

GAGAKU

perhaps we get controlled insanity

THE MUSEUM OF CONTROLLED MADNESS

sane
man looks both ways before
attempting to cross los angeles county
roads

in santa monica about once out of 10 times I drive
I see a fellow crossing at random
not looking at anything and walking
usually over a 4 lane packed speedy boulevard
he always wants to die
none of us
give it to him

we don't need aggravation and the papers and the red tape

GAGAKU

big bird chasing smaller bird away from
wild
birdseed

big fish chasing smaller fish away from fish food
big poet chasing smaller poet away from magazine
editor

the beasts
th' lovely beasts
have a tough time transcending nature

and nature needs transcending at times
