

CALL

Ann called this morning
& asked if I knew that William Stafford had died.
No I told her. She had met him a couple of times & said he was a wonderful person. Kind, generous, a man without ego. Very rare I thought, & I went into my daughter's old bedroom & searched thru poetry journals
until I found Smoke's Way.
Then read & listened to him.