexander, esposa de Teodor Roosewelt, fill de l'expresident de la República Nord-americana."

El Poble català 1864 (10/04/1910), p. 2.

"Exposició Graner a Nova York

Durant el mes de març prop-passat, l'eminent pintor català Lluís Graner, que, com els nostres lectors saben, passa una temporada a Nova York, va inaugurar una exposició d'obres seves a la famosa galeria Brandus d'aquella gran capital americana. Pels grans elogis que la crítica fa de l'exposició, l'èxit no ha pogut ésser més satisfactori, i si a n'això s'hi afegeixen les invitacions que cada dia rep d'enviar obres a Washington, a Boston, a Chicago i a altres ciutats americanes, se podrà ben dir que l'artista ha caigut de bon peu als Estats Units.

El notable crític americà Mr. Joseph Edgar Chamberlin publica en The Evening Mail un extens i laudabilíssim article sobre l'obra d'en Graner, titulat "Un altre vigorós pintor espanyol, el senyor Graner de Barcelona".

També s'ocupa amb encomiàstic fervor de l'artista català l'American Art News en un llarg treball que titula "Lluís Graner i la seva obra". A més d'il·lustracions, com el retrat del pintor i algunes de les seves teles exposades, el treball esmentat conté laudatòries opinions sobre el mestre barceloní, que omplen més de tres columnes que cada qual porta el seu epígraf: "Un pintor original", "Un observador de caràcter", "Pintor de la nit i taller" i "Honors tributats al mestre".

El nostre corresponsal de Nova York, Rectus, ens comunica en una crònica les següents noves de l'exposició del nostre estimat amic, l'eminent pintor don Lluís Graner, ben falagueres per cert per a ell i ben agradoses per a tots els catalans. [...]"

La Veu de Catalunya 3937 (21/04/1910), ed. matí, p. 4.

"Davant de nombrosa i selecta concurrència se va inaugurar ahir a la tarda a la casa Esteva i Cª (Santa Agna, 6), una exposició de notes del conegut pintor català don Lluís Graner.

El nostre estimat company J. Sacs ja s'encarregarà de dir-nos la vàlua artística de les obres d'en Graner."

El Poble català 1894 (11/05/1910), p. 3.

"Exposició Graner a cal Esteve i Cª

A la sala de vendes de cal Esteve i Cª, al carrer de Santa Agna, han quedat exposades una sèrie de notes del eminent pintor en Lluís Graner, que es troba actualment treballant de fort a l'Amèrica del Nord.

Si bé és cert que cap d'elles passa de ser una obra de caràcter d'estudi més que altra cosa, en totes elles també la mà del mestre s'hi coneix per la seva admirable manera de traduir les visions.

Paisatges en sa majoria, les unes hores el pinzell rapidíssim en aquestes apuntacions, ens explica la brillantor de les hores recentes del dia, com en altres la melangia de les postes o el misteri dels nocturns on la borrosa silueta de les vegetacions s'uneix en traspàs misteriós amb les blavors profundes de les celísties.

En les escenes del port, així mateix, ara és la tremolor incerta i vaga de les llums de l'aurora, ara la calma serena amb els efectes de llum sobre les aigües quietes del port, on s'alcen entre l'ombra que tot ho abriga els mastils i les veles mig plegades. Dos deliciosos interiors amb els efectes de llum característics i un cap d'estudi completen aquest interessant conjunt que aquesta setmana s'afegeix a les exposicions d'art de Barcelona."

La Veu de Catalunya 3958 (12/05/1910), ed. matí, p. 4.

"Darrerament hi ha hagut al saló Parés exposicions d'obres d'en Cels Gorchs i d'en Joan Vila. [...] Tanca aquesta sèrie d'exhibicions la de notes pictòriques d'en Lluís Graner a casa l'Esteva i Cª, aprofitant l'absència del celebrat artista, que tan gloriosa campanya fa als Estats Units. Hi ha quadrets deliciosos, d'ingenuïtat i sentiment exquisit, de gran veritat i força suggestiva."

"El pintor Graner a Barcelona

De retorn de la seva excursió artística tan profusa, i que tan bell triomf li ha proporcionat, és arribat a Barcelona el nostre distingit amic, l'eminent pintor don Lluís Graner.

La nostra salutació al distingit artista, al qui felicitem coralment pels èxits obtinguts en aquells pobles de l'Amèrica, on tant ha honrat el nom de Catalunya."

"Sala Mercè.— Es digna de verse la preciosa película Duquesa de Guisa o el asesinato del conde de San Megrino. Recuerda y es digna sucesora de la proyectada hace tiempo y que tan grande éxito tuvo: Asesinato del duque de Guisa."

El Diluvio 184 (03/07/1910), ed. matí, p. 26.

"Amb motiu d'inaugurar-se ahir a la sala Mercè la pel·lícula Festes de la Independència de la República Argentina, Viatge de l'Infanta Isabel i Gran revista naval, de la casa Vila, i l'exclusivitat de les quals té la indicada sala, assistí a la mateixa el cònsol de l'Argentina i personal del consolat. Aquesta pel·lícula, junt amb la que actualment s'hi projecta de la Gran revista militar de les festes del 14 de juliol a París amb l'assistència del Rei de Bèlgica, fa que es vengi molt concorregut l'esmentat cinematògraf per les colònies francesa i argentina."

Abonament de cinema per reconstruir l'església de Sant Joan d'Horta

"Una comissió de senyores de l'alta societat barcelonina, presidida per la senyora marquesa viuda d'Alfarràs, està organitzant un abono de quatre funcions de cinematògraf amb l'objecte de recollir fondos per a la reconstrucció de la Iglesia parroquial de Sant Joan d'Horta, destruïda per la revolució de juliol.

Les esmentades funcions tindran lloc a la sala Mercè els dies 16 i 23 del corrent i 2 i 9 de març, de sis a vuit del vespre.

Donat el fi que es proposen les indicades dames, no cal dir que desitgem que l'èxit més gran coroni els seus pietosos esforços."

La Veu de Catalunya 3866 (08/02/1910), ed. matí, p. 2.

"En la sala Mercè se reunieron las señoras de la alta sociedad con el objeto de recaudar fondos para la reedificación del templo de Horta. Entre galanteos amorosos de la gente joven y las conversaciones de las mamás se pasa admirablemente el tiempo, notándose en los semblantes aquella satisfacción que suele producir la práctica de las obras caritativas."

La bandera regional 69 (23/04/1910), p. 3.

"El abono al cine Sala Mercè sigue con igual éxito que en los días pasados, si bien, motivado sin duda por las obligaciones cuaresmales, el número de asistentes es menor. La misma Junta acaba de organizar, o mejor, prolongar este mismo abono a un lunes y sábado por la noche en vista de las muchas demandas de localidades presentadas."

Sortejos de joguines

"A la sala Mercè ha sigut premiat el número 443, corresponent al 26 del corrent, últim dijous del mes, en què es verificà el sorteig. Dits números se donen tots els dijous i consisteixen els premis en boniques joguines per als nens."

La Veu de Catalunya 3976 (30/05/1910), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"Com de costum, avui dijous, dia 16, als concurrents a la sala Mercè, ja sia del cinematògraf com de les grutes, se'ls hi regalarà un número amb opció a una magnífica joguina, qual sorteig se fa l'últim dijous del mes."

La Veu de Catalunya 3993 (16/06/1910), ed. vespre, p. 2.

"En el sorteig d'una joguina que es va celebrar dijous a la sala Mercè, sorteig corresponent al mes de juny, va sortir premiat el núm. 4.753."

La Veu de Catalunya 4009 (02/07/1910), ed. vespre, p. 3.

"Com és de costum de tots els dijous, la sala Mercè regalarà demà a cada concurrent un número per al sorteig d'una joguina que es fa cada mes. A més, se'n regalarà un altre amb opció, per sorteig, a una ampliació fotogràfica a ca'l fotògraf senyor Amadeo, del carrer de Pelayo, 62."

La Veu de Catalunya 4026 (20/07/1910), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"En el sorteig que mensualment se celebra a la sala Mercè d'una joguina, ha sortit premiat en el d'aquest mes el número 1.718. En el sorteig extraordinari, obsequi de la fotografia Amadeo, consistent en un retrat ampliació, mida de full, ha sortit premiat el número 573."

La Veu de Catalunya 4035 (30/07/1910), ed. matí, p. 2.

"Avui, com de costum a la sala Mercè, regalarà un número amb opció a una bonica joguina i el sorteig que es celebrarà el darrer dijous de cada mes. Al mateix temps, la fotografia Amadeo, Pelayo, 62, regalarà un retrat ampliació als concurrents a dita sala, per lo que hi haurà un altre número premiat amb l'esmentada ampliació."

La Veu de Catalunya 4061 (25/08/1910), ed. matí, p. 6.

[Durant els mesos de setembre, octubre i novembre es continuen fent els mateixos sortejos i repartiment de números els dijous. Al desembre es farà un regal especial amb dolços de Nadal.]

Marxa de Graner i anunci de traspàs de la sala Mercè

"En Graner

La Veu de Catalunya 4140 (14/11/1910), ed. matí, p. 7.

"Por su originalidad es el local que más llama la atención de todos los de Barcelona.

Está situado en el punto más céntrico de nuestras Ramblas y las condiciones del local no tendrían nada de recomendables a no ser que el ingenio de su Empresa, supo subsanar las deficiencias de un edificio que por no haber sido construido ad-hoch hubo de ceñirse estrictamente a las exigencias de aquella construcción.

Ocupa la sala Mercè la planta baja y los sótanos del edificio. La primera sirve de vestíbulo, y es tan espacioso que puede contener doble número de personas al señalado en la plantilla de sala de proyecciones.

La sala está dispuesta de tal modo que produce el mismo efecto de una caverna.

Sin ornamentación de ninguna clase, sus paredes y bóveda revestidas de una imitación a piedra tosca con iniciaciones ele estalactitas; está dotada de una iluminación fantástica y cuenta con buenos elementos de ventilación, lo que unido a la acertada disposición de su platea hacen agradable y cómoda la permanencia al espectador.

Los programas que se proyectan en la casa son siempre lo mejor que se presenta en el mercado y los asuntos son previamente revisados de tal suerte que de ellos son eliminadas todas aquellas escenas que puedan rematar tendenciosas.

En la misma casa y contiguo a la sala de proyecciones, están las tan admiradas grutas que han sido reformadas varias veces, cada una de ellas con mayor éxito, puesto que a su instalación ha aplicado cada vez todo su ingenio, que no es poco, el reputado pintor don Luis Graner, genial artista que tiene adquirida justa y envidiable fama en la especialidad de los efectos de luz, y precisamente, las grutas han sustituido su campo de experimentación y de exposición en tan difícil arte.

Por tales motivos, goza Sala Mercè de la predilección de los admiradores del arte y cuenta con un público verdaderamente especial.

Viatges i exposicions posteriors de Graner a l'estranger

"En Graner a l'Amèrica

Dies enrere donàvem notícia de l'estada de l'eminent pintor català en Lluís Graner a l'Havana, i de les festes que li dedicà la colònia catalana.

[...] la representació de totes les colònies regionals espanyoles que hi ha a l'Havana han publicat una endreça a tots els espanyols de Cuba, fent-los saber que havien acordat, per unanimitat, tributar un carinyós homenatge de franca admiració i fons agraïment al pintor català Lluís Graner per haver organitzat per sí sol, amb tota l'esplèndida magnificència de què és capaç la iniciativa individual, una exposició d'art pictòric que ha sigut glòria de la colònia i honor per a Espanya en aquelles terres allunyades de la pàtria.

Aqueix tribut d'admiració és iniciar una subscripció pública i voluntària per a comprar-li el gran quadre a l'oli titulat Pesca a l'encesa, premiat en vàries exposicions. Aqueix quadre, acompanyat d'una acta suscrita per tots els presidents de les societats regionals en nom de tots els espanyols de Cuba i un album amb els noms dels donants serà entregat al Museu Nacional de Belles Arts de l'Havana en prova de coral afecte de la Colonia Espanyola i com a llaç d'unió amb la República de Cuba.

De l'àlbum se'n donarà una còpia a l'eminent pintor català. La proposta ha sigut aprovada amb gran entusiasme.

En Lluís Graner, al marxar de l'Havana, no se'n va anar cap als Estats Units com dèiem, sinó que se n'anà cap a Matanzas, a on hi pintà un quadre a l'oli reproduint la impressió que lo causà aquella badia presa des de les altures del Montserrat. El quadre l'ha cedit a la Colònia Espanyola d'aquella ciutat i la colònia el sortejarà i amb son producte farà millores en aquell santuari català.

El quadre diuen que és una veritable obra de mestre. La Colònia Espanyola n'ha quedat tan joiosa que ha nomenat a en Graner soci de mèrit i li ha regalat un riquíssim rellotge d'or. El diari Yucayo li dedica una entusiasta crònica."

La Veu de Catalunya 4226 (09/02/1911), ed. matí, p. 6.

"En Lluís Graner i la seva exposició a Califòrnia

La premsa nord-americana ha anat senyalant amb elogis el pas de nostre pintor Graner per les terres de l'Amèrica del Nord i avui, en els més importants diaris de Sant Francisco de Califòrnia, veiem notificada la celebració d'una exposició de pintures del nostre compatrici.

Un dels diaris, que és el The Evening Post, publica el retrat de l'artista. A penes si el coneguérem, car en Graner, al recórrer les terres americanes, ha deixat la barba i el bigoti. [...]"

La sala Mercè després de Graner (1910–1916)

La sala Mercè va continuar la seva activitat sota la recentment creada societat cinematogràfica Hispano Films, que comença la seva activitat empresarial al juliol de 1911 i que lloga la sala Mercè a partir del setembre:

> "En la ciudad condal se ha constituido una sociedad anónima, titulada "Hispano Films", que se dedicará a la edición de películas cinematográficas en Barcelona.
>
> Además, esta sociedad ha tomado en arriendo la sala Mercè para explotar el cinematógrafo y grutes, en cuyos locales se hacen obras de restauración y embellecimiento."
>
> La Cruz 3640 (16/09/1911), p. 2.

EN GUAL, CINEMATOGRAFIC

En virtut del refors que acaba de rebre, la casa Hispano-Films haurà de fer totes les películes ab paraigües.

Il·lustració 56: Caricatura còmica d'Adrià Gual com a director cinematogràfic de la Hispano Films. La Esquella de la Torratxa 1730 (23/02/1912), p. 134.

La nova empresa manté el principi de moralitat dels seus espectacles com un dels seus principals pilars i fa que l'obra d'Adrià Gual torni a la sala Mercè, ara com a director cinematogràfic.

Durant aquesta època, la Hispano Films estén la seva activitat a nivell internacional, per la qual cosa el 1913 acabarà reconstituint-se com a societat anònima, tot i que ara eliminant la "moralitat" de les clàusules dels nous estatuts.

L'activitat que té lloc a partir de la marxa de Lluís Graner és confosa degut a la falta de recerca i treball de documentació sobre el seu període purament cinematogràfic i a la contradicció entre la bibliografia existent. També són escassos els estudis sobre Ros i Güell i es desconeix en gran part l'activitat de les seves grutes.

Sembla que la Hispano Films continuarà amb les sessions cinematogràfiques a la sala Mercè de la Rambla fins al maig de 1915, reobrint la sala el 18 de novembre del mateix any per allotjar els "Espectacles Patufet" associats a la revista En Patufet. Pocs mesos després, però, els nous espectacles van haver de tancar per malentesos entre la Hispano Films, que era propietària de la sala, amb els propietaris de l'edifici:

> "Espectacles Patufet
>
> Estimats patufistes, tots ne deveu estar ja segurament enterats. S'han sospès els nostres Espectacles. Quan major era l'esplendor d'aquests, quan més complien la finalitat per la que havien estat creats, un desagradable succés imprevist, l'acció judicial entre el propietari de la casa a on està instal·lada la sala Mercè i la societat Hispano Films, propietària de dit solar, i en la que res hi té que veure l'empresa dels Espectacles, ha determinat la suspensió d'aquests, fins a nova ocasió a propòsit."
> En Patufet 626 (08/01/1916), p. 36.

Sospesa l'activitat cinematogràfica per ordre judicial, la sala romandria tancada fins al 1936, quan va reobrir sota el nom de "Cinema Atlàntic", per la qual cosa es va reformar tot l'interior acabant amb qualsevol rastre de la sala Mercè original de Gaudí i Graner.

Poc abans, Antoni Ros i Güell havia traslladat l'espectacle de les grutes als baixos del teatre Olympia, recuperant el nom de "grutes de la sala Mercè". Habitual col·laborador de la sala Mercè com a escenògraf i col·laborador de les instal·lacions artístiques, Ros i Güell inaugura les noves "grutes" amb una reposició del Palau d'en Banyeta, i poc després reprendria també la tradició dels pessebres monumentals.

Il·lustració 57: *Llibre pop-up publicitari de la reobertura de les grutes de la sala Mercè al teatre Olympia el 1933, dirigides per Antoni Ros i Güell. S'anuncia la instal·lació del "palau d'en Banyeta" i la preparació del "monumental pessebre de Nadal". Barcelona: Imp. Elzeviriana, [1933]. (Portada, contraportada i interior desplegat). [64] En aquest moment també existien a la ciutat la Joventut Tradicionalista, el Cercle Artístic Catòlic i el Cercle Catòlic Obrer, que comptaven amb salons on fer esdeveniments. Compartirien el caràcter conservador i catòlic del Centre Moral i del saló Gerió.

[65] També va dedicar-se a l'escriptura de textos per ser musicats, com les visions musicals o cançons infantils, i es va interessar pel folklore infantil de Girona. Era amic de Llongueras (qui posteriorment es va involucrar en la sala Ars Lucis de Terrassa) i tenia relació amb Josep Carner, contractat a la sala Mercè. Hauria conegut aquesta sala durant els seus estudis a Barcelona, la qual serviria com a model a imitar en admiració a Gaudí.

[66] Isidre Mollera era pianista i violoncel·lista, condeixeble de Pau Casals, i també va ser fundador i director de l'Orfeó Gironí. El seu germà per part de pare, Tomàs, era violinista, però a Girona es va dedicar principalment a tocar el piano. Treballava sovint amb Josep M.ª Dalmau, que era violinista.

Segons les descripcions de premsa, la porta de fusta està dividida en dos per una reixa de ferro, separant l'accés preferent del general. A sobre la porta hi ha un arc gòtic de ciment imitant la textura de roques amb armadura de ferro. L'escut de la ciutat apareix sobre una creu, i el rètol amb decoracions florals fet de mosaic de vidre de colors.

La reforma de Masó consistiria en l'ampliació de l'edifici original construint una planta rectangular que fa de façana cap a la plaça i que tindrà l'entrada i vestíbul, les escales, i a la planta de dalt les oficines de redacció de diversos diaris.

Temporada de primavera 1906

La remodelació i ampliació del Centre Moral Gironí i la creació a la seva sala d'actes hauria estat projectada almenys des de l'estiu de 1905, moment en què Rafael Masó, l'arquitecte encarregat del projecte i futur director artístic de l'empresa, comença a parlar amb el seu amic Josep Carner del "saló Gerió".

L'empresa inauguraria la seva activitat el 28 d'abril de 1906, imitant el model de la sala Mercè de Barcelona tant en el disseny arquitectònic com en la seva programació. Masó hauria conegut la sala Mercè durant les seves estades a Barcelona com a estudiant i tindria contacte directe amb ella a través del seu amic Josep Carner, qui treballaria just després de graduar-se com a dramaturg i adaptador teatral amb sou fix durant les temporades 1904/05 i 1905/06. A més, podria haver tingut contacte amb Lluís Graner (propietari i director general de l'empresa barcelonina) i amb Antoni Gaudí (arquitecte i dissenyador de la sala Mercè) al Cercle Artístic de Sant Lluc, del qual tots dos eren membres.

Aquesta activitat es basaria en visions musicals (gènere concebut per Lluís Graner a la sala Mercè), projeccions cinematogràfiques censurades segons la moral catòlica, projeccions fixes amb motius populars i religiosos, narració de rondalles per a infants, concerts de música popular i representacions dramàtiques. També s'oferien sessions matinals especials per als nens i un abonament a les "vetlles escollides". Tant el seu escenari com la caixa del projector, l'entrada i la taquilla del vestíbul seguirien el disseny gaudinià de la sala Mercè, amb ciment imitant la textura de roques i armadures de ferro, a més del modern sistema d'il·luminació amb bombetes elèctriques de colors.

A més de Rafael Masó, van tenir una especial implicació aquesta temporada en l'empresa Isidre Mollera, Tomàs Mollera i Josep Mª Dalmau com a trio musical fix al saló Gerió. Per a les representacions líriques que requerien orquestra, s'hauria instal·lat un sextet al fossat sota l'escenari, dirigit pel mateix Isidre Mollera. A més, la sala també comptava amb una inclinació descendent per poder visualitzar bé l'escenari des del fons de la sala.

També hi ha coincidències amb la sala Mercè en els autors de les visions musicals que s'hi van estrenar: Joaquim Pecanins (amic de Masó que hauria vingut a Girona per a l'estrena de la seva obra) havia col·laborat poc abans en la música de La dona d'aigua, visió musical per a la sala Mercè; Adrià Esquerra era un dels compositors més prolífics tant de la sala Mercè com dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner; i Ros i Güell va ser també un dels escenògrafs habituals de les visions musicals produïdes per Lluís Graner.

Tant l'empresa barcelonina com la nova iniciativa gironina compartien un mateix programa i propòsit ideològic: oferir espectacles moderns i estèticament atractius basats en el folklore català, en llengua catalana i seguint les directrius morals catòliques; en sessions curtes i a baix preu perquè les classes populars (amb un especial èmfasi en els infants i els continguts familiars) hi puguin assistir i d'aquesta manera es transmetin els valors de l'empresa a la societat i s'eviti la corrupció moral implícita en altres espectacles.

Aquesta primera temporada gironina presenta la major activitat teatral i cultural en general per iniciativa pròpia de l'empresa a la sala d'actes del Centre Moral (a partir d'ara coneguda com a saló Gerió). Empresa i espai compartirien el mateix nom, però hi hauria també activitats organitzades per altres entitats celebrades al mateix saló, com ara la branca dramàtica aficionada del mateix Centre Moral.

Inici de temporada: 28 d'abril de 1906.

- Visions musicals:

Oració de la nit, L' [67]

Visió crepuscular en 1 quadre.

Estrena el 28/04/1906.

Lletra de Rafael Masó (Fundació Rafael Masó[68]).

Música de Joaquim Pecanins (Fundació Rafael Masó).

Escenografia d'Antoni Ros i Güell.

Il·lustració 73: MASÓ, Rafael: L'oració de la nit. Girona: Tipografia d'en Masó, 1906 (portada).

[Glossa d'una llegenda alemanya, incloent-hi una cançó popular catalana. Es tractaria d'una adaptació de Hänsel und Gretel.

Els números musicals són per a violí, violoncel i piano i inclouen la música sobre la qual es resa l'oració, la cançó popular de les bruixes seguida d'una sardana i la melodia de l'àngel bo.

El decorat del quadre és un bosc frondós a l'hora de caure el sol.

Representada per uns 15 nens i nenes a escena.]

[67] La premsa solia escriure "La oració de la nit".
[68] La Fundació Rafael Masó disposa d'una còpia de la partitura original manuscrita de la col·lecció Maria Vallès, vídua del compositor, a més d'una còpia també del llibret amb la lletra sencera. A l'Arxiu Municipal de Girona (Reg. 1123045) es conserva un programa de mà anunciant la inauguració de la sala amb la representació de L'oració de la nit.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"La favorable impresión que exponíamos, como exclusivamente particular, en la pasada edición del Diario, fue la general que sintió luego del público en la tarde y noche de ayer, después de las primeras sesiones del saló Gerió. Una nota muy justa de esta impresión la daba un espectador en estas palabras: «Hay en todo lo de puertas adentro de esta casa, una naturalidad artística, una tonalidad amable y simpática, como la de estas paredes, que en el acto predispone a una placentera delectación que luego se proporciona sin desengaño».

Así logró un éxito espontáneo y merecido el espectáculo del saló Gerió, en todos los números del programa.

Por sobre todo sobresalió L'oració de la nit. De visión crepuscular la han calificado sus autores, y efectivamente, en ella está todo inspirado en la hora misteriosa del atardecer, en un bosque. El señor Masó i Valentí (D. Rafael), ha escrito unos versos frescos e ingenuos, muy sentidos, inspirados en una conocida leyenda alemana que tiene sus similares en otros países, aprovechando en la composición una bella y popular oración catalana. El joven maestro Pecanins se ha compenetrado también del tema de la visión y ha escrito una página inspiradísima, el primer número, que por sí sola avalora el cuadro; los otros números son dignos del anterior, en especial la canción popular de las brujas y la melodía final del ángel bueno. El pintor señor Ros i Güell ha presentado una decoración admirable; un bosque frondosísimo a la hora de ponerse el sol de un efecto encantador.

Todo redondeó el éxito de la visión: la excelente interpretación que supieron darle los pequeños artistas, pues el carácter de la visión exigió que fuesen niños todos los que la representaran, lo cual descubre una pacientísima labor de ensayo; los acertados efectos de luz con que va simulándose el anochecer en la escena; la justeza con que la orquesta bajo la dirección del maestro Mollera ejecuta la parte musical. Quizás se halle un pequeño lunar que turba la satisfacción; el espectáculo resulta de breve duración por la agradable sensación de belleza que produce; pero esto se remedia viéndolo de nuevo.

De lo demás podemos decir que está en perfecta armonía con el acierto que ha presidido en todo lo del saló Gerió. Un buen cinematógrafo, nuevo de la casa L. Gaumont, películas nuevas y atractivas; la plausible idea de alternar con audiciones de música popular los números del programa, como las danzas de Castelltersol y los bailes de la fiesta de Olot; nada, en fin, desentona.

Con éxito, repetimos, con éxito y bien merecido ha abierta sus puertas el saló Gerió. Es de esperar que el público sabrá apreciarlo y corresponder como ya lo hizo ayer la numerosísima asistencia a las sesiones que se dieron, a los esfuerzos de la Empresa que se propone dar en el mismo toda suerte de espectáculos artísticos, para lícito y moral esparcimiento."

Diario de Gerona 97 (29/04/1906), pp. 2–3.

"Espectáculos artísticos.— Atentamente invitados, asistimos anteayer a la sesión inaugural de los espectáculos que se darán durante una temporada en el salón teatro del Centro Moral Gerundense, transformado por completo con refinado gusto, y que ha recibido el nombre de Saló Gerió. Hoy, como debemos escribir a vuela-pluma para entregar las cuartillas a la imprenta, no podemos extendernos en consideraciones y comentarios.

L'oració de la nit es un cuadro plástico de sencillez idílica, sugestivo por su letra y música. La primera, original del distinguido artista y poeta don Rafael Masó y la segunda, del celebrado maestro Pecanins. Música, decorado, vistas cinematográficas, todo sale completamente de lo usual y vulgar a que por desgracia en nuestra ciudad estamos acostumbrados.

Ahora observemos si Gerona aprecia el arte verdadero."

La regeneración 7 (30/04/1906), p. 18.

"La inauguración del saló Gerió, fue como dijimos en nuestra edición del domingo, con referencia a las dos sesiones dadas el día anterior, un éxito que estaba ya descontado; pero el público lo sancionó de una manera palpable y evidente anteayer, pues fue tan numeroso el que acudió a presenciar el espectáculo ávido de recrearse en las bellezas del mismo, que fue absolutamente necesario para corresponder a la ansiedad y deseos de los que no pudieron entrar en las sesiones anunciadas para la tarde, dar otra sesión extraordinaria.

En todas ellas el local rebosaba de espectadores, y el entusiasmo de estos, en especial ante la visión musical L'oració de la nit fue grandísimo, recibiendo una ovación cada sesión los jóvenes artistas que tomaban parte en la ejecución, cuyos nombres nos complacemos en consignar a petición de muchas de las personas que asistieron a las mismas, y son: las niñas Cirilo, Rosita; Cañavate, Pepita; Figueras, Enriqueta; Murtra, Conchita y Perich, Mercedes; y los niños: Ferrer, (Enrique y Ramón); Bossacoma; Matas, José: Matas, Carlos; y Perich, Felipe.

Por la noche, a pesar de la lluvia abundante que caía, ya mucho antes de empezar, la concurrencia fue tan numerosa como distinguida. Cúmplenos consignar que las deficiencias que pudieron notarse en las proyecciones serán inmediatamente corregidas, correspondiendo la claridad de las mismas a su extraordinaria fijeza, que tan unánimes elogios mereció.

El jueves próximo, seguramente, empezarán, por la tarde, las sesiones para niños, en las que constituirá uno de los números, alguna de las más hermosas rondallas, y por la noche, se dará una sesión escogida, con todas las películas nuevas."

Diario de Gerona 98 (01/05/1906), p. 4.

"[...] L'argument del quadro esmentat es redueix simplement a que dos criatures, una més gran que l'altra, que es veuen obligades a passar la nit en mig del bosc sens cap abric, imploren l'auxili dels cels fent resar la més gran una sentida oració a sa germaneta abans de quedar-se adormides, quina oració fa que les bruixes i follets que surten ballant i xisclejant alegres a l'entorn d'aquella presa hagin de fugir al moment, fustigats per l'àngel protector que apareix radiant de claror per a emparar a n'aquelles devotes desgraciades.

Aquest quadro, acompanyat d'una música inspirada i sentimental com és la que composà el mestre Pecanins, representat en mig d'una llum crepuscular amb una decoració de gran perspectiva i color apropiadíssim, com la que pinta l'escenògraf Sr. Ros i Güell, i interpretat magistralment pels petits actors que el posaren en escena produeix un gran efecte, un efecte admirable.

No és estrany que el públic gironí tant amb sa assistència com amb ses ovacions als autors demostrés son entusiasme, puig a la veritat s'ho valia. A Girona no estavem acostumats a veure coses aixís. [...]

[Carta de Joaquim Pecanins a Rafael Masó que esmenta L'oració de la nit]

"Gualba – 20 – febrer. 1909.

Caríssim i mai oblidat amic: Meva culpa! Jo em considero indigne de la vostra amitat per haver sospès en vós l'escriure-us, però aquell demà, els atropells de la vida i tot un no sé què de mandra han fet que no sapiguesseu res de mi de tant temps...

Bueno. Per avui plegaré. Si és que no estigueu enfadat i encara m'estimeu una mica, recordeu's d'aquell xicot que amb tot l'afecte vos musicà l'hermosa Oració de la nit i escriviu-li anch que sian quatre mots i fareu bé en l'esperit del vostre amic i company que rebrà vostres lletres com a absolució. Muntanyes de Canigó [69]

Visió pirinenca en tres temps.

Estrena el 21/06/1906.

Lletra de Nicolau de la Font.

Música d'Adrià Esquerrà.

Escenografia de Ros i Güell.

[Glossa de la cançó popular homònima].

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Con un lleno completo estrenose anteanoche en el saló Gerió la visió pirinenca Muntanyes de Canigó que resulta un cuadro altamente dramático y delicado. Tal vez por esta causa y por falta de ensayos generales, no resultó la interpretación como es de esperar podrá verse después de representaciones sucesivas.

La letra, muy inspirada y la música, a la altura de la letra, siendo una glosa de la canción popular que da título al cuadro, hecha con un arte que acredita el ya reputado nombre del maestro Esquerrà. El decorado, precioso; Ros i Güell en el telón del fondo ha pintado una maravilla de realidad. Muntanyes de Canigó irá a gozarlas todo Gerona.

Una cosa nos apenó anteanoche, y es que parte de la concurrencia que llenaba el local a rebosar no estuviera a la altura del espectáculo. A las señoras bastó una ligera indicación para que después del primer día ni una sola haya ido a la vetlla con sombrero; desearíamos que a los caballeros les bastara —que no habría de ser necesario— la de que allí no debe fumarse y que los diálogos y los comentarios en alta voz no resultan en armonía con la cultura que se… busca."

Diario de Gerona 139 (23/06/1906), pp. 3–4.

[69] A la premsa sol aparèixer escrit amb la grafia "montanyes".

"Saló Gerió.— En esta sala de espectáculos se ha estrenado la visión musical Muntanyes de Canigó, letra de Nicolás de la Font y música del maestro Esquerrà.

La segunda representación, que es la única a la cual hemos asistido, dejaba algo que desear, quizá por la falta de ensayos.

Creemos que se remediará esto pronto y continuará siendo como hasta ahora el saló Gerió, el primer centro de arte concienzudo de la ciudad de Gerona.

El público debiera favorecer más esta clase de espectáculos que constituyen una obra de regeneración artística."

* Les funcions que van començar dissabte haurien passat en algun moment, segurament coincidint amb les alteracions de la programació per les festes del Corpus, als divendres. El teatre Novetats de la ciutat programava en dissabte i així no es feien competència.
El Novetats va canviar la seva programació de dijous als dimecres durant la celebració de les sessions infantils i les vetlles escollides del saló Gerió per no coincidir-hi.

*A partir del 28 de juny la documentació de la cartellera és escassa i no tenim informació de les últimes sessions ordinàries. Les representacions van acabar l'1 de juliol, i en cas d'haver-hi alguna altra sessió, com la del diumenge 8 de juliol, hauria estat només de cinematògraf.

Anuncis de la propera empresa al Centre Moral

[Carta a Rafael Masó de Josep Carner; sense data, probablement finals d'agost de 1905]

"Xiquet, et felicito pel teu premi de Capellades. La poesia és força genial, encara que afanada. [...] Envia'm qualque cosa per Art jove. T'adjunto el cartell d'Olot per si vols concorre a dit certamen. Parla'm de la sala Gerió [...] Que hi seràs, tu, per allà el 1 de setembre, a Girona? – Podria ser que jo per aquells dies hi passés un dematí.

J[osep] Carner"

"Tocan ya a su término las obras que se están llevando a cabo en los bajos del Centro Moral, por virtud de las cuales, el teatro de aquella Sociedad, así como el local todo, quedarán radicalmente transformados.

Las referidas obras, que se realizan por cuenta de varios jóvenes deseosos de dotar a nuestra ciudad de una sala de espectáculos de excelentes condiciones, en la que impere en todo el mejor gusto, acusan un noble afán de elevar la cultura de nuestro público digno del mayor elogio.

Aquí, donde por desgracia el teatro ha decaído ya hasta lo último de la pendiente, imperando no el género chico, sino el ínfimo, aquí donde las familias más tolerantes se han visto imposibilitadas de asistir a nuestros coliseos, porque aún entre las más calurosas protestas de que se haría una escrupulosa elección de obras, han dejado deslizar las empresas algunas notoriamente inaceptables; aquí, repetimos, hace falta una sala de espectáculos donde los que se ofrezcan al público respondan bajo todos conceptos a las condiciones que aquellos han de tener para que no sean tachables en modo alguno, y eduquen e instruyan a la par que distraigan y diviertan.

Y como a eso obedecerá rigurosamente cuanto en el saló Gerió, que así se denominará aquel local, se ofrezca, no dudamos del éxito que ha de alcanzar y del favor que ha de merecer del público todo, en especial de aquel que puede apreciar lo que vale y representa el esfuerzo que se hace con tan nobles propósitos."

"Saló Gerió.— Este es el nombre que se ha dado al salón de espectáculos de arte y proyecciones cinematográficas de que hablamos en nuestro anterior número, instalado en los bajos del Centro Moral Gerundense, transformados notablemente bajo la dirección del joven arquitecto D. Rafael Masó y Valentí.

La empresa de dicho Saló Gerió, que la constituyen varios jóvenes del Centro Moral, ha querido dotar a nuestra ciudad de un centro verdaderamente artístico. No sabemos a punto fijo el día de la inauguración; pero se cree que tendrá lugar la próxima semana con el estreno de una preciosa visión musical, intitulada L'oració de la nit, de la que son autores el compositor premiado en el Certamen de la Música Catalana, D. Joaquín Pecanins, y el laureado poeta de esta ciudad, D. Rafael Masó i Valentí, y para la cual ha pintado un hermoso decorado el notable artista Sr. Ros i Güell."

"Dícennos que mañana[71] abrirá sus puertas al público el nuevo salón Gerió, análogo a la Sala Mercè de Barcelona y situado en lo que fue salón de espectáculos del Centro Moral."

La República 34 (14/04/1906), p. 3.

"Dintre poc s'obrirà al públic lo salo Gerió, establert en el Centre Moral Gerundense, a on se daran audicions musicals i vistes cinematogràfiques. Amb aquest fi sembla que el saló d'actes de dita societat ha sigut notablement reformat amb molt de gust."

[71] La inauguració s'hauria anat endarrerit fins al dia 28.

"Ayer tuvimos ocasión de visitar los trabajos que se efectúan para la inauguración del saló Gerió, que probablemente se abrirá al público el domingo próximo, y en verdad hemos de confesar que salimos admirados del buen gusto que ha presidido en aquellos.

Con mayor detención nos ocuparemos de dicho local, pues en verdad lo merece."

Inauguració i descripcions del nou saló

"[Notícies i comentaris del ple de l'Ajuntament]

El señor Piferrer pregunta si se ha exigido la construcción de la acera correspondiente en la puerta abierta en la calle de Santa Clara para la salida de los concurrentes al saló Gerió, manifestándole el señor Bassols que había firmado dos comunicaciones en el sentido expresado por el señor Piferrer para otros dos propietarios, pero que en el caso de la calle de Santa Clara no lo ha ordenado todavía porque cree que no están aún terminadas las obras, pero que lo efectuará en cuanto aquellas queden listas.

Saló Gerió

Tal es el nombre con que unos cuantos jóvenes entusiastas del arte han bautizado el local de planta baja del Centro Moral y que en virtud de las obras realizadas está desconocido.

Hemos ido a visitar el saló para tan solo adelantar algunas noticias a nuestros lectores, pues tenemos la seguridad de que todos irán personalmente a visitarlo.

[72] El mateix anunci es publica a La lucha 8823 (26/04/1906), p. 2. També a Lo Geronés 574 (28/04/1906), p. 3, el dia de la inauguració, afegint l'especificació que les sessions ordinàries seran a les 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 i 10 amb el mateix programa.

En cuanto traspasamos el dintel, nuestra sorpresa fue grande, ya que la puertecita que daba antes acceso a la sala ha sido sustituida por un magnífico arco, gótico por su forma, pero construido con cemento y armadura de hierro imitando rocas, en las que ha sido dibujado el título que encabeza estas líneas con mosaicos de brillantes colores que la inspiración del artista ha combinado con gracia sin igual. Este arco, dividido en dos por una verja, separa la entrada general de la de preferencia.

Ya estamos en el saló: cuantos hayan visto el antiguo local y lo vean ahora lo desconocerán de seguro. El espacio comprendido entre las columnas queda destinado a las localidades de preferencia y tiene un declive de cerca de un metro a fin de que los espectadores no priven unos a otros la vista del escenario; los espacios laterales quedan destinados a entrada general.

El escenario ha sido reformado copiando el que existe en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. La boca del mismo imita también rocas adornadas con mosaicos y guirnaldas de precioso efecto; para los músicos que quedan ocultos a la vista del público se ha construido un profundo foso delante del escenario. En este se ha construido nuevo por completo todo lo referente a maquinaria y se ha colocado una completísima instalación de luces eléctricas, suficiente para producir toda suerte de efectos.

Es también de mucho gusto la casilla destinada a contener el aparato de proyecciones, construida también de cemento y armadura de hierro, en cuyos bajos y aprovechando lo que hubiera sido un estorbo, se ha construido un palco.

La iluminación del saló se efectuará por medio de bombillas eléctricas colocadas junto al techo, de las que durante los espectáculos quedarán encendidas dos, amortiguando su luz una combinación de gasas de colores.

Hay además otra porción de adornos que todos revelan el mejor buen gusto.

La salida se efectuará por otra puerta abierta en la calle de Santa Clara, que es también muy original y sigue lo tosco de toda la ornamentación.

En cuanto a los espectáculos que en el saló Gerió se darán, no pueden ser más escogidos; cinematógrafo, cuadros vivos, canciones populares y legendas arregladas a la escena, rondallas, danzas de la tierra, veladas musicales y sesiones dramáticas. Para ello se cuenta con el concurso de los mejores literatos, músicos y escenógrafos de Cataluña y Mallorca.

Las proyecciones cinematográficas, que serán cambiadas cada semana, alternarán con vistas fijas de procesiones, mercados, paisajes y monumentos.

Nada tendremos pues que envidiar a las mejoras salas de esta clase de espectáculos, pues los fundadores del saló Gerió están dispuestos a que este quede a la altura de los mejores, a cuyo efecto para su instalación no han perdonado gasto ni detalle; han conseguido una línea directa desde la Central de electricidad para disponer en toda ocasión del fluido eléctrico necesario y se hallan dispuestos a que los espectáculos merezcan el favor del público. Los propietarios no son mercantilistas, son sencillamente amigos de arte y entienden que este no puede hacerse con mezquindades ni gollerías.

Para el día de la inauguración, que probablemente será el próximo domingo, se nos dijo que vendría a presenciarla el Maestro Pecanins acompañado probablemente del gran Lamote de Grignon, director del teatro del Liceo.

Antes de terminar, felicitemos pero muy cordial y sinceramente al arquitecto Don Rafael Masó, a cuya dirección han estado confiadas todas las obras en las que ha puesto sus excepcionales conocimientos de artista, hábilmente secundado por Don Benito Mosqueras en las obras de albañilería, Don Jaime Adroher en las pinturas, Don Nonito Cadenas en lo referente a cerrajería, Don José Matas carpintero y Don José Iglesias electricista.

Muy bien jóvenes fundadores del saló Gerió; así es como se demuestra el cariño a la ciudad."

La lucha 8823 (26/04/1906), p. 2.

"Esta tarde a las cinco y media, se celebrará la sesión inaugural del saló Gerió, reservada únicamente a las autoridades e invitados oficiales. Por la noche, se abrirá al público el espectáculo.

[…]

Hoy llegará de Barcelona el maestro Pecanins, acompañado probablemente del director de la orquesta del Liceo de Barcelona maestro Lamote de Grignon para asistir al estreno de la visión musical L'oració de la nit en el saló Gerió de cuya partitura es autor el primero.

También llegará el artista señor Ros i Güell, de aquella ciudad, autor del decorado de dicho cuadro, con el mismo objeto.

Correspondiendo a1a expectación con que el público todo aguarda la inauguración del saló Gerió, verdaderamente notable por lo general e intensa, nos complacemos en hacer a nuestros lectores una descripción de aquel, a fin de que puedan hacerse cargo de la transformación radical que ha sufrido lo que fue teatro del Centro Moral.

La que era sencilla y estrechísima puerta, es ahora espacioso portal de líneas tan sencillas como elegantes que afecta la forma obligada por el tramo de la escalera que da acceso al café de la citada sociedad de recreo. La artística y bien entendida ornamentación del portal se extiende a todo el lienzo de pared en que está abierto, sobre cuyo fondo, en el que aparece perdido follaje, destaca en primer término un escudo de la ciudad sobre una cruz, y el título, compuesto con grandes letras de mosaico de cristal, y grandes flores ornamentales logradas por el mismo procedimiento, formando el conjunto espléndido y brillante efecto.

Completan la decoración del portal unos bien entendidos y artísticos hierros cuya disposición favorece el buen orden en el ingreso del público; una severa puerta de madera cierra la entrada.

El interior del local, con todo y no permitir las condiciones especiales del mismo grandes transformaciones, está verdaderamente desconocido.

Techo y paredes, tienen una entonación clara e igual, que dan al conjunto por lo distinguido un agradabilísimo efecto. A lo largo de los muros corre un arrimadero tosco y original que armoniza perfectamente con la casilla destinada al aparato de proyecciones y boca del escenario, que constituyen una verdadera novedad por su estilo, por su sencillez y por su buen gusto.

El aparato de proyecciones exigía ser colocado en condiciones tales, que obligaba a tener dentro del local un cuerpo saliente, que irregularizándolo lo afeara, y este peligro se ha salvado con gran fortuna dando a la casilla que ha de contenerlo una forma tan original como artística, resultante de las necesidades a que obedece la misma y utilizando la parte inferior para un palco destinado a la empresa.

Toda la casilla afecta una construcción especial por lo nueva, cuyo conjunto resulta sumamente agradable, pues así la escalera que da acceso a la parte superior, como el balconcillo del lado opuesto, dan tan extraordinario movimiento a la masa, que, con los artísticos, aunque sencillos, hierros de una y otro, contribuyen grandemente al excelente efecto del conjunto.

Desde la casilla mencionada hasta la escena, o sea, todo el espacio entre columnas, es el que se ha destinado a preferencia, y para mayor comodidad de los espectadores se ha dado al piso un buen declive que permitirá a todos por igual disfrutar sin estorbos del espectáculo. El referido recinto de preferencia está separado del restante local por una valla de hierro del mismo estilo y gusto que la del portal.

La boca del escenario es, sin duda alguna, lo de más importancia y lo que más llamará la atención del público.

Para que destacara el espectáculo perfectamente a los ojos de aquel, sin que nada pudiera distraerle y para obtener a la par mayor efecto musical, en el sitio destinado a la orquesta se ha construido un foso, en el que los músicos estarán ocultos a la vista del espectador por una gran concha, que pintada del mismo tono que las paredes, contribuye a la armonía del conjunto en gran manera.

Esa gran concha parece como incrustada en las rocas, que, brotando del suelo y formando gruta, componen la boca del escenario. A la izquierda del mismo aparece una cruz y varias flores ornamentales como las del portal de entrada y de entre las estalactitas cuelgan follajes. La batería de candilejas está oculta por una serie de estalagmitas. El conjunto es realmente grandioso y produce gratísima impresión.

Para cerrar la boca del escenario se ha desterrado el típico telón, que ha sido sustituido por una doble cortina que se descorre a ambos lados, elevándose gradualmente y formando grandes pliegues.

El salón está iluminado por dieciséis lámparas, colocadas a la altura del techo y alrededor de las columnas, ocultas bajo tules de color que atenuarán la luz de las que resten encendidas durante las proyecciones. La forma de iluminación da al local una entonación tan extraordinariamente simpática que dudamos pudiera haberse logrado mayor efecto.

En el escenario, toda la maquinaria es nueva; se le ha dotado de una perfecta instalación eléctrica, en tal forma, que puede lograr una intensidad de 1500 bujías, permitiendo obtener todas las combinaciones y efectos posibles. Y como se tiene línea especial desde la Central, podrán los espectáculos darse a cualquier hora.

Como prueba de que no se ha dejado detalle alguno que pueda contribuir a la perfección de los espectáculos, haremos constar que se ha establecido comunicación telefónica entre la casilla de proyecciones y el escenario y músicos, así como timbres eléctricos que avisarán al público de dentro y fuera y a las personas que se hallen en el café del Centro Moral, el momento en que va a dar comienzo el espectáculo.

Para facilitar el desocupo del local se ha dispuesto la salida por la calle de Sta. Clara, abriendo un portal cuyo estilo y buen gusto corresponde al que domina en todo lo demás, incluso en la taquilla, que es de una elegancia exquisita.

Faltaríamos a nuestro deber si no consignáramos como es de justicia los nombres de todos los operarios que han contribuido a la ejecución de las obras, que han sido, en lo tocante a albañilería, D. Benito Mosqueras, los hierros han salido del acreditado taller de D. Nonito Cadenas; todo lo de carpintería del de D. Francisco Matas; las pinturas han corrido a cargo de D. Jaime Adroher y la instalación eléctrica la ha hecho el inteligente electricista D. José Iglesias, operando todos bajo la dirección de nuestro compañero el arquitecto D. Rafael Masó y Valentí.

Merecen calurosísima felicitación los jóvenes que constituidos en empresa del saló Gerió, sin reparar en gastos, con un desprendimiento verdaderamente espléndido; sin la menor ambición de lucro y por el solo afán de dotar a la ciudad de un local de espectáculos donde el público, a la vez que distracción, halle motivos para educar su buen gusto. Han dado una nota de vibrante progreso rindiendo tributo al arte."

"Inauguración.— Ayer a las seis de la tarde tuvo lugar la inauguración del nuevo local denominado Saló Gerió, instalado en los bajos del Centro Moral situado en la Plaza San Agustín.

El cuadro plástico L'oració de la Nit, original de don Rafael Masó, mereció abundantes y ruidosos aplausos por parte de la extraordinaria y selecta concurrencia que llenaba el espacioso salón.

Parece que el indicado local promete verse muy concurrido en las siguientes sesiones."

“Desvetllament

En la freda, en l’ensopida ciutat de Girona ha ocorregut un aconteixement. I aconteixement verament notable si es consideren les circumstancies de nostra pacífica ciutat és l’estreno d’un important lloc d’espectacles d’art com és el saló Gerió. Més notable, perquè l’art que allí es farà serà el verdader art i preferentment el de nostra terra. Més notable i plausible encara per quant la més estricta moralitat i decència presidiran els espectacles d’aquell recinte.

Ja n’estàvem tips de no presenciar en nostres teatres res més que aquell art foraster i carrincló, ja n’estàvem cansats d’aquelles bromes insulses i immorals del desastrós género chico que s’ha ensenyorit de Girona com s’ha ensenyorit de tot arreu.

Bé les trobàvem escasses les manifestacions artístiques en aquesta ciutat a on casi tot l’art es redueix a exhibicions de postals indecentes, però ens havíem de resignar a permanèixer en nostra monòtona calma, trencada solsament de tant en quant, per l’audició d’algun cèlebre concertista o per la vinguda d’un orfeó. Mes ara ha vingut un simpàtic desvetllament, amb l’aparició d’aquesta font d’art que s’anomena saló Gerió, que per sa importància crec que mereix ser conegut dels lectors d’aquesta revista, a n’aquí vaig ara a dona’ls-hi d’ell breus notícies.

Garantia de sa serietat i decència és no sols l’haver-se instal·lat en el local del Centre Moral, sinò també la significació i bon nom de sos elements directors.

Penyora de l’art i bon gust que allí regna n’és l’adorno del saló. D’una disposició tan nova i elegant com senzilla, hi destaquen en ell per sa major ornamentació l’artística porta d’entrada, la caseta destinada a l’aparato de projeccions que té la forma d’una robusta torre i la boca de l’escenari que representa amb perfecció l’entrada d’una gran cova, a on no hi falten grosses estalactites, ni verdoses heures arrapades a les roques.

Magnífica mostra dels espectacles que en el saló es van a donar ne foren els que s’hi representaren el dissabte i diumenge últims, dies de sa inauguració.

Projeccions cinematogràfiques molt interessants i escollides; audicions de danses catalanes entre les quals hi figuraren el ball del ciri de Castelltersol i els de gegants, cavallins i nanos d’ aqueixa vila, pulcrament executats per el quinteto del Sr. Mollera, que foren molt de l’agrado del públic, i per final la representació del bonic quadro L’oració de la nit, d’argument senzill però ben desarrollat en apropiats versos del llorejat poeta en Rafel Masó, a qui cap també la glòria de portar la direcció artística tant de la construcció del local com dels espectacles que allí es faran. [...]

Per ma part, dec manifestar que la fundació del saló Gerió és lo millor que fill d’aquesta ciutat ha vist a Girona. Lo qual ens ha d’alegrar a tots, puig que nascut a l’escalf d’una societat catòlica està destinat a donar abundosos fruits de moralitat, il·lustració i recreo de què tan mancada està nostra ciutat.

Narcís [Masó?]

"Se ha inaugurado en esta ciudad con el título de "Gerió" y en el local que ocupa la sociedad "Centro Moral", un salón de espectáculos de arte.

Invitados a la sesión inaugural, no nos fue posible asistir; no por esto dejamos de agradecer mucho la invitación."

Heraldo de Gerona 431 (03/05/1906), p. 2.

"El saló Gerió.— Conforme anunciamos en nuestro último número, el sábado inaugurose el saló Gerió, de espectáculos artísticos, instalado en los bajos del Centro Moral Gerundense, transformado y mejorado notablemente bajo la dirección del joven arquitecto D. Rafael Masó. A la sesión inaugural asistieron el Vicario Capitular, el Presidente de la Audiencia, Alcalde, Concejales, Canónigos, catedráticos del Seminario y del Instituto, escribanos y otras personalidades al efecto invitadas.

En todas las sesiones del sábado y del domingo obtuvo un éxito completo la visión musical L'oració de la nit, cuyos autores Srs. Masó, de la letra, y Pecanins, de la música, fueron con insistencia llamados a la escena. La parte de cinematógrafo fue también del agrado del público, así como los intermedios musicales en los que un trío compuesto de los señores Mollera (T. e I.) y Dalmau ejecutó selectos números de música popular.

No dudamos que el público de Gerona corresponderá con creces al esfuerzo en bien del arte y de la diversión, han hecho los que a su cargo tienen el saló Gerió."

El tradicionalista 202 (03/05/1906), p. 3.

"Dissabte passat vàrem assistir a la inauguració del saló Gerió, establert en el saló d'actes del Centre Moral, que baix la direcció artística de l'intel·ligent arquitecte en Rafel Masó ha sigut transformat de tal modo que bé pot dir-se que està del tot desconegut, La porta d'entrada, la boca de l'escenari i lo local a on hi ha los aparatos de projecció, segueixen lo mateix estil i convencen una vegada més que el senyor Masó, autor del projecte, figurarà indubtablement a no trigar gaire entre los arquitectes de renom.

Lo quadro L'oració de la nit és una preciositat així en la música, del jove compositor Pecanins, com en la lletra del mateix Masó; lo decorat, hermós. Felicitem coralment a l'empresa per son encert en dotar a Girona d'un lloc on s'hi faci art, al director artístic en Rafel Masó i a tots los artistes que han treballat en les obres de transformació del local."

Activitat inicial al saló Gerió

“La Empresa del saló Gerió nos suplica la inserción de lo siguiente:

"La casa L. Gaumont està construint amb tota activitat un reòstat adequat al voltatge de la corrent de nostre capital que permetrà donar a nostre aparell cinematogràfic una magnífica potencia lluminosa.

Així fem saber al públic que fins a tenir l’esmentat aparell no es donaran més sessions."”

“Se han suspendido las sesiones de cinematógrafo del saló Gerió hasta que queden corregidas algunas deficiencias en la intensidad del foco eléctrico del aparato de proyecciones.”

La lucha 8831 (05/05/1906), p. 2.

“Subsanadas ya las pequeñas deficiencias que motivaron que el jueves de la semana pasada no empezaran en el saló Gerió las sesiones dedicadas a los niños de ambos sexos por la tarde, reanudáronse los espectáculos en aquel simpático salón el sábado pasado por la tarde, con una sesión dedicada a las personas que, viniendo al mercado, por razón de sus ocupaciones personales no pueden demorar el regreso a su domicilio.

Las películas exhibidas en las sesiones del sábado y domingo fueron sumamente variadas y escogidas, y alcanzaron una intensidad luminosa notable, y no hablamos de la fijeza porque es unánimemente reconocido que ningún otro aparato de los que hasta ahora habían funcionado en Gerona la ha tenido mayor. Aunque alguna de dichas películas mereció del público tan grande aceptación que seguramente la verían con gusto repetirse, serán todas ellas renovadas esta semana.

El cuadro L’oració de la nit, obtiene cada vez mayor éxito, y es la mejor prueba de ello la espontánea y calurosa ovación que la concurrencia que llena siempre el local tributa cada vez a los pequeños artistas que lo interpretan con tanto acierto.”

Inauguració de les sessions infantils

"Esta tarde se inaugurarán en el saló Gerió las sesiones infantiles."

Diario de Gerona 106 (10/05/1906), p. 5.

"En las primeras sesiones que se celebrarán en el saló Gerió serán exhibidas en proyección varias fotografías de las fiestas celebradas en el pueblo de Celrà, obtenidas por el aficionado don José Fabrellas."

La lucha 8835 (10/05/1906), pp. 2–3.

"Con un franco y verdadero éxito se inauguraron ayer tarde en el saló Gerió las sesiones que todos los jueves se dedicarán a los niños de ambos sexos, con rebaja de precios.

Como estaba anunciado se estrenaron varias de las películas nuevas que se exhibirán en las sesiones de mañana y pasado, que resultaron como siempre notables por su claridad y fijeza. Se proyectaron varias vistas fijas, de las calles procesión y sardanas de Celrà, sacadas expresamente para el saló Gerió durante la pasada fiesta mayor.

Y con gran contento de la gente menuda y joven fue contada la popular rondalla La rateta, en forma y lenguaje tan ameno y correcto como todas las que figuran en la edición de Rondalles mallorquines del infatigable y erudito folklorista Mn. Antonio Mª Alcover. La visión musical L'oració de la nit obtuvo como siempre una ovación.

Estas sesiones, dedicadas como hemos dicho a los niños de ambos sexos, para dar las cuales se ha elegido la tarde del jueves, que lo es de fiesta en todos los colegios, alcanzarán gran favor del público a que se dedican, pues al atractivo de las primicias de las películas y representación del cuadro plástico, reúne el que ofrece siempre, hasta para los grandes, una rondalla bien contada, que siempre resulta instructiva, y la proyección de vistas fijas de asuntos populares, que ofrecen siempre amenidad. Es por consiguiente de aplaudir la idea que ha inspirado esas sesiones a los directores del saló Gerió."

Diario de Gerona 107 (11/05/1906), pp. 4–5.

"La sesión especial para los niños que se celebró el jueves por la tarde en el saló Gerió mereció absoluta aprobación y aplauso así por los numerosos pequeños concurrentes, como por sus acompañantes también en buen número.

Se hicieron proyecciones de vistas fijas de Celrà, de películas muy variadas; se ejecutaron trozos de música; recitáronse dos cuentos y acabó el espectáculo con la visión de L'oració de la nit que cada día obtiene más aplausos."

"LES TARDES DELS DIJOUS AL SALÓ GERIÓ

Són unes tardes, matinals. Perquè són adornades amb la frescor i la color i la tendresa de la mainada, que és com dir amb els meravellosos encants de lo acabat de néixer. Els dematins són extraordinàriament bells i ens complauen, perquè en tot hi endevinem un desig de ser, en tot hi sobtem un gest de delit per tot hi veiem l'alegria del començar. Aquest vital alè, aquest delitós afany del néixer, es lo que ens fa molt plaents i molt atractives les matinades.

Ho torno a repetir: les tardes del dijous al saló Gerió són tardes matinals. Hi ha la vivor de les gotes de rosada en aquells ullets tan esbadocats; la dolçor dels boirosos paratges, és en les bellugoses pells dels infants, les delicades tonalitats de la flor, en les finors rosades de les galtes, aquell encantador badament dels calzers, en les boques que s'aponcellen i les mans qui s'obren, i tota aquella frescor d'ambient i alegria de l'aire i llum i esclat d'aucells qui es persegueixen, hi és en les ingènues rialles, en els braços que voletegen, en els ditets qui es destrien, els xiscles que hi campanegen i les admiracions que s'hi escapen.

Totes les esplendors i fineses dels matins se complauen en adornar les tardes d'aquests dijous.

Les ingenuïtats no tenen aturador. Si el tinguessin ja deixarien de ser tals i ja deixaria la ingenuïtat de ser encantadora. En el temps de la mentida i del encarcarament, és una consoladora cosa la ingenuïtat! I el saló Gerió, en la tarda del dijous, era com un brollador d'ingenuïtats; com una panera d'innocència.

Va sortir un cavall en una vista, i la ingenuïtat brollà també franca i decidida. Alhora van alçar-se un escampall de braços teclejant els joguinosos ditets i manotejant per a guiar-lo; i una veu de cristall va dir-li "Arriï'l" i multitud de petites cames van moure's trontollant sobre els barrons del cadirat, acompanyades d'un plàstic remor de boca.

Pegaven i martiritzaven a un infant en una pel·lícula, i eren per a contristar aquelles molsudes carones, amb arrugats al front i estiraments als llavis, buscant amb les mans la protectora estreta de les dels seus pares o germans i amb un visible encongiment de pit. Jo sé que van entendrir-me més, uns plors vivament arrencats d'infantons atordits que giraren la cara, que tot el tràgic assumpte que es desenrotllava en la pel·lícula!

I en la rondalla de la rateta, d'aquella rateta tan empolainada amb el llacet a la cua i aquell gat tan estrafolari, era un celestial disfrutar, el parar esment en la sonoritat de les rialles, en l'expansiva intensitat dels xiscles, en aquell desvergonyiment inofensiu dels comentaris, en la invencible impetuositat del calificar, en l'espontaneïtat del gest i sobretot, sobretot, en la intensiva expressió d'aquells ullets, d'aquells ullets espurnejants com un estel, per les rialles, ara astorats i botint pel misteri i per la por, després velats i humitosos per l'entendriment.

Oh! Benhagen els infants, jutges ingenus, meravellosos espills de les bondats d'una obra!

L'alegria d' aquella tarda va comunicar-se'm. I sé ben be que quan els infants se'n foren anats entre fresseig de peus i sorolloses corredisses, vaig trobar menos desemparades i melangioses aquelles parets del saló i més alegres i verdejants aquelles lluïdoses fulles que volten a la Creu.

Hi havia arreu com un perfum d'ingenuïtat que sortia de totes les coses. Com una dolçor vessada. Com si l'alegria surés visible per l'espai!

I a terra, a terra hi havia la més esplèndida manifestació d'una hora de goig. Hi lluïa una estesa de quadrejats paperets, despulles d'una llaminosa menja, xuclada amb tota la intensitat, assaborida amb tot el plaer, disfrutada amb tota la plenitud, per aquells boques, per aquells ulls, per aquells cors, que havien trobat l'assoliment de la més pura delectació en les bondats de les llaminadures per la boca i les belleses de les llaminadures del sentiment.

Dret en mig del saló, entre la tèbia llum de les glaces, en aquells moments de solitud, una infinita recança de no tenir infants se'm ficava amorosament cor endins.

"A las sesiones celebradas el jueves tarde y noche en el saló Gerió asistió numerosísima concurrencia. La película L'erupció del Vesubi es muy notable y fue muy celebrada."

La lucha 8843 (19/05/1906), p. 2.

"La segunda de las sesiones dedicadas a los niños y niñas por el saló Gerió, celebrada anteayer tarde, corrobora el lisonjero pronóstico que acerca del éxito de las mismas hicimos.

El número de niños que asistió a dicha sesión fue ya mucho mayor que el que concurrió a la primera, y en ellos despertó el mayor entusiasmo lo mismo la exhibición de las divertidas y variadas películas, cómo la narración de la popular rondalla, como la representación de la preciosa visión musical.

Es admirable el orden y compostura con que aquellos pequeños presencian todo el espectáculo, orden que contrasta con la alegre algazara con que durante los breves intermedios lo comentan comunicándose sus inocentes impresiones.

Las sesiones infantiles de los jueves, no vacilarnos en afirmar que serán un brillante éxito para el saló Gerió, cuyos empresarios demuestran con ellas que no les guía el interés del lucro y sí el procurar la ilustración de la juventud."

Diario de Gerona 114 (19/05/1906), p. 6.

"Las sesiones que vienen dedicándose a los niños y niñas se ven cada día más concurridas y animadas. El jueves último diose la segunda de las citadas sesiones notándose mucha mayor concurrencia que en la anterior, reinando gran entusiasmo entre los pequeños infantes que presenciaban alegremente las divertidas películas que se exhibieron, así como también la narración de la popular rondalla y el precioso cuadro L'oració de la nit.

Hoy se exhibirán nuevas y bonitas películas las cuales no dudamos agradarán, por su claridad y fijeza, finalizando las sesiones con la tan aplaudida visión musical L'oració de la nit, que tanto éxito viene alcanzando desde su primera representación al público gerundense.

La Empresa de saló Gerió nos remite para que les insertemos las siguientes líneas que nos complacemos en reproducir[73]:

«Aquesta empresa fa constar públicament el seu agraïment a les dignes persones que, interessant-se per l'èxit de la seva bona obra, han subscrit i li han tramés una carta demanant-li l'obertura d'un abono als seus Espectacles.

Aquesta carta que mereix la reproducció per l'esperit amb què està escrita diu així:

> «Srs. Empresaris del saló Gerió:
>
> És una obra molt lloable i molt culta la que vostès estan portant a cap. Creiem nosaltres que sols amb aquest esperit es pot anar avant i per això ens considerem amb l'obligació d'encoratjar i allargar la mà.
>
> Els que firmem hem cregut donar satisfacció a aquests sentiments demanant a vostès l'obertura d'un abono als seus Espectacles, quina forma i condicions deixem al seu bon gust.
>
> Així, al mateix temps que assegurarem com se mereix l'èxit de la seva bona obra, lograrem el goig de reunir-nos en íntim aplec els que per una mateixa manera de pensar i d'apreciar sentim la necessitat de la comunicació.
>
> Des d'ara, doncs, senyors empresaris, si els hi és agradable la nostra idea, compti'ns entre els seus abonats i ferms propagandistes.— Josep Sambols.— Joaquim Veray.— Joan de Carreras.— Joaquim Franquesa.— F. L'empresa acull amb complascència després de remerciar-la aquesta bona idea i per a que, fent-se extensiva, sia aprofitada per totes les persones que vulgan protegir-la, fa saber que des d'avui obre un abono pels Espectacles que es donen al seu saló baix les següents condicions:

[73] Aquest text enviat pels empresaris del saló va ser també publicat dos dies després a La lucha 8845 (22/05/1906), p. 2.

1ª L'abono serà per sis sessions.

2ª Aquestes sessions seran els dijous de cada setmana a dos quarts de deu del vespre, i es diran Vetlles escollides.

3ª En aquestes sessions no hi hauran distincions de lloc, doncs seran obertes les portes que separen la Preferència i l'Entrada general.

4ª En les sessions d'abono s'estrenaran les visions, ballets, pel·lícules i altres atraccions que es portin al saló.

5ª La seva durada serà d'una hora i mitja, doncs sempre constaran d'un número més que les ordinàries i hi hauran intermitjos de conversa.

6ª Els abonats tindran privilegis per a sessions extraordinàries, científiques, etc. que es donguin en ocasions especials.

7ª El preu d'abono per a una entrada i cadira per a sis sessions serà de 2 pessetes.

8ª El despatx de l'abono es farà a la taquilla del saló Gerió cada dia de 7 a 8 del vespre i la primera Vetlla escollida tindrà lloc el prop vinent dijous. »

"En la función que se celebrará esta noche en el saló Gerió para la inauguración de las veladas de abono, tomará parte el Orfeó Gironí. La sección de señoritas interpretará La pastoreta y No t'ha trobat!; la señorita Pernal interpretará la Cançó d'abril y la señorita Carreras, La font: estas composiciones son todas originales del maestro Lamote de Grignon. Las secciones de señoritas y niños cantarán la canción popular Fum! Fum! Fum! del maestro Pecanins. La velada promete resultar interesante."

La lucha 8847 (24/05/1906), p. 3.

"Como era de esperar, resultó brillante la velada que el jueves último se celebró en el saló Gerió como inauguración del abono.

Entre las numerosas familias que se han inscrito como abonados constan las de Sambola, Veray, Furest, de Fontanilles, Adroger, Llach, Cull, Carreras, Garriga, Careaga, Mateu, Masó, Viñas, Vives, Fabrellas, Pujol, Moner, Gorgot, Monsalvatge, García, Franquesa, Gispert, Prim, Reitg, Babot, Burch, Almeda, Audouard y Puig de Marcillo[75].

El espectáculo mereció la más absoluta aprobación de los concurrentes que prodigaron repetidos aplausos al Orfeó Gironí y a los maestros Lamote y Pecanins. Las películas exhibidas fueron muy notables y como siempre, mereció también aplausos la visión L'oració de la nit. Felicitamos a la empresa del saló Gerió por el éxito de las veladas."

La lucha 8848 (26/05/1906), p. 2.

"Celebróse anteanoche en el saló Gerió la primera de las vetlles escollides, viéndose ocupado el local, que estaba lleno de bote en bote, por una distinguida concurrencia.

El espectáculo resultó muy brillante, contribuyendo en gran modo a ello la parte musical encargada a la sección de señoritas del Orfeó Gironí, que con gran afinación y notable ajuste ejecutó las canciones La pastoreta, No t'ha trobat! y Fum!, fum!, del maestro Lamote de Grignon las dos primeras y del maestro Pecanins la última.

Las señoritas Carreras y Pernal cantaron respectivamente a solo, con delicada expresión y buen gusto La cançó d'abril y La font, acompañándolas al piano su autor, el maestro Lamothe.

Hubo aplausos entusiastas para todos; se obligó a la repetición de tres canciones y los maestros Lamothe y Pecanins. en honor de los cuales se celebró la fiesta, fueron llamados a las tablas recibiendo una cariñosa manifestación de simpatía.

Nada diremos de las películas proyectadas, todas excelentes; ni de la visión musical L'oració de la nit, cada vez más aplaudida del público.

El brillantísimo éxito de la primera vetlla escollida es garantía de lo que serán las demás, pues son cerca 150 los abonos despachados, y por consiguiente en las sucesivas no han de faltar los elementos que tanto brillo y distinción dieron a la de anteayer, tanto más cuanto el espectáculo ofrecía todas las condiciones para constituir aquel elegante salón en centro de reunión selecta.

Con verdadera satisfacción se puede hacer constar que la inmensa mayoría de señoras y señoritas tuvieron el buen acierto de prescindir del sombrero para concurrir a la función y es seguro que en las próximas serán raros los que se vean, si es que alguno hay."

 El desenvolupament de les vetllades al saló

"Girona.— El dia 27 del passat maig va representar-se al saló Gerió un bonic quadro plàstic titulat L'oració de la nit, lletra d'en Rafael Masó i música d'en J. Pecanins, a qual estrena hi assistí el jove compositor autor de la música, acompanyat del mestre Lamote de Grignon. En obsequi a dits senyors se celebrà en el mateix local una notable vetllada. En ella, la selecció de senyoretes de l'Orfeó Gironí cantà algunes composicions dels esmentats autors, que obtingueren xardosos aplaudiments. Per a correspondre a la simpàtica manifestació del públic, els senyors Lamote i Pecanins tingueren de presentar-se diferents vegades a l'escenari.

Pocs dies més tard, l'artística societat Orfeó Gironí dedicà als seus socis protectors una altra vetllada musical [...]"

"La segunda vetlla escollida, celebrada anteanoche en el saló Gerió, vióse sumamente concurrida, resultando tan amena y agradable como la anterior.

El idilio Els dos Cresos de Apeles Mestres resultó puesto con gran propiedad a la escena y por su sencillez notable dejó una gratísima impresión en el público.

Por haberse de retrasar el decorado a fin de empezar la colocación del correspondiente al nuevo cuadro Muntanyes de Canigó, que se estrenará probablemente el próximo jueves, se presentó por última vez la visión musical L'oració de la nit, con motivo de la cual los

Diario de Gerona 124 (02/06/1906), p. 4.

"La segunda función de abono celebrada el pasado jueves se vio, como la primera, muy concurrida. Además de un escogido programa de películas nuevas, muy interesantes, se representó el "idilio" de Apel·les Mestres, Els dos cresos, cuyo desempeño estuvo confiado a los Sres. Ramón Adroher y Juan Figueras, los cuales fueron extraordinariamente aplaudidos. Se representó también por última vez el cuadro musical L'oració de la nit, como siempre muy bien recibido por el público.

Probablemente el jueves de la próxima semana se estrenará el nuevo cuadro Muntanyes de Canigó."

El tradicionalista 211 (03/06/1906), p. 3.

El tradicionalista 212 (07/06/1906), p. 3.

[78] A la mateixa pàgina s'anuncia que la Secció Dramàtica del Centre Moral va posar en escena l'anterior diumenge la "chistosa zarzuela en dos actos" Casament doble, amb els actors aficionats Srs. Prat, Valls, Figueras, Adroher i Bosacoma. Es podria tractar d'aquesta mateixa obra per incloure la mateixa frase descriptiva de "chistosa zarzuela en dos actos" i per compartir actors amb les representacions del saló.

"En el saló Gerió instalado en el Centro Moral de esta ciudad se inaugurará hoy a las 6 de la tarde una sección especial dedicada a los niños, y por la noche a las 9 y ½, la tercera velada de abono. Ambas prometen ser muy animadas."

Heraldo de Gerona 437 (14/06/1906), p. 3.

"Anteayer, viernes, se celebró en el saló Gerió la cuarta función de abono viéndose extraordinariamente concurrida hasta llenar el local. Se proyectaron gran número de películas cinematográficas muy escogidas; el trío de los Srs. Mollera y Dalmau ejecutó diversas composiciones con gran ajuste y cantaron la tiple Srta. Pernal y el tenor Sr. Famadas, la primera dos hermosas composiciones catalanas y el segundo el aria O paradisso de La africana. Ambos fueron aplaudidísimos, debiendo repetir su cantata.

Felicitamos a la Empresa por el buen gusto con que organiza esas veladas escogidas.

[79] La mateixa notícia de cartellera, però en català, publicada al Diario de Gerona 134 (17/06/1906), p. 6.

"Anteanoche, en la sesión de abono del saló Gerió, cantó el joven D. Amador Famadas el aria Oh, paradisse de La africana, demostrando poseer una potente y bien timbrada voz que bien educada puede proporcionarle excelentes triunfos. La señorita Pernal, del Orfeó Gironí, cantó también dos piezas con la delicadeza que le es peculiar, si bien un tanto emocionada. La distinguida y numerosa concurrencia de abonados les dedicó merecidos aplausos."

Diario de Gerona 134 (17/06/1906), p. 3.

"Saló Gerió.—Hoy tendrá lugar en este salón de espectáculos la 5ª función de abono en la que, además de proyectarse un escogido programa de películas, tomará parte la banda de guitarras y laudes del Orfeó Catalunya, de Cassà de la Selva, estrenándose la nueva visión musical Muntanyes de Canigó."

El tradicionalista 216 (21/06/1906), p. 3.

"Saló Gerió

Jueves, 21 de junio. Velada escogida. 5ª de abono.

Gran variedad de películas. Acontecimiento musical por la banda del Orfeón Cataluña, de Cassà de la Selva. Estreno de la visión pirenaica Montañas de Canigó, letra de Nicolás de la Font, música del maestro Esquerrà y decorado de Ros i Güell.

Precio fuera de abono, 0'50 pesetas. A las 21'30 en punto."

Heraldo de Gerona 438 (21/06/1906), p. 3.

"Brillante aspecto presentaba anteayer noche el saló Gerió en el que se reunieron casi todas las más conocidas familias de la ciudad.

Verdad es que el programa era selecto y suficiente a atraer numerosa concurrencia, pues además de las proyecciones cinematográficas, se anunciaba el estreno de la visión Muntanyes de Canigó y un concierto por la cobla de guitarras y bandurrias del Orfeó de Cassà de la Selva. La visión fue muy aplaudida; el decorado es de un efecto fantástico y encantador; la música, muy sencilla y sentimental y la letra, inspiradísima.

La cobla de guitarras y bandurrias tocó varias piezas con tal ajuste y buen gusto que más bien parecía oírse un órgano, que no varios instrumentos. El tenor Sr. Cortacans cantó una bella romanza que tuvo que repetir para acallar los aplausos. En resumen, una velada verdaderamente escogida y artística.

Y ahora, varios ruegos:

A la empresa, que preserve en comenzar las sesiones con la mayor puntualidad.

A los caballeros, que se abstengan de fumar porque sobre resultar una falta de atención, el humo perjudica la proyección de las películas.

Y a las señoras y señoritas, que tengan quietas sus lenguas durante las representaciones musicales, porque sobre distraer la atención de los que desean escuchar, dan un desaire impropio de su buena educación y amabilidad a los artistas encargados de su interpretación. Esperamos vernos atendidos."

La lucha 8871 (23/06/1906), p. 2.

"Con un lleno completo se celebró en este local la 5ª función de abono el último jueves. Después de proyectar buen número de interesantes películas, se estrenó el nuevo cuadro plástico Muntanyes de Canigó, que alcanzó un éxito, siendo unánimemente elogiado.

La banda de instrumentos de cuerda del Orfeó Catalunya de Cassà de la Selva cosechó muchos aplausos, ejecutando magistralmente algunas composiciones de su extenso repertorio, una de las cuales cantó el tenor Sr. Cortacans, que tuvo que repetirla ante los incesantes aplausos de la concurrencia."

Temporada 1906/07

Aquesta segona temporada del saló Gerió hauria intentat mantenir les iniciatives començades la temporada anterior, però aniria a poc a poc reduint la seva activitat. La proposta principal de l'empresa va ser mantenir al llarg de tota la temporada les sessions fixes de cinematògraf els diumenges, només suspeses extraordinàriament per motius de celebracions solemnes religioses. Les sessions solien ser d'una hora de duració i tenien lloc habitualment entre les 16:00 / 17:30 i les 23:00. Les festes de Sant Narcís i les de Nadal seran els únics moments que estendran les sessions cinematogràfiques dels diumenges a la resta de dies de la setmana, només temporalment.

L'activitat teatral pròpia es veuria reduïda, estrenant només una nova visió musical amb funció única i fent algunes funcions extraordinàries repetint les visions de la temporada anterior. Tota la resta d'activitat teatral feta a la sala estaria organitzada per la secció dramàtica del Centre Moral, independent de l'empresa del saló. Tampoc es tornaran a repetir les sessions dedicades als infants amb narració de rondalles.

Cal destacar el distanciament que s'inicia amb el trio Mollera, que fins ara havia sigut fix al saló Gerió, però que al llarg d'aquesta temporada, per passar els seus integrants a ser professors de la Schola Orpheònica i començar altres projectes musicals, anirien essent cada vegada menys habituals al saló Gerió. Durant les festes de Sant Narcís, a l'inici de la temporada, el trio Mollera farà entreactes musicals a les representacions teatrals organitzades pel Centre Moral, però després la seva presència es limitarà als concerts de la Schola Orpheònica al saló Gerió i a l'estrena d'una sarsuela amb música de Mollera.

Durant el mes de gener i, després, entre finals de juny i meitat de juliol tindran lloc les sessions de moda o vetlles escollides del saló, normalment programades per a l'última sessió de les 21 o 21:30 dels diumenges. Incloïen projeccions cinematogràfiques selectes i representacions teatrals, com ara van ser les reposicions L'oració de la nit i Muntanyes de Canigó. L'empresa va tancar la temporada l'últim cap de setmana de juliol.

Inauguració de la temporada: 23 de setembre de 1906

El tradicionalista 240 (13/09/1906), p. 3.

"El aplaudido escenógrafo don Antonio Morán, está terminando un precioso decorado para una balada musical, original de don José Palol, a la que ha puesto música el joven compositor D. Francisco de A. Font, titulada Les quatre barres, cuyo estreno tendrá lugar en un teatro de esta ciudad, probablemente el 30 de los corrientes."

La lucha 8938 (14/09/1906), p. 2.

[81] També apareix a la premsa com a Antonio Morán.

"Probablemente el día 30 de los corrientes se estrenará en esta ciudad la balada musical Les quatre barres, original de don José de Palol, música de don Francisco de A. Font y decorado del escenógrafo don Antonio Morau."

Diario de Gerona 206 (14/09/1906), p. 4.

"S' estén fent els preparatius pera portar a escena en un dels teatres d'aquesta ciutat, ja cedit a l'efecte, la balada musical Les quatre barres, hermosa glosa de la llegenda de la nostra adarga. Originals dels joves artistes Josep de Palol i Francesc Font, decorada i dirigida per l'aplaudit artista escenògraf Antoni Moran.

Tenim entès que podrà verificar-se l'estreno a primer d'octubre prop-vinent. Els hi desitgem complert triomf."

Lo geronès 594 (15/09/1906), p. 3.

"Mañana a las nueve y media de la noche, tendrá lugar en el teatro del saló Gerió el estreno de la balada musical en dos cuadros Les quatre barres, letra de don José de Palol y música de don Francisco de A. Font, estrenándose también dos decoraciones de don Antonio Moran."

Diario de Gerona 218 (28/09/1906), p. 5.

"El próximo sábado el artístico espectáculo saló Gerió inaugurará con Les quatre barres una serie de visiones gráficas, género de arte puesto en boga en el teatro Principal y saló Mercè de Barcelona.

Por lo culto de la exhibición merece el favor del público selecto y de buen gusto, que no dudamos acudirá a esa sesión especial de verdadera moda.

También inaugurará el sábado sus funciones cinematográficas el salón Paralelo en su local-barraca de la plaza de la Independencia.

Saló Gerió

Dissabte 29 de setembre de 1906. —Espectacle extraordinari.— Estrena de la balada musical en dos quadros Les quatre barres. Quadro primer «Partida».—Quadro segon «Sagrament». Lletra d'en Josep de Palol. Música d'en Francesc d'A. Font. Dos decoracions d'en Antoni Moran. —Única representació. —Escollides pel·lícules noves. A dos quarts de deu. Preus: Entrada general, 25 céts.; Preferència, 50."

La lucha 8950 (28/09/1906), p. 2.

"S' ha inaugurat la temporada de hivern en lo saló Gerió, exhibint-se notables i variades pel·lícules, que atrauen gran concurrència. S'han rebaixat los preus d'entrada. Per avui a dos quarts de deu del vespre està anunciat l'estreno i representació única de la balada musical en dos quadros Les quatre barres, lletra d'en Josep de Palol, música d'en Francesc Font i decorat de n'Antoni Moran. Estem segurs que estarà ple a vessar, doncs són moltes les persones que es proposen assistir-hi."

Lo geronès 596 (29/09/1906), p. 3.

"Les quatre barres, música de Font, letra de Palol y decorado de Morán, atrajo numerosísima concurrencia el sábado último al saló Gerió. La obrita es una balada musical cuya intención merece aplauso sincero, aunque defectos de ejecución oscurecieron sus bellezas. Los autores fueron llamados al palco escénico. Con algo más de ensayo el éxito hubiera sido mucho mayor."

La lucha 8955 (04/10/1906), p. 2.

"Les quatre barres. —Con numerosa y escogida concurrencia se estrenó el sábado último en el saló Gerió la visión musical Les quatre barres. En ella pudieron admirarse las dotes de artista del joven escenógrafo D. Antonio Morán por sus dos hermosas decoraciones que produjeron un efecto sorprendente.

El argumento es interesante, si bien no pudo apreciarse como era de desear, debido a la flojedad en la ejecución, la que obedeció sin duda a causas ajenas a la voluntad de los autores.

Las películas de cinematógrafo que se exhibieron bajo la dirección del joven D. Ramón Adroher resultaron admirables, dejando al público altamente satisfecho."

El tradicionalista 246 (04/10/1906), p. 3.

"Con éxito se estrenó el pasado sábado en el saló Gerió, de esta ciudad, la velada musical en dos cuadros Les quatre barres, letra de don José de Palol, música de don Francisco de Asís Font y decoraciones de don Antonio Morán, que cosecharon bastantes aplausos."

Heraldo de Gerona 453 (04/10/1906), p. 3.

"El próximo pasado domingo, estrenose en el saló Gerió Les quatre barres, música de Font, letra de Palol y decorado de Morán.

La balada musical nos pareció aceptable, siendo muy aplaudida por el selecto público que asistió a la misma. Los autores fueron llamados al palco escénico. La ejecución resultó algo defectuosa, oscureciendo las bellezas de la obra. Bien por los jóvenes principiantes."

La República 59 (06/10/1906), p. 6.

"SALÓ GERIÓ (GIRONA)

Les quatre barres. — Balada musical en un acte, lletra de J. Palol, música del mestre Font. És una obreta acceptable, que reuneix condicions teatrals. Així ho va creure el públic, qui aplaudí i cridà a les taules als autors, junt amb el pintor Morán, qui lluí una bonica decoració."

Ressenyes de premsa:

Inauguració de la temporada

"El próximo domingo, 23 del actual, inaugurará la nueva temporada el saló Gerió, con sesiones cinematográficas, en las que se exhibirán variadas y notables películas, que atraerán seguramente numeroso público por su novedad y buen gusto.

Las excelentes condiciones de aquel local, y las de los espectáculos que en los mismos se darán, harán que como en la temporada anterior, merezcan el favor del público."

Diario de Gerona 212 (21/09/1906), p. 3.

"Hoy vuelve a abrir sus puertas al público el saló Gerió.

Las sesiones cinematográficas que ya hemos anunciado, en las que se exhibirán gran variedad de nuevas e interesantes películas, más tarde alternarán con la representación de cuadros plásticos.

Una novedad ha introducido la empresa de aquel local, aparte [de] la reducción de precios en las sesiones cinematográficas, y es la de que las personas que entren en el local, una vez empezada la sesión tendrán derecho a presenciar toda la sesión siguiente.

Para conocimiento de muchas personas que creen que solo los socios del Centro Moral tienen derecho a presenciar el espectáculo, debemos hacer constar que no es así, pues, aunque instalado en el edificio de aquella sociedad el saló Gerió, los espectáculos que en el mismo se dan son públicos y absolutamente independientes de dicho Centro."

Diario de Gerona 214 (23/09/1906), p. 6.

"Hoy inaugura su temporada el conocido saló Gerió con nuevas, variadas e interesantísimas películas cinematográficas a los precios y en las condiciones de costumbre, comenzando las sesiones a las 6 de la tarde.

El programa será selecto figurando en él Cerveza gratis, Ramillete singular y Descarrilamiento frustrado entre otras películas notables. Celebraremos el éxito del espectáculo artístico-científico recreativo del saló Gerió."

La lucha 8946 (23/09/1906), p. 2.

"Inauguración. —Hoy inaugurará la nueva temporada el saló Gerió con variadas y escogidas sesiones cinematográficas.

No dudamos que, atendida la índole de los espectáculos que se dan en aquel local, continuará mereciendo el favor del público.

El tradicionalista 243 (23/09/1906), p. 3.

"Continúan los espectáculos cinematográficos del saló Gerió atrayendo gran afluencia de público que aplaude las interesantes películas del programa, en cada sesión."

La lucha 8949 (27/09/1906), p. 2.

"De nuevo ha abierto sus puertas el saló Gerió de esta ciudad. El próximo pasado domingo inauguró la temporada de invierno con un escogido y variado programa y con distinguida y numerosa concurrencia."

"El saló Gerió ofrece al público nuevas, atractivas y variadas películas para mañana domingo."

La República 60 (13/10/1906), p. 2.

"Nuevas películas exhibirá hoy el cinematógrafo saló Gerió, que cada vez se ve más favorecido por el público. […]

SALÓ GERIÓ. Programa de las películas que se exhibirán en las sesiones de hoy: Crepúsculo.—Ladrones.—Moisés. —La pesca del bacalao.—Ladrones de gallos."

La lucha 8984 (14/10/1906), p. 2.

"Saló Gerió. —Es cada día más numerosa la concurrencia a las sesiones de cinematógrafo del saló Gerió. La empresa, deseosa de corresponder a las atenciones del público, ha adquirido nuevas y excelentes películas de grandioso efecto."

El tradicionalista 249 (14/10/1906), p. 3.

"SALÓ GERIÓ.—Plaza de la Independencia (Centro Moral). — Sesiones cinematográficas desde las 5 y media de la tarde.—Películas de gran éxito: "Ladrón en alto copete", "Concurso hípico", "La mujer de los calzones".— Preferencia: 0'25. Entrada general 0'15. Militares 0'10."

"SALÓ GERIÓ.—Sessions de cinematògraf tarda i nit. — Pel·lícules sempre noves."

Diario de Gerona 244 (28/10/1906)[84], p. 8.

"Saló Gerió. —No dudamos en asegurar un verdadero éxito a la empresa del cinematógrafo del saló Gerió por las hermosas y nuevas películas que se exhibirán durante las ferias y fiestas de San Narciso. He aquí el título de algunas:

Quehaceres de un ordenanza, Una señora que va deprisa, Víctima de los acreedores.

Todos los días se exhibirán películas completamente nuevas.

Centro Moral Gerundense. — Varios son los actos que celebrará esta sociedad con motivo de las ferias y fiestas de San Narciso.

Mañana, 29, representación del drama Els mals companys. Día 31, la zarzuela Catalunya! y la comedia Lo darrer acreedor. Día 3 de noviembre L'idiota del gorch negre, Cápsulas Mausser y Un coleccionista. Día 4, repetición de la zarzuela Catalunya! y la tradicional zarzuela Lo sant del amo.

Antes y en los intermedios de las indicadas funciones, sinfonías por el trío que dirige el maestro Mollera.

Todos los días empezarán las funciones a las 9 en punto de la noche."

El tradicionalista 253 (28/10/1906), p. 3.

[82] La notícia també apareix publicada a La lucha 8990 (21/10/1906), p. 2, amb una variació al títol de La mujer lleva los calzones.
[83] L'anunci es repeteix als números dels dies 24, 25, 26 i 28 del mateix mes. Paral·lelament, s'anuncia la representació de Bruniselda, òpera d'Enric Morera, en la temporada del teatre Principal.
[84] L'anunci es repeteix al número del dia 31 del mateix mes i dels 1 i 3 del mes següent.

"Saló Gerió. —Han llamado mucho la atención las películas del cinematógrafo saló Gerió durante las presentes ferias. En los días que faltan se exhibirán cada día películas completamente nuevas, que sin duda dejarán complacido al numeroso y escogido público que asiste a las sesiones de cinematógrafo."

El tradicionalista 254 (01/11/1906), p. 2.

"A fin de que puedan las clases obreras, que no lo han podido hacer durante estas fiestas, disfrutar de los espectáculos del saló Gerió, el martes próximo se darán sesiones de entrada gratuita a beneficio de aquellas. Aplaudimos sin reservas el acuerdo de la empresa. […]

Esta noche, en el salón teatro del Centro Moral Gerundense, la sección de aficionados celebrará su beneficio poniendo en escena las zarzuelas Catalunya y Lo Sant de l'amo[85].

En el Círculo Católico de Obreros, se dará esta noche, una velada teatral en la que se representará el drama L'avar y el juguete La gran idea."

Diario de Gerona 249 (04/11/1906), p. 7.

"Saló Gerió. —La empresa de este cinematógrafo, deseosa de que la clase obrera, falta de recursos, pueda participar de los festejos, ha acordado celebrar el próximo martes algunas sesiones gratis. A este fin se repartirán profusamente y con oportunidad vales en las fábricas y talleres de esta capital."

El tradicionalista 255 (04/11/1906), p. 3.

"[…] [Durant les festes de Sant Narcís] Las funciones dadas en las sociedades particulares, especialmente en Las Odaliscas, Círculo Católico de Obreros, Centro de Unión Republicana y Orfeó Gironí, han resultado muy lucidas y variadas, contribuyendo a la extraordinaria concurrencia, además de los atractivos propios, sin duda alguna los exorbitantes precios de localidades y entrada en las funciones de ópera en el teatro Principal y el poco éxito de las mismas.

Esta circunstancia habrá contribuido también a que se hayan visto constantemente llenos los cinematógrafos y de ellos con preferencia el Sport situado en la plaza de San Francisco y el saló Gerió en la de la Independencia, donde se exhiben hermosas películas. […]"

[85] L'activitat teatral de l'empresa del saló Gerió podria haver-se vist reduïda per les actuacions de la secció de teatre líric del Centre Moral a les seves instal·lacions. A més, l'activitat teatral del Cercle Catòlic d'Obrers anunciada i l'obertura del nou cinematògraf Sports suposarien l'augment de la competència en el sector cultural de la ciutat.

"Saló Gerió. —La empresa de este cinematógrafo ha adquirido muy hermosas películas que se exhibirán el domingo próximo, las que no dudamos dejarán satisfechos los deseos del selecto y numeroso público que acude a las sesiones de aquel cinematógrafo."

El tradicionalista 258 (15/11/1906), p. 3.

"Saló Gerió. —Asistid hoy al saló Gerió. Hermosas y variadas películas. ¡Gran éxito! El negro goloso. —La piel del asno. —Guerra ruso-japonesa. —Fotógrafo robado y otras películas sumamente interesantes."

El tradicionalista 259 (18/11/1906), p. 3.

"La empresa del saló Gerió ha organizado para mañana una serie de sesiones cinematográficas a beneficio de los pobres de esta ciudad. La recaudación de las localidades se destinará a una limosna con que se favorecerá á los necesitados en la próxima festividad de la Purísima Concepción.

