

GAGAKU

not so much
  fun this morning
    writing my poem

a 17 year old
  interesting female
    resembling botticelli's
  venus
  invited
    me camping and I
    said no

told her I was in a
  writing streak

GAGAKU

they peek
  over the edge
    of a
  children's beach
    bucket

tiny demons
  with mini-caps on
little duck-bill caps
  baseball caps
with all the different
  teams
  represented by different colors and
  insignias

they have white teeth
  their teeth are both
  shining and flat finished now a grey now a yellow
    faded
  and now intensely
    hued
