WORMWOOD subscriptions are now $7/4nos./year to all individuals and $9/4 nos./year to all institutions. A patron's subscription (when available) is $24 for four issues with poet-signed center-sections/chapbooks. Free inspection copies are not available because of our very limited press run; however, copies may be purchased at $3 per including first-class postage. Back issues 16-23, 25-44, 46-52, 54-70, 72-84, 86-91, 93, 94 and 96-104 are $3 per issue post-paid. Microfilm volumes of the magazine are available fm. University Microfilms, 3101 North Zeeb Rd., Ann Arbor MI 48106. Our contents are indexed in the Index of American Periodical Verse, available from Scarecrow Press, P.O. Box 656, Metuchen NJ 08840, and in the Annual Index to Poetry in Periodicals, available from Roth Publishing Inc., 185 Great Neck Rd., Great Neck NY 11021.

WORMWOOD mailings are made at no fixed times and a single mailing will consist of 2-4 issues. Nevertheless, our subscribers are guaranteed 4 issues in a year's time. The press cannot respond to subscriber claims when the issues in question have not been released for mailing to all of our subscribers. Please keep us informed of changes of address since the post office will not forward and only rarely will provide the new address. If this is done, delivery of paid-up copies to subscribers is guaranteed up through and including issue 120 (1990). For "instructions to authors" see WR:97, p. 40. WORMWOOD will not knowingly reprint an already published work. Reprint rights are re-assigned to the poet without cost, upon written request. Simultaneous submissions are not considered for publication. All work must be original. WORMWOOD: 105 composition completed 07 June 1987. Printing by Creative Printing: Printwell Press, Stockton CA.