Al mismo tiempo, ha dispuesto la empresa dedicar la primera sesión de la tarde del domingo (de 4 a 5) a los asilados del Hospicio provincial y obreros agrícolas de la Granja Salesiana.

La Empresa del saló Gerió merece plácemes por sus bellas iniciativas y que el público la secunde con su concurrencia."

Diario de Gerona 272 (01/12/1906), p. 3.

"La empresa del saló Gerió nos participa que les sessions cinematogràfiques que tindran lloc demà diumenge seran a benefici dels pobres."

Lo geronès 605 (01/12/1906), p. 3.

"En el saló Gerió tendrá lugar esta noche a las nueve una selecta velada. Se estrenará el drama en dos actos El fill del creuhat y en el intermedio, lo mismo que al finalizar, se proyectarán películas cinematográficas.

Esta tarde a las 4 y media en el Orfeó Gironí tendrá lugar una escogida función teatral con la que se inaugurará la temporada de invierno. Se pondrá en escena el drama La creu de la masia y la comedia Los corridos.[86]"

Diario de Gerona 273 (02/12/1906), p. 5.

[86] L'activitat de l'Orfeó Gironí, del qual és director Isidre Morera, el mateix director de l'orquestra del saló Gerió i membre del seu trio musical, també suposaria una competència i solapament d'activitats culturals.

"La cuestión del teatro Principal. —[…] Por referencias, confirmamos lo dicho por El Autonomista respecto la moralidad de las obras que en el citado coliseo se representan; que han de ser indecentes cuando hasta los menos escrupulosos lo afirman. A pesar de ello, ¿continúan frecuentándolo ciertas familias católicas?[87]

Saló Gerió. —Sumamente interesantes son las películas que se exhibirán hoy en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió. Todas ellas nuevas y variadas, no pudiendo menos que satisfacer a la numerosa concurrencia que acude siempre a las sesiones de dicho cinematógrafo."

El tradicionalista 267 (16/12/1906), p. 3.

"Saló Gerió. —Durante las próximas Pascuas de Navidad se exhibirán en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió hermosísimas películas. Cada día nuevas y variadas."

El tradicionalista (23/12/1906), p. 3.

"Lo desapacible de la temperatura de estos días invita a pasar un rato en el saló Gerió, donde aparte [de] lo confortable del local, cuyas inmejorables condiciones son bien notorias, atrae la variedad del espectáculo, pues cada semana se varían las cintas cinematográficas en cuya elección tiene la empresa el buen cuidado de que no las haya que sean reprochables bajo el punto de vista de la moral, por concepto alguno."

Diario de Gerona 294 (29/12/1906), p. 4.

"En el Centro Moral. — El 1º de enero próximo, festividad de la Circuncisión, se celebrará una escogida velada en dicha sociedad; poniéndose en escena la comedia en un acto Vells i boigs y las zarzuelas Lo que pasa en Madrid y Lo allotjat. Tomarán parte en dichas funciones los aficionados señores Adroher, Valls, Figueras, Bosacoma, Massaguer y Prat. Se empezará a las cuatro de la tarde en punto. Las obras indicadas se representarán con hermosas decoraciones y con todos los requisitos que requiere su argumento. […]

Saló Gerió. —Cada día es mayor la concurrencia al cinematógrafo del saló Gerió, correspondiendo el público a los desvelos de la empresa, que no repara en sacrificios para que puedan exhibirse películas siempre nuevas e interesantes. No dudamos que los elementos católicos continuarán prestando su apoyo a dicho cinematógrafo, donde las películas son siempre en todo morales, a diferencia de otros donde se exhiben películas cuya moralidad a veces deja bastante que desear."

El tradicionalista 271 (30/12/1906), p. 3.

[87] El tradicionalista tenia una disputa oberta amb el teatre Principal, que no els enviava entrades per a assistir-hi com a premsa.

"Saló Gerió.—Para el próximo domingo, películas nuevas y sumamente interesantes […]

En el Centro Moral. —Anteayer se representaron en el Centro Moral las zarzuelas Lo que pasa en Madrid y Lo allotjat. Fueron interpretadas con mucho acierto por los aficionados Srs. Figueras, Bosacoms, Adroher, Valls, Prat y Massaguer, quienes cosecharon muchos aplausos.

El público salió altamente satisfecho, tanto por la interpretación de las obras, como por la hermosa sesión de cinematógrafo que tuvo lugar antes de empezar dichas representaciones."

El tradicionalista 272 (03/01/1907), p. 3.

"Saló Gerió. —Cada día se ve más concurrido este cinematógrafo, cuyas películas son del todo morales. En las sesiones de hoy se proyectarán las películas Panorama de Nevyorch, Dos buenos niños, El fotógrafo, El Rey de Grecia en Roma, Cataratas del Niagara y Debut de un chauffeur.

Centro Moral. —A las 9 de esta noche tendrá lugar en el Centro moral una escogida función teatral poniéndose en escena una chistosa comedia en un acto y la zarzuela en un acto Cápsulas Mausser."

El tradicionalista 273 (06/01/1907), p. 3.

"Nueva entidad artística. —Se ha constituido en nuestra ciudad una sociedad artística denominada Schola Orfeónica Geronina. La componen, además de otros elementos, muchos de los que formaron durante sus primeros y mejores días el Orfeó Gironí. Es director-presidente el maestro Mollera[88] y para el consejo directivo han sido elegidos los Srs. D. Joaquín Bosch, don Eugenio Fors, don Leon Audonard y don José Perich. Son muchos los socios que forman la nueva entidad y a la que auguramos feliz éxito si se inspira en el verdadero ideal que no puede apartarse de la moralidad. […]

Saló Gerió. — Interesantes películas para hoy. He aquí el programa de las mismas: La espía, El Sant de la Pepita, Los rápidos de la rivera del Ozu, L'aplech de la protesta, Panorama de Suiza.

A las nueve de la noche se celebrará una sección escogida en la que además de exhibirse variadas películas se pondrá en escena por la sección de aficionados una hermosa zarzuela en un acto[89]."

El tradicionalista 275 (13/01/1907), p. 3.

[88] Es tracta del mateix mestre Mollera que dirigia el trio musical del saló Gerió, i l'escola farà la seva presentació oficial al saló Gerió.

[89] L'activitat pròpia del Cercle Moral acaba ocupant durant aquesta temporada la programació teatral de l'espai, compartit per totes dues entitats, i els empresaris del saló Gerió es limiten pràcticament a programar sessions de cinematògraf.

"Ayer tarde viéronse muy concurridos los salones de cinematógrafos, especialmente el saló Gerió y el Cinematógrafo Sport, a los que acudieron las más distinguidas familias de esta ciudad, que aplaudieron las escogidas películas que se proyectaron."

Reposició de Muntanyes de Canigó

"Saló Gerió. —Con bastante y escogida concurrencia tuvo lugar el domingo último a las nueve de la noche la anunciada sesión escogida en el saló Gerió. Después de las interesantes películas que se exhibieron se puso en escena una hermosa zarzuela, cosechando muchísimos aplausos los Srs. Figueras, Font, Valls y Adroher.

Para el domingo próximo se prepara otra hermosa función, a las nueve de la noche, poniéndose en escena, después de una sesión de cinematógrafo, la visión pirenaica Muntanyes de Canigó."

El tradicionalista 276 (17/01/1907), p. 3.

"Aviso. —Hoy a las cinco y media de la tarde tendrá lugar en el local del Centre Catalanista la Junta de constitución de la nueva entidad Agrupació Catòlich-nacionalista[90]. […]

Saló Gerió. —Para hoy películas nuevas y sumamente interesantes.

A las nueve de la noche, sesión escogida en la que se representará la preciosa visión musical Muntanyes de Canigó."

El tradicionalista 277 (20/01/1907), p. 3.

"Como ocurre todos los domingos, numerosísimo público asistió ayer a presenciar las sesiones que se celebraron en los cinematógrafos de esta ciudad.

Las películas que se exhibieron en el saló Gerió y en el cinematógrafo Sport fueron muy celebradas."

La lucha 9065 (22/01/1907), p. 2.

[90] Agrupacions com aquesta, conjuntament amb altres com ara joventuts catòliques, joventuts tradicionalistes, etc. són prova de la força i presència de la vessant conservadora del catalanisme, en la qual s'hi inscriuen les iniciatives com ara el saló Gerió.

"Saló Gerió. —Numerosa y distinguida concurrencia acudió el domingo último al cinematógrafo del saló Gerió, siendo muchos los elogios que hizo el público de las hermosas películas que se exhibieron. La sesión escogida en la que se puso en escena la visión musical Muntanyes de Canigó fue también muy del agrado de la numerosa concurrencia que asistió a la misma.

Para el domingo próximo se prepara otra escogida función."

El tradicionalista 278 (24/01/1907), p. 2.

"En el saló Gerió se darán esta tarde y noche escogidas sesiones de cinematógrafo con películas notabilísimas, entre ellas la nueva y de espectáculo La bruja Caranosa; además al final de cada sesión se representará la aplaudida visión pirenaica, de gran éxito Muntanyes de Canigó.

Por la noche a las nueve y media se celebrará una sesión de moda, con programa extraordinario."

Diario de Gerona 23 (27/01/1907), p. 5.

"Saló Gerió. —Escogidas películas para hoy. En todas las sesiones, representación de la visión musical Muntanyes de Canigó. A las nueve y media de la noche, sesión escogida.

[…]

Estreno. —En las sesiones de cinematógrafo del saló Gerió se estrenará hoy una sensacional e interesante película no vista en esta ciudad titulada La bruja Caranosa. No dudamos será del gusto del público que frecuenta el citado cinematógrafo."

El tradicionalista 279 (27/01/1907), p. 5.

"El domingo pasado fue muy distinguida y numerosa la concurrencia que asistió a todas las sesiones del saló Gerió, donde en cada una de ellas se reproducía la visión pirenaica Montanyas de Canigó.

En este sencillo hecho vimos una prueba de que el público reconoce el verdadero mérito artístico de los espectáculos que en el saló Gerió se le ofrecen, pero justo es que consignemos, rindiendo tributo a la verdad, que no ha correspondido como se merecía a los grandes esfuerzos hechos por la empresa que tomó a su cargo el dotar a nuestra ciudad de una sala de espectáculos digna de una capital de mucha mayor importancia y en la que los que en ella se dieran no desmereciesen de las condiciones del local, por ningún concepto.

Si el público, apreciando en justicia aquellos esfuerzos, hubiese hecho lo que ahora parece querer hacer, tal vez no hubieran desalentado [a] los que tan noblemente emprendieron aquella artística tarea y a la hora presente el público gerundense hubiera podido disfrutar de una variedad de cuadros que, alternando con la exhibición de películas, hicieran el espectáculo más variado y atractivo.

Siga el público el camino emprendido y tenga la seguridad de que la empresa del saló Gerió no será ingrata a sus favores[91].”

Diario de Gerona 25 (30/01/1907), p. 5.

Altres sarsueles, pel·lícules i concerts

“Saló Gerió. —Muchos son los elogios que de las sesiones del domingo último hicieron cuantos concurrieron a las mismas. En todas ellas se exhibieron películas hermosísimas que acreditan una vez más el gusto de la empresa en presentar cuadros interesantes que satisfagan los deseos del público.

El sábado y domingo próximos se estrenarán también varias películas.

A las cuatro de la tarde del sábado se pondrá en escena la preciosa zarzuela en tres actos El cazador negro, letra de D. J. Sainz Noguera y música del maestro Isidro Mollera, de esta ciudad. La parte musical estará a cargo de un sexteto dirigido por el citado Sr. Mollera.”

El tradicionalista 280 (31/01/1907), p. 3[92].

“Saló Gerió. —Todas las películas que se exhibieron hoy en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió serán nuevas y sumamente interesantes. A las nueve y media de la noche se celebrará sesión escogida, para la que regirán los precios de costumbre.

Mañana, películas también nuevas.”

El tradicionalista 281 (02/02/1907), p. 3.

“En el cada día más concurrido cinematógrafo del saló Gerió se exhibirán hoy películas de gran novedad, algunas de ellas "estreno" en Gerona, como La cieguecita, Galán perseguido, Postre singular y otras. Las sesiones empiezan a las 4 de la tarde. El martes de Carnaval, se dará un programa totalmente variado.”

Diario de Gerona 34 (10/02/1907), p. 5.

[91] El Diario de Gerona de avisos y noticias va ser fundat per Rafael Masó i Pagès, pare de Rafael Masó i Valentí, arquitecte i col·laborador del saló Gerió, qui aportava la influència més directa de la sala Mercè per haver-la conegut durant els seus estudis a Barcelona.

[92] A la mateixa pàgina apareixen els noms del membres renovats de la junta del Centre Moral.

"Saló Gerió. —Extraordinaria ha sido la concurrencia a las sesiones de cinematógrafo del saló Gerió durante el domingo y martes últimos, testimoniando una vez más el favor con que el público acoge las cada día más excelentes e interesantes películas que se exhiben en dicho cinematógrafo.

El domingo próximo, programa escogido y muy variado."

El tradicionalista 284 (14/02/1907), p. 3.

"Cada día es mayor la concurrencia que asiste a las sesiones cinematográficas del saló Gerió en vista de la variedad de las películas que en el mismo se exhiben, siempre nuevas y de buen gusto.

Para hoy están anunciados los estrenos de las películas cómicas Aprendiz de modista y Honor lavado con sangre sumamente graciosas. Anuncíanse además otras entre las que figuran las notables Pesca de atún y Los Bohemios[93]."

Diario de Gerona 46 (24/02/1907), p. 4.

"Saló Gerió. —A los muchos placeres que se tributan a la empresa del saló Gerió por las excelentes películas que se exhiben en aquel cinematógrafo, unimos nuestra entusiasta enhorabuena.

Tenemos entendido que el domingo próximo se estrenarán películas hermosísimas."

El tradicionalista 288 (28/02/1907), p. 5.

"En el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió se exhibirá hoy el siguiente programa de películas: Mi criada es una perla, Efectos del alcoholismo, Los Alpes vistos en telescopio, Casamiento en bicicleta, Vigía de Port-Arthur, Músico y pintor.

Las sesiones empezarán a las 4 y media, continuando sin interrupción hasta las 11."

Diario de Gerona 52 (03/03/1907), p. 5[94].

"Grande fue la concurrencia que asistió el domingo último al cinematógrafo del saló Gerió, prueba evidente del buen éxito y gran aceptación que va teniendo todos los días.

Concert inaugural de la Schola Orpheònica Gironina

"Schola Orpheònica Gironina, que es una agrupación musical constituida por elementos que se separaron del Orfeó Gironí, dio el pasado martes un concierto inaugural en el Saló Gerió, ante numerosa concurrencia. El concierto fue vocal e instrumental.

De la parte instrumental merece especial mención el allegro y scherzo del cuarteto ob. 18 de Beethoven, que ejecutaron con mucho acierto los Sres. Mollera (T.), Dalmau, Serra y Mollera (I.). El joven violinista Sr. Dalmau se reveló un buen artista en la Berceuse de Godard y Cavatine de Raff, demostrando también las aptitudes que posee en el mismo instrumento el niño R. Serra en un andante que tocó acompañado del piano.

La Schola cantó varias piezas; por el excelente conjunto le valió nutridos aplausos La Filla de Maria de Nicolau, que ejecutó la sección de señoritas, y la Cançó del trovador, de Freixas, por las secciones de señoritas y hombres.

Estrenó un himno del maestro Frigola cantado por las dos secciones, que más que himno es una pieza de concierto con solos y corales de la que sobresale con el coro final de la segunda parte (larguetto) por su factura y conjunto, de gran efecto; su autor fue ovacionado, pero no se presentó a recibir el homenaje que el público deseaba tributarle. Además, se cantaron otras composiciones todas premiadas con aplausos.

Dirige la Schola Orpheònica el maestro Mollera (I), quien ha demostrado una vez más la paciente y meritoria labor que realiza, digna de elogio y cooperación.”

"Primer concierto de la Schola Orfeònica Gironina.— El martes último hizo su debut en el saló Gerió la sociedad artística Schola Orfeònica Gironina.

El éxito obtenido puede calificarse de grandioso, tanto si lo consideramos en su parte vocal como instrumental. Poco tiempo lleva de existencia dicha sociedad y no obstante la esmerada y justa interpretación que obtuvieron las diferentes obras que constaban en programa denuncian un trabajo enorme, imposible de vencer, a no ser por el carácter trabajador que siempre ha distinguido al Maestro director don Isidro Mollera.

A las nueve y media, hora en que empezó el concierto, el saló Gerió estaba, a pesar de ser la entrada por rigurosa invitación, materialmente lleno, no quedando ni una silla disponible aun habiendo sido aumentado considerablemente el número de ellas, pudiendo verse entre la concurrencia todo el elemento gerundense que rinde culto al arte de Orfeo.

Empieza la primera parte con la interpretación de la obra La gata y Belitre de Pujol, cantándola con mucho colorido las secciones de señoritas y hombres. Salió luego al escenario el niño R. Serra, que tocó con el violín, acompañado al piano por su maestro T. Mollera, el Andante y Rondó de Daudá, demostrando en ambos y principalmente en el segundo, disposiciones que desarrollándolas por medio de un estudio constante harán en él un verdadero artista.

El choral de Millet por la sección de hombres fue cantado con mucha afinación, obteniendo buena interpretación todos sus matices. La señorita C. P. lució su bonita y argentina voz, cantando Yo 'l amo aucor de Gols en la que hizo gala de una vocalización perfecta. El Sr. Dalmau demostró ser ya un verdadero artista interpretando en el violín Berceuse de Jocelyn de Godard y Cavatine de Raff. Tocó ambas con aquellas cualidades que tan solo poseen los artistas y que sugestionan al público, demostrando su correcta escuela principalmente en la segunda, al tocar con mucha limpieza un pasaje a doble cuerda de muy difícil ejecución.

[96] La pàgina inclou referències a l'empresa que ocupava el teatre Principal de la ciutat, amb un repertori totalment en castellà.
[97] El tradicionalista puntualitza que el dia següent romandrà tancat també.

Terminó la primera parte con el Hime del maestro Frigola. No queremos hacer el estudio crítico de esta obra por ser de todos admitida la competencia del Sr. Frigola en cuestiones musicales; competencia que ha demostrado en las muchas obras que ha escrito y que hemos tenido el gusto de oírlas en diversas ocasiones. Tan solo diremos que el Himne no solo no desdice el nombre del autor, sino que le da aún mayor autoridad, principalmente el segundo número, en donde pudimos reconocer un trabajo armónico perfecto y una melodía franca y elegante, que revelan en su autor un conocimiento profundo de los autores clásicos.

El público, entendiendo el verdadero mérito de la obra, pidió con gran insistencia al autor, no pudiendo verse complacido por haber salido poco rato había el Sr. Frigola del local.

La segunda parte empezó con la Filla de Maria de Nicolau, que tuvo que repetirse para acallar los aplausos del público. El Cuarteto de Beethoven fue muy bien interpretado por los Sres. Mollera T., Dalmau, Serra y Mollera I., viéndose obligados a volverlo a repetir para satisfacer al público que demostró con cuanto gusto lo había oído al prodigarles con largos aplausos. La Canción del trovador de Freixas por las secciones de señoritas y hombres también mereció los honores de la repetición. El tenor Sr. Cros en el recitato y cavatina de Hernani lució su bien timbrada voz, cosechando muchos aplausos. Acabó la segunda parte con Patria nova de Grieg por las tres secciones, que obtuvo una ejecución magistral.

En resumen: la Schola Orfeònica Gironina demostró en su primer concierto que puede esperarse mucho de ella en bien del arte, por lo que les alentamos a proseguir en el camino comprendido, que, si lo asocian con los principios morales de los que no debe estar separada ninguna sociedad artística, podrán llevar a cabo una verdadera obra de educación y moralización.

El piano que se utilizó en el concierto es de la acreditada marca Chansseigne et Freres, de la que es representante en esta ciudad D. Juan Durán.

“Cerrada ya nuestra edición anterior, o sea, el miércoles último, 20 del corriente, por la noche se recibió en esta redacción una invitación de fecha 17 para asistir al concierto inaugural de la sociedad Schola Orpheònica de esta ciudad que había de tener lugar el día anterior, 19, en el local del saló Gerió.

Las circunstancias apuntadas nos impidieron acusar antes recibo de la invitación, anunciar el concierto, asistir al mismo y dar cuenta de él, como hubiéramos procurado hacer de otro modo.”

"Schola Orfeònica Gironina. —El dimarts passat, diada de Sant Josep, feu sa presentació inaugural al saló Gerió amb un programa de obres d'en Pujol, Millet, Frigola, Nicolau, Freixas i Grieg.

La majoria d'aquestes obres conegudes del nostre públic, la novella entitat les executà amb molta justesa siguent premiats orfeonistes i son mestre Mollera amb forts aplaudiments de la gentada que omplanava el saló.

L'interès d'aquest concert el constituïa l'Himne del mestre Frigola, compost de Marcial, Allegro, Larguetto i Allegro maestoso. En aquest Himne magistralment escrit sobresurt el Larguetto que, tractat amb molta mestria, impressionà fondament.

Cooperaren a tan hermosa vetlla els Srs. Mollera, Serra i Dalmau, que contribuïren a l'èxit. La Senyora Parnal cantà una romança lluint una vegada més els seus dots.

Felicitem als orfeonistes com també a son mestre en Mollera per l'èxit obtingut i indiscutiblement merescut."

Sessions cinematogràfiques i reflexions sobre el cinema catòlic

"Hoy y mañana se proyectarán en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió películas sumamente interesantes, entre las cuales merecen especial mención las siguientes: El hijo adoptivo, Detención difícil, Los viejos pícaros, Los indios de Far-West, Cristóbal Colón, etc. Se proyectarán, además, varias vistas fijas de la salida de los fieles de nuestra Catedral con motivo de las funciones de Semana Santa. Hoy, a las nueve de la noche, se celebrará una escogida función en la que se pondrán en escena dos hermosas zarzuelas."

El tradicionalista 297 (31/03/1907), p. 3.

"En el saló Gerió se exhibieron ayer y anteayer alternando con las películas cinematográficas una colección de vistas fijas, en color algunas de ellas, muy notables, figurando entre las mismas varias tomadas en los días de Semana Santa en los momentos en que los fieles salían de la Catedral.

Aplaudimos la decisión de la empresa del saló Gerió, pues la exhibición de vistas no solo da variedad y atractivo al espectáculo si no que se convierte en un elemento de instrucción que sería de mucho más efecto y más positivo resultado si a cada una de ellas acompañara una breve pero clara explicación del asunto.

Así respondería el espectáculo a aquel sano principio que no debe olvidarse nunca y al cual conviene se ajusten siempre todos los actos públicos: instruir y educar deleitando."

"Saló Gerió.— Durante el domingo y lunes últimos viéronse muy concurridas las sesiones del cinematógrafo Saló Gerió, en el que se exhibieron películas que por su interés llamaron poderosamente la atención. Fueron también muy del agrado del público las vistas fijas que se proyectaron. La prueba más patente del acierto de la empresa en la elección de películas es el favor que cada día, más ostensiblemente, va dispensando el público al mencionado cinematógrafo."

"Notas sueltas

«Saló Gerió»:

Cada día se ve más concurrido el cinematógrafo instalado en el salón de este nombre. Los espectáculos que allí se dan son decentes, y nos place encontrar en ellos a todas las clases sociales, sin que se ofendan los oídos de las personas serias con algarabías y conversaciones de plazas de toros ni con groserías, las cuales, por desgracia, no están del todo desterradas en otros espectáculos de nuestra tierra.

Quisiéramos que aumentara el favor del público, a fin de que pudiera caber en aquel artístico salón todo un plan de cultura, dentro el carácter recreativo de las funciones, reanudando la presentación de cuadros plásticos tan hermosos y sugestivos para los gustos delicados, como L'oració de la nit, que en fecha memorable allí se estrenó, e introduciendo tendencias educativas e instructivas a los mismos cuadros cinematográficos.

La empresa está animada de rectas y excelentes intenciones y creemos que toca ahora al mismo público dirigir con sus deseos y concurrencia las funciones del saló Gerió a sus primitivos cauces.

En Francia se ha convertido en medio de propaganda católica el cinematógrafo. La Sociedad de la Buena Prensa tiene establecida una empresa de proyecciones, dirigida por M. Miguel Coissac. Esta empresa el pasado mes tuvo el honor de verificar una sesión en el Vaticano, sesión sumamente interesante que mereció los plácemes del Papa, el cual asistió de buena gana a fin de prestar nuevos alientos al simpático y popular recurso del moderno apostolado. A más del Papa asistieron varios cardenales, entre ellos Casañas y Vives.

Antes de la sesión, M. Feron-Vrau, director de la Sociedad de la Buena Prensa y encargado de las proyecciones, recordó los felices resultados obtenidos ya con el método de enseñanza por medio del cinematógrafo y notó la existencia de 55 empresas diocesanas que se entregan a la propaganda de este medio de apostolado. Mencionó también los Congresos anuales, en los cuales se reúnen de cuatrocientos a quinientos conferenciantes proyeccionistas.

Señalamos estos datos y los entregamos a la consideración del público en general y de los empresarios del saló Gerió, a fin de animar y encauzar más el espíritu de apostolado que en su fondo palpita."

"Saló Gerió.— Programa muy excelente y variado se exhibirá hoy en este cinematógrafo, con el estreno de las películas Monederos falsos salvados por su hija, Por un collar, La mujer en el Japón, ¡Que desgracia tener yerno!, etc.

Con motivo del Novenario que se celebra en la iglesia de S. Félix, se empezarán las sesiones con toda puntualidad."

Vetlles escollides

"Se anuncia para en breve un concierto de la Schola Orpheònica en el saló Gerió, con la cooperación de varias señoritas discípulas del maestro señor Mollera que ejecutarán a dos pianos la Marcha de las antorchas de Meyerbeer y en uno solo la segunda y décima fugas de Bach."

"La novella entitat «Schola Cantorum» prepara un concert extraordinari al local «Saló Gerió» amb la cooperació de les avantatjades pianistes alumnes del mestre Mollera senyoretes Martinez, Carrillo, Furest i Poujuan, quines executaran a dos pianos la Marcha de las Antorchas d'en Meyerbeer.

La distingida pianista senyoreta Martinez, donarà a conèixer la 2ª i 10ª fugues de Bach que per anticipat li augurem un èxit complert.

No cal dir que aquesta sessió és esperada amb molt interès per la novetat del programa i pels executants encarregats de la interpretació. Parlarem d'aquesta festa musical a son degut temps."

"Girona.— Atentament invitats pel mestre Mollera assistirem a una sessió íntima a on les senyoretes Martínez[101] i Carrillo havien d'executar vàries obres a piano sol.

Moltes vegades havem parlat de les qualitats de la senyoreta Martínez com a pianista i ho confirma amb l'últim concert donat, que executà amb justesa el concert de Mozart vencent amb molta naturalitat els passatges més difícils que aquesta obra conté.

Llàstima que el piano amb què toca no respongué ni poc ni molt a les seves exigències, mes amb tot i això veiérem en la pianista condicions per arribar a ocupar un primer lloc entre els pianistes de nostra Ciutat.

Molt bé també la senyoreta Carrillo amb un estudi en sol major de Cerny, que amb tot i ses dificultats, posa de relleu gran facilitat en el mecanisme."

Scherzando 13 (juliol 1907), p. 7.

"Mañana por la noche en el saló Gerió tendrá lugar otra de las concurridas "vetlles escollides", en la que se proyectarán hermosas películas de gran novedad y estrenos; además tomará parte en la sesión la aplaudida banda de cuerda del Orfeó Catalunya de Cassà de la Selva, que dará un selecto concierto."

Diario de Gerona 153 (06/07/1907), p. 7.

"En nada desmerece del domingo anterior el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió, si es que no resulta mucho más excelente todavía. La nueva película Japón pintoresco (estreno) no tiene ponderación por la bien combinada perspectiva y la idea exacta que da de las costumbres de aquel país; además El hombre reloj, La caverna de la bruja, y otras no menos notables.

Por la noche a las 9 y media habrá Vetlla Escollida en la que tomarán parte la muy aplaudida banda de guitarras, bandurrias y mandolinas y laudes del Orfeó Catalunya de Cassà de la Selva, dando a conocer un nuevo y variado repertorio de composiciones musicales."

"Saló Gerió.— El passat diumenge dia 7 dona son anunciat concert la «banda de guitarras y bandurrias» de l'Orfeó Catalunya de Cassà de la Selva. Executaren obres de Gounod, Bolzoni, i altres que foren interpretades amb una afinació molt pulcra i amb una justesa insuperable. Així els ho demostrà el públic que els hi dedica al final forts aplaudiments."

"Mañana tarde y noche se celebrarán escogidas sesiones de cinematógrafo en el saló Gerió. […]

En el cinematógrafo «Saló Gerió» tendrá lugar mañana a las 9 y media de la noche una escogida función organizada por la Sección Escolar del Centre Catalanista de esta ciudad, representándose el drama Lo presitari[102], finalizando el espectáculo con una divertida pieza en un acto."

Tancament de la temporada

En el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió se exhibirá hoy el siguiente programa de películas: Viaje alrededor de una estrella, El porvenir en la palma de la mano, Zapato estrecho, Ropa mal marcada, etc."

Diario de Gerona 166 (21/07/1907), p. 10.

"Como último día de temporada presenta hoy el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió un escogido y muy variado programa.

Las películas que se exhibirán son las siguientes: Fabricación de sombreros, Pasión por el billar, La lucha por la vida y En casa del dentista."

Diario de Gerona 171 (28/07/1907), p. 10.

[102] El títol apareix a la premsa amb diverses variants. La forma correcta podria ser El presidiari.

Temporada 1907/08

La temporada es limitaria a sessions cinematogràfiques els dies festius (diumenges) que començaven a les 4 de la tarda. Les sessions es van anar endarrerint progressivament fins a començar a les 5 de la tarda.

S'afegeix la reproducció d'audicions amb un gramòfon Pathé, atès que el trio Mollera no tornarà a tocar a partir d'aquesta temporada. Isidre Mollera sembla desvincular-se definitivament del saló per tenir altres projectes personals en marxa. L'única activitat musical registrada al saló és el concert per la festa de Sant Carles organitzat per la Joventut Tradicionalista.

Paral·lelament, el teatre Principal presenta diversos concerts, fins i tot atraient agrupacions que abans eren habituals al saló Gerió, com ara l'Orfeó Catalunya i la Schola Orpheònica. També s'incrementa l'oferta pública de concerts amb les freqüents interpretacions a l'aire lliure del Regimiento de Infantería de Asia.

No consten representacions teatrals per la secció aficionada del Centre Moral, a diferència de la temporada anterior, però sí es documenta molta més activitat teatral per part d'altres associacions, com ara la secció dramàtica de l'Orfeó Gironí o la temporada d'òpera al teatre Principal.

En l'aspecte cinematogràfic, també entra en competència amb la sala El Paralelo, fins i tot arribant a presentar al mateix temps la mateixa pel·lícula a les dues sales. Les pel·lícules, com critiquen alguns diaris religiosos, perden el seu caràcter devot i, pels títols anunciats, veiem que conformen un repertori dedicat a la comèdia, l'acudit i els viatges documentals a països estrangers.

Sembla que no va haver-hi pausa d'estiu i les sessions cinematogràfiques dels diumenges van continuar al llarg del juliol i de l'agost.

Inici de temporada: el 22 de setembre de 1907.

Tancament de temporada: [No hi ha tancament oficial perquè l'activitat cinematogràfica dels diumenges es manté al llarg de tot l'estiu].

Sessions: diumenges i festius començant a les 4 de la tarda (al llarg de la temporada es va passar a començar a les 16:30 i després a les 17:00).

Incorporació d'audicions de gramòfon

"Nuevo completamente y muy variado es el programa de películas que se exhibirá en el cada día más concurrido saló Gerió.

Por no haberse recibido los discos convenientes, el domingo pasado no pudieron darse las audiciones del Gramófono, última novedad, que funciona sin necesidad de aguja y con una potencia y claridad suma. Hoy en todas las sesiones podrá admirarse la brillantez y perfección de dicho Gramófono, sistema "Pathé" con una gran variedad de piezas musicales."

Diario de Gerona 270 (24/11/1907)[108], p. 12.

Sessions cinematogràfiques

"En el escogido programa que hoy se exhibirá en el saló Gerió figuran las siguientes películas: Un Ganímedes afortunado (estreno), Escultor rápido, Percances de un tonel, Devolver bien por mal"

[108] Tornen a aparèixer anunciades les representacions de la secció dramàtica de l'Orfeó Gironí de Las Carolinas, Sense arguments, La botifarra de la llibertat i A pel i rapel.
[109] A la mateixa pàgina s'anuncien les representacions al teatre de l'Orfeó Gironí de les peces en un acte L'agència d'informes comercials, La sirena d'Apel·les Mestres i Las Carolinas.

"Excelente por demás y muy variado y de gran atracción es el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió. Las películas que componen dicho programa son las siguientes: Excursión a través de las Colonias francesas (estreno), Un error judicial, Los sports en Suecia, Navidad del pobre y Fiesta de los Segadores."

Diario de Gerona 299 (29/12/1907)[110], p. 7.

"No puede resultar más atractivo, interesante y variado el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo, cada día más admirado, del saló Gerió, entre cuyas películas se hallan las siguientes: Un error cruel, La loca del estanque, Equivocación de botella, etc., etc."

Diario de Gerona 15 (19/01/1908)[111], p. 12.

"Más vanado, atractivo y ameno no puede resultar el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió, entre cuyas películas se hallan las siguientes: La hermosa con velo (estreno), El pescador de perlas, Elefantes de la India, Cuidado con la pintura, etc., etc."

Diario de Gerona 21 (26/01/1908)[112], p. 13.

[Durant el mes de febrer no s'anuncia activitat cinematogràfica a la ciutat, però sí el carnaval i les representacions teatrals i de sarsuela del teatre de l'Orfeó Gironí, del Centro de Unión Republicana, del Círculo Católico de Obreros, dels alumnes del Colegio de la Inmaculada Concepción, etc.

El 17 de febrer de 1908 es publica a la Gaceta de Madrid el Real Decreto del Ministerio de la Gobernación exigint noves mesures i adaptacions de les sales de cinematògraf per a prevenir incendis degut a la freqüència amb què tenen lloc. Totes les sales ha d'adaptar-s'hi abans de tornar a obrir.]

"Hoy se exhibirán en el Cinematógrafo Saló Gerió las películas siguientes:

Maniobras militares, Robo en automóvil, Utilidad de las suegras, Campeonato de luchas, En busca de piso, El vigilante, Pobre puerco."

Diario de Gerona 52 (03/03/1908), p. 8.

[111] S'anuncia també un concert al teatre Principal amb violí, piano i tenor.
[112] S'anuncia també un concert de música militar a la Rambla i les representacions al teatre de l'Orfeó Gironí de les comèdies en un acte Aprobados y suspensos, Los assistentes i Retratos.

"El programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cada día más concurrido cinematógrafo Saló Gerió está compuesto de las siguientes y muy interesantes películas: Borrachera y paternidad (estreno), Agricultura y ganadería en Australia, La bota inagotable, Niño Frégoli, Aventuras de un sombrero, Viaje económico."

Diario de Gerona 57 (08/03/1908), p. 14.

"El cinematógrafo Gerió realizó ayer muy buenas entradas, elogiando el público las escogidas películas que se proyectaron."

La lucha 9416 (30/03/1908), p. 2.

"El programa de películas que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo del saló Gerió es de los más interesantes y atractivos que se han visto.

Las películas que lo forman son las siguientes: Venganza de la gitana (estreno), ¿Les alcanzará? (estreno). Viaje original, Posada en los Alpes, Estatua humorística, Artista torneador de madera."

Diario de Gerona 96 (26/04/1908), p. 13.

"Programa selecto y muy atractivo es el que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo Saló Gerió. Las películas que lo forman son las siguientes: El grumete, Señor miope pesca cangrejos, Toros en Sevilla, Felicidad para el año, 100 pesetas quien lo devuelva, Visita a la China."

Diario de Gerona 159 (12/07/1908), p. 12.

"Las películas que forman el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo Saló Gerió son del todo atractivas e interesantes, según puede juzgarse por sus títulos: La embrujadora, Afición al equilibrio, Los lunáticos, El somier, Gran canal de China, Herencia de una vieja soltera."

Diario de Gerona 165 (19/07/1908) [114], p. 12.

"Los dados mágicos, El hundido del monte San Miguel, Vida marítima en China, Descuido desastroso, Las grageas del abuelo, Colección de postales son las películas que forman el programa que hoy se exhibirá en el cada día más admirado cinematógrafo Saló Gerió por su gran claridad y suma fijeza."

Diario de Gerona 193 (23/08/1908)[115], p. 12.

"Programa excelente y de gran duración es el que hoy se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo Saló Gerió. Las películas que lo forman son las siguientes: Pequeños oficios en China, Venganza del obrero, Mudanza magnética, La mujer del cazador, La profesora de piano, La caverna de la bruja."

Diario de Gerona 199 (30/08/1908), p. 10.

[114] S'anuncia per al dia 19 un concert de la Schola Orpheònica, ara dirigida per Rafael Colomer, al teatre Principal per a presentar la seva nova senyera i himne.
[115] S'anuncia també un concert del "Regimiento de Infantería de Asia" al passeig de la Dehesa.

"EL PARAL·LEL DE GIRONA

Poc a poc va convertint-se la plaça de Sant Agustí en una sucursal del Paral·lel de Barcelona, especialment els dies festius i diumenges, sinó que aquí no es registren els fets que en aquell passen degut al cosmopolitisme.

Aquí tots soms uns i sempre els mateixos. Abans venien un cop a l' any alguna que altra barraca de micos i mones o figures de cera i de cavallets, tirs, xurros i demés, tan sols per les grans diades de les fires de Sant Narcís. Ara és tot al revés. Va començar a plantar-se un barracó amb cinematògraf, sense orgue, perquè no fes mal de cap als veïns (deia el seu propietari) i havent perdut posteriorment aquest escrúpol, adquirí una gran orgue que, a més de tenir la propietat de fer mal de cap, fa encrespar els nervis amb les peces invariables del seu raquític repertori, tocades sense el compàs corresponent.

Després veient l'América chica del negoci, s'implantà amb molt bombo i platets pels qui sempre els toquen aquets instruments, el saló Gerió amb un home que baladreja —pagat, és clar—, pregonant i requerint als vianant a que gastin el ral.

Dues o tres barraques de bunyols, que encensen la plaça amb el tuf de d'oli mal olorós, serveixen contínuament la seva producció. En un racó de plaça se representen, gratis, vistes de llanterna per a engrescar als badocs que fan taparada; per fi de festa una dona jova, rere una taula arrimada a les escales del pont, se veu enrondada de mainada que migra pels matonets i petits flams.

I la gent formigueja per la sucursal del Paral·lel.

"Quisi-cosas

Acertado, acertadísimo por demás estuvo un periódico de esta localidad cuando haciendo jocosamente un detenido análisis de nuestra vida dominguera, nos decía que si nos aburríamos en los días festivos a nadie más que a nosotros mismos debíamos darnos la culpa y, a continuación, con gracia sin igual, nos demostraba que en Gerona en las tardes y mañanas de los domingos hay espectáculos para todos los gustos, edades y sexos.

Sí señores, yo estoy con el periódico en cuestión, yo creo firmemente que si no nos divertimos es porque no queremos, y precisamente más en una ciudad que como la nuestra todos los actos sociales se hacen con puntualidad cronométrica.

Ahora que también comprendo que no a todos divierte por igual una misma cosa, que forzosamente según los temperamentos, lo que a unos les agrada a otros les fastidia, pero también la Providencia, ha puesto previsora al alcance de los últimos otra porción de pasatiempos buenos, bonitos y baratos.

Dios me libre de meterme en la vida privada de nadie, pero forzoso es que en comprobación de lo dicho cite a toda una familia que en los domingos no les queda libre ni siquiera media hora para cumplir con sus deberes a los hijos y con sus pasatiempos a los papás.

Pues bien, la santificación del domingo es empezada por estos cuatro seres, durmiendo un par de horitas más de lo regular, es decir hasta las once; deprisa y corriendo se visten, almuerzan y echando los pulmones llegan puntualmente a la última misa; de allí a la Rambla, de la Rambla a la confitería y de la confitería a casa; la comida por ser dominguera, sobre todo en los postres, se prorroga más de lo ordinario; inmediatamente vuelta a la calle y a la carretera de Barcelona, de allí al Paralelo, al Saló Gerió, luego a la Rambla y de allí a cenar; después de cenar vienen los comentarios de lo del día y después.... a dormir.

Temporada 1908/09

L'empresa perd pes davant la temporada de sarsuela del Principal i altres sales de cinematògraf. Cada vegada s'anuncia menys a la premsa i deixen de sortir durant llarg temps els títols de les seves pel·lícules. Com a novetat, s'introdueixen les pel·lícules a color i comencen a anunciar-se cap a meitat de temporada pel·lícules de drames històrics en diferents parts.

Al maig de 1909, l'empresa encarregada de les sessions cinematogràfiques del saló Gerió es dissoldria i el saló passaria a estar gestionat totalment pel Centre Moral Gironí, que el faria servir com a sala d'actes per alguns esdeveniment. A inicis de la temporada 1909/10, per a la temporada de fires, la junta del Centre Moral cedeix el saló a una nova junta de dames que col·locaria allà una tómbola. A aquest espai se li continuaria anomenant "saló Gerió" fins al voltant de 1912, tot i que l'empresa originaria ja no existís.

Inici de temporada: setembre de 1908, sense pausa estival.

Tancament de temporada: el 9 de maig de 1909, degut a la cessació de l'activitat de l'empresa.

Sessions: diumenges i festius a les 5 de la tarda.

Sessions cinematogràfiques

"Prueba de lo mucho que valen y por la gran novedad y atracción en todos los programas de películas que se exhiben en el saló Gerió, es cada día mayor la concurrencia que allí afluye. El programa de mañana no desmerece en nada de los anteriores, antes bien los sobrepuja, si cabe, por su variedad tanto en la parte cómica como dramática; pues basta enumerar algunas de las películas que lo forman para cerciorarse de ello: ¡Al fuego! (estreno), Historia de una niña encontrada, La hija del trapero, etc."

La lucha 9561 (26/09/1908), p. 2.

"No puede resultar más instructivo, variado e interesante el programa que mañana domingo se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo Saló Gerió.

Las películas que lo forman son las siguientes: El ángel de la Villa, El hijo pródigo (iluminada con hermosísimos colores), Carnaval de Niza en 1908, Contagiosa manía de nervios, etc., etc.

Con motivo de la Misión, las sesiones empezarán a las 4 y media."

La lucha 9573 (10/10/1908), p. 2.

"Excelente sobre toda ponderación resulta el programa que mañana domingo se exhibirá en el cinematógrafo Saló Gerió, tanto por la parte cómica como dramática. Las películas que lo forman son las siguientes: El sacrificio, Elixir de la juventud, La venganza del aduanero, Galán cándido, Desventuras de un procurador y En camino de Suiza."

Tancament i canvi d'empresa

"La empresa del saló Gerió ha resuelto suspender desde hoy las sesiones de cinematógrafo en dicho local. Deploramos esta determinación de la referida empresa, deseando que vuelvan a reanudarse los espectáculos en dicho cinematógrafo, ya que por muchas circunstancias son recomendables, especialmente por lo que afecta a la moralidad de las películas, con lo que no andan, por cierto, muy escrupulosos los dueños de algunos otros locales análogos."

"Tómbola de la Doctrina cristiana

La Junta de Damas y Señoritas y la Comisión organizadora de la Tómbola de la Doctrina cristiana se muestran muy satisfechas de lo bien acogida que ha sido por nuestra ciudad la idea de la tómbola; prueba inequívoca de la buena aceptación que ha tenido es el sinnúmero de regalos que se han recibido ya, y de otros muchísimos que espera recibir que se le han ofrecido con entusiasmo.

Las comisiones recaudadoras van cumpliendo admirablemente su arduo cometido; la comisión de comunicaciones lleva ya redactadas innumerables cartas dirigidas a las personalidades más salientes del Obispado solicitando el concurso de las mismas.

Casi todos los profesores de piano y otros distinguidos artistas de la capital han aceptado con sumo agrado el encargo de amenizar las horas en que funcione la tómbola; la empresa del saló Gerió ha dado todas las facilidades para que en él se pueda instalar la Tómbola; de manera que todo hace augurar un feliz éxito para la misma.

Muy bien por Gerona.

Comentaris posteriors

"Ángulo de la ciudad

El modernismo en Gerona

[…] Dejando aparte los muebles y otros enseres del arte decorativo doméstico que sin duda aún se conservan en muchas casas, producto más bien del influjo fácil que el modernismo ejerció en la artesanía, debemos citar, ante todo, las realizaciones concebidas por una de las figuras preeminentes: el arquitecto don Rafael Masó. Hoy podemos contemplar y admirar entre las obras suyas, un altar lateral de la Iglesia de las religiosas Joselinas, el que está al lado del evangelio más inmediato al altar mayor. […]. Lo mismo podemos decir de la bandera del Seminario, pieza afortunadísima recientemente restaurada, aunque no con la fidelidad y pureza que hubiera sido de desear. […]

Entre lo que ya pertenece a la historia no deben pasar por alto el saló Gerió y los espectáculos que en el mismo se dieron. El saló Gerió venía a ser una réplica más o menos modesta de la sala Mercè de Barcelona que tanta popularidad alcanzó en aquellos tiempos. Estuvo instalado en el salón teatro del Centro Moral el cual para estar a tono con el estilo fue transformado radicalmente, hasta el punto que la boca del teatro tenía toda la apariencia de una gruta agreste. El espectáculo consistía en una sesión de cine a base de películas escogidas, audiciones de música popular y como atracción original, el cuadro plástico La oració de la nit, letra original de don Rafael Masó y música del maestro Pecanins. La escenografía y la presentación eran cuidadísimas formando el cuadro escénico un grupo de niños y niñas muy bien enseñados.

EI público acogió dicho espectáculo con simpatía y no dudamos que aun hoy muchos gerundenses lo recordaran con cierta nostalgia. Sería curioso ahora descubrir entre los sobrevivientes las personas que entonces formaban parte del elenco de pequeños actores, ya que sería extraño que todos hubiesen desaparecido.

Després del tancament...

Tot i que el projecte del saló Gerió va estrenar poques visions musicals originals, cal remarcar la vida posterior que van tenir fora de Girona.

Muntanyes de Canigó, estrenada al juny de 1906, va ser representada a l'Ars-Lucis al febrer de 1907. Aquesta sala va ser una iniciativa molt semblant al saló Gerió, promoguda pel pintor Joaquim Vancells a Terrassa, també a imitació de la sala Mercè de Barcelona amb la intenció de portar el nou gènere de les visions musicals a la seva ciutat. Aquest fet remarca que, tot i que la inspiració inicial venia de Barcelona, no només les altres filials de visions musicals van tenir iniciativa pròpia d'escriure noves obres, sinó que haurien estat també en contacte entre elles perquè les seves obres circulessin amb autonomia de la capital barcelonina.

El cas més remarcable, però, seria el de L'oració de la nit. Durant la dècada dels anys 10, va haver-hi una gran promoció a Catalunya de les pedagogies Dalcroze i de les cançons amb gestos, exercicis de gimnàstica i calistenia per a nens, etc. Un dels seus grans promotors, que va estudiar aquestes pedagogies directament a Alemanya va ser Joan Llongueras, un dels principals promotors de l'Ars-Lucis i amic molt proper de Rafael Masó.

A Girona, el germà de Rafael, Narcís Masó, va ser l'encarregat de promoure aquestes pedagogies com a director de l'Escola de gimnàsia rítmica del Patronat obrer de Girona. Entre el repertori de cançons amb gestos de Dalcroze traduïdes al català i de rondes infantils, la visió musical de L'oració de la nit va estar present en el repertori per a infants. Més enllà de l'escola dirigida per Narcís Masó, altres escoles de primària, tant municipals com religioses, van escollir aquesta visió musical per ser representada pels nens en funcions extraordinàries i de fi de curs.

Per la seva banda, el mateix Rafael Masó també va iniciar nous projectes culturals després del saló Gerió. L'any 1912 va començar a construir-se l'Athenea, que es va inaugurar el 1913 i va estar en actiu fins al 1917. Aquesta societat hauria suposat la continuació del projecte cultural que Masó hauria iniciat amb el saló Gerió, però ja desvinculat d'entitats externes, com era el cas del Centre Moral, propietari de l'edifici en el qual operava el saló Gerió. Tot i que la intenció inicial de Masó incloïa també representacions teatrals, finalment l'Athenea no va presentar programació escènica i es va dedicar a concerts musicals, presentacions i lectures de llibres i conferències.

Entre d'altres, els membres originàriament vinculats a les visions musicals de Barcelona, com eren Josep Carner o Adrià Gual, van assistir a l'Athenea com a conferenciants, i els músics del saló Gerió, Josep M.ª Dalmau i Tomàs Mollera, van donar concerts a la nova sala. Per tant, tot i que deixant enrere el gènere de les visions musicals, el projecte de l'Athenea va suposar una continuació en clau noucentista de l'embrió que es va iniciar al saló Gerió, mantenint el nom de moltes de les personalitats vinculades inicialment al moviment de les visions musicals.

Representacions escolars de L'oració de la nit

Centre Catòlic d'Olot

Representada el 08/09/1908 per la secció d'espectacles i orfeó del Centre catòlic.

"En el Centre Catòlic por las secciones recreativa y del orfeón vienen ensayándose el cuadro musical titulado L'oració de la nit, hermosa producción literaria traducida del alemán por el joven literato redactor del Diario de Gerona D. Rafael Masó.

Su estreno no dudamos constituirá una muestra evidente de la importancia que al fomento de la cultura y gusto artístico se da en dicha sociedad."

El deber 597 (30/05/1908), p. 345.

"La secció d'espectacles del Centre catòlic durant eixes festes ha donat dugues funcions. El dia de la Mare de Déu del Tura posà en escena El Comte de Montserrat que, a pesar de notar-s'hi falta d'assaigs, sortí força bé en els dos primers actes. La ja coneguda visió musical L'oració de la nit fou tan de l'agrado de la concurrència que obligà a repetir-la. No obstant, la combinació de llums deixava quelcom que desitjar. [...]"

Escoles Pies d'Igualada

Representada entre el 25/12/1908 i el 03/01/1909 per les festes de Nadal.

Decorat de B. Camps.

"En les Escoles Pies d'Igualada tindran lloc durant les festes de Nadal i en els dies 27, 28 i 30 de desembre i 3 de gener, lluïdes funcions recreatives líric-plàstic-dramàtiques.

Augurem un èxit a tots i quiscun dels números del programa, i remerciem al P. Rector la invitació que ens ha enviat."

Pàtria 140 (25/12/1908), p. 3.

"Els alumnes de les Escoles Pies estan divertint força a ses famílies durant aquestes festes de Nadal amb els escollits quadros que tan bé executen i dels que molt bé se'n parla per tothom. Com ja ho auguràvem en nostre nombre prop-passat han obtingut un èxit grandiós dites representacions infantils que juntament amb l'expansió que proporcionen donen lliçons molt profitoses.

En el quadret L'oració de la nit, que és molt tendre, s'hi troba la confiança en Déu i l'àngel de la guarda, a quina presència fugen els follets que volien endur-se'n als dos nens perduts en mig del bosc. Mereixen ésser notats els que feien de Jesús, Àngel i nens perduts que eren respectivament els nois Salvador Vidal, Gumersindo Godó, Lluís Ferrer i Miquel Bernadas.

[També parlen del quadro líric-dramàtic Tot per Déu i de la sarsuela Lo sant de l'amo].

Les decoracions que s'han estrenat i que són de molt gusts són pintades pel senyor B. Camps, professor de dibuix.

Poden estar satisfets els PP. professors i alumnes de les Escoles Pies de nostra ciutat per l'èxit d'aquestes funcions que posen una volta més de relleu l'ordre i bona marxa del Col·legi i al donar-los nostra més coral felicitació desitgem als PP. escolapis que per molts anys puguin treballar en profit de nostra ciutat."

Acadèmia Catòlica de Sant Pere i Santa Maria de Ripoll

Representada el 13/5/1909 al teatre de la mateixa acadèmia.

"En la nit del dijous, tornaboda de la festa major, s'omplenà de gom a gom el teatre de l'Acadèmia Catòlica. Es projectaren vàries pel·lícules cinematogràfiques, i es posà en escena el quadro plàstic L'oració de la nit i el distret passatemps còmic en un acte La presonera. En L'oració de la nit el nen Josep Moreno (àngel) i l'altre, Agustí Marqués (follet del cor), deixebles de l'intel·ligent mestre de música mossèn Manel Caballería, entonaren molt bé, estant dotats de fina i potenta veu. "La festa rítmica del diumenge passat

Com havíem anunciat, diumenge passat aquesta població rebé l'agradosa visita dels directors i alumnes de l'Escola de gimnàsia rítmica que funciona a Girona baix la protecció del Patronal de Sant Pere Claver. A l'arribada del correu, eren moltes les persones que acudiren a l'estació, especialment noiets, per a demostrar la simpatia amb què els nostres hostes eren acollits a n'aquesta població. Hi eren entre altres els de la societat infantil Patronat Empordanès amb la seva bandera.

La funció de la tarda, dedicada als instructors i alumnes del Catecisme Parroquial, començà amb el quadret Una escuela de aldea, representat i cantat amb molt de gust per la secció dramàtica de l'esmentat Patronat Empordanès. A continuació, tingué lloc la primera tanda de marxes rítmiques i cançons amb gestos, baix la direcció dels Srs. Narcís Masó i Rd. Salvador Padrós, professors respectivament de la part plàstica i de la part musical. […]

El quadro plàstic L'oració de la nit que es representà tarda i vespre té una música i un decorat notables. […]"

Direcció d'Adela Trayter i Colls (directora de l'escola).

[Carta de Joan Baptista Coromina a Rafael Masó]

"21 de juny de 1912

Estimadíssim Rafael: amb alegria i content com unes Pasqües he llegit la lletra que avui dirigeixes al meu germà. Dona gust i fa treballar de totes veres el trobar-se de tant en quant amb coses aixís! [...]

Hi ha aquí a La Bisbal una mestra —D.ª Adela Trayter— que fa cantar als nens tot de coses d'en Dalcroze; també assagen allò de les bruixes que en il·lo tèmpore vós arranjàreu, tu i en Pecanins. M'ha demanat (i la tinc penjada sempre a l'orella) la lletra de les teves "muntanyes regalades" i jo fa més d'un mes que li dic que espero d'un dia a l'altre que tu me l'enviaràs. [...]

"Notes escolars

El darrer diumenge tingué lloc en el teatre Principal, ple de gom a gom, l'anunciada festa infantil que, amb ocasió de l'acabament de curs, venia preparant la distingida directora de l'escola municipal de pàrvuls n'Adela Trayter i Colls. Tractant-se d'una festa organitzada per ella i dient que en la preparació dels nombres musicals hi tingueren intervenció en Magne Bosch i en Josep María Soler, no cal dir que l'èxit estava previst.

En realitat la festa infantil resultà hermosa i lo que se'n diu un èxit franc. Les cançons tant amb gestes com sense gestes, els exercicis de gimnàsia sueca, els recitals de poesies, el diàleg d'en Santiago Boy, la visió musical d'en Rafel Masó i d'en Pecanins titulat L'oració de la nit i el monòleg de nostre volgut company en Josep Casabó i Carreras foren de l'agrado del públic que aplaudí tots els números (val dir que els aplaudiments tributats autors i a l'eixerit intèrpret del monòleg, per lo vist han indigestat a algú), sortint tothom del teatre amb recança i això que hi feia una calor irresistible. "Festa escolar i social a Sant Joan de les Fonts

Diumenge passat, amb motiu de celebrar-se la inauguració de la Caixa d'Estalvis en el veí poble de Sant Joan les Fonts, fundada pel director de les escoles de Sant Lluís Gonçaga, nostre amic i compatrici Rnd. Honorat Vinolas, secundat per l'incansable apòstol social Rnd. Bartomeu Buch, rector de dita població, tingueren lloc varis actes que revelen una vegada més que la actuació apostòlica i social, portada a cap amb unitat de criteri i d'acció, és sempre d'esplendorosos resultats.

[...] Per últim, en el teatre de la Natura, que baix la direcció del enginyer Sr. Costa i D. Martí Coderch va alçar-se en un extrem del prat, va representar-se la visió crepuscular L'oració de la nit d'en Rafel Masó i J. Pecanins, quina música executà La Principal Olotina. Se distingiren l'encantadora nena Conxita Torras, filla del fabricant del mateix nom i els nens Jordi Costa i Benet Reixach. El cor de bruixots va resultar molt bé i el componien els nens senyorets Muntada, Coderch, Desvilar, Vilanova, Fajeda, Planagumà, Targarona, Espadalé, Puig, Orri, Casas, Roca i Roura.

Tothom va sortir-ne complagut de tan agradables festes, que transcorregueren sense el més petit contratemps. Rebin mil enhorabones els seus organitzadors i mil mercès, extensives als senyors fabricants per les atencions immerescudes que ens tingueren."

Centre Catòlic d'Olot

Representada el 21/01/1917 per la secció de nens de l'escola musical del centre.

"El Centre Catòlic celebrarà demà la seva festa patronal, obsequiant a la Sagrada Família amb una missa de Comunió General, que tindrà lloc demà a les 8 del matí en la iglésia del Tura. Per a les cinc de la tarda té anunciada vetllada, amb aquest programa: [...]

Segona part: I. Projeccions de les il·lustracions a la Bíblia de Gustau Dorée. —II. Acurada representació del quadro plàstic L'oració de la nit, música de J. Pecanins i lletra de Rafael Masó."

El deber 1049 (20/01/1917), p. 44.

"El Centre Catòlic commemorà el passat diumenge la festivitat de la Sagrada Família amb una selecta sessió literària-musical que es veié favorescuda per una triada i nombrosíssima concurrència. Foren bellament executades les composicions musicals i molt aplaudit un excel·lent discurs que pronuncià el nostre distingit amic Mossèn Geroni Gelada, professor de la Preceptoria de llatí. Tingué èxit especial l'execució del quadre plàstic L'oració de la nit a càrrec de la secció de nens."

Vida olotina 73 (26/01/1917), p. 9.

"La vetllada amb la que el Centre Catòlic celebrà a la tarda del diumenge passat la seva festa patronal resultà solemne i hi assistí una concurrència extraordinària i distingida. [...]

La secció de nois de l'Escola musical cantà afinada i delicadament les precioses cançonetes L'àngel de la son i El desembre congelat que foren molt aplaudides.

L'il·lustrat sacerdot Mn. Jeroni Gelada, amb frase senzilla i acurada, provà en breu parlament l'encertada elecció del Centre en escollir la Sagrada Família per patrona seva, puig que és la més bella eclosió de les virtuts que deuen adornar a la família cristiana, servint-li com a model perenne. Fou aplaudit.

Les projeccions de les il·lustracions a la Bíblia agradaren molt. Per últim, l'hermós quadre plàstic L'oració de la nit va merèixer els honors de la repetició, la qual obtingué encara millor execució que la primera vegada."

Col·legi de les Germanes Filles de Jesús de Darnius

Representada el 30/12/1923 al local de la societat La Concòrdia en honor a l'ensenyament catòlic.

Grup integrat per nenes del col·legi de les Germanes Filles de Jesús i nens del Catecisme parroquial.

"Darnius.— Diumenge passat, coincidint amb les festes nadalenques, va celebrar-se en el nostre poble una gaia festa per a solemnitzar les Noces d'Argent de l'establiment de les benemèrites Germanes Filles de Jesús en el Col·legi darniuenc. [...]

A la tarda, en l'ampli local de la societat La concòrdia, ple de gom a gom i presidint les autoritats locals n'Emili Cardoner, alcalde; en Miquel de Gorgot, jutge; Mn. Marian Fullà, rector, amb altres distingides personalitats del poble i comarca, tingué lloc la solemne vetllada d'homenatge a l'ensenyament cristià. Els infants del Catecisme parroquial J. i J. Gironella, J. Cucala, J. Duran, J. Mª Delhom i J. Llauró i les noies del col·legi de les Germanes P. Perxes, D. Llosa, R. Delhom, V. Juan i B. Masdevall digueren amb art exquisit belles poesies, sobresortint en la comèdia La criada nova i en la visió musical L'oració de la nit. El doctor Salvador Fulla obrí l'acte amb escaients paraules, presentant l'objecte de la gaia festa i el doctor Burgas va parlar en la seva conferència dels deures dels pares envers llurs fills per assolir l'ideal de la família cristiana.

No cal dir com tot el poble de Darnius va sumar-se a la significació de la festa, aplaudint amb entusiasme els diferents números del programa i els atinats conceptes dels oradors, resultant una de les festes de les que el poble en servarà més grat record."

Escola de l'Orfeó Popular Olotí

Representada el 22/11/1926 per les festes de Santa Cecília; repetida el 05/12/1926.

Representada el 22/11/1928 de nou per les festes de Santa Cecília.

"Solemníssimes resultaren les festes dedicades a Santa Cecília per l'Orfeó Popular Olotí. El programa ja en donà la sensació de cosa gran.

Fou celebrada una Comunió edificant i pia pel nombre i per sa devoció, un ofici cantat pel poble alternant amb l'Orfeó i una missa en sufragi dels difunts. Tots els actes religiosos constituïren en l'ordre moral, una veritable harmonia. [...]

Acabà l'acte amb la representació del quadre líric L'oració de la nit, que tingué de repetir-se. En aquesta obra se destacaren les nenes Dolors Forga i Carmelita Font, com també el cor de follets, principalment son capità, en Benet Cargol. El quintet de corda, composat per alumnes de l'Escola, que il·lustrà musicalment el quadre, s'hi lluí de debò. La part escènica i el decorat, obra d'en Joaquim Vayreda, produí un immillorable efecte de llum i de color. [...]"

El deber 1554 (27/11/1926), p. 755.

"L'Orfeó Popular Olotí demà posarà en escena el drama en tres actes L'orfe i la segona representació del poema líric L'oració de la nit."

El deber 1555 (04/12/1926), p. 775.

"Com son sempre les festes de l'Orfeó, la principal d'elles o de Santa Cecília es distingí per la compenetració del poble amb l'element director.

En la Comunió del dia 22 hi assistiren 137 alumnes. El Sr. Rector pronuncià la plàtica preparatòria, i tots els alumnes interpretaren cants populars eucarístics i l'Himne a Santa Cecília del Sr. Director Mn. Fèlix Farró. [...]

Es clogué la vetllada amb la representació de L'oració de la nit, en la representació de la qual sobresortiren les alumnes Laura Bové, Eloisa Mas, Maria Claret i Carme Llobera. Tingué de repetir-se, amb lo qual està fet el millor elogi. Fou presidit aquest acte per la Junta de l'Orfeó i el Sr. Rector. [...]"

Anuncis de la propera obertura

"ELS CAPELLS DE LES SENYORES.— El cronista és coneixedor de moltes i moltes qüestions transcendentals que estan pendent de solució, amb tot i el malestar general que sa forçada interinitat reporta als ciutadans pacífics devots de l'ordre i del suau repòs.

El cronista sap el dèficit i la crisi de violins que sofreix el nostre Ajuntament; sap lo de la plaça mercat; l'assumpto tan remenat dels empedrats i clavegueres; la demora ad libitum de l'obertura del tan desitjat i aristocràtic Ars-Lucis; la baixa del vi; la moda dels automòbils; les cases que fan soroll.

Però un assumpto entre tots li ha cridat l'atenció, més ben dit, l'ha conegut profundament fins al punt de dedicar-li avui tota sa atenció, amb preferència als altres, creient-s'hi obligat per la cortesia i respecte que el sexe femení, a on resideix el poder i la tendresa i l'elegància, l'hi mereix a aquest inquiet cronista, etern admirador de la bellesa i de les exquisitats mundials. És aquest assumpto tan complicat, l'arribar a definir clarament el com i el quan han de portar capell les senyores de la nostra ciutat. [...]"

La sembra 233 (02/08/1906), p. 3.

"L'OBERTURA DE L'«ARS-LUCIS» O LA ARISTOCRÀCIA IMPACIENTA.— Diferentes vegades s'ha pronosticat ja la inauguració d'aquest inusitat espectacle qui ha de venir a pertorbar la ingrata vida de nostra atrafegada ciutat i diferentes vegades el pronòstic ha resultat fallit. Les profecies de La comarca i les de Egara no han sigut encara dissortadament complertes i la intranquil·litat comença ja a condir.

El cronista fins arriba a témer que la impaciència verament irresistible de la nostre aristocràcia i, més encara, de la nostre menestraleria, qui anhela ja graus superiors, arribi a desbordar-se invadint despietadament el misteriós recinte, qui tanca un pervindre desconegut (per més que se'l pressenti senyorial) per nosaltres, a fi de calmar l'incongruent suplici que el ja excessivament llarg tancament reporta als àvids de novetats i als sedents d'honestes i distingides i refinades i... aristocràtiques diversions.

El cronista, tafaner irremeiable, qui coneix tanta i tants secrets de nostra vida ciutadana, no ha pogut esbrinar encara, ni ha lograt posar en clar, el dia fixo i segur de l'obertura d'aquet entremaliat i misteriós «Ars-Lucis». Oh, admirable secret de les coses lluminosament irreductibles!...

Tot lo més que ha passat a ésser del domini del cronista és que l'espectacle serà una cosa admirable de bon gust i d'exquisitat artística. Fins les nostres aristòcrates més elegantes estrenaran vestits sumptuosos pera assistir dignament a l'obertura oficial.

No hi ha més; es precís confessar que la ciutat, amb tot i les seves tares remarcables, comença ja a volguer trencar els seus antiquats i rutinaris motllos.—«Ars-Lucis»— Fiat Lux.—I vina promptament en socors de la nostre impulsiva i fervorosa i respectable impaciència.

Chirón"

La sembra 237 (30/08/1906), pp. 4–5.

"PROFECIA.— Mercès a la pluja benèfica de l'altre dia, el cronista s'atreveix a profetitzar definitivament que l'obertura de l'excepcional Ars-Lucis és ja un aconteixement imminent. La impaciència dels adelerats ciutadans pot durar a tot estirar quinze dies. Mes, ah!, impacients llegidors, el cronista us assegura que vostre cruel impaciència serà esplèndidament recompensada.

Oh, menestrals i obrers de brusa honerosa, traficants de botigueta i petits agricultors, xics i grans, rics i pobres, poderosos i humils, l'Ars-Lucis es prepara a obrir-se generosament per tots vosaltres! Escolteu-ho ben bé: Per tots vosaltres. Ja que Ars-Lucis és com dir Aristocràcia d'ànima tan necessària a la complexitat dels innombrables elements Ciutat en aquests temps ingrats de lluita i d'inquietud.

Chirón"

Precedents del modernisme musical a Terrassa

La ciutat de Terrassa presentava ja iniciatives culturals modernistes uns quants anys abans de la inauguració de l'Ars-Lucis. Des de 1899, per exemple, el futur director de la sala d'espectacles i cinematògraf, Joaquim Vancells, ja organitzava a casa seva petites reunions-concerts en els quals els seus amics del món de la cultura i la seva pròpia família cantaven peces de Wagner, Bach i cançons populars catalanes. Destacava la presència d'Enric Granados, que feia també d'instructor musical a la filla de Vancells i que i el 1909 va donar el seu primer concert públic a Terrassa inaugurant les vetllades d'art de l'Agrupació Regionalista.

La melomania de Vancells l'impulsà a portar a la ciutat les agrupacions corals catalanistes. Convidà l'Orfeó Català a Terrassa, que acabava de néixer de la mà de Millet i Vives, el qual compartia aquest objectiu de promoure la música catalana a través de l'harmonització coral de cançons tradicionals. El 1896, la comissió organitzada per Galí, Arch, Soler i Palet, i Utset Juncosa organitzen la primera visita de l'Orfeó Català a Terrassa. Les despeses es cobririen per subscripció popular i la visita tingué lloc finalment el 23 d'agost de 1896 al teatre Principal. Va tornar el 6 de novembre de 1898 al teatre Principal i al teatre Retiro, amb una gran celebració popular, rebent-los a l'estació de tren i celebrant un banquet.

El 2 de juliol de 1899 visita Terrassa també el cor Catalunya Nova, dirigit per Enric Morera, per a celebrar la festa major. La majoria del seu repertori eren harmonitzacions de cançons populars de Morera per a aquest cor, que després suposarien també una important part del repertori de les futures associacions corals locals de Terrassa. El cor Catalunya Nova va arribar acompanyat de Santiago Rusiñol i Jaume Pahissa, notables personalitats del Modernisme lligades al teatre líric català.

El 1900 es funda el cor de l'Agrupació Regionalista, que rep la visita de l'Orfeó Català a Terrassa, el qual no tornarà fins al 1915. El cor terrassenc el dirigí el germà de Joaquim, Francesc Vancells. Va ser succeït per Martí Alegre, músic i escriptor, autor d'obres dramàtiques i lletres de sarsuela, que col·laboraria poc després amb l'Ars-Lucis. Va col·laborar també amb el teatre íntim d'Adrià Gual i va representar Prometeu encadenat. També va recollir cançons populars catalanes.

Després, per suggeriment directe del seu conegut Prat de la Riba, Joan Llongueras va ser el següent director del cor de l'Agrupació Regionalista. Es va acabar convertint en l'Escola Coral, que de la mà de Llongueras va promoure a Terrassa les "sessions selectes d'art", portant importants agrupacions musicals a la ciutat.

Joaquim Vancells anava a Barcelona a escoltar concerts corals i estava en contacte amb Morera. Demanava cançons i còpies de partitures quan les necessitava a Llongueras. Entre la seva correspondència, Vancells li diu a Llongueras després d'escoltar un cor "a la wagneriana" que estava emocionat per la tasca per al poble català que feien musicalment. Volia fer propaganda i promoure als diaris el valor artístic de Llongueras. Creia necessari que el jovent de Barcelona conegués la tasca artística d'aquesta música coral. "L'art i la pàtria t'ho paguin", li diu al febrer de 1906. A finals d'any, Vancells inauguraria l'Ars-Lucis, amb la col·laboració habitual de Llongueras en la part musical.

Temporada 1906/07

La sala Ars-Lucis va ser la temptativa teatral de Joaquim Vancells de convertir-se en programador cultural i passar, al igual que havia fet el seu conegut Lluís Graner, de la pintura al disseny lumínic d'escena. La sala es va situar al primer pis del Gran Café Condal, a la placeta de la Font Trobada, al centre de Terrassa, i va estar lligada a l'Agrupació Regionalista, tant pel que fa al finançament com a la col·laboració musical i teatral. Els intèrprets i cantants venien de la secció dramàtica i de l'escola coral d'aquesta agrupació.

Vancells era el propietari de l'empresa d'espectacles, però va estar ajudat econòmicament per Rafael Benet i per Joan Bosch, metge i director de l'Agrupació Regionalista. La sala es va inaugurar el 13 d'octubre de 1906, però hi ha indicis que Bosch va començar a ajudar amb el finançament ja al 1904.

Les visions musicals seguien la línia de les fetes a Barcelona, amb "visions de naturalesa", recreació d'ambients rurals i pastorals, temàtiques nadalenques i glosses de cançons tradicionals. Cal destacar, però, la importació d'algunes obres del repertori de la sala Mercè, com ara Somni de Jacob, i del saló Gerió de Girona, com ara Muntanyes de Canigó.

Segons certes ressenyes de premsa, hi assistia un públic selecte però molt escàs, i, en paraules de La sembra, Terrassa va acabar quedant "condemnada a la prosa" quan l'Ars-Lucis va tancar, fent al·lusió a la metàfora que planteja L'alegria que passa de Rusiñol i Morera. Per a les classes populars i obreres, les visions musicals amb poca trama narrativa i més aviat de contemplació artística haurien resultat elitistes. Tot i això, també es van programar diversos concerts i representacions teatrals de drames i sainets.

Les sessions estaven complementades per projeccions de cinema, incloent-hi també el "cinema parlat", invent patentat per Lluís Graner a la sala Mercè, en què els actors parlen a sobre de les imatges amagats sota l'escenari. Però, segons certs testimoniatges bibliogràfics posteriors, sembla que Vancells tallava moltes escenes que censurava i les productores li van deixar de passar cintes.

Quant a la resta de vida teatral a Terrassa, el teatre Principal i el Retiro, presentaven habitual activitat artística: representacions d'òpera, sarsuela i vetllades literàries, concerts, balls... Cal destacar que, coincidint amb la inauguració de l'Ars-Lucis, es va instal·lar al Principal una companyia de sarsuela castellana que va anunciar diversos títols canònics del repertori en castellà. La secció dramàtica de l'Agrupació Regionalista i la nova Ars-Lucis haurien suposat l'alternativa escènica i lírica en català.

L'activitat de la temporada, iniciada a l'octubre, hauria acabat a meitat de maig. Per una banda, s'inaugurava també el cinematògraf del teatre Alegria, i per altra eren les festes del Corpus a finals de maig, venia la festa major, etc. Per tant, començant ja les festivitats i la temporada d'estiu. L'associació musical pel seu compte també guanya llavors molt protagonisme i comença a organitzar diversos concerts i conferències sobre música i drama líric.

Representacions teatrals i concerts

♫ Concert de l'Associació Musical

"El jueves se celebró en el salón de Ars-Lucis un concierto instrumental extraordinario a cargo de la Asociación musical. Se ejecutaron composiciones de Bach, Grieg, Elgar, Mendelssohn, Durán, Haydn, Saint-Saëns, Franck y Wagner, y tanto los inteligentes como los simples aficionados a la buena música quedamos complacidos de la interpretación que obtuvieron."

Fraternidad republicana 161 (27/10/1906), p. 3.

"El jueves último tuvo lugar en el local de Ars-Lucis un concierto instrumental organizado por la Associació Musical, cuyo programa lo formaban selectos números, que fueron hábilmente ejecutados por algunos señores socios de los que componen la floreciente asociación.

Unimos nuestros aplausos a los numerosos que recibieron los ejecutantes en cada uno de los números. Merece nuestra felicitación la idea de celebrar los conciertos en un local apropiado y de capacidad suficiente para contener el ya crecido número de amantes de la buena música con que cuenta hoy Terrasa, ya que esto da facilidad a que el público pueda concurrir a los mismos, obteniendo gran beneficio la instrucción musical del pueblo, a cuyo fin fue creada tan benemérita sociedad."

Egara 727 (27/10/1906), p. 4.

♫ Concert del violinista rus Winssant Rhodresski

"Ars-Lucis.— Avui a les 9 del vespre tindrà lloc en aquest local un concert públic extraordinari a càrrec del famós violinista rus Winssant, baix el següent triat programa:

PRIMERA PART. —I. Concert núm. 3 (1er temps) Mendelssohn. —II. Romança en sol major, Beethoven. —III. Faust (fantasia), Gounod.

SEGONA PART. —IV. Concert-fantasia, Beriot. —V. Nocturn núm. 2, Chopin. —VI. Dances espanyoles, Sarasate.

TERCERA PART. —VII. Melodia clàssica, Monasterio. —VIII Concert núm. 3 (2on i 3er temps), Mendelssohn.

Serà acompanyat al piano per distingits professors de la localitat.

Vetllades selectes. Els empresaris de l'Ars-Lucis, junt amb la Associació Musical[124], tenen pensat organitzar Vetllades selectes obrint amb aquest fi un abono pels dijous.

[124] L'Associació Musical recentment havia organitzat conferències sobre "La cançó popular a Itàlia i a Alemanya" amb Diego Ruiz i sobre el "Concepte general de la música" amb Adrià Gual, qui estava molt relacionat amb la teoria escènica de les visions musicals.

Obrirà les vetllades aprés d'un concert per un aplaudit violinista el quadro Voreta del mar, amb música d'Esquerrà executada per l'Associació."

La sembra 256 (17/01/1907), pp. 12, 13–14.

"Concert Winssant.— Dos concerts ha donat en nostra ciutat el famós violinista rus en Winssant Rhodresski. En el primer, donat en la sala Ars-Lucis el dijous passat, feu sentir els tres temps del 3er concert de Mendelssohn, essent molt esplèndida la seva execució. Fou molt celebrada la manera com digué el Nocturn 2on de Chopin, que es vegé obligat a repetir. La Romança en Sol major de Beethoven fou una delícia. Fou molt celebrada també una melodia clàssica de Jesús de Monasterio, així com el concert de Beriot i les danses espanyoles de Sarasate.

En resum, un bon concert a on se donà a conèixer un virtuós del violí amb gust distingit i de cap manera amanerat com sol succeir generalment en aquesta classe d'artistes. El segon tingué lloc en el popular Casino del Comerç la nit del diumenge passat. [...]"

Sirena (marina en un acte)

Representada el 9 i el 24 de març 1907.

Text d'Apel·les Mestres.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Ars-Lucis.— El propvinent dissabte dia 9 del corrent a la nit tindrà lloc en aquest artístic local una sessió extraordinària [...]. Se representarà el magnífic quadro de gran èxit La sirena [...]. És esperada amb molts desitjos aquesta sessió extraordinària de l'Ars-Lucis."

La sembra 263 (07/03/1907), p. 13.

"Ars-Lucis.— Per a demà estan anunciades en aquest local l'exhibició de vàries pel·lícules i dos visions musicals quals títols són la Sirena i Somni de Jacob, pels antecedents que en tenim, les sessions prometen veure's molt concorregudes."

La creuada 9 (09/03/1907), p. 10.

"Ars Lucis

Mañana domingo, Sirena. […] En ambos días, largos y escogidos programas cinematográficos."

Egara 748 (23/03/1907), p. 6.

L'ase de l'hortolà (sainet declamat)

Estrena el 14/04/1907.

Representat fins a la primera setmana de maig.

Text d'Emili Vilanova.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[...] Demà diumenge s'estrenarà en aquest local l'hermós sainet d'en Emili Vilanova titulat L'ase de l'hortolà."

La creuada 14 (13/04/1907), p. 13.

"Ars-Lucis.— Lo prop passat diumenge s'estrenà en aquest local lo magnífic sainet del celebrat autor en Emili Vilanova, titulat L'asse de l'hortolà. L'argument, si bé és senzill, està ple d'acudits i xistes que provoquen les rialles dels espectadors. L'execució, que va estar a càrrec de les Srtes. Pahissa i Cervosa i dels Srs. Farrés, Vila, Guarro, Carné i Trencs, va anar bastant bé i lo decorat fou hermós com sempre.

Ademés d'aquest sainet, s'exhibiren algunes pel·lícules entre les quals mereixen especial menció Lo drapaire, que és sensacional de debò i que va agradar tant a la concurrència que creiem són moltes les persones que veurien amb gust es tornessin a representar."

La creuada 15 (20/04/1907), p. 14.

"Ars-Lucis

Variado programa cinematográfico, terminando todas las sesiones con el aplaudido sainete L'ase de l'hortolà."

Egara 753 (27/04/1907), p. 6.

"Ars-Lucis.— Han continuat amb èxit les representacions de L'ase de l'hortolà, sainet que per lo ben representat i bonic que resulta, creiem que lo públic veuria amb gust se repetís."

La creuada 17 (04/05/1907), p. 14.

La festa dels ocells (quadro de costums)

Representada el 09/05/1907.

Text d'Ignasi Iglésias.

Escenografia de Joaquim Vancells.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Ars-Lucis.— Amb lo nom de La festa dels ocells, lo dijous últim s'estrenà en aquest local un magnífic quadro de costums degut a la ploma de l'escriptor en Ignasi Iglésias. L'argument és com segueix: L'Escayola és un apassionat ocellaire que a pesar d'haver-li empresonat un fill seu a conseqüència de les vagues del poble i sense fer cas dels precs de la seva dona, del seu germà i dels amics de que deixés les seves aficions als ocells, no pot menys d'acudir al Certamen que es té de celebrar, esperant guanyar lo primer premi. Mes al tornar l'Escayola a casa seva, li comuniquen que aquell mateix matí posaran en llibertat a son fill i per a celebrar-ho l'Escayola pensa matar un cabrit, però son germà li diu que es deixi de morts i que així com han posat en llibertat a son fill, posi ell en llibertat als pobres ocells; fent-ho així l'Escayola, encara que amb molta recança. Tot l'argument de l'obra pot ben dir-se doncs que és un himne a la llibertat.

Los personatges de l'obra foren molt ben desempenyats per los Srs. Carné, Guarro, Trencs, Ferrer, Vila i la Srta. Pahissa. I lo decorat pintat per lo Sr. Vancells fou notable com tots los seus."

La creuada 18 (11/05/1907), p. 13.

"Se nos dice que la empresa de Ars-Lucis se propone abrir un abono a funciones selectas en las que se darán a conocer las obras de los más eminentes escritores y músicos catalanes."

Egara 755 (11/05/1907), p. 4.

🎭 Lo boig (quadro líric no estrenat)

Lletra de Juan Costa.

Música de Francisco Payás.

Anuncis a premsa:

"Ha sido entregada en Ars-Lucis un cuadro lírico titulado El boig, original de D. Juan Costa y música de D. Francisco Payás, cuya producción veremos representar después de algunas reformas que en el referido local se proyectan realizar."

Egara 738 (12/01/1907), p. 6.

"Ars-Lucis.— Se anuncia una extraordinaria sesión de cinematógrafo para esta noche, y en breve se pondrá en escena un nuevo cuadro lírico, la letra de D. Juan Costa y la música de D. F. Payás, ambos exalumnos de nuestras Escuelas Industriales, titulado Lo boig. Procuraremos ocuparnos, como según noticias se merece, de la nueva obrita."

Jannequin, Hivern de P. Locard i La gentil pagesa-Missatge d'amor de Max Reger i ademés altres escollits cants de son repertori. Esperem que el concert de dijous serà un triomf més per a l'Escola i son Director"

La creuada 10 (16/03/1907), pp. 9–10.

"El próximo jueves día 21, la Escola Coral de la Agrupació Regionalista dará un concierto en la sala Ars-Lucis en obsequio a los señores socios protectores de dicha institución coral, tomando parte en el mismo sus tres secciones de señoritas, niños y hombres."

Egara 747 (16/03/1907), p. 3.

"Copiem d'Empori, la notable revista barcelonina:

«Una de les entitats artístiques de Catalunya que cal veure amb més simpatia és aquesta selectíssima Escola Coral de Terrassa dirigida pel músic poeta mestre Joan Llongueras. És hermós que en una ciutat de mecànica tasca fabril com Terrassa, hi visqui, i tan amada, una institució d'un refinament i una elegància aitals. Ella, elevada per un aplec simpàtic de músics, poetes i pintors, ha crescut bellament i s'ha format un medi favorabilíssim, donant pa àzim als esperits positius. El darrer concert de l'Escola fou donat el 2 i a la sala del Ars-Lucis. Figuraven en el programa J. S. Bach, Mendelssohn, Schubert, Tessier, Mauduit, Jannequin, Locard, Dalcroze, Max Reger i Morera.»

«Novament el dia 21 dels corrents la notable Shola Coral de Terrassa, que dirigeix en Joan Llongueras, se feu sentir en l'Ars-Lucis d'aquella ciutat, i, igualment que les altres vegades, l'èxit més unànime coronà el treball dels cantaires, que a cada nova audició que donen demostren els avenços de la seva educació artística.

Set estrenes s'oferien en el programa, set delicioses obres que han vingut a augmentar l'extens repertori d'aquesta associació.»

Després de copiar el programa íntegre afegeix:

«Aquest escollit programa és bona mostra de la tasca artística que realitza aquesta entitat en aquella comarca vallesana. Cal, doncs, que tornem ara a repetir lo que ja hem dit en altres ocasions semblants de l'Escola Coral de Terrassa i del seu intel·ligent director?

Lo que sí hem de fer constar és que el concert obtingué un gran èxit i que fou dedicat als socis protectors de l'Escola, els quals poden estar ben satisfets de formar part d'una entitat que els honra en alt grau la seva ciutat.»

"Concert al Ars-Lucis

Atentament invitats per l'Agrupació Regionalista, assistirem lo dijous prop-passat al concert que l'Escola Coral donà a l'Ars-Lucis a les nou de la nit.

Lo programa, que estava format per varies composicions d'en Morera, Jacques Dalcroze, Mendelssohn, Schubert, Bach, Tessier, Mauduit, Jannequin, Locard i Max Reger, fou molt ben interpretat, però les condicions acústiques del local, feu algunes vegades que les veus se sentissin massa fortes, lo que es notava principalment en los pianos.

Malgrat això, la concurrència comprengué molt bé l'estudi que els coristes havien fet de les obres que cantaren i per això se'ls va aplaudir vàries vegades, obligant-los a repetir algunes cançons com Testament d'Amèlia, la cançó d'infants Kiri, kiri, ki, lo majestuós Cor d'àngels de Schubert, la cançó de Mauduit Vos me feriu tant dolçament i l'hermós Himne de l'arbre fruiter d'en Morera, cantat amb gran valentia per tot lo cor, i en quin solo se distingí lo notable tenor D. Salvador Puig.

En aquest concert se cantaren per primera vegada Hivern i Aquest bon maig traduïdes per en Joan Llongueras, La gentil pagesa y Missatge d'amor, cançons populars alemanyes harmonitzades per en Max Reger i traduïdes per lo distingit farmacèutic Dr. Sallent i per en Joan Llongueras i tres cançons d'infants d'en Jacques Dalcroze.

En resum, podem dir que va ésser un concert notable i que més ho hauria resultat si s'hagués donat en un local de més bones condicions acústiques. R. P. A."

♫ Concert de Marc Barba

"Associació Musical.— Avui a les 9 del vespre tindrà lloc a la sala de l'Ars-Lucis un concert organitzat per l'Associació Musical en lo que lo distingit barítón terrassenc Sr. Barba cantarà escollides peces de son repertori. L'entrada serà pagant 1 pta. a preferència i a 0,50 ptes. al públic."

La creuada 19 (18/05/1907), p. 11.

"Associació Musical. Esta noche en el salón Ars-Lucis se celebrará un concierto en el que tomará parte nuestro compatricio el distinguido artista don Marcos Barba. […]"

La comarca del Vallés 814 (18/05/1907), p. 10.

"Associació Musical.— Concert Barba.— Meritíssima és la tasca duta a terme per aquesta associació, que no perdona medis per enlairar lo nivell musical del nostre poble, ara organitzant concerts en los que nos dona audicions dels més refinats clàssics musicals, ara proporcionant-nos lo poguer sentir a les celebritats musicals del dia.

Lo dissabte passat nos va deixar sentir al nostre compatrici en Marc Barba, qui abans de reempendre sa tournée artística, va volguer despedir-se de sos conciutadans. Excel·lent en lo dir, bonic en lo cant, va mostrar-se una vegada més en Barba: no obstant a fur de sincers, hem d'observar que se l'hi notava un cert cansament, especialment al començar les notes més agudes i altes; malgrat això, en Barba pot figurar dignament al costat de molts dels barítons d'avui dia. ♫ Concert d'Esperança Forés

"Concert en projecte.— L'Associació Musical de nostra ciutat està fent gestions per a que la notabilíssima concertista de piano n'Esperança Forés, deixeble d'en Malats, vingui a donar un recital de piano en nostra ciutat. Sembla que en el cas de que això puga realitzar-se el concert tindrà lloc el prop-vinent dijous a les 9 del vespre en la sala de l'Ars-Lucis. No cal dir si ens alegraríem de poguer veure confirmada aquesta nova tan falaguera pels nostres gourmets musicals."

La sembra 276 (16/05/1907), pp. 10–11.

"[…] Recital Esperanza Forés. Organizado por la incansable Associació Musical de nuestra ciudad, la notable y distinguidísima concertista de piano la señorita Esperanza Forés dará el jueves próximo en el salón Ars-Lucis un escogido concierto.

Abono. La empresa de Ars-Lucis abre un abono a funciones selectas en las que se darán a conocer las obras de los más eminentes escritores y músicos catalanes."

La comarca del Vallés 814 (18/05/1907), p. 10.

"Recital Esperança Forés.— Aquest vespre tindrà lloc a la sala d'Ars-Lucis l'anunciat recital de piano a càrrec de la distingida concertista n'Esperança Forés, que ha sigut organitzat per l'Associació Musical de nostra ciutat. Per les notícies que es tenen dels seus èxits obtinguts a Barcelona és esperat aquest concert amb verdader interès pels entusiastes de l'art musical. Heus aquí l'exquisit programa[125] que executarà:

Primera part: Sonata op 2, Beethoven. —Segona Part, Fantasiestucke, Schumann.— Impromptu amb variacions, Schubert. —Pastoral, Scarlatti. —Capritxo, Scarlatti. — Tercera Part: Nocturn, Chopin. —Balada, Chopin. —Vals en la bemol, Chopin. —Cor de filadores del vaixell fantasma, Wagner-Liszt."

La sembra 277 (23/05/1907), pp. 11–12.

[125] El mateix programa s'havia publicat ja a Egara 756 (18/05/1907), p. 6.

"[...] Concert Forés.— Lo dijous vam poguer sentir a aquesta jove i eminent pianista. En Beethoven, Schumann, Schubert Scarlatti, Taussig, Chopin, Wagner, Liszt, figuraven en lo programa i casi bé no caldria remarcar que a tots ells los va interpretar magistralment. Ben clar ho demostrava lo públic amb los eixordadors aplaudiments, amb què la saludaven cada vegada que acabava de tocar una peça i especialment a l'acabar d'interpretar lo Vals en la bemoll de Chopin, en què una nena l'hi va fer entrega d'una xamosa toia i a l'acabar en què l'ovació que se l'hi tributa fou imponent, veient-se obligada a tocar una altra peça al piano. L'enhorabona a l'Esperança Forés, de qui podem dir que, encara que no tingui gaire llargues les cames, anirà lluny i a l'Associació Musical que tan bella estona nos va fer passar."

La creuada 20 (25/05/1907), pp. 13–14.

"Concierto. Nos lo produjo la Associació Musical en Ars-Lucis el jueves último, por la bella y simpática concertista señorita Esperanza Forés; constó este de tres partes, que ejecutó en el piano, con el sentimiento y maestría que de sí requiere ese bello arte, cosechando merecidos aplausos. El salón se hallaba completamente lleno. La concurrencia salió satisfecha de la velada."

La comarca del Vallés 815 (25/05/1907), p. 9.

"NOTAS DE ARTE

Organizado por la Associació Musical, tuvo lugar el jueves último un recital de piano por la notable concertista de Barcelona Srta. Esperanza Forés.

La hábil pianista acreditó su justa fama ante los inteligentes componedores de la nueva sociedad musical, quienes al finalizar cada una de las tres partes en que se dividía el programa dieron vivas muestras de admiración para la fiel intérprete de los grandes maestros del arte musical.

La señorita Forés fue muy felicitada por la concurrencia y obsequiada con dos preciosos ramilletes de flores.

El día siguiente la simpática pianista visitó el popular Casino del Comercio teniendo la galantería de tocar algunas piezas en el magnífico piano de la mencionada sociedad, siendo favorablemente judicada por los varios socios que en aquel momento se hallaban presentes."

Egara 757 (25/05/1907), p. 6.

La mare (drama)

Representat el 24/06/1907.

Text de Santiago Rusiñol.

Escenografia dels germans Pere i Tomàs Viver.

Representada per la companyia Aires Nous.

Direcció escènica de Martí Alegre.

"La mare.— La nova agrupació dramàtica organitzada per nostre bon amic en Martí Alegre donarà el diumenge dia 23 a la nit una representació d'aquesta hermosa producció d'en Santiago Rusiñol[126] a la Fraternitat Republicana, i una altra la nit del dia 24 a la sala Ars-Lucis, estrenant-se una magnífica decoració deguda al pinzell dels germans Viver.

Desitgem a la nova agrupació un bon èxit per la seva empresa[127]."

La sembra 281 (20/06/1907), p. 16.

"Aires Nous. Con este título debutará mañana por la noche una nueva agrupación dramática representando el aplaudidísimo drama de Rusiñol La mare en la Casa del Pueblo. Dará así mismo una segunda representación de dicha obra en la sala Ars-Lucis la noche del lunes, festividad de San Juan."

