

Save the date! Our 2nd webinar is about to take place

UrBIOfuture is organizing its second webinar "Educational gaps and skills mismatch in the European Bioeconomy" that will take place on January 22nd at 11:00 am (CET). During this e-learning session, the project partners will provide an introduction on the bioeconomy and its importance, they will present the educational gaps and skills mismatch in this field, and they will talk about the next actions of the project.

The webinar is free upon registration, so don't miss this chance and enlist yourself now!

SAVE THE DATE

UrBIOfuture
careers, education & research

UrBIOfuture Webinar
Educational gaps and skills mismatch in the European Bioeconomy

JANUARY 22
11:00 am - 12:00 pm (CET)

BBI

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101019718.

Register now

Map of educational programmes addressing curricula in the bio-based sector

The UrBIOfuture project carried out an exploration to identify educational programs related to the biobased industry. This map shows those found at a glance! If you want to include any other program or make changes to the existing ones, please, feel free to drop us a line to info@urbiofuture.eu

Job opportunities section on our website!

We have created a new section on our website to keep you posted about job opportunities, traineeships, and internships in the bio-based industry. Click on the image below and see all the openings.

JOB AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

BIO-BASED INDUSTRIES JOINT UNDERTAKING TRAINEESHIP PROGRAMME SUPPORT TO THE COMMUNICATION TEAM

BIO-BASED INDUSTRIES JOINT UNDERTAKING TRAINEESHIP PROGRAMME SUPPORT TO THE PROGRAMME UNIT

UrBIOfuture at the BBI Stakeholders Forum

Our partners Aleix Barrera, from UAB, and Gloria de la Viña, from CTA, attended the BBJIU Stakeholder Forum in Brussels, where they presented the UrBIOfuture project during a panel and at a stand, on December 3rd and 4th.

Why (so many) sessions about CSAs?

- Stakeholder Forum \(Dec\) 2017
  - Projects Day = 0,5 day
  - Included a well-appreciated CSA session...
  - ... and presentations from other 'bioeconomy' projects
- Dec 2019: 2 additional years of:
  - (new) CSA and other bioeconomy (non-BBI JU) projects
  - BBI JU and other project results
- LIFT project (CSA) will manage the plenary and parallel CSA sessions

Stakeholder Forum 2019 #BBISF19 @BBI2020

Read more

UrBIOfuture at the RM@Schools

On November 6th, UrBIOfuture was presented at the 4th European conference of the Raw MatTERS Ambassadors at Schools (RM@Schools) in Bologna, Italy.

The conference was organized by CNR, one of the UrBIOfuture partners, and it also counted with the participation of the UAB, project coordinator.

Over 400 students from Italian high-schools attended the event, as well as delegations of students and teachers from 14 European countries.

Read more

Did you miss our 1st webinar?

On November 19, we held our first webinar "Introduction to the EU Bioeconomy career opportunities". Several participants joined and had the chance to learn more about the career opportunities in the European bioeconomy.

If you missed it, don't worry, you can watch it online now on our YouTube channel!

Watch it now

Members of the working group and of the consortium speak about the project

Annalisa Aluigi, from CNR, and Rachel Clark, from IbioIC, spoke about the UrBIOfuture project and stressed the importance of sharing the knowledge on what the biobased industry is among schools in Europe, as well as training the students to become science ambassadors in the society.

Watch these and other interviews now on the UrBIOfuture YouTube channel!

Members of the working group and of the consortium speak about the project

Annalisa Aluigi, from CNR, and Rachel Clark, from IbioIC, spoke about the UrBIOfuture project and stressed the importance of sharing the knowledge on what the biobased industry is among schools in Europe, as well as training the students to become science ambassadors in the society. Watch these and other interviews now on the UrBIOfuture YouTube channel!

The UrBIOfuture experience is around the corner!

The UrBIOfuture Experience will take place between February and April with a set of materials and events hosted in our partners' countries. Stay tuned to our social media and website to find out more information!

THE URBIOFUTURE EXPERIENCE

- 9 EVENTS
- 5 BROCHURES
- 5 POSTERS
- 1 VIDEO

The infographic features a stylized green plant with white leaves and a white stem on the left. To the right, the text is arranged in a list format with icons for each item: a calendar for events, a brochure for brochures, a poster for posters, and a play button for video.

Happy to know about you!

Check out our website and don't hesitate to contact us to know more about this project. We really appreciate your feedback and collaboration to boost the UrBIOfuture Experience!

