night's work (including buffalo bill) by (& with illustrations by) charles bukowski —

whenever the landlord and landlady get beer-drunk she comes down here and knocks on my door and I go down and drink beer with them.
they sing old-time songs and he keeps drinking until he falls over backwards in his chair.
then I get up
tilt the chair up
and then he's back at the table again grabbing at a beer can.

the conversation always gets around to Buffalo Bill, they think Buffalo Bill is very funny. so I always ask, what's new with Buffalo Bill?

oh, he's in again. they locked him up. they came and got him.

why?

same thing. only this time it was a woman from the Jehovah's Witness. she rang his bell and was standing there talking to him and he showed her his thing, you know.

she came down and told me about it and I told her, 'why did you bother that man? why did you ring his bell? he wasn't doing anything to you!' but no, she had to go and tell the authorities.

he phoned me from the jail, 'well, I did it again!' 'why do you keep doing that? I asked him. 'I dunno,' he said, 'I dunno what makes me do that!' 'you shouldn't do that,' I told him. 'I know I shouldn't do that,' he told me.

how many times has he done that?

Oh, god, I dunno, 8 or 10 times. he's always doin' it. he's got a good lawyer, tho, he's got a damn good lawyer.

who'd you rent his place to?

oh, we don't rent his place, we always keep his place open for him. we like him. did I tell you the night he was drunk and out on the lawn naked and an airplane went overhead and he pointed to the lights, all you could see was the taillights and stuff and he pointed to the lights and yelled, 'I AM GOD, I PUT THOSE LIGHTS IN THE SKY!'

no, you didn't tell me about that.

have a beer first and I'll tell you about it

I had a beer first.

a little atomic bomb

o, just give me a little atomic bomb not too much just a little enough to kill a horse in the street but there aren't any horses in the street

well, enough to knock the flowers from a bowl but I don't see any flowers in a bowl enough then
to frighten my love
but I don't have any love

well
give me an atomic bomb then to scrub in my bathtub
like a dirty and lovable child

(I've got a bathtub)

just a little bomb, general, with pugnose
pink ears
smelling like underclothes in July

do you think I'm crazy?
I think you're crazy too

so the way you think:
send me one before somebody else does.

The colored Birds

it is a highrise apt. next door and he beats her at night and she screams and nobody stops it and I see her the next day standing in the driveway with huge curlers in her hair and she has her huge buttocks jammed into the same black slacks and she says, standing in the sun,
"god damn it, 24 hours a day in this place, I never go anywhere!"
and then he comes out, proud, the little matador, a Jewish pail of shit, his belly hanging all over his bathing trunks -- he might have been a handsome man once, might have,
now they both stand there and he says,
"I think I'm goin' for a swim."
she doesn't answer and he goes inside to the pool and dunks into the fishless, sandless water, the peroxide-codeine water, and I stand by the kitchen window drinking coffee trying to unboil the fuzzy, stinking picture -- after all, you can't live elbow to elbow to people without wanting to draw a number on them.
everytime my toilet flushes they can hear it. everytime they go to bed I can hear them.

soon she goes inside and then comes out with 2 large colored birds in a cage. I don't know what they are. they don't talk. they just move a little, always seeming to twitch their tail-feathers and shit. that's all they do.
she stands there looking at them.
he comes out: the little tuna, the little matador, out of the pool, a dripping unbeautiful white, the cloth of his wet suit gripping clearly against his balls.
"get those birds in the house!"
"but the birds need sun!"
"I said, 'get those birds in the house!!'
"the birds are gonna die!"
"you listen to me, I said, '--- GET THOSE BIRDS IN THE HOUSE!!'
she bends and lifts them, her huge buttocks in the same black slacks looking so sad.
he slams the door. then I hear it.
BAM!
she screams

BAM! BAM!

then: BAM!

and she screams

I pour another coffee and decide that that's a new one: he usually only beats her at night. it takes a man to beat his wife night and day. although he doesn't look like much he's one of the few real men around here.

Somebody always breaking my dainty solitude ...

hey man! somebody yells down to me through my broken window, ya wanna go down to the taco stand?

hell, no!

I scream from down on the floor.
why not? he asks.

I yell back, who are you?
none of us knows who we are, he states, I just thought maybe you wanted to go down to the taco stand.

please go away.

no, I'm comin' in.

listen, friend, I've got a half a foot of salami with greasy sides and the first fink walks in here, he's gonna get it in the side of his mouth!

don't mess with me, he answers, my mother played halfback for St. Purdy High for half a year before somebody found her squatting over one of the urinals.
oh yeah, well, I've got bugs in my hair, mice and fish in my pockets and Charles Atlas is in my bathroom shining my mirror.

with that, he leaves.

I get up, brush the beercans off my chest and yell at Atlas to get the humping hell out of there, I've got business.

fag, fag, fag

he wrote,
you are a humorless ass,
I was only pulling your leg about D. joining the Foreign Legion, and D. is about as much fag as Winston Churchill.

hmm, I thought, I am in contact with the greatest minds of my generation. clever! Winnie is dead so he can't be a fag.

you guys in California are fag-happy, all you do is sit around and think about fags. just the same I will send you the anti-war materials I and others wrote, although I doubt it will stop the war.

ten years ago he had sent me a photo of D. and himself at a picnic ground. D. was dressed in a Foreign Legion uniform, there was a bottle of wine, and a table with one tableleg crooked.

I thought it over for ten years and then answered:
I have nothing against 2 men sleeping together so long as I am not one of those 2 men.

I didn't infer which one was the fag.
anyway, today I got the anti-war materials in the mail, but he's right: it won't stop the war or anything else.

The Screw-Game

one of the terrible things is really being in bed night after night with a woman you no longer want to screw.

they get old, they don't look very good anymore — they even tend to snore, lose spirit.
so, in bed, you turn sometimes,
your foot touches hers —
god, awful! —
and the night is out there beyond the curtains
sealing you together
in the tomb.

and in the morning you go to the bathroom, pass in the hall, talk, say odd things; eggs fry, motors start.

but sitting across
you have 2 strangers
jamming toast into mouths burning the sullen head and gut with coffee.

in ten million places in America
it is the same —
stale lives propped against each other and no place to go.

you get in the car and you drive to work and there are more strangers there, most of them wives and husbands of somebody else, and besides the guillotine of work, they flirt and joke and pinch, sometimes tend to work off a quick screw somewhere -- they can't do it at home -- and then the drive back home waiting for Christmas or Labor Day or Sunday or something.