La comarca del Vallés 819 (22/06/1907), p. 8.

"Ars-Lucis.— Lo dia 24 a les 9 de la nit farà son debut en aquest local una agrupació dramàtica que, dirigida per en Martí Alegre, posarà en escena lo magnífic drama d'en Santiago Rusiñol La mare. Per los antecedents que tenim de les persones que componen aquesta agrupació i per lo bonic del drama que posen en escena, creiem que aquest local se veurà molt concorregut."

La creuada 24 (22/06/1907), p. 12.

[126] Aquest mateix estiu també es va intentar posar en escena El jardí abandonat de Rusiñol amb música de Joan Gay per a la clausura de l'exposició d'art local, però tot i que hi havia un espai designat i el cor va començar els assajos, no es va arribar a representar.

[127] Poc després l'agrupació va portar la producció d'aquesta obra també al teatre del Círcol d'Olesa de Montserrat.

♫ Concert segon d'Esperança Forés

"Esperança Forés.— Heus aquí el programa del concert que se celebrarà diumenge a càrrec de l'eminent pianista n'Esperança Forés, qui tan gran record deixà en son darrer a l'Ars-Lucis:

Programa

Sonata, op. 2.....Beethoven

Au soir.....Schumann

Elevació..... "

Preludi.....Chopin

Impromptu..... "

Nocturn..... "

Llegenda.....Paderewski

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Decididament dissabte a les 9 del vespre tindrà lloc la inauguració del tan esperat Ars-Lucis. Segons notícies, tenim entès que l'espectacle serà excel·lent. Amés de vàries pel·lícules cinematogràfiques interessantes i instructives s'estrenarà la visió de naturalesa en tres quadros, pensament d'en Joaquim Vancells, decorat del mateix i els germans Viver i música d'en Joan Llongueras, titulada Flors de muntanya, la que podem adelantar als nostres llegidors és una exquisidesa de bon gust i refinament.

Desitgem molta prosperitat i molta sort als empresaris d'aquest nou i interessant espectacle que tanta falta feia en nostra ciutat."

La sembra 243 (11/10/1906), pp. 4–5.

"Esta noche tiene lugar la inauguración de la sala de espectáculos Ars-Lucis, presentando además de varias películas cinematográficas, el cuadro original de don Joaquim Vancells con música del maestro Llongueras titulado Flors de montanya."

Egara 725 (13/10/1906), p. 4.

"Ars-Lucis. Hoy se inaugura el hermoso y artístico local Ars-Lucis con la visión musical Flors de muntanya y con la exhibición de variadas y escogidas películas cinematográficas. Exquisito gusto ha presidido en los más insignificantes detalles de ornamentación gracias a la dirección competente del reputado artista tarrasense D. Joaquim Vancells. No dudamos que los empresarios verán recompensados sus estrenos por la concurrencia. Entrada general 0,25 ptas. y preferencia 0,50 ptas."

La comarca del Vallés 782 (13/10/1906), p. 9.

"El prop-passat dissabte tingué lloc definitivament la inauguració de l'Ars-Lucis.

Es projectaren vàries pel·lícules molt clares i molt interessants totes elles, que cridaren l'atenció als nombrosos concurrents. No obstant, el clou de l'espectacle el constitueix sense cap classe de dubte la visió de naturalesa titulada Flors de muntanya, que fou presentada amb un refinament de bon gust i de propietat com potser mai s'havia vist en el teatre aquí a Terrassa. La nena i el noi que desempenyen l'obra ho fan amb una naturalitat corprenedora i el decorat i la llum i els cor estan tots tan compenetrats d'una mateixa emoció de naturalesa que l'espectador sense donar-se'n compte arribà a sentir en certs moments la impressió d'una realitat sublimada que l'hi parla inefablement a l'ànima.

Els tres quadros de què es compon la visió foren en totes les seccions molt aplaudits. Creiem que aquests espectacles poden contribuir d'una manera molt directa a aixecar el nivell moral i intel·lectual de nostra ciutat i felicitem coralment als propietaris del local (que és decorat amb una serietat verament corprenedora) i sobretot al director artístic en Joaquim Vancells, que en això com en tot lo que es proposa ha sapigut triomfar completament.

Per a dissabte i diumenge vinents, tenim entès s'estrenaran noves pel·lícules i es repetirà, en atenció a molts que no disfrutaren d'ella, la visió de naturalesa Flors de muntanya."

La sembra 244 (19/10/1906), p. 5.

"El sábado último quedó inaugurada la sala de espectáculos que con el título de Ars-Lucis ha instalado en esta ciudad nuestro compatricio el celebrado pintor D. Joaquín Vancells. Dicha sala ofrece al visitador un excelente efecto por el buen gusto que reboza hasta en el más mínimo detalle.

Un elegante teatrito colocado en la parte opuesta a la entrada del local recibe las proyecciones cinematográficas, las cuales se distinguen por lo escogido de las películas, ya que las que allí se exhiben ofrecen por lo general un interés instructivo no muy común en esta clase de espectáculos.

La novedad consiste en la presentación de cuadros plásticos, empezando la campaña con Flors de muntanya, original del señor Vancells ilustrado con música del maestro Llongueras. Esta obrita es una reproducción de costumbres montañesas, que conserva muy bien el típico lenguaje de los campesinos en relación con la edad de los diminutos actores que lo representan. La presentación es tan perfecta como apetecerse puede.

Igualando y en algunos detalles superando a los espectáculos que de análoga clase se representan en la capital. En resumen, Ars-Lucis es digno de ser visitado.

El nuevo espectáculo es bien digno de ser visitado, y seguros estamos que cuantos lo efectúen apreciarán en él un mérito extraordinario, que lo hace acreedor del favor del público, en beneficio del buen nombre de Terrasa.

Merece entusiasta felicitación el señor Vancells, bajo cuya dirección ha sido ejecutado el decorado de la sala Ars-Lucis, no siendo menos acreedores de ella cuantos artistas han contribuido con la pulcritud de sus trabajos, al embellecimiento del mencionado establecimiento, figurando en primera fila los pintores hermanos Viver, cuya reputación como decoradores quedaría bien fundada, si no lo estuviese por los muchos trabajos que en nuestra ciudad llevan realizados."

Egara 726 (20/10/1906), p. 4.

"Ars-Lucis. Como habíamos anunciado, el sábado último tuvo lugar la inauguración del Ars-Lucis ante numerosa y selecta concurrencia.

Se proyectaron muchas películas, todas ellas claras e interesantes y muy del agrado del público; pero lo que más llamó la atención fue la hermosa visión de naturaleza en 3 cuadros titulada Flors de muntanya, presentada con el exquisito gusto que caracteriza las producciones del señor Vancells. Los jóvenes encargados de interpretar la obra se nos mostraron como verdaderos artistas, y la luz, el decorado y el coro, todo contribuyó al éxito de la obra.

Felicitamos al señor Vancells por su triunfo y esperamos que el público recompensará con su asistencia los desvelos de los organizadores.

Para hoy y mañana, se estrenarán nuevas películas, y se repetirá la visión de naturaleza Flors de muntanya."

"IMPRESSIÓ D'ARS-LUCIS.— El cronista ha assistit a les sessions que han vingut donant-se aquests darrers dies al magnífic i recollit local de l'Ars-Lucis. Oh, incomparable espectacle!

Ars-Lucis ha desconcertat als nostres innocents curiosos. La frase dels bondadosos concurrents era aquesta: "Ars-Lucis no és per Terrassa" Oh, franquesa indesxifrable!... i mentrestant, les criatures somreien i aplaudien i demanaven amb insistència al sortir que els deixessin tornar a l'espectacle.

Ars-Lucis és verament un garbell; la gent hi passa i queda destriada. Tothom es queixa de Terrassa i és Terrassa qui hauria de queixar-se de tothom. Aristòcrates (no vull dir rics, que hi ha molts rics no aristòcrates) ciutadans; vosaltres no teníeu lloc per a esbargir-vos, no teníeu recreacions per a solatjar-vos, no teníeu excusa per a exercir la vostra acció social aristòcrata. Ars-Lucis ha vingut a vosaltres.

És reduït com correspon a vostra classe no abundant, per lo escollida; és elegant i de serio i és sobretot distingit. Ars-Lucis és vostra vida i vosaltres sou vida per Ars-Lucis. És arribada l'hora de vostre triomfadora sociabilitat. El cronista espera que sabreu aprofitar-la com correspon a vostra reconeguda ciutadania.

"Ars-Lucis. Además de la hermosa visión de la naturaleza Flors de muntanya, fueron esta semana del agrado del público las vistas fijas y las magníficas películas Dos cotxers per un client y He perdut les ulleres."

La comarca del Vallés 784 (27/10/1906), p. 8.

"Ars-Lucis.— Mañana tarde y noche habrá sesiones de cinematógrafo presentándose por última vez el aplaudido cuadro Flors de muntanya."

Egara 727 (27/10/1906), p. 4.

"Ars-Lucis. Continúa viéndose concurrido este magnífico sitio de recreo. En las sesiones de la última semana fueron muy bien recibidas las películas halladas Gat astut y Un bon jutge."

La comarca del Vallés 785 (03/11/1906), p. 23.

❖ Represa de *Flors de muntanya

"Ars-Lucis.— Sembla que el diumenge pròxim, a precs de la major part del públic que assisteix als espectacles, se posarà altra vegada en escena l'hermosa visió de naturalesa en tres quadros Flors de muntanya, que tan aplaudida fou i tanta bona impressió deixà en nostra ciutat. Ens en alegrem de veres."

La sembra 256 (17/01/1907), pp. 12, 13–14.

"Ars-Lucis.— Esta semana no ha habido visión en este local, habiéndose proyectado tan solo algunas películas que fueron muy bien recibidas por el público."

La comarca del Vallés 797 (26/01/1907), p. 9.

"Ars-Lucis.— Aquesta setmana s'ha posat en escena la visió de naturalesa en tres quadros Flors de muntanya, representada amb molta justesa i notant-se més pulcritud que les altres vegades en los efectes de llum. També se projectaren algunes pel·lícules dignes de menció."

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Durante las presentes fiestas se exhibirá en la sala Ars-Lucis, además de un escogido programa de películas cinematográficas, el nuevo cuadro La lluerna, en el que se anuncia el estreno de un precioso decorado."

Egara 733 (08/12/1906), p. 5.

"Ars-Lucis

La lluerna.— Acostumats com estem a les xavacaneries, inverosimilituts i males presentacions que ens donen sempre en nostres teatres, trobar-se de cop i volta davant d'un quadro escènic com aquest, l'ànima respira i comença a creure en l'art i a fer-se'n ferm devot d'ell; perquè, més lluminositat, més vida i més naturalitat que la que hi ha en aquest espectacle no pot pas demanar-se.

Al escórrer-se la cortina ja us trobeu davant d'aquella platja esplèndida, a ple sol, amb aquelles figures que es mouen ingènuament com si realment fossin estat pescadors de tota la vida i com si aquelles teles esdevinguessen aigües i roques de veritat i com si els llaüts i xarxes de la sorra fossen verament això mateix. Després escolteu aquell parlar tan real, tan característic de la gent de mar, amb les seves malesvolences i intrigues i amb aquelles creences de les coses extranaturals tan pròpies dels pescadors.

I si el primer quadro és tan hermós per la naturalitat i pintura dels personatges, el segon, per la manera i ambient en què es desenrotlla, causa una sensació intensa:

La mar està inquieta. El cel s'enfosqueix lentament. Els pescadors canten al lluny una cançó de platja. En mig de tot això, apareix la figura del pescador despatxat, poc a poc, misteriosament. Una nena baixa les roques esporuguida i fa un feix d'estelles. La lluna s'alça majestuosa a l'horitzó. Aquell pescador, erm de tot sentiment de bonitat i que ha viscut sempre a les seves, sense saber res de les coses del cor, a un sol petó d'aquella nena desgraciada, esdevé prompte el més bo i sensible dels homes, enduent-se-la en braços, roques amunt i prenent-la al costat seu com a filla. I després de tot això el cel va enfosquint-se més. I el rondinar de les algues barrejant-se hermosament amb la cançó de la Lluerna i els cors dels pescadors, deixen a l'ànima una sensació intensa.

El Sr. Vancells, autor de la lletra i de les pintures, ha sapigut retratar ben bé l'ànima dels nostres pescadors de les costes de Llevant. El llenguatge és cuidat i propi; i tot junt és verament copiat de la vida de la gent de mar, amb quins l'autor ha tingut ocasió de viure-hi i conèixer. La música del Sr. Llongueras, d'un caient popular que enamora, està íntimament adaptada a la lletra; és franca i ingènua, i té la salabror del mar i el ritme de les ones.

Els joves que cuidaren de l'execució, ho feren amb força gust i sentiment, com així mateix la noia que feia d'orfeneta i la que entre bastidors, cantava la cançó de la Lluerna."

La sembra 251 (13/12/1906), pp. 10–11.

"Ars-Lucis.— La empresa de este local nos ha presentado la última semana el título La lluerna, una visión en 2 cuadros cuyo argumento, si bien es sencillo, se desarrolla con mucha naturalidad y gracejo, y es una copia exacta, un fiel retrato de costumbres de la playa. Los personajes que más se distinguen en esta representación son el Mestre Tom y Resclot, interpretados admirablemente por los señores Carné y Guarro, y lo mismo podemos decir de los demás artistas que intervienen en la obra, pues todos ellos representan muy bien su papel. La música es franca y se adapta muy bien a la letra, y el decorado y trajes están muy adecuados a la obra."

La comarca del Vallés 791 (15/12/1906), p. 8.

"En Ars-Lucis se ha estrenado un precioso cuadro titulado La lluerna, siendo presentado con tanta propiedad que el espectador se ve transportado en una playa de Levante en donde se desarrolla la escena del citado cuadro.

Dicha obra expresa todo un sentimiento, y la naturalidad del diálogo corre aparejas con lo que dejamos dicho de la presentación."

Camí de Betlem

"Escenes de Nadal de rusticitat camperola", 2 quadres.

Estrena el 23/12/1906.

Representada fins al 06/01/1907.

Lletra anònima basada en la cançó popular Lo rabadà.

Música d'autor desconegut.

Escenografia d'autor desconegut.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Ars-Lucis.— Està preparant-se un espectacle propi per a aquestes diades de Nadal i cap d'any, que promet cridar poderosament l'atenció."

La sembra 252 (20/12/1906), p. 15.

"Ars-Lucis.— Ha sigut rebut amb gran entusiasme el nou espectacle titulat Camí de Betlem, poguent-se comptar per plenes totes les sessions en què s'ha posat en escena. És verament notable la tasca dels encarregats de la direcció artística de l'Ars-Lucis per la varietat i la exquisida presentació en les visions que van donant.

Camí de Betlem el componen dos quadros d'escenes de Nadal plenes d'ambient popular i de rusticitat camperola fidelment arrencades de la nostra gent i de les nostres muntanyes. Decoren aquesta visió varis números musicals ben propis i escaients i l'hi dona un relleu extraordinari la magnífica decoració amb variants de llum i plena d'una grandiositat pirinenca que captiva.

Creiem que tot Terrassa anirà a veure la nova visió de l'Ars-Lucis, que és sense cap dubte el millor espectacle que es presenta avui dia a nostra ciutat."

La sembra 253 (28/12/1906), p. 10.

"Ars-Lucis. En esta última semana, la empresa de este local nos ha presentado, además de varias hermosas películas habladas y fijas, una magnífica visión musical en dos cuadros, apropiada a las fiestas de Navidad y cuyo título es Camí de Betlem, habiendo sido muy bien interpretada por los artistas que han tomado parte en la representación, y muy bien recibida por el distinguido público que llenaba el local."

La comarca del Vallés 793 (29/12/1906), p. 9.

"El domingo fue estrenado en Ars-Lucis un precioso cuadro titulado Camí de Betlem, apropiado a las actuales fiestas. La presentación, sin que nada pueda censurarse, no alcanza la perfección que en los referidos espectáculos nos tiene acostumbrados, mas no puede dejar de aplaudirse la oportunidad en que ha sido presentado, viéndose por este motivo sumamente concurrido por familias que con gran placer presencian la representación del precioso cuadro, cuya letra está basada en la popular canción Lo rabadà."

Egara 736 (29/12/1906), p. 5.

"Ars-Lucis.— Continuen els plens per a veure la visió popular Camí de Betlem, que cada dia agrada més. Tenim entès que per al dia del Reis es prepara una agradable sorpresa als nens i nenes concurrents a l'espectacle."

La sembra 254 (03/01/1907), p. 15.

"Ars-Lucis. Continúa siendo muy celebrada la visión popular Camí de Betlem y preparándose para mañana una agradable sorpresa a los niños y niñas que concurran al citado espectáculo."

La comarca del Vallés 794[129] (05/01/1907), p. 9.

"Ars-Lucis.— Aquesta setmana, a més d'exhibir-se en aquest magnífic i luxós local l'aplaudida visió popular en 2 quadros Camí de Betlem i vàries hermoses pel·lícules parlades com Les cascades del Niàgara i Nit de Reis, se sortejaren dues joguines pels nens i nenes que hi havia en cada una de les sessions de la tarda, i un quadro a l'oli del pintor Sr. Vancells entre els concurrents a cada una de les sessions de la nit. Lo quadro sortejat en la sessió de les 9 del vespre correspongué al nº 375, resultant favorescuda la senyoreta Elisa Monner, i lo sortejat a dos quarts d'onze, al Sr. Bonifaci Romero."

La creuada 1[130] (12/01/1907), p. 11.

[129] També inclou ressenyes de Purificació i El fill pròdig, obres líriques estrenades a la ciutat de caràcter religiós.
[130] A més, es parla del drama líric Lo fill pròdig representat a les Joventuts Catòliques, i de l'estrena de Purificació al teatre Principal.

Muntanyes de Canigó

[Podria tractar-se de la mateixa obra estrenada al saló Gerió, representada al juny de 1906 i al gener de 1907, també amb música d'Adrià Esquerrà, però aquesta està dividida en tres temps i la de l'Ars-Lucis s'anuncia en dos quadros.]

Estrena el 03/02/1907.

[Lletra de Nicolau de la Font.]

Música d'Adrià Esquerrà
(per a violí, violoncel, piano i harmònium).

Escenografia nova de Joaquim Vancells.

"Ars-Lucis.— Aquesta setmana, a més d'exhibir-se vàries artístiques pel·lícules com Les cascades del Niàgara, L'espia i vàries vistes fixes, s'estrenà en aquest local la magnífica visió en dos quadros Muntanyes de Canigó, executada amb la pulcritud amb què ens té acostumats lo Sr. Vancells. Los personatges foren molt ben interpretats i lo mateix podem dir de la música d'aquesta obra, que és molt hermosa i va anar a càrrec d'un quarteto de violí, violoncello, piano i harmònium, que produí molt bon efecte.

Demà, diumenge, se posarà en escena una paròdia del Pastor-Rei, lletra d'en Joan Carné i música d'en Marc Armengol, i quin títol és El Camàlic, rei de la broma."

La creuada 5 (09/02/1907), pp. 9–10.

"Ars-Lucis.— Últimamente se han representado en este notable cinematógrafo dos nuevos cuadros: Les muntanyes de Canigó, de mucho efecto y preciosa interpretación, y el cuadro de actualidad carnavalesca Rei Camàlic, que también mereció, como el primero, los elogios de la concurrencia."

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Ars-Lucis.— L'estreno del Camàlic, rei de la broma, paròdia del Pastor-Rei, lletra de Joan Carné i música de Marc Armengol, fou un verdader aconteixement. L'èxit d'aquesta paròdia fou franc i sincer i la gent no es cansava d'aplaudir al final de cada acte, obligant als autors a sortir a l'escena. L'obra està ben versificada i ben parodiades totes les accions, totes les idees i totes les filosofies i símbols que hi ha en la obra, fent-se, pels que coneixen el Pastor-Rei, doblement interessant.

La música és senzilla i fàcil i s'adapta completament a la lletra i, sobre tot, a l'humorisme de l'acció, fent-se aplaudir en el concertant final del primer acte i sobresortint en les cançons del Pare en el primer i en la de l'Agnès en el segon, cançó impregnada de sentiment melòdic. Acabant amb un valent brindis seguit d'una marxa triomfal molt inspirada.

L'execució fou molt cuidada per part dels joves que hi prengueren part, distingint-se en primer lloc la senyoreta Pahissa, qui canta amb molt gust i sentiment la cançó del segon acte.

En resum, l'obra, a més d'adaptar-se per complet a la diada per la qual fou expressament escrita, fou tant de l'agrado del públic que creiem podria molt bé representar-se amb èxit alguns altres dies."

Somni de Jacob

[Obra estrenada a la sala Mercè a l'inici de la temporada.]

Representada del 09/03/1907 al 17/03/1907.

Lletra de Mateu Nonell.

Música d'Adrià Esquerrà.

Escenografia nova dels germans Viver i Joaquim Vancells.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Ars-Lucis.— El propvinent dissabte dia 9 del corrent a la nit tindrà lloc en aquest artístic local una sessió extraordinària que, segons els antecedents que en tenim, promet ésser verament esplèndida. Se representarà el magnífic quadro de gran èxit La sirena i s'estrenarà la interessant visió musical del mestre Esquerrà El somni de Jacob amb decorat nou i brillant apoteosi. En els intermedis alternant amb el programa cinematogràfic que serà escollidíssim, el trio tocarà triades peces de concert. És esperada amb molts desitjos aquesta sessió extraordinària de l'Ars-Lucis."

La sembra 263 (07/03/1907), p. 13.

"En Ars-Lucis está anunciado para hoy un espléndido programa. Mañana por la tarde se representará el cuadro Somni de Jacob, además de una variada colección de películas cinematográficas."

Egara 746 (09/03/1907), p. 6.

"Ars-Lucis.— Per a demà estan anunciades en aquest local l'exhibició de vàries pel·lícules i dos visions musicals quals títols són la Sirena i Somni de Jacob, pels antecedents que en tenim, les sessions prometen veure's molt concorregudes."

La creuada 9 (09/03/1907), p. 10.

"Ars-Lucis.— Ple d'una distingida concurrència se vegé aquest local aquesta última setmana amb motiu de l'estrena de l'hermós quadro Somni de Jacob.

L'execució d'aquest quadro bíblic fou admirable, essent de remarcar lo paper de cego, Isaac, que fou molt ben interpretat per lo Sr. Carné. Lo decorat és hermosíssim i de gran mèrit i los efectes de llum no podien estar més adequats. Per tot això creiem que aquest quadro pot aguantar-se algun temps en los cartells, doncs la concurrència ne sortí agradablement sorpresa.

Rebin los Srs. Vancells i germans Viver la nostra felicitació per l'hermós decorat que han pintat per a aquesta obra. [...]"

La creuada 10 (16/03/1907), pp. 9–10.

"Ars-Lucis.— Durant aquesta setmana han continuat amb èxit la representació del quadro bíblic Somni de Jacob i l'exhibició de diferents pel·lícules molt hermoses, sobre tot les titulades Caça de cavalls y Home elàstic, que meresqueren molt elogis de la concurrència.

Per les festes de Pasqua, se'ns diu que es representarà una obra amb dos quadros titulada Ofèlia, quina lletra és de nostre estimat company en la premsa D. Martí Alegre, i música del distingit mestre Esquerrà."

La creuada 11 (23/03/1907), p. 13.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"ARS LUCIS

Para las fiestas de mañana hay anunciado el estreno del cuadro y visión musical original de nuestro compatricio D. Martí Alegre, Ofèlia, alternado con el escogido programa cinematográfico. Para esta obra han sido pintadas dos decoraciones."

Egara 749 (30/03/1907), p. 6.

"Ars-Lucis.— Per les festes de Pasqua estava anunciada l'estrena d'Ofèlia, visió musical en dos quadros amb lletra d'en Martí Alegre i música del mestre Esquerrà. I l'estrenà fou com sempre un triomf més per l'Ars-Lucis. La lletra està basada en l'argument d'Hamlet, i l'Alegre ha sapigut presentar-nos trossos bonics com lo començament del primer quadro en què l'escena de taberna que ens pinta és arrencada de la realitat. Lo mestre Esquerrà s'ha lluït en la música que s'adapta en un tot amb la lletra. Les decoracions magnífiques. La representació regular, poguent dir en conjunt que allà s'hi passava una bona estona. Esperem que no serà aquesta la darrera representació d'Ofèlia."

La creuada 13 (06/04/1907), p. 12.

"Ars-Lucis. El domingo de Pascua tuvimos el gusto de asistir al estreno del cuadro y visión musical Ofèlia, letra de nuestro compañero en la prensa señor Martín Alegre y música del señor Adrián Esquerrà, alcanzando justos y merecidos aplausos por parte del inteligente y distinguido público que frecuenta el local.

Tan hermoso y sugestivo espectáculo hi sido presentado por el señor Vancells de una manera espléndida como nos tiene acostumbrados. Nosotros, por nuestra parte, enviamos a los autores y empresario nuestra más cordial enhorabuena, felicitándonos de paso, por el tono y ambiente artístico que dan a nuestra población espectáculos como el que nos ocupa.

Para mañana domingo se anuncian las últimas representaciones de Ofèlia."

"Ars-Lucis

El domingo último se puso en escena el precioso cuadro y visión musical en un acto y dos cuadros, letra de nuestro distinguido compañero en la prensa D. Martín Alegre y con música del maestro Esquerrà. Las decoraciones especialmente del segundo cuadro produjeron muy buen efecto y la magnífica presentación y esmerada interpretación fueron premiados con justos aplausos.

Para mañana está anunciada la misma obra."

Egara 750 (06/04/1907), p 7.

“Ars-Lucis

Ofèlia— El nostre amic en Martí Alegre una vegada més ens ha volgut donar una mostra del seu temperament artístic. D’un personatge de la tragèdia Hamlet n’ha fet una obra; idealitzant o, millor dit, glosant la figura d’Ofèlia amb una traça envejable. En quant a la part literària, el primer quadro és una escena dibuixada fermament i arrencada de la realitat mateixa, fent un contrast fort amb el segon, a on tot és ideal i d’aspecte.

La música de l’Adrià Esquerrà està íntimament adaptada a la lletra i a les situacions de l’obra, devent fer notar el cor de bevedors i el cant d’Ofèlia del segon quadro, números a on s’hi veu la traça del notable compositor.

La part decorativa deguda al pinzell dels germans Viver produeix un cop d’efecte magnífic, sobre tot al segon quadro, que per la tonalitat freda que respira causa una forta sensació.

En quant a l’execució, poguérem veure algunes deficiències, degut segurament a la falta d’assajos. No obstant, cal fer notar que el personatge d’Ofèlia fou tan vivament encarnat per la Sreta. Pahissa que, en el segon quadro, sobre tot, un no sabia si la seva figura era un somni o una realitat; mes si es vol, quan deia la Cançó del [salser?], que, tot plegat duia a l’ànima una emoció intensa.

Si aquesta obra s’hagués estrenat a Barcelona, segurament que encara s’aguantaria als cartells dies i dies. Aquí, amb tres representacions n’hi ha hagut prou. I és que a Terrassa se va al teatre per tres coses: per riure, per plorar o (diguem-ho clar) per veure cama. Als primers poc els interessen els espectacles d’aquesta sala, perquè no són coses de riure; als segons, menys encara perquè diuen que són poc sèries i ells volen tiros i sang per les taules; i als tercers, oh aquests!, aquests no hi aniran pas, perquè diuen que allò és innocent i fa ferum de sagristia.

Superba ignorància dels homes! Tothom vol portar als llavis la paraula cultura, tothom parla d’ideals i regeneracions i quasi tothom ignora lo que diu. I encara diran que no sabem ésser cultes!”

La sembra 271 (11/04/1907), p. 15.

“Ars-Lucis.— Aquesta setmana han continuat amb èxit les representacions de l’hermós quadro Ofèlia i la exhibició de diferents pel·lícules de broma. [...]

La creuada 14 (13/04/1907), p. 13.

“[…] Inspirat en la tragèdia Hamlet, ha escrit dit autor una obreta plena de poesia i d’emoció, que agradà en las representacions donades en aquesta sala, on ha sigut presentada amb luxe i bon decorat degut als germans Viver. La música és inspirada i acredita al conegut compositor.”

"Inactualisme... Universalisme...

Sí, senyors; a Terrassa, encara que ens passem tot el dia ficats entre telers o entre altres parets de magatzems, no per això ha deixat d'arribar-nos la fausta nova. Ja ens sentim inactuals, universalistes...

Així ho canten des de les planes d'un estimat confrare dugues firmes atrevides. L'un, tocat de fort universalisme, les empren contra l'innocent Ars-Lucis i els rutinaris cants populars; l'altre, s'entreté en mig de vaporosos somnis d'inactual, no deixant ós sencer a les nostres pobres dones, que, infelices, naveguen en una foscor de cervell que fa feredat, i per acreditar llur progressisme, sols s'exerciten ballant sardanes per pura démodé.

Ja veuen els nostres amables llegidors que la llavor grana de valent en alguns caps privilegiats. En Brossa, l'Alomar, ja apenes tindrien que tocar-hi res.

Si el nostre jovent intel·lectual s'apassiona així amb les noves doctrines, aviat a Terrassa de romanticisme històric i de reaccionaria política no se'n trobarà per medicina.

Un poble a on hi fructifiquin tan intensament les idees més avançades, no es pot morir mai.

I passa allò que, com quan ve una passa de verola, solament estan segurs els qui porten els tres talls al braç, davant d'una tan grossa empenta de progressisme. Si un no es fica bé la gorra per retenir calent tot el suc de cervell que hagi emmagatzemat al caliu de les noves teories, corre risc de quedar buidat com una llagosta...

No hi ha més, el temps de les elucubracions cerebrals s'imposa, i no cal pas preocupar-se per on puguin sortir els nostres super-artistes, super-estatistes, super-literats... Anant predicant, obrant escassament, i sabatejant per rutinàries totes les manifestacions de bon gust que es portin a assaig, molt serà que aquella munió de supers que esperem com el mannà, si no surten de grat, no els fem sortir de memòria.

Fet i fet, el febrós treball de desviades imaginacions és lo que pot lliurar a Catalunya.
Els qui estan al peu del canó gasten pólvora en salves.

[132] Altres notícies o temes del moment són l'atracció del vot obrer per par de Lerroux o la idoneïtat de derivar el vot catòlic cap a Solidaritat catalana en lloc d'a partits catòlics.

“MEA CULPA

Amb pulcritud poc comú i conceptes dignes d’un fabricaire de corrandes; amb excessiva modèstia i filosofies de a tant la cana, ha sortit a dir-me Universalista des d’aquestes planes un tal Raisuli, per l’horrorós fet d’haver exposat mes pobres conviccions, en sentit no molt favorable per l’Ars Lucis [...] Els seus xistos de barberia m’han convençut de que anava per mals vairanys a aconsellar obres que sols dec conèixer per haver llegit títols a l’aparador de cal Gorina!

Oh! I afirmar que els cants populars són rutinaris... quines heretgies! Confesso que no coneixia aquell educador “Salta miralta, trenca una galta”, ni el tan edificant “Ball rodó Catarineta” i altres i altres.

Sense l’atinada intervenció d’aquest Mecenas, a hores d’ara, potser ja m’hauria descapdellat en un, diguem-ne article (a cualquier cosa llaman chocolate las patronas), afirmant que els nostres avis se la devien campar molt grassa, quan s’entretenien en fer cançons tan... cançoneres.

Però ara, davant d’una lògica tan contundenta, reconec que la cançó popular anti-universal, és l’única base amb què s’ha de fonamentar la nostra escena. Com s’entén que hi hagi qui es delecti en el desatinat drama de l’Iglésias Les garses si podria substituir-se amb El rossinyol o bé La mare eterna per La Mare de Déu quan jo solament analitzant els títols hem de reconèixer que faria més fi... i més regionalista. I la producció d’Ibsen Joan Gabriel Borkman com quedaria si en son lloc s’adaptés a l’escena Sant Ramon barrejada amb algunes estrofes de Maria Agneta?

Mea cupa! Mea culpa! M’acuso d’haver caigut en la temptació d’universalitzar els cap tapats d’aquest poble. Sort que l’arrepentiment ha vingut aviat. Des d’ara (encara que amb la penitència m’hi faci malbé els canons de la treixura), prometo estar sempre de la banda d’aquells campions infatigables que constantment batallen al peu del canó... de l’estufa.

Josep. A Brossa (Joan Margets)

No hi calen pas gaires comentaris. Ma fonda sorpresa, només, d’haver pogut delectar mon rutinari esperit en les suculentes conclusions d’en Brossa i els immensíssims acudits del Poeta.

No sé pas si ens hem ben bé entès, però tant se val. En una tosca intel·ligència no perxò deixen d’entrar-hi uns raigs d’ingeni d’aquest calibre.

Solament una paraula m’enclou el pensament: BURROS. Però no em vull anticipar amb el calificatiu al clar judici de mos mai prou estimats llegidors.

Activitat cultural a Terrassa durant l'estiu

Al mes de juny i juliol es va organitzar a l'Ars-Lucis algun concert i representació teatral extraordinaris i l'empresa donaria la seva activitat per acabada temporalment. Només tornaria a reprendre l'activitat durant unes setmanes per les festes de Nadal i Reis de 1907/08. Això no vol dir, però, que durant l'estiu no hi hagués activitat cultural a Terrassa que impliqués als empresaris i autors de l'Ars-Lucis.

Al juliol de 1907 es va organitzar l'exposició independent d'art local, promoguda per l'Agrupació Regionalista, del 29 de juny al 7 de juliol, amb la implicació directa de Joaquim Vancells. Coincidia amb l'estrena del nou local de l'agrupació, que es va inaugurar llegint una sèrie de cartes d'Adrià Gual i poesies de Montoliu. Ramon Casas també va passar per algun dels actes. Va ser, per tant, un moment de reunió i concentració de les personalitats de la cultura del catalanisme modernista.

L'exposició artística tingué lloc a l'aire lliure, als jardins del nou local, on havien instal·lat un servei de cafè i refrescos. Com a part de les activitats, estava programada la representació d'El jardí abandonat, obra de teatre líric de Santiago Rusiñol amb música de Joan Gay, escrita per a la temporada de Teatre Líric Català de Morera al Tívoli. La direcció escènica d'aquest muntatge estava prevista per part del mateix Santiago Rusiñol. Joan Llongueras disposava els alumnes de la seva Escola coral com a cantants per a l'obra. Estava prevista per ser representada a l'aire lliure, al jardí mateix del nou local de l'Agrupació Regionalista, i es va arribar a preparar un decorat.

La representació es va endarrerir fins a finals d'agost perquè el mateix Rusiñol hi pogués estar present i es va acabar clausurant l'exposició sense portar a terme l'obra. A partir del dijous 15 d'agost, els artistes podien anar-hi a recollir les seves obres pel desmuntatge. El diumenge 11 s'havia clausurat l'exposició amb un sorteig de postals.

Temporada d'hivern 1907/08

La sala Ars-Lucis, que semblava haver donat per finalitzada la seva activitat en arribar l'estiu de 1907 i acabar la seva primera temporada, va tornar a obrir les seves portes per una breu temporada d'hivern. Tot i que a principis de novembre ja es va anunciar la tornada a l'activitat de la sala, la represa dels espectacles es va anar endarrerint fins a finals de desembre. Acord a l'esperit religiós i al catolicisme practicant que marcava les empreses de visions musicals, l'Ars-Lucis va reobrir a finals de desembre de 1907 per representar dues visions musicals de temàtica nadalenca.

Tot i que inicialment es va anunciar Lo mal rabadà, sembla que finalment es va substituir per Jesús és nat, representada el dia de Nadal, i una setmana després es va portar a escena Nit de Nadal, "una refundició de Jesús és nat i Camí de Betlem", per cap d'any. Pel dia de Reis de 1908, es va representar la visió musical per a infants Un zing-zing, un te té, una R i una E, un "qüento de Reis" estrenat un any abans a la sala Mercè també per al dia de Reis, acord a la temàtica de l'obra.

De fet, totes les obres esmentades fins ara formaven part del repertori de la sala Mercè, que havia deixar de fer representacions escèniques a principis de novembre de 1907 per prohibició municipal degut a les condicions de la sala. Per tant, probablement aquesta reobertura per fer la temporada d'hivern es tracti d'una col·laboració amb sala Mercè per mantenir viu el projecte de les visions musicals.

Joaquim Vancells ja havia programat durant la temporada anterior alguna obra de la sala Mercè i la mateixa Ars-Lucis estava inspirada en aquesta sala. L'amistat i llaços que compartia amb Lluís Graner haurien facilitat una col·laboració empresarial per acollir les seves produccions, aprofitant que l'Ars-Lucis estava equipada amb les llums i l'equip tècnic pertinent per representar visions musicals i projectar pel·lícules cinematogràfiques que completessin les sessions, com ara a la sala Mercè.

Després del dia de Reis, l'Ars-Lucis va continuar obert fins a finals de febrer oferint programes exclusivament cinematogràfics. A meitat de febrer es va fer servir com a espai de reunions per als estudiants de les Escoles Industrials i l'últim anunci de les sessions cinematogràfiques de l'Ars Lucis el trobem el dia 22, per tant diumenge 23 de febrer podria haver estat l'últim dia d'activitat de la sala.

Un sorteig d'un quadre de Vancells entre els assistents indicaria que el pintor hauria estat encara vinculat al projecte, tot i que es pogués tractar d'una itinerància de la companyia de Barcelona, que just després del seu pas per Terrassa va anunciar les visions musicals de la sala Mercè a Manresa, continuant per Reus, Vilafranca...

Exitosa o no, aquesta empresa hauria carregat al seu propietari i director artístic de deutes econòmics que haurien truncat l'activitat de la sala. Vancells continuaria arrossegant durant anys aquests problemes monetaris, al igual que el cas del seu amic Lluís Graner, pioner de les visions musicals a Barcelona.

Tot i això, cal remarcar la mort de la filla de Vancells, enterrada el 4 gener de 1908, quan encara era una nena. Aquesta experiència personal sense dubte va haver de condicionar que, després de la seva mort, l'empresari no tornés a programar cap visió musical infantil a l'Ars Lucis després de la ja prevista per al dia de Reis.

Llistat de pel·lícules projectades:

- Panorama del Tíber
- Pantalon estret
- El gos és l'animal més agraït
- La i*ndustria del marbre*
- Tramvia en suspensió
- La pata de cabra
- El secret d'una mare.

Música de Frederic Alfonso.

"[...] Lo programa per a demà és lo següent: Un cinc-cinc, un te té, una R i una E, quadro representat 180 vegades amb èxit extraordinari a la sala Mercè de Barcelona. —Programa cinematogràfic— Se sortejaran tarda i nit a cada sessió entre els nens i nenes que concorrin a dita sala la diada dels Reis.— En obsequi als concurrents a les sessions d'avui, a l'última se sortejarà un quadro del pintor en Joaquim Vancells."

La creuada 52 (04/01/1908), p. 15.

"Ars-Lucis.— Les festes passades se representà en aquest local la magnifica visió musical en 2 quadros, apropiada a la diada dels Reis, i que porta per títol Un cinc-cinc, un te te, una R i una E. Aquest quadro que es representà 180 vegades a la sala Mercè de Barcelona fou molt ben interpretat per los senyors Vila, Ambròs i Farré en lo paper de Reis, la senyoreta Pahissa en lo paper de mare; i sobretot la nena Engràcia Ambròs que mostra ésser una bona artista. Així ho reconegué lo públic que aplaudí fortament a l'acabar la visió. A l'última sessió del dissabte se sortejà un quadro del notable pintor Sr. Vancells, havent resultat premiat lo nombre 6l. Per a demà està anunciat un bonic programa cinematogràfic a preus reduïts."

La creuada 53 (11/01/1908), p. 14.

Després del tancament...

L'aturada del projecte de l'Ars-Lucis no va suposar l'aturada de l'activitat dels membres implicats. Especialment Joan Llongueras va mantenir una intensa activitat musical a Terrassa a través de l'Escola Coral. L'objectiu de les visions musicals de transmetre el folklore oral a les noves generacions va continuar a través dels concerts de cançons populars (destacant les harmonitzacions d'Enric Morera) combinades amb gestos, coreografies i exercicis gimnàstics seguint la pedagogia de Dalcroze (amb molt repertori traduït de l'alemany pel mateix Llongueras).

La relació amb Adrià Gual, ideòleg i primer director de les visions musicals a Barcelona, es va mantenir en el temps, atès que Gual va donar diferents conferències sobre la pedagogia Dalcroze amb Llongueras. Destaca també que durant les mateixes dates de reobertura de l'Ars-Lucis per la temporada d'hivern de 1907/08, el Teatre Íntim de Gual va estar representant traduccions de teatre estranger a Terrassa.

La col·laboració de Vancells i Llongueras també es va mantenir, atès que el pintor va preparar diversos decorats per als escenaris on l'Escola Coral feia els seus concerts. Cal destacar que el 25 de març de 1911, la temporada de Quaresma de l'Escola Coral va presentar una sessió dedicada al teatre líric infantil en la qual es va tornar a representar Flors de muntanya, amb nou decorat i vestuari realitzats per Joaquim Vancells i Pere Viver. Segons el programa de mà (BC: M 5800/22):

"Aquesta visió de naturalesa, verament exquisida, fou estrenada i representada moltes vegades amb gran èxit, fa uns quatre o cinc anys, a la sala d'espectacles Ars-Lucis. Les primeres guspires d'un amor pur i sincer en dugues ànimes senzilles i ignoscents que viuen en plena naturalesa és el tema desenrotllat amb una sorprenent discreció i bon gust.

Són tres moments deliciosos, arrencats de la vida, en els quals fins la mateixa naturalesa sembla descriure admirablement els diferents estats de les dugues ànimes germanes que es desvetllen a les més altes i més nobles emocions del viure."

Aquesta sessió formava part de la sèrie de "sessions selectes d'art", organitzada des de 1906 per Joan Llongueras a través de l'Escola Coral. Aquestes vetllades, que van estar programant durant la temporada de Quaresma cada any durant almenys una dècada, tenien la intenció pedagògica de portar a Terrassa als millors intèrprets musicals per presentar a la ciutat el repertori musical clàssic: Scarlatti, Beethoven, Liszt, Schumann, Bach, Haydn... amb breus biografies de cadascun als programes de mà. Una intenció i un repertori molt semblant al programat als Espectacles-Audicions Graner. Van passar per les "vetllades selectes d'art" agrupacions musicals com ara l'Orfeó Català, el Quartet Renaixement (amb Eduard Toldrà), l'orquestra de l'Associació Musical de Barcelona (dirigida per Lamote de Grignon), Enric Granados...

[BC: M 5800/10.]

El cas és semblant al del saló Gerió de Girona, amb Rafael Masó com a principal promotor, que després d'unes breus temporades va portar la seva visió musical més destacada, L'oració de la nit, com a part del repertori infantil que els nens alternaven amb cançons amb gestos i exercicis gimnàstics, i que va continuar l'activitat musical amb intenció de donar a conèixer el repertori clàssic a la nova sala Athenea. De fet, totes dues sales estaven inspirades en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Recordem, per exemple, que l'obra representada a l'Ars Lucis Montanyes de Canigó era original del saló Gerió.

Cal destacar, també, el relleu en l'aspecte cinematogràfic que va prendre la Joventut Catòlica. Al gener de 1909, aquesta organització va obrir un local de cinematògraf amb el nom de sala Montserrat, el qual tenia les vidrieres que donaven al cafè pintades amb una vista de les muntanyes de Montserrat al final del dia entre un bosc de pins, disseny de Joaquim Vancells. Les projeccions eren de pel·lícules morals i aptes per a les famílies, al igual que l'Ars-Lucis i la sala Mercè de Barcelona.

SALÓ ARTÍSTIC
(Sabadell, 1907/08)

Documentació i catalogació del saló de visions musicals instal·lat a l'Associació de Catòlics de Sabadell.

Saló Artístic
(Associació de Catòlics de Sabadell)

El saló Artístic va instal·lar-se com a empresa privada de cinematògraf i visions musicals als baixos de l'Associació de Catòlics de Sabadell (Rambla, 65), on hi era el saló-teatre de l'edifici. Va començar la seva activitat el 26 d'octubre de 1907 sota el lema "deleitar moralitzant", poc després que l'Ajuntament de Barcelona aturés l'activitat escènica de la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Ambdues compartien els principis d'oferir espectacles morals al públic familiar.

El saló, dirigit pels senyors Carreras i Pujol, va acordar amb Lluís Graner portar algunes de les obres de la sala Mercè a Sabadell, incloent-hi les decoracions i vestuaris. Fins i tot, el saló Artístic va comptar amb Maria Vendrell al seu repartiment, una de les nenes estrella de Graner que ja havia passat per la sala Mercè i els Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

Al saló Artístic es van representar Mentides que no fan mal, La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta... i El mal ric. A més, es van estrenar dues visions musicals noves, Lo bon pobre i Àngels de la Terra, escrites per autors anònims de la ciutat de Sabadell. Les sessions estaven acompanyades de projeccions cinematogràfiques de caràcter infantil i moralitzador per als nens i les sessions eren amenitzades amb "audicions" o breus concerts musicals a càrrec del quartet fixe al saló que dirigia Mateu Rifà Planas.

Sembla, però, que la nova empresa no va acabar d'arrelar. A partir del 20 de novembre, va reduir el preu de les entrades per facilitar l'accés de més públic i va reduir el quartet musical a un tercet. El 2 de desembre es documenta l'última representació escènica anunciada a premsa, a partir de la qual el saló continua obert amb sessions només de cinematògraf. El cap de setmana del 7 i 8 de març de 1908 és l'últim del qual se'n té notícia que el saló estigués obert oferint sessions cinematogràfiques.

Ressenyes de la inauguració i sessions cinematogràfiques

"Se nos comunica que la empresa particular formada por los señores Carreras y Pujol, de esta, que ha tomado a su cargo el salón-teatro existente en la planta baja del edificio de la Rambla que ocupa la Asociación de Católicos, va a inaugurar muy pronto los espectáculos de cinematógrafo y visiones musicales que dará en dicho local que se denominará Saló Artístic.

Nos participa dicha empresa que con el propósito de poder ofrecer al público de Sabadell la mayor variedad en espectáculos de aquella clase, sin reparar en sacrificio alguno, ha conseguido ponerse de acuerdo con el inteligente propietario de la Sala Mercè, de Barcelona, para poder exhibir cuanto de novedad, tanto en películas como en los reputados cuadros que en forma de visiones musicales se representan en dicho local.

Reconocida la buena fama de que goza la sala Mercè, de Barcelona, justamente alcanzada por el refinado buen gusto y sana moral que se observa en todos sus espectáculos, auguramos un feliz éxito a la empresa y nos felicitamos de poderlo recomendar al público de Sabadell."

Revista de Sabadell 6143 (20/10/1907), p. 4.

"Bajo el título de Saló Artístic (cinematógrafo y audiciones musicales), el sábado próximo se inaugurará una serie de espectáculos en el lindo teatro de la Asociación de Católicos, cedido a una empresa particular para presentar al público de Sabadell las atractivas sesiones que se dan en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. La empresa se ha entendido directamente con el señor Graner, quien, con la amabilidad que le distingue, ha cedido todas las decoraciones, vestuario y personal, si es conveniente, a fin de que podamos admirar los cuadros, audiciones y películas que tanto renombre han dado a dicho señor.

Sabadell contará con un centro más para recrearse, con la seguridad que nada verá que no esté sujeto a la más estricta moral, y por consiguiente los padres podrán conducir sin reparos a sus hijos a visitar dicho salón, cuyo principal objetivo será deleitar moralizando.

Creemos que dicho espectáculo será recibido con aplauso, y no dudamos que se contarán las sesiones por cientos, atendido su objeto y el módico precio que se ha fijado la entrada, a pesar de los cuantiosos gastos que se ha impuesto la empresa."

Revista de Sabadell 6146 (24/10/1907), p. 2.

"Sabadell.— [...] Avui divendres, dia 26, tindrà lloc la inauguració del saló Artístic instal·lat a la Rambla, a on ademés d'un escollit repertori de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques, s'hi representaran les visions musicals que més èxit han obtingut a la sala Mercè de Barcelona.

És d'esperar un èxit."

"La empresa del saló Artístic, que abrirá sus puertas al público con funciones de Cinematógrafo y Visiones Musicales mañana sábado, día 26 del corriente mes, nos participa para que llegue a conocimiento del público que, para las familias que lo deseen, en todas las sesiones, avisando en taquilla con anticipación a lo menos de una sesión, antes de la que deseen concurrir, se les reservarán palcos con derecho a seis entradas al precio de 2,25 pesetas."

Revista de Sabadell 6147 (25/10/1907), p. 2.

"Inauguración del saló Artístic (Cinematógrafo y audiciones musicales)

Conforme estaba anunciado, el sábado próximo pasado tuvo lugar la inauguración del saló Artístic, cinematógrafo y audiciones musicales, en el bonito teatro situado en los bajos del edificio donde está instalada la Asociación de Católicos. Ocho sesiones se dieron en la noche del sábado y tarde y noche del domingo, y el éxito está asegurado. La empresa puede estar del todo satisfecha al ver que en todas las sesiones asistió un público tan numeroso como distinguido.

En ellas vimos toda la buena sociedad de Sabadell. Entre otras familias, notamos la presencia de la de Gorina (D. Jaime), Gorina (D. José), Pierre, Duran (D. José), Duran (D. Enrique), Alguersuari, Saus, Pagés, Baciana, Forrellad, Argelaguet, Casall, Torras, Campaña y otras distinguidas personas que sentimos no recordar, ocupando la presidencia el Rdo. Arcipreste de San Félix, acompañado de respetables sacerdotes.

La distinguida concurrencia salió del todo complacida, no obstante algunas deficiencias insignificantes de algunas películas, de fácil reparación, que no dudamos la empresa procurará evitar en las sesiones sucesivas; deficiencias debidas tal vez a la precipitación con que se han llevado a cabo los trabajos para inaugurar en el día anunciado.

Nada se presentó al público que no estuviese conforme con el lema que se propuso la empresa, deleitar moralizando, y hasta en las mismas películas vimos castigadas las travesuras de los niños, como en las tituladas Batería eléctrica, Niños traviesos y Niña inteligente.

En el cuadro musical Mentides que no fan mal..., hizo las delicias del selecto público la precoz y encantadora niña Maria Vendrell, la cual siente lo que dice, declamando de tal manera que parece consumada actriz. No cabe duda que esta niña proporcionará buenos llenos a la empresa.

La parte musical a cargo de los señores profesores Padró, piano; Sendra, viola; Baqués, violonchelo, y Rifà, violín, fue del gusto de la concurrencia, por haber interpretado admirablemente las piezas clásicas con las cuales recreó a los amantes de la buena música.

Se nos dice que en las próximas sesiones se presentarán nuevas películas, declamando la niña Vendrell el monólogo titulado La formiga, que tantos aplausos conquistó en el teatro Romea de Barcelona. Está también en estudio el cuadro visión titulado La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta..., de efecto sorprendente y en que tanto se distingue la niña Vendrell. Procuraremos asistir."

[Sessions de teatre parlat i cinematògraf]

"Patrocinada por la Comisión local de auxilios que preside el Extmo. Sr. Alcalde de esta ciudad, la empresa del saló Artístic dará hoy a las 9 y media de la noche una extraordinaria función de cinematógrafo a beneficio de los damnificados por las inundaciones de Cataluña, en la que se exhibirá un escogido programa de películas, acabando con la representación del juguete en 1 acto La capseta dels petons.

Dado el carácter benéfico de la función y contando con el atractivo que ofrecen los espectáculos del saló Artístíc, no dudamos que se obtendrá un buen resultado a favor de nuestros hermanos perjudicados."

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Esta noche se verificarán extraordinarias sesiones de cinematógrafo en el saló Artístic (Rambla, 65), Talón y Cervantes. [...]

La empresa del saló Artístic, al objeto de dar lugar a los ensayos del cuadro musical de gran aparato, letra y música de dos autores de esta ciudad, titulado El bon pobre que se estrenará el sábado próximo, ha organizado para hoy una función de cinematógrafo, combinando un extraordinario y variado programa de películas de la acreditada casa Cine Vincens en el que figura la tan renombrada La Cenicienta, de interesante argumento y gran duración, en colores, años ha no exhibida.

A fin de que el público en general pueda apreciar la importancia y novedad del programa que hoy se le ofrece, la empresa ha decidido fijar los reducidos precios de 15 céntimos entrada general y 25 céntimos preferencia. A pesar de la rebaja de precios, el espectáculo será amenizado por el aplaudido terceto que dirija el profesor Sr. Rifà, que dará a conocer la tan renombrada sardana La nit de l'amor."

Revista de Sabadell 6168 (20/11/1907), p. 3.

"En el saló Artístic esta noche tendrá lugar el estreno del cuadro musical Lo bon pobre, de gran aparato. Además se exhibirá un variadísimo programa de películas de gran novedad en las que figuran la popular Cenicienta y la de efecto sorprendente, en colores, nueva en esta ciudad, La pequeña japonesa."

SALA IMPERI
(Barcelona, 1911/12)

Documentació i catalogació de la temporada d'hivern 1911/12:

Espectacles, rondalles líriques i visions musicals dirigides per Baldomer Marinel·lo

Sala Imperi

Dades de la sala

Inauguració: 09/04/1909.

Ubicació: carrer Diputació, 245 (entre Balmes i Rambla de Catalunya), Barcelona.

Capacitat de la sala: 1.200 persones[139].

Enderrocament: 1918 (substituït pel magatzem Fabra i Coats, que es va incendiar al maig de 1919).

La sala Imperi va tenir un ús polivalent durant aproximadament els 10 anys que va estar en ús. Va acollir espectacles principalment de varietats, sarsuela i cinema, però també hi estan documentades visions musicals, teatre d'infants i companyies de guinyol.

L'edifici comptava amb un cafè, en el qual se solia jugar als escacs, joc que es començava a popularitzar en aquesta època. Diversos campionats d'escacs de la ciutat es van celebrar a la sala Imperi.

A més, hi havia uns jardins on van celebrar-se durant una temporada espectacles amb animals de circ. També hi ha notícies informant sobre l'espectacle de "la matança del negre" que s'havia organitzat als jardins (podem suposar que en imitació als linxaments públics d'afroamericans que es feien als EE.UU. a l'època), que va quedar cancel·lat en entrar la companyia de Baldomer Marinel·lo a la sala amb una línia de programació moral per a infants.

El local també era lloc habitual de mítings polítics de diverses ideologies. Durant els mesos de representació de visions musicals a la sala Imperi es va dur a terme allà mateix el míting que va començar la sèrie de protestes contra el decret de notaries, anomenat per part de la premsa com un "segon capítol de la Solidaritat".

A principis de 1912, en sortir la companyia Marinel·lo-Ferrero de la sala, tant les nenes actrius com el repertori estrenat per aquesta companyia a la sala Imperi comencen a formar part de la cartellera de la companyia còmic-lírica resident al centre catalanista Gent Nova.

La primavera de 1912, la sala Imperi es va convertir en cafè-cantant i tenia cupletistes habituals com ara Raquel Meller, Tórtola Valencia, Paquita Escribano o Conchita Ledesma. L'estiu de 1912 va debutar a la sala Imperi la companyia de Gran Guinyol català dirigida per Santacana i Mantua.

Com a fita destacable, es va representar el juny de 1915 a la sala Imperi, com a estrena a Barcelona, El amor brujo de Manuel de Falla, amb Pastora Imperio com a protagonista sota la direcció musical d'Amadeu Cristià i Rotches[140].

Temporada 1911/12

Les visions musicals van arribar a la sala Imperi el mes de setembre de 1911 de la mà de Baldomer Marinel·lo, primer actor de la companyia que s'hi instal·la en aquest moment. Antic actor de la secció dramàtica de la sala Mercè sota la direcció artística de Lluís Graner, Marinel·lo va ser també l'actor que va liderar la companyia durant la seva itinerància al teatre del Centre de Lectura de Reus el 1908, quan la companyia va haver de deixar d'actuar a la sala Mercè per la nova normativa municipal de Barcelona que prohibia les actuacions teatrals dins de sales cinematogràfiques.

Ara, després que Graner deixés definitivament la direcció artística de la sala Mercè el 1910, Marinel·lo pren el relleu de les visions musicals a Barcelona, instal·lant la seva companyia a la sala Imperi. L'acompanyarà a l'equip artístic de l'empresa el seu germà, Manuel Marinel·lo, com a dramaturg i Francesc Montserrat Ayarbe com a compositor. Comptarà també amb obres d'Adrià Esquerrà, Nogueras Oller o Joan Fargas. Tots ells havien col·laborat prèviament amb les empreses escèniques de Graner.

El repertori, seguint la línia establerta per la sala Mercè, estava dedicat especialment als infants. L'empresa tenia una predisposició per les obres de contingut moral i censurat, aptes per a les famílies. Va a tenir, a més, relació propera amb les entitats juvenils carlistes i tradicionalistes. Es va representar la llegenda lírica Griselda, estrenada prèviament per la Joventut Tradicionalista de Sarrià, i els requetès carlistes van decidir celebrar la festa del dia de la Immaculada a la sala Imperi.

Les visions musicals estrenades a la sala Imperi estan basades en rondalles infantils, llegendes i contes, a més de les de temàtica nadalenca representades en arribar aquesta festivitat. La seva dramatúrgia segueix l'establerta pel repertori previ de visions musicals: obres curtes, amb entre 1 i 3 números musicals, amb múltiples fragments instrumentals que podien intercalar-se amb l'acció de l'obra per facilitar la fluïdesa entre la paraula i la música. La seva música estava escrita per a quartet, format per violí primer i segon, contrabaix i harmònium, a més de les veus. Destaca la presència de nens i nenes actors, reforçant la implicació dels infants dins de l'activitat escènica de la sala, al igual que va fer l'originària sala Mercè.

Les últimes visions musicals van tenir lloc a finals de desembre de 1911. Nadal a muntanya, amb música de Joan B. Lambert, va ser representada abans de Nadal, i es preveia estrenar Rondalla de Reis al gener per celebrar, precisament, el dia de Reis. No obstant, l'empresa va haver d'interrompre la seva activitat i aquesta última visió musical no va arribar a estrenar-s'hi.

La premsa informa d'un incident els últims dies de l'any, en el qual el pintor de l'escenografia de Nadal a muntanya, Francesc Arois i Sala, acaba estripant ell mateix el teló que hi havia pintat. L'empresa hauria arribat a la fallida econòmica i no podria fer front als seus deutes i factures pendents, incloses les que devia al pintor-escenògraf. Les primeres setmanes de gener de 1912 continua anunciant-se activitat, fins que al febrer s'anuncia que la companyia de la sala Imperi, ara sota la direcció única de Joan Ferrero, actua al Círcol de Propietaris de Gràcia i s'instal·la al Centre Catalanista Gent Nova de Badalona.

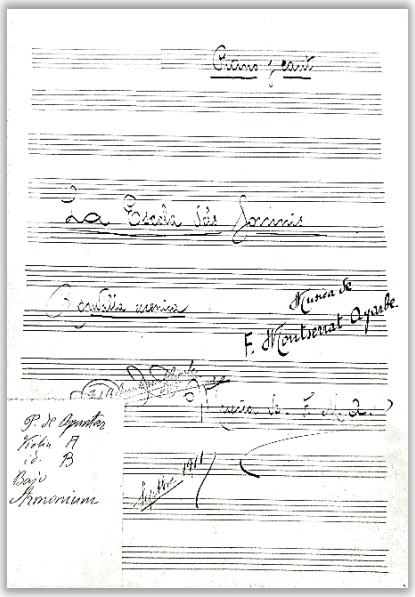
Catàleg de rondalles líriques i visions musicals:

Escola dels somnis, L'



Rondalla escènica / conte líric en 1 acte i 6 quadres.

Estrena el 16/09/1911; represa el 01/11/1911.

Lletra de F. S. (pseudònim).

Música de Francesc Montserrat Ayarbe (SGAE: BAR/B–130).

[Hi apareixen els personatges del lladres, el capità, la princesa que vol rescatar i els nois que somien amb ells].

Il·lustració 97: MONTSERRAT AYARBE, Francesc: L'escola dels somnis*, 1911 (portada del manuscrit).*

"[...] Els autors —el de la lletra i el de la música— s'amaguen darrera l'anonimat. Però, malgrat això, deixa veure's en la segona una veritable inspiració catalanesca i es descobreix en la primera un fort temperament de literat. L'escola dels somnis, posada en el reduït escenari de la sala Imperi, acompleix perfectament el fi per al qual ha estat escrita. Però si amb el mateix llibre volgués muntar-se l'obra en gran, acompanyant-la del decorat i demés complements que reclama, fora ben segur una obra que es popularitzaria i podria fer digne pendant amb el Hansel i Gretel."

La Ilustració catalana 434 (01/10/1911), pp. 578–579.

"[...] Acompanyada de sessions cinematogràfiques, se representa actualment en l'escenari del esmentat local una obreta exquisida a base d'una rondalla de caràcter popular. El públic que assisteix a la sala Imperi la celebra en gran i és just que així sigui, car amb tot i no figurar enlloc el nom de cap autor, deixa veure la bona mà d'un veritable literat. I això fins a tal punt que estem segurs de que L'escola dels somnis —que és l'obra de què es tracta— hauria assegurat un èxit sorollós a qualsevol teatre gran on s'hagués muntada amb la esplendidesa que mereix. La música de què va acompanyada és realment exquisida i la interpretació també, distingint-s'hi de manera especial l'actor senyor Marinel·lo i les petites actrius nenes Morer i Redondo. [...]."

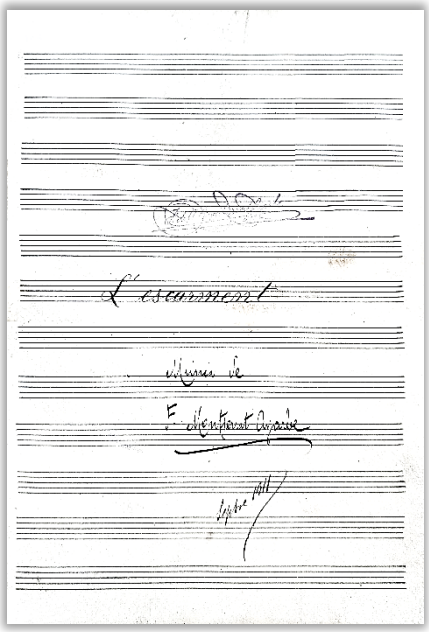
"[...] Demà, festivitat de Tots Sants, dues grans sessions. Reprise del conte líric en sis quadres La escola dels somnis. Decorat i vestuari exprofés. Se despatxen localitats numerades per a dites sessions."

La Veu de Catalunya 4474 (31/10/1911), p. 4.

Escarment, L'



Comedieta lírica / visió musical en 2 quadres.

Estrena el 23/09/1911.

Lletra de Manuel Marinel·lo (sota el pseudònim d'A. Llimoner).

Música de Francesc Montserrat Ayarbe (SGAE: BAR/B–130).

[Hi apareixen els personatges de Milia, una senyoreta tafanera que acabarà rebent l'escarment; el seu fill plorant perquè li tenen tancada la mare i es troba al carrer; i un cor de nois que canta sobre les entremaliadures de Milia i les represàlies que rep de la seva mare, la Marieta, per festejar amb senyors].

Il·lustració 98: MONTSERRAT AYARBE, Francesc: L'escarment*, 1911 (portada del manuscrit).*

"SALA IMPERI.– Seguint pel bell camí emprès per a arrelar el teatre d'infants, va estrenar-s'hi el passat dissabte la comèdia en un acte L'escarment, original d'un distingit escriptor, qui modestament firma l'obra amb un pseudònim.

Com indica el nom, dit comèdia tanca, entre un seguit d'escenes gracioses, un bell exemple per la mainada. Petits i grans varen divertir-s'hi de debò, com ho demostraren els grans aplaudiments que varen ressonar al final.

Tots els actors molt justos, sobresortint la nena Pepeta Morer, que és una veritable artista, i l'actor senyor Marinel·lo. No dubtem que l'empresa arribarà al fi proposat, ja que cada dia assisteix més gent a l'espectacle."

La Veu de Catalunya 4437 (26/09/1911), ed. vespre, p. 3.

"Continua representant-se amb èxit a la sala Imperi la graciosa rondalla L'escola dels somnis. S'ha estrenat també una altra producció pertanyent al mateix gènere teatral. Se tracta de L'escarment, comedieta en dos quadros, que mereix bona acceptació per la gràcia del diàleg i la lliçó moral que se'n desprèn.

La música, apropiada a l'assumpte infantil, lleugera i fàcil. En quant a la interpretació, ja sabem l'experiència d'en Marinel·lo, que, a més d'haver posat l'obra amb encert, hi interpretà, amb lluïment, el principal personatge.

És digne del favor del públic culte la present campanya teatral a la sala Imperi de la qual venim ocupant-nos amb molt gust. Sobre tot ara en què, efectivament, ja és un fet l'abolició, en els jardins del teatre, de la repugnant "matança del negre" que s'hi havia organitzat."

De tots colors 195 (29/09/1911), p. 621.

"L'escarment.– Quadro líric, en dos quadros, d'autors anònims.

Se tracta d'una joguina pel teatre de nois, que amb força traça ens presenta un assumpte altament moralitzador, que plau als grans i aprofita als petits. L'obreta està escrita en vers, deixant-hi veure a un literat gens vulgar.

El senyor Marinel·lo, director de la companyia, ha posat l'obreta amb força detalls i la representa amb no escàs mèrit. Les nenes Moré i Redondo fan filigranes de sos tipus, es especial la primera, que té el paper més llarg. La senyora Ferrer i el senyor Morer compliren també. La música molt adequada a la peça. En resum, que va agradar força."

"Sala Imperi

La pomera.– Visió musical, en un quadro i en vers, original d'un distingit escriptor que s'amaga amb el pseudònim de Ll. Iria, i d'un músic que tampoc dona el nom.

Una comedieta més pel teatre d'infants; delicada, fina i exquisida, que obtingué una bona execució, portada a cap per les petites actrius Redondo i Moré, que cada dia ho fan millor.

El senyor Marinel·lo també mereix lloança per son treball en la direcció escènica.

La música i la presentació adequades."

Il·lustració 100: [VILADOT, Lluís]: Griselda. Barcelona: Tipografia carrer Universitat 52, 1912 (portada).

"Teatro sala Imperio.— Diputación, entre Rambla de Cataluña y Balmes.—Cada día estreno de películas. Tarde, a las cinco. Noche, a las nueve y media. Éxito sin igual de La baronesa del lliri groc, ultimando con una visión musical.— Sábado, estreno de Griselda."

"TEATRE SALA IMPERI.— (Diputació, entre Rambla de Catalunya i Balmes).– Cada dia nou programa de pel·lícules. Avui, dimecres, èxit colossal de la llegenda lírica Griselda. Grans rialles amb la comèdia en un acte Una aposta perduda. Demà, dijous, segona audició musical per la tiple Lina Nardi. Estrena del passatemps en un acte El correu de la senyoreta."

La Veu de Catalunya 4454 (11/10/1911), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"L'empresa que té a son càrrec la sala Imperi segueix donant mostres d'activitat. D'encert també, però en algun cas, sembla que es devia de lo que, al començament, fou el seu programa. Ja insinuàvem això mateix parlant de Joguina fi de segle. Avui podríem repetir l'observació, agravada, si ressenyéssim la estrena La Comtessa del lliri groc.

Preferim, amb tot, passar de llarg sobre aquestes deficiències per consignar l'èxit merescut de Griselda, visió musical en tres quadros, literària i culta. La companyia que dirigeix en Marinel·lo la interpreta molt bé. L'escola dels somnis, L'escarment, Griselda... Heus aquí la direcció a seguir, si no vol malograr-se una campanya començada amb tan bons propòsits."

De tots colors 197 (13/10/1911), p. 653.

"Teatro moral.— En la sala Imperio se suceden sin interrupción los estrenos, ofreciendo siempre novedades a las personas de buen gusto que frecuentan los espectáculos del teatro infantil. Últimamente estrenose la visión musical Griselda, que tanto por el libreto como por la partitura merece los mayores elogios.

Griselda fue recibida con grandes aplausos por la selecta concurrencia que asiste a las representaciones de la sala Imperio y es la primera manifestación de otro género que sin duda será muy bien aceptado por el público, el de las visiones musicales artísticas que tanto éxito obtuvieron hace algunos años en los Espectacles-Audicions Graner en el teatro Principal y sala Mercè."

La Veu de Catalunya 4464 (21/10/1911), ed. vespre, p. 2.

"Els empresaris de la sala Imperi segueixen amb força encert la campanya artística que amb tanta simpatia i sinceritat hem vingut ressenyant.

Avui consignarem que fou ben acceptat el quadret dramàtic El sant de l'Agneta i que la composició escènica L'infant Príncep estrenada últimament ha obtingut un bon èxit.

L'obreta, com se comprèn, no té pas un argument complicat i s'avé a una presentació encertada com la que se li dona. Produeix, doncs, molt bon efecte degut, també, a la interpretació de la companyia que dirigeix en Marinel·lo.

Se distingeixen la nena Redondo, senyores Vendrell i Ferrer i senyor Ferrero, ressaltant notablement la figura d'aquest vellet infantil del final de l'obreta."

"Don Panxo – Comèdia lírica en un acte i dos quadros, original de A. Llimoner.

El catàleg d'obretes per a companyies infantils cada dia va nodrint-se i estenent-se amb beneplàcit dels petits actors aficionats a representar.

Els mestres de primera ensenyança també se serveixen força d'aquests auxiliars que els donen motiu de mostrar al deixeble, viscut, molts proverbis dels que convé que en guardin memòria la gent infantívola.

La col·lecció de "Teatre de Nois", de Rius Vidal, va venir a omplir un buit, ara fa sis anys, escampant-se les dotze comedietes de què forma part per totes les saletes de teatres d'aficionats establertes en els establiments docents.

Més tard, a la sala Mercè també s'hi representaren comedietes per a nens, però aquelles eren més pròpies per a veure-les els petits, que per a representar-les, tota vegada que l'assumpte requeria un gasto escènic que difícilment se'l poden apropiar els mestres d'escola en sos escenaris.

La sala Imperi hi ha donat més extensió a aquest repertori, mostrant-nos casi dia per altre obretes noves, ben infantívoles, escrites algunes d'elles per autors aptes en el gènere i representades per actrius i actors que forces mèrits atresoren.

Les nenes Moré i Redondo, ja prou conegudes del públic habitual en aquesta mena d'espectacles, han sapigut donat tant relleu als tipus a elles confiats per el discret actor i director de l'elenc, senyor Baldomer Marinel·lo, que en algunes ocasions s'han posat a la ratlla d'excel·lents intèrprets.

Bones obretes s'han estrenat en lo que va de temporada (L'escola dels somnis, L'escarment, etc.), però ha batut el record la peça que motiva aquestes ratlles i que du per títol Don Panxo.

Son autor, conegut de temps amb el pseudònim de A. Llimoner, ha construït una hermosa comèdia que, reunint bones condicions pedagògiques, és, al ensems que teatral, ben moralitzadora i escaienta. Amb la frivolitat que demana el gènere s'han combinat tan boniques situacions i s'ha adornat amb un llenguatge tan apropiat a nostres infants, que no posem reparo en calificar aquesta obreta com modelo de peces infantívoles de bona literatura i ensenyança moral.

Amb content ho fem constar, i el públic que ha tingut la sort de veure-la ha corroborat aplaudint entusiàsticament.

Esperem que el senyor A. Llimoner la publicarà impresa a fi de que puguin gaudir-la tots els aficionats al Teatre de Nois, que esperen com candeletes un títol nou per a explorar.

[...]

Fins ara de les obres que s'han fet, la més acabada i la que compleix amb la missió educativa de l'autor és Don Panxo, que obté un èxit delirant cada vegada que es posa en escena. [...]."

Princesa Obdúlia, La

Visió musical en 2 quadres.

Estrena el 18/11/1911.

Lletra d'Estanislau Clariana.

Música de Francesc Pérez-Cabrero i Ferrater.

"[...] Seguidament s'estrenà La Princesa Obdúlia, última producció del senyor Clariana, amb música d'en Pérez Cabrero (fill). Se tracta d'una senzilla producció ben correcte de forma i d'argument interessant, l'interès del qual va creixent fins arribar a guanyar-se del tot l'atenció dels espectadors. La partitura també és encertada, contenint fragments de veritable inspiració. Els autors foren cridats a escena, sent objecte de merescudes felicitacions. [...]."

De tots colors 203 (24/11/1911), p. 748.

"Contra enveja, caritat – Comèdia infantil, en un acte, de E. Clariana.

No serem severs amb aquest genero de produccions fàcils i sols direm que, malgrat la insubstancialitat de la peça d'aquest modest autor, el públic va escoltar-la sense protesta.

Les nenes Morer i Redondo van fer bona feina, per lo que foren aplaudides.

La Princesa Obdúlia – Visió musical, en un acte, lletra de E. Clariana i música del mestre Pérez Cabrero (fill).

Respecte a la lletra, l'obreta aquesta és digna germana de l'anterior que ressenyem. La part musical és acceptable.

Ho sentim perquè voldríem que tot lo que s'estrenés en aquest genero fos quant menys digne de menció. [...]"

"Aigua de la vida – Comedieta lírica dividida en sis quadros, lletra de Josep Amic Bert i música del mestre Adrià Esquerrà.

L'obreta que ens ha ofert el senyor Amic està inspirada en un dels contes fantàstics dels Grimm, i en ella ha posat de manifest les condicions que atresora per al cultiu d'aquest gènere. La música no desdiu en res de l'obra.

Al acabar, com que l'obra agradà, el públic, que era nombrós, premià la labor dels autors amb un fort aplauso."

Flors de maig, Les

Visió musical en 3 quadros.

Estrena el 09/12/1911.

Lletra de R. Jofre.

Música inspirada en la cançó homònima de Josep Anselm Clavé.

"Dissabte tingué lloc l'estrena de la visió en tres quadros, original d'en R. Jofre, Les flors de maig, inspirada en la cançó del mateix nom, de l'immortal Clavé. Aquesta producció del senyor Jofre ens va semblar escrita amb poca cura, car el diàleg era poc literari i fins a voltes esdevenia xavacà, com en els quadros primer i tercer. En canvi, es fa simpàtica i creix per l'interès del segon al emmotllar-se l'acció, en la nota festiva que s'hi dibuixa, amb tot i certs detalls poc apropiats del decorat.

L'autor del obra pot estar satisfet de la labor acabada que, a pesar de la premura de temps en posar-la, li donà la companyia Marinel·lo.

També va fer-se aplaudir l'estrena del diàleg festiu de l'Asmarats, Lo que fan els infants, interpretat amb molt bona cura per les xamoses actrius-nenes Morer i Redondo."

Escenografia de Francesc Arois i Sala.

Il·lustració 105: GARRIGA I BOIXADER, Ramon: Nadal a muntanya*. Barcelona: Llibreria científic-literaria Josep Agustí (Biblioteca de Joventut Teatral), 1912 (portada).*

"Avui, dimecres tarda, a les cinc. Gran programa de pel·lícules. Estrena del quadre líric de mossèn Ramon Garriga, Nadal a muntanya, música del mestre Lambert. Nit, a dos quarts de deu: Nadal a muntanya i l'aplaudida cupletista la Majita. Aviat: Rondalla de Reis."

La Veu de Catalunya 4522 (20/12/1911), ed. matí, p. 4.

"Per raons especials hem tingut de donar primerament compte de la fallida de que haurà plegat l'empresa d'aquest teatre que no pas hem pogut dir quatre paraules sobre l'estrena de Nadal a muntanya, quadro de costums catalanes, lletra de mossèn Ramon Garriga amb il·lustracions musicals d'en Lambert, estrena que tingué lloc el dia 20 del passat.

El notable poeta i distingit escriptor mossèn Garriga no va tenir altre fi, segurament. al escriure aquesta obreta que el de presentar-nos un assumpte camperol, en plena nit de Nadal, i donar-nos a conèixer costums tradicionals de la diada entre gent pirinenca.

És la seva obra Nadal a muntanya d'una gran correcció literària, però està un xic mancada d'habilitat en l'art de construir escènicament.

Aquest petit defecte hauria passat desapercebut segurament per la concurrència si la companyia d'en Marinel·lo hagués donat a Nadal a muntanya una interpretació més acurada.

Amb tot, aquesta obreta de Mossèn Garriga s'hauria aguantat al cartell durant les presents festes si incidents dels que ja ens férem ressò en el número passat no haguessin obligat a plegar a l'empresa de la casa."

(Fragment)

Pastor

Doncs aquesta i prou. Vet aquí que una vegada era una indiotera, ja grandeta, aixís com tu (per la Cieta). Un dia, sa mare que li diu: "Mena els indiots a l'abeurada, i com que som a la vigília de Nadal, té, pren els meus rosaris, i ten-te compte, ten-te compte que les bruixes i follets avui fan tota mena de trapaceries. Resa força, i no tinguis cap por de malifeta." L'indiotera se'n baixa la remada fins la gorxa blava. Quan hi arribava, just el sol se ponia... Però ella, que és cas resar! Feia joguina dels rosaris de sa mare, i riu que riuràs... juga que jugaràs... Tot d'una, vet aquí que el mig del gorg blau hi apareix la Dona d'aigua, aquella dona tan bonica, tan encisadora, més gentil que una rosa, que té la cabellera d'or i el vestit platejat com una vidriola, i que té aquells ulls que vessen claror d'aigua, i té aquell somriure més dolç que una matinada...

(Entren l'avi i Bieló, que tornen de donar un repàs pel corral i estable.)

Avi (bufant i fregant-se les mans)

Oidà, fa fred, molt fred, pastor! (Pastor para el relat.) I quina nevada, reina pura!... I el que nevarà, perquè els bous jauen de cara al Montseny!

Pastor

I cau molta sutja de la xemeneia...

Àvia

Any de neu, any de Déu? Doncs vinga neu!

Bieló

Que nevi, que nevi, que això és el geix blanc de la terra... Any de nevada, bona llevada!

Pastor (tornant a la rondalla)

Altrament, com us deia, (per rabadà i Cieta), la Dona d'aigua, alzinant son caparró en mig del gorg blau, amb la cabellera rossa tota catxigada de gotetes de llum, i rient amb aquella rialla dolça com una matinada, diu a la indiotera: "Mira, xiqueta, si volguessis barataríem aquesta teva joguina tan trista, amb grans tan negres, per un dels meus collarets de grans de coral... Vols?" I la indiotera, que fa: "Ui, que contenta en serà la meva mare, d'un collaret! De grans de coral!... Teniu, teniu, la dona bonica, aquests rosaris de grans tan negres! Au, baratem ben de seguida!" I li tira els seus rosaris, que van caure al mig del gorg, fent sortir a flor d'aigua uns rosaris de bombolles de tots colors, com una corona de flors d'aurora, tot al voltant de la bella Dona d'aigua...

La Dona d'aigua, aleshores que li llença en l'aire un dels seus collarets de coral. I el collaret, quan és ben en l'aire, ben endalt, se posa a rodar, roda que rodaràs com una anella de foc... I roda que rodaràs, cau, i es queda penjat al coll de la indiotera com si fos un llaç escorredor, que fa un bell crit de "Ai, mare meva!"...

I la dona bonica ja no cimbrejava el seu cos de platejada vidriola en mig del gorg blau, que s'era baratada amb un lliri jonc florint el seu ram de neu en mig de l'aigua!... I la pobreta indiotera ja s'era encantada al peu del gorg, baratada, mai diríeu amb què? Doncs amb un ram de gallerins, que són aquelles plantes, verdes tot l'any, que sempre les trobareu prop dels aigüerols, i que al damunt de cada fulla porten aquell granet tan vermell que es diria que és del coral més fi, sabeu?...

Cieta

Ah, sí, ja ho sé! I que a fins de cada gra vermell n'hi ha un altre de blanc, que nosaltres els enfilem amb un bri de jonça i ens en fem aquells collarets tan bonics que semblen de perles... Fa rabadanet?

Inauguració

"TEATRE SALA IMPERI.– Nova empresa.– Espectacles i audicions musicals.– Gran programa de pel·lícules. Estrena del conte líric en un acte La escola dels somnis.

Inauguració de la temporada el dissabte, dia 16, sessions tarda i nit."

La Veu de Catalunya 4424 (13/09/1911), ed. vespre, p. 4.

"TEATRE SALA IMPERI.– Pròximament s'inaugurarà en aquest teatre la temporada d'hivern amb un espectacle que, si bé no és nou a Barcelona, no obstant pot resultar per al públic una gran novetat.

La nova empresa, segons tenim entès, se proposa, per medi de les representacions que en diran quadres lírics i visions musicals, fer una continuació de lo que amb tantíssim èxit inicià l'artista senyor Graner en la sala Mercè i teatre Principal, essent, per consegüent, l'índole d'aquests espectacles morals i amens.

Per a comoditat del públic, en especial de les senyores, s'instal·larà un guarda-roba amb servei gratuït, podent, per consegüent, assistir al teatre les dames amb completa comoditat.

L'obra que s'estrenarà aquesta temporada serà el conte líric en un acte i sis quadros La escola dels somnis.

Donades les bones relacions particulars amb què compta la nova empresa, no dubtem veure reunit en el teatre sala Imperi lo millor i més distingit de la societat barcelonina."

La Veu de Catalunya 4424 (14/09/1911), ed. matí, p. 3.

"S'ha constituït una empresa de teatre que projecta seguir, en esfera a propòsit, aquella tanda de Espectacles, Contes Lírics i Visions musicals que va iniciar el benemèrit Lluís Graner al Principal, ara farà unes quantes temporades.

Dita empresa començarà a actuar, al teatre de la sala Imperi aquest dissabte, posant en escena el conte líric en un acte i sis quadros La escola dels somnis, obra de la qual ne tenim immillorables referències i que bé podria obtenir un èxit extraordinari.

El pla de la nova empresa el trobem encertadíssim, sempre que sàpiga mantenir-se dintre del justos límits de moralitat i cultura que reclamen aquesta mena de espectacles.

Prometem parlar-ne."

"Sala Imperi

El dissabte, dia 16, començarà la temporada en aquest teatre una companyia catalana, amb espectacles de cine i qüentos lírics, visions musicals, etc... per l'estil de lo que va fer en Graner en la sala Mercè i teatre Principal en altra època.

Començarà posant-se en escena el qüento líric en un acte i sis quadros La escola dels somnis, original de F. S.

La nova empresa confia en que el públic veurà amb bons ulls aquesta mena d'espectacles morals i de cultura amena."

"Espectacles per a infants

L'obra tan bellament començada per en Graner durant la tongada (més fruitosa per al teatre català que per ell) en què es va dedicar a les empreses d'espectacles, sembla que hagi trobat continuadors en els actuals empresaris de la sala Imperi.

Acompanyada de sessions cinematogràfiques, se representa actualment en l'escenari del esmentat local una obreta exquisida a base d'una rondalla de caràcter popular. [...]

Creiem que els empresaris de la sala Imperi deuen prosseguir en la ruta empresa. Amb un parell o tres d'obres com L'escola dels somnis podrien empènyer amb òptims resultats el teatre per a nois.

En obsequi als nens se farà demà, dijous, a la tarda una sessió en la qual se posarà en escena l'aplaudit conte L'escola dels somnis.

L'empresa facilitarà l'entrada a uns preus summament reduïts als col·legis que hi vagin en corporació els dijous a la tarda."

"Mañana, jueves por la tarde, en la sala Imperio, en obsequio a los niños, se hará una sesión en la que se pondrá en escena el aplaudido cuento lírico L'escola dels somnis. Además, se estrenará la película en dos partes Maravillas de equitación. La empresa, accediendo gustosa a los ruegas que algunos le han dirigido, facilitará la entrada a un precio sumamente reducido a los colegios que asistan en corporación los jueves por la tarde."

Il·lustració 107: *Retrat de Baldomer Marinel·lo, empresari director de la companyia de la sala Imperi. [*De tots colors 194 (22/09/1911), portada].

"BALDOMER MARINEL·LO.– Aquest notable actor català que hem aplaudit en els principals teatres de Barcelona, sembla, però, haver-se fet una especialitat en certs generes escènics. Així actuà llargament a la sala Mercè contribuint en primer terme a l'èxit que allà obtingueren algunes visions musicals.

En Marinel·lo les estudiava amb tant afecte, les posava en escena amb tant amor que, de vegades. les obretes prenien veritables proporcions d'obra important aconseguint una popularitat i acceptació mai sospitades...

Avui en Marinel·lo treballa a la sala Imperi, a on, en marc més ample, segueix cultivant la seva originalíssima especialitat escènica. Nosaltres, que l'hem vist dirigir els ensaigs, estem admirats de la bona voluntat i intel·ligència que hi esmerça. Bona voluntat i intel·ligència que després ja premia, merescudament, el públic i li agraeixen força els autors de les obretes.

La interpretació i posat en escena de La escola dels somnis ha estat el darrer èxit d'en Marinel·lo. El felicitem de tot cor, ja que, si bé aquest treball, per la seva naturalesa humil, no sol cridar l'atenció de la multitud és, en canvi, apreciat en tot lo que significa, pels intel·ligents que tenen la sort de veure'l d'a prop i d'apreciar-ne les innombrables dificultats."

"Teatre per a infants

Una empresa ha tingut la pensada de continuar l'obra tan bellament envestida i en mala hora interrompuda per en Graner. Entre els espectacles audicions del Principal i les visions de la sala Mercè, no hi ha dubte de que s'hauria acabat per trobar la nota justa i precisa en la qual deu entrar el teatre pera infants. Perquè, encara que les temporades líriques que va feren Graner al Principal no fossin destinades a les criatures, sigui pel precedent de la sala Mercè, sigui per la honradesa dels temes, havien acabat —i començant— per perdre el caràcter d'espectacles per a les famílies. I ja és sabut que els espectacles per a les famílies cal que agradin sobretot als infants, baix pena de que hi plorin o s'hi avorreixin i obliguin a les mamàs, les tietes i les germanes grans a deixar-los deserts.

Durant un temps, doncs, en Graner, amb els seus espectacles, va omplir una necessitat. I tal vegada la consciència d'això ha impulsat d'aleshores ençà a altres empresaris a la implantació del teatre per a infants. Ara mateix a la sala Imperi se n'acaba de fer una interessant temptativa amb algunes obretes, entre les quals sobresurt molt especialment la rondalla escènica La escola dels somnis. [...]."

"Un teatre d'infants a la sala Imperi

Va ésser una grossa i agradable sorpresa la que vàreig tenir un d'aquests últims diumenges. Per casualitat vàreig anar a la sala Imperi. Vaig asseure'm en un dels comodíssims sillons que hi ha, i després de disfrutar davant d'un seguit de magnífiques pel·lícules, vet-aquí que la sala s'il·lumina, se tira teló i apareixen una colla de nens i nenes fent comèdia.

Però quina comèdia, amics meus! Semblava un d'aquests contes d'en Bolavà. Tan meravellosa i divertida era. Crec que se'n deia L'escola dels somnis. Allí hi sortia en Patufet encarant-se amb un gegant i fent-hi de totes...

Vaig passar una tarda deliciosa, i com jo tots els nens i nenes que amb les seves mamàs i germanes omplien la sala, aplaudint amb el major entusiasme.

Després de L'escola dels somnis, s'ha estrenat en la sala Imperi: L'escarment, Joguet fi de segle, La pomera i altres, totes molt hermoses i divertides.

Els nostres lectors no deixaran de visitar la sala Imperi, perquè allí hi riuran de valent i hi disfrutaran més que per tot arreu.

"Sala Imperio

La empresa de este teatro no perdona sacrificio alguno para dar a los que lo visitan espectáculos tan artísticos como morales. Es digna de todo aplauso la labor de la citada empresa por cuanto en Barcelona es ya muy difícil encontrar un teatro donde poder llevar a nuestros hijos con seguridad de que no han de ver películas inmorales o espectáculos que repugnen nuestros sentimientos de buen cristiano."

Teatre dramàtic per a grans i primers abonaments

“En vista del éxito que cada día obtienen en la sala Imperio las visiones musicales L’escarment y La pomera, la empresa ha accedido a dar principio a las sesiones de la tarde a las cinco en punto. Al propio tiempo anuncia para el jueves, por la noche, el estreno de La Baronessa del lliri groc, que alternará con una visión musical, y así podrá el espectáculo resultar más interesante para el público mayor. Los jueves por la noche se considerarán días de moda, por lo que ya se ha abierto un abono especial a precios muy reducidos.”

“Continua, amb honra i profit, la campanya teatral a la sala Imperi.

Aquesta setmana podem donar compte de l’estrena de dues obretes: La pomera, interesant i delicada visió escènica que revela la bona mà d’un literat de cultura i Joguina fi de segle, passatemps que distreu per la vivesa del diàleg i encertadíssima execució que li dona la companyia dirigida per en Baldomer Marinel·lo.

El gènere a què pertany la esmentada Joguina no el trobem pas dels més a propòsits per la casa. Agrada força, és veritat i fins, per una vegada, pot passar sense cap regateig. Però, si se n’abusés, el caràcter literari i artístic d’aquests espectacles, ne sofriria un xic... Voldríem que es prengués a fi de bé la nostra observació suavíssima.”

*"Un home valent – Comèdia en un acte, original de Raimon Cantó A.

Ben feliç ha estat aquesta vegada el Sr. Cantó al compondre la comèdia de què ens ocupem. És d'argument senzill, però simpàtic, lo qual junt amb els xistos i amb un bon truc, permet que el públic passi l'estona divertida.

Benefici a les nenes Morer i Redondo

"[...] Pròximament tindrà lloc en el mateix teatre el benefici de les petites-boniques actrius les nenes Josefina Morer i Aurora Redondo. Per simpatia a les beneficiades, prendrà part en la festa l'excel·lent actor Jaume Borràs.

De tots colors 201 (10/11/1911), p. 717.

"Dues eixerides produccions s'han estrenat darrerament a la sala Imperi.

És la primera La pinteta d'or, visió musical en tres quadros, d'argument interessant i presentada amb un decorat molt ben entès de perspectiva i que produeix bon efecte.

La guardiola —que és la segona de les obretes a què ens referim,— original d'en Raimon Cantó, és un monòleg d'una notable correcció literària que fou interpretat (fent-ne una veritable creació) per la nena Morer. Aquesta nena, junt amb l'altra petita-bonica actriu de la casa que es diu Aurora Redondo, celebraran aquest dissabte la seva funció de benefici a la qual hem estat invitats molt delicadament.

Se posarà en escena el diàleg d'en Estanislau Clariana Contra enveja, caritat, la comèdia lírica L'escarment i es verificarà l'estrena de la visió musical en dos quadros d'en E. Clariana La Princesa Obdúlia. A més, per deferència a les beneficiades, prendran part en la festa el cor infantil Mossèn Cinto, cantant les millors peces del seu extens repertori, i en Jaume Borràs que representarà el monòleg d'en Guimerà Mestre Oleguer, una de les millors creacions de l'eminent actor.

Com se veu, el programa no pot ser més variat i selecte. Prometem assistir a la simpàtica festa."

"Teatre d'infants

En la sala Imperi s'han estrenat últimament dues obretes que han agradat molt al públic petit. La primera és una visió en tres quadros, que s'anomena La pinteta d'or [...]

L'altra és un bonic monòleg que diu molt bé la petita actriu Pepeta Morer, i s'anomena La meva guardiola. Aneu-hi i creieu que vos farà passar una bona estona.

Per avui dissabte està anunciat el benefici de les petites actrius Pepeta Morer i Aurora Redondo, estrenant una bonica comedieta que es diu La princesa Obdúlia. En honor a les beneficiades hi prendrà part el cor infantil de Mossèn Cinto."

En Patufet 410 (18/11/1911), p. 747.

"Dissabte passat a la vetlla se celebrà en el teatre sala Imperi el benefici de les actrius en miniatura, les xamoses nenes Morer i Redondo.

Composaven el programa unes quantes obretes de les millors entre el repertori de teatre d'infants amb que compta la casa. Foren desempenyades amb la delicadesa a què ens té acostumats el director senyor Marinel·lo, o sia, d'una manera acabada per part de tot l'elenc.

