

"I know"

after he hung up I went in and took a pull at the weights (only 65 pounds), did ten overhead, ten gut pulls, ten arm lifts.

that was two months ago, I haven't lifted them since but we haven't been robbed either.

just more books stolen from the bookcase (many originals I'll never be able to replace) by friends who come by to drink my wine and talk and laugh with me.

there's no security system to detect that type except my own which has always known and which keeps failing for their sake which is no way to conduct any type of business, even this one.

GOOD MORNING, HOW ARE YOU?

$250,000 home, swimming pool, tennis court, sauna, 4 late model cars, a starlet wife; he was blond, young, broad-shouldered, great smile, great sense of humor.

he was an inventor, said his starlet wife.

but he always seemed to be home.

one afternoon

while he was playing tennis with his friends

two plain clothes cops

walked up

handcuffed him

took him

off.

it was in the papers the next day: he was a hit man wanted for killing over one hundred men.

what bothered the neighbors most was not who would move in next

but

when

had he found time to do it?
