

crawling

w/wayne keeler
underneath his house
we'd go behind the
rose trellis the place
never had a basement
so we could head in any direction be
in the dark & see day light i always used
a stick to knock away
spiders & scare off
snakes we crawled to
where we considered
the heart of the house
was & started trenching
out a shallow hole
wayne called his gold mine he was sure the stuff was down there & all we had to do was dig the most i ever found was an indian head penny dated 1898
we had to take turns
sitting in the hole it
was so small wayne used to talk about what he was going to do when he got all that money
i didn't care if he found gold or not i went down there to
mine the dark