Seguidament s'estrenà La Princesa Obdúlia, última producció del senyor Clariana, amb música d'en Pérez-Cabrero (fill). [...] Per causes imprevistes, no pogué prendre part en la vetllada l'excel·lent actor Jaume Borràs.

Les beneficiades foren festejades amb presents de gran vàlua, quedant l'escenari convertit en un veritable jardí. Celebrem de debò l'èxit de la vetllada."

De tots colors 203 (24/11/1911), p. 748.

"L'èxit creix en el nodrit repertori de peces per a la canalla. El teatre de nois s'ha vist augmentat per un grapat de composicions que ja hem ressenyat oportunament.

La companyia Marinel·lo, que més bé en podríem dir, Moré-Redondo, ha fet les delícies del públic. Fins ara de les obres que s'han fet, la més acabada i la que compleix amb la missió educativa de l'autor és Don Panxo, que obté un èxit delirant cada vegada que es posa en escena.

El benefici de les eminents actrius, en son gènere, nenes Moré i Redondo, fou una demostració palesa de les nobles simpaties que es tenen guanyades.

Les líriques comèdies Contra enveja, caritat i La Princesa Obdùlia, de E. Clariana (qual ressenya no ens ha capigut aquesta setmana en la secció Estrenes), foren ben executades, com així també la comedieta L'escarment, del senyor Llimoner."

Dilluns aristocràtics a benefici de les escoles de Preservació de la Fe

"Beneficència

Alarmades les presidentes generals i vis-presidenta de sòcies protectores i actives, senyora marquesa vídua de Julià, senyoreta donya Amanda Casafont i de Obregón i donya Isabel de Urruela de López, del augment extraordinari d'alumnes d'ambdós sexes a les escoles que sosté l'Apostolat de Senyores per a la Preservació de la Fe, d'acord amb el director Rnt. Manuel Barguñó, han pensat i posat en pràctica, per a anivellar el pressupost, organitzar quatre funcions, Dilluns aristocràtics, que tindran lloc el dilluns 27 de novembre, dilluns 4, 11 i 18 de desembre, de sis a vuit de la tarda; havent-se posat d'acord amb l'empresa del teatre sala Imperi, la qual al saber el fi benèfic que es proposa, ha donat totes les facilitats perquè, a més de funcions escollides, siguin del gust moral de la concurrència.

Per al millor èxit, ahir dilluns se reuniren en junta extraordinària a la capella del Palau Episcopal representacions amb ses Juntes Directives de sòcies protectores i actives i del Rober de la Obra a fi de col·locar totes les localitats entre lo bo i distingit de nostra societat. Per a l'adquisició d'abonos als quatre dilluns poden dirigir-se a les senyores presidentes protectores, a la botiga del senyor Sala, carrer de la Canuda, ornaments d'església, o a la llibreria del senyor Subirana a la Portaferrissa, que ha tingut la delicadesa de regalar els impresos de les localitats."

"Teatre sala Imperi

"Avui, dijous tarda, a les 4 en punt. Primera funció organitzada per la Junta de Nens protectors d'una escola catòlica. Programa colossal de pel·lícules i les obres de gran èxit L'escarment, El sant de l'Agneta i Don Panxo o en Bieló. Tenint compromeses moltes localitats, el sobrant se posarà a la venda al públic a la taquilla del teatre. No valdran les invitacions."

"SALA IMPERI.— A benefici de les escoles que sosté l'Apostolat de Senyores per a la Preservació de la Fe, s'anuncien quatre funcions per als quatre dilluns corresponents als dies 27 del corrent i 4, 11 i 18 del vinent desembre, de sis a vuit del vespre.

La Junta de l'Apostolat creu que en dites funcions serà l'esmentat teatre el lloc de reunió de la bona societat barcelonina, perquè a penes iniciat el projecte ha sigut acollit amb tal entusiasme que ja són abonades totes les llotges, havent-hi moltes famílies que han tingut que conformar-se amb les localitats de preferència per no haver-hi més de disponibles.

Entre les distingides famílies que primer s'han abonat, hi ha el governador senyor Portela, l'alcalde marqués de Marianao, baronessa de Cuadras, senyors de Simón, López, Albó, Sans, Bofill, comtes de Santa Maria de Sans, Bastinos, Renar, vídua Pons, marquesa de Julià, Dalmases, Urruela, Pérez del Molino, Fargas, Faya, Ros, Prats, Terrades, Clavé, Anglada, Bosch, Macià, Pons, Marimon, Vilavechia, Escolà, Ros Font, Benesat, Venet, Julià, Ricart, Barguño, Duran, Gallard, Masferrer, Pou, Masó, Alonso, Juny, Betancourt, Beya, Daurella, Bonaplata, Sentmenat, Rull, Romeu, Subirana, Cullaré, Fages, Fabrer, Mateu, Palau, Ferrer i Vidal, Taià i molts altres. Segueixen despatxant-se abonaments a la llibreria del senyor Subirana i a casa del senyor Sala del carrer de la Canuda."

La Veu de Catalunya 4498 (25/11/1911), ed. matí, p. 3.

"Con extraordinaria y brillante concurrencia diose ayer en el elegante teatro Sala Imperio la primera de las cuatro funciones de cinematógrafo y cuadros plásticos, organizadas a beneficio de las Escuelas de Preservación de la Fe.

El abono ha constituido un éxito. La presidenta general de tan benéfica obra, marquesa viuda de Julià, y la vicepresidenta han visto colmados sus deseos, ya que entre las familias concurrentes vimos a las principales de nuestra sociedad, contándose entre aquellas, además del gobernador civil, Sr. Portela, a los marqueses de Marianao, de Julià, de Alfarràs i de Dou; condes de Güell, Sort y señorita Maria de Sans; señores de Urruela, de López, de Limón, de Pons, de Boac, de Villavechia, de Dalmases, de Gallart, de Albó, de Sentmenat, de Alós, y tantos y tantos más.

Resultó una matinée agradabilísima, menudeando los elogios para las distinguidas damas organizadoras, y resultando de positivo provecho para la obra que patrocinan.

—Zulueta."

"Teatre sala Imperi

Avui, dijous tarda, a les quatre: segona funció a benefici d'una escola catòlica. Entrada, un ral; preferència, una pesseta. Estrena del qüento líric en sis quadres L'aigua de la vida.

Nit: funció sencera. Gran programa."

La Veu de Catalunya 4502 (30/11/1911), ed. matí, p. 4.

"Els dilluns aristocràtics en el teatre sala Imperi a favor de les Escoles de la Preservació de la Fe, com s'esperava, resultaren un èxit, car a pesar de que moltes famílies abonades no hi assistiren pel mal temps, foren més nombroses les que honraren l'acte amb la seva presència, donant-se el cas de que vàries famílies se dividiren per a assistir a una altra funció de beneficència que es donà a la mateixa hora. El pròxim dilluns, dia 4, de sis a vuit de la nit, s'espera que hi assistiran totes les persones abonades.

Els palcos estigueren tots ocupats, exceptuant els del senyor alcalde i el senyor governador, que no hi pogueren assistir per tenir ocupacions precises."

"En la sala Imperio ha celebrado un concierto, primero de la temporada, el Círculo Musical Bohemio, bajo la dirección del maestro D. Lorenzo Simó. El programa fue muy del agrado de la concurrencia. En el mismo figuraban, entre otras composiciones, el idilio da Sigfrido, el cuarteto (op. 29) de Schubert y las Escenas musicales del señor Ferrer-Vidal. Todas fueron ejecutadas con acierto, demostrándolo el auditorio con frecuentes aplausos."

Diario de Barcelona 331 (27/11/1911), p. 17103.

"Círcol Musical Bohemi.— La sala Imperi, a on se donà el primer concert de la present temporada en la nit de dijous, se veié força concorreguda per a apreciar el valor d'algunes obres noves que es donaren a conèixer. En la primera part hi havia una composició orquestral d'en Rodríguez Rosés. És obra treballada amb força habilitat i que se sent amb gust per les variades matisacions de la corda. Igualment podem dir de les degudes a en Josep Ferrer-Vidal.

Volgué fer un suprem esforç l'orquestra dels Bohemis amb la interpretació del Sigfried-Idyl d'en Wagner, però no passà d'aquí. L'obra és massa grossa per als elements amb què compta aquella orquestra. Podem fer aplicació d'aquest criteri amb el concert 29 de Schubert, que té moltes dificultats per a una execució no més que passable.

Els aplaudiments se succeïren després de cada obra pel bon desig que demostraren els executants dirigits per en Llorenç Simó amb força habilitat."

La Veu de Catalunya 4499 (25/11/1911), ed. vespre, p. 3.

"Xim-xim!

El Círculo Musical Bohemio, una entitat de cultura artística que mereixeria un xic més d'atenció per part de la nostra classe pudiente i de la nostra crítica... també pudiente, va donar divendres passat a la sala Imperio el primer concert de l'actual temporada, que correspon a la seva 11na sèrie.

Les novetats del programa, en qual lloc d'honor hi havia un hermós quartet de Schubert, foren un ben instrumentat Preludi d'en Rodríguez Rosés i unes Escenes musicals del senyor Ferrer-Vidal, no mancades d'originalitat, però quelcom fluixetes per lo que toca als ressorts tècnics.

Els solistes, molt bé, i el senyor Simó Cervera, dirigint, molt acertat. L'escollida i nombrosa concurrència que omplia la sala Imperi sortí ben complascuda de la simpàtica vetllada artística."

Sols direm que l'autor desconeix completament el treball teatral, ja que la seva producció, si bé elogiable per la moralitat que enclou, decau per manca de trama escènica, lo que fa que les escenes resultin pesades. "Les orientacions

Conferència d'Adrià Gual

Ahir al matí va donar a la sala Imperi una interessant conferència sobre el moment actual del teatre català el distingit literat i dramaturg don Adrià Gual.

Després d'haver donat un lleuger esguard a les tradicions teatrals europees, en el qual va demostrar una vegada més la seva competència i erudició en aquestes matèries, el conferenciant va passar a ocupar-se de l'escassa i truncada tradició de teatre català, fixant-se en els arrels del teatre barceloní i el seu camí fins als moments actuals.

Després d'aquesta part del seu estudi, fet amb una forma bellament pintoresca i agradable, en Gual va entrar. Va examinar minuciosament els càrrecs sobre la decadència del nostre teatre i dels qui volen aconsellar constantment sobre els viaranys a seguir.

Ha examinat minuciosament els càrrecs i consells més generals en les converses de gent de teatre, així com també entre el públic i va exposar la seva opinió manifestament que l'estat actual del nostre teatre és degut a que no tenim tradició.

Tot seguit va parlar de la creació del Sindicat d'Autors Dramàtics, alabant fervorosament la seva constitució i senyalant els medis més apropiats, segons ell, per a la reparació de lo passat, a l'objecte d'anar definitivament a la creació del nostre Teatre Català.

El conferenciant va parlar per espai d'una hora, havent sigut escoltat religiosament per la nombrosa i selecta concurrència aplegada a la sala Imperi. Les darreres paraules del conferenciant van ser ofegades per la calorosa ovació que se li va tributar."

La Veu de Catalunya 4511 (09/12/1911), ed. matí, p. 2.

"Parlant per al·lusions

No farem pas nosaltres un resum de la conferència que el dia 8 del corrent llegí don Adrià Gual, davant d'escassa concurrència en la sala Imperi d'aquesta ciutat, car la premsa diària, més oportuna, ho ha fet degudament. [Segueix una dura crítica a certes afirmacions de la conferència]."

Festa dels requetès carlistes pel dia de la Immaculada

"Requeté Jaimista de Barcelona.— La Junta Directiva, en sesión celebrada el pasado domingo, acordó celebrar con toda solemnidad la fiesta de su Patrona María Inmaculada, con comunión general, banquete y solemne velada literaria-musical en el magnífico teatro Sala Imperio.

Dentro breves días se repartirán los programas pudiendo anticipar que en la fiesta tomará parte uno de los personajes de más relieve del partido Tradicionalista español."

"Fiesta de los requetés

Hoy, día 8, festividad de la Inmaculada Concepción, celebrarán con inusitada brillantez los valientes requetés catalanes el primer aniversario de la Proclamación de su Patrona María Inmaculada.

Con este motivo se celebrarán varios actos: por la mañana, a las siete, Misa de Comunión general, asistiendo los banderines de todos los requetés barceloneses. Banquete íntimo a la una de la tarde en obsequio a los distinguidos oradores que hablarán en el gran mitin.

Y, más tarde, grandioso festival político-literario-teatral en el amplio local de la sala Imperio y en el que tomarán parte los elocuentes oradores, don Luis Lucia, presidente de la Juventud Jaimista de Valencia; nuestro querido director, don Dalmacio Iglesias y el batallador periodista don Juan M.ª Roma, director de La bandera regional. Presidirá el acto el excelentísimo señor duque de Solferino.

Reina gran entusiasmo para esta simpática fiesta y para la cual espéranse nutridas comisiones de todos los requetés de Cataluña."

La Voz de la tradición 62 (08/12/1911), p. 9.

"La fiesta de los requetés

Hoy se celebran, organizadas por nuestros bravos requetés, solemnes fiestas en honor de su Excelsa Patrona María Inmaculada. Rasgo hermoso será el de estos requetés, tan villanamente insultados y odiados por nuestros enemigos, haciendo vigorosa afirmación de la fe religiosa y política que anida en sus juveniles pechos.

Acto brillante, en el que la gran Comunión Tradicionalista barcelonesa dará nueva prueba palpable de cariño con que ve el fomento de estas agrupaciones que tan hermosas palabras han merecido de labios de nuestro Caudillo augusto, premiando su acrisolada lealtad y su indomable tesón. […] He aquí el programa completo de las fiestas que hoy van a celebrarse: […]

A las tres y media gran fiesta político-teatral en el teatro Sala Imperio:

Primera parte:

1. Marcha de Don Carlos por el cuarteto.
2. Poesía por el joven José Morera, del requeté de S. Andrés.
3. Souvenir, Pérez Cabrero, por el cuarteto.
4. La nit de Reis, poesía por la niña Pepita Morer.
5. Discurso por el presidente del requeté Jaimista, D. Valentín Estefanell.
6. Lohengrin, Wagner, por el cuarteto.
7. Lo Comte i l'Infant, poesía por la niña Aurora Redondo.
8. Discurso por D. Luis Lucia, abogado y presidente de la Agrupación Escolar Tradicionalista de Valencia.

Segunda parte:

1. Ave María, Gounod, por el cuarteto.
2. Poesía por el presidente del requeté de Gracia, D. José Abad.
3. Pizzicati, Ernesto Guillet, por el cuarteto.
4. Lo convent, por el joven Miguel Gabin.
5. Capricho, Pérez Cabrero (hijo), por el cuarteto.
6. Poesía original de D. Juan M.ª Roma, leída por el tesorero del requeté Jaimista, D. Antonio Tort.

"Avui, tarda, a les 4 i a les 6, grans sessions de teatres d'infants. Ignocència, per la nena Morer."

La Veu de Catalunya 4519 (17/12/1911), ed. matí, p. 3.

"L'empresa de la sala Imperi ha plegat!

Altra bona iniciativa fracassada! Lo pitjor és que, segons diuen, hi han hagut raons i l'empresa ha plegat sense complir amb tots els seus compromisos.

Se veu que hi va haver espès i menut. Un detall ho demostra i és que a la tercera representació de Nadal a muntanya del distingit poeta Mossèn Garriga, l'escenògraf senyor Arola, per a posar fi a unes diferencies sorgides entre ell i l'empresa, va prendre's la justícia per la seva mà, estripant el decorat de l'obra a cops de ganivet. Com devia estar el senyor Arola!

Actualment el propietari del teatre s'és convertit en empresa per les presents festes. Déu li dongui sort!"

"Avui, diumenge, grans sessions, tarda de 4 a 6, La pomera, Los monigotes, La muñeca eléctrica, El mestre de minyons i gran cine. De 6 a 8, El mestre de minyons, Los monigotes, La muñeca eléctrica, El gatito de Madrid i gran cine. Nit a dos quarts de 10, El vecino de enfrente, La muñeca eléctrica, Ignocència, El gatito de Madrid i cine. Preus de costum. Demà, dilluns, grans sessions tarda i nit."

 Continuació com a companyia Ferrero al centre catalanista Gent nova

"Círcol de Propietaris.– El debut de la companyia Ferrero despertà ver interès en aquesta barriada, puig al treballar-hi les xamoses nenes Pepeta Morer i Aurora Redondo, que tants aplausos conqueriren a la sala Imperi, havia despertat interès en veure-les actuar en aquesta entitat. Les obres escollides foren Un cap d'estat, El sant de l'Agneta d'en Clariana; Don Panxo, d'en M. Marinel·lo i Ignocència de l'Aulés.

En totes elles foren aplaudits tots quants hi prengueren part, especialment les esmentades petites actrius, quines juntes amb el seu director foren acollides amb ver entusiasme.

No dubtem que serà una temporada mereixedora d'elogis.

Joan Ferrero[146]

Ens complaem en donar el retrat d'aqueix estudiós actor, el qual està cridat, sens dubte, a formar-se un nom força envejable dintre el nostre teatre. L'Enric Giménez ens el donà a conèixer fent-lo debutar en els "Propietaris" de Gràcia, i el seu treball acuradíssim no defraudà les esperances del nostre primer actor, doncs el públic amb els seus aplaudiments demostrà palesament que veia en ell una esperança.

Apartat sempre d'efectismes i amaneraments, correcte en el vestir, de figura altament simpàtica, en Ferrero sap imposar-se al públic, qui l'escolta sempre amb fruïció, atret per la seva dicció clara i el seu accionar sense afectació de cap mena.

Són moltes les creacions que té fetes. En l'Armanyac de La Reina jova hi està immillorable, com en l'Ignasi de Gent d'ara i altres obres.

Darrerament actuà com a director junt amb en Marinel·lo en la sala Imperi, a on obtingué un seguit d'èxits.

Encoratgem al novell actor a no deturar-se en la seva ruta, i confiem veure'l a no trigar gaire formant part d'una companyia catalana que actuï, en un dels nostres millors teatres."

De tots colors 213 (02/02/1912), pp. 75, 77–78.

[146] Una vegada plega l'empresa de la sala Imperi, Ferrero serà el director de la nova companyia teatral que actua al centre catalanista Gent nova i que manté a les nenes Morer i Redondo com a actrius i manté en cartell algunes de les obres interpretades a la sala Imperi.

Demà a dos quarts de quatre en punt de la tarda, tindrà lloc en nostre centre una extraordinària funció teatral, en la qual la secció dramàtica del mateix posarà en escena: 1er L'hermós quadro en un acte d'en Martí Giol, La santa, per la Fremont, la Vidal, en Terrades, Casas i Capmany. 2on L'interessant drama en quatre actes d'en Paolo Giaccometti, traducció catalana d'en Ll. Viola, La mort civil, estant encarregat del protagonista, del qual ne fa una verdadera creació, l'amic en Josep Terrades, acompanyant-lo en el desempenyo les senyores Fremont, Vidal i nena Morer i els amics Casas, Boix, Muns i Costa. Acabarà la funció amb el monòleg d'en R. Cantó La meva guardiola, recitat per la nena Morer, la qual el va estrenar amb gran èxit en la sala Imperi de Barcelona."

"CENTRE CATALANISTA "GENT NOVA".– Teatre.

El diumenge dia 25 del corrent tindrà lloc en nostre centre una esplèndida funció teatral a càrrec de la companyia còmic-lírica Ferrero que dirigeix el mestre en Francisco Pérez-Cabrero (fill) i de la que formen part les aplaudides nenes Pepita Morer i Aurora Redondo.

Heus aquí el programa:

1er Simfonia per un renomenat quintet.

2on El preciós quadro d'en E. Clariana que tant d'èxit obtingué a la sala Imperi de Barcelona El sant de l'Agneta; protagonistes nenes Morer i Redondo.

3er El divertit diàleg en vers d'en J. Asmarats Lo que fan els infants.

4rt La comèdia lírica en un acte i en vers d'en A. Morer Joguina fi de segle.

5nt L'aplaudida sarsuela en dos quadres i en vers, representada 50 nits consecutives en el teatre sala Imperi de Barcelona, lletra del celebrat escriptor en M. Marinel·lo i música del mestre en Francisco Montserrat Ayarbe Don Pancho, prenent-hi part els senyors Ferrero, Morer, Ferrer i Ruiz, senyoreta Cortejón i les nenes Redondo i Morer i cor de quitxalla de poble. Per encàrrecs dirigir-se al conserge."

Cinematògrafs dins del circuit de la sala Mercè

Tot i que les visions musicals escenificades als escenaris d'aquests salons recreatius són el centre d'aquest catàleg, cal remarcar també l'activitat cinematogràfica que hi tenia lloc. La sala Mercè, com s'explica prèviament, va rebre la medalla d'or com a millor cinematògraf de la ciutat i tenia patentada la invenció del "cinematògraf parlat", amb els actors al fossat o rere l'escenari parlant per sobre de la pel·lícula. A més de rebre pel·lícules de les cases cinematogràfiques estrangeres de primer nivell, també va produir durant la seva primera temporada pel·lícules pròpies, tant de caràcter documental d'esdeveniments populars a la ciutat, com artístiques representant esdeveniments dramàtics. Tot això, des d'una perspectiva moral que proveís a les famílies amb continguts culturals aptes per als infants.

La sala Mercè, per tant, es va convertir aviat en un referent cinematogràfic a Catalunya per les seves produccions artístiques, per les novetats estrangeres que rebia amb exclusivitat i pel to moral que mantenia. El model que va implantar, ja no només per la seva oferta de pel·lícules, sinó pel curat disseny de la sala amb la seva artística decoració, va voler ser replicat, imitat o copiat per locals a altres municipis, atès que el referent de la sala Mercè servia com a fort reclam publicitari. Es va convertir, a més, en un referent amb el qual comparar el nous locals recreatius.

Trobem un exemple en el cinema Escudé, obert a Tortosa el 1905. Francisco Escudé i Bosch (Roquetes, 1867 – 1919, Tortosa) es va traslladar a Tortosa l'any 1903, després d'estudiar dibuix i pintura a Barcelona i arquitectura a Madrid, tot i que no va acabar de rebre la titulació d'arquitecte que li hauria permès exercir la professió. Allà va instal·lar un taller fotogràfic, al qual hi va crear com a annex el cinema Escudé, sala de projeccions cinematogràfiques amb exposicions i espectacles:

> "[...] Según nuestros informes, el Sr. Escudé además de montar el taller, ajustado a todas las exigencias, junto a este permanecerá una exposición artística permanente y algún espectáculo recreativo relacionado con el arte fotográfico, conforme se ve en los centros similares establecidos en las grandes capitales. [...]"
> Correo ibérico 316 (30/12/1904), p. 2.

El 29 de juny de 1905 es va inaugurar la sala, decorada pels artistes Cerveto i Fumadó, que seguia l'exemple de saló recreatiu de contingut artístic i moral del qual n'era referent la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Es trobava al carrer de l'Estació, tenia cabuda per 300 espectadors i comptava amb il·luminació elèctrica:

> "En el establiment fotogràfic del senyor Escudé del carrer de l'Estació va estrenar-se el dia de Sant Pere la sala destinada a exhibicions cinematogràfiques quedant la concurrència molt ben impressionada no sols de la bona presentació de les vistes del moviment com de les fixes, com també de la decoració de la sala i demés dependències que honren els artistes Cerveto i Fumadó, que amb sos coneixements i pràctiques pictòriques hi han contribuït.
>
> Rebi el senyor Escudé nostre aplauso per haver dotat a Tortosa d'un establiment que l'honra i que si pot amb el temps ser una imitació de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, no sols serà un centre d'esbarjo, sinó de cultura, en el que el poble podrà aprendre sense estudiar.

> Per a bé de tots, doncs, desitgem moltes prosperitats en l'empresa que ha escomès lo senyor Escudé"
> La veu de la comarca 130 (01/07/1905), p. 3.

Més enllà d'un referent a imitar o amb el qual comparar-se, la sala Mercè també va ajudar directament a la disseminació del seu model. Lluís Graner, al igual que va donar suport a la implantació de les visions musicals a sales d'altres municipis, enviant títols i decorats a localitats com ara Terrassa i Sabadell, també va donar suport a altres sales cinematogràfiques, suplint-les de cintes i pel·lícules de les quals tenia els drets exclusius de distribució. Aquests van ser els casos de la sala Mercè oberta a Arenys de Mar i de la sala Valls, ubicada a la localitat del mateix nom, Valls.

A continuació, s'inclouen dues seccions dedicades a aquestes sales. Respecte a la sala Valls, se n'inclou un catàleg amb informació de la sala, documentació gràfica i la seva activitat cultural detallada amb transcripcions de les ressenyes de premsa corresponents, des de la seva obertura el 1907 fins a la seva clausura el 1910. Serveix, per tant, com a exemple exhaustivament documentat de com funcionaven i què oferien aquesta mena de sales recreatives de caràcter moral. De la sala Mercè d'Arenys de Mar, però, degut a la llarguíssima vida de la sala, que va estar oberta i en actiu fins als anys 80, s'ofereix només un resum de l'activitat cinematogràfica relativa a l'obertura i primer període de la sala, entre 1906 i 1919, quan es va establir com a cinematògraf moral amb l'ajuda de Lluís Graner des de Barcelona, fins que va canviar de propietaris i va ser absorbida pel cinema Doré.

Sala Mercè
(Arenys de Mar)

La sala Mercè d'Arenys de Mar, ubicada a la Riera del Bisbe Pol, nº 54, va ser inaugurada el 1906 amb ajuda de Lluís Graner, propietari de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, per a fer cinema moral i censurat apte per a la família:

> "Arenys de Mar [...] El diumenge abans de la Mare de Déu d'agost començà a funcionar el cinematògraf de la sala Mercè que dos senyors d'aquesta vila, amb la cooperació del senyor Graner, de Barcelona, han instal·lat en un espaiós local de la Riera.
>
> Des de que funciona, dissabtes i diumenges, totes les sessions han estat concorregudíssimes. Felicitem als senyors iniciadors, puig dita instal·lació constitueix un saludable acte de cultura per a nostra vila."
>
> La Veu de Catalunya 2959 (10/09/1906), ed. matí, p. 2.

Ocupant la planta baixa de l'edifici, es tractava d'un cinematògraf amb sala d'espera, al igual que el disseny de Gaudí per a la sala Mercè de Barcelona, de la qual agafava també el nom. Els fundadors i promotors del projecte van ser Josepa Espriu i el seu germà Francesc Espriu (tia i oncle de l'escriptor Salvador Espriu).

La sala, però, va rebre la crítica d'alguns sectors, atesa la marcada moralitat de les pel·lícules i la competència comercial que hi existia:

> "Cada vegada es va veient més concorreguda la diversió que constitueix avui dia l'única dels arenyencs que sense distinció de classes omplen la sala d'espectacles.
>
> Poques vegades havíem vist en nostre vila una diversió que agafés tanta popularitat com el cinematògraf Sala Mercè, instal·lat en la Riera, i això que a nosaltres i a molts complau i que veu amb satisfacció, no sembla hagi resultat així per tothom, i quan casi arribem a pensar que si alguna cosa algú hi podria trobar, fora en sentit de diversió innocenta, ja que l'empresa sols presenta pel·lícules que no ofenguin els sentiments de ningú i puguen anar-hi petits i grans i tota mena de famílies.
>
> Quant ens creiem que a on sols se podria reventar el cinematògraf era en una taula de cafè, o en conversa de gent de palada fort, hem quedat completament estranyats com en un lloc a on sols ha de servir per a recolliment d'ànimes piadoses, de devoció i de pietat s'ha despotricat contra el cinematògraf tractant-lo d'indecent, deshonest i d'indecorós i fent-se allí comentaris i explicacions d'algunes pel·lícules, a on sols una perniciosa mala intenció pot veure-hi una immoralitat, lo que no existeix.
>
> Si no fos que nosaltres amb nostres famílies hi anem, a on hi portem nostres mullers o germanes no hauríem dit res, emprò no volem ni podem callar davant de l'ofensa que a nostres familias i a les de molts i respectables amics i veïns de la vila que concorren al cinematògraf, i molt més quan la calumnia és llençada als quatre vents per als que la seva obra ha d'ésser de pau, d'amor i de veritat, sobre de tot de veritat. I molt més en èpoques, en què com l'actual és necessari més sumar que restar i que sols falta que amb etzagallades i desacerts i que per qüestions de botigueta o per escrúpols mal entesos i exageracions ridícules se vagi escampant més la impietat, desgraciadament massa estesa.
>
> No és que fem la propaganda d'una empresa, sinó que vetllant per lo decoro i honestedat de moltes famílies posada en interdicte; hi protestem, no sols contra las manifestacions fetes contra els que > qualificaren de diversió deshonesta el cinematògraf de nostre vila, sinó també contra la tendència i esperit pertorbador que aitals qualificatius enclouen.

>
> I, per acabar, entengui qui ho vulga comprendre que en qüestions d'honestedat, decència i moralitat, sols pot tirar la primera pedra, qui siga net i pur de tota falta.

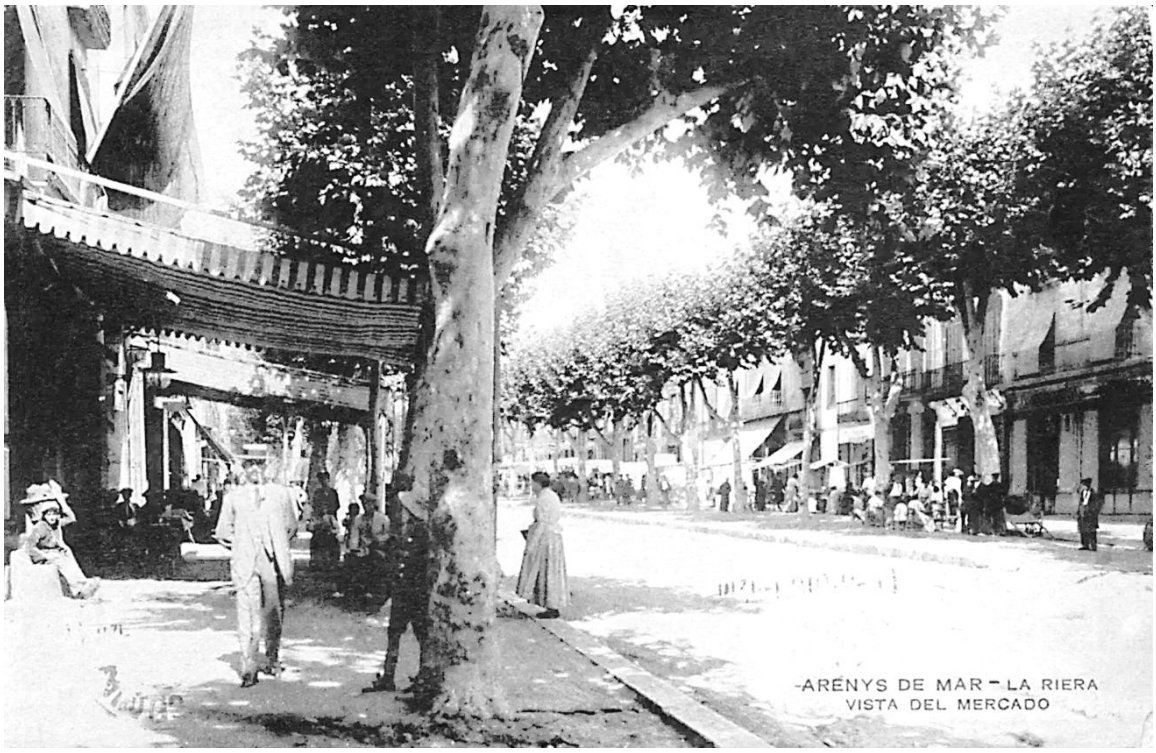
La sala Mercè de Barcelona, a la qual estava associada, va rebre des de la seva inauguració i al llarg de la seva activitat una oposició semblant per part de sectors anticatòlics i anticatalanistes, oposats a la censura moral i contraris a les relacions amb les personalitats eclesiàstiques que tenia la sala. De igual manera, però, els diaris religiosos i tradicionalistes solien donar un fort suport i fer crida a la necessitat d'oferir cultura moral per a les famílies amb infants. Es tractava d'una divisió ideològica generalitzada al panorama sociocultural del moment.



Malgrat això, la sala hauria tingut èxit i el 1913 es va decidir reformar l'edifici per ampliar-la, afegint un escenari teatral i un teló pintat per afegir també actuacions durant les sessions de cinematògraf. La nova sala reformada va inaugurar-se el 13 d'abril de 1913, amb un cafè també a la part davantera de la casa anomenat Lion d'Or.

Tot i això, degut a les despeses que causava el manteniment del teatre, la família Espriu va posar l'edifici a la venda. La finca va ser comprada el 1919 pel Sr. Olivella, regidor de l'Ajuntament de Barcelona, i van començar els rumors sobre l'enderrocament de l'edifici. Finalment, es va mantenir tal com estava i aquell mateix any la competència del cinema Doré va comprar la sala Mercè i va reprendre l'activitat del cinematògraf. Els Espriu, però, es van reservar el dret permanent d'ocupar una llotja amb sis cadires. Tot i que l'activitat de la sala va continuar, ho va fer ja amb programació comercial desconnectada del cinema moral.

El cinematògraf de la sala Mercè va romandre actiu durant dècades. Només va romandre inhabilitat des de la gran nevada del 26 de febrer de 1962 que va enfonsar-ne la teulada, fins al 8 de juliol de 1968, quan es va reobrir després de la seva reconstrucció. Va ser l'any 1986 quan la sala Mercè va tancar definitivament les seves portes, quan l'edifici va ser enderrocat per construir-hi un nou bloc de pisos.

SALA VALLS
(Valls, 1907–10)

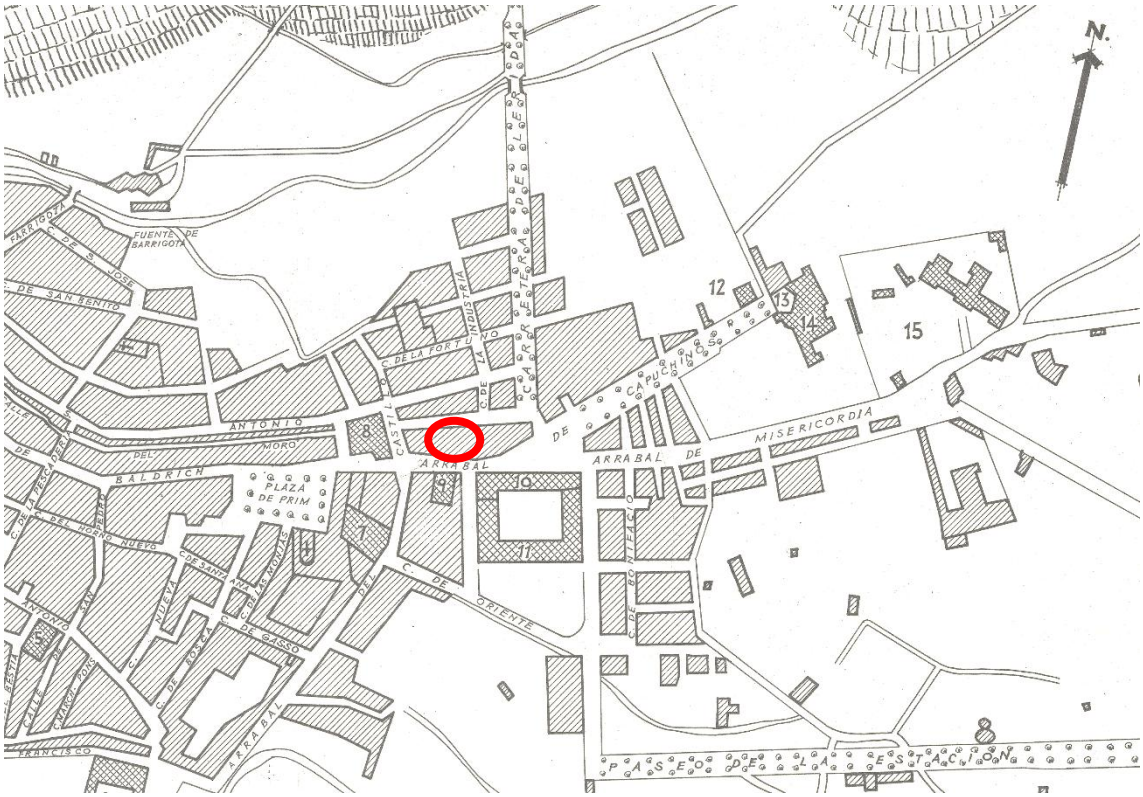
Documentació de l'activitat de la sala Valls, filial cinematogràfica de la sala Mercè: Projecció de pel·lícules morals i actuacions musicals.

Sala Valls

La sala s'hauria instal·lat al davant del teatre Principal de Valls, als baixos de casa Cartanyà. Segons els anuncis de lloguer posteriors al seu tancament, el local es trobaria al "arrabal de Capuchinos, núm. 7". Prèviament, el 1901 s'havia instal·lat als mateixos baixos de la casa del senyor "Cartañá" el Círculo Republicano Democrático Federal i la redacció d'El Trabajo: semanario republicano democrático federal y socialista[147]. El diari va tancar el 1903, i el 1905 el partit al qual corresponia el cercle va desmembrar-se. També el 1903, concretament el 2 d'agost, hauria mort el cap de la família Cartanyà (propietària de l'edifici), Juan Cartañá Dalmau[148].

El director de la sala Valls va ser l'empresari cinematogràfic Romà Closa i Nolla [també dit Ramón a la premsa en castellà], que venia de Barcelona i que tenia contactes directes amb les empreses cinematogràfiques de París. La inauguració de la sala, inicialment projectada per inicis de febrer de 1907, es va endarrerir per diverses causes personals de l'empresari, fins al dijous 7 de mars del mateix any. L'espai tindria una primera sala d'espera i, després, la sala d'espectacles. El projector del dia de la inauguració tindria una llanterna il·luminada per un aparell de llum "ocietérica", d'una potencia de 2.000 buixies, que funcionava amb èter rectificat de 65 graus. També haurien tingut un objectiu adequat per projectar vistes fixes.

La sala Valls projectava pel·lícules exclusivament de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, per tant, mantenint el seu caràcter censurat i acord a la moral catòlica. La premsa catòlica de Valls li va donar suport davant altres cinematògrafs, com ara el Modern, instal·lat al teatre Principal (és a dir, al davant de la sala Valls, com a competència directa). L'oferta de la sala hauria sigut de dues sessions diàries a les 21:30 i a les 22:30, i els festius sessions des de les 15:30 fins a les 00:00.



Per a la segona temporada (1908/09) haurien contractat una agrupació musical per tenir música en directe a la sala i tindrien puntualment artistes i cupletistes actuant al local per competir amb el panorama de varietés que inunda les sales d'espectacles de la ciutat en aquest moment. Cosa que va causar la severa crítica de diaris catòlics com ara La Veritat, que es va dirigir especialment a la sala Valls perquè es va inaugurar anunciant una moralitat que aviat es va corrompre.

De la tercera temporada (1909/10), es va anunciar l'inici de temporada al setembre amb projeccions programades per als caps de setmana, però, a banda d'això, només tenim constància a la premsa de les sessions cinematogràfiques que es van programar per a les fires de Santa Úrsula a finals d'octubre i les de Sant Joan Baptista a finals de juny.

La següent notícia que tenim de la sala Valls seria al novembre de 1911, quan es va anunciar al local per lloguer a la premsa, i més tard, el 1912, tota la maquinaria de la sala Valls va aparèixer anunciada a la venda. Al local s'instal·laria més tard el cafè Suizo.

Inauguració i temporada de primavera 1907

"Se nos dice que en las excavaciones que se llevan a cabo en el Huerto del Castell para la instalación del cine Sala Valls se ha hallado el esqueleto de una persona que, según todas las probabilidades, parece ser el de algún francés enterrado allí durante la guerra del ocho."

Ple de l'ajuntament del 26 de desembre de 1906.

[Transcrit a Joventud (31/12/1943), p. 2 a la secció "Hace 35 años"]

"Segons se'ns diu, aviat serà un fet l'obertura d'un nou cinematògraf als baixos de casa Cartanà (davant del Teatre) amb lo nom de «Sala Valls», on s'exhibiran pel·lícules del tot morals. [...]

L' empresari del cinematògraf de la sala Valls, en Romà Closa i Nolla diu que les sessions d'aquest aparell no es començaran avui com se tenia projectat, amb motiu de la mort del seu pare ocorreguda lo dia 26 prop-passat, a conseqüència d'una afecció cardíaca, i ultimats los assuntos de família que el retenien a Barcelona ha pogut tornar a emprendre los treballs de preparació, esperant poguer inaugurar-lo dintre pocs dies. També ens fa avinent que és representant d'una casa estrangera en la venda i lloguer de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques."

La Veritat 1 (02/02/1907), p. 2

"Notes vallenses [...]

Nou cinematògraf.— Dintre de molt pocs dies s'instal·larà un nou cinematògraf en la sala Valls a càrrec de l'empresari senyor Romà Closa, de Barcelona: les pel·lícules que s'exhibiran seran completament morals i la majoria seran les que s'exhibeixen en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Si hem de jutjar per los preparatius que es fan en la sala Valls, l'aparell de cinematògraf que s'ha enviat a buscar a París ha d'estar a l'altura del qui més. Dit senyor empresari és corresponsal d'una de les cases de París expenedores de pel·lícules per cinematògraf, lo que indica que les que s'exhibiran en aquesta nova sala seran ben noves."

La Cruz 1625 (12/02/1907), p. 2.

"D. Ramón Closa, empresario de la sala Valls, nos suplica hagamos público que mañana no empezarán las exhibiciones de cinematógrafo por haber sido llamado a París a fin de hacerse cargo de los últimos adelantos cinematográficos expuestos en el concurso que actualmente se está celebrando en París."

"Veritats

Ha sigut objecte de molts comentaris la primera de les veritats publicades en l'edició de nostre segon número[150]. Davant de les versions emeses devem fer constar que no ens mogué el més llunyà intent de perjudicar els interessos de l'empresa del cinematògraf de la sala Moderna, ni el d'afavorir els de la sala Valls. L'únic mòbil que ens impulsà a fer l'observació que férem fou lo compromís contret davant del públic de vetllar pels seus interessos morals i materials.

Tant de bo que d'avui en endavant no se'ns presenti cap altre motiu de censura i tant de bo que les dues sales se vegin sempre plenes de gom a gom de persones que trobin en elles l'honesta diversió tan necessària en una ciutat com la nostra!

Aquests són nostres vers i sincers desitjós."

La Veritat 3 (16/02/1907), p. 2.

"El jueves último tuvo lugar la sesión inaugural del cinematógrafo de la sala Valls para la cual, su propietario D. Ramón Closa, nos mandó una atenta invitación que agradecemos. Nuestras ocupaciones nos impidieron asistir a dicha inauguración."

El porvenir 415 (09/03/1907), p. 3.

"Atentamente invitados por la empresa de la sala Valls, asistimos el jueves a la inauguración de las sesiones de cinematógrafo que se celebrarán en la misma.

Debido a algunas deficiencias propias de toda inauguración, las películas resultaron algo escasas de luz, defecto que sin duda se corregirá en las sesiones sucesivas.

El local está bien dispuesto dividido en dos salas, la de espectáculos y otra de espera, las cuales están sencilla y elegantemente decoradas.

Deseamos a la empresa muchas prosperidades."

La crónica de Valls 88 (09/03/1907), p. 2.

"Galantment convidats per 1'empresari de la sala Valls, lo dijous a la vetlla assistirem a 1'estrena de la mateixa. Lo local, en les dos sales, o sia, la d'espera i la d'espectacles, està decorat de un modo senzill, al ensems que elegant.

La llanterna del cinematògraf està il·luminada per un aparell de llum ocietérica, d'una potencia de 2.000 buixies. A causa de no haver-se trobat aquí [a] Valls èter rectificat de 65 graus, la llum no fou prou intensa, per quin motiu les projeccions van ser bastant confuses. Tampoc pogueren projectar-se les vistes fixes, per no haver arribat encara l'objectiu per aquestes.

Per lo caràcter Íntim de la reunió i per les deficiències notades, podem dir, que més que estrena, fou la prova dels aparells; que per altre part devem reconèixer són de lo més modern que en lo seu ram se coneix.

Desitgem a l'empresa de la sala Valls moltes prosperitats."

La Veritat 6 (09/03/1907), p. 2.

"Esta noche se abrirá al público la sala Valls. Se ha instalado en ella la electricidad y se exhibirán hermosas e interesantes películas, todas ellas procedentes de la sala Mercè de Barcelona"

La crònica de Valls 91 (30/03/1907), p. 2.

"Lo Dissabte de Pasqua va inaugurar-se lo cinematògraf de la sala Valls amb molt d'èxit. L'aparell va a força d'un motor de gas pobre. Les pel·lícules que van exhibir-se són de la sala Mercè de Barcelona, cridant amb gran manera i atenció del públic les dos anomenades Los gossos contrabandistes i Lo carnaval de París. Les projeccions resultaven un poc oscil·lants, cosa que fàcilment es corregirà i que és defecte de casi totes les inauguracions d'aquests aparells.

Desitgem força prosperitats a l'empresa de la sala Valls."

La Veritat 10[151] (06/04/1907)[152], p. 2.

"En el cinematógrafo «Sala Valls» se exhibirá hoy la grande y sensacional película estrenada en «Sala Mercè» de Barcelona, titulada La barbàrie dels civilitzats, horrible lucha entre los reyes boxeadores en el Sporting Club de Londres ante una puesta de 60.000 francos."

"Sala Valls.— Cinematógrafo

———

Grandes sesiones para el domingo 23 de febrero de 1908.

Gran succés! Grandioso éxito!

Mr. Naddal"

La crónica de Valls 140 (22/02/1908)[158], p. 3.

"Pasado el carnaval, otra vez atraen al público los cinematógrafos. La competencia les obliga a acudir a diversas «variedades». En el Palau recreatiu debutará esta noche el notable y diestro patinador equilibrista, condecorado en los principales Skating-rings de Europa, M. Michel Gassio. En la sala Valls, el «Terceto Viñerta» y una pareja infantil."

La crónica de Valls 142 (07/03/1908), p. 3.

"Parece que va tomando pie la variedad en los espectáculos de los cinematógrafos Moderno, del teatro Principal, y la sala Valls, puesto que cada día de función van introduciendo nuevos atractivos para llamar la atención del público, sin embargo de las notables películas que en ellos se exhiben.

En los últimos días de la presente semana al Moderno exhibieron una película de 1.600 metros con los principales pasajes de la vida y pasión de Ntro. Señor Jesucristo.

Para mañana en ambos cinematógrafos se preparan extraordinarias sesiones."

El porvenir 468 (14/03/1908), p. 3.

"En el cinematógrafo Moderno instalado en el teatro Principal debutará esta noche el bailarín transformista P. Mauri.

En la sala Valls cosechando aplausos los hermanos «Viñerta».

En el Palau Recreatiu se exhibirá hoy y mañana la película Pasión y muerte de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo."

La crónica de Valls 143 (14/03/1908), p. 2.

"Esta noche en Cinematógrafo del Teatro, debutarán los célebres acróbatas The Alberto Rocchi y Melange Aci.

En el Palau Recreatiu siguen cosechando aplausos los excéntricos Ramis.

[158] El cinematògraf Moderno també hauria contractat al mateix temps un artista per a la seva sala, "el aplaudido artista pot-pourrí Morsin.", anunciat a la mateixa pàgina del diari.

La sala Valls anuncia para el lunes el debut de la célebre troupe «Los Canelas» compuesta de 6 artistas, excéntricos burlescos, cantantes, etc., etc."

La crónica de Valls 144 (21/03/1908), p. 3.

"Continúan los cinematógrafos en su competencia, que resulta beneficiosa para el público, pues además de las exhibiciones de películas, dan al público varios números interesantes. Están todos convertidos en salas de varietés.

Ha sido un éxito en el teatro el trio musical D' Ra-Cip, del que forma parte Mlle. Lisette. De ella dice un colega de Cartagena que es una artista de cuerpo entero. Y de cuerpo bonito, pudiera añadir.

En la sala Valls han cosechado aplausos los cantantes burlescos «Los Canelas»."

La crónica de Valls 145 (28/03/1908), p. 2.

"Se'ns prega cridem l'atenció del públic sobre la poca escrupolositat de les empreses dels cinematògrafs instal·lats en lo teatre Principal y el de la sala Valls en l'exhibició d'algunes pel·lícules poc edificants i altres espectacles que ho són menos encara."

La Veritat 61 (28/03/1908), p. 2.

"Furatejant

Al contemplar la honradesa hereditària i prestigi ben guanyats que tenia nostra població, indigna lo fixar-se amb lo cranc corruptor que va eixarreint la vida d'aquesta ciutat. Sempre la població de Valls s'ha ressentit pel mancament d'acció regeneradora, de regeneració veritable [...]

Comencem per parlar avui dels CINEMATÒGRAFS. Tots los diumenges i molts dies feiners, tenim aquí centres de cultura on exhibeixen pel·lícules a quinze i vint cèntims i a on va el poble a fomentar lo bon gust, allí hi robusteix son sà criteri entre aquella porqueria pel·licular la gent de tota mena. Allí des del quadro més criminalista fins al més passional se serveix al públic, i aquest com si res: hi van homes que es desmaien per la cruesa de les pel·lícules, però es troben entre persones del sexo dèbil quines s'ho empassen amb tanta frescura... i per això no volen protestar-ne, perquè han d'acreditar sa fortalesa. S'hi veuen concórrer a aquests espectacles pares de família acompanyats d'aquesta, a quina prohibirien la lectura de «Los Sucesos» i de «La Saeta», però en canvi els hi ensenyen lo modo de burlar la justícia i la moralitat per medi d'aquells quadrets muts, però eloqüents per la imaginació.

Fins fa poc lo públic se contentava amb los quadrets muts de quinze cèntims, però ja s'ha cansat, ja s'hi avorreix i necessita quadros més vius per son paladar. Les empreses s'han vist obligades a presentar-nos entre mig d'aquells esperpentos pornogràfics quadros al viu, i per sorprendre a la gent hem vist anunciats Decentes Kakewals (?), Garrotins, i altres indecències que fins confonen als menys escrupolosos, però en canvi quan s'ha exhibit i el públic ha comprés que l'havien enganyat, a excepció d'alguna que altra mostra de desagrado ningú s'ha aixecat, ni ha fugit en senyal de protesta: és veritat que moltes persones s'han vist los colors a la cara i han fet lo sort als couplets escandalosos amb què s'han ofès los seus oidos, però ha faltat valor per demostrar la delicadesa: amb tot i això hi han tornat.

On s'ha presentat amb més descaro la pornografia aquets dies ha sigut a la sala Valls, quina empresa es va presentar per oposar-se amb sa moralitat contra els escandalosos quadros que se'ns proporcionaven en altres punts, però per lo vist quan ha tractat de competir no ha mirat en sacrificar la decència que exigeix lo públic.

Anirem parlant dels centres cinematogràfics quan sigui convenient. Cal l'atenció de les autoritats respecte a aquest foment de la immoralitat de nostre poble, i també demanem a les persones que amb freqüència hi assisteixen tinguin lo coratge i valor que el deber de catòlic imposa mentre les empreses siguin tan poc escrupoloses."

La Veritat 63 (11/04/1908), p. 2.

"Esta noche reanudan sus tareas los cinematógrafos. El Palau recreatiu (calle Nueva) anuncia gran variedad de películas. En la sala Valls se ofrecerán al público, además de las proyecciones, la tiple Dª Pepita Guerrero que cantará piezas de ópera. Y en el cinematógrafo Moderno (Teatro) debutará el artista japonés Pankhoe, con sus interesantes juegos de mágica y de destreza, y Mlle. Virginia, con sus ejercicios de equilibrio."

La crónica de Valls 148 (18/04/1908), p. 2.

"El debut de Mr. Deroches con sus ejercicios gimnásticos, y de Madame y Mr. Carné con sus juegos malabares que el jueves pasado verificaron en el cinematógrafo Moderno del teatro Principal dejaron complacidísima a la numerosa concurrencia, especialmente el sorprendente trabajo de Mr. Carné, que fue coronado por una salva de aplausos. Estamos seguros que el difícil y ágil trabajo de los debutantes, así como las nuevas e interesantes películas que se han exhibido atraerán en las sesiones de esta noche y mañana numeroso público en dicho coliseo.

En la sala Valls también se anuncian nuevos debuts para esta noche y mañana. Y en el Palau Recreatiu, serán exhibidas películas de gran novedad."

El porvenir 474 (02/05/1908), p. 3.

"Esta noche y mañana tarde y noche en los cinematógrafos Palau Recreatiu, SalaValls y Moderno del teatro Principal se proyectarán diversas películas de última novedad. En el Moderno se verificará el debut de distinguidos artistas; y en la sala Valls continuará tomando parte en las diversas sesiones cinematográficas la notable coupletista la bella Bijou, que debutó el jueves último."

El porvenir 475 (09/05/1908), p. 3.

"Tenim entès que el senyor Alcalde ha prohibit les representacions que en la sala Valls donaven Los Niños Imperiales, coupletistas-bailarines. Molt bé que es prohibeixin aquestos espectacles, cumplin la llei de protecció a la infància, mes també molt sovint s'haurien de prohibir encara qüe fossin majors los artistes, perquè la moralitat pública casi sempre ne surt ofesa."

La Veritat 67 (09/05/1908), p. 3.

"Al Sr. Alcalde i als Pares de família.— A V. Sr. Alcalde ens dirigim perquè es digni posar remei a un escàndol públic que es repeteix amb massa freqüència. Hem parlat algunes vegades dels Cinematógrafos, y molt particularment del de la sala Valls; i ho hem fet sempre amb lo propòsit d'insistir en totes les ocasions oportunes, i com aquella empresa no té cap classe de mirament ni escrúpol envers lo públic, per necessitat tenim de cridar l'atenció de la primera autoritat que està obligada a vetllar per la moralitat i bones costums.

Hem rebut vàries denúncies respecte als espectacles que es donen a dita sala; segons ens diuen allí hi ha lo medi més actiu per fer perdre l'ignocència dels adolescents que per desgràcia hi assisteixen; allí es veu que no es té en compte la noció del pudor: allí es fan uns quadrets vius i es ballen uns Kakewals que sols serveixen per despertar a la infeliç jovenesa una prematura curiositat que els hi ha d'ésser fatal.

És una gran aberració la dels pares de família que creuen poden assistir los seus fills a tals espectacles sens que davant les accions voluptuoses i descarades no surtin bruscament canviats. Nosaltres escoltant les denúncies que se'ns fan contínuament, creiem que no som exagerats. De tots modos, cridem l'atenció del Sr. Alcalde perquè posi cotó a aquesta llibertat de desmoralització, com també preguem als pares de família perquè vetllin per sos fills, no deixant-los assistir als espectacles pornogràfics."

La Veritat 69 (23/05/1908), p. 2.

"Para esta noche y mañana están anunciadas grandes sesiones cinematográficas en el Moderno del teatro Principal y Sala Valls. La sección de varietés del Moderno es de lo mejorcito que ha venido durante la temporada, alcanzando cade día nuevos y prolongados aplausos de la numerosa concurrencia."

"Los cinematógrafos Moderno y Sala Valls preparan para los días 7 y 8 del actual, con motivo de ser los días de la feria, extraordinarias funciones y sensacionales debuts de notables artistas."

“La lucha japonesa que Rakú ha introducido en España, se halla a la orden del día en esta ciudad desde que el profesor señor Leoni se ha exhibido en el escenario de la sala Valls primero, y del Teatro después, en lucha con varios aficionados de esta localidad.

Al público le ha interesado la lucha en gran manera, hasta el extremo de llenarse todos los días el teatro y de que apenas se haya hablado de otra cosa en corros, cafés y barberías. Pequeños luchadores, ensayándose en tales ejercicios se encuentran a cada paso por las callea de la ciudad.

No nos parecen mal tales ejercicios como sport, mientras no se les dé otra importancia que la que tienen.”

Sales amb temporades de visions musicals

Més enllà dels circuits directament lligats a la sala Mercè, origen de les visions musicals, el gènere va resultar atractiu per altres moltes sales i centres culturals arreu de Catalunya. Aquesta secció presenta les diferents sales, seccions dramàtiques i centres catòlics i morals que van oferir, en algun moment de la seva activitat, breus temporades o estrenes de visions musicals. Llocs com ara Manresa, Olot, Arenys de Mar i Tarragona van tenir diverses sales en les quals s'hi va poder veure aquest gènere teatral simbolista.

La diversitat d'espais documentats mostra com les visions musicals van adoptar-se, ja no només a salons recreatius activistes, liderats especialment per pintors i altres artistes plàstics, sinó que també mostra l'interès que va haver-hi per part de seccions dramàtiques aficionades, centres catòlics i morals, teatres comercials i, fins i tot, iniciatives escèniques particulars, com ara la dels Domènec a la seva torre particular a Olot.

El llistat de sales apareix per ordre d'inauguració de les temporades de visions musicals, a excepció només de la sala Euterpe, que va suposar una continuació directa de la sala Montserrat i, per tant, apareix a continuació d'ella. Cada secció presenta un resum inicial de l'activitat de la sala amb les dades bàsiques d'on estava ubicada, qui la dirigia i entre quines dates va estar activa, a més de documentació gràfica d'interès. A continuació, es poden trobar les fitxes de cadascuna de les visions musicals estrenades, indicant la seva autoria, les referències del text i la partitura (en els casos que es conserven) i altres dades d'interès, acabant amb ressenyes de premsa de la producció.

Com que aquestes sales oferien representacions teatrals i culturals diverses i no estaven només centrades en les visions musicals, no se'n documenta tota la seva activitat amb llistats complets d'obres representades (com sí trobem de les sales pertanyent al circuit de la sala Mercè), sinó només les visions musicals o quadres plàstics i lírics de característiques dramatúrgiques prou semblants a les visions musicals com per poder incorporar-les a aquesta classificació.

Cal destacar, finalment, que la majoria d'aquestes sales va representar visions musicals no com a estrenes esporàdiques al llarg del temps, sinó com a temporades breus en les quals els títols s'estrenen de manera seguida en el temps. En alguns casos, com el de la sala Montserrat de Manresa o el saló Montserrat d'Arenys de Mar, es va tractar clarament d'un projecte d'implantació del gènere que va fracassar, atesa la preferència del públic pel gènere teatral còmic que va provocar un canvi en la direcció artística i elecció del repertori. Altres casos, com el del teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer de Tarragona o del Centre Catòlic d'Olot, es van tractar de projectes personals que van intentar inculcar el gènere a seccions dramàtiques ja existent, arribant al seu fi quan la persona en qüestió va deixar de dirigir el projecte.

Sala Montserrat

> "Amb el nom de Sala Montserrat s'inaugurarà dintre poc en la casa del senyor Miró, de la plaça de Sant Domingo, un local destinat a projeccions de vistes cinematogràfiques i de diorames, quadros plàstics i altres espectacles artístics. Hem tingut ocasió de veure el projecte de decorat de la fatxada, fet pel distingit pintor senyor Cuixart, que no dubtem que cridarà l'atenció per sa originalitat i bon gust."

El 23 de juliol de 1905 començava la seva activitat la nova empresa de la sala Montserrat a la ciutat de Manresa, que va mantenir-se durant quatre temporades. La seva programació inicial constava de projeccions cinematogràfiques i fotogràfiques acompanyades de "quadros vivents" i altres espectacles.

El primer "quadro vivent", acompanyat de música i declamació, va ser El canonge Mulet, que presentava els fets històrics de l'assassinat del canonge a la seu de Manresa l'any 1428. També anomenats per la premsa "quadros plàstics", presenten tant un model dramatúrgic com un contingut temàtic paral·lel al de les visions musicals, basant-se en llegendes locals, episodis històrics o religiosos i en rondalles infantils per presentar quadros escènics basats en la suggestió artística i de caràcter simbolista.

Entre El canonge Mulet i el següent quadro vivent van actuar a la sala titelles de Barcelona que venien dels Quatre Gats i altres artistes de varietats, fins que es el 19 de novembre 1905 es van traslladar a un local més gran a la plaça Fius i Palà (Manresa), entre els carrers Mestre Blanch i Sant Domènec. Una vegada inaugurada la nova sala reformada, la temporada va continuar representant aquests quadros lírics i plàstics directament inspirats en les visions musicals, amb títols com ara Jesús a l'hort (representant l'episodi bíblic), La torre de la minyona (basat en una llegenda de Manresa) o La filadora (glossant la cançó popular).

La sala obria els caps de setmana i festius i, tot i que els horaris fluctuaven segons el moment de l'any o la festivitat, de manera general les sessions (que duraven poc més d'una hora) s'oferien els dissabtes al vespre (a partir de les 20:00) i els diumenges de matí (a partir de les 9:00 o 12:00) i de tarda (a partir de les 15:00 o 18:00). Les entrades van mantenir un preu de 0,25 pessetes amb preferència i 0,15 pessetes les generals.

La primera temporada hauria estat directament influenciada per l'activitat de la sala Mercè, imitant el gènere de les visions musicals sota la implicació del seu director artístic Francisco Cuixart i portant-ne fins i tot algunes de les seves pel·lícules exclusives com a reclam publicitari:

> "Entre les pel·lícules que es passaran demà a la sala Montserrat hi figuren L'acordeon misteriós, que ha obtingut gran èxit a la sala Mercè de Barcelona, i les noves i graciosíssimes titulades Noi entremaliat i Se desitja un gos guardià. També tindrà lloc l'estreno del xistós diàleg còmic Anar per llana."

A més de la sala Mercè, també portaven freqüentment pel·lícules de la casa Pathé i Gaumont.

Si bé aquesta primera temporada va estar centrada en les representacions de quadros vivents i plàstics, també va haver-hi més gèneres i espectacles. A més de titelles, imitadors, equilibristes i altres varietats, s'hi van anunciar diversos títols de sarsuela, amb música normalment coral, com ara El soldat i la criada, acompanyada de piano i violí, o altres en castellà com El brazalete de oro, El ramo mágico.... La sala oferia gran diversitat de gèneres teatrals curts (passos de comèdia, joguines, quadres dramàtics, etc.) i en les següents temporades van guanyar relleu els gèneres còmics. A partir de la segona, per la necessitat d'atreure més públic i reduir despeses, el repertori es va centrar en obres de caràcter còmic que reutilitzaven les escenografies existents i la representació d'obres líriques i de quadros plàstics va minvar considerablement.

Francisco Cuixart i Barjau (Berga, 1875–Manresa, 1931) va ser el director artístic i escenògraf de la sala Montserrat, a més del dissenyador de la façana de la sala, que es trobava als baixos de la casa Miró, propietat d'Oleguer Miró, qui militava, juntament amb Cuixart, a la Lliga Regionalista.

Cuixart era pintor de professió, carrera que havia estudiat a la Llotja de Barcelona, al igual que ho va fer Lluís Graner. Entre la seva obra destaquen les nombroses pintures de la guerra dels Francesos i el disseny de l'escut de l'Orfeó Manresà i del Foment de la Sardana a la Comarca del Bages.

CIRILO
EL BARBERET
Gatada cómica en 1 acte i en prosa
R. Dámaso García Sotoca
Estrenada amb gran éxit en el teatre "SALA MONTSERRAT" de Manresa.
MANRESA
IMP. BAUSILI I ALCARAZ
Passeig de Pere III, 15
1916.

Cal destacar, a més, que alguns dels joves actors també escrivien les seves pròpies peces que després estrenava l'agrupació de la sala Montserrat. És el cas, per exemple, de Jacinto Girbau i el seu quadre dramàtic La calumnia o la seva comèdia Un capritxo com un altre, el de Josep Singla i la seva comèdia Un sabater de pega, o el cas de García que, conjuntament amb Àngel Mata, va escriure la comèdia El testament d'en Secall, estrenada al juliol de 1907. Algunes d'elles fins i tot van arribar a publicar-se, com ara l'obra de R. Dámaso García Cirilo, el barberet (digitalitzada per la Universitat de Barcelona).

Il·lustració 129: Portada de Cirilo, el barberet*, de Ramon Dámaso García "estrenada amb gran èxit en el teatre Sala Montserrat de Manresa". Manresa: Imp. Bausili i Alcaraz, 1916. [Biblioteca de la Universitat de Barcelona: codi 0701081418].*

Durant la temporada 1906/07 el repertori escènic se centrarà en comèdies "de gran broma" i "xistoses", però no faran obres líriques ni musicals, ni conviden artistes de varietats de fora. En molts pocs casos s'anuncien nous decorats i vestuaris. Només actuarà la companyia de la sala fent comèdies, sainets, joguines.... L'única peça musical de la temporada és el quadre còmic-musical L'hereu, amb lletra de Marc Miravitllas i música basada en una cançó popular harmonitzada per Francesc Alió. El nom de Marc Miravitllas és, de fet, un dels més freqüents entre els dramaturgs que escriuen peces per a la sala Montserrat, cal destacar altres títols còmics que s'estrenen al llarg de l'hivern de 1907, com ara la humorada còmica La broma de don Serafí o la humorada cavalleresca Els castell dels esguerrats, amb luxós decorat i vestuari nous.

Durant les festivitats de setmana santa el repertori serà dramàtic, amb els quadro La calumnia de Jacinto Girbau o Mossèn Eudald d'Àngel Mata. Destaca el quadro bíblic de La fi de Judes pel Diumenge de Rams de 1907, de Marc Miravitllas, basat en el Jesús de Nazaret de Guimerà, amb decorat del senyor Cuixart. Durant la resta de l'any, la sala va gaudir de gran èxit i va convertir-se (o almenys així ho anuncia la premsa) en un dels més populars espais de Manresa per les seves comèdies i pel·lícules adequades a la moral:

> "Cada festa és més nombrós el públic que freqüenta la sala Montserrat. I no és estrany. Els espectacles que s'hi donen, tots de bona mena, i el gust artístic amb què els quadrets són executats pels consumats actors senyors Garcia, Tarrés i altres i la distingida senyoreta Pilar Laffite, que amb tanta naturalitat desempenya els seus difícils papers, acompanyat de les importants pel·lícules cinematogràfiques, fa que la gent freqüenti la cada vegada més afavorida sala Montserrat. [...]"

> "Cada dia es veu més afavorida aquesta sala d'esbarjo pels aficionats al cinematògraf i que volen passar una estona divertits. A demés d'exhibir-se pel·lícules de veritable valor artístic i d'alta novetat, se representen xistoses comedietes en les que llueixen ses gràcies còmiques la distingida artista senyoreta Lafitte i els senyors Garcia, Tarrés, Santaeulària i altres. [...]"

La temporada 1907/08 comença amb el sainet El mestre de pàrvuls, de Miravitllas, que rep una especial bona ressenya a la premsa per la seva producció. Per les festivitats de Nadal, la sala recuperarà el repertori líric amb L'infant Jesús o Els pastorets de Betlem, represa després al febrer. Per setmana santa van tornar a projectar pel·lícules de temàtica catòlica i van estrenar dues obres líriques noves també de contingut religiós, titulades La samaritana, quadro bíblic de gran aparato, i Pasqua florida, quadro dramàtic amb un cor de nois caramellaires. També s'hi estrena, però sense música, el drama bíblic en dos quadres de Marc Miravitllas El decret del rei Herodes i es reprèn La fi de Judes.

El repertori dominant continuen sent, però, les obres còmiques: comèdies i joguines, com ara Un sabater de pega de Josep Singla, actor de la sala que s'estrena com a dramaturg. Hi haurà també altres entreteniment, com la tómbola i els sortejos d'obsequis acord al número d'entrada.

> "Tómbola a la sala Montserrat > Demà, a les sis de la tarda s'inaugurarà una gran tómbola, que estarà oberta els dijous i dissabtes al vespre i els diumenges al matí en el local de la sala Montserrat. Hem tingut ocasió de veure el copiós i variat assortiment d'objectes d'utilitat domèstica, d'obres d'art i d'adorno i de joguines que es sortejaran en dita tómbola, lo que fa creure que es veurà molt concorreguda."
>

El gener de 1909 trobem les últimes produccions líriques de la sala. Després d'Els pastorets nous del dia 5 es va representar la visió musical Diada de reis, també anunciada amb el títol La nit dels reis, adequada a la temàtica nadalenca del moment, i La minyona de la costa, quadro dramàtic-líric d'Àngel Mata.

La temporada 1908/09 va ser l'última d'activitat de la sala. El 18 de juliol va ser l'últim dia en què va obrir les seves portes i el 25 d'agost s'anuncia que la sala ja ha estat desmantellada. La companyia i l'equip d'autors que existia al voltant de la sala, però, va mantenir la seva activitat i es va traslladar a un nou local. El 5 de desembre de 1909 tornaven a l'acció des de la sala Euterpe, instal·lada als baixos del teatre Euterpe.

"SALA MONTSERRAT. Inauguració el dia 29, vigília de la Festa Major, a les 8 del vespre.— Projeccions de cinematògraf, amb pel·lícules de novetat. Vistes fixes colorides. Quadro vivent: El canonge Mulet.— Director artístic, don Francisco Cuixart."

El pla de Bages 424 (21/08/1905), p. 2.

"Sala Montserrat

La fatxada d'aquest nou local a on se donen projeccions cinematogràfiques i quadros vivents és d'un gust verament artístic i es veié ahir concorridíssima, omplint-se de gom a gom en totes les sessions que es verificaren.

El públic feia grans elogis de les hermoses pel·lícules animades i vistes fixes que es projectaren amb molta propietat.

Lo que cridà poderosament l'atenció fou el quadro vivent representant l'assassinat del canonge Mulet, comès dintre de l'iglésia de la Seu de Manresa per en Francisco de Planes, el dia 8 de setembre de 1428, i la reproducció tan exacta de l'interior de nostra hermosa Basílica."

El pla de Bages 432 (31/08/1905), p. 1.

[165] Bassat en l'episodi històric viscut l'any 1428 de l'assassinat del canonge Mulet a la Seu de Manresa per en Francisco de Planes.

"SALA MONTSERRAT. SESSIONS.— Dissabte, dia 2, a les 8 del vespre.— Diumenge, dia 3, a les 9 del matí i a les 6 de la tarda. Projeccions cinematogràfiques de molta novetat.— Quadros fixos il·luminats.— Quadro vivent musical de gran èxit El canonge Mulet. Director artístic, don Francisco Cuixart."

El pla de Bages 434 (02/09/1905), p. 2.

"A l'afavorida i elegant sala Montserrat, demà se donaran extraordinàries sessions cinematogràfiques, exhibint-se molta varietat de pel·lícules animades de gran fantasia, i s'estrenarà El viaje de placer, El Pulgarito (En Patufet) i La tienda de comestibles. Se projectaran també moltes vistes fixes de colors que cridaran l'atenció del públic.

Al final de cada sessió se reproduirà el quadro plàstic del Canonge Mulet, que tant èxit ha obtingut entre la nombrosa concurrència que freqüenta la sala Montserrat."

Jesús a l'hort [167]

Quadro plàstic.

Representada del el 01/04/1906 al 08/04/1906.

Lletra d'autor desconegut.

Música d'autor desconegut.

Escenografia de Francisco Cuixart i Andreu Noguera.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"El diumenge passat tinguérem ocasió de fruir les qualitats artístiques del quadro plàstic Jesús a l'hort presentat a la sala Montserrat. És de lo millor que hem vist a Manresa en aquesta mena d'obres. El quadro és ben presentat: pintat amb vera consciència del paisatge, revelant la decoració en conjunt el misticisme natural de l'escena.

De bon grat tornarem a la sala Montserrat, doncs no en tenim prou de veure una sola vegada el simpàtic quadro i creiem no serem sols en repetir la visita a judicar pels elogis que hem sentit de la dita obra.

El senyor Cuixart pot estar satisfet del quadro que ha presentat al públic i nosaltres l'encoratgem a que continuï en la tasca empresa, doncs som del parer que ella pot proporcionar-li glòria i profit.

El públic recompensà gustós a l'empresa de la sala Montserrat omplenant el saló en quantes sessions tingueren lloc el diumenge passat, prova de l'agrado amb què va veure la presentació de Jesús a l'hort."

El pla de Bages 607 (03/04/1906), p. 2.

"Atenent a la festivitat de dia, les pel·lícules que s'exhibiran demà a la sala Montserrat seran totes de caràcter religiós i consistiran en les interessants d'assumpto bíblic Judici de Salomó i Josep vengut pels seus germans, i l'emocionant Màrtirs cristians.

Se representarà per darrera vegada l'artístic quadro, decorat pels senyors don Francisco Cuixart i don Andreu Noguera, Jesús a l'hort, amb música i declamació, que tant agradà el dia de son estreno."

El pla de Bages 611 (07/04/1906), p. 2.

[167] Basat en l'episodi bíblic i posat en escena durant les festivitats de Setmana Santa acompanyat de pel·lícules de temàtica religiosa.

"Un èxit fou la inauguració ahir de l'artístic quadret l'idil·li El fill del rei, a la cada dia més concorreguda sala Montserrat. El decorat que revela l'excel·lent disposició del director artístic senyor Cuixart produïa un bonic efecte.

En el cant de les Primerenques, lletra de l'il·lustrat escriptor manresà don Manel Alabert, estigueren superiors les distingides senyoretes donya Elisa Dalmau, Agnès Alfonso i donya Pilar Lafite.

L'idil·li El fill del rei, representat pel distingit jove don J. Girbau Tarrés, sostingut amb la simpàtica senyoreta Lafite, fou aplaudidíssim al final de cada sessió per la nombrosa concurrència que omplia la sala, obligant a repetir l'última part de les Primerenques.

La part cinematogràfica de la sessió fou també molt de l'agrado del públic principalment els Percances d'un fotògraf, Una noia caritativa i Pallissa per equivocació.

Com algunes famílies repetiren l'entrada a les sessions d'ahir per a fruir de l'idil·li El fill del rei, s'ha disposat que per a facilitar a les famílies que desitgin veure aquesta producció de bon gènero, el diumenge pròxim se repeteix l'idil·li, així com l'exhibició d'algunes pel·lícules."

[169] El títol apareix sovint a l'època amb la grafia "malestruch".

“Hem tingut l’ocasió de llegir la inspirada visió lírica L’anell malastruc, escrita per nostre compatrici el distingit advocat don Agustí Coma, que s’estrenarà diumenge vinent a la sala Montserrat, amb bonica música i artística presentació escènica."

El pla de Bages 642 (16/05/1906), p. 2.

“La visió lírica L’anell malastruc, que s’estrenarà demà a la sala Montserrat, promet ésser un verdader èxit. Escrit en inspirats i cadenciosos versos per don Agustí Coma, l’acompanya una música molt agradosa del mestre Borràs de Palau, i el decorat, que representa un grandiós edifici oriental, pintat pels senyors Cuixart i Noguera, produeix un efecte magnífic.

En el escollit programa de cinematògraf hi figura la pel·lícula d’actualitat Erupció del Vesuvi i la nova i dramàtica Assanyes d’un policia.”

“Ahir vam tenir ocasió d’admirar la magnífica decoració que els nostres estimats amics i compatricis senyors Cuixart i Noguera han pintat per la cada vegada més concorreguda i afavorida sala Montserrat.

Representa aquesta decoració un palau oriental, luxós, elegant i esplèndid. La part de perspectiva lineal resulta justa i ben estudiada, sobretot aquella escalinata de l’esquerra de l’espectador no deixa res que desitjar, així com també omplena al més escrupolós escenògraf la part de perspectiva aèria, que resulta justa i del tot ensopegada, donant la il·lusió de que l’escena és molt més gran.

Llàstima que aquell tapís que representa que penja de les voltes del palau no ens produeixi el mateix efecte que el restant de la decoració, tal vegada degut a la poca fondària de l'escenari que ha impedit presentar-lo de manera que es poguessin lluir més els pintors escenògrafs!

No obstant les dificultats que han tingut de lluitar, els senyors Cuixart i Noguera poden estar satisfets de la seva obra, perquè han sapigut triomfar de les mateixes.

L'estreno de la visió lírica L'anell malastruc, lletra de nostre estimat company i redactor de la important revista agrícola La pagesia, don Agustí Coma, fou un èxit, doncs agradà molt a la distingida concurrència que freqüentà la sala Montserrat.

La pel·lícula Assanyes d'un policia fou molt celebrada i l'Erupció del Vesuvi, molt important."

El pla de Bages 646 (21/05/1906), p. 3.

"Amb objecte que els forasters que vinguin a la fira de l'Ascensió puguin veure la magnífica visió lírica L'anell malestruc, que tan justament agradà diumenge passat, en què s'estrenà a la sala Montserrat, se posarà demà novament en escena, juntament amb un escollit programa de cinematògraf, començant-se les sessions a les onze del matí."

Quadro líric-musical.

Representada del 03/06/1906 al 14/06/1906.
Represa el 05/08/1906.

Lletra de Manuel Alabert.

Música de [Lluís] Millet.

Escenografia de Francisco Cuixart i Andreu Noguera.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"La sala Montserrat segueix presentant espectacles de verdader gust. Demà s'hi estrenarà el quadro líric-musical La creu de l'avenc, amb lletra molt bonica i interessant d'en Manel Alabert i música de l'inspirat mestre Millet.

En l'escollit i variat programa de pel·lícules, hi figura la d'actualitat Els diputats al Tibidabo en les festes de Solidaritat Catalana, que aquests dies s'exhibeix amb molt èxit a Barcelona."

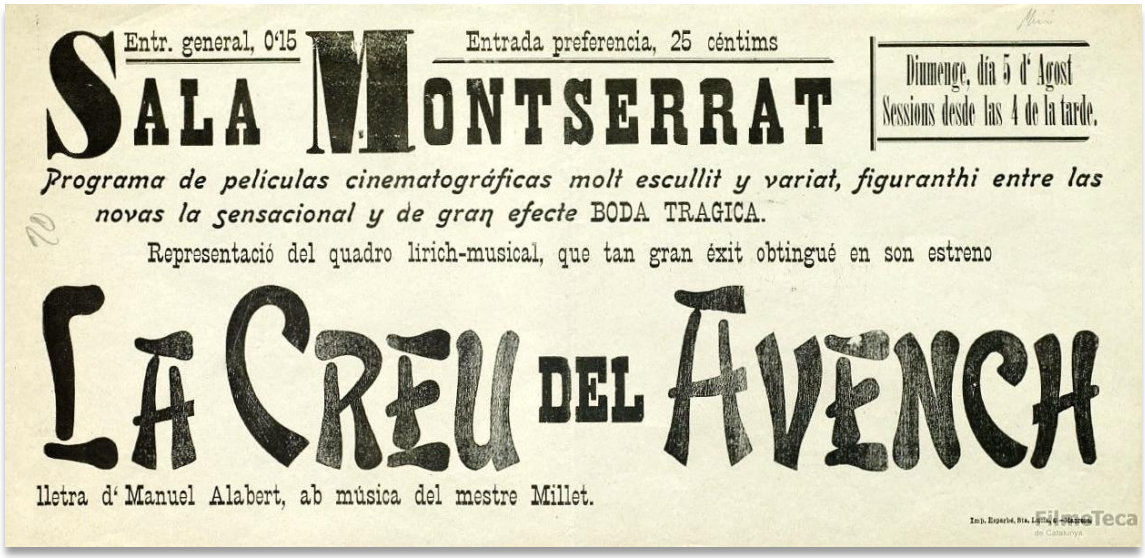
“Per darrera vegada se posarà demà en escena en la sala Montserrat el quadro líric musical La creu de l’avenc, del qual ens ocupàrem en un dels números anteriors, fent-ne els elogis que es mereix tan bonica producció artística.

Figuren entre les pel·lícules del triat programa cinematogràfic les noves i interessants Tribulació d’un bomber i Amor venjat.

La porta de l’entrada general de la sala Montserrat s’ha canviat de lloc, perquè a l’obrir-se un cop començades les sessions no es destorbi als espectadors, i també s’ha engrandit el lloc destinat a la preferència.”



El pla de Bages 661 (09/06/1906), p. 3.

“A petició de molts concurrents a la sala Montserrat, que a causa del temporal no pogueren assistir a les sessions del diumenge passat, demà s’hi representarà, per darrera vegada, el celebrat quadro líric-musical La creu de l’avenc. També es projectarà un triat programa de pel·lícules, figurant entre elles vàries de noves i interessants.”

Filadora, La [170]

Quadro líric popular.

Representada del 29/06/1906 al 15/07/1906 [171].

Lletra de Martí Genís Aguilar.

Música de J. Cortinas.

Escenografia de Francisco Cuixart i Andreu Noguera.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[…] El dia de Sant Pere s'estrenarà el nou quadro líric La filadora, amb lletra de l'inspirat poeta en Martí Genís, música del mestre Cortinas, director de la banda municipal de Vic, i decoració dels pintors Cuixart i Noguera."

El pla de Bages 672 (23/07/1906), p. 2.

"La sèrie de quadros artístics i de bon gust que s'han fet a la sala Montserrat s'ha augmentat amb La filadora, que es posarà en escena demà i diumenge vinent. Basant-la en la cançó popular del mateix títol, hi ha compost la lletra l'inspirat poeta en Martí Genís i Aguilar, amb la música harmonitzada pel mestre Cortinas, director de la banda municipal de Vic, havent pintat una decoració de típic caràcter català, de gran efecte, els celebrats artistes senyors Cuixart i Noguera.

Se posarà també aquests dies un triat programa de pel·lícules, en el que hi figuren les cinc noves Cabres en els Alps, Un Tenorio burlat, Treballadores de Bretanya, Mal de queixal i Seqüestradors xasquejats."

El pla de Bages 676 (28/06/1906), p. 2.

[170] Basada en la glosa i harmonització de la cançó popular homònima.

[171] Represa a Vic el 02/12/1906 per la societat Catalunya Vella, atès que el compositor que va harmonitzar la cançó popular, J. Cortinas, era el director de la banda municipal de música de Vic.

Il·lustració 142: Programa de la sala Montserrat per al dia 29 de juny, diada de Sant Pere, i 1 de juliol de 1906, anunciant l'estrena de La filadora. [Filmoteca de Catalunya].

"El quadro líric La filadora, que se estrenà ahir a la sala Montserrat, és un dels que han obtingut èxit més franc. El poeta Matí Genís a l'adaptar a l'escena la lletra de la coneguda cançó, el mestre Cortinas a l'harmonitzar-la i en Cuixart i Noguera amb son decorat hi han estat tots encertats de debò, formant el conjunt un quadro tan artístic i agradós que el públic en surt content, però no satisfet, perquè el troba curt, deixant-li ganes de tornar-lo a veure.

Demà se repetirà La filadora i es passaran altra vegada les pel·lícules cinematogràfiques que tant agradaren en la diada de Sant Pere."

El pla de Bages 677 (30/06/1906), p. 2.

"Foren molt de l'agrado dels concurrents a la sala Montserrat les pel·lícules que s'hi exhibiren el darrer diumenge i el programa de les que es passaran demà és igualment variat i notable.

El quadro líric La filadora, que segueix representant-se, és cada dia més celebrat, tant per la boniquesa de son efecte escènic, com per la bona execució dels artistes que hi prenen part."

El pla de Bages 683 (07/07/1906), p. 3.

"Demà a la sala Montserrat, després d'un assortit i extens programa de cinematògraf, en el que hi figuren pel·lícules noves i d'altres interessants, se donarà la darrera representació del quadro líric d'assumpto popular La filadora, que per l'ensopegat decorat escènic de nostres compatricis Cuixart i Noguera i per les inspirades lletra i música dels vigatans en Martí Genís i el mestre Cortinas, tan gran èxit ha obtingut quantes vegades s'ha posat en escena."

El pla de Bages 689 (14/07/1906), p. 2.

Torre de la minyona, La [172]

Quadro històric.

Representada del 29/8/1906 al 02/09/1906.

Lletra de Manuel Alabert.

Música de Josep Masó i Goula.

Escenografia de Francisco Cuixart i Andreu Noguera.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Avui s'estrenarà a la sala Montserrat el quadro La torre de la minyona, basat en un episodi de la llegenda històrica d'aquell nom, molt coneguda en les encontrades de Cardona i Manresa. Per lo que hem pogut notar en els ensatjs, la lletra d'en Manel Alabert, la música del mestre Masó i Goula, i l'esplèndid decorat d'en Cuixart i en Noguera se compenetren i formen un conjunt tan agradable que resulta un dels quadros més bonics que s'han fet en aquella sala d'espectacles.

En les sessions d'aquests dies se projectaran pel·lícules noves i de gran efecte, i entre les de broma l'Acordeó misteriós, tant del gust del públic."

El pla de Bages 726 (29/08/1906), p. 3.

"[...] El quadro La torre de la minyona, que es posà en escena per la Festa Major, cridà amb justícia l'atenció del numerós i selecte concurs que l'anà a veure. En la lletra de l'episodi de la popular llegenda, estigué força encertat en Manuel Alabert, i la decoració d'en Cuixart i en Noguera produeix un efecte del tot acabat i de molt gust."

El pla de Bages 732 (07/09/1906), p. 2.

"El quadro còmic L'hereu ha caigut tan en gràcia als concurrents a la sala Montserrat que totes les sessions del dia de la Mare de Déu i d'ahir es veieren constantment plenes. L'autor, en Marc Miravitllas, amb un enfilall de xistes de bona llei; en Garcia, representant paper de graciós de primera, ven secundat per la senyoreta Laffita, feu que la rialla esclatí franca; contribuint a arrodonir l'obra, la cançó popular del mestre Alió que canten les noies i la magnífica decoració de carrer, dels senyors Cuixart i Noguera.

Les pel·lícules foren molt de gust del públic, especialment la interesantíssima titulada Gossos contrabandistes."

[Ressenyes de les represes]

"En la concorreguda sala Montserrat, a precs de vàries persones, se posarà en escena el pròxim diumenge, dia de la fira, el tan aplaudit quadret còmic líric L'hereu, degut a la inspiració del jove senyor Miravitllas que, per millorar-lo, ha retocat alguna de les divertides escenes. L'esmentada obreta serà representada pels mateixos artistes que l'estrenaren, de quines representacions guarda el públic tan bons records per les franques rialles que provocaren. Acompanyarà a la representació de L'hereu bonic programa de pel·lícules cinematogràfiques.

Celebrem el bon acord de l'empresa de la sala Montserrat i no dubtem que, com totes les festes, serà un ple de gom a gom cada sessió que se celebri, que, per motiu de ser la fira de nostra ciutat, començaran a les 10 del matí acabant a les 11 de la nit."

El pla de Bages 1209 (18/04/1908), p. 2.

"SALA MONTSERRAT (Manresa)

Pasqua florida o el Mas del dos roures.— Drama en un acte i en prosa, original d'Àngel Mata.

L'ultima producció del jove manresà Sr. Mata, que fou estrenada el dia 19 d'abril, sigué molt ben rebuda i celebrada; puig que encara que l'argument és senzillíssim, és molt bonic, i magistralment desenrotllat i escrit amb un llenguatge pulcre i escollit.

Il·lustren l'obra dos nombres de música, els quals son caramelles, originals del jove Iscle Tomàs, i que foren molt aplaudides.

Els aficionats milloraren moltíssim l'obreta amb son imponderable treball artístic, sobresortint remarcablement la Srta. Laffitte i els Srs. García*, Girbau, Tarrés, Singla i els nois Mas, Tarrés i Martí. L'autor fou molt felicitat."

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Sala Montserrat (Manresa). Diada dels reis.— Visió musical en un acte i tres quadros, lletra de Damàs Garcia i Àngel Mata, música de Iscle Tomàs.

El diumenge passat tingué lloc l'estrena d'aquesta obreta, que valgué molts aplausos als seus autors, perquè hi ha alguns pensaments bonics, amb tot i no ser una cosa molt nova. La part musical és molt inspirada, i el jove senyor Tomàs fou molt felicitat. Mes l'ovació més gran l'obtingué el reputat pintor manresà senyor Cuixart per l'hermosíssima decoració que s'exhibí en el tercer quadro, representant l'interior de la Seu de Manresa."

El pla de Bages 1429 (16/01/1909), p. 3.

"SALA MONTSERRAT. El mateix dia [diumenge 10] va estrenar-se en aquest teatre una visió musical en un acte i tres quadros, lletra dels senyors Garcia i Mata, amb música del jove compositor Iscle Tomàs, quin títol era Diada de reis. En la lletra i música no hi vàrem trobar res de nou. L'únic que valgué una pluja d'aplausos fou una hermosa decoració que representava l'interior de la Seu de nostra ciutat, del pintor senyor Cuixart."

"Sala Montserrat.— A benefici de les víctimes del terratrèmols d'Itàlia se celebraran aquest vespre sessions, començant-se la primera a dos quarts de vuit. Se projectaran les hermoses pel·lícules Aucells ensinistrats, Dos cors nobles, Si us plau, per força i Terratrèmols de Messina; posant-se després en escena la xistosa comèdia La base quinta.

Demà tindrà lloc l'estreno del quadro líric-dramàtic La donzella de la costa, compost per en Àngel Mata, exhibint-se abans un escollit programa cinematogràfic, format per les pel·lícules Traïdor a la pàtria, Els minaires, Els quadros de l'antiquari i L'escala de mà."

"SALA MONTSERRAT (Manresa)

La minyona de la costa.— Quadro dramàtic-líric, lletra d'Àngel Mata, música d'I. Tomàs.

El diumenge passat, dia 31, tingué lloc l'estrena d'aquesta producció, en la que el jove senyor Mata demostrà sos avenços literaris, puig que hi han escenes ben traçades i l'argument és interessant i ben meditat. El diàleg està escrit amb cuidada prosa i els xistos són de bon gènero.

La música potser és la millor que ha compost el jove senyor Tomàs. En conjunt és una obreta que es fa agradable a l'auditori, com així es veié el dia de l'estrena, que fou molt aplaudida i els autors molt felicitats. La interpretació, immillorable."

Selecció de ressenyes sobre el tancament de la sala:

"Estació i xarxa telefòniques.— Ahir va ésser l'últim dia que la sala Montserrat va funcionar; promptament a tan bonic local s'hi començaran les obres perquè a la major brevetat possible hi quedin instal·lades l'estació i xarxes telefòniques urbana i interurbana."

El pla de Bages 1576 (19/07/1909), p. 3.

"Central telefònica.— Han començat les obres de reforma en el local que fou sala Montserrat, propietat del senyor Miró, per la instal·lació de la central telefònica interurbana i urbana."

El pla de Bages 1602 (21/07/1909), p. 3.

"La Central telefònica.— Ampliant la notícia que donarem en l'edició del dilluns referent a la instal·lació de la Central telefònica interurbana i urbana a la sala Montserrat, podem afegir que avui ha quedat firmada a Barcelona la contracta entre el gerent de la Companyia Peninsular de telèfonos i eI propietari de l'edifici don Oleguer Miró.

Als baixos s'hi instal·laran les oficines i els locutoris per les conferències; l'edifici s'aixecarà un pis més, sobre del qual se construirà un Templete per la instal·lació dels fils telefònics transmissors de les notícies que des de Manresa es desitgi comunicar als abonats en totes les regions d'Espanya.

Dintre de poc començaran les obres convenients."

"Coses que passen, records que fugen

La sala Montserrat ja ha desaparescut d'entre nosaltres; al seu lloc han començat les obres per instal·lar-hi la Central de les Xarxes Telefòniques urbana i interurbana a la nostra ciutat.

Amb la sala Montserrat ha desaparescut, no per molts, per uns quants àvids sempre d'emoció artística, un lloc que e1 recordarem com la il·lusió que un dia veiérem infantada i que tan tost nasqué com morí.

Perquè si bé es veritat que la sala Montserrat ha viscut molt temps, uns quants anys — que jo no vull recordar quants són, perquè al difumir-se un record agradable d'una cosa bella temps enllà, té l'atractiu de la seva poetització— tal com nosaltres veiérem obertes les seves portes, i per la finalitat perquè les veiérem obertes i traspassàrem els seus llindes i contribuírem plens de fe a un èxit esperat que potser avui encara acaronem, durà poc, molt poc, la sala Montserrat.

Verament, la sala de les visions i petits quadres lírics no podia ésser pel gros públic, i els que somniem i veiem aclucats d'ulls, i tenim atent l'oït als cants prodigiosos del cor, i estimem aquestes coses impalpables convertides en obra per medi del literat, del músic i pintor escenògraf, aquestos som pocs i, dels pocs, moltes vegades els menys poderosos.

Nosaltres ens quedàrem casi sols a la fruïció d'aquelles petites preciositats de país de vano, admirades al viu, fetes realització hermosa, i l'allau de gent de cinematògraf, els tavernaris de l'art plàstic, invadien i passaven per ella encuriosida més o menys indiferent i, si no interrompia amb el comentari incult, sortia amb l'expressió mofeta adequada a la seva incapacitat, pròpia a la seva sentimentalitat estragada.

Jo no en sé, ni en vull saber, d'aquestes coses considerades baix el punt de vista econòmic; els interessos d'empresa no són pas per mi, però és evident que sense el concurs d'un gros públic que mantingui sobradament l'espectacle, que faci prosperar als abnegats que es llencen a l'exposició de l'art, i els dongui medis per completar-lo i fer-lo assequible al poble, no és possible la seva realització.

Això no hi era i al poc temps la sala Montserrat fou un de tants cinematògrafs amb números de variétés; la vulgaritat se'n feu senyora i nosaltres en desertàrem.

La discreta producció poètica, la senzilla glosa musical, la superba presentació escènica, dins d'aquell marc diminut, a on un artista amic hi abocava en colors dolls de poesia, fugiren per sempre de l'eleganta sala; solament l'escaienta fatxada ens remembrava encara que allí s'hi feu l'hostatge per una cosa bella.

És una de tantes coses que hem vist passar i de la que en veurem fugir fins el record, doncs altres de noves atrauran les gentades i elles ventaran de la memòria fins el record de les passades.

Nosaltres d'aquesta en registrem el fet de la desaparició total, és un recordatori d'un ser que fou, que a la nostra vida ciutadana, dins les nostres aspiracions, pressentim amb tot que haurà deixat llavors. Les llavors que porten sempre les bones obres, i obra bona és fer art honest, art veritat, que sigui bellesa educadora del sentiment, esplai de la fantasia.

Als elogis que en son temps li tributarem, sigui aquest, emulació perquè qui en sàpiga, qui puga, no deixi pas a Manresa òrfena de Bellesa i abocada a la grolleria i al mal gust que a l'art escènic predomina entre nosaltres.

La sala Montserrat a n'el seu bon temps, fou distinció i art; qui en recollirà la seva herència?

Medí."

“Notes d’art

Avui el nostre amic, el pintor en Francisco Cuixart, ens ha convidat a una visita al seu taller, a on hi té pintat el preciós quadre, que ja ha sigut adquirit pe n’Andreu Pons i Santacreu.

Són molts els amics seus i persones significades de Manresa que han admirat aquesta tela, en la que magistralment hi ha traspassat, el senyor Cuixart, l’interior de la nostra Seu, de quin monument religiós, ell en els estudis que en porta fets d’uns quants anys a n’aquesta part, n’ha tret tots els replecs de la seva lluminositat tan variada, de la seva grandesa i proporcions arquitectòniques admirables.

La nostra Basílica, aixís com ha tingut i té encara els seus cronistes, mereixia tenir també el seu artista que la perpetués en les seves obres, i el senyor Cuixart pot ben dir-se que, manresà de cor, s’ha dedicat a ella durant tota la seva carrera pictòrica, amb entusiasme de fervent enamorat i l’ha sorprès en els moments més culminants; la seva imaginació i el seu art li han arrencat i transportat en colors la seva espiritualitat, fora la materialitat del lloc sagrat.

De l’escenogràfic quadro escènic El canonge Mulet amb què s’inaugurà la ja desaparescuda sala Montserrat, el senyor Cuixart, n’ha aprofitat tots els estudis i els ha completat, fent-ne la tela, que és causa d’aquests tan merescuts elogis. En ella presenta la Seu presa des de les cadires del cor de mà esquerra a hores de vora el migdia. Els detalls de la silleria i el del faristol barroc del seu centre, la perspectiva del temple, l’entonació del seu ambient de llums amoratades, la riquesa de color dels seus finestrals, el reflex de la seva llum sobre els rics tapissos vermells de les columnes, el brill dels ciris i la llàntia, esmorteït per l’esplendidesa dels ratjs de sol que invadeixen el templa, la silueta de les fidels disseminats sota la seva grandiosa nau, al del sacerdot en el altar major, entre quins hermosos calats ressurten les riques tonalitats del finestral de l’absis, els detalls dels altars del fondo difumits en la penombra i, com a contrast, la figura d’un escolà que, a segon terme posat al peu de la reixa del cor, és un medi de contrast de proporcions justes, d’un perfecte estudi de perspectiva fan d’aquesta obra pictòrica una excel·lent obra artística, que acredita una vegada més al senyor Cuixart. En la contemplació de tan bella tela, un hi sent fondament l’emoció de la realitat dintre el caràcter, l’ambient de sublimitat que en la nostra Basílica Col·legiata es respira arreu i embarga l’ànima.

Nosaltres no podem menys de felicitar efusivament al pintor en Francisco Cuixart pel seu èxit artístic a les tan justes enhorabones de què és objecte i unim també la nostra.”

Sala Euterpe

L'edifici del teatre Euterpe de Manresa comptava amb un saló de cinematògraf que oferia activitat paral·lela a la del teatre principal. Prèviament hi havia estat instal·lada l'empresa del saló de Novetats, que va començar la seva activitat al gener de 1908 amb una breu itinerància de la companyia de la sala Mercè de Barcelona i les seves visions musicals, just després de la prohibició que va obligar a aturar les representacions teatrals.

A finals de 1909, tant el saló cinematogràfic com l'escenari principal del teatre havien quedat clausurats. El 5 de desembre, però, la sala Euterpe va ser inaugurada:

Il·lustració 157: Logotip de la sala Euterpe. [Imprès als programes de mà conservats a la Filmoteca de Catalunya].

> "L'empresa de la sala Euterpe se proposa donar, alternant amb les projeccions cinematogràfiques, representacions d'obres líriques-dramàtiques de gran espectacle.
>
> Desitgem a l'empresa que el bon gust la guiï i que l'èxit coroni els seus esforços."
>
> Bages ciutat 1 (02/12/1909), p. 3.

Per una banda, donava continuació a l'activitat de l'edifici del teatre Euterpe i, per altra, va suposar la continuació de la sala Montserrat que havia aturat la seva activitat en acabar la temporada anterior a l'estiu.

La sala Euterpe, llavors, tornava a replegar els mateixos actors i autors que havien estat involucrats a la sala Montserrat. Entre el repartiment destaca la nena Agneta García, a més de les Sres. Laffitte i Piqué i dels Srs. Pons, Font, Planas, Tañá, Garcia i els germans Santamaria. Entre els autors, destaquen, també col·laboradors de la sala Montserrat, el compositor Iscle Tomàs i el dramaturg Marc Miravitllas, qui, a més, s'encarregava de donar veu a les pel·lícules. La sala Euterpe era l'únic cinematògraf parlat de Manresa, que a més ho feia en català, seguint el mètode patentat per Lluís Graner a la sala Mercè de tenir actors al fossat de l'escenari parlant per sobre de la pel·lícula.

A més, una de les visions musicals representades provenia del repertori de la sala Montserrat. Diada de reis havia estat estrenada al gener de 1909 a la sala Montserrat i va ser represa el gener de 1910 a la nova sala Euterpe, probablement compartint la mateixa escenografia de la original que representava l'interior de la seu de Manresa, pintada per Francisco Cuixart.

Altres visions musicals estrenades a la sala Euterpe són Lo palau de l'enveja, que inclou una pregària amb música i un follet (cosa que indica el seu caràcter religiós i moralitzant) i La mort de l'escolanet (lletra basada, al igual que la versió de la sala Mercè, en el poema de Jacint Verdaguer).

Pels programes de mà que se'n conserven, veiem que la sala, a més d'una variada i atractiva oferta de projeccions cinematogràfiques (parlades, a color, de llarga durada, etc.), comptava amb un quintet musical que oferia interludis musicals i representava altres gèneres de comèdia musical i sarsuela. Alguns dels títols anunciats, per exemple, són les sarsueles De Girona al polo Nord, en un acte amb un cor de nenes, ¡Viva mi niña! o Els pastorets nous, de Joaquim Estebanell, estrenats el 1903 al Círcol Manresà:

"Sala Euterpe.— En els mateixos dies [les festes de Nadal] feren en cada sessió Els pastorets nous, que cridaren molt l'atenció per lo ben representats."

La Escena catalana 169 (01/01/1910), p. 7.

"Sala Euterpe

Per al pròxim diumenge, després d'un escollit programa de pel·lícules, se posarà en escena en cada sessió la divertida sarsuela ¡Viva mi niña!"

Bages ciutat 72 (25/02/1910), p. 3.

"Sala Euterpe.— També l'empresa d'aquest favorescut teatre no perdona gestos i sacrificis per a que el públic en surti lo millor satisfet possible.

La sarsuela que s'hi representà ¡Viva mi niña! obtingué un èxit sorollós al que contribuïren la interpretació magistral de la senyora Lafitte i demés actors que la secundaren acertadament.

Mereix tota mena d'elogis la direcció de la sala Euterpe."

Bages ciutat 75 (01/03/1910), p. 2.

Il·lustració 158: Programa de la sala Euterpe per al 15 de gener de 1910, anunciant la sarsuela De Girona al polo Nord. [Filmoteca de Catalunya].

La sala Euterpe, però, no tindria una vida gaire llarga. Inaugurada al desembre de 1909, va oferir temporada d'hivern i a l'abril de 1910 tenim les últimes notícies de la seva activitat. Destaca com una de les seves últimes activitats, si no va ser directament l'acte de clausura, la visita itinerant de la companyia de Teatre Líric Català provinent de Barcelona dirigida per Joaquim Viñas i Maria Morera:

> "Sala Euterpe.— Ha treballat en aquest teatre per les festes de Pasqües la companyia de Teatre Líric Català, dirigida per en Joaquim Viñas i la Maria Morera, representant amb extraordinari èxit La flor tardana, L'alegria que passa, La reina vella, La reina del cor i La festa major."
>
> La Escena catalana 182 (02/04/1910), p. 6.

No se'n torna a saber res de la sala fins que un any després tornen a reobrir-la recuperant el nom previ de "saló de Novetats".

Palau de l'enveja, El [176]

Comèdia lírica d'espectacle en 5 quadres.

Representada el 05/12/1909 i el 08/12/1909.

Lletra d'autor anònim.

Música d'Iscle Tomàs.

Escenografia d'autor desconegut.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Com anunciàvem ans d'ahir, demà tindrà lloc la inauguració del nou cinematògraf Sala Euterpe, amb un interessant i variat programa de pel·lícules i l'estrena de la comèdia lírica d'espectacles El palau de l'enveja, obra que segurament obtindrà un gran èxit, doncs l'empresa no ha plangut gastos per a presentar-la amb tota magnificència de decorat, vestuaris, cor i orquestra.

En el propi local i per a major comoditat del públic s'hi ha instal·lat un cafè, qual servei anirà a càrrec del cafeter D. Josep Tarrés, propietari de l'acreditada Cervecería del Comercio."

Bages ciutat 3 (04/12/1909), p. 3.

"MANRESA.— Sala Euterpe.— Amb l'estrena de l'artística producció lírica en un acte i cinc quadros, El palau de l'enveja, van obrir-se les portes d'aquest teatre al públic.

L'autor del llibre (qual nom amaga) ens demostrà una vegada més el seu gust artístic i literari, que en res desmereix a les altres produccions que ha escrit i hem vist representades.

L'autor de la partitura es el nostre compatrici distingit en Iscle Tomàs, qui amb molt acert ha anat combinant els diferents nombres de música, estant acertadíssim en la pregària i en el cor d'en Pere Botero.

En tan bona ocasió felicitem als dos joves autors i els desitgem prosperitat en la carrera que s'han emprès, i que prompte poguem tornar a saborejar altra obra de tan bon gènere.

[176] Basat en la rondalla de les calderes d'en Pere Botero. Sortiria el personatge d'en Banyeta i els números musicals d'un cor de follets i d'una pregària.

També donem l'enhorabona a les actrius senyoretes Laffitte i Piqué, i als actors senyors Garcia, Santamaria (F. i J.), Tanya i Font, i al cor de nens i nenes. I per fi també felicitem a l'empresa pel bon gust i sacrifici que ha de fer per portar a l'escena obres tan selectes, encara que petites, però de bon gust. [...]

"Sala Euterpe.— El dia 5 va inaugurar-se aquest nou teatre cinematògraf, debutant-hi els antics artistes de la desaparescuda sala Montserrat. Representaren una bonica obreta lírica en un acte i cinc quadros, titulada Lo palau de l'enveja. Les senyoretes Laffitte i Piqué, recolliren molts aplausos cantant la «pregària».

Al sortir en escena el senyor Garcia, fou objecte en cada sessió d'una estrepitosa ovació. Els germans Santamaría, també foren felicitats per son artístic treball, i igualment el senyor Tañá, en el paper de «Banyeta» que feu riure molt.

En Planas, molt bé, i en Font molt fluixet, notant-se-li, però, bona voluntat. La nena Agneta García, molt celebrada. En resum, el públic en sortí contentíssim i molt més encara per ésser l'únic cinematògraf que es parlen les pel·lícules, i en català, que ho fa magistralment el jove Marc Miravitllas."

Mort de l'escolanet, La

Visió lírica-dramàtica en 3 quadres.

Estrenada el 19/12/1909.

Lletra de Marc Miravitllas i Solà[177].

Música d'autor desconegut.

Escenografia de Joan Coma.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Sala Euterpe.— En aquest teatre hem tingut el gust de veure una nova producció de la eixerida i pulcra ploma del celebrat escriptor en Marc Miravitllas Solà, que, per la qual, dit autor s'ha fet mereixedor de grans aplaudiments i felicitacions. L'obra a què ens referim és una visió líric-dramàtica montserratina, denominada La mort de l'escolanet, la qual està molt ben traçada i fruint-hi la bona literatura, sobresortint algunes escenes plenes d'una ardidesa sentimental. Els aplaudiments no escassejaren i, a precs del públic, a totes les representacions es tingué d'aixecar repetides vegades el teló i autor, actors i pintor reberen les més afectuoses mostres de consideració, del públic que havia jutjat sos treballs i rebin des d'aquestes humils columnes la nostra més sincera enhorabona.

"Sala Euterpe (Manresa)

La mort de l'escolanet*.— Visió lírica-dramàtica en un acte i tres quadros, original de Marc Miravitlles i Solà.

Després de llarg temps de no veure cap obreta nova d'aquest novell autor, diumenge passat tingué lloc l'estrena d'una hermosa visió que fou molt celebrada i aplaudida, sobretot el final del segon quadro, que és d'una plasticitat sorprenent; el tercer quadro arrencà entusiastes aplaudiments de l'auditori en cada sessió per l'hermosíssima decoració deguda al renombrat pintor-escenògraf en Joan Coma, jove artista dels que prometen molt. També foren ovacionats els intèrprets: la senyoreta Laffitte i els joves senyors Pons, Font, Planas i Garcia, aquest últim feu un "sepulturer" perfectament bé.

El noiet Francisco Mas, encarregat del protagonista "Sau" fou objecte en cada sessió, en l'escena que moria, de llarguíssims i calurosos aplausos, rebent moltes felicitacions de tots els seus coneguts. En resum: l'obreta fou un nou èxit pel seu autor."

La Escena catalana 168 (25/12/1909), p. 4.

"MANRESA.— Sala Euterpe.— Les últimes representacions han estat de les obres Lo pagès de l'olla, Els pastorets nous i l'estrena de la visió lírica-dramàtica en un acte i tres quadros, original del jove manresà Marc Miravitllas, titulada La mort de l'escolanet. Com sigui que es tracta d'una obreta d'un de nostres més apreciats companys no hi farem cap critica, ens limitarem a reproduir lo que en digué el diari local Bages ciutat:

> «L'obreta del senyor Miravitllas, inspirada en una magnífica poesia de l'immortal Jacinto Verdaguer, denota en el seu autor certa traça i disposició per al cultiu de l'art dramàtic i en conjunt bon xic ben feta, si bé resultaria molt més arrodonida si els dos primers quadres se fonguessen en un, doncs que en tots dos s'hi desarrolla la mateixa acció. A pesar d'això, des de la primera escena es fa interessant i s'escolta amb gust.
>
> El sentimentalisme de l'obreta entrà de dret al cor del públic i aquest aplaudí llargament al final de cada representació d'acte, demanant a l'autor que es presenti en escena a rebre els aplausos.
>
> Se distingiren en el desempenyo de l'obra el nen encarregat del paper d'escolanet i molt especialment el popular actor Garcia, que estigué molt just de to i caràcter en son paper d'enterramorts. La senyora Laffitte i demés contribuïren al bon conjunt de la obra.
>
> La decoració nova de l'últim quadro, obra de l'acreditat pintor manresà en Joan Coma, representant una fondalada de les muntanyes de Montserrat, és de molt bon efecte i sigué molt justament celebrada i aplaudida.»"

TORRE DOMÈNECH
(Olot, 1906)

Documentació de la temporada d'estiu 1906 de la torre Domènech:
visions musicals com a iniciativa particular.

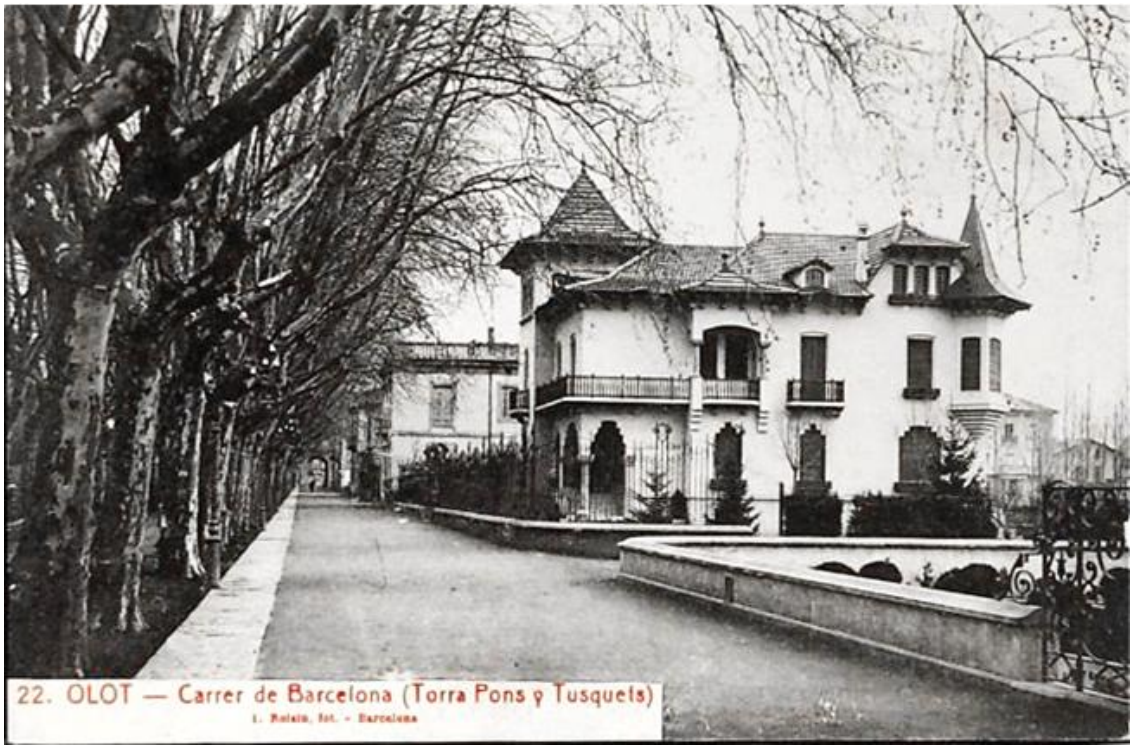
Torre Domènech

La Torre Domènech es tractava del teatre familiar recreatiu que la família Domènech Rouret havia instal·lat a la torre del seu domicili al passeig de Barcelona, eixample d'Olot amb cases senyorials d'estiueg. La iniciativa teatral estava dirigida per Josep Domènec Rouret, propietari de la casa-torre, amb la col·laboració del seu germà, Manel Domènec Rouret.

Manel Domènec solia publicar poesies i fragments dels seus textos al diari de Camprodon Font Nova, signats des de Barcelona. Tot i això, tenia força contacte amb les comarques gironines. Les seves obres Un fracàs!, monòleg còmic de 1900 en 1 acte, i Los amors de l'Elvira o L'aprenent nou. Manel Domènec Rouret, de 1901, havien estat publicats a Girona. L'autor visitaria Olot als estius per organitzar les temporades teatrals a la torre familiar, on s'hi encarregaria dels muntatges escenogràfics.

El mateix diari Font Nova publica un fragment de Manel datat de l'abril de 1906 de La rondalla de l'avi, visió musical que envia a la sala Mercè i que, tot i anunciar-se com a estrena de la propera temporada teatral, no s'hi acaba d'estrenar. La música seria de Salvador Bartolí, qui escriuria més endavant la música per a la visió Tal faràs... estrenada a l'agost de 1907 i per a La llar, estrenada al març de 1908 als Espectacles-Audicions Graner.

Aquest interès per les visions musicals mostrat la primavera anterior faria que per a la temporada de teatre familiar de l'estiu de 1906 s'estrenessin a la torre Domènech almenys dues visions musicals: De bon matí i La cova de l'amor, totes dues amb música de Josep Domènec, a més d'alguna altra obra dramàtica. Tot i que la premsa descriu a Josep com a "acreditado autor dramático", no hi ha constància dels seus escrits, i durant aquest estiu només quedarà acreditat com a autor de la música de les visions. Sembla que també estava involucrat en la interpretació de les obres de la torre.



La temporada d'estiu iniciada el 9 de juliol de 1906 presenta la seva última funció el 15 de setembre del mateix any, donant per tancada l'experiència teatral dels Domènec Rouret:

> "Según acaba de participarnos un amigo nuestro, el acreditado autor dramático D. José Domènech Rouret, con la función representada el día 15 del finido septiembre en el teatro de su casa torre de Olot, se cortó la coleta del arte escénico.
>
> Lamentamos la determinación del artista, máxime cuando, por encontrarse en la plenitud de su vida, la representación de sus papeles hacía las delicias de cuantos los presenciaban."
>

"Des d'Olot

El teatre que el Sr. Domènech posseeix en sa torre del carrer de Barcelona, inaugurà la temporada el 9 del corrent posant-se en escena la joguina A l'altre barri i la visió musical en un quadro, lletra d'en Torner i música d'en Joseph Domènech, De bon matí.

Va presentar-se aquesta obra amb tota propietat de detalls, puig se va estrenar una decoració del jove M. Domènech, que combinada amb to de llum, feia molt bon efecte.

El Sr. Domènech (Josep) presentà alguns jocs de mans del seu repertori, que els feu força nets, mereixent els aplausos de la distingida concurrència. [...]

PORTFOLIÒGRAF
(Barcelona, 1906/07)

Salons barcelonins en imitació a la sala Mercè:
Documentació de les visions musicals estrenades durant la temporada 1906/07.

Portfoliògraf

El saló Portfoliògraf va ser inaugurat el 23 de desembre de 1906. Instal·lat al número 14 del carrer Vergara (fent cantonada amb la plaça de Catalunya), davant del teatre Eldorado, la seva activitat va ser principalment de cinematògraf, amb actuacions puntuals d'artistes de varietats. Els dijous el saló organitzava els dies de moda per als nens, i del seu personal coneixem que Miquel Vallcorba i Ballesteros (Barcelona , 1875 - Cardona, 1962) feia de projeccionista de l'aparell cinematogràfic.

Les últimes setmanes de maig de 1907, el saló va anunciar a la premsa un "nou espectacle", que serien les visions musicals, de les quals se'n van estrenar tres nous títols abans de clausurar la temporada. La companyia d'actors encarregats de les seves representacions tenien com a primer actor a Enric Guitart i estava formada pels senyors Ferrer i Rodríguez i las senyores Gotarrodona i Piqué, a més de la nena Guitart.

Entre maig i juny de 1907 s'hi estrenen tres noves visions musicals, totes elles escrites per compositors que prèviament havien col·laborat amb els Espectacles-Audicions Graner (i que posteriorment ho tornaran a fer): Mansuet (amb música de Celestí Sadurní), La cova del mar i Vetlla d'amor (ambdues amb música de Narcisa Freixas).

Les entrades per a la primera d'elles, composta per 4 quadres, van oferir-se a 75 cèntims les de preferència i a 40 les generals. Les següents visions musicals, de més breu durada, oferien les seves entrades a 50 cèntims les de preferència i a 25 les generals.

El 4 de juliol s'anuncia una "breu" pausa de les representacions per preparar els títols de la nova temporada, dels quals ja havien anunciat en assaig el de La dona catalana. Tot i això, després de Vetlla d'amor no torna a haver-hi notícies de la reobertura de la sala i, quan comença la següent temporada 1907/08, trobem als actors de les visions musicals del saló Portfoliògraf integrats com a nous membres de la companyia dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner al teatre Principal.

La sobtada clausura del saló Portfoliògraf podria estar causada per les ordenances de l'ajuntament de Barcelona, que al voltant d'aquestes dates va endurir la normativa de sales d'espectacles pel perill d'incendi i que va acabar prohibint les representacions teatrals a les sales de cinematògraf, com va passar amb el cas de la sala Mercè poc després.

Cal destacar, en aquest context, el cas de la sala Frederic Soler. L'èxit de la sala Mercè fa aflorar, tant per Barcelona com per altres ciutats catalanes, salons que imiten el seu model de sessions cinematogràfiques a baixos preus amb breus representacions escèniques al final, especialment dirigits al públic infantil o amb la participació de nens a escena.

La mateixa setmana que obria el Portfoliògraf obria també, el dia 22 de desembre de 1906, la sala Frederic Soler a la Ronda de Sant Pau, número 67, davant dels Escolapis. La sala tenia una oferta semblant: sessions cinematogràfiques, pel·lícules a color, breus concerts... I va compartir també un destí semblant, quan va ser tancada el 2 de novembre de 1907 per ordenança municipal del governador.

> "En la sala Frederich Soler, amén de otras deficiencias, se notó que la anchura de las filas de las butacas no es la reglamentaria, la cámara de proyecciones del cinematógrafo carece de la protección necesaria, las salidas son escasas y se ha construido un escenario y cuartos de pésimas condiciones. En vista de todo esto, el gobernador ha ordenado la clausura del local."
> El Diluvio 307 (03/11/1907), ed. matí, p. 11.

Durant els mesos que va estar oberta, la sala va oferir sessions amb teatre líric infantil en català, però el seu repertori estava format per sarsueles i obres còmiques, no visions musicals. Tot i això, la iniciativa imitava directament el model de la sala Mercè i fins i tots els nens integrants de la seva companyia s'hi incorporaren motivats pel que veien a l'escenari dirigit per Lluís Graner.

> "[...] La [Carme] Buixadós fou, de molt nena, entusiasta concurrenta a la sala Mercè, aleshores que en Graner hi havia combinat unes petites representacions teatrals (conegudes amb el nom de quadros, visions musicals, etc.). Atreien tant a la futura comedianta aquells espectacles que sol·licità permís per intervenir-hi, mal fos sinó com a comparsa, entre els diminuts artistes. Conseguida l'autorització, pogué satisfer son desig. I ja els intel·ligents que la vegeren treballar en aquestes condicions endevinaren en ella veritables dots d'artista teatral.
> A catorze anys debutà la Buixadós, formant part d'una companyia infantil a la sala Frederic Soler, avui desapareguda, que era situada a la Ronda de Sant Pau i no fou una altra cosa que una imitació de la Mercè. [...]"
>
> La Escena catalana 295 (01/06/1912), p. 8.

Tant la sala Frederic Soler com el saló Portfoliògraf són clars exemples que, durant la temporada 1906/07, van intentar imitar i estendre l'exitós model recreatiu iniciat per Lluís Graner a la sala Mercè per la resta de la ciutat de Barcelona. Totes tres, impulsores del repertori líric infantil en llengua catalana, van acabar patint les conseqüències de la burocràcia de l'ajuntament, que va forçar la seva clausura per motius de seguretat. Al rerefons, però, també hi havia veus que criticaven la competència deslleial que feien els cinematògrafs als teatres organitzant representacions en viu, i sorgien crítiques en contra del treball infantil i dels salons que buscaven un profit econòmic de la intervenció de nens i nenes en escena.

"Mansuet.— Llegenda d'espectacle, en quatre quadros, lletra de Joan Molas Valverde, música del Mtre. Sadurní. No sabem per quin fi està escrita aquesta petita producció teatral (?). El sol fet d'enamorar-se l'autor d'un assumpte tan manosejat demostra una inexperiència en tot lo que es refereix a espectacle teatral, que s'accentua més al sentir l'esgarrifosa prosa amb què s'ha escrit aquesta visió a quina obra s'hi ha posat música sense motiu justificat i s'ha presentat amb decorat d'Urgellès a fi de que es destaquin més les poques condicions del drama.

En resum, produccions com el Mansuet fan molt poc favor a la literatura catalana. No parlem de l'execució per respecte a l'Enric Guitart."

"La cova del mar.— Visió teatral en un acte, de R. Nogueras Oller, música de Narcisa Freixas.

És una llàstima que havent-hi empresaris disposats a pintar decorat i no escatimar gastos d'indumentària, etc., surtin llibretistes que, com en Nogueras Oller, amb talent per fer quelcom de profit, s'engiponin obretes tan insubstancials i poc inspirades com La cova del mar.

Aquesta espècie de timo (diguem-ho així) que inconscientment estan fent alguns autorets a la sala Mercè ha fet escola i s'eixampla per Barcelona amb onada amenaçadora, que per nostra part procurarem aplacar-la i allunyar el públic dels llocs on se representin a fi de que no se valgui de menys el teatre català.

Vetlla d'amor

Producció lírica / quadret líric en 2 quadres.

Representada del 22/06/1907 al 03/07/1907.

Lletra de Joan Molas Valverde.

Música de Narcisa Freixas.

Escenografia de Fèlix Urgellès.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Portfoliògraf. Mañana se estrenará en este favorecido salón de la calle de Vergara la producción lírica en dos cuadros que lleva por título Vetlla d'amor, escrita por el joven y distinguido escritor Juan Molas Valverde, y puesta en música por la celebrada compositora catalana D.ª Narcisa Freixas. Para que la presentación de esta obra sea tan acertada y tan inmejorable como la de las anteriores, el escenógrafo Sr. Urgellès ha pintado, para ella, dos bellas decoraciones.

El empresario de Portfoliògraf está, pues, en vigilias de un nuevo y merecido éxito."

La Publicidad 4022 (21/06/1907), p. 4.

"Portfoliògaf.— Vergara, 14 (cantonada plaça de Catalunya).— Avui, dissabte, a les nou i mitja del vespre.— Estrena de la producció lírica en 2 quadros Vetlla d'amor, lletra d'en Joan Molas Valverde, música de Narcisa Freixas.— Dues decoracions noves d'Urgellès.— Cinematògraf.— Preus: Entrada general, 25 cèntims. Preferència, 50 cèntims."

Diario de Barcelona 173 (22/06/1907), p. 7398.

"Un nou acert i un nou èxit per a l'empresa de Portfoliògraf constituirà sens dubte el quadret líric Vetlla d'amor, estrenat anit en aquell elegant saló. L'acció de l'obreta, sentimental, se desenrotlla entre pescadors, essent la vida i llenguatge d'aquests i l'ambient marinesc molt justa i artísticament descrits per l'autor de la lletra, don Joan Molas Valverde.

La distingida compositora, donya Narcisa Freixas, ha posat a l'obreta unes il·lustracions musicals ben harmonitzades, distingint-se especialment una elegantíssima cançó marinera.

L'escenògraf, senyor Urgellès, ha compost per a Vetlla d'amor unes decoracions plenes de color i de realitat, especialment la del segon quadro, que li valgué l'ovació del públic."

El Poble català 493 (23/06/1907), p. 2.

"Ha estat un èxit de debò la Vetlla d'amor, en dos quadros, lletra d'en Joan Molas Valverde, música de Dª Narcisa Freixas.

En Molas Valverde sent amb intensitat les situacions dramàtiques i exposa sòbriament amb delicadesa les diverses situacions sense violentar ni falsejar els personatges, sinó que els manté en el just medi. Quan logri fer-los parlar, no amb llenguatge de poeta, sinó amb el propi de cada un, les seves produccions no tindran res que envejar.

La música té aquell aire popular que tan bé sap donar a ses composicions la distingida senyora Freixas. Hi ha un cor de pescadors que és una preciositat.

Les decoracions de l'Urgellès, precioses, especialment la del quadro segon, efecte de llum sobre el mar. Fou molt aplaudit.

El públic va fer sortir a l'autor a les taules."

Preus: Entrada general, 25 cèntims. Preferència, 50 cèntims."

Diario de Barcelona 177 (26/06/1907), p. 7546.

"Vetlla d'amor.— Producció lírica en dos quadros, lletra de Joan Molas Valverde, música de Narcisa Freixas. És un quadret digne de veure's; ho confessem amb gust, aquesta vegada ens ha satisfet el Sr. Molas i ens han agradat els actors, el músic (la música) i damunt de tot, l'escenògraf, dugues precioses decoracions del mestre Urgellès que produeixen un hermós efecte.

És Vetlla d'amor un quadret que es porta assumpto, que si bé no té res de transcendental, en canvi manté l'interès a l'espectador. La part literària està ben cuidadeta, i el diàleg, encara que no és el típic dels personatges, té color i un aire marinesc que encaixa amb la gent de mar que el juga. La música també mereix lloança i amb gust felicitem a l'autora. Els artistes senyors Ferrer i Rodríguez i las Sres. Gotarrodona i Piqué, molt ajustats, com també la nena Guitart."

TEATRE DEL PATRONAT DE L'OBRER
(Tarragona, 1907–10)

Documentació de la importació de visions musicals de la sala Mercè i catalogació de la implantació del gènere amb obres noves.

Teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer de Tarragona

La influència dels espectacles barcelonins dirigits per Lluís Graner va començar a arribar a Tarragona al desembre de 1906, primer amb la instal·lació d'un aparell de cinematògraf que va fer possible que el patronat s'inclogués en el circuit de pel·lícules de la sala Mercè:

> "El Patronato del obrero ha adquirido ya los aparatos para instalar un cinematógrafo en su espacioso local. Sabemos de buena tinta que las máquinas y aparatos adquiridos son de lo más moderno que se conoce y que la instalación de ellos corre a cargo del inteligente industrial Sr. Clanchet.
>
> El Patronato del obrero se ha puesto de acuerdo con el Sr. Graner y se exhibirán las mismas películas que en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Parece que solo celebrarán sesiones los jueves y los domingos."
> Diario de Tarragona (11/12/1906), p. 1.

La temporada de primavera (febrer-juny) de 1907 va suposar l'arribada també de les visions musicals, impulsades pel prevere Jaume Bofarull, qui va col·laborar a més com a autor. Per a aquesta temporada principalment es van portar al teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer de Tarragona obres estrenades a la sala Mercè, que s'adaptaven a les condicions del teatre i a l'agrupació musical amb què hi comptaven. A més, es presentaven també en sessions conjuntes amb projeccions cinematogràfiques, que s'organitzaven els diumenges, amb quatre sessions per dia.

L'activitat del Patronat Obrer no es va quedar, però, en una simple itinerància com a part del circuit de la sala Mercè, sinó que la recepció inicial es va intentar consolidar important el gènere i estrenat noves produccions pròpies en un intent de consolidar el gènere de les visions musicals a Tarragona.

Cap a finals de temporada, a les acaballes de maig, es va estrenar la primera visió musical original tarragonina, de la mà de Bofarull al text amb música de mossèn Eudald Serra. Lo pastor i el rei, "rondalla popular adaptada a l'escena", va rebre un fort suport de la crítica i premsa religiosa per importar el gènere de quadres plàstics de suggestió, o visions musicals, a la ciutat de Tarragona.

El Patronat de l'Obrer va editar, almenys, dos llibrets, també amb text de Bofarull, de visions musicals programades per a la següent temporada 1907/08. A més, anuncien a la contraportada una sèrie de "estrenos en preparació per la nova temporada", entre els quals citen els títols de: Lo pirata contrit, quadret dramàtic en 2 quadres; La vetlla dels pastors, idil·li nadalenc en 2 quadres; Lo cornamussaire, quadret líric en 2 quadres; L'Àngelus, visió de naturalesa en 3 quadres i Fra Margenet, llegenda populetana en 2 quadres. És a dir, es preveia consolidar la presència de visions musicals a Tarragona amb una temporada sencera de quadros plàstics musicals de nova creació.

No obstant això, el teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer no va començar la temporada perquè va iniciar la seva reforma sota la direcció de Josep Maria Jujol. Les obres es van allargar des de 1908 fins a 1910, i el projecte de les visions musicals tarragonines va quedar aturat.

Catàleg de visions musicals representades:

Mal rabadà, El

[Original de la sala Mercè.]

Representada del 02/02/1907 al 17/02/1907.

"Las sesiones que celebrará el "Patronato del Obrero" en el día de hoy empezarán a las tres y media de la tarde, continuando dichas sesiones de cinematógrafo a las cinco, seis y siete y media. Por la noche a las nueve menos cuarto se representarán Els pastorets, finalizando con exhibición de varias películas. El notable quinteto que dirige el Sr. Roig ejecutará las siguientes piezas de concierto: Valses euchatée, R. Berger; La boheme, G. Puccini; intermezzo Cavalleria rusticana, Mascagni.

Próximamente se estrenará el cuadro Lo mal rabadà, que será presentado como en la sala Mercè de Barcelona."

"Hoy se estrenará en el teatro del Patronato obrero la grandiosa instalación eléctrica con el cuadro Lo mal rabadà que tanto éxito tuvo en la sala Mercè de Barcelona. Hemos asistido al ensayo de dicha obra y no podemos menos que confesar nos ha dejado sorprendidos la magnificencia con que será presentada. El decorado es precioso y de gran efecto y las combinaciones de luz espléndidas y sorprendentes y la música inspiradísima.

El orden de las sesiones será el siguiente: Por la tarde a las cuatro, cinco, seis y siete, en cada una de ellas se proyectarán seis hermosas películas, finalizando con el referido cuadro Lo mal rabadà. Por la noche a las nueve y media, ocho películas y el citado cuadro."

La Cruz 1617 (02/02/1907), p. 2.

"En el Patronato

De veras interesantes resultaron los espectáculos que se dieron ayer en aquel centro. Las películas cinematográficas llamaron poderosamente la atención, pero de un modo especial la llamó el cuadro Lo mal rabadà que el público aplaudió calurosamente cuantas veces se ejecutó. Es cosa realmente original y atractiva en grado sumo: las decoraciones, los juegos de luz, los trajes, la letra y la música forman un conjunto nuevo, fantástico, admirable. En cada sesión, que duraba una hora, se llenó el salón completamente. Valía la pena, y creemos que hoy, que se repetirá el mismo espectáculo, será la concurrencia, si cabe, mucho mayor."

La Cruz 1618 (03/02/1907), p. 1.

"Todas las sesiones celebradas el domingo en el salón del Patronato contáronse por llenos, habiendo sido extraordinariamente aplaudido el cuadro de gran espectáculo Lo mal rabadà. Tenemos entendido que la Junta se propone sustituir el actual motor por otro de doce caballos de fuerza, a fin de que pueda ser aumentado en el mencionado cuadro el número de lámparas eléctricas hasta 400."

La Cruz 1619 (05/02/1907), p. 2.

"TARRAGONA.— En el «Teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer», alternant amb pel·lícules de cinematògraf, s'ha representat la visió El mal rabadà amb tot luxo de decoracions i demés accessoris, havent agradat molt aquest nou espectacle, el que proporcionà bones entrades en aquests darrers dies de festa."

La Escena catalana 19 (09/02/1907), p. 4.

"En el teatro del Patronato del Obrero habrá hoy sesiones de cinematógrafo a las cuatro, cinco, seis y siete y cuarto, exhibiéndose las siguientes interesantes películas: Consecuencias de la borrachera, Juanito aeronauta, Gran cabalgata en París, Caballos desbocados, Pasión por el billar, Goloso tomado por ladrón, finalizando cada sesión con el cuadro de gran aparato Lo mal rabadà."

La Cruz 1624 (10/02/1907), p. 2.

"En el salón-teatro del Patronato del Obrero habrá hoy sesiones de cinematógrafo a las cuatro, cinco, seis y siete, exhibiéndose varias hermosas y variadas películas, representándose al finalizar todas las sesiones el celebrado cuadro de gran espectáculo Lo mal rabadà. Han empezado los ensayos del magnífico cuadro La mort de l'escolà, que será estrenado en breve."

La Cruz 1625 (12/02/1907), p. 2.

"En el Patronato del Obrero, hoy domingo, empezarán las funciones a las cuatro en punto de la tarde, a las seis y la última a las siete y cuarto, exhibiéndose hermosas películas, entre las cuales llamará poderosamente la atención la titulada Festes catalanes, finalizando cada sesión con el cuadro Lo mal rabadà, que se representará por última vez.

El próximo domingo se pondrá en escena el magnífico cuadro La mort de l'escolà, para el cual se han pintado soberbias decoraciones. El paso y despacho de entradas será por la Rambla (casa Ayné)."

La Cruz 1630 (17/02/1907), p. 2.

Mort de l'escolà, La

[Original de la sala Mercè.]

Representada del 24/02/1907 al 10/03/1907.

 Decoració nova de Cassimir Aymamí.

"Como dijimos, hoy a las tres de la tarde dará una interesante conferencia en el local del Patronato nuestro amigo el Rdo. D. José Gaya.

A las cuatro, cinco, seis y siete habrá sesiones de cinematógrafo, al final de las cuales se representará el hermoso cuadro que tan extraordinario éxito tuvo en la sala Mercè de Barcelona, titulado La mort de l'escolà y para el que se han pintado magníficas decoraciones por el Sr. Aymemí. A fin de evitar esperas y molestias al público se advierte que las sesiones comenzarán puntualmente. La entrada por la rambla de San Juan (casa Ayné)."

"En el Patronato

Fue verdaderamente extraordinario y distinguido el público que asistió el domingo al teatro del Patronato del Obrero con objeto de presenciar la función de cinematógrafo que con el funcionamiento del nuevo motor, del que hablamos el otro día, ha mejorado notablemente.

Todas las películas presentadas agradaron a la concurrencia, pero de una manera particular la hermosísima De Havre a Nueva York. Después de la primera sesión tuvo lugar el estreno en esta ciudad del precioso cuadro Lo bon escarceller, que proporcionó ocasión a los inteligentes de saborear la inspirada música del maestro Lambert.

Las decoraciones de los artistas tarraconenses Sres. Vallvé y Aymamí son de mucho efecto, y en la ejecución de la obrita pusieron de relieve sus envidiables facultades los sres. Antonio Martorell, Luis Güell y Combalia, que fueron muy aplaudidos. De la orquesta, bajo la batuta del amigo Sr. Roig, nada hay que decir, así como del coro de niños de la sección dramática, que llenó su cometido de una manera admirable. Nuestro aplauso a todos."

"Lo Pastor i el Rei

Aixís se titula una obreta literària-musical de Mn. Jaume Bofarull i Mn. Eudald Serra, primera manifestació d'un gènere escènic nou en Tarragona.

Embafats de les corrents de la moderna literatura dramàtica, sobresaturats de les impressions massa fortes i repetides dels gèneres escènics dominants, aqueixa nova forma dramàtica que constitueix la visió musical, inspirada en el terreny poc explorat de la llegenda, ha vingut en alguns centres de cultura artística a refrescar la imaginació fatigada i a ablanir la tirantor del nostre sistema nerviós. Res més conforme per altra banda amb l'esperit del drama musical modern que aqueixa mostra de simplicitat aparent, d'acció interior, d'ausència de tot element convencional en el teatre que aquesta nova forma de producció escènica, que amb acert ha començat a popularitzar l'intel·ligent artista empresari de Barcelona, don Lluís Graner. Ella ve a ésser una feliç conjunció de la idea qui ha inspirat el veritable drama musical amb un ensaig d'impressionisme escènic de bona llei.

Resumim en dos mots la impressió de l'obra estrenada el diumenge en la sala d'espectacles del Patronat de l'Obrer. Bé s'ho val, —i molt més encara que tot lo que poga'm dir-ne,— l'interès demostrat pels organitzadors de dotar a Tarragona d'un espectacle cultíssim i presentat amb la cooperació de tots els elements necessaris.

L'assumpto de la rondalla Lo pastor i el rei és prou conegut. Se tracta de la rondalla de les tres preguntes, que el pulcre escriptor tarragoní Mossèn Jaume Bofarull ha escenificada en lo possible i ha vestida amb gales, —no direm de la poesia, car la rondalla se la porta tota,— però amb les d'una versificació fluida i distingida. El pastor, travestit amb els hàbits del Pare Abat del monestir on l'acció s'escau, contesta enginyosament a les tres preguntes del rei superb. Si vol saber lo que un rei val, el pastor li contesta que no valdria tant com Jesús, qui fou venut per trenta diners i, per tant, bé podrien valuar en tintinou un rei de la terra. El rei segueix preguntant:

I un cavall, pel món recorre, quan hi estaria a tot vol?

I contesta l'abat fingit:

[181] El títol resulta erroni en aquesta publicació.

Vint-i-quatre hores, si corre
lo cavall com corre lo sol.

I quan per darrera pregunta, demana al rei que li encerti el pensament, obté de l'astut pastor la següent resposta:

Pensau vós que la conversa
teniu ara amb Pare Abat...

I afegeix després:

Qui conversa amb Vós a esta hora
no és l'Abat, que és un pastor

tot descobrint sa vestimenta veritable.

El distingit mestre D. Eudald Serra, Pvre. de Barcelona, ha compost per a aquesta obra una escaienta música, de la qual se distingeix per son caràcter el cant del pastor al començament, encertada imitació de l'estil popular.

I perquè resultés acabada aqueixa unió de totes les belles arts que requereixen aitals espectacles, s'ha cuidat d'una manera especialíssima la part escenogràfica. Les dues decoracions que s'han pintades expressament per l'obra són ben notables. La del primer quadro, representant un claustre gòtic, amb son jardí al centre, deguda al Sr. Aymamí, és bella i atraienta per sos tons clars i son dibuix; recorda tot seguit els tan celebrats quadros de jardins d'un pintor català. La segona és un acabat model d'escenografia, i en ella el molt expert Sr. Vallvé, son autor, segueix les petjades artístiques dels grans mestres d'aquest ram, preocupant-se especialment de l'espai i els diferents termes del quadro; és d'una excel·lent perspectiva que realment enamora, i faria un efecte potser més just si no tan intens, amb menys abús de la llum verda que hi projecten les bateries. Aqueixa magistral decoració representa una ala mural del claustre del monestir on té lloc l'acció i, lo mateix que l'anterior, li ha servit de model el bellíssim claustre de Santes Creus.

Res hem de dir dels medis portats a cap per la deguda representació i interpretació de l'obra, si no és dir que s'ha fet tot lo possible perquè resultés a una altura envejable entre els espectacles d'aquesta mena, i s'ha tret tot el partit possible dels elements amb què pot comptar una població com la ciutat de Tarragona.

El Patronat de l'Obrer d'aqueixa ciutat ha demostrat una vegada més l'afany de cultura artística que anima sos directors i l'encertada direcció en les coses d'esplai que proporciona a sos socis i als tarragonins tots. Pel bon nom de la ciutat i el desvetllament de son amor a l'art veritable, és d'esperar que perdurin en ella espectacles de tan difícil adaptació, com el que ressenyam, i de que amb tant èxit acaben de dotar-la els infatigables capdavanters d'aqueixa hermosa obra social, representada pel sosteniment i direcció del Patronat.

"La velada del Patronato

Ayer, a la hora anunciada, tuvo lugar este acto, destinado a celebrar la inauguración de las dependencias habilitadas para uso de la Federación de Asociaciones del Arzobispado. Ninguno de los que asistieron nos tachará de exagerados si afirmamos que la función resultó brillante sobre las esperanzas de los más optimistas.

El amplio salón de actos, que estaba adornado con plantas tropicales, se llenó de bote en bote de lo más selecto de la ciudad, abundando el elemento femenino, y no pudiendo caber en el interior, tuvo que desbordarse por las habitaciones contiguas. […] Las tribunas estaban completamente llenas de señores sacerdotes y otras caracterizadas personas.

Abierto el acto por el señor Presidente, un quinteto del Maestro Roig ejecutó con la maestría a que nos tiene acostumbrados La bella Galatea, de Suppé. Enseguida el Sr. Ruiz Porta leyó maravillosamente tres breves y hermosas poesías […] y aplaudió a continuación dos audiciones de gramophone dadas por el Sr. Rigau: un solo de La favorita y otro solo chistosísimo que además excitó grandemente la hilaridad de la concurrencia. […]

Terminó la velada con la representación del bellísimo cuadro plástico Lo pastor i el rei, que fue celebrado y aplaudido. […]

[…] En el Patronato del Obrero habrá hoy función de cinematógrafo, de cuatro a ocho, inclusive, representándose al final de cada sesión el hermoso cuadro plástico Lo pastor i el rei."

Reinauguració del teatre del Patronat de l'Obrer

Una vegada acabada la reforma del teatre duta a terme per l'arquitecte Josep Maria Jujol, l'actualment conegut com a teatre Metropol (ubicat a la rambla Nova, 46 de Tarragona), va reprendre la seva activitat a principis de gener de 1910. La reforma va incorporar la instal·lació elèctrica al teatre, que va incorporar il·luminació a la façana i efectes de llum a l'escenari. Les funcions es realitzaven els dissabtes i festius, fent 4 o 5 sessions per dia. La música estava a càrrec del quintet de corda del mestre Roig i els actors provenien del Quadro Catòlic-Líric-Dramàtic del Patronat de l'Obrer.

Les primeres produccions que van estrenar el nou escenari van ser, precisament, les noves visions musicals de Jaume Bofarull, de les quals es va publicar el text al 1907, però que no es van arribar a estrenar a causa del tancament del teatre. La versió tarragonina de La presó de Lleida, amb música de Daniel Mestres que hauria adaptat la cançó popular homònima, i Lo salamonet de les matines, amb música de Francesc Salvat (que havia escrit també música per a la temporada 1907/08 dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner), es van rescatar per reinaugurar el teatre. A més, es va fer una breu represa d'El mal rabadà, interpretada prèviament al febrer de 1907.

Posteriorment, el teatre no va continuar la línia de les visions musicals, i van substuir-les en cartellera diversos espectacles musicals, de clowns i representacions de teatre parlat.

"Los cuadros plásticos del Patronato del Obrero

El pasado domingo, numerosa concurrencia entre la que se distinguían muchas familias de la buena sociedad tarraconense llenó de bote en bote el amplio y elegantísimo salón-teatro de la benemérita sociedad para admirar, con sin par delectación, la exquisita belleza del cuadro plástico La presó de Lleida, estrenada poco ha con éxito merecido.

Pero algo más merece una visita en el local de espectáculos del Patronato, que constituye desde ahora, por sí solo, una notabilidad artística de nuestra ciudad. [Procedeix a descriure les noves reformes i decoracions del teatre reformat per Jujol.]

Y vamos a la obrita mentada al principio con la que se inauguró, tras múltiples cintas cinematográficas del mejor género, moral y artísticamente hablando, el espléndido local.

La antigua canción popular, con su sentida poesía que incluye un drama íntimo, sobria pero claramente apuntado, ha inspirado a su glosador, nuestro estimado amigo el Rdo. D. Jaime Bofarull, una acción desarrollada en versos de notable fluidez e inspiración; el interés de quien no conozca el final del viejo canto del pueblo y su desenlace se sostienen vivos hasta la última, esclarecedora frase: "que entre els presos hi havia—hi havia l'aimador!" y los sentimientos de cada uno de los personajes—la noble terquedad del Barón en el castigo de los delincuentes, en lucha con el amor entrañable de su hija; la angelical bondad de esta, que "tota ella és una brasa de compassió" moviéndola, en cooperación al inconfeso amor por uno de los presos, al suplicar con todas las ansias de su corazón virginal el perdón anhelado con insistente aguijonear el de su padre; las quejas y lamentos de los emprisionados, la última ruda bondad de los hombres de armas, que la disciplina y el respeto velan… todo conspira a hacer del libreto un dechado de belleza que haya inspirado al reputado maestro don Daniel Mestres sus ilustraciones musicales, verdaderamente soberbias, adaptadas con extrema habilidad a los estados de ánimo que describe.

Como lo están a la obra, avalorándola lo indecible, las magníficas decoraciones del Sr. Alarma. Preludio de su buen gusto es la pintura general del salón, cuyas suaves tonalidades le dan un aire seduciente de delicada riqueza, y la boca del escenario, con el aterciopelado cortinón orlado de oro y ramajes; pero al descorrerse este y aparecer, a la luz crepuscular del anochecer, la terraza del castillo baronial, con la cárcel en segundo [184] En realitat són dos persones diferents que treballen juntes, Salvador Alarma i Miquel Moragas.

término y en lontananza los fosos y contrafuertes encuadrando el paisaje brumoso, ante la singular belleza del conjunto y el cariñoso estudio de los detalles, en especial de los árboles y el dosel trofeado que llenan el primer término, instintivamente las manos se buscan para recompensar, siquiera en algo de lo mucho que merece, la espléndida fantasía y el arte acabado de quien, poniendo a contribución todos los elementos de la escenografía moderna, ha creado aquel ambiente de dulce poesía.

Digna gemela de aquella es la decoración del segundo cuadro, otra terraza del castillo, con el panorama del campo donde cuelgan los ajusticiados, suavemente iluminado por la luna, en el último fondo. Notabilísima, perfecta la iluminación eléctrica. No hay juego de luz como los usados en la obra.

No creemos deber decir más: solo una afirmación y un consejo. La primera, que no hemos visto en los más afamados teatros de Barcelona una presentación como la del Patronato en conjunto y detalle. El segundo, que no quede en Tarragona quien deje de admirarla. Y una felicitación entusiástica a todos.

La Junta directiva del Patronato del Obrero se halla animada de los mejores deseos y procurará corresponder a las atenciones y favores que le dispensan todas clases sociales de nuestra querida ciudad."

La Cruz 2512 (05/02/1910), p. 2.

"En el Patronato del Obrero, a las cuatro de la tarde empezarán las sesiones continuas, en las que además de exhibirse películas nuevas y de gran interés, tomarán parte los célebres clowns Pinta y Harry con su borrego salvaje. Esta atracción, única en su género, ha despertado gran curiosidad en todo el mundo, habiendo recogido los aplausos de los públicos más selectos.

Próximamente se pondrá en escena el hermoso cuadro Lo mal rabadà, letra de Carner, música del maestro Morera y decorado de Moragas y Alarma, completamente nuevo, habiéndose dado mayor amplitud a la citada obra, que no dudamos será del agrado del público.

Están en estudio además los cuatro magníficos oratorios del insigne Perosi, que serán ejecutados a grande orquesta, nutrida masa coral y proyecciones cinematográficas representando las escenas descritas por la música y cantadas por los coros. También se hallan muy adelantados los trabajos para la solemne velada inaugural, cuya fecha no puede precisarse.

La Junta directiva del Patronato del Obrero se halla animada de los mejores deseos y procurará corresponder a las atenciones y favores que le dispensan todas las clases sociales de nuestra querida ciudad."

Heraldo de Tarragona 2093 (06/02/1910), p. 2.

"El hermoso local del Patronato del Obrero se vio anteayer concurridísimo en todas las sesiones, habiendo gustado extraordinariamente el cuadrito Lo mal rabadà, cuya presentación escénica se hizo con gran derroche de arte y lujo."

La Cruz 2520 (15/02/1910), p. 2.

"El elegante y espacioso salón de espectáculos del Patronato del Obrero resultó el domingo pequeño para el numerosísimo público que se congregó en aquel hermoso local con el fin de presenciar las sesiones de cinematógrafo que tuvieron lugar en el mismo, llamando la atención, entre las varias películas que se exhibieron, Las inundaciones de París, pudiendo apreciarse los inmensos desastres que la crecida del Sena ha originado en la Ville Lumière.

Púsose en escena el cuadro lírico Lo mal rabadà, que fue muy del agrado de la selecta concurrencia. La letra de la citada obra es del laureado vate D. José Carner, habiendo escrito una inspirada página musical para la misma el eminente compositor catalán D. Enrique Morera, gustando también mucho el magnífico decorado de los reputados escenógrafos señores Moragas y Alarma."

Heraldo de Tarragona 2100 (15/02/1910), p. 3.

"Patronato Obrero

En obsequio de los oradores que tomarán parte en el mitin contra las escuelas laicas, celebrará esta sociedad mañana domingo, a las diez de la noche, una función que consistirá en la representación de La presó de Lleida, cinematògrafo i Lo mal rabadà, tomando parte el quinteto del Sr. Roig.

A dicho acto solo podrán concurrir los señores oradores, comisiones oficiales y organizadores del mitin y los socios y familias de la mencionada entidad."

SALÓ MONTSERRAT
(Arenys de Mar, 1907–08)

Documentació i catalogació de la temporada de visions musicals infantils al saló Montserrat, instal·lat al Centre Catòlic d'Arenys de Mar.

Saló Montserrat
(Centre Catòlic d'Arenys de Mar)

El saló Montserrat va ser inaugurat el juliol de 1907 com a empresa independent d'espectacles instal·lada dins del Centre Catòlic d'Arenys de Mar. La decoració del saló, que tenia com a principal activitat la projecció cinematogràfica, va ser dissenyada per Marià Castells:

> "Criden l'atenció uns bonics vidres en los que s'hi anuncien les pel·lícules, obra de nostre estimat amic lo distingit i llorejat artista en Mariano Castells i entre los que hi sobrepuja un de simbòlic de la Solidaritat amb los emblemes dels partits que l'integren, i que ha merescut a son autor l'aplauso de tothom".
> La Veu de la Costa (15/09/1907), pp. 7–8.

Al desembre de 1907 van començar al saló Montserrat les visions musicals. Els seus principals promotors van ser Xavier Maimí com a compositor i pianista, i Joan Draper com a escriptor, qui també s'encarregava de comunicar a la premsa les novetats i notícies de la programació.

Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró (1888–1965) , conegut senzillament com a Xavier Maimí, va ser principalment autor de música religiosa, himnes, motets, cants i goigs. Va dirigir el cor de noies de la parròquia de Santa Maria i un dels seus principals llegats va ser la recuperació de la La dansa d'Arenys, projecte que va començar el 1916 i que va concloure l'any 1949 quan l'Esbart Maragall va tornar a ballar la dansa per la Festa Major, des de llavors present sempre en els actes al voltant de la festa de Sant Roc, el 16 d'agost. Maimí, però, es dedicava professionalment al comerç i regia Can Maimí, al número 40 de la Riera del Bisbe Pol, coneguda botiga a Arenys d'articles de terrissa.

Joan Draper i Fossas (1889–1970), per la seva banda, va destacar en la poesia i va ser un activista defensor del catalanisme a través de diversos mitjans periodístics. Va fundar el diari L'Avenir l'any 1907 a Arenys, va formar part de la redacció de La costa de Llevant i va ser col·laborador de La Veu de Catalunya i El correu català entre altres. En el món teatral, més enllà de les visions musicals del saló Montserrat, va estrenar al teatre del Centre Regionalista d'Arenys la rondalla L'amor sempre triomfa (1915) i va publicar la comèdia lírica en tres actes La posada de l'amor (1925) amb Prudenci Bertrana. Juntament amb Xavier Maimí va escriure també l'himne a Sant Zenon, remarcable peça dins de la tradició popular d'Arenys de Mar.

La interpretació musical al saló Montserrat estava a càrrec del quartet La Santa Espina (clara referència al drama líric de Guimerà i Morera recentment estrenat al Principal), del qual sabem que n'era membre Josep Mensa i Fàbregas, qui després també escriuria música per una de les visions musicals estrenades al saló.

De la interpretació dramàtica s'encarregaven nens i joves alumnes o afiliats al centre catòlic, atès que les visions musicals (totes originals) estaven escrites com a obres de teatre infantil. Els involucrats van ser les nenes Cristina Fors, Crusat, Buxadé; els nens Joan Fors, Felip Buxadé, Joaquim Estengre, Joan Bosch; i els joves Llàtzer Mayola, Vicenç Buxadé, Joan Baranger i Salvador Daniel. Alguns eren germans.

L'inici de l'activitat teatral al saló Montserrat té lloc molt poc després de la prohibició barcelonina de fer actuacions escèniques als salons cinematogràfics que va afectar a la sala Mercè. Les primeres obres feien precisament al·lusió o parodiaven títols barcelonins: En Tonet i la Guideta presentava en to còmic l'òpera Ton i Guida representada als Espectacles-Audicions Graner, mentre Nit de reis i L'home de la pell de l'os fan al·lusió als títols estrenats per Apel·les Mestres i Enric Morera també al teatre Principal.

Una referència posterior, publicada a l'Antologia d'autors catalans (1925: 6) d'Antoni Ollé i Bertran, indica que Joan Draper i Xavier Maimí, els principals promotors de les visions musicals al saló Montserrat, van estrenar els seus quadros lírics als Espectacles-Audicions Graner, cosa que apuntaria cap a la relació o implicació directa entre l'empresa barcelonina de Graner i el saló Montserrat.

Paral·lelament, a Arenys de Mar havia obert també una nova "sala Mercè" que, copiant el nom de la coneguda sala de Barcelona, pretenia aprofitar-se'n del seu èxit com a crida comercial. Lluís Graner, de fet, després de la seva obertura, va demanar al ministeri pertinent l'exclusivitat del nom per evitar la proliferació de "sales Mercès", la qual cosa li va ser concedida.

L'empresa del saló Montserrat va organitzar representacions de visions musicals només durant la temporada 1907/08, des del desembre de 1907 fins al juliol de 1908. Les funcions tenien lloc només els diumenges en sessions de nit i les obres es representaven normalment només un dia, amb algunes excepcions en què es van fer represes més endavant. Per la següent temporada, la sala oferia només projeccions cinematogràfiques.

Catàleg de visions musicals representades:

Tonet i la Guideta, En [186]

Quadro plàstic / còmic-musical.

Estrenada el 14/12/1907 i represa el 15/03/1908.

Lletra de Francisco de Prats.

Fragments de música del Hansel und Gretel d'Engelbert Humperdinck.

Escenografia de F. Casanovas.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Avui s'estrena el quadro musical arreglat per lo nostre amic en Francisco de Prats, que porta per títol En Tonet i la Guideta, estrenant una decoració original d'en F. Casanovas.

Ja en parlarem."

La costa de Llevant 51[187] (14/12/1907), p, 7.

"En Tonet i la Guideta.— Quadro còmic-musical, lletra de Francisco de Prats i música de l'obra Hansel und Gretel.

Per lo que es desprèn del títol, ja pot comprendre's que és una paròdia de la famosa obra d'en Goethe, que amb tant aplauso s'ha representat en català amb el títol de Ton i Guida.

En l'execució foren aplaudits el nen Joan Bosch, la nena Cristina Fors i el jove Joaquim Estengre, molt ben secundats pel novells artistes Buxadé i Mayola."

La Escena catalana 65 (28/12/1907), p. 4.

[186] Seria una paròdia o versió reduïda del Ton i Guida estrenat al Principal, traducció catalana del Hansel und Gretel d'Humperdinck, fent servir fragments de la música de l'original.
[187] El número següent falta a l'arxiu i no està digitalitzat.

"Saló Montserrat.— Ahir dissabte va organitzar aquesta empresa una funció extraordinària de cinematògraf en què han degut tenir lloc dugues úniques sessions a les 9 i 10 de la nit, exhibint-se la pel·lícula de més de 1.000 metres, Vida, passió, mort i resurrecció de Nostre Senyor Jesucrist, en colors, de la casa Pathé.

Avui diumenge, en les sessions ordinàries se repetirà, representant-se a més i per última vegada l'aplaudit quadro plàstic En Tonet i la Guideta."

La Veu de la Costa 32 (15/03/1908), p. 7.

Nit de reis

Quadret líric-musical.

Estrenada el 05/01/1908.

Lletra de Francisco de Prats.

Il·lustracions musicals amb peces d'Eduard Schütt.

Escenografia de Marià Castells.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Demà diumenge s'estrenarà en aquest cinematògraf el quadret musical que porta per nom Nit de Reis, la lletra és deguda a la ploma de nostre volgut company en Francisco de Prats; també s'estrenarà una decoració exprofés feta per l'amic en Marian Castells."

La costa de Llevant 1 (04/01/1908), p. 6.

"Saló Montserrat.— Lo diumenge s'estrenà en aquest cinematògraf el quadret líric musical, original d'en Francisco de Prats, amb música de Schütt, que porta per títol Nit de Reis; l'èxit obtingut a lo primer quadro s'ha repetit ara en l'estreno del segon, tant per la deliciosa música com per la lletra plena de sentiment i finalment l'hermosa decoració feta i projectada per l'amic en Marian Castells, qui s'acredita d'ésser un verdader artista en el difícil art escenogràfic.

L'execució anà a càrrec de l'eixerida nena Cristina Fors, el noi en Felip Buxader, i els joves Llàtzer Mayola, Vicents Buxader, Joan Baranger i Salvador Daniel.

Sala Mercé.— Aquest cinematògraf se veu cada dia més concorregut, degut al preciós sortit de pel·lícules de gran novetat que exhibeix setmanalment."

La costa de Llevant 2 (11/01/1908), p. 7.

Palau del gegantàs, El

Rondalla / quadret líric-musical.

Estrenada el 26/01/1908 i represa el 29/03/1908.

Lletra de Joan Draper i Fossas.

Música de Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró.

Escenografia de Marià Castells i Emili Lloret.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Molt prompte s'estrenarà un nou quadro literari musical, original de nostre volgut amic en Joan Draper, amb música del jove amic en Francesc Maymí."

La costa de Llevant 3 (18/01/1908), p. 7.

"Saló Montserrat.— Demà diumenge s'estrenarà el quadret líric musical, original dels joves Joan Draper i Xavier Maymí, autors de lletra i música respectivament, que porta per títol El palau del gegant. Amb aquest quadro s'estrenarà una decoració d'en Marian Castells."

La costa de Llevant 4 (25/01/1908), p. 6.

"Saló Montserrat.— Dos èxits plegats, l'un la inauguració de les sardanes [festa popular a l'aire lliure], l' altre l'estreno del quadret líric musical en el saló Montserrat titulat Lo palau del gegantàs; tots dos són deguts al jovent del nostre poble, l'un és de molts, quasi de tots els jovens, l'altre és dels amics en Joan Draper i en Xavier Maymí.

Lo palau del gegantàs va ésser un èxit, i és que en ell no se sap què aplaudir, si l'hermosa i correcta lletra, mostra clara de la destresa que nostre company Draper té en la literatura, o la música d'en Maymí, plena de sentiment i melodia, herald anunciador d'un pervindre brillant de l'amic si continua cultivant aquest art, o l'hermosa decoració d'en Castells i en Lloret i finalment l'execució deliciosa d'aquella noieta i d'aquells eixerits bordegassos.

Lo palau del gegantàs va ésser un èxit dels molts que se preparen a aquella casa si en Draper i en Maymí continuen l'un trempant la seva arpa poètica i l'altre harmonitzant-li l'hermosa poesia amb delicioses melodies.

Rebin la més coral felicitació els nostres amics autors, com també els pintors i finalment la nena Cristina Fors, el seu germà, en Felip Buxadé i en Llàtzer Mayola que tan bé interpretaren la bonica obreta del diumenge."

La costa de Llevant 5 (01/02/1908), p. 6.

"El palau del gegantàs. Rondalla adaptada per Pau Draper i el Mtre. Xavier Maymí.

És una obra d'espectacle bastant inspirada i que compleix el seu fi.

Per la mateixa va estrenar-se un esplèndid decorat d'en Marià Castells i n'Emili Lloret, fent una lluïdíssima interpretació de llurs papers el jove Llàtzer Mayola i els nens Cristina, Joan Fors i Felip Buxadé."

La Escena catalana 70 (01/02/1908), p. 8.

"Cinematògrafs.— En el saló Montserrat se representà lo passat diumenge el quadret El palau del gegantàs, que tan èxit obtingué en la seva estrena; el públic que hi acudí fou nombrós.

A la sala Mercè cada dia hi acudeix amb més número el públic, degut a l'estreno de pel·lícules excel·lents i de fi moral que exhibeix."

La costa de Llevant 6 (08/02/1908), p. 5.

"[…] Demà diumenge, reprise d'El palau del gegantàs, que tant d'èxit obtingué en la seva estrena."

La costa de Llevant 13 (28/03/1908), p. 6.

Home de la pell de l'os, L' [188]

Visió musical / qüento.

Estrenada el 08/03/1908.

Lletra de Joan Draper i Fossas.

Música de Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró.

Escenografia de Marià Castells i Emili Lloret.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Demà diumenge en aquest cinematògraf, s'estrenarà la visió musical original d'en Joan Draper amb música de l'actiu pianista en Xavier Maymí, que porta per títol L'home de la pell de l'os, estrenant-se una decoració dels distingits escenògrafs Castells i Lloret.

No dubtem que se veurà plena l'espaiosa sala, ja que no hi ha ningú que resisteixi amb indiferència las produccions dels dos joves autors.

En parlarem."

La costa de Llevant 10 (07/03/1908), p. 6.

"Saló Montserrat (Arenys de Mar)

L'home de la pell de l'os.— Visió, original de Joan Draper, amb música de Xavier Aymamí.

És una bonica producció ben desenrotllada, que fa son efecte i que fou rebuda amb molt aplauso. Les noies Flors, Crusat i Buxadé, els nois Buxadé i Flors, acompanyats dels Srs. Mayola, Estengre i Buixadé, foren molt aplaudits.

S'estrenà una decoració dels Srs. Castells i Lloret."

La Escena catalana 77 (21/03/1908), p. 2.

[188] Podria estar relacionat amb el Joan de l'Os d'Apel·les Mestres i Enric Morera estrenat als Espectacles-Audicions Graner per inaugurar la temporada 1907/08.

"Espectacles.— Saló Montserrat. L'home de la pell d'os és una verdadera producció literària de gran mèrit, un qüento dels antics portat a les taules adornat amb la poesia d'en Draper. La part musical, que n'és autor el jove amic en Xavier Maymí, és de lo més exquisit que s'ha fet.

Les decoracions no acompanyaren del tot al quadret, amb tot no deixaven d'agradar per lo que felicitem als autors.

L'execució fou molt ben interpretada per les xamoses noietes Fors, Crusat i Buxadé, els joves Estengre, Mayola i Buxadé i els nois Fors i Buxadé, a tots nostra més coral felicitació i molt especialment als joves autors de lletra i música, que amb la seva mestria fan passar ratos tan deliciosos a la nostra concurrència que va en el cinematògraf Saló Montserrat.

Per a demà diumenge està anunciat el quadret En Tonet i la Guideta.

Sala Mercè.— Continuen veient-se molt concorregudes les sessions que es donen en aquest cinematògraf degut a l'esplendidés i bon gust amb què exhibeix les pel·lícules."

La costa de Llevant 11 (14/03/1908), pp. 6–7.

Príncep qui s'és enamorat, El

2 quadres.

Estrenada el 25/03/1908.

Lletra de Joan Draper i Fossas.

Música de Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró.
(Números musicals del cant de la cacera i del cant de les donzelles).

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Una vegada era un Rei, que tenia un fill molt aficionat a la cacera; molt enamorat del bosc. Aquest fill, que era príncep (naturalment) un dia perseguint una fera, anant per aquí i per allà, perdut d'esmà, és va estimbar, fent-se un xiribec al cap; la caiguda l'hi hauria portat mals resultats, a no ser una pagesa molt hermosa que a la cuenta entenia en la botànica rural, que el va curar d'aquell xiribec. Fins aquí no hauria passat res, a no ser que, com les dones arreglen una cosa i n'espatllen una altra, n'hi va fer un de més fondo a n'el cor. Així és que ja tenim a n'el príncep enamorat de la pagesa.

Amb aquestos entremitjos, venen els criats que el buscaven, i un que vol manar més que ell, el renya perquè se n'ha anat, i com sap lo de l'enamorament, també el renya, però el príncep pensa que tantes raons, i si formalitzi i tot s'arregla cantant el cant de la cacera que és amb lo que s'acaba el primer quadro.

Arriba el segon després d'haver tocat el quartet musical «La Santa Espina». El Rei està a casa seva, és a dir, al palau, tot ansiós pensant per què tarda tant aquell calavera de príncep, i ni els cants de les donzelles, ni l'humor d'aquell bufón el distreuen; quan tot d'un cop compareix el seu fill i ja tenim l'home alegre. Li parla que es vol casar amb aquella pagesa i ja tenim l'home trist, però a l'últim, a força de precs i promeses, en Llàtzer accedeix deixant amb un pam de nas a n'en Buxader (Vicenç), que és aquell criat, i ja tenim a punt de casar-se a ne l'Estengre convertit en príncep per obra i gràcia d'en Draper amb la Cristina Fors, que encara que pagesa i petita també ja sap que una noia és per un Rei. Alça amigo qui en salt de pagesa a princesa.

Aquesta és l'obreta que en Draper junt amb en Maymí ens donaren a conèixer lo passat dimecres amb el títol d'El príncep qui s'és enamorat. L'èxit ja era previst, essent d'en Draper ja se sap, i més acompanyant-lo en Maymí, autor de les belles il·lustracions musicals del quadret.

Ajuntem a n'el aplauso del públic el nostre més sincer i expressiu. […]

Sala Mercè.— Continua veient-se cada dia més animat aquell cinematògraf, mercès a les precioses i escollides pel·lícules que exhibeix setmanalment.”

La costa de Llevant 13 (28/03/1908), p. 6.

Temptació, La

Visió musical / quadro líric-musical.

Estrenada el 19/04/1908.

Lletra de Josep Granger i París.

Música de Josep Maria Padró.

Escenografia de Marià Castells i Emili Lloret.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— L'empresa d'aquest cinematògraf ens comunica que no faran quadros plàstics fins a la festa després de la Comunió dels nois i noies."

La costa de Llevant 15 (11/04/1908), p. 6.

"Saló Montserrat.— Lo nostre bon amic en Joan Draper ens fa avinent que l'empresa d'aquest cinematògraf ha acordat posar en escena lo dia de Pasqua el quadro líric musical, que ne són autors de lletra i música respectivament lo jove Josep Granger i Paris i en Josep M.ª Padró, portant per títol La temptació. En parlarem."

La costa de Llevant 16 (18/04/1908), p. 6.

"Sala Mercè.— Durant los dies de Pasqua, ens ha presentat l'empresa d'aquest cinematògraf un hermós i escollit programa, lo que feu que es veiés extremadament concorregut.

La temptació.— Així se titula la darrera visió musical estrenada en el saló Montserrat, original, com ja anunciarem, del jove poeta en Josep Granger, amb música del mestre Josep Mª Padró i decorat d'en Castells i en Lloret.

És un treball pulcrament escrit i delicat com tot lo que fa son autor i la música és força inspirada i amb un sabor de la terra que encisa. La interpretació bastant ajustada. Llàstima que fos excessivament curt. Felicitem als joves autors com també als novells i aplaudits actors."

La costa de Llevant 17 (25/04/1908), p. 7.

“Saló Montserrat (Arenys de Mar)

La temptació.— Visió, lletra de Josep Granger, música del mestre Josep Maria Padró.

Esmeradament escrita és aquesta obreta estrenada poc fa, fent gala son autor d’envejables coneixements literaris. La música és inspirada i de caient popular.

La interpretació que es dona a dita obra fou molt arrodonida, contribuint a acabar de fer acceptable la nova producció.”

La Escena catalana 83 (02/05/1908), p. 4.

Fada del bosc, La

Visió musical / rondalla.

Estrenada el 24/05/1908.

Lletra de Joan Draper i Fossas.

Música de Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[Anuncis dels esdeveniments programats per aquest any] Maig: […] En Draper i en Maymí estrenen una altra volta; aquest cop la criatura es diu La fada del bosc. […]"

La costa de Llevant 1 (02/01/1908), p. 7.

"Saló Montserrat.— Demà diumenge s'estrenarà la visió musical La fada del bosc, original de l'amic Draper amb música de l'incansable pianista en Xavier Maymí. En parlarem."

La costa de Llevant 21 (23/05/1908), p. 7.

"Saló Montserrat.— Instruir amb l'exemple; instruir amb l'esbarjo; aquesta és la feina que nostre volgut amic s'ha proposat, en tots los quadrets lírics musicals que fins avui se l'hi han estrenat en l'esmentat cinematògraf.

L'última producció que ens ha donat a conèixer és modesta, sense pretensions, a la vegada que esmeradament escrita. Què és l'obreta? Molt prompte serà explicat: dos germans, l'un molt bo, l'altre dolent, van fent camí per un bosc, l'un amb l'intent de passejar-hi, l'altre per a buscar nius; tot d'una els compareix una dona vella carregada amb un feix de llenya, demanant a veure qui dels dos li portarà, el dolent se'n burla, però l'altre prest s'ofereix per a traginar aquella carga, i llavors aquella velleta se converteix en una hermosa fada que castiga al dolent i premia al bo amb un pot d'ametlles d'Arenys, les més bones i sabroses del món.

A l'altre, al dolent, el premia amb un jep que un nano cridat per la fada l'hi posa solsament fent un signo, allavors ve l'arrepentiment i la fada, que és molt bona senyora, el perdona però no el premia, el nano li treu el jep i tots contents; l'autor, en Joan Draper, content per contemplar lo bé que el públic la va rebre, en Buxadé, en Fors l'invencible nano, i un altre nen que no coneixem també contents; i què en direm de l'hermosa fada la Cristina Fors.

Escrivim, escrivim, ens hem deixat lo millor, el títol de l'obra La fada del bosc i l'autor de la música que si bé és lo darrer de què parlem, és lo més important de l'obra, ja que té ben merescuda la fama el jove amic en Xavier Maymí.

Sala Mercè.— Continua veient-se plenissim aquest fresc local d'esbarjo degut al bon gust de pel·lícules que setmanalment s'exhibeixen."

La costa de Llevant 22 (30/05/1908), p. 6.

"La fada del bosc.— Rondalla, lletra de Joan Draper i música de Xavier Maymí.

L'obra és entretinguda, fent passar molt bé l'estona; hi ha escenes correctíssimes i agrada al públic. La música també és inspirada.

La nena Cristina Fors en el paper de fada captivà a la concurrència; aixís mateix foren aplaudits els demés artistes.

Original dels mateixos infatigables autors s'estrenarà pròximament El rei filharmònic."

La Escena catalana 89 (13/06/1908), p. 2.

Rei filharmònic, El

Opereta bufa[189].

Estrenada el 11/06/1908.

Lletra de Joan Draper i Fossas.

Música de Francesc Xavier Maimí i Miró.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Saló Montserrat.— Demà diumenge s'estrenarà en aquest cinematògraf l'òpera titulada El Rei filharmònic, original de nostres amics Draper i Maymí.

No dubtem del nou èxit d'aquesta última producció de nostres volguts amics."

La costa de Llevant 25 (10/06/1908), p. 7.

"Saló Montserrat.— El Rei filharmònic, així s'anomena l'opereta bufa estrenada amb èxit l'últim diumenge en aquest cinematògraf. És una obreta digna dels autors Maymí i Draper, esmeradament escrita i harmonitzada amb mestria.

Un rei que té la filla casadora i busca per gendre un filharmònic, un cantor, costant-hi molts treballs, i quant ja de cansat de sentir papiolis vol desistir del casori, l'hi compareix un italià de l'època actual, amb una gran veu i bastant fort de nota, però molt lleig; la noia hi posa reparo en casar-s'hi, però ell sí que se treu la barba i vestint-se de les testes resulta guapo i jove; motiu prou poderós per a que la princesa rectifiqui lo dit i se casi amb en Llàtzer, que és un italià amb molta arrogància i alguna veu. En Buxadé, rei i sogre tot d'una peça, feia una presència que encarnava; en Fors, l'invencible Fors, feu un administrador de molt de pes (això ens consta) la seva germana la Cristina, famosa princesa por los siglos de los etc., també ho feu molt arregladet; en Daniel, les noies Buxadé i Crusat, molt bé tots.

Una vetlla deliciosa passà el públic en el saló Montserrat."

La costa de Llevant 26 (27/06/1908), p. 5.

[189] Per les ressenyes de premsa, sembla que l'obra inclou una paròdia a un personatge italià, la qual cosa podria explicar que aquesta obra s'anomenés "opereta bufa", fent referència al gènere italià.

"Saló Montserrat.— L'últim dissabte, festivitat de Sant Jaume, aquest cinematògraf inaugura la nova temporada de visions musicals, amb l'obreta original del jove poeta el conegut escriptor en Josep Granger i París, amb música de nostre jove compatrici en Josep Mensa i Fàbregas, quin títol és La fantasma del rec.

La fantasma del rec és una obreta literària esmeradament escrita i d'assumpte interessant, instructiu per a la nostra mainada. Uns marrecs traviesos que fan campana sovintet, aprofitant-la per convertir-se en el terror dels aucellets petits que esperen sa mareta en el niu flonge, calent resguardat per l'espès i verd fullatge de l'arbre acollidor del fruit amorós de l'aucellada.

Trobant-se reunits en un bosc un jorn campanil, un d'ells els proposa anar a veure aquella nit una fantasma misteriosa que roda per aquells encontorns, tots aproven el projecte llevat d'un noiet prudent i quiet, l'únic bo d'aquella eixelebrada mainada.

S'abaixa el teló i després d'un intermedi pel quartet, en quin en Mensa ha donat a conèixer la seva habilitat, que és molta, tornen a obrir-se les cortines i compareix el lloc feréstec a on la fantasma hi fa estada, surt la mainada; toquen les nou; surt la fantasma, i després de la por que els hi posa, en Bufader, dic la fantasma del llençol i fanalet, els dona unes lliçons tan benxafadas, que des d'aquell dia queda convençuda la mainada, quedant

"D'art

Amb goig escric aquestes cròniques; la de la setmana passada era un elogi per a en Mestres, i la present no serà pas menys per a en Josep Granger, autor de La fantasma del rec, quadret del que avui tinc a bé, fer-ne una petita crítica.

Sembla que s'hagi fet esprés, que sia efecte d'una combinació, que la meva tasca fins ara sigui solsament una felicitació als meus companys autors. Però creieu-me —que amb sinceritat vos parlo— que no hi pas res d'això, que sempre és detestable, i que quan arribi l'hora de les representacions, el públic i demés cronistes tindran la satisfacció de fer ressò als meus anticipats judicis.

L'obreta d'en Granger fou estrenada al saló Montserrat d'Arenys de Mar, en la diada de Sant Jaume del passat any. En aquestes planes de La costa de Llevant es feu una crítica molt favorable i mereixedora de la producció del abans anomenat company. Va tenir un èxit allà i un altre se li espera en nostra ciutat [Badalona].

En Granger va cercar per a argument de La fantasma del rec un assumpto petit de cos i gran d'ànima. Podríem tractar d'ell baix el títol de «Les grandeses de lo petit», i hem de fer constar que aquests arguments si són ben desarrollats, resulten unes obres precioses, cas contrari de lo que passa amb les de molta matèria, però poca espiritualitat, que resulten produccions limfàtiques.

En el quadret, del qual parlo, s'hi dona una lliçó molt moralitzadora per als petits, per a la mainada, però de retruc pot arribar als ja grans, als que ja han entrat en plena lluita de la vida.

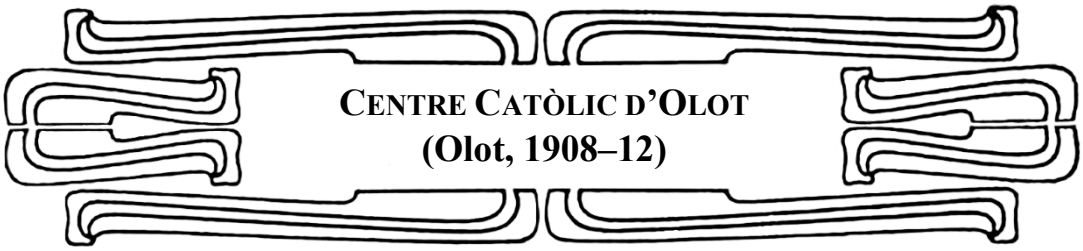
Una colla de vailets, campaners per males senyes, aprofiten un dia que fan falta a l'escola, per a anar a destruir nius i fer altres desgràcies per l'estil. Després s'enteren que d'un rec ne surt una fantasma, i, moguts per la curiositat, que rosega tant, quan no és satisfeta, durant la nit van al lloc feréstec per a veure lo que hi ha de veritat en lo que ells han sapigut. I el ser misteriós, que és puntual, surt i proporciona una lliçó a la mainada, que resulta allò de l'adagi anar per llana i sortir-ne esquilats.

Jo en tot això hi veig una grandesa.

Aquesta entremaliada canalla que destrueixen nius, perquè saben que els perjudicats són més febles, no podrien ésser el símbol d'aquells homes que, afavorits per qualsevol riquesa material, atropellen al pròxim perquè és dèbil o inferior? Aquests que fugen de l'escola per a poder cometre barbaritats, no podrien representar als que fugen de la raó, per a cometre els actes que els hi dicta la seva depravació?

I per fi, la fantasma.

Ser superior, que corregeix als campaners, no és la figura d'alguna Força gran, d'un que jutjarà als que han fet passar llurs accions dels límits senyalats?



La fantasma del rec, al meu modest entendre, és un gran símbol. Ignoro si l'autor ho va fer amb aquesta intenció.

La forma… cal parlar de la forma? Sols cal dir que en Josep Granger és un distingit poeta, prou conegut de tots els nostres lectors pels seus treballs hermosos, ja és prou per a fer una suposició justa de la bellesa que deu haver donat a la part externa de la seva obreta.

Sento no recordar el nom de l'autor de la música, que té parts precioses.

E. Clapés"

Documentació de les visions musicals representades sota la iniciativa d'Antoni Doltra a Olot.

Centre Catòlic d'Olot

Les visions musicals van arribar al Centre Catòlic d'Olot, que ja presentava una llarga tradició de teatre aficionat, de la mà d'Antoni Doltra. Nomenat vicari d'Olot el 16 de maig de 1908, des de la seva arribada Doltra va escriure diverses visions musicals com a repertori per a la secció d'espectacles i orfeó del centre.

Il·lustració 173: Fotografia de la façana de l'edifici del Centre Catòlic d'Olot al carrer Clivillers en l'actualitat. [COOLTUR Turisme Cultural]

La primera visió musical documentada ja al setembre de 1908 va ser, no obstant, L'oració de la nit, prou coneguda ja a Girona per ser l'obra amb què Rafael Masó va inaugurar el saló Gerió, també iniciativa dedicada a la representació de visions musicals dins del Centre Moral de Girona. Es va representar també Esclavitud i redempció de Carles Badia i Malagrida, que prèviament s'havia estrenat a les Escoles Pies d'Olot, i la primera visió musical de Doltra s'estrena per al dia de Reis de 1906, amb el títol de Nit de reis, adequat per l'ocasió.

Entre els membres involucrats, estan identificats Antoni Doltra com a escriptor i principal promotor de la iniciativa; Josep Rufet, organista de la parròquia, que va escriure la música de les obres de Doltra; el Sr. Corriols, que feia de pianista durant les representacions; el Sr. Morer, que va fer de director d'escena; i els Srs. R. Jutglar, Y. Coromina, Nogué, Casas, Vinyet i el nen Corbatón, que van fer d'actors.

Durant aquest temps també destaca la seva col·laboració de Doltra amb Sancho Marraco, compositor que va posar música a algunes de les seves poesies, i que en anys previs havia escrit música també per a les visions dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner a Barcelona.

Després de les visions de Nit de reis, Els fills de Jacob i El pont del diable, inspirades en episodis bíblics i llegendes locals, al febrer de 1911, el Centre Catòlic va obrir un cinematògraf religiós anomenat Cine-Colón. Una de les últimes destacades obres de Doltra a Olot seria El barranc maleït, episodi dramàtic en 3 quadros escrit per a les Joventuts tradicionalistes, previst per al 4 de febrer de 1912 i estrenat finalment el 29 de juny per suspendre's la primera representació i que en tres quadres (1er, La setmana roja al parc de la Ciutadella; 2on, immediacions del Barranc del Llop; 3er, camí del Gurugú) pretenia retratar la Setmana Tràgica i la guerra del Rif.

Després de la represa al març de 1912 de L'oració de la nit, Doltra va ser destinat a Cruïlles i va aturar la creació de noves visions musicals. Va prendre possessió del lloc de rector a Cruïlles el 19 d'agost de 1913. Tot i això, va estrenar allà al Patronat de Sant Pere Màrtir la visió musical Sant Diumenge, sobre la celebració del Diumenge de Rams. Amb música també de Rufet, tot indica que hauria estat escrita durant la seva estada a Olot, però sense arribar a estrenar-se fins al 1915 a Cruïlles per l'ocasió precisament del Diumenge de Rams.

Un recull de les seves visions musicals es publicaria el 1925 en una compilació editada a Olot per la llibreria de Ramon Bonet. Sembla que aquesta iniciativa hauria motivat a Doltra a escriure'n una més. Al juny de 1926 es va publicar el poema que seria la cançó dels romeus de La Verge miraclera, i la visió sencera s'estrenaria al desembre del mateix any al Centre Catòlic d'Olot, posada en escena pel Patronat d'Obreres de la Immaculada i Sant Antoni, quan Doltra era rector de Sant Cristòfol les Fonts.

"La secció d'espectacles del Centre Catòlic durant eixes festes ha donat dugues funcions. El dia de la Mare de Déu del Tura posà en escena El Compte de Montserrat que, a pesar de notar-s'hi falta d'assaigs, sortí força bé en els dos primers actes. La ja coneguda visió musical L'oració de la nit fou tant de l'agrado de la concurrència que obligà a repetir-la. No obstant, la combinació de llums deixava quelcom que desitjar. [...]"

Esclavitud i redempció

Visió musical en 3 quadres.

Representada el 06/01/1909 [192].

Lletra de Carles Badia i Malagrida.

Música d'autor desconegut.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[…] En la tarda del dia dels Reis, va representar-se la visió musical en tres quadros: Esclavitud i redempció, original d'en Carles Badia i Malagrida, que ja l'havíem vist estrenada en el teatre dels Pares Escolapis. El llenguatge de l'obra és molt correcte i força florit d'imatges; l'argument és ben ideat; la part imaginativa i poètica de l'autor està doncs a bona altura, però no tant la part que en podríem dir d'experiència teatral, que es refereix a la combinació i confecció escènica. La música de la visió sí que és deficient.

Després va estrenar-se un quadret literari-musical, lletra del nostre company, Dr. Doltra, ple de bellesa i sentiment. És un quadret de Nit de Reis [...]."

Música de Josep Rufet.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"[…] En la tarda del dia dels Reis, va representar-se la visió musical en tres quadros: Esclavitut i redempció […]

Després va estrenar-se un quadret literari-musical, lletra del nostre company, Dr. Doltra, ple de bellesa i sentiment. És un quadret de Nit de Reis; el somni d'un infant de casa pobre, que desitja que passin per sa finestra, i l'Àngel guardià ve a vetllar el seu son i a complir els seus desitjos mentre a fora al carrer, tot nevant, passa la mainada, amb els fanals encesos, a esperar els Reis que venen.

Per fi de festa se posà en escena la tradicional Adoración de los Magos, de l'Antoni Molina."

Fills de Jacob, Els [193]

Visió bíblica en 5 quadres.

Representada el 14/02/1909.

Lletra d'Antoni Doltra i Masferrer
(BC: Rull 659-8º; Biblioteca Digital Hispánica: 9/195935).

Música de Josep Rufet.

Escenografia de Massanella.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"En el Centre Catòlic se va celebrar diumenge una funció de broma representant-se Un festeig remollat i l'estrena de Un embolic de pretendents. […]

Aquesta setmana s'han repartit ja els papers de la visió musical en cinc quadros titulada Els somnis bíblics o els filis de Jacob, original de nostre estimat company de redacció Dr. Antoni Doltra, Pvre., i amb música de nostre amic Mn. Josep Rufet, organista de la Parroquial. Tant per la importància de l'obra com pel cuidado que es vol posar en sa representació, sembla que tindrà d'ésser ben acollida."

El deber 631 (23/01/1909), p. 59.

"Per causes imprevistes ha tingut que suspendre's la vetllada necrològica que el Centre Catòlic havia de dedicar a les víctimes dels terratrèmols d'Itàlia, aplaçant-la per al diumenge següent.

En la segona part de dita vetllada s'estrenarà l'hermós pas bíblic en cinc quadros Els somnis bíblics o els fills de Jacob, lletra del Dr. D. Antoni Doltra i música de Mn. Rufet. Pels assaigs que havem presenciat, no dubtem que cridarà fortament l'atenció de l'auditori."

El deber 633 (06/02/1909), p. 92.

[193] Abans de l'estrena apareix a la premsa com a "Els somnis bíblics o els fills de Jacob".
Basada en l'episodi bíblic de Jacob.

"El Centre Catòlic demà, a les nou del vespre, celebrarà l'anunciada vetllada baix el següent programa:

Primera part.—I. Marxa fúnebre de Beethoven, a quatre mans.—II. A ma joventut, poesia pel Sr. Nogué.—III. Pregària, solo de tenor pel Sr. Jutglà.—VI. Nocturn V de Fiel, a piano, violí i violoncel.—V. Visió negra, poesia per M. D.—VI. Marxa fúnebre de Chopin, a piano, violí i violoncel.

Segona part.—Estreno de la visió bíblica en cinc quadros, lletra del Dr. A. Doltra i música de mossèn J. Rufet, titulada Els fills de Jacob."

El deber 634 (13/02/1909), p. 108.

"Vetllada artística al Centre Catòlic

Hermosa i per demés escaienta fou la festa que el diumenge passat celebrà la secció d'espectacles de dita societat, a la que hi assistí una distingida i més que regular concurrència, donada la fredor d'aquella nit. […]

En la segona part se representà per primera vegada la visió bíblica en cinc quadros, titulada Els fills de Jacob, original de nostre benvolgut company Dr. D. Antoni Doltra, amb música composta per l'organista de la parroquial, Mn. Josep Rufet.

L'obra, que era esperada pel públic amb gran interès, alcançà un verdader èxit. De l'emocionant història de Josep, l'autor n'ha sapigut escollir els passatges més interessants i més representables i els hi ha donat amb veritable mestria forma plàstica, adequada per a portar-los a l'escena.

El llenguatge és cult i poètic, ressaltant-hi una dicció fàcil i natural. El tallat de les escenes i de quiscún dels quadros és ben encertat, moguent-se els personatges amb llibertat, dintre l'ambient bíblic que en tota l'obra hi campeja.

La música de mossèn Rufet és molt bonica i agradosa, ressortint-hi una instrumentació brillant. El cor d'adivins, ple de cabalismes, resulta de gran efecte, lo mateix que la pregària del primer quadro i l'himne del tercer.

La presentació, lo mateix que l'execució, estigueren ben equilibrades, meresquent elogi la presentació dels tres primers quadros. La decoració nova del quart, pintada amb bon acert pel Sr. Massanella, se dolia del defecte de no ésser de l'època que havia de representar. En quant a l'últim quadro, hem de fer constar el mal efecte que ens produí el fragment de sala tancada, que hi havia al fons i que desentonava de lo demés.

L'execució, com hem dit, estigué equilibrada; no hi hagueren desentonacions. Fou cuidada per part de tots els aficionats. Aixís i tot, no podem menys que mencionar al Sr. Coromina, que en el desempenyo del paper de protagonista estigué feliç, com aixís mateix el senyor Nogué en el de Rubén i el Sr. Casas en el de Simeó. Els demés germans estigueren bé, fent bon efecte els seus trajos. També hem de fer menció d'en Vinyet en el de Malat.

L'execució de la part musical estigué a molt bona altura, tant per lo que es refereix als executants instrumentals com en els cors escènics. No volem dir amb això que no hi hagués res a tocar, ja que, essent eixes representacions els primers passos que es donen en aquell teatre, en el cultiu del gènere de les visions musicals, gènere tan nou com difícil, no és d'estranyar que encara no s'hagi arribat a son complert perfeccionament, però sens dubte que hi arribaran si perseveren en l'estudi i en la bona voluntat que demostren.

Aixís i tot, la representació del diumenge ja es pot ben juntar a la que donaren a Com les olives. I consti, en defensa de les visions musicals, que si aquestes són interessants i ben representades, el públic les aprecia més que qualsevol comèdia. L'atenció i el silenci que notarem durant la representació ne són mostres palpables, lo mateix que els aplaudiments entusiastes del final, amb els que el públic obligà a n'els autors a sortir a rebre el seu homenatge. Rebin tots nostra enhorabona més complerta."

El deber 635 (20/02/1909), pp. 119–120.

Pont del diable, El [194]

Visió en 1 quadret escènic.

Representada el 29/10/1910.

Lletra d'Antoni Doltra i Masferrer
(BC: Rull 659-8º; Biblioteca Digital Hispánica: 9/195935).

Música de Josep Rufet.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Per demà, festa del Patró d'aquest Bisbat, Sant Narcís, la secció d'espectacles del Centre Catòlic ha preparat una gran funció en la que es posaran en escena tres estrenos: el drama en un acte i en vers d'en Josep Jackson Una limosna por Dios; el quadro musical en un acte, lletra del Rt. Dr. A. Doltra i música del Rt. J. Rufet, El pont del Diable, i la joguina còmica d'en Josep Ximeno, Dos aixelebrats.

Per lo que es refereix a la visió musical, pels assaigs que n'hem vist, podem anunciar ésser digna pariona de les que hi tenen representades en la mateixa societat els nostres esmentats amics.

La funció començarà a les 9 de la nit. […]"

El deber 724 (28/10/1910), p. 709.

"Al Centre Catòlic va tenir lloc el dia de Sant Narcís una vetlla de la secció d'espectacles en la que varen estrenar-se tres obres.

[…] El pont del Diable, que és un quadret de nostre company Mn. Antoni Doltra, amb il·lustracions musicals de l'organista de la parròquia Mn. Rufet, en el que es presenta molt bé la llegenda tan escampada de la pedra del diable, conjuminada de manera representable. Mn. Rufet hi té algunes planes de música molt apropiada.

La representació fluixejà bastant, sobre tot en la part de cants, doncs les veus no eren apropiades. Lo mateix podem dir de la presentació, si bé que ja ens fem càrrec dels pocs medis de què es disposa en un teatre de societat. El públic feu sortir a l'escena als autors entre aplaudiments."

El deber 725 (05/11/1910), p. 725.

[194] Basada en la llegenda de la pedra del diable, del pont de Martorell.

Oració de la nit, L' (represa)

Representada el 19/03/1912.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"En el Centre Catòlic

La vetllada que, en obsequi al gloriós Patriarca St. Josep, tingué lloc el dimarts en el Centre Catòlic fou d'aquelles que deixen gratíssim record en l'ànim de tots quants hi assisteixen, constituint una de les més agradables i interessants vetlles amb què dita societat ha obsequiat als seus socis. El local era ocupat per una selecta i nombrosíssima concurrència que omplenava per complet totes les localitats, siguent en gran nombre els qui, per no haver trobat assiento, tingueren que escampar-se pels passillos, de tal manera que resultava materialment impossible transitar-hi.

[Lectures de poesies i concert de l'Orfeó Olotí en honor a Sant Josep, amb discurs d'Antoni Doltra] [...] Acabada la primera part, tingué lloc la representació de l'inspirat quadro d'en Rafael Masó i música d'en J. Pecanins L'oració de la nit, que commogué molt al públic, obligant a repetir-lo. En ell se distingiren en gran manera els Srs. R. Jutglar, Y. Coromina i el nen Corbatón. El Sr. Corriols en la part musical se'ns presenta com sempre, el gran dominador del piano, lo que l'acredita una vegada més d'intel·ligent i consumat mestre. La presentació escènica acertada del tot, fins en els detalla mes insignificants, per lo qual mereix un aplauso el director d'escena, Sr. Morer.

I finalitzà la vetllada amb dugues boniques pel·lícules del cine-Colón, que contribuïren molt a que el públic ne sortís complascudissim, per lo que felicitem a la Junta de Teatre per la cura que ve demostrant en la celebració de tan selectes funcions."

[Representada per Diumenge de Rams segons GASCONS I CLARIÓ, Narcís: "Antoni Doltra i Masferrer (1880–1936), sacerdot, poeta i periodista". Quaderns de la Selva 22, 2010, p. 90].

[195] Amb música de Josep Rufet, organista d'Olot, al igual que les visions musicals allà estrenades, probablement hauria estat escrita per a la secció d'espectacles i orfeó d'Olot, però estrenada a Cruïlles degut al seu trasllat laboral.

Verge miraclera, La

Visió bíblica en 5 quadres.

Representada el 08/12/1926.

Lletra d'Antoni Doltra i Masferrer[196].

Música d'autor desconegut.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"La Festa del Patronat.— El Patronat d'Obreres de la Immaculada i Sant Antoni, tantes vegades lloat per la meritíssima obra social que ve desenrotllant en benefici de les donzelles humils, celebrà el passat dimecres la festa de la Immaculada Concepció amb els acostumats actes pietosos i amb la consegüent vetllada teatral, esplai honestíssim que dediquen les alumnes de la meritada institució a ses famílies i protectors.

Enguany portaren a les taules del Centre Catòlic una novella producció del nostre cultíssim col·laborador literari i pàrroc de Sant Cristòfol les Fonts, Rev. Dr. D. Antoni Doltra, titulada La Verge miraclera.

L'obra —que fou representada amb molt de sentiment— té la virtut de cantar les glòries de la Verge Blanca i de fer fruir a l'espectador una cabal visió de les emocions que s'experimenta a Lourdes en una de tantes peregrinacions en les que hi són portats els malalts per alcançar llur curació.

El diàleg, florit i cultivat, fa en algun passatge de l'obra culminar l'atenció del públic fins a tocar les fibres més sensibles, arrencant llàgrimes dels assistents. El públic —per cert, nombrosíssim— aplaudí fortament a cada final d'acte.

Finalitzà la vetlla amb un xistós diàleg, amb visos històrics, en el que les Srtes. Forga i Molas feren les delícies del públic. Al felicitar efusivament al Rev. Bonet, qui porta de molts anys el pes feixuc de la direcció de l'obra en la que han après a ésser esposes i bones mestresses de casa tantes mares humils d'avui, la fem extensiva a ses cooperadores, les abnegades instructores i alumnes.

Vulga Déu concedir a tots llargs anys de vida per a poguer continuar fent tant de bé. Vagi també coral felicitació al bon amic i cooperador nostre Dr. Doltra per la seva nova producció, que tan bellament sap fer viure al públic."

Altres visions musicals fora del circuit

La gran majoria de les visions musicals documentades van representar-se dins de la programació de sales, teatres o temporades dedicades específicament a aquest repertori. Tot i això, també va haver-hi visions musicals que es van estrenar en altres contextos, de manera extraordinària dins de programacions heterogènies.

Aquest apartat reuneix aquests títols estrenats de manera singular a escoles o sales recreatives que no es dedicaven específicament a aquest repertori. Identifica, a més, alguns altres títols dels quals ha sobreviscut alguna part del seu text, literari o musical, però dels quals no tenim rastre de possibles representacions en escena ni semblen estar lligats a cap empresa escènica, per la qual cosa havien quedat sense esmentar a apartats previs del catàleg. Els títols es presenten ordenats per ordre cronològic d'estrena, amb els que no tenen representacions documentades al final per ordre alfabètic.

Entre els títols recollits, cal destacar algunes iniciatives escèniques que tenien relació amb altres contextos més institucionalitzats dedicats a les visions musicals. Per exemple, El boig i Tristos gitanos, estrenades al teatre del Retiro de Terrassa a principis de 1909, poden considerar-se una mena d'epíleg del gènere a la ciutat després de la clausura de la sala Ars-Lucis, que havia tancat les seves portes l'any anterior. També es documenta El cavaller de Faras o Els remences el 1911, almenys en assaig per part de l'Orfeó Gironí, que havia mantingut relació amb el saló Gerió. El fundador de l'orfeó, Isidre Mollera, havia estat el director de l'agrupació musical del saló Gerió, clausurat el 1909.

Les partitures de Joan Fargas amb lletra de Lluís Viladot, que corresponen a les visions musicals de Los reis (de temàtica nadalenca) i La tornada del fill pròdig (basada en l'episodi bíblic) que es conserven a l'arxiu de l'església de Santa Maria de Mataró, entren en relació amb el Moisés que els mateixos autors havien estrenat a la sala Mercè i amb la Griselda estrenada el 1909 a la Joventut Tradicionalista de Sarrià i represa a la sala Imperi el 1911. També al barri de Sarrià destaca l'institut de Sant Josep, on es van representar El clam del castell encantat i El somni d'un àngel com a visions musicals infantils.

Lo captiveri d'un sant, estrenada a la Casa de la Caritat de Barcelona, va ser escrit per Joan Baptista Lambert, pianista de la sala Mercè i director de l'orquestra dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner, que havia escrit sota la direcció artística de Lluís Graner diverses visions musicals, com ara l'adaptació escènica de La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta. Aquesta nova visió, ara, és escrita per inaugurar la nova sala d'actes de la Casa de la Caritat, la qual té una secció coral que dirigeix Lambert.

L'associació de joves de la Lliga d'Acció Social de Figueres representa a l'abril de 1909 la visió musical de La creu, tot després d'haver posat en escena durant la temporada anterior les visions musicals originals de la sala Mercè La pastoreta i A la voreta del mar sota la direcció musical de Pere Codina.

Per últim, La mort del rossinyol i Lo pastoret i la papallona d'Il·luminat Saperas mostren l'interès del compositor per aproximar-se al gènere. Estrenades respectivament a l'Ateneu Obrer del Districte II (que poc abans havia representat el Sant Ramon original de la sala Mercè) i al teatre Ateneu d'Igualada, els llocs de treball en cada moment del compositor.

"El boig.— Visió dramàtica; lletra d'en J. Solà Mestres i música de Joan Llongueras.

L'àpoca en què es desenrotlla la visió dramàtica és aquella en què Catalunya va aixecar-se contra el despotisme francès.

Els gavatxs eren hostatjats en les cases particulars i vingué la nit sagnant d'una matança terrible. A tota casa a on un foraster hi havia se'ls hi demanava per a cometre un crim.

Un pobre boig, sent en aquells moments més compassió i estima que la gent de cabal judici. Hi ha els homes sencers que condemnen i desitgen assassinar als de llengua diferent, i en contraposició d'aquests, un dement dona el crit sublim de «Visca la humanitat», i a l'ensems salva el germà francès.

L'obra està bé del tot, tant la lletra com la música, per lo qual cal felicitar als senyors Solà i Llongueras, qui han portat a les taules una sencera visió.

El segon A. Pol."

Futurisme 56 (30/01/1909), pp. 3–4.

"Teatro Retiro. El boig. Visió dramàtica, letra de D. Joan Solà, música del Mtro. Llongueras.

Causas ajenas a nuestra voluntad nos impidieron asistir al estreno de la nueva producción del Sr. Solà, y aunque resulte algo trasnochada esta impresión, más vale tarde que nunca.

El célebre pregón que se hizo en un pueblo de Cataluña durante la guerra de la Independencia, "cada vecino matará al cerdo que tenga en su casa", aludiendo al destacamento francés allí alojado, lo aprovechó el Sr. Solà para escribir un cuadro dramático qué resulta altamente interesante.

Uno de los soldados franceses del destacamento que pasa por aquel pueblo se aloja en una casa medio derruida, habitada únicamente por un pobre que tiene perturbada la razón a consecuencia de los horrores de aquella guerra en la que ha visto perecer a todos los suyos a manos de los invasores.

A pesar de esto, salva al francés que tiene alojado en su casa y al ver las turbas que se les ha escapado su presa, se abalanzan sobre el pobre demente, quien paga con la vida su generoso proceder. Mientras agoniza, lanza un grito de "Visca la humanitat", que sintetiza todo el pensamiento de la obra.

La interpretación de la misma, muy defectuosa y adoleciendo de falta de ensayos que impiden apreciar en todo su valor las muchas bellezas que contienen tanto la letra como la música."

"Retiro (Terrassa)

El boig*.— Visió dramàtica, lletra de J. Solà Mestres, música d'en Joan Llongueras.

La visió interessa i es fa agradable, el mateix que la música per sa inspiració."

Tristos gitanos, Els

Visió musical en 1 quadre.

Representada el 07/02/1909 i el 21/02/1909 al teatre del Retiro (Terrassa).

Lletra de Pere Salom.

Música de Josep Gasset.

Escenografia de J. Domingo.

Ressenyes de premsa:

[La setmana del 25 de gener, Futurisme critica l'expulsió d'una caravana de gitanos del terme municipal de Terrassa per ordre policial.]

"Teatro del Retiro

Para esta noche se anuncian en el teatro del Retiro la zarzuela El gazpacho andaluz y La trapera, y para mañana tarde y noche después de la exhibición de películas del cinematógrafo el cuadro musical titulado El boig, letra de nuestro compatricio D. La comarca del Vallés 985 (30/01/1909), p. 7.

"Teatro del Retiro. Els tristos gitanos, visión musical, letra de don Pedro Salom y música de D. José Gasset.

«Parece que los gitanos nacieron en el mundo para ladrones; nacieron de padres ladrones, criándose con ladrones…». Estos prejuicios, anotados en la célebre y ejemplar novela de Cervantes, La gitanilla, han perdurado a pesar de los siglos transcurridos y de los progresos de la civilización.

De tales prejuicios duélense amargamente los personajes de la obra que nos ocupa —gitanos todos ellos,— los cuales han sentado su aduar bajo la sombra de los pinos que hay cerca de un pueblecillo. Oyen a lo lejos una canción de tonos tristes y jecumbrosos, lamentando el triste sino de la raza errante y vagabunda privada de naturalizarse en ningún sitio. Esta canción la parafrasean en el diálogo que sostienen después Selim, Milar y demás personajes. La misma joven Mari, que regresa del pueblo en donde ha intentado inútilmente vender sus canastillas, y el niño Casmi que vuelve de pedir limosna con las manos vacías, corroboran que allí, al igual que en los demás pueblos por donde pasan, los miran con aversión y solo desean que se vayan pronto.

Antes que los echen, recogen y meten en el misérrimo carro su aún más miserable ajuar y se alejan de poblado tomando el único camino que les ha dejado libre la preocupación y la rutina: la carretera que tienen delante y que para ellos no tiene fin...

Tal es el asunto de la visión estrenada el domingo por la tarde, y tal como está desarrollado, nos produjo la impresión de ver en escena el artículo de una revista sociológica más bien que una obra teatral. Los personajes, mejor parecen filósofos que gitanos, ya que en ciertas ocasiones el lenguaje y las ideas que vierten se nota que no son las que debieran usar, sino las que el autor quiere que expresen. Con todo, la obra está correctamente escrita y el Sr. Gasset la ha adornado con algunos números de música muy apropiada y agradable. Los tristos gitanos gustaron al público, que al final hizo salir a los autores al palco escénico.

La interpretación que dieron a la obra la Srta. Rodés y los Sres. J. Domingo, Alsina e Ignacio Domingo, acertadísima. El decorado debido al pincel del Sr. Domingo J., muy propio y con una perspectiva muy bien entendida.

“Els tristos gitanos

Definitivament els empresaris del Cine del Retiro s’han convençut de que les coses, o es fan bé, o no es fan. Celebrem que s’hagin decidit per lo primer. La darrera visió musical que han presentat, sinó amb tota perfecció, hi han posat força voluntat i cuidado. El decorat molt encertat en la perspectiva, però un xic desentonat de color, de tots modos és el millor que hem vist del Sr. Domingo i el felicitem de debò, lo mateix que als autors de la lletra i música Srs. Salom i Gasset respectivament.

Al primer, per la manera real i punyenta com ha sapigut portar-nos a l’escena aquella caravana de gitanos condemnats a córrer, per una de les ironies de la vida. En la plasticitat del quadro, sobre tot en la fugida, el Sr. Salom ha estat encertadíssim, no tant en el diàleg, poc gitanesc, al nostre entendre. La música és d’un caient gens vulgar, sorprenent-nos agradablement la manera com el Sr. Gasset ha instrumentat la seva producció. La cançó, molt hermosa i se mereix el tenor Comas un bon aplauso pel sentiment i bon gust amb què la cantava, llàstima que no poguem dir lo mateix dels violins i piano. Els actors molt bé. Esperem veure-la altre vegada.”

"ELS TRISTOS GITANOS

Diumenge al Cine del Retiro van representar una visió musical que porta per títol el nom que encapçala aquestes ratlles. En són autors els nostres companys de redacció senyors Salom i Gasset.

L'autor del llibre ha fet l'acció en els afores de ciutat. Allà enmig d'arbres s'hi acampen una caravana de gitanos, són els desauciats de la societat civilitzada que per un equívoc dels temps vells, i que dura encara actualment, viuen destinats a ésser homes que se'ls estigma i refusa com si fossin criminals. L'autor ho presenta plàsticament fent-los raonar no com a gitanos, sinó com a homes que senten el rebuig de què són considerats.

La música ben intercalada i adaptada al llibret fa que completi o que sigui una verdadera visió musical.

Al final el públic aplaudí sorollosament fins que sortiren els autors a l'escena. És la millor paga per un autor. També amb el públic, aplaudim i els felicitem.

"Con el título de Els tristos gitanos, se estrenó en el teatro del Retiro el domingo último una preciosa visión musical debida a nuestros amigos y compatricios don Pedro Salom y don José Gasset.

En dicha obra presenta el señor Salom al público una caravana de gitanos víctima de las calumnias de todos, orientando al espectador para que trate con más caridad a la inofensiva raza gitana. La música del señor Gasset, muy inspirada y apropiada a la letra. El decorado, obra del señor Domingo, magnífico en perspectiva y color.

La enhorabuena a todos"

[202] Es tractaria de la història del màrtir Sant Vicenç de Paul, captivat pels pirates musulmans. Inclou la glossa d'una cançó popular, amb un total de 6 números musicals.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"A las seis de esta tarde se inaugurará la sala de actos de la Casa Provincial de Caridad, celebrándose una fiesta en la que se dará a conocer el episodio lírico-dramático Lo captiveri d'un sant, letra del Rdo. D. G. Puig y música del maestro Lambert, y se efectuará un concierto en el que tomarán parte todas las secciones del orfeón de la casa y la orquesta de la misma."

Diario de Barcelona 201 (19/07/1912), p. 11116.

"Ayer tarde se inauguró la nueva sala de actos de la Casa de Caridad, cuyas ventanas dan a la calle de Valldoncella. El acceso al nuevo local se hace por una escalera con baranda de madera melis torneada que produce muy buen efecto.

Excelente lo causa también la sala que se inauguró ayer. Es de grandes dimensiones y en el fondo frente al escenario se levanta una tribuna. La decoración, obra del señor Vilaró, está muy bien entendida. Los tonos son claros y en el techo aparecen unos motivos ornamentales de naranjos y limoneros resueltos con mucha gallardía.

Llaman también la atención los ventanales en colores, que representan las Obras de Misericordia y constituyen un trabajo que honra a los talleres Rigalt, donde han sido hechos.

Bajo la presidencia del Rdo. D. José Ildefonso Gatell y señores Trabal, Martí, Bastardas, Roca y Noguera, ocupados los bancos por los asilados y la tribuna y otros lugares por invitados, dio principio la fiesta de inauguración con arreglo al siguiente programa:

Marcha nupcial, Mendelssohn.—«Discurs de presentació» (por el asilado señor Colindres), J. Mª Vidal.—La sombra (sección de hombres), Morera.—La Verge bressant (sección de niñas y orquesta), C. Franck—Fum, fum, fum (las tres secciones), J. B. Lambert.—Hombres y niñas: Quan mon marit de fora ve (madrigal del siglo XVI), R. de Lassus; Montanyes regalades, S. Marraco; Adeu, germà meu (madrigal del siglo XVI), Waelrant y Brindis (canon a cuatro voces), Mozart.—Allegro (instrumentos de arco, por la sección de cuerda de la Casa, profesor señor Bordas), Haendel.—Alegoría, Ariño.—Lo captiveri d'un sant, episodio lírico-dramático en dos cuadros, letra del Rdo. señor D. G. Puig y música del maestro J. B. Lambert.

Todas las partes del programa fueron muy aplaudidas, en especial el episodio lírico basado en un pasaje de la vida de San Vicente de Paul, que lo mismo en su parte literaria que en las ilustraciones musicales tiene momentos de gran inspiración.

La concurrencia salió muy satisfecha de la fiesta."

“Casa de Caritat

El captiveri d’un sant, de mossèn Puig i J. B. Lambert, obtingué una interpretació mitjana per la part declamada; mes presentada tan esplèndidament pel Mtre. Junyent, riquíssima i digna d’elogi.

Aquest nou teatre que hi caben dugues mil ànimes ha d’ésser l’admiració dels centres catòlics i, d’haver-hi acert en triar les obres i ben dirigir-les, s’hi veuran espectacles que per la bellesa amb què seran presentats podran igualar-se amb els teatres de primer ordre.

Hem d’elogiar que en una casa com aquesta, un sacerdot altruista com mossèn Puig hi faci brillar el sol, entre tantes tenebres."

Il·lustració 177: PÀMIES, Ramon: La visió del frare Lleonart o Els reys d'Orient. Barcelona: Biblioteca L'Escon, 1911 (portada).

Ressenyes de premsa:

"Esbarjo parroquial.— Els jovenets aficionats al teatre, el dia de Reis, posaren en escena en el del Centre Catòlic la comèdia infantil en dos actes La tornada dels Reis i la visió musical en dos actes La visió del frare Lleonart o Els Reis d'Orient, molt ben presentades i ben interpretades.

Ens plau fer constar novament que son director mossèn Josep Gafas té bon gust i especial acert en la presentació escènica, lluint tots els actors vestimenta pròpia de l'època.

En el final de la segona obra aparesqué l'al·legoria de la Glòria, que obtingué el mateix èxit del dia de Nadal, que s'estrenà; altra vegada fou ovacionada. La concurrència nombrosa que assistí a la representació sortí satisfeta. L'endemà, diumenge, va repetir-se."

Representada el 22/10/1922 pels pomells de Lladó (Peralada).

Lletra de Dolors Trullol de Vayreda.

Música de Josep Maria de Macià.

Escenografia d'autor desconegut.

Ressenyes de premsa:

"L'aplec de pomells empordanesos a la vila de Peralada

A mida que s'apropa la data de la seva celebració, dia 22 del present mes, van essent més falagueres les noves que d'arreu i de l'Empordà i demés comarques gironines rep la Comissió Organitzadora. […]

Continuen a la nostra ciutat els assaigs de la missa gregoriana que, juntament amb els pomellistes de tot l'Empordà, serà cantada a la parroquial de Peralada i d'un bell enfilall de cançonetes de la terra.

Hi han ja algunes colles de joves i damisel·les figuerenques que es preparen per a prendre part al Concurs de Sardanes. Sembla que La Principal de Peralada serà la qui tocarà les sardanes del matí i tarda i amenitzarà el festival, acompanyant la visió musical Catalunya, lletra de na Dolors Trullol de Vayreda i música del Dr. don Josep Mª de Macià, interpretada per un estol de pomellistes de Lladó. Quan jo n'era petiteta Visió musical.

[No se'n documenten representacions].

Lletra de Joan Massip [i Suñé] (CEDOC: 1.5.1_0360).

Música de Joan Massip [i Suñé] (CEDOC: 1.5.1_0360).

[Escrita per a cant i piano. No inclou acotacions escèniques ni sembla estar escrita per ser posada en escena. La temàtica, sobre una nena espantada per si apareixen bruixes a la seva habitació, a les quals espanta resant l'oració de la nit, recorda a la visió musical L'oració de la nit de Rafel Masó i Joaquim Pecanins].

Il·lustració 178: Massip, Joan: Cuan jo n'era petiteta (portada de la partitura manuscrita).

[Dedicada "a mon apreciat mestre i amic en Joan Salvat [i Crespí]", el qual hauria estat el seu mestre director quan Massip era noi cantaire de l'Orfeó Català. No està datada, però hauria estat escrita abans de la mort de Salvat el 1938. Es conserva una altra cançó manuscrita del mateix compositor per a veu i piano titulada Record de Numància (CEDOC: 1.5.1_0337), amb lletra de M. Suñé i també dedicada a Joan Salvat.

Per les cartes i documents que conserva el Centre de Documentació de l'Orfeó Català, Joan Massip i Suñé hauria estat noi cantaire de l'Orfeó Català, membre des que la seu es trobava encara al carrer Lledó, a la plana de Sant Just (per tant, abans del trasllat a l'actual Palau de la Música inaugurat el 1908), i va mantenir una relació epistolar freqüent amb Lluís Millet i Pagès i Lluís Millet i Millet fins a la seva mort. Mostrava una forta devoció cap a l'obra de l'orfeó i del seu director.

No es coneixen a l'actualitat obres seves com a compositor ni trajectòria com a cantant. Va publicar l'any 1938 les variacions melòdiques per a L'hereu riera de Ramon Tor (actor aficionat que va començar la seva carrera professional a la sala Mercè i als Espectacles-Audicions Graner). És mencionat com un dels assistents a l'enterrament del comediògraf Miquel Pou Aragall l'any 1935, juntament amb Enric Giménez, Adrià Gual, Folch i Torres, etc. Ell va morir la primavera de 1964].

Introducció i criteris d'edició

Quan pensem en l'estat de disponibilitat i divulgació del materials que conformen el gènere líric de les visions musicals, la resposta és rotunda i aclaparadora: pràcticament no se n'ha editat cap document i la percepció de la singularitat d'aquest gènere en el món cultural professional no existeix. Aquesta tesi, per tant, pretén, no només presentar un estudi teòric i històric sobre la concepció i desenvolupament d'aquest gènere, sinó anar un pas més enllà en la recuperació dels materials literaris i musicals d'aquestes obres.

Primerament, haurien de servir com a documents que il·lustrin l'anàlisi desenvolupada al primer volum monogràfic d'aquesta tesi i que permetin a altres investigadors accedir a les obres per contrastar els resultats amb les fonts, però, per altra banda, s'espera també fomentar la seva accessibilitat i promoure la seva divulgació, posant almenys una primera pedra cap a la recuperació del patrimoni líric que suposa aquest gènere.

Aquest volum recull la col·lecció de llibrets editada pels Espectacles-Audicions Graner entre 1905 i 1908, formada per un total de 15 textos de teatre líric estrenats al llarg de les tres temporades que va mantenir-se activa l'empresa al teatre Principal de Barcelona. Els originals, no només estan preservats en diferents arxius, sinó que circulen encara en el mercat de segona mà i d'antiguitats degut a l'èxit de l'empresa i la quantitat de còpies que se'n van difondre: només del llibret d'El Comte l'Arnau ja s'hi van vendre més de 10.000 còpies.

Tot i això, encara no existeix cap reedició contemporània, ni tampoc se l'espera, atesa el format breu i poc literari de moltes d'aquestes obres, que no llueixen tot el seu atractiu mancades del muntatge escenogràfic, d'efectes lumínics i fantàstics i de la música que acompanyava, no només el cant, sinó també moltes escenes parlades en forma de melopea.

Aquests motius van portar a la inclusió d'aquest volum dins de la tesi El teatre líric català (1897–1923) i el gènere simbolista de les visions musicals, que no podia parlar de les visions musicals sense incloure'n cap reedició dels textos i partitures d'aquestes obres.

Entre els títols que conformen la sèrie de llibrets dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner es troben principalment visions musicals, com ara la ja mencionada d'El Comte l'Arnau o altres títols d'èxit com ara La presó de Lleida, escrites per autors de prou renom en la literatura catalana com són en Josep Carner i n'Adrià Gual respectivament. També, però, hi ha algun títol còmic encarregat per l'empresa, com ara Les calderes d'en Pere Botero o Els gendarmes o qui vigila no dorm, a més d'alguna rondalla o drama líric com són La nina dormida al bosc o Donzella qui va a la guerra. Aquesta diversitat, si és cert que s'extralimita al gènere exclusivament de les visions musicals, aporta precisament aquesta visió de conjunt del fenomen del teatre líric català i del paper que els Espectacles-Audicions Graner van tenir com a aglutinador de totes aquestes diverses propostes escèniques sota un mateix imaginari catalanista.

Aquests títols els trobem ara aquí compilats i editats, mantenint les mateixes portades originals —les quals eren versions reduides dels cartells penjats a la façana del teatre amb la tipografia especialment dissenyada per pintors professionals, com ara el mateix Lluís Graner—, els petits dibuixos ornamentals i la disposició visual del text, títols i capçaleres dins de la pàgina.

Per a la part gràfica, per tant, s'ha seguit un criteri diplomàtic que manté el disseny el més proper possible a l'original. Les tipografies triades pel text, les diferències de mida de lletra entre lletra i acotacions, el sagnat dels paràgrafs i altres qüestions visuals segueixen el disseny original dels llibrets. Pel que fa als dibuixos que decoren les portades i interior de les pàgines (remarcant o envoltant els títols, a final de pàgina indicant el fi del quadre o acte, etc.) han estat escanejats i editats digitalment per incloure'n els originals.

Quant a l'edició literària dels textos, la falta de diversitat de fonts fa descartar l'opció d'una edició crítica. Només algunes notes crítiques són incloses en els casos que el text imprès al llibret i la lletra de les partitures sigui notablement diferent. Per tant, es va plantejar el principi del millor text de còpia o best-text method basat en la teoria de la còpia de text o copy-text theory, segons el qual es triaria per defecte el llibret imprès per la pròpia empresa dels Espectacles-Audicions Graner com a millor font de referència, considerada com versió final que l'empresa va aprovar per distribució.

No obstant, una vegada copiats els textos, la falta de sistematització en l'escriptura dels llibrets originals fa que s'hi acabi optant per un criteri parcialment normalitzat de l'edició, adaptant la puntuació, ortografia i gramàtica per a facilitar-hi l'aproximació al lector contemporani. La multitud de variants ortogràfiques de les mateixes paraules dins d'un sol llibret fa que la lectura de l'original sigui dificultosa si l'objectiu de l'edició és promoure la divulgació dels textos. A més, la imposició del criteri de l'empresa sobre el de l'autor literari (cosa que es mostra especialment durant la tercera temporada, quan s'imposa l'ús de la grafia "ly" en lloc de "ll" tot i la queixa generalitzada de la crítica i alguns autors col·laboradors de l'empresa), sense tenir els manuscrits originals per contrastar-los, decanta l'elecció del criteri d'edició parcialment normalitzada, tot respectant les particularitats estilístiques dels textos.

La principal consideració tinguda en compte va ser que aquests textos estaven destinats a ser declamats en veu alta; per tant, l'ortografia s'ha actualitzat a la normativa vigent només quan

no implicava cap canvi en la pronunciació a l'hora de llegir el text. El vocabulari arcaic i les formes gramaticals antigues també s'han mantingut tal com són per preservar l'estil, ja que en molts casos no només eren una característica de la parla del moment, sinó que s'utilitzaven intencionadament per donar un to antic a la llengua o per representar dialectes regionals de la llengua catalana.

Tanmateix, s'ha dut a terme un procés de normalització quan al llarg del text apareixen diferents paraules, conjugacions verbals o construccions gramaticals amb grafies diferents, utilitzant per a totes elles la forma que apareix al text i que és més propera a la normativa actual. Aquest enfocament té com a objectiu preservar l'estil literari original dels textos, mentre que per a altres documents de caràcter purament informatiu, com les ressenyes de premsa transcrites als catàlegs, s'ha aplicat un nivell d'intervenció més elevat, considerant que el seu interès rau en la informació que contenen més que no pas en l'estil literari de l'escriptura.

QUADRO I

Cim d'una muntanya. Una ermita.
Els dos ermitans conversen.

Ermità vell

Fill meu, guaita la terra
plena d'iniquitat!
Els homes no es recorden
del Déu que els va crear.

Els crims insaciables s'empenyen palpitant.
Tothom vol l'hermosura
engendrada en pecat.
S'aixeca un fum terrible
de les coses brillants.
Fa un any a la capella
hi hagué un miracle gran.
Jesús en Creu parlava
amb veu que feia espant.
La seua dolsa Mare
plorava al seu davant.
–La terra és endurida,
s'esquerda de maldat.
Jo els enviaré un càstig;
ai del qui viu encar!
Faré secar les vinyes,
les espigues del camp;
faré eixugar les aigües
que els molins no moldran;
carrers i carreteres
de morts sobreeixiran;
i fent-se impenetrable
el cel s'ennegrirà.–
Maria prou va dir-li que ja es penediran.
–Ai Mare si això feien,
ai si això feien tant!
Faré brotar les vinyes
i viure el blat al camp;
els tornaré les aigües,
tots els molins moldran;
carrers i carreteres
de flors ne floriran.

Ermità jove

La fúria d'eixes terres
és el Comte l'Arnau.
Fa un any surt cada vespre
de la Cresta del Gall.
En un corser feréstec
vola per cims i plans;
per tot arreu hi deixa
nuvolades de mal.
Les terres són damnades,
els homes afollats,
els mals esprits[1] imperen
i es moren els infants,
boca oberta, ulls enfora,
com ofegats pel Mal.
Oh pare! Aqueixes ires
no han d'acabar-se mai?

Ermità vell

Déu ja no vol dels homes
escoltar més el clam.
Les veus són pecadores;
només les mou l'esglai.
El dia que s'aixequi
del bruit universal
una veu innocenta,
sola, pura, suau,
a Déu li serà accepta
i el cel s'aclarirà;
les cares seran bones,

[1] esperits.

seran humils les mans;
eixirà de les cases
una claror de pau;
carrers i carreteres
de flors ne floriran.

(Entren a l'ermita.)

Se forma una nuvolada.– Surten d'entre ella els mals esperits i diuen:

Els mals esperits

El Bé caurà i el Mal riurà;
la cua negra dansarà;
de goig la mà s'estrenyerà
brandant la forca.
Comte l'Arnau, nostre senyor,
tu, llarg udol sens redempció,
tu, que ets la gran devastació,
passa i triomfa!

(Passa el Comte l'Arnau a cavall i crida:)

El Comte

Maledicció! Maledicció!

(L'ermita s'incendia. El Comte desapareix.)

QUADRO II

Pels boscos. Dos pastors amb els seus remats.
Un d'ells, amb el fluviol, sona una cançó, sense paraules.
Neu. Avets.

Pastor 1er

Tu que el Comte Arnau veieres una nit, cingles avall, per rostos i per timberes,
treu guspires son cavall?

Pastor 2on

(Cançó del cavall del Comte l'Arnau.)

I

El negre cavall amb fúria se n'emporta al qui ha pecat;
atravessa la foscúria
com un vent d'iniquitat;
no menja gra ni civades,
sinó ànimes damnades
per tota una eternitat.

II

En sa espantosa carrera ell piafa en la buidor,
i la seva gran crinera
és un torbellí d'horror;
queden per cims i planures
els arbres plens de tortures, les bèsties fixes de por.

III

Eixit d'abims insondables
el cavall és un esprit;
treu focs i alens espantables
i un panteix jamai finit;
quan va a terra, i s'abandona,
el Diable l'esperona
i el fa perdre a l'infinit!

Pastor 1er

Pels volts, totes les ramades el Comte l'Arnau ha embruixat;
les ovelles astorades
senten el baf del pecat;
els xais guaiten amb delícia
del foc l'espurneig roent;
els bocs, rient amb malícia,
salten diabòlicament.
Allunyeu l'esprit temut,
Senyor, i ses flames vermelles!
Conserveu-nos la quietud

de nostres dolces ovelles.
Però el foc s'està apagant.
Fan airades espessides.
Les aus que estaven dormides, s'esporugueixen, se'n van.
Se sent un remor llunyà
com d'una disbauxa impia.
El Comte Arnau ve a caçar.
No sents la trompeteria?
Sents el corn i la carrera
com ressonen pels avencs?
I els gossos que du al darrere
són llops, grans llops famolencs!
Fugim als covals pregons que ja ve amb fressa espantosa la cavalcada impetuosa, furient de desolacions!

(Fugen els pastors.)

Cavalcada del Comte l'Arnau.

Els mals esperits

Comte l'Arnau, nostre senyor,
tu, llarg udol sens redempció,
tu, que ets la gran devastació,
passa i triomfa.

El Comte

Maledicció! Maledicció!

QUADRO III

Aspecte extern del castell del Comte l'Arnau.
Grans murs, fosses, etc. Soldats que vetllen.
Se senten estrèpits de trompeteria; una host entra en el castell.

Els soldats

I

Som soldats.
Som cruels i som irats,
i ja ens té tots ressecats la cremor dels vells pecats.

II

Som soldats.
Hem vençut en els combats.
Fórem rics, joves, daurats
pels camins enlluernats.

III

Som soldats.
Ara ombrívols i callats
hem sofert ser derrotats, fred i fam i tempestats.

IV

Som soldats.
Taciturns i consternats
envellim en fosquedats,
recordant nostres pecats.

Un soldat

Comte l'Arnau! Tu ja ets damnat, oh, revolada de pecat
sobre la terra!
A tu et seguíem udolants,
braços valents, llengües penjants,
amb un furor de guerra.
A tota l'host torcia el vent
i ella restava com serpent recargolada.
Al escoltar nostre xiulet
tot l'univers sentia un fred a dins la carcanada.
Un negre encens el Rei del Mal de tots rebia, regnant dalt d'un trono egregi.
Del món vam fer-ne un esvoranc
i el núvol fosc plorava sang del nostre sacrilegi.

Comte l'Arnau! Tu ja ets damnat,
oh, revolada de pecat
que ens emportares!
Som tos servents, els braços dus, els cors crudels, els cossos nus que un dia tu brandares!
Parla, què vols, Comte l'Arnau?
Vens de l'infern, no ens dones pau les nits obscures.
Per tu sentim esfereïts
renills i crits, corns i clapits, ventades càlides i impures.
Els boscos s'inflen de terror
i fan com una tremolor planes desertes.
No eres el fort? No eres el brau?
Vine d'un cop, Comte l'Arnau!
Les portes són obertes!

(Compareix el Comte l'Arnau a cavall.)

El Comte

Jo arribo a la casa meva,
entre infernals torbellins.
Que ara m'ajudin a entrar-hi tots els crims que he fet a dins!
I retorna a qui va fer-te,

oh, castell del Comte Arnau!
Cremeu en honor del Diable teieres del meu palau!

(Il·luminació fantàstica en el castell. Els soldats han desaparegut. Tempesta.)

QUADRO IV

El castell. La Comtessa fila vora la llar. La llum del foc somorta. A dintre se senten les tres filles del Comte, que canten:

Dels espais en la fondària consoleu les nostres pors, oh, les santes silencioses
dels invisibles amors!

(De tant en tant, algun llamp seguit de tro. La suavitat del cant floreix en un ambient de gran feresa. Entra el Comte l'Arnau, sobtadament, però sense soroll. Al entrar ell, s'apaga el foc de la llar.)

Arnau

Tota sola feu la vetlla, muller lleial?

Comtessa

No la faig jo tota sola, Comte l'Arnau.

Arnau

Qui teniu per companyia, viudeta igual?

Comtessa

Déu i la Verge Maria, valga'm Déu, val!

Arnau

Bé conec que algú m'atura, muller lleial!
I les coses són calmades al meu voltant!

Comtessa

Què és això que us ix pels ulls, Comte l'Arnau?

Arnau

És el mal que jo donava, viudeta igual.

Comtessa

Què és això que us ix pels braços, valga'm Déu, val!

Arnau

És el mal que jo prenia, muller lleial.

Comtessa

Què és això que us surt pels peus, Comte l'Arnau?

Arnau

És el mal on caminava, viudeta igual.

Comtessa

Què és això que hi ha a la porta, valga'm Déu, val?

Arnau

És el cavall que m'espera, no gosa entrar!
A on ne teniu les filles, muller lleial?

Comtessa

A la cambra són que broden seda i estam.

(S'obre la gran porta del fons. Les tres filles del Comte Arnau, vestides de blanc, il·luminades per una claror molt dolça. Canten:)

Les tres filles

Vosaltres, que en la foscúria resplendiu serenament,

oh, vosaltres, les tres santes,
sospeses en mig del vent!

Santes de les nits furientes, santes de les tempestats,
amb les mans consoladores
amb els ulls apiadats!

Pareu els trons de la guerra,
els llampecs d'or i de sang,
oh, vosaltres, les tres santes,
totes vestides de blanc!

(El Comte l'Arnau, que primer s'havia agenollat, acaba per desaparèixer.)

La Comtessa

Oh, vosaltres, les flors soles de sa maldat!
Mai més tornarà a la terra el Comte Arnau.

LES OQUES.

DECORACIÓ

Una casa de pagès: interior. A la dreta de l'actor, una llar de foc; a l'esquerra, el portal. Al fons, gran paret obscura, que s'aclarirà a son temps deixant veure un camp que té un bosquet de rosers a un cantó i, a un altre, l'eixida d'una casa.

Està l'àvia asseguda vora el foc. S'obre el portal i compareix la neta. Se veu com neva fins quan el vers indica que tot torna a estar tancat.

Rosa

Àvia, quin fred, quina nit!
Fa una nevada més forta!
Mare de Déu, que he patit!

Porto la llenya que heu dit.
Deixeu-me tancar la porta.
Mare de Déu, quina neu!
Quina neu, Mare de Déu!
Mai n'havia vista tanta.
Sort que la neu no m'espanta
i fins la trobo bonica, perquè és tan blanca i tan xica
i perquè va voleiant!

Bé, fa tremolar una mica...
com que ella cau tremolant!
Ai, deixa'm seure,
i l'avieta, la velleta
petiteta, blanca i neta,
com la Rosa mai li calla,
me contarà una rondalla
a la vora de la llar.
En sap tantes i tan belles,
tan plenes de meravelles,
de prínceps i de donzelles,
d'encantar-se i d'estimar, que els meus ulls se van obrint
i extasiant-se i resplendint,
i no es poden aclucar!

Agna

Tu em saps ben afalagar, trapassera, gran xerraire!
Vet aquí: no et costa gaire que enraoni i que bogegi!
Ja et conec bé la manera,
encara que repapiegi!
Trapassera, trapassera!
Ja ve com un anyellet

portant-se la cadireta!
Sí, ja pots baixar el capet
i fer cara de santeta.
No m'ho heu pas de venir a dir que tots us rieu de mi!

Jo em quedo a casa estaqueta, veig passar els mesos mortals,
i us armo sagramentals
i vigilo tot lo dia:
«Tu què vols, ara què fas» si no fos jo, pobre mas,
ja qui sap a on seria!

No em guaitis amb aquests ulls!
Tu ets com els altres, perquè te penses que faig embulls
i no soc bona per res.
Calla! Tossuda, atrevida;
jo ja sé per què t'ho dic!
Ca, si jo visc consumida.
Aquest món és un fatic!

Tant se us en dona, ja ho sé.
Lo que em passa no té nom.
Jo sempre ho dic a tothom:
algun dia em moriré.
Com si us sentís: —No és gran mal;
ja era vella, tant se val.
Ja no estava gaire forta.—
Però no ho digueu molt alt, potser no seré ben morta.
Oh, i ara me n'he adonat:
bé, què hi fas aquí enfavada?
T'hi quedaries plantada
per tota una eternitat.
Vaja doncs: Una vegada...

S'aclareix la paret del fons i es veu la decoració de camp. Passa Celístia, la va seguint Abim; quan ella es gira, l'Abim s'amaga grotescament. Per fi, quan ha desaparegut Celístia, Abim fa gestos d'amenaça, i desapareix a son torn.

Surten de l'eixida Alberica, Brianda i Montalvana, mudades, i la Fustots pobrament vestida.

Alberica

Nosaltres, totes mudades, anirem a les ballades
amb caputxes i arracades, faldilles encartronades
i tumbagues virolades;
tu, Fustots,
vestida de pellingots,
guarnida de teranyines,
coronada d'escardots
i de potes-cavallines
xipolleja als regarots;
mentrestant
ves les oques vigilant.

Brianda

Tu, germanastra avorrida, queda't, queda't a l'eixida
perquè ets lletja i fas ferum.
Ets tan negra i tan fumada que, guaitant tota esverada, has de fugir de la llum
com una rata pinyada.
Pansida, cara d'arrugues,
fastigosa, fuig d'aquí.

Ja cap paraula saps dir;
temps ha que només remugues;
tu mateixa et fas espant,
plena d'esquinços i taques.
Només de veure'ns tan maques
ja tens d'anar-te amagant.

Montalvana

Bruta, mala aparició, lletja com els teus intents;
ets gandula i fas pudor,
vas coixa i et manquen dents.
Els camps amb verí els arruixes
i dius mots estranys en l'ombra.
Com les bruixes
te pentines amb l'escombra
i cuses amb un ullal.
Només penses en fer mal.
Sedassera,
potinera,
munt de farda maleit!
Fang d'aigüera,
serradures de pastera,
borrissol de sota el llit!

Alberica

Oques, oques
cridaneres i badoques que avenceu tan desgarbades,
ens n'anem a les ballades;
quedeu-se aquí amb la Fustots,
feu-se crits i babarotes,

xipollegin vostres potes,
i els seus grossos sabatots!
I nosaltres dansarem
al bell so de les músiques.

Brianda

Com riurem!

Montalvana

Com gosarem!

Brianda

Ja ho veieu, si anem boniques!

Montalvana

Ja ho veieu, si estem contentes!

Brianda

D'aqueix poble i sos veïnats no hi haurà millors posats, ni robes més resplendentes.

(Ja es giren per anar-se'n. De sobte se senten les oques.)

Les oques

Oc, oc, oc.
La Fustots du vestit d'or!

Brianda

Sentiu les oques! I ara!

(Les tres dones s'han parat.)

Montalvana

La Fustots du vestit d'or!
La Fustots, l'arraconada,
la bruixa, la malgirbada;
ara veies quin tresor!

Brianda

Vestit d'or! Ai, la princesa!

Alberica

Vestit d'or! Quina riquesa, per anar pels regarots!

Montalvana

La Fustots, ves, la Fustots!

Les oques

Oc, oc, oc.
La Fustots du vestit d'or!

Brianda

Ai, Déu meu, Verge divina.

Montalvana

Posem el nasset ben cot!

Alberica

Vestida d'or, la coquina!

Montalvana

Oques, oques, sobretot
no us desfeu de la Regina.

Brianda

La Fustots, la cançonera,
la tonta, la malfeinera!
Vestit d'or!

Montalvana

Ves, dona, ves!

Brianda

Ai, quin riure! No puc més!

(Se'n van la mare i les germanastres. Queda la Fustots sola amb les oques.)

La Fustots

Des que el meu pare
se va morir
ningú m'estima,
soleta estic.
Sou mes amigues
només vosaltres,
oques petites,
oquetes blanques.

Mes de tenir-vos contenta soc;
ja em consola
vostra blancor,
i sou tan fines
i tan lluentes,
oques petites,
oques alegres!

I veniu totes
a vora meu,
penjant la pota
i alçant el bec;
i sereu sempre
mes estimades,
oques petites,
oquetes blanques.

(Surt la fada Celístia, tota il·luminada, entre els rosers, i diu a la Fustots:)

Celístia

Escolta, escolta, bona Fustots.
Aqueixes oques
del teu entorn,
que tu les peixes
amb greu dolçor,
que tu les portes
entre les flors,
que les tavelles
pels aiguamolls,
que les hi ensenyes
prades i fonts
i que les menes,
dreçant el coll,
eixorivides,
pels corriols,
aqueixes oques
del teu entorn
són les cinc filles del meu amor.

La Fustots

I vós, senyora,
digueu qui sou!

Celístia

Jo só[2] una fada;
só bella; só
pàl·lida i fina,
guaito i me fonc.
Me dic Celístia
i és fet mon cos
de gases fines,
d'argent molt dolç;
só una besada
i un tremolor.

La Fustots

Fada Celístia,
bé ho veieu vós;
vaig esqueixada,
duc sabatots.
Però deixeu-me
guaitâ-us[3] d'a prop.
Vaig amb cuidado;
no us taco, no.
Que aneu bonica,
que hermosa sou!

Celístia

Un negre geni que es deia Abim,
ell que es posava
quan era nit

[2] soc.
[3] guaitar-vos.

per les fondàries,
sota els camins,
amb ulls terribles
plens de verí
que sempre guaiten
de fit a fit.

Els que passaven,
tristos, solius,
en ell trobaven
fatal encís,
els dava vèrtig
i frenesí,
els hi xuclava
tot l'esperit
i els feia caure
cingles endins.

(Durant aquesta descripció surt el geni Abim, que sense ser vist, fa ganyotes i moviments de ràbia.)

La Fustots

Ave María!
Quin assassí!
Ja só escruixida
i esborronada
i esporuguida
i esparverada
i estamordida
i esgarrifada.

Si vós no estéssiu
a prop de mi,
cauria a terra,

faria un crit.
Quan en la fosca
faci camí
ja veuré sempre
que em va seguint.
Ja em darà sustos,
pobre de mi!
Ja el veuré en somnis
aquesta nit!

Celístia

Jo, compadida
dels caminants,
me vaig resoldre
d'eixir a l'espai,
ja nit entrada,
i acompanyâ'ls[4].
Des d'aleshores
és bell anar
en nits serenes
pel món en pau.

Per cims i planes
els caminants,
duts per la meva
suau claredat,
van més alegres,
no es cansen tant
i ses converses,
son caminar,
són sempre joves
i esperançats.

[4] acompanyar-los.

La Fustots

Fada Celístia,
me feu pensar
que de vegades,
quan m'han renyat
i soc ben trista,
sola i plorant,
en nits que triguen
molt de passar, els ulls aixeco
i un pàl·lid raig me
besa el rostre
i em va calmant.
Fada Celístia,
sou vós, veritat?
Que em duri sempre
vostre estimar!

Celístia

El negre geni,
ple de despit,
ja sense víctimes,
perdut l'encís,
volgué de pena
fer-me morir.

Negra fumera
va alçar una nit;
passava un núvol
davant de mi.
Mes filles, blanques
com gessamins,
joguinejaven
en llac soliu.

Desfet el núvol
no les vegí.
Pel llac nedaven
oques gentils,
somes i tristes
com els sospirs!
Eren mes filles!
Bé ho coneguí!
Les ha encantades
màgic albir.
No sé tornar-les al viure antic
ni com deu fer-se,
ni sols per qui.
Sigues entre elles
sens defallir;
per anar entre elles
té aqueix vestit.

(La fada toca amb la seva vareta a la Fustots, qui roman amb un vestit d'or. La fada desapareix.)

Les oques

Oc, oc, oc.
La Fustots du vestit d'or.

(La Fustots, voltada de les oques, seu a prop del bosquet de roses.)

La Fustots

Ai, veniu, amigues meves;
qui us podrà desencantar!
Si seria el meu besar-vos!
Si seria el meu plorar!

Ai, que en sou, de malaurades!
Mes no us manquen mes amors!
Que caiguin fulles de rosa damunt dels nostres dolors.

Què podrà desencantar-vos?
Digueu-m'ho amb vostre mirar.
Si seria el meu besar-vos!
Si seria el meu plorar!

(Compareix el Príncep Blanc.)

El Príncep

Ai, quines oques blanques!
Ai, quina Reina d'or!
Amb sola una mirada
ja m'ha robat el cor.
Oh, guardadora d'oques,
quina hermosor teniu!
Jo prou he vist princeses
a Nàpols i a París
i per aplecs i fires,
de totes les nacions,
amb uns ullets molt tendres
i un garbo de gipons i un aire de faldilles
i un follejar atrevit...
Mes vós esteu callada
i amb repòs infinit;
esteu tota aturada
i amb tan quiet mirar que un veu que per parlar-vos
se té d'agenollar.
Sou rossa com el dia,
sou blanca con la neu

i aneu bonica com
una Mare de Déu.

La Fustots

Ai Príncep, el bell Príncep, quines coses de dir!
Me poso vergonyosa;
tota em feu enrogir.
No sé on baixar la vista de tanta confusió.
Ai, vaja, sou un Príncep
molt comprometedor.

El Príncep

Sigueu la esposa meva;
jo us portaré al palau en una gran carrossa
guarnida amb setí blau.
I guardaran les vores
de nostres bells camins soldats vermells amb llances
i estrèpit de clarins.
I passarem nosaltres
amb joventut triomfal,
entre les coloraines
del goig universal.

La Fustots

Estic avergonyida
i tot això em confon.

Que hermosa que és la vida!
Que coses hi ha en el món!

M'apar com si la cara
tragués a un finestral.
Hi ha molt que jo no veia, però em quedo al meu casal.

Val més el sacrifici que una il·lusió esplendent.
Oques, amigues meues,
jo mai us deixaré.

Vull ésser l'oblidada,
la plena de tristor,
voltada de la vostra
pacífica blancor.

(Desapareix entre els rosers, seguida de les oques.)

El Príncep

Vosaltres, plenes d'espines, que coneixeu el dolor,
digueu-me, roses, digueu-me
a on és lo meu amor!

(Se'n va en cerca de la Fustots. Surten immediatament Alberica, Brianda i Montalvana, conduïdes pel mal geni Abim.)

Abim

Apa,
dones:
via,
prompte.

Passa
l'hora.
(A Brianda) Cuita.
(A Montalvana) Vola.
Via,
via,
via,
prompte.

Alberica

Vet aquí per què les balles ha deixat el fill del Rei.

Brianda

Vol el fat que a casa nostra ell hi trobi la muller.

Alberica

Quina serà l'escollida?
Poseu-vos maques, Déu meu!

Montalvana

Regirem totes les caixes
i baguls i bagulets!

Brianda

Escurem tots els calaixos, calaixons i calaixets!

Montalvana (a Alberica)

Bé em donareu les agulles.

Brianda (id.)

I m'arreglareu els plecs.

Montalvana (id.)

Jo vull quatre flors.

Brianda (id.)

Jo el vostre
mocador de casament.

Montalvana (id.)

I l'aigua d'olor !

Brianda (id.)

Les pintes!

Montalvana (id.)

El collar!

Brianda (id.)

El braçalet!

Abim

Apa,
dones:
via,
prompte.
Passa
l'hora.
(A Brianda) Cuita.
(A Montalvana) Vola.
Via,
via,
via,
prompte.

(Entren tots a la casa.)

(Compareix Celístia i diu dirigint-se als rosers:)

Celístia

Ves-te'n a casa!
Posa't, Fustots,
la roba vella
i els sabatots.
Torna als esquinços
i als pellingots!

(La Fustots travessa l'escenari humilment, vestida com al principi. Entra a la casa. Celístia desapareix. El Príncep surt.)

El Príncep

Vull una noia
vestida d'or!
Oh ma estimada,
on ets? Respon!
Aquí fugires
entre les flors.
D'aqueixa casa (la que s'veu)
deu ser l'amor;
no n'hi ha d'altra
per eixos vols.

Vull una noia
que és com un sol;
vull una noia
que em torna boig;
vull una noia
que se m'ha fos;
vull una noia,
vull una noia,
la vull i prou;
vull una noia,
vull una noia,
vull una noia
vestida d'or!

(Truca a la porta de l'eixida. Surt Alberica.)

Aquí té d'ésser;
deu-me-la vós:
vull una noia
vestida d'or.

Alberica

Ai, jo en tinc dues,
regi senyor.
Ja van molt maques,
però d'or no!

(Surt Brianda i poc després Montalvana, fent reverències i genuflexions.)

Senyor, aquesta
n'és la major.
És molt hermosa;
se'm sembla molt.

El Príncep

Era més bella
la que s'ha fos.
Vull una noia
vestida d'or.

Alberica

Senyor, aquesta
n'és la menor.
Bon pam de cara,
cosset airós.

El Príncep

Era més bella
la que s'ha fos.
Vull una noia
vestida d'or!

Les oques (dintre els rosers)

Oc, oc, oc.
La Fustots du vestit d'or!

El Príncep

Digueu-me prompte,
qui du aqueix nom?
És d'eixa casa?
Fustots, Fustots!

(Surt Fustots, pobrament vestida.)

Brianda

Amaga l'esguard poruc;
com un corb ets malastruga,
com una oliva feixuga,
solitària com un duc!
Ta boca és tota badada,
tos ulls tenen degotims,
i sembles tan desgarbada,
que vas trepitjant raïms.
Davant senyors principals
com ixes tan atrevida?
Au, torna-te'n a l'eixida
a tractar amb els animals.

Montalvana

I quina cara de faba!
Mira com li cau la baba!
La gent que et vol enraonar primer t'ha de sacsejar, perquè sinó no et despertes.

Les teues mans són obertes
com si esperessin mannà.
Alenes amb gran remor,
i a aquell qui no et coneix gaire li sembla que ensumes l'aire per veure si fa pudor.
Gandula, desagraïda,
que només penses que mals;
au, torna-te'n a l'eixida
a tractar amb els animals!

La Fustots

Aquell qui em cridava
m'hi pot enviar.

Brianda

Ai, desvergonyida,
com goses parlar?

Montalvana

Torna-te'n a casa!

(Se tiren les dues germanes damunt la Fustots i la volen arrencar violentament de l'escena.)

Príncep

I no és ella!

La Fustots

Ai!
D'una esgarrapada
m'haveu fet sang!

(En el moment que diu aquests mots torna a quedar amb el vestit daurat. S'amaga entre els rosers, avergonyida.)

(El Príncep va a cercar-la immediatament. Quan està davant dels rosers, exclama:)

Príncep

Oh quin prodigi! Les oques en donzelles s'han tornat!

La Fustots
(sortint seguida de cinc donzelles)

De ma sang amb una gota totes s'han desencantat.

Príncep

Veiem, vull contar-vos: una, dugues, tres i quatre i cinc.
De seguida vull casar-vos
amb els cinc germans que tinc.
(A la Fustots) I tu seràs la Regina;
plens d'anells duràs els dits,
donaràs saraus i festes,
menjaràs sempre confits.

Tindràs cambres sumptuoses totes plenes de claror,
i hi haurà, esperant tes ordres,
un patge a cada racó.

Tindràs sillons amb domassos
i miralls per veure't bé,
i tapissos amb històries que ja te las contaré.

Tindràs aucells de mil boscos, tindràs flors de mil jardins
i caminaràs a sobre
de catifes i coixins.

Voltats de gentada immensa anirem a passejar, caminant de mica en mica
perquè et puguin admirar.

I en ton vestit una cua
tan ampla tens de lluir, que passant d'acera a acera
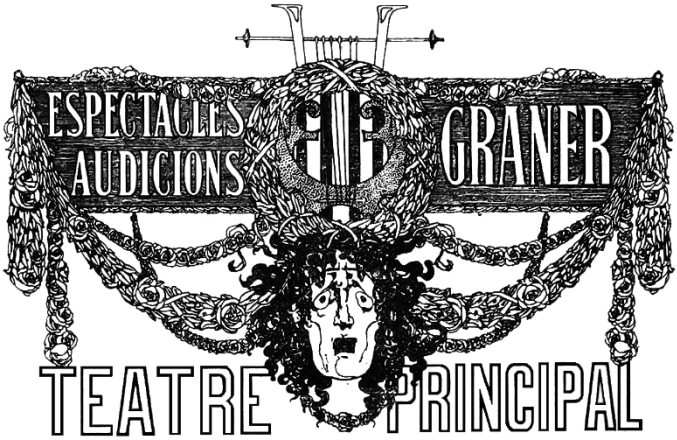
encara ha de sobreeixir.

I diran grans i quitxalla:
—Que n'és d'hermosa, manoi!—
Tu quedaràs satisfeta
i jo també molt cofoi.

Brianda i Montalvana

Babau!



El Príncep

Ai, desvergonyides!
Quin càstig us podré dar?
Us faig porteres de casa.
Així ens veureu passar!
I tu i jo, Fustots, la vida
passarem, contents i rics, i menjant sempre carmel·los
i anant sempre ben bonics!

(La decoració del fondo s'obscureix. Tot torna a quedar com al començament de l'obra.)

Àvia

I a la porta n'hi ha un fus, acabat amén Jesús.
(A la neta) Sigues entenimentada
i cuidadosa, ja ho veus:
si guardes ben bé les oques,
te podràs casar amb un Rei!

VISIÓ DE NATURALESA

Decorat de l'OLEGUER JUNYENT

LA MATINADA

Cor

Oh, Déu, bon Déu!
Oh, Sol, bon Sol!

Tots

Com vol de grans aucells
cantem la matinada,
que el Sol ben aviat
enviarà son bes;
per ales ens han dat
el càvec i l'aixada:
per què volem res més?

Déu fa sortir el Sol
i amb ell l'amor envia, fent les aubades tèbies
ben reblertes d'anhels.

Quan rep el Sol, la terra es mostra amorosida,
i espera els vostres braços,
fuets d'eterna vida
que fan florir les planes per encisar els cels.

Homes sols

Oh, Déu, bon Déu!
Oh, Sol, bon Sol!

Noies joves

Oh, Sol! Quan ton reflex s'estengui per la plana, recorda't del meu cor.
La veu de la donzella t'ho demana...!
Què en saps, del meu amor?

Les mares

Salut pels nostres fills i els nostres homes
ens portarà el bon Sol;
espigues plenes i xamoses pomes per guarnir amoroses el bressol.

Els vells

El Sol ens darà escalf i bon coratge.

Els homes

La força tu, bon Sol, ens portaràs
i amb ella faràs dolç nostre esclavatge.

Nois

Bon Sol, bon Sol,
quan te pondràs,
voreta el foc
quines rondalles deixaràs?

Tots

Oh, Déu, bon Déu!
Oh, Sol, bon Sol!

Salut, rei de les llums, fanal que el tot potent per l'espai branda!

Qui pogués com els aucells festejar ta matinada
i gronxar-se tal com ells
en la fresca matinada!
Dona'ns forces pel conreu
i bondat indefinida, per alcançar del bon Déu la pau d'eterna florida.

Com vol de grans aucells
cantem la matinada,
que el Sol ja s'és llevat

i havem rebut son bes.
Per ales ens han dat
el càvec i l'aixada:
per què volem res més?

Oh, Déu, bon Déu!
Oh, Sol, bon Sol!

Lo Miracle del Tallat

LLEGENDA DE POBLET EN 3 QUADROS

Lletra d'en Josep CARNER
Música del Mestre Enric MORERA

DECORACIONS
DELS SENYORS BRUNET I POUS

Lo Miracle del Tallat

NOTA

Aquesta composició ha sigut inspirada en una llegenda recollida per D. Josep Pin i Soler i publicada en edició de bibliòfil per Henric i Cª en 1896. De dita publicació n'extraiem les notícies següents:

L'il·lustre Finestres, en la seva Història de Poblet, parla així d'aquesta tradició: «...el tercer siti és a on se va trobar de sobte, sense saber com, un home veí de Granyanella anomenat Miró, qui estava esclau a l'Alger dormint empresonat i engrillonat, el qual havent reclamat de cor a la Verge del Tallat, al despertar-se es va trobar miraculosament en aquest Santuari, i desfet en llàgrimes de devoció anava de genollons arrastrant les cadenes a adorar a la Santa Imatge... i havent-li el Prior i els de la seva família tret les cadenes, les varen penjar en una paret de l'església, a on avui dia romanen per memòria de la posteritat.»

El santuari del Tallat, a on s'hi pot anar des de Montblanc o de L' Espluga del Francolí, avui és gairebé del tot destruït. En el castell de Santa Florentina de Canet de Mar foren traslladades algunes joies artístiques del Tallat que encara es pogueren salvar. La creu que perpetuava lo miracle del Tallat se troba avui en lo Mas de la Misericòrdia de Reus, arquebisbat de Tarragona. La inscripció següent, dictada per lo mateix D. Josep Pin i Soler i gravada en lo sòcol, relata el fet de la seva translació:

QUADRO I

Port d'Alger. Arriba una nau corsària. La gent sarraïna conversa i dansa.

(Els Captius davallen de la nau. Entre ells hi ha en Miró de Granyanella. Duts per barbres pirates canten:)

Els captius

Alger sobre les ones,
oh, vila blanca i d'or!
Mandrosa, indiferenta contemples nostre plor.

Immòbil, ta bellesa
contempla al seu davant cadenes que arrosseguen
i crits que van durant.

Els negres soterranis
ens dones per presó;
amb un menyspreu de Reina
ens negues la claror.

El dia cau; ens volta
un gran silenci trist.

Uns captius

Oh, llar!

Altres

País dels avis!

Altres

Oh, fills!

Tots

Oh, Jesucrist!

(Els captius se'n són anats lentament. És cap al tard.)

(Tornen a ballar molt mandrosament.)
(Les ballarines van desapareixent.)

QUADRO II

Una cova a prop de la mar. Els sarraïns guarden al captiu Miró qui és dins de la cova. És nit.

(Se sent el cant del muetzí:)

Al·lah és Al·lah.
No hi ha altre Al·lah que Al·lah.
Desperteu i a pregar.
Al·lah és Al·lah.
No hi ha altre Al·lah que Al·lah.

Els sarraïns

Ca cristià!
Nom sobre nom, el nom d'Al·lah!
El dia és son parpellejar!
L'eternitat és son mirar!

Captiu Miró

(Diu en fervorosa pregària:)

Tendra poncella,
flor de pietat,
Santa Madona del Tallat:
Vós sou amunt, llunyana i bella!
Jo fa set anys só[5] aquí tancat.
Mon cap blanqueja,
ma barba cau.
Passen estrelles pel cel blau,
roda el xaloc, l'ona fresseja...
Jo fa set anys que som esclau.
Santa Maria!
El vostre Infant
du un llibre obert al prec constant:
tinc set i fam, Madona mia;
hagueu pietat de vostre aimant.
Fam de guaitar-vos,
set d'adorar-vos,
Flor de pietat!
En el sojorn que Vós volguéreu
i on entre flors apareguéreu,
Santa Madona del Tallat!

(El captiu Miró queda extàtic, com si contemplés, al lluny, la seva estimada Verge. Se senten veus interiors qui canten els Goigs de la Mare de Déu del Tallat.)

[5] soc.

Veus interiors

Alceu-vos sobre l'angoixa,
com matí de claredat.
Oh, clement; oh, dolça; oh, pia
Mare de Déu del Tallat!

(El captiu Miró s'acosta confiat cap al mar. Voltats de suavíssima claror venen Àngels per damunt de l'aigua tranquil·la.)

Àngels

Arca d'aliança,
Torre de David.
Àuria demora,
Estel matutí.
Vós sou somrienta,
llibert el captiu.

Causa d'alegria,
de justícia espill;
rosa oberta i closa,
salut de l'infirm[6].

(Els Àngels s'enduen sobre el mar al captiu Miró.)

Al vostre somriure
s'acaba la nit,
cauen les cadenes,
canta el dematí;
mort, pecat, misèria
se perden d'ovir.

[6] "enfermo", malalt.

QUADRO III

Cim del Tallat. És l'auba. Els àngels hi deixen el captiu Miró, qui obre els ulls embadalit.

Àngels

(Interior)

Arca d'aliança,
Torre de David.
Àuria demora,
Estel matutí.

Captiu Miró

La boira es desfà,
pels abims se llença.
Oh, Déu, ja es fa clar;
sento panteixar
Catalunya immensa.

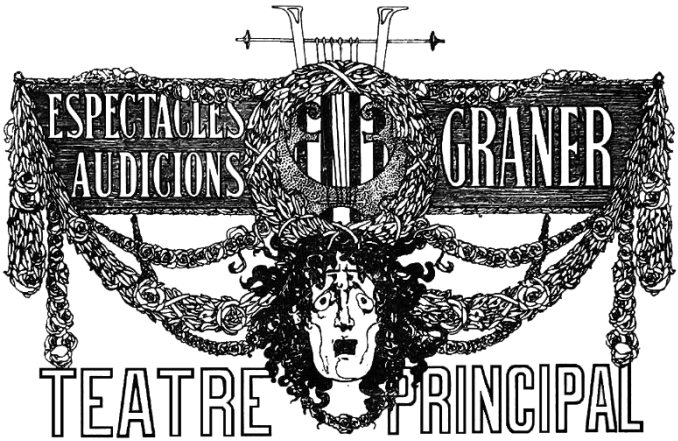
Soc dalt del Tallat.
Oh, l'aspre serrat,

l'altar de Maria!
Oh, la llibertat
i l'aire i el dia!

(Cau de genolls davant de la creu.)

(Una processó se dirigeix vers el santuari.)

Gent de la processó



(Interior, acostant-se.)

Alceu-vos sobre l'angoixa,
com matí de claredat.
Oh, clement; oh, dolça; oh, pia
Mare de Déu del Tallat!

(Van sortint a escena.)

(Cauen les cadenes del captiu Miró, qui roman extasiat, ple de mística joia. Apoteosi.)

Al vostre somriure
s'acaba la nit,
cauen les cadenes,
canta el dematí;
mort, pecat, misèria
se perden d'ovir.

QUADRO I

EL PESSEBRE

Cor general

Avui pels homens la nit és dia, avui pels àngels la terra és cel;
damunt la palla d'una establia, prop de María
caigué un estel.

Caigué a la terra com una perla,
perla divina d'immens valor,
perquè nosaltres, podent haver-la, volguéssim fer-la
joiell d'amor.

Estel qui daura la nit hermosa,
els àngels canten al voltant seu;
mentres a fer-ho l'aucell s'hi posa floreix la rosa damunt la neu.

No és tan puríssim el de l'aubada quan les tenebres i boires fon;
sa llum divina, del cel baixada,
serà escampada
per tot el món.

QUADRO II

ÀNGELS I ROSSINYOLS

_____

Els rossinyols

Soc l'arpa de la boscúria
que gronxa el suau oreig;
si el meu niu és a la terra,
el meu càntic és del cel.

Quan hermosos davallaven
del Paradís al verger, jo dels àngels l'aprenia,
l'aprenia fa molt temps.

Si el Paradís va marcir-se ja no es marcirà mai més;
avui tornen a baixar-hi
cantant els àngels del cel.

Vós qui els crideu a la terra,
Jesuset, bon Jesuset,
endolciu mes refilades,
deixeu-me cantar amb ells.

Soc l'arpa de la boscúria
que gronxa el suau oreig;
si el meu niu és a la terra,
el meu càntic és del cel.

Els àngels

Pastorets, bons pastorets
qui feu foc a la muntanya, si cap a Betlem veniu
trobareu la rosa blanca;
trobareu un bell infant
ajagut sobre la palla entre una mula i un bou
en el recó d'un estable.

Sembla que plori de fred,
però plora d'enyorança:
del vostre senzill amor
enyora la dolça flama.
El seu pare n'és fuster,
per fer-li el bressol treballa.
Sa mare per adormî-l[7],
hermosa cançó li cantà.

[7] adormir-lo.

QUADRO III

LA DANSA DELS PASTORS

_____

Els pastors

Hem vist un estel
qui queia del cel
a nostra encontrada:
al mig de la nit
perfum hem sentit
de rosa boscana.

Seguint-ne la llum,
seguint- ne el perfum
qui el cor embriaga,
pels àngels voltat
l'infant hem trobat
a dins de l'estable.

Mireu-lo, tan bell,
no té cap aucell
qui canti sa gràcia;
posem-s'hi, minyons,
cantem-li cançons
al so de la gralla.

Mireu-lo, tan xic,
no té per abric
res més que la palla.

Pastors dels serrats,
dels nostres remats
portem-li la llana.

Per treure-li el fred,
portem-li un feixet
de llenya triada;
als roures i pins
dels boscos veïns
prenent una branca.

Portal de Betlem
amb goig l'encendrem,
voltant-ne la flama.
És nit d'alegrâ-ns[8]:
donem-nos les mans
i fem la sardana.

[8] alegrar-nos.

QUADRO IV

L'ADORACIÓ

_____

Sant Josep

Aquesta santa nit
a l'arbre de David pels homens ha florit
una branqueta.

Ja que la vaig regar
deixeu-me-la abastar, deixeu-me-la olorar
la flor novella.

És un calze de mel,
és un hermós estel,
és una flor del cel
qui ve a la terra.

Floreta del cel blau
qui vessa olor suau;
el cistellet on cau
és un pessebre.

Com és que el fill de Déu qui té l'univers seu
vol néixer a prop meu
en nit tan freda?

Si és Rei de lo creat, per què no ve voltat
de llum i claredat
com sol qui es lleva?

Jesús, divina flor,
infant de cabells d'or,
de llavis del color
de la rosella.

Oh, quin bonic infant!
Mentres l'estic mirant,
adorm-el amb ton cant,
esposa meva.

Maria

Quina cançó et cantaré,
infant de galtes de rosa?
Quina cançó et cantaré
que et sigui agradosa, que et sàpiga bé?

Si tingués la lira d'or
de l'angèlica harmonia.
Si tingués la lira d'or,
que bé et cantaria
el cant de l'amor!

Quin estel vos ha sortit,
rossinyols de l'encontrada,
quin estel vos ha sortit!
Canteu-li l'aubada!
Canteu-li la nit!

Adormiu al meu fillet
amb la vostra cantarella.
Adormiu al meu fillet,
desclosa poncella
del meu raseret.

QUADRO V

AL·LELUIA!

———

Els àngels (intern)

De complir-se el misteri l'instant és ja;
baixem tots a la terra:
Jesús es nat.
Amb les nostres cantúries
omplim l'espai:
Glòria a Déu i lloança!
Als homens pau!

Els rossinyols

De l'arbre floridíssim del paradís
la branca qui es marcia torna a florir;
Jesús se n'enamora
per fer-hi niu,
com blanca colometa
se'n vola allí.

Els pastors

Ajagut a les palles
del naixement,
per donar-li la vida
miracle immens!
Com la flor a l'abella
sa fina mel,
una Verge li dona
sa dolça llet.

Maria

Poncelletes de l'abril,
ja que sou sa millor joia,
poncelletes de l'abril,
formeu-li una toia
gemada i gentil.

Hermosa nit de l'hivern,
que bonica és ta serena!
Hermosa nit de l'hivern,
avui t'enllumena
la llum del Etern.

Cor

La cançó que li canta
tot baix, tot baix, entre somnis hermosos
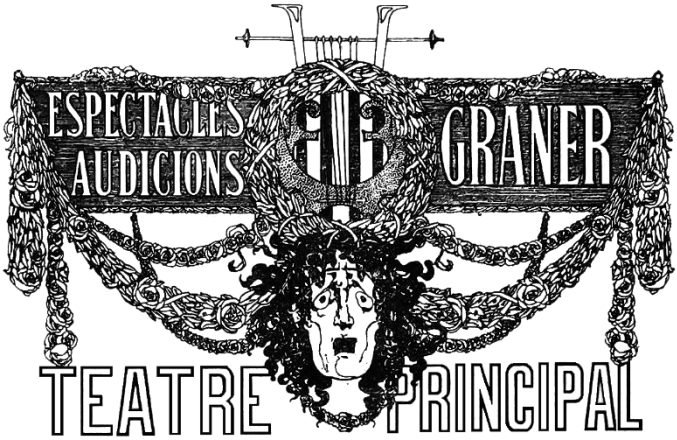
fa endormiscâ-l[9].

Cor



Barregem-hi la nostra,
cantem plegats:
Glòria a Déu i lloança!
Als homens pau!

[9] endormiscar-lo.

Puig la terra va ser redimida
de Jesús per la llei immortal, jamai deixi de ser beneïda la primera claror de sa vida amb els cants de la nit de Nadal.

Glòria a Déu i lloança!
Als homens pau!

Lletra de la cançó popular

Si n'eren tres tambors que en venen de la guerra,
el més petit de tots
porta un ram de rosetes.
    Ram, ram, pataplam!

La filla del bon Rei
n'ha sortit en finestra:

— Tambor, lo bon tambor,
si em vols dar una roseta?

— Donzella, qui l'haurà serà l'esposa meua.
No us donaré lo ram que a vós no us puga prendre.

— M'haveu de demanar
al pare i a la mare.
Si vos ho volen dar per mi res no es pot perdre.

— Déu lo guard, rei francès;
si em dareu l'Infanteta?

— Bé em diràs tu, tambor,
quina hisenda és la teva.

— L'hisenda que jo en tinc:
la caixa i les manetes.

— Ix-me d'aquí, tambor,
abans no et faci perdre!

— No em fareu perdre vós,
ni vós me fareu perdre;
que allí en lo meu país
ne tinc gent que em defensa.

— Bé em diràs tu, tambor,
bé em diràs qui et defensa.

— Em defensa el rei franc
amb tota sa noblesa,
que jo soc fill del rei,
del rei de l'Anglaterra.

— Vine, vine, tambor:
ma filla serà teva.

QUADRO I

Una plaça pública en la vila de Vallflorest, de la que n'és sobirà el Rei Francí.

Una part dels exèrcits del Comtat de Granastre, tornant de la guerra i havent retut els del Comtat de Gorcglaç, arriben de pas a la vila de Vallflorest i s'hi deturen curta estona per a reposar de la caminada.

El poble ho sabia i els rep amb entusiasme i amb mostres de gran joia.

Per la porta de la vila, que al fons s'aixeca, compareixen munió de paisans, homes i dones, amb branques verdes a les mans, i barrejant-se amb els qui ja esperaven a la plaça, fan pas i festegen als de Granastre, qui arriben victoriosos al so de clarins i tambors, llurs banderes voleiant per l'aire, grans i colorides, i llurs vestits llampants ferint la vista a l'espetec del sol. De per tot cauen flors i fulles i per tot s'escampa la joia popular.

Tot just s'obre la cortina, gran gatzara en l'aplec de gent del poble qui espera impacient l'arribada dels ja dits soldats, motivant això el cor següent:

Cor

Oh, jorn d'alegria!
Oh, sol esplendent!
El bon Déu t'envia
brillant i potent.

Esperem frissosos
els valents soldats,
qui venen joiosos
de llors coronats.

Salut, salut, soldats de la victòria;
nostres cantúries són l'himne de glòria!

Oh, jorn d'alegria!
Oh, sol esplendent
El bon Déu t'envia
brillant i potent.

Triomfants arriben
de llors coronats.
Cantem tots un himne
pels valents soldats.

(Se senten els tambors.)

Parlat:

Un

Ja són aquí.

Altre

Mireu-los!

Un

Visquen els fers soldats del Comtat de Granastre!

Tots

Visquen!...

(Repic de campanes i arribada dels soldats en mig de l'esplet d'alegria del poble. Els nois, saltant i ballant, van davant dels qui arriben. Tot és joia i entusiasme.)

Cor (poble)

Salut als braus tambors
qui venen de la guerra
i porten en llurs cors
el goig de jovenesa,
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

Mireu el més menut,
porta un ram de rosetes.
Tambors, oh, bons tambors,
quedeu-se en nostra terra
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
quedeu-se en nostra terra.

Salut als braus tambors
qui venen de la guerra
i porten en llurs cors
el goig de jovenesa
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

(Poble i soldats se barregen molt animats.)

Parlat:

Un

Visquen els soldats
qui retornen de la guerra!

Tots

Visquen!

Altre

Una dansa hem de donar al bell torn de la bandera.

Tots

Sí, sí.

(Ballen la sardana al voltant de la gran bandera del Comtat.)

Cor (tot ballant)

De flors i de garlandes
s'embaumen nostres cants.
Soldats del de Granastre, salut, salut, soldats.

(Gran gatzara; una colla de noies se presenta davant d'alguns soldats i oficials, oferint-los-hi beure.)

Parlat:

Oficial

Bevem, companys;
el vi porta l'amor a flor de boca.

(Ne venen d'altres i també s'hi barregen, festejant les noies.)

Un del poble (als soldats)

Per tots n'hi ha.
Beveu, soldats, ja que el triomf és vostre.

(Beuen. Un soldat s'enfila damunt d'una taula i amb el vas a la mà canta com si brindés.)

Soldat

Companys, bevem
a la salut d'aquest poble;
visca l'amor,
que és pau del cor
si és amor noble!

(Animació general.)

Salut als esguards
d'ulls negres radiants,
als rostres colrats
pel sol flamejant.

Salut a l'amor, consol infinit
qui escampa pel món florida gentil.

Salut al panteix
del pit virginal,
i al llavi febrenc
de besos aimants.

L'amor és estel
qui ens dona braó;
estel resplendent,
llumena mon cor.

D'esguards com aquests
qui em volten aquí,
me'n faria el cel
d'una eterna nit!...

Salut als esguards
d'ulls negres radiants,
als rostres colrats
pel sol flamejant.

Parlat:

Un

Visquen els valents soldats!

Tots

Visquen!

(Gran gatzara.)

Tambor I

Deixeu-nos passejar per vostra bella vila, ajeure'ns en les prades, gaudir dels gais jardins, seguir poquet a poc l'encant de cares fines
i veure si entre tantes alguna ens en somriu.

Un

Seguiu per on vulgueu, tambors i fers soldats;
les prades i els jardins, les noies rialleres, les flors, els vols d'aucells, els homes i els infants n'hauran delit sens fi de que petgeu llurs terres.

Tambor I

Mercès, i així rebeu nostra amistat sincera.

Un

Salut als vencedors i a llur gentil bandera!

(Gran entusiasme en el poble.)

Cor

Salut als braus tambors
qui venen de la guerra
i porten en llurs cors
el goig de jovenesa
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

(Animació extraordinària.)

QUADRO II

(Se sent interior la cançó popular. La Princesa la sent i acompanyada de ses dues seguidores, surt a la terrassa i escolta. Tot seguit venen del fons, taral·lejant-la encara, els tres tambors.)

Tots tres

Oidà! Som tres tambors
arribats de la guerra;
portem en nostres cors
el goig de jovenesa
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

Seguidora I

Mireu quins tres tambors de tan bella presència.

Seguidora II

Tots tres ben gentils són, oh, dama la Princesa!

Tambor I

Repara quin ramell
de cares rialleres.

Tambor II

Quina és la qui us plau més?

Tambor III

Amb totes m'acontento.

Tambor II

Parlem-los-hi, companys.

Tambor I

Salut, gentils donzelles.

Princesa

Salut als braus tambors
qui venen de la guerra.

Seguidora I

Salut al més petit,
qui du un ram de rosetes.

Princesa

Si me les voleu dar
me'n fareu ben contenta.

Tambor I

Jo us donaré les flors,
que ho val vostra bellesa;
mes digueu-me qui sou.

Princesa

Soc sols una Princesa.

Tambor I

Princesa de l'amor,
són vostres les rosetes;
són vostres si em dieu
que vós voleu ser meva.

Princesa

Bé demaneu, bé, prou,
feu via molt de pressa.

Tambor I

A canvi d'eixes flors
amb una m'acontento.

Princesa

M'haureu de demanar
al pare que venero.
Si son permís vol dar
seré vostra per sempre.

Tambor I

Passeu vós al davant,
que jo vindré al darrere.

Princesa

Sentiu aquests clarins
Anuncien sa presència.

Música. Compareixen el Rei i son seguit.
Quan acaba la música:

Tambor I

M'hauràs de perdonar
si et vull tenir conversa;
mes, oh, bon rei Francís,
la gent parlant s'entenen.

Rei

Jo prou t'escolto, prou,
que parlis sols espero;
però enllesteix, si et plau,
que tinc un xic de pressa.

Tambor I

Som tres pobres tambors
arribats de la guerra.
Jo el més petit de tots porto un ram de rosetes.

La teua filla, oh Rei, qui estima les flors fresques,
m'ha festejat el ram,
i jo festejo a n'ella.

Rei

Què dius, pobre tambor?
Amb qui parles no penses?

Tambor I

Parlo amb un Rei qui té
la filla per merèixer.
Soc fort i bon cristià,
no em manca l'honradesa
i com que em vull casar, ho dic tal com ho penso.

Rei

Em plau el teu parlar
amb tanta gentilesa.

Tambor I

El bec i el refilar
són coses de naixença.

Rei

Mes m'has de dir també
quina hisenda és la teva.

Tambor I

L'hisenda que jo en tinc:
la caixa i les manetes.

Rei

Tambor, pobre tambor,
de tant mísera hisenda
no pots pas fer-ne do
a tota una Princesa.

Tambor I

A la vritat[10], gran Rei, em causa gran sorpresa que un home com sou vós
tant amb hisendes pensi.

A un Rei tan poderós no li manquen riqueses
i bé pot acceptar
un pobre bo per gendre.

[10] veritat.

Rei

Ah! Ves-te'n, bon tambor, abans no et faci perdre.

Tambor I

No em fareu perdre pas, que prou tinc qui em defensa.
Em defensa el Rei Franc
amb tota sa noblesa,
que tal com me veieu
soc Príncep d'Anglaterra.

Rei (content)

... Ja et veia certament
un aire de noblesa!
Haver-ho dit abans,
senyor de l'Anglaterra.
Aquí teniu sa mà;
doneu-li les rosetes.

Tambor I

De vós no en sento grat,
i em dol a fe per ella.
No m'heu volgut soldat,
Príncep no us seré gendre.

Allà en el meu país
n'hi ha qui són ben belles;
no us refieu mai més
de les aparències.

I si una dona em vol,
tambor m'haurà de prendre;
un cop serem casats
sabrà la vritat bella.

(Fa un salut reverencial i jocós, tot retirant-se amb els dos companys.)

Princesa

Ah, pare! Què haveu fet?

(Plora.)

Seguidora I

No ploreu, la Princesa...

Princesa

Malhaja el vil diner
qui ha mort ma jovenesa!

(Resta abraçada amb ses amigues. Ells se'n van pel fons. El Rei fa signe a son seguit, i segueixen son camí. Reprèn la música.)

QUADRO III

La mateixa plaça del primer.

(S'anima de nou; se senten tocs de clarí que anuncien que la tropa se'n té d'anar. Van venint bandades de soldats. Tot se mou. Les campanes se senten lluny com en senyal de comiat.)

Cor, poble i soldats

Oh, vila de Vallflorest!
Lo que és d'aquesta diada,
ne duràs per sempre més
un record com el cel d'ample.

Poble

Oh, soldats del gran Comtat!
No prengueu pas comiat;
que amb lo poc que ens havem vist
el deixar-nos se'ns fa trist.

(Gran trompeteria anuncia la marxa.)

Adeu-siau, soldats de la victòria;
rebeu el nostre cant, himne de glòria!
Oh, bell estol de lluitadors terribles!
Vostre valor us fa grans, invencibles.

Visquen, visquen els soldats, triomfants i benaurats.

(Entre cridòries, comencen a desfilar cap al fons. Passa la banda de tambors i esclata el motiu popular en el cor. Els tres tambors van davant.)

Cor

Salut als grans tambors
qui venen de la guerra,
i porten en llurs cors
el goig de jovenesa
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

(Per entre el poble de primer terme dreta apareix la Princesa no volent ser vista. Va seguida de ses companyes. No fa més que procurar veure al Tambor I.)

Dones

Mireu al més petit,
porta un ram de rosetes.

Homes

Tambors, oh, braus tambors, remembreu nostra terra.
Ram, ram, pataplam!

(El Tambor I ha vist la Princesa i, mentre se'n van, li llença una roseta al rostre. Ella cau en basca entre ses amigues.)

Tothom

Salut als grans tambors
qui venen de la guerra,
i porten en llurs cors
el goig de jovenesa
—ram, ram, pataplam!—
el goig de jovenesa.

(Gran clamoreig del poble despedint els soldats qui van desfilant cap al fons.)

SEGLE XV

Lletra de la cançó popular

A la ciutat de Lleida n'hi ha una presó;
de presos mai n'hi manquen,
petita bonica,
prou n'hi porta el Baró,
lireta liró.
Hi ha trenta tres presos,
canten una cançó;
l'ha treta i l'ha dictada
el més jove de tots.
La nina se'ls escolta
de dalt del mirador,
a cada posadeta
ne davalla un graó.
Els presos se n'adonen
i paren la cançó.
—Canteu, canteu, bons presos,
canteu-ne, la cançó.
—Com cantarem, senyora,
si estem en greu presó?
—Que us falta menjar o beure
o us quiten la racció?
—No ens falta menjar i beure ni 'ns quiten la racció;
lo que ens falta, senyora,
les claus de la presó.

—Canteu, canteu-ne, presos,
acabeu la cançó,
acabeu-la, bons presos,
que me'n captiva el so.
Aniré al meu pare,
recaptaré el perdó.
—Qui és que l'ha dictada,
tan bonica cançó?
—El del barret negre,
el més jove de tots.—
Ja se'n va an el seu pare
a demanar-li un do.
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
jo vos deman un do,
no vos deman València
ni tampoc Aragó,
ni tampoc Barcelona,
ciutat de gran valor.
—Ai, filla Margarida,
quin do vols que jo 't do?
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
les claus de la presó
—Ai, filla Margarida,
això no pot ser, no;
els presos fugirien,
com quedaria jo?
Digues per què vols, filla,
les claus de la presó?
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
per treure l'aimador.
—Ai, filla Margarida,
quin és ton aimador?
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
el més petit de tots.

—Ai, filla Margarida,
això no pot ser, no,
han cremat La Garriga,
Conflent i Rosselló.
—Dels presos que allà canten,
digueu què en fareu vós?
—S'acosta el sant dissabte,
els penjaré a tots.
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
no pengeu l'aimador.
—Ai, filla Margarida,
serà el primer de tots;
les cordes són filades,
que en costen a pes d'or.
—Ai, pare, lo meu pare,
pengeu-me a mi i tot,
feu les forques de plata,
feu-ne los dogals d'or,
i a cada cap de forca
poseu-hi un pom de flors
perquè la gent qui passi, sentint la bona olor,
resin un Pare-nostre
per l'ànima dels dos
i diguin "Ai, la trista, qui ha mort per l'aimador!"
Déu la perdó, floreta,
jardí de cada flor.
—Qui és esta donzella
qui és morta per l'amor?
—Neta és del rei d'Hongria,
parenta d'Aragó.
Déu l'hagi perdonada,
la filla del Baró.

PERSONATGES

MARGARIDA, la Princesa.

UNA DAMA, seguidora.

EL BARÓ, pare de la Princesa.

UNA DONA JOVE DEL POBLE.

L'ESCARCELLER.

NOBLES AL SERVEI DEL BARÓ.

EL PASTOR PRESONER.

PRESONERS.

POBLE.

La Presó de Lleida

QUADRO I

La presó per dins

L'escena representa l'interior de la presó amb tot de presoners ajaguts per terra i acorralats pels racons.

Un pastor presoner més jovenet que els altres se troba a prop d'una de les reixes del fons. Fa cara de bon noi: se'l veu pensiu i melangiós.

Els presoners, menys aquest darrer, al començar, canten lo següent:

Un

A Collbató,
Déu me perdó!
ben a propet de Montserrat,
hi he robat,
lairí-lairó

dugues vedelles i un moltó;
però ben car ho he pagat,
que m'han portat a la presó.

Tots els del voltant

Lairí -lairà,
lairí-lairò,
s'hi viu de franc a la presó.

(Riuen i enraonen entre ells.)

Un altre presoner
(qui s'està sol mig ajaçat)

Carretera amunt, Carretera avall,
la cerco per tot,
no la puc trobar.
Mareta del cor,
diga'm si has finat,
digues-m'ho d'un colp
i em veuràs plorar!
L'arrepentiment
bé em podrà salvar!

Els del grup anterior (entre ells)

Lairí -lairà,
lairí-lairò,
s'hi viu de franc a la presó.

Un altre grup de segon terme (baixet)

Ai, el pla de Tarragona, qui ‘t pogués veure d’a prop!
El meu cor bé prou t’enyora, pobre cor!

Els del grup anterior

Lairí -lairà,
lairí-lairò,
que dur s’hi jeu a la presó.

Un qui dorm (parlat)

Deixeu-me dormir si us plau!

(Riuen i parlen encara més fort i esgavellat)

Un altre dels qui canten

Prou dormiràs a la forca!

(En aquest moment entra l’Escarceller i els diu impetuosament:)

Mal com no cau un llamp qui us torni cendres a tots plegats!
Calleu d’un colp!

(Un xiquet de quietud somorta:)

Mala negada!

(Se’n va per l’altra banda.)

Un

Té mala lluna l'escarceller!

Un altre

Deixa'1 estar... Pitjor per ell!

Un qui s'està a prop del pastor

I tu, pastor, també ets lladre?

Pastor

Jo no ho sé pas lo que soc;
jo no he cremat La Garriga,
ni Conflent, ni Rosselló;
vora d'un 1nur me trobaren
de la nit en la foscor;
si per lladre varen prendre'm
no ho sé, no.

Contemplava una finestra guardadora de 1'amor,
me gaudia en el silenci,
festejava amb la tristor!...
I la ronda mal-astruga
va tancar-me a la presó.

(El qui l'interrogava s'aixeca i amb un gest d'indiferència se'n va cap als del primer grup mentre el pastor, aferrat a la reixa i completament abstret, canta:)

Pastor

Cançó de mes pobres penes per què no voles, cançó?

Un del primer grup (parlat)

Que canta aquell jovencell?

Pastor (cantant)

I amb les ales ben esteses,
–petita–bonica...

Un altre (parlat)

Sentiu?

Un altre (parlat)

Ahir també la cantava.

Pastor (cantant)

Te n'entres al seu cor
–lireta–liró.

(Resta pensiu.)

Un (parlat)

Torna-hi, pastor, torna-hi; de bona fe que ens plau força la teva cançó; és més escaienta que les nostres.

Un altre

Du bon aplec de belles cadences, i l'orella se'n sent ben complascuda.

Un

Canta!

Un

Canta!

Un altre

Quina remor més dolça! És cançó de bon home!

Un

Canta!

(El pastor se'ls ha mirats tendrament sense deixar anar les mans de la reixa i amb marcada complacència segueix cantant.)

Pastor

Un colp son cor fos ta cambra posada en un racó
hi diries: Oh, Princesa!
–petita–bonica
de sa part vos parlo jo
lireta–liró.

(En aquest bell moment l'escena s'és ràpidament canviada i apareix la presó vista de l'exterior enfront l'escala dels sospirs d'on davalla la Princesa Margarida amb sa dama seguidora, de manera que la segona meitat de la cançó, o sigui la qui segueix, se sent defora.)

QUADRO II

L'escala dels sospirs

Pastor

No'm manca menjar ni beure
ni'm quiten la racció
lo que a mi'm manca, senyora
–petita–bonica–
les claus de la presó
–lireta–liró.

Princesa (parlat)

Ben cert, sí; jo juraria que era aquell son bell cantar;
sa veu tan sovint sentida forces dies, cap al tard, quan passava tot fent via per dur a lloc el remat.

Seguidora

Ma senyora la Princesa,
no vos aturmenteu tant.

Princesa

Ai! Ma bona seguidora, tu no saps lo que és aimar;
i si amor és cosa trista
quan amor és confessat,
va del braç amb l'agonia
quan és amor amagat.

Seguidora

Un Pastor i una Princesa
ben agafadets del braç, ni a la Cort, ni a la vall fresca trobarien benestar;
que per fer bona parella
la naixença molt hi fa.

Princesa

L'amor ens obre les portes per descobrir-nos el cel.
Si bé s'aimen, rics i pobres
són iguals davant de Déu.

Seguidora

Penseu-ho bé, la Princesa.

Princesa

Bé prou bé que m'hi he pensat.
Si el qui canta és el qui'm temo
tinc el cor empresonat.

(Se sent part de dins els presos cantant de nou. Al final d'aquestes cantades repeteix el Pastor la cançó seva veient-se-li el braç reixa enfora com si ho cantés aquest colp adonant-se de la Princesa.)

Pastor

Si ma cançó a la Princesa pogués fer niu en ton cor,
te comptaria mes penes,
–petita–bonica–
les penes del meu amor
–lireta–liró.

Princesa (parlat)

Sents? És ell! És ell!

Seguidora

Senyora!

Pastor

No'm manca menjar ni beure
ni'm quiten la racció
lo que'm manca, senyora,

–petita–bonica–
Les claus de la presó,
–lireta–liró.

Princesa (en un esclat qui fa tornar musical sa paraula)

I que en faries si les tinguessis?

Pastor

Volar voreta vostra, mon amor.

Princesa

Ets el Pastor?

Pastor

El dels capvespres;
per festejar-vos soc en presó.

(Els presos de l'interior tots canten.)

Catric–catrac,
catric–catrac,
el qui es pres
ja és ben penjat.
Lairí–lairà,
lairí–lairó,
és el sepulcre la presó.

(Segueix l'orquestra.)

Princesa (recitant amb exaltació)

Segueix-me, vine
Com un herald d'antiga senyoria
vull parlar al Baró.
No serà parlament de pare i filla,
serà quelcom de més hardit i hermós.
Vull que'm rebi a sa cambra amb tots els nobles;
que m'honorin com tinc ben merescut.
És missatge d'amor; d'amor de dona qui m'ha de fer triomfar si Déu m'ajud'.

Seguidora

Què intenteu, ma senyora la Princesa?

Princesa

Arrencar-li el remei pel meu dolor.

Seguidora

Temerària serà vostra escomesa.

Princesa

Segueix-me i calla, tot ho pot l'amor.

(Se'n va per avall de l'escala amb un rasgo dramàtic. Seguidora al seu darrera. Abans de desaparèixer se sent la veu del pastor i es detura encara un moment en amorosa contemplació.)

Pastor

Lo que a mi'm manca, Princesa,
les claus de la presó
–lireta–liró.

(Per fi se'n va resolta quan el cant del pastor fineix junt amb el quadro.)

QUADRO III

La cambra del Baró

L'escena s'és transformada i representa la cambra del Baró, on ell se troba assegut en son sitial voltat dels seus consellers i examinant les sentències dels condemnats. Van dient parlat:

Baró

I aquesta?

Noble

També de mort com aqueixes tres.

(Baró la firma.)

Baró

Tot està dispost?

Jutge

Res manca. Les forques s'alcen als defores de la ciutat i espera el poble frenètic per contemplar el nou exemple. Els actes de la vostra justícia són sempre una solemnitat pels vostres vassalls i pel poble tot!

(Apareix Princesa Margarida amb sa seguidora. S'aturen a la porta i la Princesa diu:)

Princesa

Senyor, perdoneu!...

Baró

Què voleu, ma filla?

Princesa

Parlar-vos vull!...

Baró

La vostra ven gentil per mi és un bàlsam! Parleu!

Princesa

Ai! Pare, lo meu pare, dels pares el més bo,
Ai! Pare, lo meu pare!
me voleu fer un do?

Baró

Ai! Filla Margarida
quin do vols que jo't do?

Princesa

No vos deman València,
jardí de totes flors,
ni la ciutat dels Comtes,
ni'l regne d'Aragó.
Lo sol que jo demano,
i parlo per l'amor,
ai Pare, lo meu pare,
les claus de la presó.

Baró

Ai! Filla Margarida!
què dius, filla del cor?
Els presos fugirien;
com quedaria jo?

Princesa

La testa coronada
com el diví Pastor!
Corona més preuada
que aquesta de Baró!

Baró

Dignes per què vols, filla,
les claus de la presó?

Princesa

Ai! Pare lo n1eu pare!
prou que us ho diré jo.
Per obrir-ne les portes
i treure'n l'aimador.

Baró

Qui és ell? Diga-m'ho prompte.

Princesa

El més petit, Senyor.

Baró

S'acosta el Sant Dissabte
i els penjaran a tots, que han cremat La Garriga, Conflent i Rosselló.

Princesa

Ai! Pare, lo meu pare,
no'm causen tant dolor;

el cor tot se m'esglaia,
no pengeu l'aimador!

Baró

Baró d'aqueixes terres
abans que pare soc;
vostre aimador, Princesa,
serà el primer de tots.

Princesa (S'agenolla)

De genollons a terra
vos preg que em feu el do.

Baró

Jo firmo sa sentència.

(Ho fa, un li presenta el llibre de genolls.)

Princesa

Firmeu la de tots dos!
Mes ai! La vida mia,
si és cert que em ve de vós,
deixeu, Baró, que us digui que no l'aimeu del tot.
El pes de la corona
vos fa cometre un tort!
Me'n sento molt ferida...
de no guarir tinc por!

(S'aixeca i resta abraçada amb sa seguidora. El Baró, de peu dret, contempla suspecte a sa filla, mentre els seus consellers entre ells diuen en veu baixa:)

Consellers

Ai! La pobre Princesa
pateix del mal d'amor!
La flor de sa puresa
és de tristesa flor!

(En aquest moment se sent de molt lluny el pastor qui cantant diu:)

Pastor

Amor, la mia Princesa, digueu si'm salvareu vós!

Princesa
reprenent la cançó amb un arranc d'amor,
anant cap a la finestra.

Jo prou les claus demano
–petita–bonica–
el pare no les do
–lireta–liró.

(Com mig agenollada plorant mentre canta aqueixes darreres paraules. El Baró i els seus formen grup en plena expectació. La seguidora plora.)

QUADRO IV

Pels carrers

Som a dissabte. L'escena representa un carrer rònec i privat de llum. El poble vaga. Se senten las campanes de la Seu tocar a morts. El dia és núvol i trist. Tothom corre com darrera de l'ombra sinistra de la fatalitat. De colp, una donzella de pobre condició tota etzarada arriba i diu al temps que a son costat s'arremolinen bon nombre de passants.

Donzella

Quin horror! Quin horror! Verge Maria!
Els meus ulls ho han vist, i encara em sembla que em segueixen arreu les ombres tristes...
Dintre del pit sento que el cor se'm gela!
Dia de mort, germans, és aquest dia!
Oh! Miserable qui a complir se nega la santa llei que la bondat ens dicta!

Una altra

Parla!

Una altra

Què has vist?

Una altra

Conta-ho d'un colp! Au! Via!

Donzella

La Princesa —sabeu?— la dama trista quin esguard complacent, sempre serena, vers els pobres més pobres dirigia,
s'és fet matar per una estratagema!

(Moviment en el grup.)

De donzell perdulari s'és vestida,
i entre els presos posant-se, la condemna ve de sofrir, amb què han pagat, els mísers, els delictes sagnants de tantes menes.
I és l'amor qui l'ha duta a l'agonia;
que en presó l'aimador sense merèixer-ho varen tancar, i el pare no sentint-la, va sentenciar que a l'aimador pengessin.
Son cos va omplir de flors qui suaument llisquen de sos peus a la terra, pluja verge qui encisa i fa plorar al qui s'ho mira tot fen bullir la sang dintre les venes.
Sos cabells esbarriats, sa pell tan fina blanca i marcida com si fos de cera;
son cos brandat pel colp de vent qui atia;
ertes ses mans i la mirada freda.
Son pastor al costat; certament semblen parella d'aimadors qui al cel fan via, fugint de la justícia qui condemna

seca d'amor i de rancors vestida!
Veniu, veniu, anem-hi tots, va, pressa!
Ramells de flors de totes bandes vinguen;
encens i cants i ofrenes de tristesa;
nostre plorar son cor de triomf siga.
Miserables! Ah, vils!

(Se'n va.)

Una altra

La ràbia em crema!

(Darrera d'ella.)

Noia

Anem-hi tots.

Una altra

Germans, de mort és dia!

Una altra

Ja la veig, és allà! Quina tristesa!

Veu interior

La Princesa s'és mort!

Una altra

Reina Divina!

QUADRO IV

Lo predit s'ha complert

L'escena representa el lloc on han penjat els presoners. A primer terme i ben amunt, les dugues forques on hi ha la Princesa i el Pastor penjats, dels qui sols se'n veuen les cames i els peus. Branden els llurs cossos. Cauen flors. Se senten les campanes. Ve el poble arremolinat i ple d'horror.

Donzella entrant

Mireu-la allà!

(Xiscles en un grup de noies.)

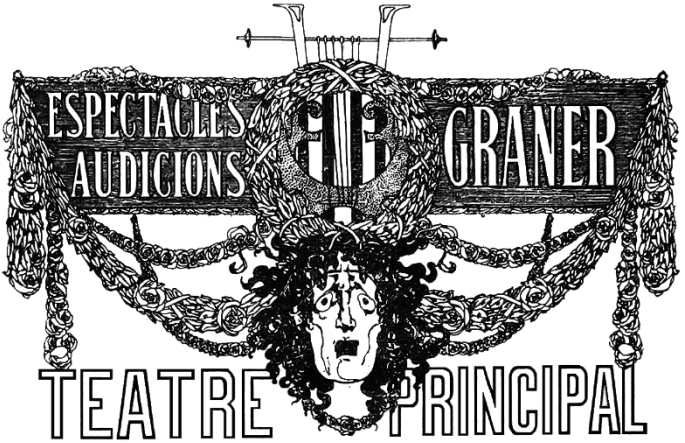
Uns

Misericòrdia!

(Un grup de donzelles posen flors al peu de la forca.)
(El Baró s'atansa, sabedor de la nova. Ve com un esperitat. Els seus no poden pas deturar-lo. Guaiten vers el fons. Tothom s'apropa; al arribar ell s'aparten.)

Baró

Qui és aquesta donzella
que és morta per amor?
Qui és aquesta donzella?



Noble

Serenitat, Senyor!

Les donzelles al peu da la forca

És neta del Rei d'Hongria,
parenta d'Aragó.
Déu l'hagi perdonada
–petita–bonica–
la filla del Baró
–lireta–liró.

(El Baró, de sobte, arrenca un plor; se treu la corona del cap, rebatent-la per terra, i cau sense sentits en braços dels seus servidors.)

QUADRO I

Riquilda

PRELUDI

Cor d'àngels (des de les alçàries)

Vetlleu i tot-temps pregau, que esdevé la temptació;
ella us robarà la pau,
mes si ferms la dominau
serà etern el vostre do.

Cor de diables
(des de les fondàries, alternant i junt amb el dels àngels)

Guerrers de la temptació, esmolem les armes fortes!
Prest nostre estol vencedor

tornarà el just pecador
i ses virtuts en flors mortes.

A la fi dels cors s'ouen febles i misteriosos tocs de campana i una mica abans es descorre la cortina, apareixent la cova de Fra Garí a Montserrat.

Fra Garí està agenollat i torna en sí de son èxtasi a les remors d'una cavalcada qui s'apropa; avança escoltant. S'ouen ressonar a la vora les trompes del corteig, els cavalls renillen, dringuen les armes i s'ou també remor de gent.

Cor de donzelles (venint)

Marcida jau la flor de llir, s'esfullarà la rosa vera...
Dolça Regina de l'Empir,
refeu-les prompte amb el florir
de vostra eterna primavera!

Arriben els Comtes de Barcelona amb Riquilda portant ric i nombrós seguici. Ella va acompanyada de donzelles vestides de blanc, qui canten lo anterior.

Cor de cavallers
(responent al de les donzelles)

Santa Regina de l'Empir, feu reflorir la rosa vera!

Tot lo següent que parlen els personatges va acompanyat de melopea.

El Comte (a Fra Garí)

Oh, penitent humil d'aquestes serres, vullau-nos beneir; jo vos saludo.
A vós venim perquè ens torneu la joia dels nostres cors, perquè amb les vostres armes pacífiques d'amor i de justícia aterreu l'Enemic, qui ha fet sa presa de la donzella més gentil i pura.

(Mostrant a Riquilda.)

Ací teniu, bon penitent, Riquilda:
joiell preuat del nostre amor. Cap volta tacà ses galtes del pecat l'alena;
nostre consol sigué, puig virtuosa pujava, sent el goig de la Comtessa
i fent l'orgull llegítim de son pare.
Mes un día, de sobte, la vegerem presa del mal esprit; enterbolida sa mirada es tornà, torrent d'escuma de sa boca sortí, sa cabellera
com un grapat de serps se retorçava;
s'acabaren ses joies: un sant monjo l'exorcisà a la Seu i al fi va dir-nos per ella l'Enemic, que en fugiria si amb vós nou dies i nou nits passava.

Fra Garí

Senyor, indigne soc, i és perillosa la tasca que em mostrau; hi hauran sense dubte altres més sants que jo per a portar-la amb més profit a terme...

La Comtessa

La vostra humilitat se'ns mostra clara, mes molt en vostra caritat confio...

Fra Garí

Si m'és forçós per caritat el creure-us, pregau per mi: faré tot lo que puga per a gorir la vostra pobra filla.

El Comte

Que us beneeixi Déu!

(Deixant-li a Riquilda després d'abraçar-la, lo que fa també la Comtessa.)

Riquilda
(sortint del seu estat d'abatiment diu amb vaguetat)

Adéu, companyes...

Adéu, volguts parents!

El Comte (a Fra Garí)

Sa bella joia
vos deixa el cor reconegut d'un pare.

Els Comtes se disposen a anar-se'n amb el llur seguici.

Cor de donzelles i de cavallers (sortint)

Dolça Regina de l'Empir
feu reflorir la rosa vera!

Sons de trompes. Fra Garí i Riquilda s'esguarden: ell la mena respectuosament vers la cova.

SE CORRE LA CORTINA

QUADRO II

La mort

PRELUDI

S'obre la cortina i apareix la mateixa decoració anterior. És de nit. Tempesta propera. S'acosten remors infernals.

Cor de bruixots i de bruixes (venint)

Uh! Uh! Uh! Uh!
Ventades inflamades
per l'odi del pecat,
nocturnes nuvolades
que el mal ha congriat,
impures alenades
ens porten al Sabat.

(Arriba a la fi del cor un escamot de bruixots i bruixes, amb bocs, escombres fantàstiques, etc.)

Cor de bruixots i bruixes (dansant follament)

Voltem! Voltem! Ja ha sonat l'hora, prompte hi serem!
La roca d'eixes serres plora
quan hi passem!

Mai res el nostre pas detura, som fets els mestres de la nit
i apar en nostra cursa impura que el nostre regne és infinit!

Voltem! Voltem!
Uh! Uh! Uh! Uh!...
Ventades inflamades
per l'odi del pecat,
impures alenades
ens porten al Sabat!

(De sobte esclata un llamp seguit d'un tro, s'alça una flamarada i apareix en mig de la dansa el Diable; tots es prosternen.)

El diable
(parlat, acompanyat de melopees)

Oh, maleïts servents!
Passau de pressa!
No deu torbar-me en mos ardits i intents la vostra immunda fressa!
Oh, maleïts servents!
Passau de pressa!

Cor de bruixots i bruixes

(dant una altra volta a l'entorn del Diable, fugint després)

Uh! Uh! Uh!
Ventades inflamades
per l'odi del pecat,
impures alenades
ens porten al Sabat!

El diable

Oh, forces destructores, aidau a l'esparver!
Oh, males arts traïdores,
prest transformau-me bé,
puig el colom esma-perdut ja ve.

(Esclata altre llamp, s'ou un altre tro, s'aixeca uns moments una flamarada i d'entre el fum n'apareix el Diable disfressat d'ermità. A la claror d'un altre llamp s'ovira a Fra Garí eixint de la cova i baixant tambalejant amb les mans al cap i en gran desesper. Resta sorprès al veure el Diable disfressat.)

El diable

On vas, home damnat?

Fra Garí

Oh, Pare! Us porta sense dubte el cel; un monstre soc, llençau-me
o digau si el perdó meresc encara!

Culpable soc d'un gros pecat; marcida jau una rosa dalt del cim...

El diable

Enrere!
No hi ha perdó per tu, conec ta culpa, que m'ha sigut per mes virtuts mostrada...

Fra Garí

Doncs vull llençar-me al riu!

El diable

Ni mai que ho fecis!
Si esmenar vols el teu pecat horrible mata qui et feu pecar...

(Trona.)

Mata-la a n'ella;
jo mentrestant vaig a cavar sa fossa.

(Treu d'entre sos hàbits un coltell i el dona a Fra Garí, que el pren dubtant i se'n torna aprés poc a poc com fascinat.)

(El Diable treu una aixada de rere una roca i cava una fossa apressadament.)

(Llampega.)

Riquilda
(de dins, gemegant fondament)

Déu meu!

(El Diable riu.)

Cor de bruixots i bruixes (llunyà del Sabat)

L'hora ha sonat
d'iniquitat!
Ara el pecat
del Bé ha triomfat!

(A la claror d'un llamp s'ovira a Fra Garí baixant de la cova amb el cos de Riquilda: el vestit blau d'aquesta és un xic tacat de sang i sa llarga cabellera rossa penja.)

Cor de bruixots i bruixes (com abans)

Uh! Uh! Uh!
Victòria!

El Diable, qui ha finit de cavar la fossa, puja a ajudar a Fra Garí. Ambdós enterren Riquilda prest.

Cor d'àngels (molt llunyà)

Marcida jau la flor del llir, s'ha desfullat la rosa vera!

Quan Fra Garí i el Diable acaben de cobrir la fossa, servint-se del mateix càvec, s'ouen tocs mortuoris de campana: Fra Garí sembla tornar en sí; trona. S'alça una gran flamarada i fum i d'entremig el Diable n'apareix tal com és.

El diable (rient)

Ah! Ah! Ah! Ah! Ah!

Fra Garí s'ajup desesperat sobre la fossa i esclata la tempesta.

Cor de bruixots i bruixes (venint)

Uh! Uh! Uh!....

Un àngel (apareixent al Diable, aterrant-lo)

Fuig sempre més d'aquestes serres!

Cor de bruixots i bruixes
(fugint desesperadament a la vista de l'Àngel)

Uh! Uh! Uh!

El diable s'enfonsa amb gran terratrèmol.

L'àngel (a Fra Garí)

En càstig de ton pecat
erraràs com bèstia immunda fins que una veu de puresa te digui que ets perdonat.

ES CORRE LA CORTINA RÀPIDAMENT

QUADRO III

La cacera

PRELUDI

Cor de caçadors (al lluny)

Alalí! Alalí!
Oià! Oià!
Sigam atents! Sigam atents!
Que ve el senglar!
Sempre amatents; llestos i atents havem d'estar!
Alalí! Alalí!
Oià!

S'obre la cortina i apareix un espessíssim bosc de boixos a Montserrat.

Fra Garí tornat com bèstia pastura entre matolls. S'ouen remors de cacera.

Sons de trompa graduals i repercutint. —Fra Garí escolta.— Les remors s'apropen amb lladrucs de gossos, etc.

Un altre cor de caçadors (com abans)

Alalí! Alalí!
Oió! Oió!
L'os és traïdor
i s'abraona trascantó!
Tots aprestau el tallador
coltell que brilla...
alalí!
Tots vigileu sense cap por...
l'os és traïdor!...

S'apropen més les remors d'abans i els cors qui alternen.

Ambdós cors de caçadors (alternant)

– Alalí! – Alalí!
– Oià! Oió!
– Oió! Oià!
L'os és traïdor!
– Ja ve e1 senglar!
Sigam atents!...
– Sense cap por!...
– Alalí! – Alalí!
– Oió! – Oià!...

De sobte s'ou gran fressa entre els boixos i apareix el senglar, qui passa ràpidament seguit de gossos i de munters que amb destrals s'obren pas entre mates; alguns reparen a Fra Garí, s'aturen; aprestant les ballestes fan sonar les trompes de caça.

Cor de munters

Alalí! Alalí!
Oió! Oià!
Os o senglar,
la caça és certa...
Veniu ací,
sinó podrà
fugir
la fera...

Arriben més munters amb gossos; Fra Garí no es mou; tots el volten preparats.

Cor de munters (alternant)

– Sembla un lleó!
– Sembla un senglar!
– Diria jo
que por no fa!
– S'assembla a un home...
– Serà traïdor?
– Manyac serà?

(alhora)

– Sense cap por,
coltell en mà
prest encerquem-lo!

(Van apropant-se a Fra Garí.)

Al Comte viu l'hem de portar!

(Una meitat del cor)

Fermeu els gossos!

(Una altra meitat)

Tirau-li'ls llaços!

Cacen a Fra Garí amb llaços escorredors. Més fressa i sons de trompes; qualques munters guaiten entre els boixos.

Els munters (que guaiten)

El Comte ve!

Els altres munters

El Comte arriba!

Tots els munters

Mostreu-li bé
la bèstia viva...

(Arriba el Comte amb son seguici.
Qualques munters se'n van.)

Un munter
(parlant acompanyat de melopea)

Senyor! bona cacera hem feta!
Guaitau!... no és os, tampoc senglar...

El Comte

Menau-la bé, que aquesta bèstia viva al palau dur-la em plaurà.

Cor de munters (de dins)

Alalí!
Oió!
(de fora)
Oió!
(de dins)
L'os és traïdor!

Una colla se'n du Fra Garí lligat; el Comte i els demés s'apresten a l'aguait.

Cor de munters (tots)

Tots aprestem el tallador coltell qui brilla...

(de dins)
Alalí!

(tots)

Oió!

S'ou molta fressa pel fons i el Comte i els seus es llancen com perseguint una fera.

Se corre la cortina; més sons de trompes i demés.

Cor de munters (perdent-se amb l'eco)

Alalí...

QUADRO IV

El bateig

PRELUDI

S'obre la cortina i apareix una sala en el palau dels Comtes de Barcelona.

El Comte i Dames i Cavallers són asseguts a la taula del festí amb patges, donzelles, etc. Al costat del seient comtal hi ha en un bressol daurat el fillet dels Comtes.

Cor de donzelles (amb garlandes, dansant.)

Sigui el jorn d'avui joiós
per al Comte i la Comtessa, el bateig de llur Infant
és una gloriosa festa.
Déu lo faci un sant minyó i li doni fortalesa per a vèncer els enemics
qui amenacin nostra terra.

Cor de cavallers

Sigui el jorn d'avui joiós
per al Comte i la Comtessa!...

Les donzelles se'n van tot dansant i cantant.

Un joglar
(avançant, puntejant el llaüt)

Si és plaent al nostre Comte, forta gesta cantaré.

El Comte i els demés fan senyals d'aprovació.

El joglar
(cantant amb son llaüt)

N'hi havia un drac ferotge
com cap més ningú en veié;
en el fons de negra cova
ell tenia-hi son recé.
Quan per les serres eixia,
si el pastor poruc fugia,
fugia l'ardit guerrer;
res sa fúria dominava que arreu on el drac passava passava-hi la mort també.

Nostre Comte en nit obscura vers el cau del drac anà
i als primers besllums de l'auba atiant-lo el despertà;
quan el drac s'abraonava,
amb un roure el colpejava
i amb sa llança el traspassà; mes el monstre dessagnant-se s'endugué al Comte amb sa llança per l'espai fins que expirà.

Tots celebren amb mostres d'aprovació el cant del joglar.

El Comte

Eixa gesta bé em recorda
la bèstia que vam caçar;

portau-la, portau-la prompte que és un monstre molt manyac.

Qualques patges van a cercar a Fra Garí i el porten prest lligat amb una cadena.

Un cavaller (per Fra Garí)

Sembla té la cara d'home.

Un altre cavaller

Doncs a mi m'apar un os.

Tercer cavaller (a una dama)

Diria, per sa crinera
madona, que és un lleó.

Una dama (als patges)

Menau-me'l d'ací, menau-me'l.

Tercer cavaller (a la dama)

Madona, no us faça por!

La dama

Més que por, llàstima em feia.

Altres dames

És ben estranya visió!

Fra Garí s'ha arrossegat besant els peus del Comte. Les dames s'apropen al bressol de l'Infant.

Dames

Mirau! El nin se desperta!

Unes altres dames

Apar que vulla parlar!

(El Comte i els Cavallers s'alcen estranyats.)

El Comte

Dreçau-lo an el nin, dreçau-lo!

Els cavallers

Veiam açò què serà!

Tots van vers el bressol; les dames drecen al nin.

L'infant

Aixecau-vos, Fra Garí

que Déu vos ha perdonat!

Entre la sorpresa de tots, Fra Garí s'aixeca i li cauen les pells qui el cobrien.

El comte

Què féreu, doncs, de ma filla si vós sou Joan Garí?

Fra Garí

Gran pecat vàreig cometre
i encara després la occí.

Moviment d'indignació molt violent entre els cavallers.

El Comte (contenint-los)

Aquell qui el Senyor perdona serà perdonat per mi;
(A Fra Garí.)
mes el lloc on l'enterràreu
bé prou me'l podríeu dir?
(Fra Garí afirma.)

El Comte (als nobles)

Allà, cavallers i dames, anirem demà matí.
Si perdí ma dolça filla,
veuré el lloc on la perdí.

Tots es disposen a anar-se'n tristos i abatuts.

SE CLOU LA CORTINA

QUADRO V

La resurrecció

PRELUDI

Cor

«Rosa gentil, Regina de la Serra,
de Montserrat tresor,
guardau tostemps nostra volguda terra
per vostre immens amor.»

S'obre la cortina i apareix la mateixa decoració dels quadros I i II, tota transformada en primavera.

La tomba de Riquilda està coberta de rosers. Una bella claror d'auba omple l'ambient.

Se sent remor d'un corteig qui s'apropa.

Cor de cavallers (venint)

Hont és, oh serres belles Hont és que la marcida flor guardau?
digau-nos-ho també, dolces estrelles qui a la claror novella os amagau!

Arriben els Comtes de Barcelona i Fra Garí amb seguici fastuós i una colla de donzelles endolades.

Fra Garí (parlat amb melopea)

Ací marcida jau la rosa vera,
ací esfullada està la flor del llir;
vulla el Senyor que en l'alta primavera del cel, per sempre haja pogut florir!

S'agenolla davant de la tomba plorant, amb els Comtes. El seguici resta commòs.

Cor de donzelles (molt feblement)

Àngels sants qui la guiàveu, tingau-la prop del Senyor;
pures flors qui l'embaumàveu,
feu eterna son olor!

El Comte

(alçant-se, als soldats; parlat amb melopea)

Obriu bentost la fossa,
prest arrancau eixos gentils rosers;
vull veure el cos de nostra dolça filla,
joia suau de mos amors primers!

Els soldats se disposen a arrencar els rosers.

Riquilda

(de dins, parlat amb melopea)

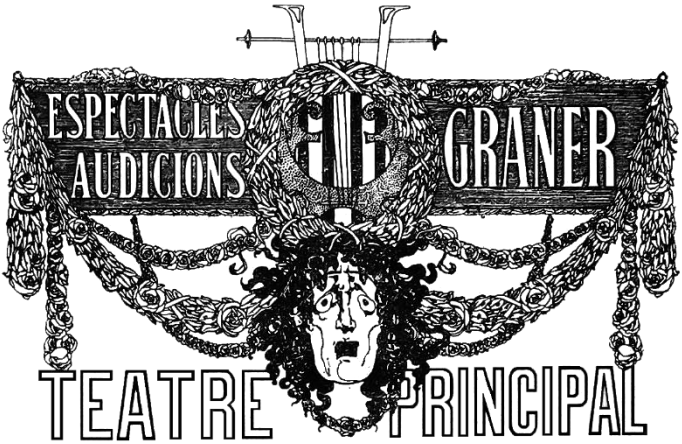
Salve!...

(Tots queden corpresos.)

Riquilda

(apareixent radiant d'entre els rosers qui s'han obert; parlant amb acompanyament de melopea.)

Oh, mos pares, companyes estimades!
Oh, vós, Joan Garí!
Oh, jorn novell; oh, serres perfumades,
donau mercès a Déu amb mi.



(El fons va omplint-se de llum i de boires rosades.)

La Santa Verge m'ha guardat com filla, i m'ha mostrat com paradís eix mont;
per sempre més son sant estel hi brilla
joiell sagrat de Catalunya al front.

Gran apoteosi. Apareixen àngels amb garlandes voltant a Riquilda, qui queda tota nimbada de llum, i pastors i infants, etc. Fra Garí s'agenolla amb els Comtes i llur seguici.

Cor general
(mentre se corre la cortina)

«De Montserrat tresor, guardau-nos bé, Regina de la serra
per vostre immens amor!»

Donzella qui va a la guerra

QUADRO I

Les crides

El pati d'un castell gòtic. Abans d'obrir-se la cortina, se sent un toc llunyà de trompetes. Al moment d'obrir-se la cortina, se repeteix el toc més a prop i es veuen part enfora de la portalada els trompeters tocant acompanyats de patges i d'homes d'armes.

Soldat 1er

Oidà, missatges del Rei.

Soldat 2on

Què passarà? Anem a avisar al senyor Comte.

De dalt dels merlets contesten els trompeters del castell a la tocata dels de fora.

Entra dins del pati la comitiva de trompeters. Aclamacions.

Cor de soldats

Salut, oh, missatgers reials!
Què vol el gran senyor de nostra terra?
Tant en la pau com en la guerra al seu poder serem lleials.
Que el seu missatge sia benvingut!
Salut, bons missatgers, salut!

Surt per la porta de mà dreta, seguit de les seves quatre filles i de nombrós seguici de patges i donzelles, el Comte, molt vell, però sapat, amb llarga barba blanca.

Els trompeters toquen un toc d'atenció.

Pregoner

A tots els barons d'aquest reialme els fa saber el rei nostre senyor que la guerra s'és armada entre França i Aragó.
El rei ha manat que hi vagin
Comtes, ducs i cavallers.
Aquell qui a la crida faci falla tot d'una escapçat haurà de ser.

Cor de soldats

Visca, visca! Tenim ànsia de sentir el guerrer brogit, de dur el rei a la victòria
i oferir-li el nostre pit.

Esmolem nostres espases
qui ja han pres massa descans, sentint carnatge assaïnen els cavalls escumejants.

Per les valls i les planures correm amb furient galop, ni les més ferrenyes roques resistiran nostre cop.

Comte

Serà fidelment complerta
l'ordre del rei, mon senyor;
tots respondrem a la crida,
vell i tot, hi aniré jo.
En quaranta nou batalles
n'he batut baix sos penons, per contar-ne fins cinquanta
encara tinc prou braó.

La comitiva dels missatgers surt seguida dels homes d'armes del castell que repeteixen la primera estrofa del cant anterior.

Al pati no han quedat més que les quatre filles del Comte i aquest. El Comte, amb aire afligit, se senta tremolant al banc de pedra al costat de la porta i aixeca els ulls i les mans enlaire amb expressió desesperada.

Comte

Ara cap a mes velleses
a la guerra he d'anar jo, que en tinc perdudes, les forces,
per a servir al meu Senyor!
L'ordre ja n'és arribada,
ben clar ho ha dit el pregó
i no tinc ningú que hi vagi
a posar-se en el meu lloc.
Maleïda la Comtessa
amb sa generació,
m'ha deixat amb quatre filles
sens parir-ne fill baró.

Les filles s'han acostat; al sentir els darrers versos, reculen esglaiades.

Filla 2ª (plorant)

No la mereixem pas, pare,
la vostre maledicció!

Filla 3ª (plorant)

Si us hagués sentit la mare, quina en fora sa aflicció!

Filla 4ª (tranquil·la)

Ai, pare! Si vós m'haguéssiu deixat casar amb el Baró
vostre gendre ara aniria
a posar-se en vostre lloc.

Comte

Ai, filles! Les meves filles!
Jo us en demano perdó.
Però això és una punyalada que em doneu al mig del cor.
Jo no puc restar aquí a casa,
fora per mi vergonyós que defensés ma senyera
qualsevol d'un altre nom.
Jo no puc anar a la guerra, se'm dobleguen els genolls
i el cavall me llençaria
de la sella al primer bot.
Oh! Què fer? L'Infern malhaja!
Més me valguera ser mort, que ara cap a mes velleses
sofrir una tan gran dissort!

(Isabel, tota l'estona s'ha estat passejant agitada. S'acosta al pare i el mira fixament amb ulls serens.)

I tu, ma primera filla, que no em dius res per consol?
Ets com poques coratjosa,
tos consells sempre em són bons.

Isabel

Jo el conec, el remei, pare, mes de dir-vos-ho tinc por.
O de mi vós enriureu,
o us fora gran desconhort.

Comte

Digues, digues, filla meva, que el teu cap rumia molt.

Isabel (redreçant-se)

Doneu-me les armes, pare, que a la guerra aniré jo.

Comte (immòbil; després, refent-se)

Dins tu, de nostra nissaga hi glateix la sang millor.
Ai, abraça'm, filla meva,
d'orgull són ara els meus plors.
Tu saps manejar les armes
com el cavaller més fort i et tens igual dalt la sella que en cadira de repòs.
No em sorprèn ton determini, valor tens per a fer això;
però massa et coneixerien
amb el cabell llarg i ros.

Isabel

Amb uns quants cops d'estisores seran curts com els duus vós.

Comte

Tens les mans i peus de nina, foren prou coneixedors.

Filla

Doneu-me les vostres botes,
ja m'hi posaré cotó.

Comte

Tens el sí de dona feta, seria coneixedor.

Isabel

L'amagarà la cuirassa
i l'estrenyeria el gipó.
Deixau-m'hi anar a la guerra,
que no en quedareu felló;
no tingau por que em conegan,
que no em coneixeran, no.

Comte

Ja que així ho vols, filla meva, ves a posar-te al meu lloc!
Patges, portau-me les armes,
les meves armes millors,
que en quaranta nou batalles
han resistit tots el cops.

(Surten patges.)

Filla 2ª (plorant)

Es ben veritat que marxes?
Pare meu, no ho vulgueu, no!

Filla 3ª (plorant)

Ai germana, tot el dia per tu estaré en oració!

Filla 4ª (tranquil·la)

Jo no ho creuré fins que ho vegi; no pots tenir tant valor.

Comte

Calmeu-vos les meves filles!
Ella és ara el nostre honor;
les seves gestes heroiques
il·lustraran vostre nom
i veureu infants i prínceps

venir aquí en processó;
donzells de reial naixença
vos vindran a fer l'amor.
I tu, Isabel, vine a rebre
la meva benedicció;
que el bon Déu i tots els àngels
te guardin sempre i per tot;
que t'infondeixin coratge
i et duguin sempre al triomf
i et tornin salva als meus braços el front coronat de llor.

Se'n van el Comte i les seves filles.

Gran rebombori de trompetes i tabals, tocant la senyal de formació per anar a la guerra; entre aquest brogit, crits, rialles i corredisses.

El pati del castell és envaït d'una multitud d'homes d'armes parlant, cridant, anant agitats d'un cantó a l'altre.

Surt el Comte. Silenci general. El segueixen les seves tres filles i Isabel amb calces de malla i amb esperons. Porta un gipó blanc i la cabellera rosa estesa. Darrere d'ella s'arrengleren els patges portant las diverses peces d'una armadura.

Isabel

Que vos en sembla, mon pare?
Tinc posat guerrejador?
Ja faig les passes prou llargues?
I pico fern1 de talons? (Fent-ho).

Filla 4ª

Fins ara va bé, germana,
no és gaire dificultós.
Jo també't companyaria si res més que això no fos.

Isabel

Vinguen, vinguen estisores!

(Els patges les hi donen.)

Germanes, feu-me el favor;
arran talleu-me les trenes
del meu cabell abundós.

Filla 2ª

Per això cor no tindria.

Filles 3ª i 4ª

Ni jo tampoc. Ni jo tampoc.

Isabel

Patges, talleu-m'ho vosaltres

(En un moment, un dels patges li talla el cabell arran que cau en terra.)

Comte

Ai, adeu, el cabell ros!
Patges, colliu-me eixes trenes
més brillants que raigs de sol.
Mentre siguis a la guerra me'n seran de dolç record.

Comencen a sortir a poc a poc amb aire encuriosit, de tots els costats, homes d'armes del castell, qui arraconats per les parets miren, parlant baix entre ells, com se vesteix la donzella.

Isabel

Porteu-me el gipó de malla (li posen).
Estrenyeu bé el cenyidor,
i ara patges, la cuirassa (li posen).

Comte

Que guardi sempre el teu cor.

Isabel

Pare meu, per protegir-lo,
el meu braç ja en fora prou.
Ara, l'elm, que a la cimera
rumbeja tot orgullós un gran plomall de tres crestes d'immaculada blancor.

Comte

No, Isabel, de la sang meva en vermellegen dos flocs.

Isabel

Ai, el terç per mi el guardaven, tornaré el plomall tot roig.

(Li posen l'elm.)

Filla 2ª

Ai, adeu, cara bonica
de ma germana major!
Només els teus ulls flamegen,
no serà pas per l'amor.

Isabel

Ara les fortes manyoples que m'amaguin la finor
de les meves mans de nina que em farien traïció!... (se les posa).
I l'escut amb nostres armes (li porten).

Comte

És d'un pes atuïdor, un més lleuger et convindria.

Isabel

(alçant-lo i baixant-lo vàries vegades)

Manejar-lo m'és un joc.
I ara, i ara, vostra espasa,
vostra espasa la millor (li porten).
Au, traieu-la de la beina,
que la faré brilla al sol.
Ah, salut! La vella espasa, el meu fidel companyó!
Que al teu llampegueig reculi dels enemics tota la host i un can1í de triomf i glòria ves obrint-me amb els teus cops!
El cavall blanc ne voldria amb els guarniments millors
i una capa de viatge
vorejada de galó.

Comte

Aneu, patges, a cercar-lo,

(Surten patges.)

el meu cavall corredor;
passa com el vent quan trota
i és un llampec al galop.
L'ensellareu amb la sella
brodada de bells colors:
poseu-li els estreps de plata,
poseu-li la brida d'or.

Isabel

Ara tinc totes les armes, mes me manca un altre do:
doneu-me un parell de patges, que un faci el mut, l'altre el sord perquè escoltant lo que es diga m'avisin a mi de tot.

Comte

(fent signe a dos dels patges)

Vosaltres dos serviríeu, compliu bé lo que ha dispost.
Només manca, filla meva,
que et triïs un altre nom;
algun nom de baró il·lustre per a que s'hi enganyin tots.

Isabel

Sabeu com jo vull que em diguin?
Comte Carles d'Aragó.

(Compareix menat per dos patges el cavall blanc.)

I ara, guerrers, a les armes!
Formeu aquí l'esquadró!
Entoneu el cant de guerra!
Visca el rei nostre senyor!

Crits de «visca». Mentre entonen el cant de guerra, Isabel abraça llargament al seu pare i ses germanes.

Cant de guerra (cor)

Només la guerra és nostra vida, durant la pau tots ens migrem.
La mort mateixa és nostra amiga,
sovint d'a prop tots la veiem.
Quina delícia ens és l'estrèpit d'escuts, de llances i de malls, els fers udols dels qui escometen
i el renillar dels fers cavalls!

A l'acabar la darrera estrofa, Isabel, ajudada dels patges, munta a cavall. Se té ferma i arrogant amb l'espasa nua i enlairada. Tantost acaba el cor, arrenca una airosa marxa militar i al seu compàs va desfilant l'esquadró, amb Isabel al mig fins que desapareix per la portalada.

Aclamacions frenètiques del poble, qui ha envaït el pati i els afores del castell. El Comte, dret i tremolós, resta mirant la seva filla amb els braços estesos. Les seves filles, formant un grup apart, ploren apoiant-se l'una en l'altra.

SE CORRE LA CORTINA

QUADRO II

L'amor diví

Abans d'obrir-se la cortina se sent gran cridòria d'aclamacions, mentre l'orquestra preludia un himne de victòria.

L'escena es al jardí del palau reial. Tarongers i llimoners carregats de fruit voregen tota la banda dreta de l'escenari i, formant un bosquet, tanquen tot el fons. Entre ells, surten agulles capritxoses de vàries glorietes enramades de flors.

Una gentada de dames i cavallers i gent de poble, formant un conjunt virolat, amb branques de llorer a la mà, alcen els braços aclamant i victorejant. Entre els crits domina el de «Visca el Comte Carles d'Aragó».

És cap al tard.

Himne de victòria

Victòria, victòria!
Salut a l'héroe, salut!
Al cabdill, eterna glòria
qui als enemics ha vençut!
Siga, siga benvingut!

Victòria, victòria!
Brau, heroic és el seu cor!
Serà eterna la memòria
del seu braç terrible i fort!
Coronem son front de llor!

Apareix pel caminal de mà esquerra Isabel, abillada de guerrer, cavalcant el cavall blanc i, al seu costat, el fill del Rei cavalcant en cavall negre, seguits d'un estol. Redoblen les aclamacions de la gentada qui volta tumultuosament els dos cavalls.

Surten de la porta de mà dreta el Rei i la Reina seguits de patges i de brillant cort de dames i cavallers. Minva la cridòria. Isabel i el fill del Rei descavalquen. Isabel s'avença sola i, en sent al davant del Rei, fa una profunda reverència, ajaient en terra l'espasa nua.

El Rei

Oh, el meu cavaller invencible,
el Rei us vol abraçar;
vostres famoses proeses
superen les de Rotlan.
De castells n'heu pres catorze,
heu vençut en set combats,
dotze banderes n'heu preses
i heu destruït tres ciutats.
El vostre botí de guerra en mon tresor ja no hi cap, sols amb vostra recordança
nostre enemic fuig encar.
Del meu fill durant la guerra heu estat fidel company,
més d'un cop degué la vida

al vostre invencible braç.
Demanau-me lo que us plàcia, que tot lo que us puc donar no és prou per a compensar-vos vostres gestes sens igual.
Aquí teniu nostra filla,
mon tresor més estimat,
si la trobeu prou hermosa
jo us dono la seva mà.
Accepteu mon homenatge,
l'heu guanyat amb vostra sang.
Vostre front, davant del poble,
de llorer vull coronar.
En vostre honor aquest vespre disposaré en mon palau una festa tan rumbosa
com no se n'hagi vist cap.

El Rei posa una corona de llorer al cap descobert d'Isabel. Grans aclamacions.

El poble

Visca el Comte Carles d'Aragó!

Llencen sobre d'ella una pluja de flors i de fulles de llorer.

Cor d'homes i dones

Victòria, victòria! Etc.

Mentre canten, el rei, Isabel i la filla del Rei entren al palau amb tota la cort. El poble va desfilant també fins que deixen deserts els jardins.

Poc a poc van entrant parelles de dames i cavallers qui passegen lentament.

Fill del Rei

Una cosa us vull dir, mare, que em rosega al fons del cor, que em trau tota l'alegria
i que m'omple de tristor.
Mare reina, mare reina,
jo n'estic morint d'amors:
els ulls blaus que té don Carles
són de dama; d'home, no.

Reina

Ai, fill meu, quina follia!
Sereu fat per creure això?
No pot ser que el valent comte sia dama i no baró.

Fill del Rei

Mare reina, mare reina,
no traeix així l'amor:
els ull blaus que té don Carles
són de dama; d'home, no.

Reina

Calleu, fill meu, i qui ho dubta que el vostre bon companyó sia cavaller? A la guerra ho ha provat amb gran valor.
Sols de veure'l, nostra filla li ha posat molta d'amor
i se'l mira i se'l remira
d'un esguard tot amorós.
Ni són els seus fets de dona, ni el seu aire ho és tampoc.

Fill del Rei

Mare reina, mare reina,
no ho vol fer coneixedor,
mes els ulls blaus de don Carles
són de dama; d'home, no.

(Surt la filla del Rei.)

Reina

Aquí ve vostra germana,
enamorada com vós;
si no us sap ella convèncer,
molt menys ho podré fer jo.
Què teniu, la meva filla,
que us veig venir amb gran tristor?
Teniu els ulls tots plorosos
i trencada la color.

Filla del Rei

Mare reina, mare reina,
jo em moro de mal d'amor;
aquells ulls blaus de don Carles
m'han atravessat el cor.

Reina

No ens sabríeu triar gendre
tan noble i tan valerós, si és que el comte hi consentia
casats ne sereu tots dos.
Mes heus aquí el germà vostre,
el seu fidel companyó,
qui sosté que és una dama
disfressada de baró.

Filla del Rei

I com, germà meu, pot ésser que així vós siau tan foll que prengueu per una dama qui tants d'enemics ha mort?
Aquell braç seu invencible,
son posat guerrejador,
aquell cos més ferm que ferro,
aquells ulls qui treuen foc,
voleu, germà meu, que sien
de dona feble com jo?
O és que voleu bromejar-me
o haveu perdut la raó.

Fill del Rei

Jo no soc foll, ni bromejo,
no traeix així l'amor.
Set anys ha que faig la guerra
i no l'he deixat enlloc,
i, ai de mi! Quant més temps passa
més i més cregut ne soc que els ulls blaus que té don Carles
són de dama; d'home, no.

Filla del Rei (plorant)

Ai mare, la meva mare,
no pot ser, no pot ser això.
El cor a mi no m'enganya.
i em moro per ses amors.
Germà meu, ho podeu creure,
teniu vanes il·lusions:
els ulls blaus que té don Carles,
no de dama, d'home són.

Reina

Un consell vos donaria, un consell als dos vos do i, si don Carles és dona, bé ho farà coneixedor.
Eix vespre serà a la festa (al fill)
que donem en son honor, meneu-lo a veure les feixes de tota mena de flors
i com dames i donzelles
les tenen afició, si el Comte Carles és dona

no mancarà a fer-ne un pom.
Podreu veure, filla meva,
si és gentil el Comte amb vós, si ell us ve a tirar amoretes
i dels altres n'és gelós.
I, si es baró i no donzella,
no mancarà a fer-ho, no,
car la mà d'una princesa
és quelcom de temptador.

El fill del Rei entra al palau. S'és fet fosc. Els patges han encès les lluminàries, prenent els jardins un aspecte fantàstic. La Reina i la filla del Rei s'internen pel jardí.

L'orquestra preludia pianíssim un ballable amb el compàs molt pausat.

Surten per la porta de mà dreta Isabel amb armadura i el fill del Rei amb trajo de cort. Els dos van amb els braços passats per la cintura.

Fill del Rei

Com no us traieu la cuirassa!
Per ballar massa no us pesa?
Deixeu també las manyoples.
Ja no ens trobem a la guerra.

Isabel

Amic meu, gran mal me'n fora, que en vaig fer una prometença de no deixar mai les armes fins que la pau no fos feta.

Fill del Rei (contrariat)

Amic meu, que no voldríeu passejar per nostres feixes?
En nostre verger, don Carles, veureu flors de tota mena.

Isabel
sense fer-ne cas, se gira d'esquena i veu les cambreres qui l'atalaien des del mirador.

Oidà, amic meu! I qui us tria unes tan gentils cambreres?

(Dirigint-se a elles.)

Visquen les cares boniques!

(Arrenca de les branques unes quantes taronges i les tira al mirador.)

A la vostra gentilesa!

Les cambreres esclafint en boges rialles corren a amagar-se.

Isabel, amb la daga, talla un plançó; s'entreté fent-ne un bastó. Després, amb el fill del Rei, se perden entre les parelles i desapareixen pel viarany de mà esquerra. L'orquestra arrenca en una dansa joiosa i elegant. Ball general.

Cor d'homes i dones (ballable)

L'amor com traïdor s'amaga dins del verger,
entre les branques florides
del taronger.

Mes quan la dansa comença
baixa del niu
i es perd entre les parelles, folleja i riu.
I els seus paranys invisibles
estén, i el cor,
qui en la seva xarxa tomba,
de desig mor.
I en les suaus giravoltes,
brillants i ardents,
els ulls i els llavis se cerquen
de pler sedents.
Gentils donzells i donzelles,
ah, vigileu!
Que el traïdor vos vol sorprendre
quan menys penseu.

Quan el cor és a la tercera estrofa i el ball està al seu ple, una corrua de damisel·les llençant xiscles i rient follament surt amb una gran corredissa del viarany de mà esquerra. Darrere d'elles, Isabel corra per a empaitar-les. El ball continua sense interrupció. La filla del Rei amb un cavaller al costat s'atura conversant en primer terme, voltada d'altres parelles qui passegen. S'acosta Isabel amb aire exageradament presumptuós, somrient a la Princesa. Aquesta, tantost el veu, gira l'esquena al seu cavaller per a enraonar amb Isabel. El cavaller insisteix en voler parlar-hi sense que ella en faci cas. L'orquestra toca piano.

Isabel (al cavaller)

Cavaller, quan una dama
vol fugir nostra presència, és dever de cortesia
saludar i desaparèixer.

Cavaller

Ja sabeu amb qui esteu
ara parlant amb tanta insolència?
Soc el Comte de Valldaura, príncep, cosí de la Reina.
Venint de llavis d'un jove
cap lliçó sabria admetre;
si estimeu la vostra fama
mossegueu-vos més la llengua.

Isabel

Jo estimo la meva fama
i avui la tinc de fer créixer;
jo mossegaré els meus llavis,
vós mossegareu la terra.
En guarda, doncs; amb l'espasa
a la mà ara us vull veure si us porteu davant las dames amb gaire més gentilesa.

Lluiten. Esglai general. Escampadissa dels convidats, qui corren d'ací d'allà esfereïts; les dones xisclant, els homes intentant descompartir els combatents.

QUADRO III

Prova fallida

Sala de palau gòtic. Al fons, dues grans finestres ogivals amb vitralls de colors. Al obrir-se la cortina, per darrere els vidres se veurà el reflex de les lluminàries de la festa que al cap de pocs moments s'apagaran. La sala restarà il·luminada per grans canelobres. Els ecos llunyans i perduts dels darrers compassos de la dansa sonaran una estona, morint al mateix temps que la llum darrere els vidres.

La filla del Rei està sentada en una cadira amb la cara amagada en una mà, amb expressió de tristesa. Entra la Reina.

Reina
(aturant-se davant de la seva filla.)

Filla meva, encara, encara amb aquesta greu tristor.
Que no en sou ben convençuda que el Comte és ben bé baró?

Filla del Rei

Mare reina, mare reina,
prou convençuda que en só.

Oh, no són pas aquests dubtes els qui m'entristeixen, no.
Més valguera mil vegades que el meu germà hagués raó, que patir de gelosia
i sofrir de desamor.

Reina

Filla, el cor aquesta volta
vos és ben enganyador.
Tota dama enamorada
qui per sa beltat i honor
veu un cavaller combatre
i exposar-se a heroica mort,
com el valent Comte Carles
acaba de fer per vós,
pot posar la mà a la flama que l'amor li és correspost.

Filla del Rei

Ai, mare, la meva mare,
vós no heu vist lo que he vist jo.
Jo só estada la darrera
a la que ha fet ell la cort.
Ell ha vist nostres cambreres
guaitant des del mirador
i els ha tirat bella pluja
de taronges i llimons.
Pels viaranys i pels marges
més atapits de foscor jugava amb les damisel·les empaitant-les com a foll.

A cap de les més boniques han mancat els seus favors:
an aquesta dolça ullada,
an aquella un galant mot,
a la d'ací una rialla,
a la d'allà duia flors;
i a totes ell esguardava
d'un esguard tot amorós.
Si ell s'és batut llavores,
no ha estat pas pel meu amor:
sols ha estat fatxenderia,
sols ha estat per punt d'honor.
Mare reina, mare reina,
massa gran és ma dissort;
jo em moro de gelosia,
jo em moro de mal d'amor.

Reina

Oh, no ploreu, filla meva!
Per què tan gran desconhort?
Lo que no es guanya en un dia,
en un any guanyar-se pot.

(Entra el fill del Rei.)

I vós, fill meu, és que encara
serveu la vostra il·lusió?
No hi ha cavaller a la terra
més galant cortejador
com avui el Comte Carles ho ha mostrat ser davant tots.
Però el greu desencant vostre endevinar-se ja pot
veient vostra melangia
i el vostre esguard consirós.

Fill del Rei

No és desengany, que són dubtes qui encara em fan mal al cor.
No m'enganyen els seus aires,
ni m'enganya el seu valor.
La seva galanteria
no és altra cosa que un joc per a millor amagar-nos
sa vera condició.
Hem anat a la cacera
i caça tan bé com jo,
hem jugat a la pilota
i la juga molt millor.
I amb tot i això, el Comte Carles dama n'és i no baró,
i ai, mare, la meva mare,
jo em moro per ses amors!

Reina

Altre consell vos daria
un darrer consell vos do:
convideu, fill meu, al Comte eix vespre a dormir tots dos i si don Carles fos dama
no hi voldrà consentir, no,
i si és cas hi consentia,
senyal serà que és baró.

Fill del Rei

Ara vaig, mare, a cercar-lo;
cap prova pot ser millor;
si demà no ho sé amb certesa
cuidaré devenir foll.

(Se'n van per la banda dreta.)

Quan el fill del Rei va a traspassar la porta, se topa amb la Isabel, que entrava.

Fill del Rei

Hola! Hola! El Comte Carles, ara anava a cercar-vos.
Deveu ja sentir fadiga,
és que haveu ballat com pocs.

Isabel

Lo que em sap greu, al contrari, és que hagi acabat tantost.
Quan un torna de la guerra té gran set de diversions.
Mai he vist dames tant belles
com les de la vostra cort.
Que en són d'enamoradisses,
si es presten a tots els jocs!
Qui era aquella gentil dama
del cabell rissat i ros qui cobria amb fils de perles
el pit, espatlles i coll?
Ah! Però aquella, aquella altra d'ulls negres que treien foc!
Jo no he vist cara més blanca,

no he vist mai llavis més roigs;
jo sento tot esllanguir-me
només que amb el seu record!

Fill del Rei

Comte Carles, Comte Carles, fet una brasa esteu vós...
Tornarem demà a parlar-ne,
que ja és hora d'anar a joc.
Entrem, que a la meva cambra llits parats hi ha per als dos.

Isabel

Amic meu, hauré de dir-vos una costum que tinc jo.
Totes les nits quan retiro, per fer-me venir la son
tinc de fer sonar una estona el llaüt o el guitarró
i no podria adormir-me
si abans no el tocava un poc.

Fill del Rei

Esta bé, amic, podeu prendre el nostre llaüt millor.

(Despenja un llaüt de la paret.)

Toqueu mentre jo us escolto, n'hi tinc molta, d'afició.

Isabel templa el llaüt i es posa a tocar. L'orquestra acompanya la melodia, qui ha de ser molt dolça, apassionada i endormidora. El fill del Rei se l'escolta durant una estona, fins que es queda profundament dormit a l'otomana. Quan el veu ben dormit, Isabel deixa el llaüt i s'acosta, mirant-lo apassionadament.

Isabel

(mirant temorosa a l'entorn i posant-se de genolls davant del fill del Rei)

En eixa cara gentil que ara jau aquí dormida prou se veu tot el turment que el seu esperit agita.
Pobre amic! De dubtes ple quan el teu cor ja endevina!
Perdona ma crudeltat,
car també ma pena és viva; tu an a mi no em veus sofrir jo et veig sofrir tot el dia.
Oh, que és gran el meu penar!
Amic meu, si el coneixes!
Quan amb ulls enamorats fit a fit els ulls me mires, tota em sento defallir;
dir-t'ho tot llavors voldria!
Mes, ai! L'hora no ha arribat!
Tinc de seguir la mentida...
Mes al present que ningú,
ni tant sols tu, pots sentir-me,
bé puc desfogar el meu cor,
bé puc sens recel obrir-te'l:
Príncep hermós, aimat meu,
Isabel també t'estima.
Ben prompte haurà d'acabar aquest fingiment que em lliga:

ben prompte hauré de partir,
si és que el meu pare em crida...
i ja no ens veurem mai més...
Si és així, com podré viure?
Serà tan gran ton amor que voldràs sempre seguir-me?

(Reculant.)

Ai, si m'haguessis sentit
quina en fora ta alegria!
Príncep hermós, aimat meu,
Isabel també t'estima.

Amb molt compte, es posa mig ajaguda al costat del fill del Rei.

Mentre Isabel ha anat dient, l'alba ha anat llustrejant per darrera els finestrals, fent brillar els vidres de colors. Se sent tocar a diana per tot el palau.

Una veu (des de dins)

Comte Carles, Comte Carles!

Isabel (aixecant-se)

Entreu (entra un patge.)

Patge

Vostre servidor.
Aquí teniu unes lletres que un patge ha portat fa poc dient-nos que convenia que al moment portada us fos.

Isabel

Pren la carta i, mentre la llegeix, pren son rostre una expressió dolorosa. El Príncep mentrestant s'és despertat.

Adeu príncep, adeu príncep, voleu res per l'Aragó?
La guerra s'és acabada,
a casa hi faig falta jo.
Les germanetes m'escriuen que el meu pare està a la mort.

Fill del Rei

Comte Carles, jo no us deixo de la cort partir tot sol:
jo us faria companyia
fins a l'altra part del món.
En les mans del vostre pare deixar-vos jo tinc resolt.
Fins arribar a vostra casa
vull ser vostre companyó.

Entren la Reina i la filla del Rei i, després, per estols, barons i dames.

Reina

És veritat, Comte Carles, que partiu avui, de jorn?

Isabel

És ben cert, senyora reina, me'n vaig cap a l'Aragó:
la guerra s'és acabada,
a casa hi faig falta jo.
Mes germanetes m'escriuen
que el meu pare està a la mort.

Reina

Adeu, adeu, Comte Carles!
Que aviat ens deixeu vós!
El Rei abaix vos espera, que vol comblar-vos de dons.

Filla del Rei (plorant)

Ai, adeu, Comte...

Isabel

Jo us dono
mercès per tots els favors.
Jo us deixo la meva espasa,
que us serveixi de record.
Si perilla la corona
del Rei, mon noble senyor, tornaré per recollir-la
i anar amb ella al triomf.

Se despedeix de la Reina i de la Princesa i amb una reverència de la munió de dames i cavallers que han envaït la sala. Se'n va acompanyat del fill del Rei. La gent s'aboca a la finestra. Al cap de poca estona, se sent el trotar de molts cavalls i un so alegre de cornetes tocant un aire de marxa, qui es va allunyant poc a poc. Aclamacions dintre i fora. Els cavallers i les dames agiten mocadors. La filla del Rei, sola, entre els dos finestrals, se posa a plorar.

QUADRO IV

La tornada

La mateixa escena del quadro primer. El toc de marxa amb què acaba el quadro anterior sona de lluny altre cop, acostant-se gradualment. A l'obrir-se la cortina, el pati està desert. Al cap d'un instant, per la portalada entren corrent uns quants homes d'armes. Altres patges entren per la porta de mà dreta.

Soldat 1er

Correu, patges; correu, patges;
correu a dir an el senyor que madò Isabel arriba
al davant de l'esquadró.
Jo em trobava fent la guarda
a la porta gran del fos quan he vist que s'aixecaven
pel camí núvols de pols.
Eren cavalls qui venien,
qui corrien a bon trot,
i a tots els vents voleiava
sobre d'ells nostre penó.

Els patges se'n van. Soldats entren i surten per la portalada. La trompeteria va acostant-se ràpidament. Entra per la porta de mà dreta el Comte amb ses tres filles. El Comte, ja molt corbat i més tremolós que al primer quadro.

Comte

(amb veu tremolosa)

Que són lluny, són lluny encara?
Ja deuen ser ben a prop!
Resistir tanta alegria
a la meva edat no es pot.

A la portalada, part enfora, han arribat els trompeters, que toquen el darrer compàs.

La gent

Acoblant-se tumultuosament a la portalada.

Ja és aquí! Ja és aquí! Visca, visca!

Isabel, cavalcant el cavall blanc i portant a la dreta el penó del castell, s'obre pas entre mig de la gentada qui l'aclama. Porta alçada la visera de l'elm i somriu amable i triomfant. El fill del Rei porta el cavall de la brida.

Himne

Salut! Salut al vencedor qui sa nissaga ha fet més noble!
Que ara l'aclami tot el poble,
car alt posa nostre penó!
Ferrenys té els seus braços

de fina blancor, dins son cos de nina
hi ha un cor de lleó.
Salut, salut al vencedor.

Benvinguda sia
al seu vell casal!
Serà en tots els segles
sa glòria immortal!

Mentre canten els cors, el fill del Rei ajuda a descavalcar a Isabel. Aquesta es llença silenciosament als braços oberts del seu pare; després abraça igualment les seves germanes.

Isabel

Ai, pare, el meu pobre pare,
i que vellet ara us trob!
Ben a temps s'és acabada
la guerra que he fet per vós.
A vostra llarga vellesa
jo vull servir de bastó:
si l'he servida amb coratge,
també ho sabré fer amb dolçor.

Comte (plorant)

Només sé plorar de joia...
no sabria treure un mot.
Oh, quant content aleshores veuria venir la mort!

Mig defallit cau en braços de les seves filles. Isabel entra al castell. Els cors repeteixen l'himne.

Himne

Salut, salut al vencedor, etc.

Isabel surt vestida de dona. S'acosta somrient al fill del Rei. Aquest, amb una cara que no sap si revela alegria o estupefacció, la mira com embadalit. Isabel li pren la mà i el porta cap al davant del seu pare.

Isabel

Deixeu, pare, que us presenti el fill del Rei, mon senyor;
set anys ha durat la guerra,
set anys que no em deixa enlloc.
Pels ulls blaus me va conèixer
aquest fidel companyó;
si pels ulls m'ha coneguda,
per cap altra cosa, no.
Si vol res de vostra filla, ell que us diga lo que vol.

Fill del Rei

Senyor Comte, vostra filla m'ha donat la seva amor.
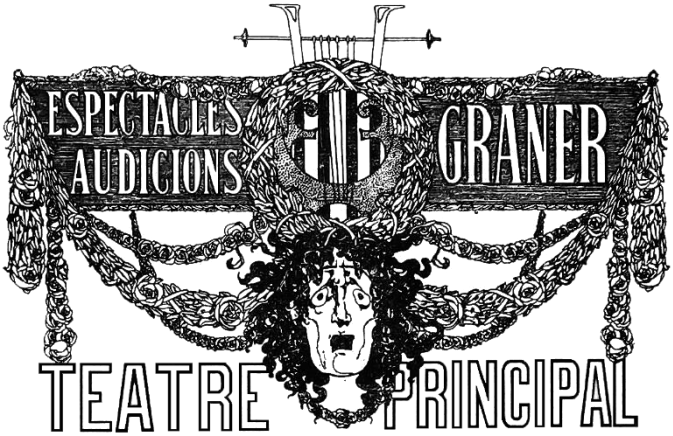
La seva mà sols me manca,
ara donau-me-la vós.

Comte

Pren les mans del fill del Rei i d'Isabel i les uneix solemnialment.

Jo us la dono, gentil príncep,
si el Rei, mon senyor, ho vol.
No passaran gaires dies,
casats ne sereu tots dos;
de la festa d'eixes noces
se'n parlarà en tot lo món.



Cor final

Entre el brogit del combat l'amor ha fet sa florida, bell roser que no han regat
rierols d'aigua exquisida.
L'ha regat, oh, gran portent,
de sang un furiós torrent!
A l'amor no li fan por ni l'escut ni la cuirassa;
del seu dard l'agut fibló
totes les malles traspassa
i amb mortal ferida ateny
el cor més brau i ferreny.
No demana ombrius jardins
a secrets dolços propicis;
no ha menester molls coixins,
floreix també entre suplicis.
Quan grana als camps de la mort és quan l'amor és més fort.
Oh, gentils enamorats,
vostra unió sortada sia!
Ja els has prou atormentats,
oh, amor tirà, amb ta follia!

Reposeu per sempre més damunt dels vostres llorers!

Els cavallers en primer terme i els homes d'armes en segon formen rodona al voltant del pati. El Comte, conduint per les mans al fill del Rei i a Isabel, va fent cerimoniosament la presentació de la parella a tots els cavallers i dames presents, començant per l'esquerra. Profundes reverències d'una i altra part.

La Dama d'Aragó

ADAPTACIÓ DE LA CANÇÓ POPULAR EN TRES QUADROS.

per Josep MORATÓ

música del mestre Adrià ESQUERRÀ

DECORACIONS

D'EN FREDERIC BRUNET

ESTRENA: 27 DE SETEMBRE DE 1906.

Lletra de la cançó popular

A Aragó n'hi ha una dama
que és bonica com un sol;
té la cabellera rossa,
li arriba fins als talons.
Ai, amorosa Anna Maria,
robadora del meu cor.
Ai de l'amor.

Sa mare la pentinava
amb una pinteta d'or,
sa tia els hi esclaria
els cabells de dos en dos.
Cada cabell, una perla;
cada perla, un anell d'or;
cada anell d'or, una cinta
que li volta tot el cos.

Sa germana els hi entrenava amb una cinteta d'or.
Sa padrina els hi untava
amb aigua de nou olors.
Sa germana més petita
li baixava el lligador, el lligador que li baixa
és un floc de nou colors.
Sa cunyada els hi lligava amb un floc de nou colors.

Son germà se la mirava
amb un ull tot amorós.

—No fóssim germans, Maria,
ens casaríem els dos.
Ara, com que som germans,
jo t'he buscat aimador.

A la fira se l'emporta,
a la fira de Lió.
De tants anells que n'hi compra,
li cauen dal mocador.
Els criats van al darrere plegant-los de dos en dos...

—Senyora Maria, tingui, tingui, tingui els anells d'or.
Mentres estan a la fira toquen a missa major.

—Germà meu, anem a missa,
anem a missa major.

Al entrar ella a l'església
les piques se tornen flors;
per prendre l'aigua beneïda
tenia un canonet d'or.
Quan és al mig de l'església
els altars llueixen tots.
Les dames, quan la van veure,
totes li varen fer lloc.
Les dames seuen en terra
i ella en cadireta d'or.
Capellà que diu la missa
n'ha perduda la lliçó;
escolà que l'ajudava
no li'n sap donar raó.

—De qui és aquella dama
que llença tanta esplendor?

—N'és filla del Rei de França,
germana del d'Aragó,
i si acàs no ho voleu creure,
mireu-li el sabató:
veureu les tres flors de lliri
i les armes d'Aragó.

QUADRO I

Cambra del palau

Cor

A Aragó n'hi ha una dama
que és bonica com un sol.
Adeu, amor;
adeu, princesa.
Té la cabellera rossa
i li cau fins als talons.
Sa mare l'hi pentinava
amb una pinteta d'or,
la padrina l'hi perfuma
amb aigua de nou olors.
Sa germana li'n trenava
els cabells de dos en dos;
cada cabell, una perla;
cada perla, un anell d'or;
cada anell d'or, una cinta
que li enronda tot el cos.

Germà

Si no siguessis la meva germana quina parella faríem els dos!

Maria

Ai, germà meu, no em tireu amoretes!
Ai, germà meu, no em parleu de l'amor.
Ni els meus encisos podrien ser vostres ni els meus cabells se pentinen per vós.

Aimador

Si anessis a la fira de l'amor,
jo et mercadejaria;
si volguessis ser reina del meu cor,
de grat te l'obriria.

Maria

Quina veu més gentil té l'aimador que em roba l'alegria!

Germà

Si tu volguessis, germana Maria, avui a fira aniríem tots dos;
les flors gentils que trobéssim anant-hi,
les colliríem per fer-ne dos poms.
Si l'un dels dos sobre el pit te'l posessis,
l'altre seria pel teu aimador.

Maria

Anem, germà, que ja em friso per ser-hi;
anem, germà, cap a veure l'amor.

Germana

Adeu, germana.

Mare

Adeu, fills, que tingueu sort a la fira.

Maria

A la fira de l'amor,
qui és que no n'hi tindria?

Aimador

Ves a la fira de l'amor,
rosa florida.
Ves a la fira de l'amor,
gentil Maria.

Maria

Ai, bon galan, que dolçament
ta veu m'arriba!
Ai, bon galan, que dolçament
mon cor sospira!

Aimador

Visca l'amor que ens ha ajuntat,
per sempre visca!
Visca l'amor qui pels mortals
és font de vida.

FI DEL QUADRO I

INTERMEDI

Cor

Un dia ja la portaven
a la fira de l'amor.
Ai, Marió!
Ai, Marieta!
Allí al entrant de la vida
no hi mancaven compradors.
Ai, Marieta!
Ai, Marió!

QUADRO II

La fira de l'amor

Cor

L'amor ens acosta,
l'amor ens atrau,
l'amor ens contorba
o ens porta la pau.
Qui d'amor sospira,
qui somriu d'amor,
qui té els ulls alegres,
qui entelats pel plor.
Si l'amor fa riure
també fa entristir;
si l'amor fa viure
també fa morir.

Noia

Jo sé d'una donzella
qui va a la fira per cercar galan;
jo sé d'una parella
de cors senzills que avui s'ajuntaran
i amor se juraran.

Cor

Diga'ns qui és ella,
diga'ns qui és ell.

Noia

Ell és, dels qui em volten, el més ric donzell,
i ella la més noble
dama d'Aragó.

Cor

Salut a la dama
i al seu aimador.

Aimador

D'a on ve el galan
amb la companyia?

Germà

Venim d'Aragó
a córrer la fira
cercant-hi promès
per aquesta nina.

Aimador

Si no és més que això
lo que us du a la vila,
no cal que hi cerqueu, hermosa Maria,
car bé sabeu prou
que jo us compraria.

Maria

Galan, bon galan,
què m'oferireu?

Aimador

Palaus i castells,
or i pedreries.

Germà

Amb lo que oferiu,
no farem pas fira.

Maria

Castells i palaus
poc ne necessita
qui rica ha nascut
i d'un rei és filla.
D'or tinc els cabells
que als talons m'arriben.
Cada cabell d'or,
una perla fina.
Doncs, quin cas puc fer
or i pedreries?

Aimador

No em tracteu aixís, hermosa María,
car prou sabeu vós
si el meu cor sospira per ser el vostre esclau per tota la vida.

Maria

Doncs amb aquest cor
m'acontentaria,
que els palaus més rics
i els pobles i viles
i l'or i l'argent
i les pedres fines,
per un cor amant
poca cosa diuen.

Aimador

Si el meu cor voleu,
ja és vostre, Maria.
Si voleu ma sang,
content la daria,
que un amor fidel
bé val una vida.

Germà

Doneu-li la mà.
Sou seva, Maria.

Aimador

Permeteu que abans
mon amor li diga.

Cor

Salut a la dama qui ve d'Aragó, salut a la dama i al seu aimador.

Aimador

Aquest collar de perles que us enrondarà el coll, símbol serà dels amorosos braços
amb que us estrenyeré sobre el meu cor.
Aquests anells que us poso
mostraran a tothom

que davant de l'altar m'heu fet promesa de fer-me per la vida el vostre espòs.
Aquest mantell blanquíssim
qui us vela tot el cos, contarà la puresa beneïda
de l'ànima que em deu amb vostra amor.
Aquesta diadema
amb que us cenyeixo el front, Dirà als vivents que sou la soberana del més afortunat dels aimadors.

Germà

Sentiu quin so més gentil que fan les campanes?

Aimador

És que anuncien al món
nostres esposalles.
Anem al temple aviat,
Maria estimada;
anem-hi que el sacerdot
deu estar frisant-se.

Maria

La ventura que em brindeu me té com torbada;
el perfum de vostre amor
tota m'ubriaga.

INTERMEDI

Cor

Se la n'han portada a missa per consagrar-la a l'espòs;
a l'entrada de l'església
els altars relluen tots.
Així s que va a prendre l'aigua,
les piques se tornen flors.
De qui és aquella dama
que llença tanta esplendor?
És filla del Rei de França,
germana del d'Aragó.
Adeu, amor;
adeu, princesa.

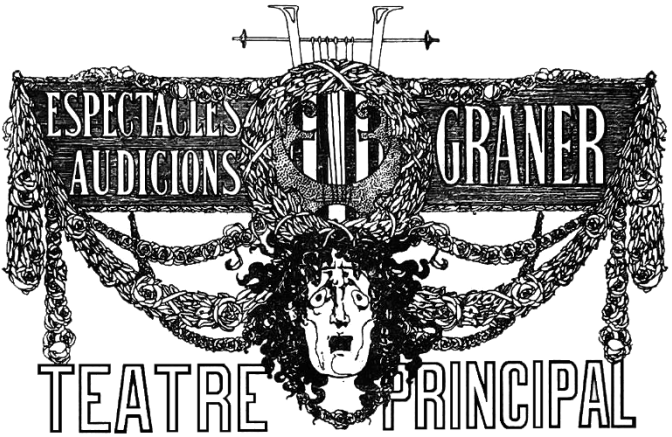
QUADRO III

Plaça

Cor

A la fira d'Aragó
la Maria va firar-se,
va compra-hi un cor amant
qui per ella sospirava.
Cor per cor, vida per vida;
veus aquí de l'amor la llei santa.
Si ella va comprar-hi un cor,
també en va dar bona paga;
car pel que ella va comprar,
el d'ella el galan donava.

Aimador



Visca l'amor qui ens ha ajuntat,
rosa florida;
visca l'amor qui ens ha ajuntat,
gentil Maria!

Tothom

Visca l'amor qui ens dona alè,
per sempre visca!
Visca l'amor qui pels mortals
és font de vida!

PRIMER ACTE

I EPISODI

És el palau del Comte. La Paula, criada major, està escalfant-se a la vora del foc i canta:

Paula

El qui em paga la soldada
és un vell molt eixerit,
per ‘xò me n’he enamorada
i el voldria per marit.
Si és per ‘xò o per altra cosa,
oidà,
quan seré la seva esposa,
prou i massa que ho sabrà.

Amb la creu del matrimoni sis vegades s’ha abraçat
i, totes sis, el dimoni
de la creu l’ha deslliurat.
Quan amb mi es parteixi el viure,
oidà,

si es deslliura o no es deslliura,
prou i massa que ho sabrà.

Si el dimoni és viu, de sobres jo crec ser-ho molt més que ell;
per combinar males obres
soc molt neta de clatell.
Si mi senyor amb mi es casa,
oidà
qui em vulgui empatar la basa, ja us dic jo que suarà.

Arriba en Genís, criat major, i es mostra tot enfadat perquè la Paula vol casar-se amb el Comte. I fins diu que ell impedirà el casament, d'acord amb la bruixa vella, a la qui se'n va a trobar, deixant altre cop sola a la Paula, qui torna a cantar, sorprenent-la al cap d'alguns versos l'arribada del Comte.

Paula

El qui em paga la soldada
és un vell molt eixerit,
per 'xò me n'he enamorada
i el voldria per marit.

Comte

Ai, Pauleta, Pauleta, Pauleta,
ai, Pauleta, diga'm que sí.

Paula

Mi senyor, no feu bromes;
jo soc pobre i vós ric
i no és bona parella
la formiga pel grill.

Comte

Ai, Pauleta estimada,
no em rebutgis aixís.
Ai, Pauleta, Pauleta, Pauleta,
ai, Pauleta, diga'm que sí.

Paula

No...

Comte

Sí...

Paula

Mi senyor, no us burleu de mi.

Comte

Ai, Pauleta, casa't amb mi.

Després d'aquest duo, el Comte explica la seva amor a la Paula, i la Paula acaba per accedir a ser la seva dona, però primer el fa bobejar una mica. Aleshores, se'n va cap a la rectoria per donar ordre de treure els papers. I la Paula, al restar sola, canta:

Paula

Una cuca eixerida
se passava la vida
sota un pàmpol de cep.
I un cuc poderós
li deia vanitós:
—Si vols casar-te amb mi, tinc una parra que pot servir de casa per tots dos.

I la cuca eixerida
va acceptar decidida
l'amor del poderós,
i el cuc la va fer
hereva del seu bé.
Mes la cuca va fer-se papallona
i, al morir el cuc, d'un papalló va ser.

TELÓ

II EPISODI

És una selva, de nit.

Compareixen en Genís i la bruixa vella. En Genís no les té totes i la bruixa l'entreté contant-li la seva història. Després crida l'assemblea i compareixen altres bruixes amb bruixots, follets i ànimes en pena.

Cor de bruixes i follets

Som entremaliats,
som esbojarrats
i enemics del dia.
La nostra alegria
són les fosquedats.

Cor de bruixes

Som esbojarrades,
som entremaliades;
forgem les ventades,
els llamps, les tronades
i les pedregades que assolen les prades.

Tots

Mentre dels homens ens burlem cantem i ballem.

La bruixa vella dona ordre d'acabar la gresca i proposa a l'assemblea embruixar al Comte. Les altres bruixes i els bruixots ho troben bé i la bruixa vella dona una ampolleta a en Genís perquè en faci beure el contingut al Comte. Mentre en Genís se'n va, les bruixes i els bruixots reprenen la dansa.

TELÓ

III EPISODI

Tornem a ser a casa del Comte.

La Paula taral·leja la cançó amb què ha clos el primer episodi. Arriba el Comte tot enfadat, perquè en tot l'arxiu parroquial no es troba l'òbit de la darrera dona i sense l'òbit no hi ha casament possible. Això el té febrós, al Comte. Els polsos li baten, la pell li crema, té una set abusadora. Per això fa cridar a en Genís perquè li dugui beure. I en Genís obeeix i barreja a la beguda lo que li ha donat la bruixa vella. I el Comte s'adorm, però quan ho està, salta de sota la taula un follet qui el desperta i li explica que l'òbit és a les calderes d'en Pere Botero, i no té més remei que anar-lo a buscar allà baix en companyia del dimoni gros. Decidit a tot, el Comte deixa que el follet cridi al dimoni gros, qui contesta a les tronades i compareix al cap d'un instant tot calmós... És un dimoni estrany el tal dimoni: tothom el prendria per un dimoni del bé, i això fa que inspiri confiança al Comte, fins al punt de decidir-lo a baixar a l'Infern per la línia directa.

I s'acaba l'episodi i s'acaba l'acte, obrint-se la terra i enfonsant-se el Comte i el dimoni gros, mentre una colla que n'ha sortit de sobte dansa diabòlicament.

SEGON ACTE

I EPISODI

Una sala de l'Infern amb unes rengles de calderes per fer bullir als condemnats.

Com que el dimoni gros encara no ha tornat, en Pere Botero, el Cua-llarg i en Banyeta es disputen en un tercet la gerència de l'Infern.

Pere Botero

Ara que el dimoni gros
és a fer una passejada,
jo soc l'amo de l'Infern,
jo soc l'amo de la casa.

Banyeta

Que no, senyor,
que no, senyor,
perquè l'amo soc jo.

Pere

Jo soc en Pere Botero.

Banyeta

Jo soc en Banyeta.

Cua-llarg

I jo el Cua-llarg.

Tots tres

Qui sigui o no sigui l'amo, quan el gueto torni, ja s'aclarirà.

Pere

L'amo soc jo.

Banyeta

Que no, senyor,
perquè soc jo.

Cua-llarg

No, senyor; no, senyor; no, senyor, no, no
perquè aquí no hi ha altre amo que jo.

Pere i Banyeta

Doncs aquí no hi ha altre amo que jo, jo, jo.

Arriba el dimoni prim i diu als altres que no es disputin, perquè ha sentit el primer tro anunciant la tornada del dimoni gros. Aquest, acompanyat del Comte, baixa de la Terra al cap d'uns instants mentre tots els dimonis canten:

Dimonis

Salut a l'amo de l'Infern, qui avui davalla de la Terra;
salut a l'amo de l'Infern
qui venta el foc etern!

Salut al nostre director
i a qui ve amb ell de companyia;
salut al nostre director
i en al seu companyó!

El dimoni gros se queixa de lo abandonat que han deixat el foc durant la seva absència i dona ordre d'avivar les flames. Tothom va a ocupar el lloc que li correspon i, en un moment que resten sols el Comte i el dimoni prim, se troben coneguts de la Terra, i aleshores el dimoni prim explica al Comte que a l'Infern hi té les seves sis dones i les seves sis sogres. Justament les sogres són a dintre les calderes d'allà a prop. Lo de les sogres ja ho creu el Comte, però lo de les dones no, per lo qual el dimoni prim va a buscar-les. Aleshores, les sogres treuen el cap i les urpes per sobre les calderes i canten:

Sogres

Ai, ai, ai!
Que pateixo,
que sofreixo!

Comte

Noi, que bé!
Ara paguen totes plegades
les murriades que em varen fer.

Sogres

Ai, ai, ai!
Vine, que et vull treure els ulls;
vine, que et vull menjar el fetge;
vine, que et vull escorxar
i foradar-te la clepsa.
Ai, ai, ai!...

Comte

Xafarderes,
tafaneres,
escorpins.

Sogres

Vine a tastar l'escalfor ardenta d'aigua bullenta que fa aquí dins.

Comte

No pas ara, males pues;
no pas ara, mals soldats.

Sogres

Per tu pateixo,
per tu sofreixo.

Comte

Així purgueu vostres pecats
i així pagueu vostres maldats.

Torna el dimoni prim i, després de fer ficar a les calderes les sogres, diu al Comte que aviat veurà la seva primera dona. Aleshores, el Comte d'adona d'altres condemnats als qui havia conegut a la Terra i, després d'una escena amb ells, compareix la primera dona, que es diu Bruniquilda. Però al cap de poc venen les altres i mouen un gran enrenou per voler ser totes les preferides del Comte. Això fa que armin una batalla a la que posa fi el dimoni prim, fent-les fora totes menys la Bruniquilda, qui recrimina al Comte per haver-se casat tants cops i per voler-hi tornar encara, cosa que li desaconsella. I fins l'en fa desistir, fent-li veure per una escletxa de l'Infern lo que passa en aquells moments a casa seva, a on els criats i criades aprofiten la seva absència per divertir-se. Ademés, l'avisa de que el dimoni gros no és pas tan bon jan com sembla i de que tot allò del casament i la baixada a l'Infern i una festa que prepara no és altra cosa que un llaç. Però arriba el dimoni gros i comença la festa, aprofitant el Comte l'animació per fugir de l'Infern, guiat per la Bruniquilda.

TELÓ

II EPISODI

A cal Comte.

Els criats i les criades beuen i canten a l'entorn d'una taula:

Criats i criades

Avui que l'amo és fora
beguem i cantem.
Aprofitem la ganga
ja que no ens veu.
Eixuguem-li les botes
i buidem-li el celler, que el vi dona alegria
i esborra el sentiment.

Tant si és vi vell
com vi novell
el vi és qui dona — millor consell:
doncs, visca el vi,
sembrador de ventures!
doncs, visca el vi,
i que s'omplin les botes a desdir!

Avui que l'amor és fora,
mengem i trinquem.
El rebost saquegem-li
ja que no ens veu.
Fem de senyors nosaltres
ja que el senyor no hi és, bé prou que hem d'humiliar-nos
quan som davant d'ell.

Visca el vi vell
i el vi novell,
que el vi és qui dona — millor consell:
doncs, visca el vi,
sembrador de ventures!
doncs, visca el vi,
i que s'omplin les copes a desdir!

Criats i criades mouen molta gresca, però quan hi són al bo, se'ls aixeca el Comte del bell mig de la taula. Tots cauen humiliats demanant-li perdó i això el desarma. Veus-aquí per què, recordant un consell que li ha donat la Bruniquilda de fer de pare als qui no en tenen, els proposa com a càstig el de casar-se tots al cap de tres setmanes.

«—Jo no tinc fills, doncs tots vosaltres me'n fareu... I ara, a ballar tothom.»

I criats i criades s'aparellen i s'acaba l'obra entre gran animació.

PRIMER ACTE

QUADRO I:

L'aparició

Sala del palau reial. Al fons, una ampla galeria amb arcades i columnes que dona a un frondós jardí de vegetacions exòtiques. A mà dreta, al fons, un llarg corredor. Se celebra un banquet pel naixement d'una filla dels reis, la primera que han tingut ja en la vellesa. Una gran taula, parada amb sumptuosa vaixella i decorada amb flors, està ocupada per cortesans i per dames que riuen i parlen. A fora se sent també gran gatzara del poble, que expressa l'alegria amb cants i danses. Se veuran, al jardí, les parelles passar i traspassar pel fons de la galeria.

Cant del poble

Vostre desig s'és complert, oh, reis, en vostra vellesa;
més hermosa que un estel
és nascuda una princesa.
Que aquest jorn benaurat sia!

Companys, cantem l'alegria!
—Sou vells arbres corsecats que de cop han tret florida.
Que la flor visqui feliç
a vostra ombra beneïda.
Que aquest jorn benaurat sia
Companys, cantem l'alegria!— [11]

Rei (dirigint-se als cortesans)

Sí, cars vassalls; el nostre cor s'inunda d'un raig puríssim d'alegria immensa.
Mes pel cel radiant, que els vostres himnes omplen de joia avui, un petit núvol veig negrejar que tot mon ser esglaia.
Un vell oracle, que a través dels segles se perpetua en ma nissaga heroica, predigué en temps passats que el meu llinatge engendraria un jorn una princesa, únic fill dels seus pares, que seria ornada de beldad tant sobirana que a l'hora en què sos ulls poguessin veure en l'espill reflexat son gentil rostre, en contemplació eterna embadalint-se immòbil restaria i encisada d'un son fatal irresistible presa del que mai més, mai més despertaria.
Per [ai]xò del nostre infant amb la vinguda jo veig aquell antic terrible oracle sospès menaçador sobre ma testa.

[11] Els fragments entre guions llargs al llarg de l'obra indica que és parlat.

Cor

Oblida aquest temor
i que cap núvol torbi ta alegria.
—El ros infant que el cel ara us envia serà el sol en l'hivern del vostre amor.—

Rei

Aquesta nit m'ha visitat en somnis el geni tutelar de ma nissaga.
La bona fada, que —de nits s'escorre
com una ombra pel tètric laberinte dels corredors i sales solitàries, vetllant nostre repòs i—ve a advertir-nos
sempre que han d'arribar grans infortunis, avui ha obert la porta de ma cambra
i com fantasma lleu i lluminosa l'han vist mos ulls al meu capsal immòbil
—Sos ulls, d'ensomni de verdoses aigües, fixà en el meus amb fonda melangia;
i els tenia de llàgrimes tots tèrbols
i un plany d'angoixa ha commogut sos llavis.—
Després s'és esvaïda i una angúnia mortal estic sentint des d'aquella hora.
...Oh, tu, savi Merlí, per qui la terra
i el cel no tenen cap secret, pots dir-me què em prediu aquest somni inoblidable?
És que ja el temps del compliment s'acosta d'aquell oracle secular? Oh, digues!
—I aclareix-me la ment fosca de dubtes.—

Merlí

(alçant les mans al cel com inspirat)

Oh, rei, el vell oracle va a complir-se.
És ton infant el que el destí condemna.

Els reis i tots els vassalls resten tots presos de gran esglai.

Cor

Oh trist, oh trist destí
el d'aquell qui sap veure l'avenir!
Totes les desventures,
totes les llàgrimes que ell veu futures amb son saber tan gran com malaurat ens venen ans del temps pels deus marcat.
Adeu, dolça alegria;
tu l'has morta amb la teva profecia!

Merlí

Però escolta, bon Rei, potser que hi hagi remei a la dissort: —deixa que provi d'aplacar ton destí cruel;— ajuda vull demanar al poder del bon fantasma, que en l'ombra augusta d'aquests murs sojorna .

(Pausa)

Oh tu, fada encisera! Oh tu, bon geni protector secular de la nissaga dels nostres sobirans, —deixa les ombres on nies silenciosa i invisible!—
Compareix a ma veu! Merlí t'ho mana!

La sala s'enfosqueix de sobte. Pel corredor del fons avança una forma blanca i lluminosa fins que desemboca en escena.

Cor

Qui ets tu, fantasma vaga ?...
Ets d'altre món visió?
La llum del jorn s'apaga.
Mortal és nostra por.

Un raig de lluna plena sols brilla en la foscor;
la sala s'enllumena
amb màgica claror.

—Oh, ja és aquí; silenci!
Companys, no feu remor;
deixeu que en pau avenci
l'estranya aparició.—

La fantasma se'n va dreta cap al bressol. Amb les dues ales del seu vel lluminós el cobreix tot i s'aboca damunt d'ell.

Fada

Serà la teva bellesa
d'un tant immortal encís,
que un cop la vegis impresa
—restaràs tota sospesa—
fruiràs el paradís.

I t'ajauràs defallida
en un eternal desmai.
—Mil cops amb nova florida—

se despertarà la vida
al teu entorn; mes tu, mai.

Sols l'amor és ta esperança.
Si algun jorn, enamorat
un cavaller fins tu avança,
—al primer cop de sa llança—
el teu son serà acabat.

Mentre la música se va perdent en harmonies vagues i tremoloses, la fantasma se difumina poc a poc fins que desapareix.

Els cortesans, quan reprenen el cor, cauen de genolls.

Cor

—Encara ens afalaga
sa veu i ens estremeix
com una boira vaga
per l'aire s'esvaeix.—

Una esperança incerta has fet ara lluir que sigui un jorn complerta
i aplaca el dur destí.

El Rei i la Regina han restat abraçats des que la Fada ha desaparegut.

Cau la cortina pausadament.

QUADRO II:

El mirall fatal

El jardí del palau. A mà dreta, un angle d'aquest amb una escala ampla i de poca altura que puja fins al llindar de la porta. Al fons, una gran espessor de tells i castanyers altíssims. A mà esquerra, un llac que es perd pel mateix costat. De temps en temps, hi passen nedant suaument cignes blanquíssims. Alguns salzes aboquen sobre les aigües dormides llurs brancatges esllanguits. Lo que resta d'escena, es cobert d'herba tendra, entapissada tota de flors brilla11ts. Els rossinyols hi refilen.

Al obrir-se les cortines, una colla de nois i noies entren amb gran xiscladissa en escena, sortint del jardí per la banda de darrera del palau. Miren tots enlaire com cercant quelcom entre les branques de· l'arbreda. Entre ells hi va la Princesa., qui s'ha de distingir de tots els altres per una excepcional bellesa i la riquesa i el gust dels seus vestit.

Princesa

On t'hauràs ara amagat aucell de daurat plomatge?
És que tens el niu penjat
dins d'aquest frondós brancatge?

Ton cant, d'un goig inefable,
nostre cor ha deixat ple.
Oh, torna, aucell adorable!
Oh, si jo et pogués haver!

Cor

—Amb els teus màgics encants has seduït la princesa;
i no tindràs pas descans
fins que en gàbia et vegi presa.—

—Ton cant, d'un goig inefable,
nostre cor ha deixat ple.
Oh, torna, aucell adorable!
Oh, si jo et pogués haver!—

Alguns nois s'enfilen pels arbres. Els altres, donant-se les mans, canten fent la sardana al voltant de la soca.

Cor

Ara passa, ara fulgura,
ara a una branca s'atura...
Ara passa, ara fulgura
i altra vegada se'n va.

Per l'aire gira una ploma
de la graciosa coloma,
per l'aire gira una ploma
i en el llac a caure va.

La Princesa, seguida d'alguns nois i noies, va a la vora del llac en busca de la ploma. S'agenolla en terra i l'assoleix. Per compte d'alçar-se, resta de genolls, abocada a l'aigua com mirant el fons amb insistència.

La dansa dels nois continua, mentre la Princesa resta immòbil en la mateixa posició.

L'aucell

(Una veu des del cim dels arbres)

(La dansa s'interromp.)

Bella princesa, nina gentil, què és lo que mires tan llargament?
Què és lo que brilla al fons transparent del llac tranquil?

Princesa

Al fons immòbil de l'onada sorgeix com flor que al sol se bada un rostre bell d'encís diví.
Amb ulls profunds somrient me mira;
d'un goig estrany mon pit sospira;
llangor mortal jo sento en mi.

L'aucell

És el meu càntic sagrat avís.
El llac té per a l'espill fatal.
Vas a esllanguir-te en son eternal, l'instant arriba del seu encís.

Durant el diàleg de l'au i la Princesa, els nois i noies, presos tots de gran esglai, han anat fugint uns pel jardí, uns altres per la porta del palau.

La Princesa, entre els acords misteriosos de l'orquestra, s'ajau suaument entre les flors, com presa d'una son dolcíssima.

Entren precipitadament els Reis, seguits de Merlí i de dames i cavallers.

Durant tota aquesta escena, els jardins s'han d'il·luminar amb clarors vagues i fantàstiques fins al final.

Rei
(amb un gest desesperat)

Oh, la meva filla!

Li agafa el cap entre les seves mans i el besa. La Regina i els demés proven de retornar-la.

Rei

Estrany desmai! Oh, no es retorna encara!

Merlí

I no es retornarà mai en sa vida!

Rei

Digues, Merlí, i explica aquest misteri.

Merlí

Senyor! Ara ha trobat la vostra filla aquell mirall predit pel vell oracle.
Mireu-lo aquí al davant. Les aigües pures del llac dormit on la blavor s'hi mira, ara han estès al seu esguard, traïdores,
l'espill no sospitat qui l'ha encisada.

Rei

Oh filla del meu cor! Tenen de veure't morta els meus ulls, no essent encara morta!
Jo doblego el meu front als durs designis dels immortals: que el son ben lleu te sia
i l'acompanyin delitosos somnis.
I ara, vassalls fidels, cuiteu, porteu-me el seu vestit immaculat de núvia que ja esperava el dia de les noces, vels de llilials blancors, fresques garlandes de murtra i tarongina que coronin son front de nacre i l'àuria cabellera;
eixa serà l'esplèndida mortalla
de la que a un son etern els déus condemnen.
Del palau en la cambra més luxosa,
entre velluts fulgents i rics domassos, pareu pomposament el llit de núpcies
pera que en ell eternalment reposi.
I ara entonen ben fervorós un càntic
a l'Amor; ell és l'única esperança;
només l'Amor en l'avenir podria
obrir a la llum els ulls de la Princesa.
I el cant finit, tots fugirem a l'una
d'aquest sojorn qui aital misteri amaga.
La solitud amb son etern silenci son repòs vetllarà al través dels segles.

Dames i cavallers surten tantost ho ha indicat el Rei i compareixeran altre cop entrant en escena per l'escala del palau, quan el Rei hagi acabat el seu parlament, portant el vestit i les garlandes. Les donzelles la vesteixen.

Després, en un llit format per branques florides arrencades dels arbres, la conduiran a pes de braços al palau, seguides de tot el corteig. Durant aquesta escena, els cors entonaran solemnialment aquest himne, que ha de tenir el caràcter de marxa fúnebre i ensems de marxa nupcial.

Cor

Colors frescals de la vida del seu rostre no han fugit;
la seva mort és mentida,
però el seu cos ha defallit.

Guerrer intrèpid,
somniat paladí,
vulgui guiar l'amor el teu camí.
La bellesa aquí amagada
tota dormint espera ta besada, que a la llum els seus ulls tornarà a obrir.

Així que el cos de la Princesa ha traspassat el llindar de la porta del palau, apareix la fada entre l'espessor del jardí. Moviment d'espant i sorpresa de tots els presents.

Fada

Que en son profon tot al voltant reposi, els homes al palau, les aus al niu:
que estroncada la font les flors no arrosi
i s'ajegui la flama en son caliu.
Que en avant dins el bosc entrar no gosi
cap home, cap ser viu.
Que ple d'encantaments un gran silenci
el meu castell abandonat defensi.
Oh, guardians fidels, dormiu, dormiu!

La fada obre els braços, fent un gest ver l'estol dels guardians, patges i donzelles. De sobte, cauen tots sobre els graons de l'escala com presos d'una son invencible. Cortines lentes.

SEGON ACTE

QUADRO I:

333 anys després...

Un esplanada davant d'un bosc. El bosc ombrívol, espès i d'arbres negres i turmentats s'estén des de mitja escena cap al fons, pujant pel vessant d'una muntanya molt espadada i esquerpa, en el cim de la qual s'hi veurà part d'un gran castell, cobert materialment per la verdor dels arbres gegants que el circumden, talment que només han d'emergir de dins l'espès fullam algunes cúpules i agulles de colors pàl·lids i somorts. El sol s'és post darrera el castell, voltant-lo d'una daurada i feble aurèola de posta tardorenca que il·lumina vagament tot el paisatge.

El pastor i el rabadà estan sentats davant d'un foc, vigilant el remat, que es suposarà pasturant a un dels costats invisibles de l'escena. El rabadà toca en el fluviol un aire popular.

Pastor

Vaja, vailet, prou de tocar; vigila que pel bosc la remada no s'escampi.

(El vailet s'aixeca.)

Ah, malvinatge al món! Mal llamp l'esquerdi!
Perduda està la maleïda ovella!

Rabadà

Ja l'aniré a cercar dintre la brossa.
Per fotesa semblant passeu angúnia?

Pastor

Ai, rabadà, pobre de tu que ho provis;
un cop a dins mai més ne sortiries
És un bosc embruixat: el qui hi penetra, jo mai he sapigut si és perquè troba la mort o el paradís sota els brancatges, no torna més al món dels vius. Pots creure-ho.
Un reguitzell de noms podria dir-te d'amics pastors despareguts per sempre.
Però tu ets encar novell entre nosaltres,
i els secrets de la terra cal que et mostri.
Aquí on els dos seiem arreu ens volta un món de meravelles mai sentides.
Prova no més que de llançar una pedra dins el fullatge ombriu de la boscúria
i sentiràs eixir-ne veus tan dolces que passaries anys tot escoltant-les i ni menys de menjar et recordaries.

El vailet agafa una pedra i la llança contra el bosc com li ha dit el pastor. Tan bon punt la pedra toca les fulles, surt del fons del brancatge un acord dolcíssim de veus femenines, que va minvant d'intensitat gradualment.

Rabadà (tot embadalit)

Oh, Déu del cel! Què hi deu haver aquí dintre!

Pastor (rient)

Torna-hi, vailet; però d'aquí no passis!

El rabadà agafa un grapat de pedres i les llança una darrera l'altra. A la primera se torna a sentir l'acord. Després, a mida que va llançant les demés, els acords se succeeixen seguits, modulant suaument una màgica melodia de veus blanques.

Pastor
(veient el rabadà tot bocabadat)

Oi que sembla talment que cada fulla sigui un fluviol dolcíssim per on passi l'alè suau dels àngels de la glòria?
Mes vine aquí, vailet; de por tot frises.
Torna't a seure al meu costat i escolta la rondalla més maca i més estranya que tu hagis escoltat mai en ta vida.
I veuràs clar lo que no pots entendre.
Una vegada... era un rei...

Se senten, una mica distants, les trompes i els corns d'una cacera que es va acostant ràpidament.

Al cap d'una estona compareixen correnr cavallers amb sagetes i ballestes.

Cor

Per ací ens ha fugit.
Ja l'havíem ferit,
no el deixem escapar.
Bosc endins caminem que a la fi prou l'haurem.
Au, companys, al senglar!

(Arranquen a córrer en direcció al bosc.)

Pastor

(posant-se al davant dels cavallers)

No avanceu ni un pas més!
Reculeu, cavallers,
si la vida estimeu.

Un cavaller

Au d'aquí, malcarat...

Pastor

És un bosc embruixat,
si aneu dins no eixireu.

El Príncep, a cavall, ha entrat en escena durant l'anterior diàleg.

Príncep

(qui ha sentit les darreres paraules del pastor)

Sí, bruixes o dimonis o alguna mala cosa
hi haurà allí dins reclosa.
Mireu què m'ha passat:
al senglar qui fugia un tret ara he llançat;
ha enfilat la sageta brunzint per la boscúria quan de cop suau cantúria
com per encís ha eixit
d'entre el frondós fullatge que ella havia ferit.
Oh, el bon pastor, digueu-me què hi ha en eixa muntanya
i en eixa selva estranya?
I en eix castell qui viu,
que més aviat diria que és d'àligues un niu'?

Pastor

Ah, senyor meu, és una llarga i trista història que es perd en la memòria
dels temps: en eix castell, que va ja tot desfent-se en runes de tant vell, diuen que fa molts segles (jo ho he sentit de llavis dels meus difunts besavis) una princesa hi ha
dormint d'un son tan fondo que mai despertarà.
Ningú jamai l'ha vista en eixa gran boscúria tan tenebrosa i trista les fades la vigilen, voltant d'encantaments als passants imprudents.
Ai de qui s'hi esgarria!
Mai més tornarà a veure la dolça llum del dia.

Príncep

Tot el meu cor s'inflama; ja friso per ser allí!
Digueu-me el més curt camí!

Pastor

Oh malaurat, què intentes?
Per vana i perillosa empresa te turmentes.

El Príncep avença resoltament, llançant-se en direcció al bosc. El cel s'ennuvola.

Pastor

Recula, que ets a temps.

(Posant-se al davant).

Príncep
(apartant violentament el pastor)

Deixa, què tinc de fer-ne d'aquests perills que tems?
Avant! Radiant de glòria jo compliré l'empresa.
Jo us mostraré en mos braços desperta la Princesa.

La tempesta esclata en llamps i trons. El Príncep s'arrenca en direcció al bosc. Quan és a vora les branques altíssimes i espesses dels arbres i de les mates, aquestes se separen per si mateixes com per fer-li pas. Tantost les toca, sonen els acords màgics, que es resolen en l'himne següent.

Cor de fades (invisible)

Heu-se'l aquí, el cavaller esperat.
—Ja ve, ja arriba el noble paladí, — amb son esguard d'amor tot inflamat.
—Obrim-li totes un triomfal camí.
Que sia ferma ta abraçada
com son dormir n'és de pregon:
serà llavores desvetllada
i un altre cop somriurà al món.

Anima dormida,
ve ton redemptor!
Desperta a la vida
en els braços de l'amor!—

QUADRO II:

L'amor desperta la bellesa

Un interior de palau mig enrunat. En primer terme, una ampla graderia. Al replà superior, una columnata des d'on arrenca una escala portant a un templet cobert amb cortinatges pesats i sumptuosament brodats de brillants colors somorts pel temps. A mà dreta, una gran finestra mig ensorrada. A mà esquerra, una gran porta tancada. A un costat i altre del templet, damunt de l'escala i darrera les columnes, el mur de l'edifici se veu completament badat en algun tros. A través d'aquestes escletxes i obertures se veuen alguns indrets del jardí abandonat amb gran espessor d'herbes altíssimes i d'arbres seculars que oculten el cel quasi totalment i aboquen onades de fullatge en l'interior de la sala.

Les heures i enredaderes del jardí també hi penetren, escampant en totes direccions llur brancam luxuriós, que s'entortolliga per les columnes, corona la volta del templet, s'enfila pels arbres i s'arrossega escales avall. Mil menes d'herbes i molses salvatges entapissen a trossos els graons i les columnes. Ajaguts els uns per les escales i els altres recolzats, de peu dret o asseguts; en les columnes, guerrers i guardians armats de totes armes, patges i donzelles, escampats tots en un bell desordre, dormen profundament en una absoluta immobilitat. Les cuirasses, els escuts i els cascos dels guerrers s'han de veure rovellats i plens de molsa. Les heures passen per damunt de molts dels dorments.

És primera hora de matinada i encara negra nit. El clar de lluna il·lumina fantàsticament els frondosos fullatges del jardí abandonat. Un raig suavíssim llisca per l'aire quiet de l'estança il·luminant-la vagament. Els ratpenats volen esquerps d'un cantó a l'altre i es gronxen sospesos en l'artesonat trossejat del sostre. Se sent xiular les òlibes i els mussols.

Cor

Les fades de la muntanya
(interior i llunyà)

Companyes, que habiteu
els caus ombrius del cim,
desperteu, desperteu,
que puja de l'abim
una cantúria estranya
qui commou tota la muntanya.

—Oh, fades de la vall, per què canteu al vent?
En vostre amagatall
hi passa algun portent?
Vostra cantúria estranya
a onades puja la muntanya—

Les fades del cim

Suau remor sentim;
dels antres més pregons,
ja arriben fins al cim
les danses i cançons:
amb música geganta
nostra muntanya tota canta.

Les fades de la muntanya

Ressona un trot lleuger
pujant des de la vall;
ja es veu un cavaller
damunt furient cavall.

Mes, ai, que per a tòrcer
el seu camí no tenim força.

Les fades del cim

Deixeu-lo en pau passar.
Nostre poder ja es pon.
Ell ve per arrencar
la verge al mortal son.
L'amor guia sa empresa:
seva serà nostra Princesa.

Totes les fades

—Amb les armes encantades cobrim-li els membres i el cor;
els nans les hi han forjades
resplendentes totes d'or.
Ja és a prop, ja és a prop...
Ja sentim el seu galop.

———

Una estranya flama roja
els seus ulls i front encén,
i és sa carrera tan boja que al seu pas desperta el vent.
Ja és aquí, ja és aquí.
Pas al noble paladí.—

Al cantar les Fades la segona o la tercer estrofa, apareix per encantament la fada del palau en un dels angles de la sala. L'ombra lluminosa llisca suaument fins els peus de l'escala del templet, puja els graons, aparta la cortina, mira endins, torna a baixar i roman immòbil en el replà.

La fada

Adeu, anys de solitud!
Adeu, oh, runes del meu vell casal!
Adeu, fonda quietud
que tant temps has breçat un son fatal!

L'amor ve a desvetllar-te, gentil nina;
i ara el món al teu voltant radiarà, per cegar-te, llum divina quan els teus ulls uns llavis obriran.

—Jo restaré a ta vora com germana.
Vetllaré per guardar-te de tot mal.
Lliscaré pel castell com ombra vana.
I m'asseuré invisible al teu capçal.

I tu avença sens temor, heroic cavaller!
Caiguin les portes al cop primer del teu glavi triomfador— (S'esvaeix).

Se sent un cop terrible a la gran porta lateral, que cau feta estelles.

Apareix el Príncep amb brillant armadura. Mira un moment atònit al seu voltant. Avença després amb resolució, puja les escales i, sense dubtar, aparta d'un violent cop de mà les cortines del templet, que cauen en terra.

Apareix l'interior del templet amb un sumptuós llit al mig, on jau dormida la Princesa abillada de núvia. A un costat, s'obre una gran escletxa que deixa veure les verdors del jardí. Un immens roser de bosc penetra en l'interior, estenent per damunt del llit el seu brancatge atapeït de roses blanques i roges. Dos coloms blancs reposen immòbils en una branca del roser. El dia ha sortit.

Príncep

(abocant-se ansiós per damunt del llit)

Princesa de les runes, Princesa de les roses.
Oh, somni delitós baixat del paradís,
aixeca't del teu llit on fa tant temps reposes;
te crida'l meu amor. Fineixi el teu encís!

Quin nom vos dec donar, dolça deessa?
No me'l digueu el nom antic que havíeu dut en la infantesa.
Són els noms que pot dir mon llavi amic
pàl·lids per expressar vostra bellesa.
Flor dels somnis... Llir de les ruïnes...
Son nom, refila'l, rossinyol ja desvetllat, entre les branques.
Fluvioleja'l, ventijol,
que ara has tornat a emprendre el vol.
Oh, brollador d'escumes blanques que un altre cop te sents glatir, murmura'l en secret... Florit jardí, revela'm el misteri que tu tanques.

(Li fa una llarga besada en els ull).
(Se sent de dintre la veu de la fada).

Princesa

(entre somnis, atònita)

Un bes... com raig de sol primaveral m'ha inundat l'ànima dormida;
al seu fulgor la volior letal de somnis tenebrívols és fugida
i entre arpegis de música inoïda batega en el meu pols ritme vital.

La fada

Serà la teva bellesa
d'un tant immortal encís,
que un cop la vegis impresa
fruiràs el Paradís.

———

I t'ajauràs defallida
en un eternal desmai.
Se despertarà la vida
al teu entorn, mes tu, mai.

———

Sols l'amor és ta esperança.
Si algun jorn, enamorat
un cavaller fins tu avença
el teu son serà acabat.

La Princesa a la fi obre els ulls, se redreça lleugerament en el seu llit, mira al seu voltant, reflexant el seu esguard l'estupor del que ve de sortir d'una son profona. Fixa al fi els ulls en el cavaller.

Princesa

Ja sou aquí, mon noble cavaller?
Quants anys, quants anys. Oh! Més de mil, potser, que l'ànima us espera.
Entre somnis mil cops m'heu visitat...
Digueu-me si sou viva realitat
o una ombra passatgera.

Príncep

I vós, i vós, no sou vana il·lusió?
I no és un bell fantasma enganyador vostra immortal bellesa?
Al món dels vius pot ésser veritat que intacta els segles hagi traspassat la vostra jovenesa?

(Ella baixa del llit ajudada d'ell).

Princesa
(mirant estranyada la seva cabellera que li ha crescut prodigiosament)

Segles dieu? Oh, meravella...
Ah, no, hermós meu, si fou ahir...
Mes si era infant quan m'adormí, al desvetllar-me soc donzella.

Príncep

Éreu llavors tendra poncella,
nada a llum massa matí;
closa heu restat fins a sentir
mon bes d'amor que us esbadella.

Princesa (girant-se al jardí)

Salut, dolça claror! Salut, oh, jorn novell!
Món oblidat, avui m'apars més bell.
L'amor me'l transfigura.

Príncep

Obre els teus ulls al món, obre el teu cor!
Per tot la vida com diví tresor
al teu voltant fulgura.

Princesa

Pugui en tos braços d'aquí avant dormir!

Príncep

Que l'encís de l'amor sia sens fi!

Els dos (transportats)

La vida és més hermosa que un somni o que un encís.
Amor, amor, amor, tu ets l'únic paradís!

Els cavallers, els guardians, els patges i les donzelles que dormien escampats per les escales, tantost la Princesa ha obert els ulls, s'han anat despertant els uns darrera els altres, miren estranyats al llur voltant, desemperesint-se, esguardant-se mútuament plens de sorpresa, fent durar aquest joc escènic fins arribar a les darreres paraules dels enamorats. En eix instant, s'aixequen tots agrupant-se amb regularitat en les escales. El Príncep i la Princesa, de peu dret i abraçats, romanen al replà.

Cor 1er

Vassalls fidels de tos antics reialmes, del teu novell també ho serem.
Tot agitant glorioses palmes
al rei novell aclamarem.

Entre les escletxes dels murs apareixen els cavallers companys de cacera del Príncep.

Cor 2on

Eterna gloria al paladí, al vencedor d'encantaments!
La nina ja reposa al fi
entre els seus braços tots trements.

Tots

Glòria eternal, glòria i llaor
a la bellesa i a l'amor.

TÍTOLS DELS QUADROS

I. — VORA EL TORRENT.
II. — LES CAMBRES REIALS.
III. — ESPOSA DEL SENYOR.
IV. — A LA CREUADA.

ESTRENA: 25 D'OCTUBRE DE 1907.

Lletra de la cançó popular

Si n'eren tres ninetes
mes, ai!
vora un torrent;
l'una renta bugada,
mes, ai!
L'altra l'estén,
que més, ai!
L'altra l'estén.

L'una renta bugada, — l'altra l'estén,
l'altra cull violetes — pel fill del Rei.

El fill del Rei passava — sota pont d'or.
Tira una pedra en l'aire — toca l'amor, toca-la ben tocada, — del mig del cor.

—Si us he fet mal, nineta? —Si us he fet mal?
—Un xiquet i no gaire: — ja es curarà!
—Prous barbers hi han a França — per a curar;
si aquestos no hi basten, — d'altres n'hi haurà.
—A l'horta del meu pare — una herba hi ha:
cura mal d'amoretes — 'neu-ne a cercar.

Quan n'és a mitja costa, — sent tocar a morts:
la Guideta n'és morta. — Déu la perdó!
Ja no es veurà en finestra — ni en balcó,
sinó en una reixeta — fent oració.

QUADRO I:

Casa de pagès, al peu del torrent. Guideta broda. Germana 1ª i Germana 2ª pleguen la roba de la bugada. És al caure la tarda.

Guideta
(canta)

El bon llenyater
pateix d'amoretes,
que han trobat sos ulls
els de la comtessa.
Ai, que amunt la veu
l'amoreta seva;
ai, que amunt la veu,
no la pot pas eure.

No té cap castell,
no té cap hisenda;
sols té una destral
que els boscos aterra.
Ai, que amunt la veu
l'amoreta seva;

ai, que amunt la veu,
no la pot pas eure.

D'ossos i de llops
n'han mort a dotzenes, però en el destí
ves qui el destraleja!
Ai, que amunt la veu
l'amoreta seva;
ai, que amunt la veu,
no la pot pas eure.

(Parlat)

Quina tarda més serena!
Quin dia més esplendent!

Germana 1ª

I això que no has vist encara al teu reial cavaller.

Guideta

És ben cert; quan ell arriba trobo que tot ho embelleix.

Germana 2ª

Si és tan hermós!

Germana 1ª

I tan jove!
No n'hi ha cap més com ell
amb sa cabellera negra,
amb sos ulls negres també,
té un aire reial que imposa...

Germana 2ª

Se veu que t'ha ben ull-pres.

Guideta

Ai, germanes, les germanes.
L'estimo a més no poder.
Recordeu aquell migdia
a la vora del torrent?

Germana 1ª

Era un jorn de primavera.

Guideta

Estava tot blau el cel.

Germana 2ª

Jo rentava la bugada.

Germana 1ª

Jo l'anava estenent.

Guideta

I jo collia violetes violes pel fill del Rei.

Germana 2ª

Qui d'amagat s'ho guaitava darrera dels esbarzers.

Guideta

De sobte, tira una pedra,
la cara totes girem...

Germana 1ª

I se'n ve cap a nosaltres.

Guideta

Les violetes me pren;
i, quan tota tremolosa
no sabia pas què fer, me diu plorant que m'estima
i vol ésser el meu promès.

(Surt l'àvia amb una llumenera encesa.)

Àvia

Filletes, les filletes meves, és hora d'entrar a cobert,
que la serena s'atansa.

Guideta

L'àvia ens crida.

Germana 1ª

Anem.

Germana 2ª

Anem.

(Entren a la casa. S'enfosqueix. Se sent venir de lluny el fill del Rei, qui canta:)

Fill del Rei

Tira una pedra en l'aire,
mes, ai!
Toca l'amor,
Toca-la ben tocada,
que més, ai!
Del mig del cor.

(Apareix en escena i tira una pedreta a la porta. Surt Guideta.)

Fill del Rei

Reineta de ma vida,
soleta esteu?

Guideta

Soleta estic, soleta,
el meu galant.

Fill del Rei

Ja penseu en mi força?

Guideta

Tots els instants:
que al cor una fletxeta
m'haveu clavat.

Fill del Rei

Que us he fet mal, la nina?
Que us he fet mal?

Guideta

Un xiquet i no gaire,
ja curarà!

Fill del Rei

Prous barbers hi haurà a França per a curar,
i si eixos no curen
d'altres n'hi hauran.

Guideta

A l'horta del meu pare
una herba hi ha:
cura mal d'amoretes
'neu-ne a cercar...

Fill del Rei

No és pas l'herba, la nina,
qui us guarirà.
La medicina vostra
ja l'he trobat.

Guideta

Quina és la medicina,
el meu galant?

(Surt la lluna.)

Fill del Rei

Un anell de promesa
i un sant altar.

Guideta
(amb alegria)

Cavaller de ma vida,
bon cristià!
Si em doneu eixa cura,
Déu vos ho pac[12]!

(A duo, a la claror de la lluna.)

Fill del Rei

La vostra medicina,
mes, ai!
Jo l'he trobat:
un anell de promesa,
mes, ai!
I un sant altar.

Guideta

Cavaller de ma vida,
mes, ai!
Bon cristià!
Si em doneu eixa cura,
mes ai!
Déu vos ho pac,
que més, ai!
Déu vos ho pac!

QUADRO II:

———

Una de les cambres del fill del Rei. Porta gran a dreta i esquerra. És de dia.

Cavaller 1er

Com se troba, doncs, el Príncep?
Ha passat molt mala nit?

Cavaller 2on

No ha pas sossegat una hora, sempre ha estat amb un sospir.

Cavaller 1er

I ha vingut el Rei a veure'l?

Cavaller 2on

Des d'ahir que no l'ha vist.

Cavaller 1er

La veritat, Déu me perdoni!:
Fou massa fort lo d'ahir.

(Amb misteri)

Agafar-li l'estimada
com qui agafa un lladre vil!

Cavaller 2on

El senyor Rei no ho volia que anés festejant per 'qui...
És l'hereu de la corona!

Cavaller 1er

I si ara se li morís?

Cavaller 2on

Les primeres amoretes
són com la pluja d'estiu;
passen sense deixar rastre.

Cavaller 1er

Tant debò que sigui així.

(Se senten clarins.)

Sento clarins que s'atansen.

Cavaller 2on

El Rei, que ve cap aquí.

(Apareix a poc el Rei amb son seguici: els dos cavallers li fan acatament.)

Rei

A on és? A on és el Príncep?

Cavaller 2on

Ara mateix s'ha adormit que fins al despuntar l'auba ha sospirat a desdir.

Rei

Això seran quatre dies, que prou a la Cort hi tinc hermosíssimes donzelles per curar son cor ferit.
El bon nom de la corona m'ha obligat a un cop tan trist!
Convé que mai més la vegi.

(A cavaller 1er.)

Cavaller 1er

Senyor Rei, sereu servit que la donzella a hores d'ara ja es troba en el monestir.

Música

(S'obre la porta i apareix el fill del Rei: veu a son pare i s'agenolla:)

Fill del Rei

Ai! Pare, lo meu pare,
Rei piadós.
Si és que voleu ma vida
deu-me l'amor!

Rei
(contrariat)

Calleu! Calleu el Príncep, que ha acabat tot.
no penseu més amb ella:
ja no és al món,
penseu amb la corona,
que s'ho val prou!

Fill del Rei
(s'aixeca)

Daria la corona
i el ceptre d'or;
daria l'existència
pels meus amors.

Rei

L'estimeu molt encara.

Fill del Rei

Com més no es pot!

Rei
(sever)

Jo faré que es maridi
dintre de poc:
al convent a on és pro
trobarà espòs;
trobarà espòs en braços
del Redemptor.

(Se'n va seguit del seu seguit.)

Fill del Rei

Ai! Pare, lo meu pare,
Déu vos perdó[13]!
Que heu dictat la sentència
pels nostres cors
que més, ai!
pels nostres cors.

(Els dos cavallers el consolen.)

[13] perdoni

QUADRO III:

———

Pati del convent. Portalada de l'església practicable: portal del convent. Una reixa alta amb gelosia.

Se sent l'orgue i el cat de les monges; les campanes toquen a festa; surt gent de l'església, travessa l'escena i se'n va.

Al parar cants i orgue, surten del temple l'àvia i les germanes.

Àvia
(parlat)

Ja ho veieu, les meves filles, ja és esposa del Senyor!

Germana 1ª

Ai que sí!

Germana 2ª

Pobre Guideta!

Àvia

Bé ho podia veure prou;

dia i nit li predicava:
Guideta, deixa els amors, que sols te causarà penes
tenir tan alt amador.

Germana 1ª

Bé es per un Rei una noia.

Germana 2ª

Està clar, si el Rei la vol.

Àvia

Els Reis ja tenen princeses, que és lo que els hi correspon.

Germana 1ª

Com deu plorar a hores d'ara!

Germana 2ª

Com deu enyorar l'amor!

Àvia

Aquí trobarà la cura,
Déu li donarà consol!

Germana 1ª

Un cavaller descavalca.

(Guaiten. Apareix el fill del Rei i, al veure-les, hi corre.)

Àvia

Veniu tard; ja ha finit tot.

(Se'n va sostinguda per les noies.)

Música

(El fill del Rei resta abatut: vol entrar al convent i a l'església, però està tancat.)

Fill del Rei

La cerimònia està llesta.
El meu fat ja s'ha complert.
Ai! Guideta de mon ànima, que ja no et veuré mai més!
Amor, si ma veu escoltes
surt a la reixa un moment;
surt a la reixa, ma vida,
per dar-te l'últim adeu!

(Poc a poc s'obre la gelosia i apareix Guideta vestida de monja.)

Guideta

Cavaller qui un dia fores
el meu estimat promès:
si per tu he mort a la terra,
pensa què t'espero al cel!

(Guideta es retira i torna a cloure la gelosia.)

Fill del Rei
(arrimant-se a la reixa)

Aqueix serà, la nina,
el meu consol,
que no et veuré en finestra
ni en balcó,
sinó en una reixeta,
mes, ai!
fent oració,
que més, ai!
fent oració.

QUADRO IV:

———

Plaça pública. A la dreta, gran entrada del palau reial, amb ampla escalinata. Cavallers, creuats, soldats, gent del poble. Gran animació.

Música

Cor general

El fill del Rei va a la creuada per a curar-se de l'amor.
Que Déu li do una bona anada!
Que Déu li do una bona sort!
El fill del Rei deixa sa terra,
per un amor s'és fet creuat.
Que el guardi el cel en pau i en guerra!
Que el torni aquí ben aviat!

Cavaller 1er

(S'avança i l'enrotllen.)

Cavallers! Ja és hora d'anar-se embarcant que la nau s'atansa
com un colom blanc.

A la Terra Santa
ens durà volant
per besar les lloses
del Sepulcre Sant.

Cor

El fill del Rei deixa sa terra,
per un amor s'és fet creuat.
Que el guiï el cel en pau i en guerra!
Que el torni aquí ben aviat!

(A la portalada del palau apareix el Rei i gran seguiment.)

Cor

Salut al gran Rei
i al Príncep reial!

Rei

Salut al meu poble!

Fill del Rei

Salut als vassalls!

(Al Rei.)

Vaig a la creuada,
mon pare estimat,
o moriré en ella
o em veureu triomfant.

(Apareix un patge amb un cavall.)

Rei
(abraçant-lo)

Fill meu, Déu te guiï!

Fill del Rei
(amb un arranc)

Prou me guiarà, que per mi una Verge
sempre està pregant!

(Munta a cavall entre les salutacions del poble.)

Cor

Salut al gran Rei,
al Príncep reial
qui marxa a la guerra per tornar triomfant!

(El fill del Rei se'n va seguit de molta gent. El Rei el despedeix amb la mà. Quadro.)

Cor

Resta una pobre monja
mes, ai!
dintre un convent,
qui sempre cull violetes
mes, ai!
pregant al cel
que més, ai!
pel fill del Rei.

(Teló ben pausat.)

QUADRO I

Feréstega frondositat d'un bosc de la baronia de Guillem d'Irnell. Cabana del llenyater Aleix.

L'Aleix i els seus treballadors estan destralejant una vella soca de pi, mentre Laia, muller del primer, fa el sopar sota el porxo de la cabana.

Passa una colla de llenyaters, els quals, havent ja acabat la jornada, fan via a poblat. Canten:

Llenyaters

'Nem tallant! 'Nem tallant!
Mai manca llenya, que el bosc és gran.
És tan gran, és tan gran
com la tristesa que ens va matant!
'Nem tallant! 'Nem tallant!
Els aucells fugen de por xisclant.
'Nem tallant! 'Nem tallant!
Som unes fúries destralejant!

Les destrals nostres
els llamps les menen,
no hi han gruixàries,
no hi valen grops!

Parem la feina
quan vius s'encenen
en les tenebres
els ulls dels llops!
Tral·là-ra-la-la, etc.

A la nit, quan dormim,
veus malastrugues del bosc sentim.
'Neu tallant! Aterreu...
Ja vindrà dia que ho pagareu!...

Massa sol, desconsol!
No cau la pluja sempre que es vol...
'Neu tallant! Aterreu...
Ja vindrà dia que ho pagareu...

L'Aleix està trist, desesperat, per mor d'un crim que son amo, el baró, li feu cometre. Creu que sa muller li porta avorriment i això fa mísera la seva existència. La Laia, qui també viu apesarada pensant que el seu marit ja no l'estima, quan comprèn que el motiu que l'allunya d'ella no és altre que el de creure's indigne, el consola dient-li que no és ell el culpable. L'Aleix, regenerat per aquesta mostra d'estimació, li confessa que no va matar la criatura i es deixa amanyagar per la Laia, que li serveix el sopar.

Arriba en Lari, qui ve de la vila, i responent a les demostracions de l'angúnia que havien passat sos pares per sa tardança, explica com la baronessa estava agonitzant.

Se posen a sopar amb una harmonia que meravella a en Lari, quan els corprèn l'eco funeral de les campanes del castell. La baronessa és morta!... Comenten aquest cas i en lo més viu de la conversa els interromp l'udolar de la llopada, quin va essent més feroç i proper.

Al fons del camí, com inflamat per sa capa vermella i pel dolor que l'afolla, apareix el baró Guillem d'Irnell incitant als llops. Al veure a l'Aleix, s'esvera i creu que és una ombra que l'infern vomita a son pas per a recordar-li son crim. Emperò sap imposar-se a sa bogeria naixent i, muntant en el cavall d'en Lari, fuig a través dels boscos il·luminats pels llamps, després d'anunciar la nova vida que va a emprendre.

Acaba el quadro amb una pregària de la Laia.

QUADRO II

Saló del castell d'en Uc, comte d'Irnell.

Uc conversa amb sa muller dient-li que vol que sa filla, l'hermosa Anna-Maria, professi en el convent fundat per sa germana Maria. Volia un hereu que eternitzés el nom del seu llinatge; no ha sigut així i pretén, quant menys, que la filla arribi a ser abadessa, portant el brill de ses armes dins la reialesa monacal.

L'afligida comtessa no s'hi avé i, retraient-li el gran odi que porta vers son germà Guillem, l'amenaça que el destí, en lloc de donar-li un hereu que l'afermi a la terra, li enfonsarà el castell en onades de sang.

Després, un cop ha quedat sola l'escena, apareix Anna-Maria tota corpresa d'aquesta cançó que canta a flor de llavi:

Anna-Maria

Vaig pel món esmaperdut,
la tristesa m'acompanya...
Que freda és la joventut
sens família ni cabanya:
ni els pares he conegut...
vaig pel món esmaperdut.

Jo bé et crido, dolç amor,
en mes nits angunioses!

L'esperit m'arrenca en plor que entristeix totes les coses, mes no ressona en cap cor!
Jo bé et crido, dolç amor...

Així s la sorprèn l'Agnès, amiga seva i damisel·la, tota cor-alegra d'un amor feliç. L'Anna-Maria li respon que aquella melangiosa cançó la té apresa d'un gentil trobaire qui cantava al peu de la capella de Sant Marçal.

En això, entren dames i cavallers i té lloc una festa. Ballen els camperols, i en Catacruc, qui és el sac de rialles del castell, canta:

Catacruc

Quan l'amor truca a les portes lo millor és fer el desentès:
comença amb manyegaries
i es fa fer la llei després.

Els primers dies de bodes us penseu formar un sol cos, però aviat una renyina
us convenç de que sous dos!

Mes una altra cançó, apagadament sentida, atreu l'atenció dels nobles i molt més encara d'en Uc i sa filla.

És Rodamon qui canta. Ha demanat aixopluc i distreu als soldats en el lloc d'armes del castell. El comte el fa entrar i s'origina una escena violenta entre els dos. Uc d'Irnell queda vençut per la bravesa del gest i la paraula del cantaire errant. Canta la mateixa cançó que ja hem sentit dels llavis d'Anna-Maria. La claror dels dolços ulls de la seva aimada l'ull-prenen i canta amb tanta passió d'esperit que l'Anna-Maria, el comprendre que és ella l'estimada d'en Rodamon, té un cobriment de cor, caient als braços de l'Agnès i de sa mare.

———

Jardí i claustres del convent.

Ha passat temps; ha mort la comtessa i s'ha complert la iniqua voluntat d'Uc d'Irnell. L'Anna-Maria és novícia. Molt abatuda, plorant la mort de sa mare i enyorant a l'amor, canta tristament:

Anna-Maria

Ai, mare, quan éreu viva
qui us ho tenia de dir...
Vida, que l'amor me falta!
Ai, mare, jo em vull morir!

A vós en el cementiri
i a mi en aquest monestir...
Amor, que la vida em falta!
Mare, jo em sento morir!

Surt de la capella una processó de monges cantant:

Monges

Jesús amorosíssim,
bé t'hem donat el cor!
Mes... tu ens avives
les ànsies de l'amor.
Estem assedegades
de penetrant dolçor!
Jesús conforta'ns
les ànsies de l'amor...

L'última és Marta, qui al veure a sa neboda tan trista la consola, dient-li que tingui esperança en el cel, puix qui ha pogut fer que el baró d'Irnell trobés consol de ses penes fent-se frare, bé pot també fer-la feliç a ella asserenant son esperit. Li fa saber que son germà Guillem coneix a Rodamon i es tenen molta amistat.

L'Anna-Maria sent una forta alegria, que lluny d'estroncar Fra Guillem —qui apareix molt envellit en escena— diu entre misterioses i incomprensibles paraules que està resolt a no fer-la patir més.

Entra en Rodamon cantant:

Rodamon

Al ser morta la comtessa, l'Anna-Maria al convent
és portada per vuit patges
com en trist enterrament.
Uc d'Irnell la vol fer monja
i, de monja, no en vol ser;
si els seus llavis són encesos,
els seus ulls encara més.
Trobador qui l'estimava
entra a dintre del convent.
El meu niu és fet de fulles, el llit de flors te'l faré.

Vols venir a assolellar-te
i a cantar com els aucells?

Els dos amants s'abracen. Fra Guillem els diu que van a ser feliços per sempre. Entren a la capella i els casa. L'estranyesa és forta tant per Maria com per ells dos, els quals obliden prompte lo extraordinari del cas per a gosar de la realitat esplèndida que els ofereix tot el goig de la vida i se'n van amorosament adelerats.

———

Plaça de la vila, a prop del mar.

És una matinada resplendent. Rodamon i Anna-Maria canten al seu amor de cara al mar.

Anna-Maria

Ai, amor, mira el dia
quin goig escampa arreu!

Rodamon

Aquest goig no el veuria si no estés a prop teu, amor meu!

Anna-Maria

Amor, no coneixia
del mar tan dolça veu!

Rodamon

Son cant m'entristiria
si no estés a prop teu, amor meu!

Tots dos

Ai, amor meu,
el món que fora
sense l'amor
que el cor arbora.
Per terra i mar
farem la via,
cantant d'amor
la poesia!

Rodamon

Oh, tristes nits pesades,
mai més m'atormenteu!

Anna-Maria

Amb dolces abraçades protegiré el cor teu, amor meu!

Rodamon

Anem al mar, aimada,
la nau està esperant!

Anna-Maria

La vela que hem hissada és nostre amor constant, dolç amant!

Tots dos

Ai, amor meu,
el món que fora
sense l'amor
que tot ho arbora.

Per terra i mar
farem la via,
cantant d'amor
la poesia!

És hora de partir amb el navili que els espera engarlandat de flors i banderes. Rodamon se despedeix de la Laia, en quina casa han passat la nit, i li posa a les mans una caixeta on guarda quelcom de sa infantesa per a que la dongui a Fra Guillem. Se'n van.

Cor de mariners i poble

Cel sense núvols, — mar en bonança, l'aigua és tranquil·la, — de vent no en fa.
Un sol alegre — torra la platja:
Avui les ones, — quin dolç cantar!

Oé, timoner!
Que les ones
són traïdores.

Oé, timoner!
Fes l'ull viu
i vira bé!

Totes les barques — hissen les veles,
semblen gavines — sobre el mar blau!
La mar us porti — vers altres platges sempre manyaga i adeu-siau!

Rodamon i Anna-Maria passen entre el poble que els festeja.

QUADRO V

———

El mateix saló del quadro segon;
tot endolat.

El botxí sembla una taca de sang damunt del color negre de la cortina de fons.

Uc d'Irnell, sarcàstic en son odi fins en la mort, excita la bravesa d'en Rodamon per a que trinqui amb ell en son últim sopar.

Rodamon fa que omplin la seva copa i la rebat al comte, vessant el vi a damunt la taula.

Uc d'Irnell diu al botxí que compleixi sa voluntat i, al quedar sol, entra en deliri. Follament reconeix que en Rodamon l'avantatja en bravesa i vol i dol la seva mort. En son estat de febre li sembla sentir la veu dels seus passats com si s'escruixissin de son càstig sagnant.

Cor dels passats

Insensat, insensat, insensat...
Amb el neguit de ta venjança folla de dalt a baix tot el castell trontolla!
Ai, Uc d'Irnell, que ta venjança t'occida a tu i al teu passat.
Insensat, insensat, insensat...
Crim horrorós que ens deshonra i espanta, per sempre més aquesta hora sagnanta

ressonarà damunt les runes d'aquest casal ensangrentat!
Som el passat! Parla el passat!

S'ouen els corns que anuncien que va a tenir lloc la crueltat d'Irnell. Apareix Fra Guillem i diu a son germà que mata al seu fill.

Uc d'Irnell, com un boig, lluny d'entendre lo que sent, no pot comprendre lo que veu. Entren els vassalls portant en triomf al brau poeta del poble i canten:

Vassalls

L'alegria us fuig del cor, ressonant pel món s'escampa.
S'heu salvat, jove senyor i trobador de les grapes de la mort!

Donem tots gràcies a Déu per tan portentós miracle:
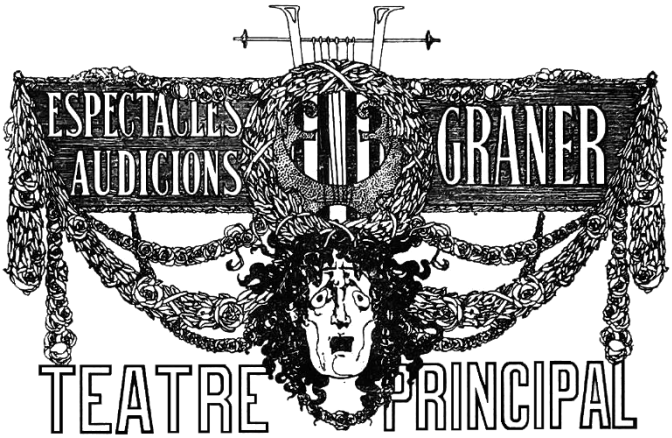
Uc d'Irnell, ja tens hereu,
gràcies a Déu!
Uc d'Irnell, ja tens hereu!

Pare i fill se guaiten completament estranyats. Uc d'Irnell s'encara amb son germà i s'imposa a que desfaci tan tenebrós misteri.

Fra Guillem, abatut pel més profund dels penediments, confessa que la voluntat del seu pare, llegant el governament del casal d'Irnell a qui dels dos germans tingués un noi, l'obligà a robar son fill tot just va néixer. En Rodamon i l'Anna-Maria s'esfereeixen pensant-se que són germans.

—L'Anna-Maria —diu Fra Guillem—, qui sap de qui és, va ocupar ton lloc...



I Rodamon:

—Per guardar-me tota la felicitat!

Uc d'Irnell presenta els nous senyors al poble, qui esclata en cants d'alegria, mes Rodamon reprèn i diu que, a més de son senyor, serà son poeta amic qui cantarà els seus amors i les seves esperances, perquè ara, ara sí que té la poesia!

I besa a sa muller.

UN HOME DEL POBLE

Cor de gendarmes, dones i fills dels gendarmes, minyons del poble, etc., etc.

RESUM

PRIMER ACTE

És cap al tard i ens trobem a l'entrada de la gendarmeria. Els gendarmes juguen a cartes al davant de la porta. Les dones fan anar les gallines a lloc i canten:

Dones

Tites, tites, tites,
aneu-se'n a lloc,
que la nit s'acosta
com gola de llop.
Tites, tites, tites,
el sol ja s'ha post
i deixa les ombres
regnant en son lloc.
Tites, tites, tites, tites
clogueu ales i picot
I no mogueu brega
i no feu soroll.
Tites, tites, tites, tites,
malfieu's dels lladregots,

esteu-vos ben quietes
fins que torni el sol.
Diu que l'ocasió fa al lladre,
doncs fugim de l'ocasió.
Tites, tites, tites,
el sol ja s'ha post;
tites, tites, tites,
aneu-se'n a lloc.

Els gendarmes se preparen per anar a fer el servei de nit i entren a casa seguits de les dones. Al restar sola l'escena, surt la Mari, filla del Brigada, i és sorpresa per en Jan, que és el minyó a qui estima i de qui és estimada. Parlen d'en Jaumic, amb qui el Brigada vol fer casar a la Mari i, com que qui del llop parla, el llop li surt.

Jaumic compareix a la poca estona, posant-se de manifest la rivalitat entre els dos minyons i l'esverament del poble perquè cada nit els lladres saquegen algun galliner.

Després en Jaumic entra a la casa i, havent restat sols la Mari i en Jan, són sorpresos per en Patllari, que els aconsella que fugin per aconseguir el seu objecte de casar-se.

La Lluci des de dins, criada de la noia, que se n'hi va, deixant sospesa la conversa. I en Patllari i en Jan, com que no tenen res que fer allí, se'n van a una altra banda. Aleshores surten els gendarmes equipats, marcant el pas i evolucionant per l'escena al compàs del cant que segueix:

Gendarmes

Som els gendarmes vigilants que resseguim els monts i plans de l'encontrada.
Aquell que cau en nostres mans
a la presó fa llarga estada.
Un, dos! Un, dos! Un, dos!

Som els gendarmes amatents
i servim sempre molt contents la República;
som ben plantats i prou valents per conservar la pau pública.
Un, dos! Un, dos! Un, dos!

Brigada
(parlat)

Dos cap ací!... Dos cap allà!...
Cal trapar els lladres de gallines...
Dos més al lluny!... Dos més ençà!
D'aquesta nit no hem de passar sense posar-los mà.

Gendarmes

Som els gendarmes forts i braus, dels lladregots sabem els caus
certes vegades;
si no els sabem, tan pis i en paus,
cal pas s'hi fer a mossegades.

Quan estan a punt d'anar-se'n, compareix el batlle o maire *del poble —que és el pare d'en Jaumic— i diu al Brigada que cal fer un escarment amb els lladres... «C'est entendu...». I els gendarmes filen, sortint després la Lluci, la Mari i en Jaumic.*

La Lluci vol que la Mari faci bon paper al batlle i al seu fill. La Mari s'hi resisteix i, quan els dos homes són fora, la pobra noia rep de la seva mare una tanda de pessics i patacades i l'ordre d'anar-se'n al llit. I se n'entren les dues a la casa, compareixent al cap de poc en Jan, que canta:

Jan

Jo conec una minyona que me'n du gran voluntat, emperò els entercs dels seus pares
no me la volen donar.

Tral·là, ral·là,
hi ha un minyó ric que la ronda,
tral·là, ral·là,
que la ronda i no l'haurà.

La minyona a mi m'estima
com més no es pot estimar;
l'altre que li fa l'aleta
se les haurà d'espinyar.

Tral·là, ral·là,
hi ha un minyó ric que la ronda,
tral·là, ral·là,
que la ronda i no l'haurà.

Després en Jan s'enfila fins arribar a la finestra de la cambra de la Mari. Truca, la noia treu el cap i, atiada pel minyó i recordant els pessics de la Lluci, se decideix a fugir. I baixa i surt i tanca la porta i tira la clau pel forat gatoner. Ja no se'n pot desdir!

En aquestes arriba en Patllari i els avisa que ve gent. Això acaba de decidir-los i fugen, arribant gairebé al mateix temps en Jaumic, que ve amb una colla a fer una serenata a la Mari. I mentre la Mari ja qui sap on para, en Jaumic i els seus companys canten fatxendosament en presència d'en Patllari:

Jaumic

Surt, Mari; surt, Mari, a la finestra;
surt, Mari; surt, Mari, al finestró,
que aquest jove que ara et canta
per tu s'està morint d'amor,
sí, sí, d'amor!

Cor

Surt, Mari; surt, Mari, a la finestra;
surt, Mari; surt, Mari, al finestró.

Patllari
(parlat)

De primera, Jaumic, de primera!

Jaumic
(amb més afició)

Ai, Mari; ai, Mari, per tu jo em moro;
ai, Mari; ai, Mari, do'm un consol que em guareixi la ferida que m'has fet al mig del cor,
sí, al mig del cor!

Cor

Ai, Mari; ai, Mari, per tu ell se mora;
ai, Mari; ai, Mari, don-li un consol.

Però en vista de que ni així la noia surt, se posen a cantar tots a l'una i amb grans crits.

Surt, Mari; surt, Mari, a la finestra;
surt, Mari; surt, Mari, al finestró,
que un dels joves que ara et canten
per tu s'està morint d'amor,
ai, sí, d'amor!

La Mari tampoc surt i cau el teló.

SEGON ACTE

PRIMER QUADRO

Els voltants d'una font. La colla d'en Jaumic fa pa i beure, esperant la matinada. En Jaumic té el propòsti de tornar a cantar-ne una a la Mari, per veure si al segon son la desperta.

Jove
(cantant)

Al voltant de la fontana l'alegria vessa a dolls,
la vida sembla més dolça
i més plena d'il·lusions.

Cor

Xerriquem-ne del negre,
xerriquem-ne del blanc,
del d'aquesta collita
i del que té cent anys.

Que al voltant de la fontana
fa bo de passar la nit,

sentint la remor de l'aigua se troba molt millor el vi.

Xerriquem-ne del negre,
xerriquem-ne del blanc,
del d'aquesta collita
i del que té cent anys.

I després, tips de divertir-se, se decideixen tots a anar al llit. Fora en Jaumic, que se'n va tot cremat, perquè haurà de fer-se sol la cantada.

Així que ells són fora, compareixen tots consirosos la Mari a cavall d'una somera i en Jan menant la bestiola. Estan tots capficats, perquè, ara que han fugit, no saben on anar. Amb tot, tiren avant, venint aleshores el Brigada i un gendarme, que beuen un glop, fan una pipa i s'asseuen recolzats a una banda d'una roca.

L'orquestra toca un aire de non-non i els dos gendarmes se van adormint dolçament, quan compareixen per l'altra banda una altra parella, la qual beu, fa el cigarret i, sense adonar-se del Brigada i el seu company, s'asseuen a l'altre costat de la roca. I ja els tenim també ensopint-se dolçament, dolçament...

En Patllari, que roda per allí, se n'adona i se'n pensa una: els descarregarà els fusells. I tal dit, tal fet: s'hi acosta, treu els cartutxos i s'amaga darrere la roca.

I altre cop surten la Mari i en Jan, decidits a tornar a casa, perquè no saben què fer. Però al passar, s'adonen dels gendarmes i tenen un espant que els fa atiar la somera. Si arriben a descobrir-los!

*No els descobreixen, però poc se'n manca, perquè la remor dels seus passos han desvetllat al Brigada, que crida: «Qui hi ha ací?». Llença el crit, se desperten els gendarmes de l'altre costat de la roca... «Calla! Diria que a l'altra banda hi ha qualcú...». «Potser són els lladres...».*

I una parella per cada costat va enfilant-se a la roca amb molt compte de no fer remor i, quan hi són al cim, cada parella sorprèn a l'altra. I sort que el Brigada es posa sobre sí i arranja la cosa, preguntant molt severament si hi ha res de nou. Però en Patllari riu dels gendarmes des del fons del bosc; els gendarmes li donen la veu d'aturar-se; ell torna a riure. El Brigada, sense conèixer la rialla, creu que és cosa de fer foc. Comanda als seus subordinats que en facin, tots descarreguen els fusells. En lloc de foc, fan figa, i, intrigats al veure's les armes descarregades, arrenquen a córrer cap al lluny, perseguint al que s'ha burlat d'ells.

I altre cop tornen en Jan i la Mari, que no han gosat tornar a casa i tenen una mica de disputes d'enamorats, que acaben amb la decisió d'en Jan de tirar avant, perquè la Mari ha dit que, per fer-li ràbia, se casaria amb en Jaumic.

SEGON QUADRO

Altre cop al davant de la gendarmeria. És de matinada. En Jaumic, trempat com un pèsol, arriba per a fer la cantada. I ja hi som!

Jaumic

Surt, Mari; surt, Mari, a la finestra;
surt, Mari; surt, Mari, al finestró,
que aquest jove que ara et canta
per tu s'està morint d'amor,
sí, sí, d'amor!

Passa en Patllari i li aconsella que s'enfili i surti a la finestra. En Jaumic ho fa i quan hi és, compareixen la Mari, en Jan i la somera. Tant en Jan com la Mari estan més ensopits que mai, però el minyó, en adonar-se d'en Jaumic enfilat a la finestra, té una passió de riure. I ja tenim als dos galants sortint a batre's i a la Mari seguint-los esverada per por de que en Jan, amb el seu geni, no en faci una que el perdi per tota la vida.

Al cap de poc surt la Lluci de la casa tota desesperada per haver perdut la filla. La dona d'un gendarme prova de consolar-la, però no hi val res. El Brigada arriba de la ronda i s'entera amb estupefacció de la pèrdua de la Mari i es pensa que és un càstig per la seva ambició d'haver-la volguda casar amb un ric. Per fortuna, al cap de poc compareix una parella de gendarmes duent presos als galants, als que han trobat barallant-se. I aleshores, la Mari i en Jan demanen perdó i el Brigada els hi concedeix i fins troba que poden casar-se. Ves qui no els feia parlar abans, també!

Aquí ja sembla tot resolt, però no ho és encara, perquè manca que arribi el batlle a manifestar la seva satisfacció, perquè aquella nit els lladres no han robat cap galliner, a lo qual replica el Brigada que això és molt natural, perquè els lladres saben que hi ha vigilància.

Un crit de la Lluci interromp al Brigada.

—Reina Santíssima!

Tothom volta a la Lluci, que diu desolada:

—Ens han robat toootes les gallines!

Crits, esveraments, indignació.

Per fortuna, en Jan, que és més eixerit de lo que sembla, lliga caps i té una pensada: la de que en Patllari és el lladre de les gallines i li fa ensenyar el sac i es comprova el lladronici. I en Patllari és tancat, mentre la concurrència balla una farandola per a celebrar el prometatge de la Mari i en Jan.

Introducció i criteris d'edició

Aquest segon volum de materials editats està dedicat a les partitures de visions musicals. Les peces seleccionades procedeixen de les sales Mercè, Gerió i Ars-Lucis, principals espais de la xarxa liderada per Lluís Graner, que van coexistir en la mateixa època i van compartir vincles professionals i personals. En aquest volum s'inclouen un total de nou partitures: set procedeixen de produccions estrenades a la sala Mercè, una del saló Gerió i una altra de la sala Ars-Lucis.

La necessitat de presentar una transcripció editada d'aquestes obres respon a la falta de disponibilitat de materials editat i a les dificultats d'accessibilitat. Les visions musicals, al igual que la gran majoria de repertori líric català d'aquesta època, no van ser publicades ni impreses en el seu moment i en temps actuals continuen inèdites. Només són accessibles les còpies manuscrites d'aquestes obres i, fins a la publicació dels catàlegs inclosos com a part d'aquesta tesi, tampoc existia un catàleg que agrupés les referències i ubicacions dels materials que corresponen a visions musicals. Llavors, aquest volum pretén facilitar-ne l'accés, la visibilitat i la divulgació del repertori, a més de proporcionar exemples musicals del repertori que s'analitza i descriu a la part IV del monogràfic de la tesi.

Respecte a la sala Mercè, el volum inclou tota la música original que s'hi va interpretar de la qual se n'han trobat documents. Títols com, per exemple, Introducció a L'Atlàntida, d'Enric Morera, no s'hi han inclòs per tractar-se de l'arranjament d'un poema simfònic previ i no d'una visió musical original. La mort de l'escolà es tracta d'un cas homòleg, atès que la música utilitzada per a aquesta visió musical era una cançó harmonitzada anterior que ja està editada professionalment per a cor; així com Dante a les portes de l'infern, que reutilitza música d'una òpera existent del compositor estranger Arrigo Boito.

Un altre cas que cal esmentar és Sant Ramon, escrit per Manuel Folch i Torres amb música de Fructuós Piqué i Salvat. La partitura de l'obra està indexada a l'Arxiu Comarcal del Baix Camp, però que no ha resultat possible localitzar dins de l'arxiu. Per aquestes raons, aquestes visions musicals han quedat excloses del present volum, i la transcripció s'ha centrat en la música per a visions musicals originals, la qual cosa permet avaluar la dramatúrgia musical que els compositors van desenvolupar intencionadament per aquest gènere líric.

Quant a La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta..., tot i que la versió que va interpretar-se a la sala Mercè va ser l'arranjament per a quartet de dos violins, violoncel i piano, la versió editada aquí és per a orquestra simfònica. El mateix autor va escriure sobre la partitura per a quartet les indicacions provisionals per a la futura orquestració, cosa que indica que des del principi de la gènesi de l'obra, Joan B. Lambert va concebre la versió orquestrada.

En els casos del saló Gerió i de la sala Ars-Lucis, només se n'ha trobat una partitura del repertori líric de cadascuna d'aquestes sales: L'oració de la nit i La lluerna, respectivament. Així mateix, s'inclou en aquest volum de manera excepcional el llibret de Joaquim Vancells per a la visió de naturalesa Flors de muntanya que es va localitzar en la seva col·lecció personal arxivada a la Biblioteca de Catalunya. Donada l'escassetat de materials disponibles de cadascuna d'aquestes sales, el text s'ha inclòs en aquest volum, encara que falti la partitura, per a oferir una visió més clara de l'activitat creativa que va tenir lloc en aquests recintes.

Sobre el repertori de visions musicals de la sala Imperi, múltiples esborranys i reduccions per a piano han estat localitzades a l'arxiu de la seu barcelonina de la SGAE. Tot i això, se n'han deixat fora d'aquest volum atesa la posterioritat de l'activitat d'aquesta sala en el context del circuit de sales de visions musicals, tractant-se més aviat d'un epíleg que té lloc una vegada la resta havien aturat ja la seva activitat escènica. A més, la majoria són reduccions i no còpies finals de les partitures per a tot el conjunt instrumental de la sala.

Dels locals que oferien temporades curtes de visions musicals en altres municipis, com Manresa o Olot, no se n'han localitzat partitures musicals. Finalment, cal indicar que la partitura de Blancaflor, la primera "cançó popular catalana harmonitzada per a l'escena" d'Adrià Gual, amb música escrita per Enric Granados, no apareix aquí inclosa perquè ja existeix una edició professional recent, a cura de Josep Dolcet i publicada per Ficta el 2017.

Finalment, cal indicar la diversitat dels materials transcrits. Tret de La Mare de Déu quan era xiqueta..., de la qual es conserva una versió per a quartet i una versió per a orquestra, de la resta d'obres editades només es conserva un document. Alguns es tracta de còpies finals manuscrites, com ara A la voreta del mar, El bon escarceller, Campaneta la ning-ning o L'oració de la nit. Altres són esborranys, com el cas d'El mal rabadà (que presenta alguna de les últimes línies vocals sense lletra), o documents de treball en procés, com ara el de La lluerna, que només presenta els números del segon quadre amb indicacions ambigües sobre l'orquestració de cada pentagrama. Només es tracta d'obres impreses en els casos de La cirereta, de la qual només va editar-se un dels seus números musicals, i de La resurrecció de Llàtzer, de la qual es va publicar en premsa un pastitx musical per a veu i piano.

Pel que fa als criteris editorials considerats, la present edició es limita a disposar el disseny dels pentagrames i compassos per a una presentació més espaiosa i a corregir els errors de còpia necessaris. Per exemple, s'han inclòs signes de triplets en passatges que, tot i mantenir l'escriptura en triplets, només ho indicava en els primers compassos. En altres ocasions, apareixien triplets incidentals que no s'indicaven de cap manera, cosa que feia que les figures dins del compàs fossin inadequades. A més, s'han inclòs tempos afegits entre parèntesis sempre que faltessin i fossin necessaris (com, per exemple, a l'inici de la partitura o d'un nou número musical), i també s'hi han inclòs entre parèntesis les paraules estandarditzades en italià en els casos en què les indicacions estaven escrites en català. A banda d'això, no s'han afegit indicacions expressives ni dinàmiques addicionals que poguessin ser útils per a una versió interpretativa. Per tant, l'edició que es presenta és una partitura orquestral que inclou tots els instruments i veus, amb les correccions necessàries i els errors de còpia esmenats, amb l'objectiu de la divulgació i l'estudi musicològic del repertori.

La Mare de Déu
quan era xiqueta anava a costura
a aprendre de lletra.

Amb un coixinet
hi feia puntetes;
el coixí era d'or,

PERSONATGES

EL COMTE presoner, 30 anys.
EL BON ESCARCELLER, 80 anys.
Colla de NOIES i MINYONS.
Tres NOIES DEL POBLE.

Època: Segle XIV

El Comte

BALADA

Això era un rei — molt poderós
qui devingué — tot amorós
de gentil dama:
mes ella fuig — dels seus amors,
que el Comte en Jaume
li té robats — els seus amors.
Ai, presó del meu sofrir!
Ai, què serà de mi!

Ja riallers — a noces van:
el rei gelós — s'ho està mirant
plorant de ràbia.
Del seu rival — jura en son cor
prendre venjança
i anà a robar — el bell tresor.
Ai, presó del meu sofrir!
Ai, què serà de mi!

Allí al castell — aquella nit, en mig del ball — i el gran convit entra de sobte
d'homes armats — forta munió.
Ai, Comte! Ai, Comte!
Sou acusat — de traïció!
Ai, presó del meu sofrir!
Ai, què serà de mi!

Riuen les flors a la prada
feta un verger:
pur i blau mira a la terra
el cel rialler:
riuen les roges cireres
al cirerer.
Anem, companys, anem;
riem, riem!
Ja canten per les pinedes
suaus ventijols;
ubriacs de pler refileu[1]
els rossinyols,
remoreig de càntics brolla
dels rierols.
Anem, companys, anem:
cantem, cantem!

El Comte

Dieu-me, bon escarceller, què són aquests cants alegres?

L'escarceller

Són colles qui van cantant
de minyons i de donzelles:
ells pugen als cirerers
í elles paren les cireres, gentils recades se'n fan
i els cabells se'n enjoiellen.
Ells per fer-les caure a doll
les altres branques sacsegen, dels vermellencs enfilalls se'n curullen cent cistelles
i entre la pluja frescal
amoretes van i venen.
És l'estació del jovent,
som al ple de primavera.

El Comte

Passà la nit — empresonat, fou confessat — i combregat
a matinada;
dalt del palau — de bon matí
la forca paren
i en sent migjorn — penjat morí.
Ai, presó del meu sofrir!
Ai, què serà de mi!

Tenint als peus — l'amant reial, la núvia ha vist — pel finestral penjar el Comte.
La daga al rei — ja n'ha arrencat
i silenciosa
al mig del cor — se l'ha enfonsat.
Ai, presó del meu sofrir!
Ai, què serà de mi!

Una noia

[1] A la partitura se substitueix "ubriac [embriac] de pler refileu" per "amb gran plaer refileu".

Una noia

Bon dia, l'escarceller:
no ens sabríeu donar noves
d'un bon Comte presoner?

Escarceller

No heu sentit eixa cançó?
Doncs és ell qui la cantava aquí, al fons de la presó.

Noia

Arribem del seu castell, que ens envia la Comtessa amb aquest present per ell.
Ha fet despullar de flors
tot el jardí, tota l'horta, per dur-les al seu espòs.
Dieu-li que està plorant
tota la nit, tot el dia, sense oblidar-lo un instant.
Si teniu pietós el cor,
li donareu eixes lletres
qui li seran gran conhort.

Escarceller

Oh! Per res això no ho faig, m'hi jugaria la vida;
li duré les flors de maig.

Noia

I quina serà sa sort?
Li perdona el rei la vida
o el condemna a crudel mort?

Escarceller

A punta d'alba demà, davant del rei i del poble,
el Comte penjat serà.

El Comte

Quins perfums de primavera m'arriben dins la foscor!
És que travessa aquests murs l'aroma dels camps en flor
o és que també floreixen
les pedres de ma presó?
Mes de maig, lo mes de maig,
temps que porta la calor,
temps que es cobreixen les prades
de poncelles i de flors, temps que les civades granen
i lo blat se torna ros, temps que canten les calàndries, refilen els rossinyols

i tots els bons cavallers
van a servir sos amors!
No hi vaig pas jo, mesquinet,
tancat ací en greu presó,
on no conec si és de dia,
si és de dia, ni si és fosc
sinó per tres ocellets
qui canten voltant la tor.
Lo un canta al trenc de l'alba per declarar que ve el jorn, l'altre ocellet només canta l'estona que el sol se pon i l'altre les meves penes declara al cim de la tor...
Ací creix ma cabellera fins arribar-me al talons, els pels de la mia barba m'arriben fins els genolls
i les ungles de les mans me valen de tallador.
Qui tingués un missatger
per la dona del meu cor!
Ocell qui cantes mes penes,
ves a contar-li mos dols
o dona'm paper i ploma
i li duràs quatre mots.
Que em trameta d'amagat
una llima i un picot;
llimaré amb la llima sorda
los forrellats de la tor
o obriré lo mur qui em volta fent-ne pas amb lo picot.
Vull veure la llum del dia!
Vull veure la mia amor!

L'escarceller

De sentir-lo el cor se'm nua
i els ulls se'm neguen de plors.
Jo tinc les claus... a les mans d'aquest pobre tinc la sort...
El cor m'ho mana... Prou dubtes, que em pengin a mi en son lloc!

Comte

Oh! Cel, oh, Cel! Quin miracle, quina màgica claror
invadeix ara de sobte
ma tenebrosa presó!

Cors de nois i noies

En onades d'or rodola
el blat vibrant;
s'empaiten les oronetes
pel cel radiant,
dansen les papallones
les flors voltant.
Anem, companys, anem;
dansem, dansem!

El bon escarceller

La Oració de la nit

En un bosc molt espesseït s'hi ha perdut en un cap-el-tard dos nenes que havien sortit a buscar maduixes. Es fa fosc per moments. Agafades l'una amb l'altra, la vista vagorosa i els caps inquiets, diu la més grandeta:

—Déu meu, Déu meu! Verge santa!
Vulgau-nos tenir pietat!
Mirau-nos aixís perdudes!
La nit que se'ns vol menjar!
Les meves cames tremolen
com una tija de blat;
els polsos me van i venen
com un bullir arrencat;
sento una fred molt suosa que em baixa esquenes avall!
Verge santa, deslliureu-nos
dels follets i dels gegants!
Els follets que duen banyes
i es mengen a n'els infants!

(Se senten bufets de vent; la foscor es torna més espessa).
(Estrenyent-se més i mig arraulida).

Cruixeixen roures i alzines
sota els seus peus tan gegants.
Sento el bufar de ses galtes;
sento el seu aspre roncar.
Els braços fins a mi allarguen,
tan negres i descarnats.

(La petita plorant).

—Lisenda!

(La gran espantada i plorosa).

—Pietat! Oh, Verge!
Mireu els seus llargs ullals!
Jo els veig venir fent cridòria;
les boques com uns covals!
Empareu-nos, Verge santa,
amb la vostra dolça mà!

(S'asseuen al peu d'un gran abet. Passats curts moments, com tocada d'un confortador pensament, la nena gran besa el cap de la més petita i diu:).

—L'oració de cada vespre,
no descuidem l'oració!
Resem, i els àngels ens guardin en la fosca nit del bosc.

(S'agenollen i amb les mans plegades resen).

A aquell llit me poso,
set àngels hi trobo:
tres als peus i quatre al cap,
la Mare de Déu al meu costat, Nostre Senyor a l'altre.
Jo me dic Lisenda,
dorm i reposa,
no tinguis por de cap mala cosa;
si cap mala cosa hi ha
la Verge Maria ens ajudarà.
Sant Joan per seguidor,
santa nit que Déu nos do.

4

(Reposen. El cap de la petita a la falda de la gran. És sortida la lluna. Després d'una estoneta surt un follet corrent a petits passos. Ràpidament se para, davant la parella d'infants. Fa la gatzoneta i, donant-se cops al cap i als genolls, recula botint i xisclant).

—Ohé, ohé, ohé!
Ohé, dues cigales!
Ohé, ohé, ohé!
Lluna en el ple,
benhages tu que així ens regales!
Sortiu, follets;
eixiu, bruixotes!
Vostres barbams,
vostres carotes
botin pel bosc,
fent grans ganyotes!
Eixiu, eixiu,
lluents i febrosos
com l'argent viu!

(Surten bruixes i follets corrent com centelles i canten:).

—De les baumes
dels cataus,
dels gorgs negres
dels afraus,
hem deixat l'encís diví.
Ja som aquí, ja som aquí!

(Rodegen al follet major, qui girant-se i senyalant els infants diu:).

—Mirau, mirau, lo que he trobat;
dugues cigales fan bon plat!
Perquè no ens fugin de la dent
fem tots el gest d'encantament!

(Tots).

5

—Txem, txem, txem!
Estornudem per nou vegades!
Txem, txem, txem!
I les tindrem prest encantades.
Txem, txem, txem!
Vinga la dansa del turment!

(Fan una sardana voltant els infants i canten:)

—Tenim el cabell gras
i l'esbullem pels aires.
Passem xisclant damunt
escombres xopes d'aigua!
Txem, txem, txem!
Amb sang de llop us colgarem.

Tenim llargs els unglots,
la boca esbalandrada.
La nou del coll se'ns mou
com una gran campana!
Txem, txem, txem!
Ulls i ventrell us buidarem.

Amb trenes i barbams
teixim corda gruixuda.
Aquell qui cau al nus,
la llengua treu dos canes!
Txem, txem, txem!
Cabells i barba ara trenem.
Txem, txem, txem!
I tot seguit les lligarem!

(S'asseuen a terra i trenen les barbes i cabells. Quan són a mig fer, se veu un gran llampec i apareix un àngel lluminós. Les bruixes i els follets fugen botint i xisclant esparverats. L'àngel adelanta pausadament. Els infants se desperten. L'àngel canta:)

—Soc l'àngel bo,
vetllo els infants.
Dormiu, dormiu, ànimes pures,
Déu sent els precs dels cors tan blancs.

(Els empara i es clou la cortina).

Flors de muntanya

Visió de naturalesa en tres quadros

Lletra de Joaquim Vancells

Música de Joan Llongueras

Personatges

Rosa	–	Pastora de la masia. És una bonica xicota, innocenta, de dotze anys, morena i escotorida, d'ulls vius i cara riallera.
Cesc	–	Bouer de la mateixa masia. Xaval de tretze o catorze anys, ros emperò de cara colrada i de colors sans, xapat, bonatxó i enjogassat.

Quadro I

Matinada

A la sortida del barri d'una masia o casa de pagès. És a punta d'auba. S'ouen vagament les primeres remors de la matinada. L'oreig mou amb exquisida suavitat les fulles dels arbres. Canta el gall; el cu-cut deixa sentir-se de tant en tant; el cel va aclarint-se lentament. Els verds de les muntanyes van accentuant-se; lladra el gos; belen les ovelles; remuguen els bous i fan sonar les esquelles; fuma lleugerament la xemeneia. El dia creix, segueix aclarint-se.

Escena I

(Surt el Cesc. Pausa i música).

Veu (des de dins)

Rosa! Roseta!... Ala, ala, que el sol pica.

Rosa (des de dins)

Ja vaig, ja vaig.

(S'ou grinyolar el forrellat de la porta del barri i apareix el Cesc amb un sac buit al coll. Va ensonyat i fregant-se els ulls. Després d'haver-se acabat de lligar les espardenyes, silenciós i acodormit encara, baixa mig d'esma cap al camí que porta a les feixes. Als pocs moments d'haver desaparescut, surt la Rosa amb dos o tres xais. Els amoixa i s'entreté amb ells fins que torna a comparèixer el Cesc portant el sac, ple d'herbes, a l'espatlla. Aquest, al veure a la Rosa, enfogarrat i sense malícia, agafa una pedra i l'enjega, rient, als xais, mentre diu a la Rosa:)

Cesc

Hola, Roseta!... Ja t'has llevat sense plorar?

Rosa (enfadant-se)

Ximple!... Sí, ves de tornar-hi a malmetre'm cap xai!...
Ja veuràs l'amo!...

Cesc

Vaja dona... No veus que ni te'ls toco? Com que no en saps de treure'ls-hi la son de les orelles... fan com tu, que jauries sempre.

Rosa (emmurriada i decidida)

Per ximple et deixo.

(Es gira i empeny els xais per anar-se'n.)

Cesc

Escolta, malcarada, que no es pot saber a on te'ls emmenes avui?

Rosa

Per fer-me prevaricar, oi? Buscau.

Cesc

A fe que em costarà força seguir les petges dels teus xais!...

(Soroll de les esquelles.)

Veu (des de dins)

Ei!... Cesc... què hem de fer?... No sents que el bestiar et frissa?...

(Sense dir-se res més, la Rosa aplega els xais i baixa pel camí de les feixes fent burles i ganyotes al Cesc, qui, taral·lejant la cançó popular A la torre xica, a la torre gran, entra a deixar el sac d'herba a la casa. L'escena queda sola. El dia ha anat creixent. S'ou al lluny la veu de la Rosa, qui tot anant-se'n canta la cançó mateixa del Cesc; mentre es fon la cançó, s'ouen acompassades les esquelles dels bous qui surten a la pastura i el flabiol del Cesc qui els acompanya tocant un ballet alegre.)

———

(Cortina)

Quadro II

Migdia

Una sesta ombrejada per corpulentes alzines. Al fons, grans muntanyes llunyanes, totes brillantes de sol. Una atmosfera caldejada de quietud i ensopiment ho invadeix tot. Els xais s'estan ajaguts a terra. La Rosa dorm tranquil·lament sota l'alzina de primer terme. Només s'ou molt llunyà l'esquellot dels bous i de tant en tant el flabiol del Cesc, que toca la cançó A la torre xica.

Pausa llarga

Escena I

La Rosa es desperta i es deixonda poc a poc. Amanyaga les ovelles i escolta satisfeta i somrienta el flabiol del Cesc. De prompte, plena d'alegria, es posa a cantar, també ella, la mateixa cançó.

Rosa (cantant)

A la torre xica
i a la torre gran
si n'hi ha una Rosa que l'estimen tant.

Bonic és lo lliri,
bonic és lo ram,
més ho és la rosa
que floreix tot l'any.

De tant que l'estimen
no la casaran;
se'n va a la riera a rentar el davantal.

Bonic és lo lliri,
bonic és lo ram,
més ho és la rosa
que floreix tot l'any.

Mentre l'en rentava
pensa el seu galan:
—Què fas aquí, Rosa,
què fas aquí tant?

Bonic és lo lliri,
bonic és lo ram,
més ho és la rosa
que floreix tot l'any.

Rento unes faldilles, també un davantal,
per anar bonica
la nit de Nadal.

Bonic és lo lliri,
bonic és lo ram,
més ho és la rosa
que floreix tot l'any.

Escena II

Apareix sobtadament el Cesc esclafint en una forta riallada.

Cesc

Alça, noia!.. Quina traça a refilar!.. Jo et feu, ni una cadernera!..

Rosa (contrariada)

Fastigós, més que fastigós!.. Més valdria que et cuidesses dels teus bous per comptes de venir aquí, que no hi tens cap feina.

Cesc

Que tens por que et destorbi les becaines?.. Vols tu jugar, que has dormit... pel cap més curt... tres horetes ben rebones? Sort que jo t'he vigilat els xais. Si no arribo a ser jo, no en tornaves cap a casa... Ves si has dormit!..

Rosa

Embustero, més que embustero; que no, que no he dormit.

Cesc

Que no has dormit?.. Deixa'm riure!... Ves si sents cap aucell per aquestos vols. Tot han fumut el camp; que s'han espantat de tant de gust que ronxaves.

Rosa

Oi, que ets graciós avui!... Ves, mira; si no marxes tant seguit crido els xais i... cap a casa.

Cesc

Bé, vaja... ja me n'aniré; empro, abans vull que endevinis una cosa. Mai diries què porto aquí al sarró?

(Mostrant-li el sarró que tapa amb les dugues mans.)

Rosa
(pensant encuriosida)

A dins el sarró!.. A dins el sarró!..

Cesc

Si ho endivines, te'n donaré. No ho saps?..
A la una... A les dugues... A les tres.

(De seguida i amb aires de triomf.)

Pinyes. I no et donaré pinyons perquè no ho has endevinat.

Rosa (sabent-li greu)

Doncs jo diré a l'amo que m'apedregues els xais i que deixes els braus tots sols.

Cesc

Doncs jo li diré que ronxes al mig del bosc i no els pastures.

Rosa

Doncs jo... mira.

(No sabent què dir, se li gira d'esquena, s'assenta en una pedra de sota l'alzina i es posa a taral·lejar una cançó. El Cesc se l'hi acosta rialler i li diu amb sorna a cau d'orella:)

Cesc
(ensenyant-li una pinya)

Vaja, té. Perquè em fas llàstima. Ja ho veus... et dono la més grossa.

Rosa
(vençuda, pren la pinya i diu en to suplicant)

Oi que no li diràs a l'amo que he dormit?

Cesc

No, dona, no. No veus que t'ho he dit per broma?

Rosa (animada)

Ens partirem tots els pinyons, oi?

Cesc

Tots.

Rosa

Au, som-hi.

Cesc
(despenjant-se el sarró)

Som-hi.

(Agafen pedres, s'assenten i comencen a espinyar.)

Cesc

Fins que et picaré els dits.

Rosa (pels pinyons)

Renoi, com salten!..

(La Rosa va trencant pinyons i menjant-se'ls mentre el Cesc esclafa les pinyes.)

Cesc

Ei! Ves que me'n guardis!..

Rosa
(rient i tirant-li les esclofolles per la cara, al temps que s'aixeca amb lleugeresa.)

Té, llaminer, perquè no et queixis.

Cesc
(aixecant-se i atrapant-la)

Malastruga!.. Aquesta sí que me la pagaràs.

(Subjectant-la pel braç, li embruta la cara amb la pinya que porta a la mà.)

No, si no escaparàs. Te vull guarnir tota la cara!..

(La Rosa fa lo que pot per a desempallegar-se del Cesc i, al lograr-ho, es gira d'esquena i es posa a plorar eixugant-se la cara amb les faldilles del davantal.)

Rosa

Estigues... deixa'm estar... (plorant)
Renyits per sempre.

Cesc

(assentant-se tranquil·lament i posant-se a trencar pinyons)

Renoi, quin geni!.. Que no vols més pinyons?.. Mira, me'ls menjo.

Rosa

(girant-se emmurriada)

Sí que en vull. Que són meus aquests d'aquí. (Ajupint-se i collint-los.)

Cesc

Vaja, seu, dona, que això no ha sigut res.

Rosa

(menjant pinyons s'assenta altra vegada fent l'enfadada encara.)

Tens unes bromes tu també!..

Cesc

No comencessis!..

(En aquest moment s'ou un tro llarg, fondo i llunyà.)
(Va enfosquint-se.)

Rosa (mig esverada)

Cesc!.. Sembla que trona!..

Cesc (escoltant)

Ca!.. Vols dir?

Rosa (distraient-se)

Saps que encara em fa coïssor la cara?

Cesc
(atrevint-se a tocar-la innocentment)

Com que ets tan fina!..

(Al tocar-la s'adona de la medalla que porta penjada al coll.)

Què portes aquí al coll?

Rosa

Una medalla.

Cesc

Una medalla?.. I per què la portes aquesta medalla?

Rosa

La padrina me la va donar perquè em guardés del dimoni.

Cesc

Del dimoni?.. Jesús, Maria, Josep!..

(Esclata un llamp i s'ou un altre tro llunyà.)

Rosa (poruga)

Veus com t'ho deia que plouria?

Cesc
(girant-se i apropant-se al fons per mirar millor la vall)

Sí que puja negror!

Rosa

Reina Santíssima!.. Tan lluny com som de casa!..

Cesc (tranquil)

Bé, i què?.. Això rai. Mira, ja porto un bon xopluc.

(Ensenyant-li el paraigües.)

(Els trons i els llamps se succeeixen cada vegada més a prop i més sovint. Tot el cel s'ha enfosquit. Comença a ploure.)

Rosa (molt intranquil·la)

Ai, Cesc! Jo me'n vaig!

Cesc

Fuig, dona! No veus que et mullaràs? Queda't amb mi sota el paraigües.

(Obre el paraigües i la obliga a que es resguardi de la pluja just amb ell.)

Veus?.. Aquí ben arrupits no ens mullarem.

Rosa

I si es fa nit?

Cesc

No tingas por que plogui tant! Acosta't força. No hi estàs bé aquí sota?

Rosa

Sí, però... tinc angúnia.

Cesc

I ara?.. De què?..

Rosa

No ho sé pas... A on deuen ésser els xais?..

(Esclata un llamp enlluernador seguit d'un tro fortíssim. Ensems s'ou l'esquellot dels braus sonant violentament.)

Cesc
(sobtadament esverat)

Ai, els braus que se m'esveren!...

(Surt de sota el paraigües i, agafant una pedra, la etziba.)

Ala, ala... (cridant) Roig... Roig!.. El Roig, el Roig que se m'estimba!

(Desapareix corrent i cridant desatinat.)

Rosa

(es queda un moment aclaparada i indecisa)

(Quan veu que el Cesc desapareix, es posa les faldilles al cap i arrenca a córrer darrere d'ell, cridant-lo.)

Cesc!.. Cesc!.. Espera'm!..

Cesc

(al lluny amb veu desesperada)

Roig!.. Roig!.. Roooooooig!..

(Els llamps i els trons es succeeixen ràpidament i la pluja és més forta que mai.)

———

(Cortina)

Quadro III

Capvespre

L'escena com al primer quadro, però al caient de la tarda. Es veuen al lluny els llums del poblet veí que comencen a resplendir en la fosca de la nit. Una quietud immensa s'aplana per tot.

Escena I

(El Cesc s'està apoiant a la porta del barri plorant desconsoladament, tapant-se el cap amb els braços i les mans. A poc surt la Rosa i s'apropa amorosament a n'ell, contemplant-lo uns moments apesarada, sense saber com aconsolar-lo.)

Rosa (en veu baixa)

Cesc... Cesc (tocant-lo).

Escolta, i ho has vist ben bé que s'estimbava el Roig?...

Cesc
(trigant a contestar i molt malhumorat)

Ni mai que ho hagués vist.

Rosa

Potser no es va morir?...

Cesc

Fuig, dona, fuig!... I doncs?... No saps per ventura com m'ha tret l'amo?

Rosa

Tant que t'ho deia jo, que no els deixessis tots sols als braus!...

Cesc (desesperant-se)

Maliatsiga!...

Rosa
(després d'una pausa)

I dons què faràs ara?...

Mira, em vols creure a mi?... Ves-te'n a casa teva.

Cesc (bruscament)

No hi vull anar a casa. No hi vull anar a casa.

Jo no vull que ho sàpiga el pare.

Rosa

Bé prou que l'hi diran demà els del poble que el Roig se t'ha estimbat!...

Cesc (entre sanglots)

El Roig!... El Roig!... No, no, jo no me'n vull anar.

Jo no me'n vull anar d'aquí.

(S'ouen a dintre el barri els lladrucs d'un gos.)

Rosa
(apropant-se al Cesc)

Psit!... Calla! Ves-te'n... Creu-me, si sortís l'amo!...

Ja has vist quin geni té!...

Cesc (plorant)

Jo vull el Roig!... El Roig!...

Veu (des de dins)

Rosa!... Rosa!...

Rosa
(tremolosa i espantada)

Ai, que em criden!... Me'n vaig, me'n vaig. Has sentit l'amo?

Cesc
(volguent-la deturar)

No te'n vagis!... No te'n vagis!...

Rosa

No puc, no puc! Deixa'm anar!...

Cesc (suplicant-la)

Roseta!...

Rosa

Adeu, adeu, que em renyarien.

Cesc

(tornant amb desesper a la seva dirà:)

El Roig!... Jo vull el Roig!...

Rosa

(Se'n va a poc a poc apesarada i mirant-se tristament al Cesc. De prompte, abans de desaparèixer, com il·luminada tota ella per una esperança salvadora, se torna a ell i, traient-se la medalla que porta al coll, l'hi dona en un transport d'ingènua fe.)

Cesc!... Cesc!... Té, té la medalla, que et portarà sort.

Au i au, no ploris. Adeu, adeu. Ves-te'n al poble.

(La Rosa se'n va tota esporuguida de que no la renyin.)

Escena II

(El Cesc, com no acabant de comprendre lo que l'hi passa, es queda immòbil al mig de l'escena guaitant-se la medalla i sanglotant. És nit i s'estén arreu un gran silenci interromput solsament pels sanglots ofegats d'enfúria que llença el Cesc. Després d'uns moments de completa quietud, la campana de la parròquia toca l'àngelus i s'ouen confosament les veus dels noiets qui reciten l'oració i canten les Ave Maries. El Cesc, al oir-ho, queda tot ell com concentrat en un consol inefable. Es treu, rústicament devot, la barretina i, ajuntant les dugues mans en actitud de súplica, es queda dret, amb els ulls mirant al cel. Després es torna a contemplar la medalla de la Rosa i, posant-se-la als llavis, la besa amb efusió i amb els ulls negats de llàgrimes.

La campana va tocant i les veus van fonent-se lentament.

Com atret per una força irresistible, el Cesc, completament inconscient, comença a caminar poc a poc i desapareix pel camí que mena al poble, avall... camí avall entre la fosca.

Les veus de la nit gronxen l'immens silenci dels espais.)
